The Parish Broadcaster

Vol. I—No. 1 PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER, 1926 By Mail, $1.00 Yeaaly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

Mr. Thomas Skelly, Advertising Manager, S. W. Corner Third and Market Streets.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Mrs. Annie Cooper, First Women's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Second Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
Richard Snell, Treasurer.

Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Annie Cooper, President.
Mrs. Margaret Gresh, Vice President.
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh, Secretary.
Mrs. Mary Corson, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

Mr. S. M. Hopson, Scoutmaster.
Mr. James Adgate, Assistant.
Mr. Samuel Warren, Assistant.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryn Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Women's Auxiliary		3:00
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

September 12—John Henry Dunne.
September 12—Sigrid Bertino.
September 12—Natala Bertino.
September 19—Charles Edward Seibert.
September 26—Michael Goff Clark.
October 3—Mildred Marie Walker.
October 10—Miriam Luzetta McKeown.

MARRIAGES

September 25—Charles Little and Pauline Schopfer.
October 2—William Geswein and Catharine Schock.

BURIALS

September 3—John Spratt.
September 9—James Sweeney, Jr.
September 18—Andrew Little.
September 23—Harry H. Brown.
September 24—Henry Herman Adams.

WHY DO WE NEED A PARISH PAPER?

Nobody has asked us this question. We are simply asking it ourselves so that we may have a question to answer. Our object is to place before our readers certain reasons for creating the PARISH BROADCASTER and what we hope to accomplish by it.

As to our reasons:—We have no means of reaching the occasional or negligent communicant of our parish because they are so irregular in their attendance that it is impossible for us to keep them informed of what we are doing. The result of this is they finally lose what faint interest they had in the church and drift away and are lost to us and perhaps to any Christian influence. Whereas, if they are kept constantly informed of what is actually occurring, sooner or later they will become interested to the extent of not only attending more regularly to Divine Service, supporting more generously the church activities, but also taking an active part in some parochial organization and thereby helping to make it a real success. Everybody likes to know that he belongs to a real live organization with lots of "pep" whether it is a secular or a religious organization. He takes pride in its success and likes to let folks know "he belongs."

As to what we hope to accomplish:—We hope to so knit the various interests of the parish so closely together that we will have a mutual interest in everything that is happening. With this in view we mean to attempt to publish in every issue the names of all infants and adults who are christened during the preceding month; we mean to record all the weddings, deaths and confirmations of the parish; we shall try to publish the names of the sick and how they are progressing. This information, of course, will depend entirely upon the information given us by the friends of the sick. We shall also try to keep the parish informed of the change of addresses of our communicants. Also, we mean to use the PARISH BROADCASTER as a medium of preaching sermons to those who do not come to church services.

All the news our readers find printed in THE PARISH BROADCASTER can be accepted as authentic. If you want to know what any of the parish organizations are doing, consult the PARISH BROADCASTER. Here will appear the latest news about the parish at large, the church in particular, the Sunday School, the Church Choir, the Woman's Auxiliary, The Young Women's Christian League, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the Seventy-Two Club, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Daughters of the King and St. John's Fellowship.

If this paper is to be interesting to all our members then all our members must help us make it interesting. If you belong to any of the above organizations and you know anything that will be interesting to any of its members, pass it on to the Editor. If you happen upon anything you think is worth while, hand it in; and whether it is accepted or not you may be assured your interest in our success will be greatly appreciated. Remember this:—THE PARISH BROADCASTER IS YOUR PAPER and its life depends upon your co-operation.

The Editor.

AS TO OUR ADVERTISERS

Advertising in a parish paper is generally looked upon by business men as a sort of a charitable contribution from which they expect little if any profitable results. We believe, on the whole, this may be right; but need it be so? Here is a magazine published in the interests of a Christian Church. It has a guaranteed issue of 1000 copies per month, 12,000 copies per year. Its rates are $1.00 per inch, which gives 12,000 inch ads spread through 12 months of the year with a privilege of changing the advertising matter at least once every month, at a cost of $12.00. A full page ad costs $20.00 per issue with a 10 per cent discount for a yearly contract. The magazine will be placed in the hands of the best people of the community, all of whom are consumers and folks who are used to cash purchases. Also we have already provided for an extensive mailing list which covers many of the best and influential persons of the city. All of which it seems to us ought to make advertising in the PARISH BROADCASTER a good investment.

Our 750 communicants can encourage our advertisers to continue their patronage by letting them know now and then that their advertisements have been seen in the BROADCASTER and that you appreciate it enough to "come in and buy."

EVERY PARISHIONER A PARTNER

Bishop Garland has launched his $3,500,000.00 campaign. The money is for better equipment for missions and church institutions. It is the first real business-like attempt ever made in this Diocese to finance and build up the missionary and institutional activities and deserves the best support each communicant of the church can give it.

It is a call to every member of the Protestant Episcopal Church in our Diocese. The Bishop's appeal is a demand upon the best efforts of our parish in particular. The compelling force behind it is our strong affection for him personally. We can never forget how staunch a friend he was to the parish of St. John the Evangelist when the parish needed a friend. Then again, as loyal churchmen, we must stand shoulder to shoulder with all churchmen in the work of spreading Christ's Kingdom.

The Campaign slogan is EVERY PARISHIONER A PARTNER. That means you and me. We are partners in putting over our Bishop's Campaign successfully. We certainly will be partners in the glory of accomplishment when the campaign is over.

Let's Make It a 100% Endeavor

ST. JOHN'S FELLOWSHIP

Another parish group which we hope will fall in line with the societies working for a fuller spiritual expression of the parish is ST. JOHN'S FELLOWSHIP. It is an organization of the finest young folks found in any parish on the earth. Up to the present the "Fellowship" has been in a more or less of an experimental state. Now we are merging into a working organization of permanency and stability. Heretofore we have been unidentified; we hope in the near future to tie up with the Fellowship movement of the Diocese. Our aim is in that direction.

Those of us who know and appreciate the wonderful spiritual value of the Fellowship movement are enthusiastic over this latest expression of our young people to greater activity in church life. Evidently the young folks are getting tired of all play and want to do something worth while.

More Power to Them!

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

Now we wonder why we hesitated so long to start a chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in our parish. Why the men of the parish have been standing 'round in groups waiting for someone to start things. Think of it! Only a few months old, born in the summer time and here we are with thirty members strong. It ought to be put the other way about, i. e., thirty strong members. We have had two installations in the brief period of our existence and on both occasions we have received men into our membership who are full of "pep." Our Thursday evening meetings are an inspiration and have brought a new standard of men's endeavor among us. We were told that a certain person made the remark that there is too much church and not enough social life in the Brotherhood. We wouldn't say that there is too much church in it, but we do acknowledge that the social side is running at a minimum, and we hope it continues to do so. What St. John's Parish needs is not more fun, but more consecration. The church is not a social club; it is the House of God dedicated to the salvation of man. We must never forget that for one instant. Whoever comes to the portals of our church seeking worldly pleasure is pressing the wrong front door button. The Social Club with all its paraphernalia is elsewhere. Our business is of a different character. We DO have fun and lots of it, but our emphasis is upon the things that pertain to the spirit. Our men are now engaged in visiting men—

1—To urge them to attend church
2—To urge them to join the Brotherhood
3—To urge them to come out strongly in God's Service
4—To urge them to help make the church work a success by helping the rector in every possible way.
5—To visit the sick in the parish, both men and boys; Brotherhood men or non-Brotherhood men.
6—To aid men materially by helping them get work if they are unemployed.
7—To do everything in their power to help every other church organization make a success in its specific field.
8—To take special notice of the death of any man or boy of the parish and always let the family of the deceased know that we are standing ready to serve in case of need.

Certainly those who were present at the last Installation Service of the Brotherhood must have been impressed with the personnel of the Chapter. Among them we found the majority of our dependable men. Mhe men whom all of us know are helping to make St. John's Church a leading spiritual force in the Community.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew is an organization which calls for the best men of the community. The big men who are big enough to see the real opportunity of the Church and seize it.

Want to Join?

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The reorganization of the Woman's Auxiliary this fall was very encouraging. It looks as though the women of the parish are awakening to their duties and responsibilities in this respect. All the offices were filled, all the committees were appointed and there were a goodly number of representative women at both our fall meetings.

It was considered advisable to hold the meetings on Wednesday afternoons at three o'clock. We ask the women of the parish to note the day and hour of the meeting and see that no other engagements are made for that time. It is the duty of every woman of the parish to attend the Woman's Auxiliary meetings. The only excuse that can possibly avail for one's absence is the one you can offer to God on your knees. All other excuses are void.

This year the Woman's Auxiliary means to try a new method of getting others interested in the Auxiliary work. One delegate has been appointed to represent our branch at each of the departmental meetings at the Church House. The delegate in turn is asked to invite another woman of the parish to go with her. We hope by this means to interest all our women parishioners in the Auxiliary activities eventually. The great trouble with our parish is we are not in touch with the big things that are happening outside our boundary lines and have never yet realized our relations to the National Church Movements that are making history.

Next Wednesday afternoon drop everything and attend to the Auxiliary meeting at 3.00 o'clock.

Giving a Dance? CALL
BLUEBIRD SERENADERS
Oregon 3822 R — WILLIAM MacVAUGH
Oregon 9782 M — GEORGE CRESSEE, Jr.

The Columbia Record Stove Company
MANUFACTURERS AND CONSTRUCTORS OF HEATERS, RANGES AND GAS RANGES
624-626 SOUTH SECOND STREET

THE DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

This, the youngest of all our parochial organizations, has now been functioning for but a few months, yet in that time it has demonstrated what a valuable addition it is to our parochial life. It is a national organization for women communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church who seek to serve God in a spiritual sense rather than in a material way. The motto of the Order is "PRAYER AND SERVICE" and, like the wedding service, it is not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly. All women desiring to affiliate with the order must enter upon a probationery period of three months before they can become full members. At the end of this period they must be willing to pledge themselves to a life of prayer and service before they are admitted to the Order or allowed to wear the Cross of the Daughters of the King.

As we have said before, the work of these women lies along spiritual lines. As individuals they are, of course, supposed to help, aid and assist every parish endeavor to raise money for the support of the church. But as members of the Order and acting as a unit of the Order they must confine their efforts to the spiritual development of the parish. In other words, the Daughters of the King as such are not permitted to take part in any effort to raise funds; but the Daughters of the King as private individuals, not representing the Order, are privileged, of course, to do all they possibly can to raise money.

In St. John's Parish the Daughters of the King have begun a most necessary and beautiful work in visiting the sick and the shut-ins of the neighborhood. Also they are taking an active interest in absentees from Sunday School and Church and are endeavoring to get all our women interested and actively engaged in the Woman's Auxiliary. Among other things they are planning to canvass the parish and learn how many families are without either Bibles or Prayer Books with a view to supply such needs wheresoever it is found. What more practical effort for the spread of Christ's Kingdom could be made?

Also, they have been asked to take full charge of the Chancel and Altar of the Church as this has ever been the special work of every Chapter of the Order. In requesting the D. of the K. to do this work the Rector desires to have it understood it is not a reflection upon those who heretofore have volunteered to do this service. He is very grateful to all who have rendered this volunteer service but in the interest of greater efficiency and regularity he feels that the D. of the K. ought to be held responsible for the condition of the Choir, the Chancel, the Lectern, the Pulpit, the Altar, the Altar Vessels and the Altar Flowers. Mrs. Laura Stenger and Mrs. Lena Keen have been appointed to solicit and accept contributions for the Flower Fund with the full endorsement of the Rector. If either of these women approach any member of the

F. BEATTY
Meats and Groceries
Corned Beef Our Specialty
1430 South Second St.
Bell Phone—Oregon 2054

GRANDE'S
Hair Cutting & Shaving
6 SOUTH THIRD ST. and
107 NORTH EIGHTH ST.

THE ORIGINAL SCHIFF BROTHERS
Cut-Rate Stationers
311 MARKET STREET

E. Bowen & Son
1018 SOUTH SECOND ST.

ANDREW HUDAK
Dry Goods and Notions
1712 South Second Street

A. J. COOPER
DRAYMAN
2135 South Twentieth Street

parish to ask for a contribution to the Flower Fund they do so with your Rector's full knowledge and consent.

Another feature connected with the Daughters of the King program is the study of the History of the Book of Common Prayer. On Wednesday evenings, after the opening service and business meeting, the study will begin. The Rector is earnestly hoping that sooner or later this part of their evening program can be made an open forum to which all may come, both men and women. It would be wonderful to start a series of such Christian educational subjects which could be attended by all.

May God bless our Chapter of the Daughters of the King. May it grow in numbers and in spiritual strength so that finally the life of every girl and woman of our church shall feel its sweet influence and be greatly and permanently affected by it.

Broadcasting From Station S T J

REMEMBER THE BAZAAR
THEN COMES CHRISTMAS

* * * *

"Willie, what is your greatest ambition?" "To wash Mother's ears."

* * * *

I RESOLVE

To keep my health;
To do my work;
To live;
To see to it I grow and gain and give;
Never to look behind me for an hour;
To wait in weakness and to walk in power;
But always fronting onward to the light;
Always, and always facing toward the right.
Robbed, starved, defeated, fallen, wide astray—
On, with what strength I have;
Back to the way.

—Charlotte Perkins Stetson.

* * * *

About 95 per cent of our members think our church is first cousin to an automobile tire and runs on air.

* * * *

When you change your address we are more interested than when you change your dress.

Palms Furnished With Family Trade

Wedding Bouquets a Specialty

CHRISTOPHER STROBEL

. . FLORIST . .

1330 South Second Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 3928

Funeral Designs

Fresh Cut Flowers Daily

?

Bell Phone, Oregon 3806

I. EDWARD MARSDEM

HARDWARE

1718-20 South Second Street

Oregon 5950

Jobbing Promptly Attended To

HARRY HUROWITZ

1609 SOUTH SECOND STREET

Plumbing and Heating Contractor

Registered

HOT LUNCHES Bell Oregon 5242 HOT BUNS, 5 P. M.

BIRD & McCORMICK

Fancy Cakes and Ice Cream

Wedding Cakes a Specialty

1713 SOUTH SECOND STREET

EDWARD VOM HOFE

Fine Fishing Tackle

C. A. GEIBEL, Gunsmith

LIVE BAIT—Fresh and Salt Water

Phone Lombard 6073

300 MARKET STREET

Compliments of

J. J. ROBINSON

The Parish Broadcaster

Vol. 1, No. 2 THANKSGIVING NUMBER, 1926 By Mail, $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

Mr. Thomas Skelly, Advertising Manager, S. W. Corner Third and Market Streets.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Mrs. Annie Cooper, First Women's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Second Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
Richard Snell, Treasurer.

Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Annie Cooper, President.
Mrs. Margaret Gresh, Vice President.
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh, Secretary.
Mrs. Mary Corson, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

Mr. S. M. Hopson, Scoutmaster.
Mr. James Adgate, Assistant.
Mr. Samuel Warren, Assistant.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryn Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Women's Auxiliary		3:00
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

October 21—Clarence William Anderson.
October 21—Grace Evelyn Anderson.
October 21—Vivian Violet Anderson.
November 7—Robert Earl Moser.

MARRIAGES

November 10—Ferdinand Clerico and Martha Wharton.

BURIALS

October 18—Harriet Wagner.
October 30—Maria Pugh.
November 1—Francis S. Morozzi.

IN MEMORIAM

STENGER—In sad but loving remembrance of Laura May Stenger, our dear daughter and sister, who departed this life November 16th, 1921.

Five years have passed since that sad day
When one we loved was called away;
God took her home—it was His will,
But in our hearts she is living still.

Sadly missed by MOTHER, FATHER, SISTERS & BROTHER.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Thanksgiving Day is coming! What sort of preparation are you making to observe it? Have you bought your tickets for the football game? Are you going to the country to spend the day with the folks at home? Are you going to the shore with friends and have a banquet and dance at one of the big hotels? Are you going to the theatre? Are you getting ready to have a whooping big Thanksgiving dinner with all the friends of the family present? Are you going to take a long automobile ride and eat your Thanksgiving dinner in some popular wayside inn?

And

ARE YOU GOING TO CHURCH TO RENDER THANKSGIVING TO ALMIGHTY GOD FOR ALL THE BLESSINGS HE HAS BESTOWED UPON YOU?

AN OPEN LETTER

My Dear Mr. N. O. Giver:

May I invite your attention to the following statement of our Coal Fund. It is a matter in which YOU, as well as WE, are seriously involved. We cannot refrain from saying that had YOU "done your bit," we would have no need to write you this open letter.

As you study these figures, may you be moved by a repentant desire to redeem your good name and standing in the church.

In checking up those who gave to the Coal Fund, we were surprised to note how some of the largest gifts came from those who were the least able to give; whilst those who, UP TO THIS TIME, have given nothing, in many cases can well afford to give twice as much as the givers.

The provoking feature of the situation, Mr. N. O. Giver, has always been that when YOU are taxed with your financial delinquency you try to draw a red herring over the trail by pretending to work yourself up into a fine frenzy and declare you have been insulted and that you will never have anything further to do with the church.

Very well, Mr. N. O. Giver, if you feel that way about it, just suppose you try those same tactics upon YOUR coal man and listen to his line of talk and his opinion of you. What HE tells YOU expresses OUR sentiments exactly; except WE are trying not to swear.

Not one word of what we are saying in this letter applies to any church member who cannot afford to give. We know who they are, and would rather give to their need than have them give to us. Their need is our opportunity and they MUST NOT apply this article to themselves.

Here are the facts:

Number of Church Members.....750

Number Contributing to Coal Fund, 174

Number Not Contributing to Coal Fund, 576

Think of it! Over 5-6 of our membership are related to N. O. Giver. They would permit the parish to default in the paying of an honest debt.

May God open your eyes that you may see your fault and move your hearts to give generously a portion of what He has so generously given you.

Affectionately,

YOUR RECTOR.

REMEMBER THE BAZAAR

EVERY PARISHIONER A PARTNER

Bishop Garland has started his campaign to raise $3,500,000.00 for the better equipment of missions and church institutions. The slogan that has been adopted is "EVERY PARISHIONER A PARTNER." This campaign cry can easily be converted into an accomplished fact if each of us will do our share.

Here is the Bishop's proposition in a sentence: He is asking 68,315 Communicants of the Diocese of Pennsylvania to contribute $3,500,000.00 for a very necessary purpose. Furthermore, he proposes to give us 5 years to redeem our pledges. It does not take a financial wizard to dope out the fact this means that each of us is asked TO GIVE LESS THAN 3 CENTS A DAY.

THE BISHOP IS TOO EASY ON US

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 28TH

is a most important day for every man and boy in the parish. It is the Sunday preceding St. Andrew's Day, November 30th. And it is the day we are asked to have the ANNUAL CORPORATE COMMUNION for all the male members of the parish.

SERVICE AT 9.00 A. M.

Every man and boy of the parish is expected to be present. Members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew are especially asked to attend.

THE BAZAAR

December 9th to 11th, inclusive, is the date of our Bazaar. Let's all get together and make it the best yet. We need material for all our tables, which are:

The fancy goods, the grocery, the fish pond, the rummage, the household, the candy, the Larkins, the kitchen, dolls, jewelry, lemonade, etc., etc.

After we have gotten together a fine assortment of things to sell, then let's go about and tell all the folks in the neighborhood about it and invite them to come and buy.

LET'S BEGIN NOW!

"I HAVE MARRIED A WIFE"

Once upon a time a rich man made a great feast and sent forth his servants to invite his friends to come and enjoy his hospitality. Our Lord says that many asked to be excused and gave the most trivial reasons why they could not come. Among others there was a man who said, "I have married a wife and therefore I cannot come."

What an odd excuse to offer.

Do you suppose the poor man meant to insinuate that he had married one of those strong-willed ladies who rule the "head" of the house with a rod of iron? Did he mean to say my wife won't let me? Perhaps he had married a very frail, delicate and sickly lady who could not be left alone for fear she might sud-

DAILY BIBLE PUZZLE

The object of this column is very simple. You are given a general subject. Then there is given a Bible Verse for each day of the month; also the Book in which the quotation is found. The puzzle is to locate the Chapter and Verse where the text is found.

Now dust off your Bibles and get busy. The subject for November is:

THANKSGIVING

Book — Chapter Verse

Deut.—"When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which He hath given thee." .....

Deut.—"Thou shalt rejoice before the Lord thy God." .....

Psalms—"Offer unto God thanksgiving." .....

Psalms—"Let Mount Zion rejoice, let the daughter of Juda be glad." .....

Psalms—"O sing unto the Lord a new song." .....

Psalms—"Enter into his gates with thanksgiving." .....

Psalms—"O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good; for his mercy endureth forever." .....

Psalms—"Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness." .....

Psalms—"Let them sacrifice with sacrifices for thanksgiving." .....

Psalms—"Praise the Lord for the Lord is good." .....

Psalms—"Praise the Lord O Jerusalem; praise thy God O Zion." .....

Psalms—"Honor the Lord with thy substance, and with the first fruits of thine increase." .....

Joel—"Ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you." .....

Book — Chapter Verse

Ecc.—"In the day of prosperity be joyful." .....

Mark—"Go home to thy friends and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee." .....

Rom.—"He that eateth, eateth to the Lord and giveth God thanks." .....

Eph.—"Giving thanks always for all things." .....

Phil.—"In everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made unto God." .....

Col.—"Giving thanks unto the Father." .....

Col.—"Be ye thankful." .....

Col.—"Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him." .....

Col.—"Continue in Prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving." .....

I Tim.—"In everything give thanks." .....

I Tim.—"I exhort therefore, that giving of thanks be made for all men." .....

I Tim.—"Meats, which God had created to be received with thanksgiving." .....

I Tim.—For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving." .....

Heb.—"By him therefore let us offer the sacrifices of praise to God continually that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name." .....

Jas.—"Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted." .....

Acts—"Whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage." .....

I Tim.—"I thank Christ Jesus our Lord." .....

denly collapse and die. Maybe she was a hard working woman in the midst of house cleaning and needed him around to beat the rugs and wipe the furniture. Or possibly she wanted to go shopping or make a social call herself and he had to stay home to mind the babies. Again, she may have wanted to go to the ——— but no, that could not be for there were no "movies" in the day the story was told. Just why, do you suppose, that man could not go to that feast?

Sometimes, when I read that story, I wonder if our Lord could possibly have known that that very excuse was going to be worn threadbare by folks of this day and generation as their reason for not attending church.

It seems to be that the ladies of today are just as hard upon their poor husbands as they were "once upon a time." They have no consideration whatever for the poor down-trodden male sex. They want to go to church, but their wives won't let them. Whoever would have thought that the ladies would develop such a wilful disposition just as soon as they get married! Before the wedding you could always be sure of seeing the two at every service, snuggled up close together on the back pews like two turtle doves and holding hands and looking ridiculously entranced. He would find the proper place in the Prayer Book or Hymnal, and she would lean against him and look up into his proud, manly face with such a soulful expression of adoration and dependence that you busybodies who should have had your eyes and minds on other and holy things would stare fascinated and your hearts would skip a beat and you would think to yourself, "Isn't she adorable." Yet this same little woman is only too often accused after the ceremony of not letting poor hubby come to church.

After all maybe it is not her fault. Perhaps that man has basely deceived the poor little lady. Instead of being the hero she fondly thought him before marriage he has revealed his true and terrible nature; he has shown the cloven foot; he has proved himself a hypocrite, and is even now inventing an excuse for the sole purpose of throwing all the blame on her for not coming to church any more.

We confess we are terribly perplexed over this whole affair. WHY DON'T THE NEWLYWEDS COME TO CHURCH AS THEY USED TO DO?

Which one is to blame. Is the woman the desperate creature the man would have us think, or is the man following in the footsteps of our father Adam and hypocritically saying it's her fault; when he is as much to blame as she, if not more?

Isn't it true that the wedding march is the valedictory of both the bride and the groom, so far as church attendance is concerned?

We wonder if they are nearly as happy away from the church as they were when they were lovers and the church was their trysting place.

What is there in married life that turns all our sweet young women and manly young fellows against the church after they wed?

We wish that all the young folk we united in wedlock would get together, hold a conference and after due deliberation give us the answer to the riddle.

BUT DON'T BLAME IT ON THE BABY!

REMEMBER THE BAZAAR
THEN COMES CHRISTMAS

Broadcasting From Station S T J

The Seer:—"Tell me how many excuses you have made today and I will tell you how many lies you have told."

* * * *

The only popular detour is the one around duty."

—Cincinnati Enquirer.

* * * *

Our Thanksgiving Text—Psalm 138:1.

* * * * *

Almost every Sunday afternoon we have 100% of our Sunday School teachers present.

* * * * *

Salvation's free, but coal is $15.75 per ton. Please pay your $1.00 to the Coal Fund.

* * * * *

Bishop Garland's wish—"Every parishioner a partner."

* * * * *

$3,500,000.00 ÷ 68,315 Communicants=$51.25

* * * * *

And you have 5 years to pay up.

* * * * *

Which is less than 3 cents a day.

* * * * *

Do we "do our bit" to help the Bishop raise that $3,500,000.00?

* * * * *

REMEMBER THE BAZAAR
December 9-10-11

* * * * *

REMEMBER THE BAZAAR
THEN COMES CHRISTMAS

* * * *

Does anybody in this great big parish know any

F. BEATTY

Meats and Groceries

Corned Beef Our Specialty

1430 South Second St.

Bell Phone—Oregon 2054

E. Bowen & Son

1018 SOUTH SECOND ST.

A. J. COOPER
DRAYMAN
2135 South Twentieth Street
Phone: Oregon 4197-M

Giving a Dance? CALL
BLUEBIRD SERENADERS
Oregon 3822 R — WILLIAM MacVAUGH
Oregon 9782 M — GEORGE CRESSEE, Jr.

MRS. T. PEARSALL
DOLL HOSPITAL
1232 South Second Street

Philadelphia Bag Co.
BURLAP AND COTTON BAGS
Water and Dickinson Streets

good reason why folks should refuse to do things the Rector asks them to do and then expect him to do everything they ask him to do whether it is possible or not?

* * * *

Have you any Church Envelopes left?
WHY?

THE OPTIMIST GALORE

When you have bunions on your feet,
Bear them with resignation sweet,
For you are fortunate indeed;
Suppose you were a centipede!

Be patient when your throat is sore;
You haven't any cause to roar;
At ills like these you well may laugh;
Be thankful you are no giraffe!

If rheumatism in your limbs
Your happiness at times bedims,
You haven't any right to cuss—
Suppose you were an octopus!

And if the toothache bothers you,
Consider that your teeth are few
Compared to those which you remark
Upon the jawbone of a shark!

And if this blithe philosophy
For which I did not charge a fee,
Does not appear to do you good—
Oh, well, I didn't think it would.

—Wisconsin Octopus.

William G. Gesswein

Light Hauling

1227 South Third Street

J. RHEA CRAIG, JR.

Realtor and Conveyancer

Building Associations 3d and Tasker Sts.

Palms Furnished With Family Trade

Wedding Bouquets a Specialty

CHRISTOPHER STROBEL

. . FLORIST . .

1330 South Second Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 3928

Funeral Designs Fresh Cut Flowers Daily

?

Bell Phone, Oregon 3806

I. EDWARD MARSDEN

HARDWARE

1718-20 South Second Street

Bell Telephone Notary Public for Pennsylvania
Commissioner of Deeds for New York and New Jersey

J. L. Atkinson & SON

(J. POWELL ATKINSON)

Conveyancers and Real Estate Brokers

1400 MOYAMENSING AVENUE

Near Third and Reed Sts.

Houses Bought, Sold, Rented and Exchanged
Deeds, Wills and Legal Instruments Skillfully Drawn
All Kinds of Insurance Effected

Compliments of

J. J. ROBINSON

HOT LUNCHES Bell Oregon 5242 HOT BUNS, 5 P. M.

BIRD & McCORMICK

Fancy Cakes and Ice Cream Wedding Cakes a Specialty

1713 SOUTH SECOND STREET

The Parish Broadcaster

Vol. 1, No. 3 CHRISTMAS NUMBER, 1926 By Mail, $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

Mr. Thomas Skelly, Advertising Manager, S. W. Corner Third and Market Streets.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Mrs. Annie Cooper, First Women's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Second Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
Richard Snell, Treasurer.

Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Annie Cooper, President.
Mrs. Margaret Gresh, Vice President.
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh, Secretary.
Mrs. Mary Corson, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Laura Stenger, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

Mr. S. M. Hopson, Scoutmaster.
Mr. James Adgate, Assistant.
Mr. Samuel Warren, Assistant.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryn Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Women's Auxiliary		3:00
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

November 21—Anna May Spratt.
November 28—Edward Joseph Olsen.
December 5—Ellen Campbell.

BURIALS

December 1—Charles Edward Seibert.

THE CHRISTMAS PRESENT

What did Santa Claus bring you?

You and I will be asked that question over and over again on Christmas day.

Suppose Santa brings you only cards and candy and cheap little trifles. How will you answer the question—with a grin and a chuckle or a blush of shame?

Let me tell you a little story; every word of which is true:

Several years ago a little woman with a sad little face and a sad little voice came to the writer and told him of her husband's evil ways and how she and her family of five little children were forced to beg to keep from starving. She did not come to ask alms this time, however; she came to ask what could be done with "her John" to make him a better man.

The writer asked her to bring John in some day and we would see what sort of a fellow he was and whether anything could be done with or for him.

She left and in less than a half hour she returned with a great, big, sandy haired Irishman in tow, who was a sight to behold. His face was bloated and dirty, his eyes were bleary, his hands were dirty and his finger nails were black. His clothing was in the last state of raggedness and dirt. And his breath was like a distillery blown up. In fact, he was such an awesome picture of debauchery and evil that we felt a little quake of fear on beholding him.

However, when we glanced from him to the neat, clean, sad faced little woman by his side, who just then was saying with tears in her voice, "My John was not always like this, he was a handsome man when we married, weren't you John?"

Somehow we lost our fear and determined, God helping us, we would do our best to restore John to his former state of manhood.

To make a long story short, with the help of God we succeeded beyond our wildest expectations, and today "her John" is a successful business man, supporting his family.

After things got going pretty well with them, one Christmas day we received a bunch of Christmas post cards—one from each member of the family wishing us a Merry Christmas, because we had been God's instrument in bringing a Merry Christmas and a converted and restored husband and father back to the family circle to make them glad.

Tell us, you folks who will receive rich presents on Christmas, do you think for one moment that though your gifts may total up to hundreds of dollars, we would give you even one of those postal cards —which cost one cent each—for all your presents put together?

No, siree! Money cannot buy that set of Christmas cards, and every time we think of them we chuckle and grin because that was the best Christmas present we ever got in all our life.

Hope you will get such a present some time, then you, too, will have a real

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

THEN AND NOW

Fifteen years ago St. John's Parish was blood relation to the Kentucky "houn' dawg" and everybody who passed by seemed to feel it a duty, if not a pleasure, to pass it a few choice slams as to its general-good-for-nothing-uselessness and that its room was much more to be desired than its gloomy company.

When we came along and found the poor little thing, it didn't have much more than a feeble wag in its tiny little tail. All the rest of it was over the border in the shadowland. Now a tail is only a tail; or, in high-brow language, a caudal appendage, and mostly always don't appear to have much value. Sometimes though it comes in handy as a handle to pull the rest of the carcass through a hole in the fence.

We are not sure we thought these things then; but we did get a grip on that fast disappearing remains of the parish, and we began to pull and haul and grunt and sweat for fifteen long, happy years, until we got all the rest of it this side of the fence. And now we gaze upon what we grabbed and my, what an animal we have got on our hands!

This unproductive little dead thing of fifteen years ago is standing up, right in front of the whole Diocese, and saying to all and sundry folk—"Just see what this Diocese would have missed if somebody hadn't pulled my tail and brought me back to life."

Here we are with 389 pledges, amounting to $12,180.00, to give to the Bishop's Campaign, and to astound all good churchmen by performing the miracle of fetching strength out of weakness.

From the very start there were some folks mean enough to jeer at our resuscitated parish, and try to steal away its glory by saying how it won't stay big and strong, and anyhow it is being fed and nourished by something or other that keeps it going.

Sure it is! But we don't mean it the way they do. It is being fed and nourished by the Spirit of God, who has given us courage and strength to hold on to that tail these fifteen years, 'till now it can pay back to the Diocese an hundredfold for all that the Diocese did for it.

But we mustn't get a swelled head this Merry Christmastide.

THE BOY SCOUT AND HIS ORGANIZATION

Often you have seen him in uniform on the street, perhaps on his way to a troop meeting, or it may be, on some civic duty. Again, he has greeted you with his cheery smile at church doing his bit to uphold the twelfth Scout Law. Frequently you have seen him on country road or lane, marching steadily or Scout-pacing it towards camp.

No doubt, like other mothers and fathers who perhaps are rather unfamiliar with the Scout Movement, you have wondered just what are the Scout's aims. Why this great interest shown by so many American boys of today in the Scout Movement? Is it true, as many think, that they are drawn by the uniforms and the insignia? Is the movement designed to develop the military spirit? Or is there something big and fine, something idealistic and worthwhile in the movement.

Scouting is tremendously worthwhile. Its ideals are high and noble. Scouts are urged to live with the Scout spirit of helpfulness uppermost in their minds. "Be Prepared" and "Do a Good Turn Daily" are the mottoes which they are urged to stamp upon their lives. Be prepared to save life, to render assistance in any emergency, to give help wherever needed; particularly to the weak and the elderly.

Thus a Scout promises: "On my honor I will do my best.

"1. To do my duty to God and my Country, and to obey the Scout Law;

"2. To help other people at all times;

"3. To keep myself physically strong, mentally

DAILY BIBLE PUZZLE

THE NATIVITY

	Book	Chap.	Ver.
"His name shall be called wonderful, counsellor, the mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace."	Isaiah
"Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God."	Isaiah
"Behold the Lord God will come with strong hand and his arm shall rule for him."	Isaiah
"The Lord whom ye seek shall suddenly come."	Mal
"Behold a virgin shall be with child and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call him Emanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us."	St. Matt
"In the beginning was the word, and the word with with God, and the word was God."	St. John
"The holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God."	St. Luke
"The holy child Jesus."	Acts
"Behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Jesus."	St. Luke
"She brought forth her first born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger."	St. Luke
"Blessed art thou among women."	St. Luke
"Behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed."	St. Luke
"Unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord"	St. Luke
"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."	St. Luke
"His name was called Jesus."	St. Luke
"A light to lighten the Gentiles and the glory of thy people Israel."	St. Luke

	Book	Chap.	Ver.
"Where is he that is born king of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east and have come to worship him."	St. Matt
"When they saw his star they rejoiced with exceeding great joy."	St. Matt
"He took the young child and his mother and departed into Egypt."	St. Matt
"When they were come into the house, they saw the young child and his mother, and fell down and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts: gold, frankincense and myrrh."	St. Matt
"Arise, take the young child and his mother and go into the land of Israel."	St. Matt
"Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceedingly wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coast thereof, from two years old and under."	St. Matt
"He shall be called a Nazarene."	St. Matt
"He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not."	St. John
"In him was life, and the life was the light of men."	St. John
"There standeth one among you whom ye know not."	St. John
"I am not the Christ."	St. John
"Behold the lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world."	St. John
"God sendeth His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh."	Romans
"Of whom, as concerning the flesh, Christ came."	Romans
"Great is the mystery of godliness; God was manifested in the flesh."	I Tim awake and morally straight."

Could any promise be more ideal and more practical? Many Scouts make real this ideal in their lives and countless others give it a real trial.

On the physical side of the program a great deal is done to lead the boys into a love of the outdoors and to a true appreciation of the laws of hygiene and physical health. First aid is taught and the laws of physical health are emphasized. Camping and hiking are encouraged.

Those who have had the privilege of camping out can appreciate what this means to a city boy. Scouts have their individual troop camps from time to time during the year. Then in the summer many are privileged to attend for a week or two an Official Scout Camp. Those who get in on this have one of the most enjoyable and profitable experiences of their lives. Swimming, boating, tracing animals and birds by tracking, in short learning much of nature and its great woods wherein grow noble trees, beautiful shrubs and flowers. In camp the Scout receives a broadening and building up of his education and health. Scouts who visit Treasure Island never forget the Camp and Council Fires with their stunts, stories, songs and Indian dancing. Here the boys receive the best instruction possible concerning the many sides of outdoor life. Scout camp life is the best ever.

Such are a few practical points which I trust may be of interest to parents and the friends of Scouts as well as to any who wish to know more of the motives, aims and spirit of the movement. It's a real live organization with a real live purpose for the real live American boy and as such is worthy of our encouragement and support.

S. M. Hopson, Scoutmaster.

Their Doom

"Do you know where the little boys go who don't put their Sunday School money in the plate?"

"Yes; to the pictures."—The Continent.

OUR 100 PER CENT. CLASSES

There is always one sure way of gauging the ability of a Sunday School teacher, and that is to watch and see how the class grows and how successful he or she is in catching and holding the interest of the scholars, so that they want to come to Sunday School.

A Sunday School teacher needs to possess even more ability and imagination than does a Public School teacher. The latter always has authority and the power to compel attendance behind her. The Sunday School teachers have back of them only the power of personality and ability to teach interestingly.

It is a great thing to be a successful Sunday School teacher, and we of St. John's Parish are most fortunate and have every reason to be proud of our teaching staff. Our teachers always have a high per centage of their class membership present, which attests to their ability as teachers.

But, even with such a staff of teachers, it is exceptional to have 100 per cent. of the class membership present on Sundays. We ought to have a Roll of Honor for all classes who are so fortunate as to have a perfect record. With this thought in mind we begin in this number of the "Broadcaster" to publish the names of the members of all classes attaining perfect attendance. This month we report the following:

Miss Catherine Rutter, Teacher.
James McCall.
Edward Pine.
George Murphy.
William Krouse.

Miss Elizabeth Bowers, Teacher.
Ethel Sutterlin.
Thelma Sutterlin.
Florence Friend.
Warnetta Hart.
Eleanor Warner.
Mildred Dean.
Dorothy Ashman.
Helen Ashman.

Miss Martha Schmidt, Teacher.
Miss May Pine.
Miss Anna Warren.

Eva Rutters.
Mary Henry.
Elizabeth Kaleasse.
Dorothy Stenger.

Just a word relative to Miss Schmidt's Class. The reason why it is so small in numbers is because many of our teachers who are doing such able work are graduates of this class. It is the teacher's training class.

FELLOWSHIP

Adelia Pearo

The fellowship is a young organization of the church. It is made up of spiritual boys and girls of the parish.

The boys and girls are steady members of the Church and Sunday School. Always ready to do something for somebody else, if it is in their power.

These boys and girls are made up of the right stuff, as you might call it. They are the future runners of the Church. They will try to carry the parish

F. BEATTY
Meats and Groceries
Corned Beef Our Specialty
1430 South Second St.
Bell Phone—Oregon 2054

E. Bowen & Son
1018 SOUTH SECOND ST.

A. J. COOPER
DRAYMAN
2135 South Twentieth Street
Phone: Oregon 4197-M

Giving a Dance? CALL
BLUEBIRD SERENADERS
Oregon 3822 R — WILLIAM MacVAUGH
Oregon 9782 M — GEORGE CRESSEE, Jr.

MRS. T. PEARSALL
DOLL HOSPITAL
1232 South Second Street

Philadelphia Bag Co.
BURLAP AND COTTON BAGS
Water and Dickinson Streets

to its very best; and will help the Church by every means.

The Fellowship is getting along well now, and will go well to the very end. As soon as we get fifty members we will send our membership to the church house and will be a regular organization of the Diocese.

A GIRL SCOUT

The ten Scout Laws teach her to be physically needs special training and guidance in order to prepare her for her future duties in life. The chief aim of the Girl Scout Movement today is to prepare the girl for these big duties of life.

Through its motto the girl learns quickly to be prepared and ready to meet with any duty or responsibility that presents itself. She learns to think clearly and to act quickly.

Then ten Scout Laws teach her to be physically strong, mentally awake, and morally efficient. Physically strong, because the girl learns how to care for her body and how to use it to the best of her ability; mentally awake, because she learns to think clearly and accurately and to express well her thoughts, also to act for herself; morally strong, because she learns her duty to her God, Country and Fellowmen. She learns to realize the responsibility of citizenship and her duty to mankind.

The aim of the Girl Scout Movement is high, and girls coming under its influence are guided in the right road towards a happy future. By following its aim and principle the girl finds very little chance to stray.—Marion M. Bruch, Captain.

You Don't Have to Tell It—They Know It

You don't have to tell how you live each day,
You don't have to say if you work or you play;
A tried, true barometer serves in the place—
However you live, it will show in your face.

The false, the deceit, that you bear in your heart
Will not stay inside where it first got the start;
For sinew and blood are a thin veil of lace—
What you wear in your heart you wear in your face.

If you've gambled and won in the great game of life,
If you feel you have conquered the sorrow and strife;
If you've played the game fair and you stand on first base—
You don't have to say so, it shows on your face.

If you dissipate nights till the day is most nigh
There is only one tattler, and one that won't lie;
Since your facial barometer is right in its place—
You don't have to tell folks, it shows in your face.

If your life is unselfish, if for others you live,
For not what you get, but how much you can give;
If you live close to God in His infinite grace—
You don't have to tell it, it shows in your face.

Church Chimes, Shreveport, La.

Model Products Company

Electric & Commercial SIGNS

Southwest Corner
Ninth & Venango Streets
PHILADELPHIA

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

Beautiful Gifts
FOR ALL THE FAMILY
Store Orders Accepted
S. GROSS
1614 South Second Stree

Broadcasting From Station S T J

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL

* * * * *

Let's Make An Extra Effort To Receive Our Christmas Communion

* * * * *

Remember your Christmas Envelope.

* * * * *

Hope you get just what you want for Christmas.

* * * * *

Hope none of us get what we deserve for Christmas.

* * * * *

We were delighted to get a long letter from Mrs. Gerhart, of Wildwood, N. J. Hope to see her and her family on Christmas day.

* * * * *

Do not forget that Christmas is the birthday of Jesus Christ.

* * * * *

Your Christmas Envelopes will be your birthday present to Jesus Christ. See that its contents are a worthy gift to so great a person.

* * * * *

The Names of all Who Return Their Christmas Envelopes Will be Published in the New Year's Number of the Parish Broadcaster. Be Sure Your Name Appears

MY CREED OF THE OUT-OF-DOORS

By Rudolph Carl Stroll

I believe in the wonder of the out-of-doors,
In the inspiration of the stars,
And in the allurements of life in the open.

I believe in the strength of the hills,
In the silence of the night,
And in the music of the birds and trees.

I believe also that my body was made for action,
That my mind was made for thinking,
And that my heart was made for loving
In unison with the life in nature.

I believe that to laugh and to sing,
To swim and walk, to study and play,
To eat and be happy, to be kind and free.
To grow strong and good is my God-given right.

I believe, too, that to be happy I must be good,
That to be worthy I must be kind,
That to be loved I must think love.

I believe that God is as near as man,
That I can hear Him in the brooks and pines,
And that happiness and lasting peace are mine,
And I live in the atmosphere of kindness,
So near me in the life of the open road.

Be Right On Top

Wear a HILBORN HAT

$4.00—$5.00

STETSON . . $8.00
SCHOBLE . . $6.00

D. S. HILBORN

...The Hatter...

218 Market St.

ROBERT McGAHEY, Manager

Established 1877

DIAMONDS

Watches and Jewelry

Guaranteed Savings, 25% Appraisements, 1%

CHAS. H. DEAN 119 S. Eighth St.

Bell Phone—Jackson 1887 Fresh Cut Flowers Daily

Kathryn's Floral Shop Funeral Designs Wedding Bouquets

1727 SOUTH SECOND STREET

Artificial Flowers and Flower Baskets Always on Hand

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.

WHOLESALE

MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY

QUALITY

402-404 N. SECOND STREET

PHILADELPHIA

G. H. GEILFUS

Christmas Candies

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

1444 South Second Street

Corner Dickinson Street

THOMAS MAGEE

Printer :-: Stationer :-: Engraver

Well Selected Stock of . . . CHRISTMAS CARDS

44 South Second Street

The Parish Broadcaster

Vol. I, No. 4. NEW YEAR NUMBER, 1927. By Mail, $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

Mr. Thomas Skelly, Advertising Manager, S. W. Corner Third and Market Streets.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Mrs. Annie Cooper, First Women's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Second Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
Richard Snell, Treasurer.

Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Annie Cooper, President.
Mrs. Margaret Gresh, Vice President.
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh, Secretary.
Mrs. Mary Corson, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Laura Stenger, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

Mr. S. M. Hopson, Scoutmaster.
Mr. James Adgate, Assistant.
Mr. Samuel Warren, Assistant.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryn Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Women's Auxiliary		3:00
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

December 19—Loraine May Jeffers.

1927

January 2—Harry Cresson McHenry Moore
January 9—Katherine Gertrude Diamond

BURIALS

December 10—Ella F. Mills.
December 17—Sallie A. Bristow.
December 28—Theodosia Logue.

THE BISHOP'S CRUSADE

This has been a year of big things for our parish, as well as for the church at large. Scarcely had we settled down to work after our summer's vacation than we were preparing our plunge into the Bishop's Campaign to raise $3,500,000 for missions and church institutions. The amazing success of our parish in that undertaking is now past history.

Twenty-four hours after the official closing of the campaign the parish opened its Bazaar, which proved to be one of the greatest events of the year, both financially and socially. Fourteen days after that happy event we were right up against Christmas and all its bewildering demands and details.

Now that we have come through that period of activity, dead tired but happy, we find ourselves face to face with the biggest job of them all. We refer to the BISHOP'S CRUSADE.

This idea germinated in the General Convention of the Church held in New Orleans. A National Commission on Evangelism was appointed, with headquarters at Mount St. Albans, Washington, D. C., and the Rt. Rev. Thomas Campbell Darst, D. D., Bishop of East Carolina, was made chairman. This commission has been steadily at work and is calling upon the church-at-large to enter into a national Crusade during Epiphany of this church year.

The object of the Crusade is to call upon the members of the church to rededicate themselves to Jesus Christ as our Lord, and to demonstrate this allegiance by a prayerful and earnest effort to bring other souls into God's Kingdom.

IN OTHER WORDS, IT IS A NATIONAL SPIRITUAL REVIVAL.

Now, in order to have a successful revival in the church, every man and woman, young and old, must take an active part. Some of the things we hope to attain are:

1. Confession of Christ openly before men as our Lord and Saviour—not only with our lips, but in our lives.
2. Regular daily individual and family prayer.
3. Daily Bible Reading.
4. Seeking spiritual strength in worship and the Holy Communion.
5. Bringing others to Jesus Christ.
6. Earnestly combating worldliness by more consistent practice of Christian virtues.

St. John's Parish has reached this stage in her development, and now we ought to be ready to enter into a revival aggressively and lead in it the same as we led in the Bishop's Campaign. Our parish made an enviable reputation for itself on that occasion; let us repeat in this higher endeavor. Let us show the Church at large that we are big in everything—big in numbers, big in activity, big in spiritual experience.

Your rector has already appointed Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., as Chairman of an Executive Committee, and a program for a parochial revival is under way. The Executive Committee will appoint committee men and women in every district of the parish, with the understanding that if any such appointee fails to try to bring his or her district in line of active co-operation the Committee will replace such a district leader with a more active worker.

We do this because what we are undertaking is too big to be trifled with, and we are sounding this warning now because nobody has been chosen yet to serve as District Lieutenant, so that no one can say he or she is being discriminated against if they fail to do their duty and are removed. The Executive Committee will make up a reserve force of men and women, who will be drafted to fill the places of any who fail.

Besides this active committee's work, every man and woman, boy and girl communicant of the parish, is asked to repeat daily the following:

"Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who, with Thy Son, Jesus Christ, hast given us all things in heaven and earth, we beseech Thee to make us a thousandfold more useful to Thee than ever before, that so Thy power and blessing may flow through us to multitudes of others, who are in need, and also make us more willing and loving servants of Thine to Thy honor and glory, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen."

Furthermore, your pastor makes a SPECIAL APPEAL TO ALL COMMUNICANTS of the parish to have some member of the family offer the following grace before each meal every day:

"We thank Thee, O Lord, for this food. Bless it to our use and us to Thy faithful service, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen."

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL HONOR ROLL

We congratulate the teachers and students of the following classes for succeeding in getting placed on the Honor Roll. Two of these classes were on last month and we hope they will become regulars.

Miss Catherine Rutter, Teacher.	Miss Margaret Rutter Teacher.
James McCall.	Anna Robbins
Edward Pine.	Jennie Stilling
George Murphy.	Esther Capie
William Krause	Jennie Clendenning
James Krause	Ida Nelson
	Catharine Anderson
	Margaret Fennimore
Miss Martha Schmidt, Teacher.	Dorothy Seaborne
	Rose McLaughlin
May Pine.	Anna McLaughlin
Anna Warren.	Margaret Rutter
Margaret Carson	Ruth Rutter

THE CROSS AND SIGN

On Thanksgiving Day the rector surprised the whole parish by having the old church sign removed and a new copper and glass illuminated sign, with a big reflector, for the front steps, hung in its stead. It is one of the smartest signs in South Philadelphia and adds greatly to the appearance of our church, especially at night, when lighted.

All the church folks were pleased with it and expressed their pleasure to the rector. Their appreciation of the sign inspired the rector to open negotiations for the Cross. He called up Mr. Don Morris, of the Model Products Company, Ninth and Venango streets, and inquired whether an illuminating cross could be set up before Christmas evening. Upon learning that it could be done, he instantly ordered the Model Products Company to go ahead with the job, and now it is done.

Everybody, from Tommy Evans all the way up to the "Boss," is satisfied and proud. It is just what South Philadelphia needed—a Christian symbol to

DAILY BIBLE PUZZLE

New Year Admonitions

		Book	Chap.	Ver.
1.	"Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might"	Deut.
2.	"Thou shalt be perfect with the Lord thy God"	Deut.
3.	"Serve him in sincerity and in truth"	Jos.
4.	"Only fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart"	I Sam.
5.	"Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God"	I Kings.
6.	"Set your heart and your soul to seek the Lord your God"	I Chron.
7.	"Serve him with a perfect heart and a willing mind"	I Chron.
8.	"If ye seek him, he will be found of you"	II Chron.
9.	"The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him"	Ezra
10.	"Your heart shall live forever"	Psa.
11.	"Wait on the Lord"	Psa.
12.	"They that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing"	Psa.
13.	"Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him"	Psa.
14.	"Your heart shall live that seek God"	Psa.
15.	"Open thy mouth wide"	Psa.
16.	"I love them that love me; and they that seek me early shall find me"	Prov.
17.	"The root of the righteous yieldeth fruit"	Prov.
18.	"Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might"	Ecc.
19.	"Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth"	Ecc.
20.	"Blessed are all they that wait for him"	Isai.
21.	"They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength"	Isai.
22.	"Seek ye the Lord"	Isai.
23.	"It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord"	Sam.
24.	"Turn thou to thy God"	Hos.
25.	"Rend your heart and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God"	Joel
26.	"Prepare to meet thy God"	Amos
27.	"Where your treasure is there will your heart be also"	Matt.
28.	"Sell that ye hath and give to the poor"	Luke
29.	"Strive to enter in at the straight gate"	Luke
30.	"Walk while ye have the light"	John
31.	"To be spiritually minded is life and peace"	Rom.

shine out and above all others. One that could be seen for blocks, both ways.

That shining cross is going to do more missionary work in Southwark for Jesus Christ than either you or I dream can be done.

WAGE EARNERS WIN PRAISE FOR PARISH

St. John the Evangelist Church Lauded in Episcopal Drive for Funds—Campaign for $3,500,000 Closes Monday; $1,192,908 Raised to Date.

The comparatively small contributions of the wealthier churches included in the present missionary fund campaign in the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Pennsylvania were deplored by Senator George Wharton Pepper at the luncheon of campaign workers in the Benjamin Franklin Hotel yesterday.

Senator Pepper, who is the committee chairman of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Sixteenth and Locust streets, one of the most pretentious churches in the city, contrasted its total subscription to date of $28,835 with the $8454 given thus far by St. John the Evangelist Church, Third and Reed streets, a congregation every member of which is a wage earner.

"The trouble with our church is that where we have the money we do not have the consecrated workers and where we have the consecrated workers we do not have the money," the Senator observed. "If we had the corps of workers from St. John's in the parish of St. Mark's we could have the total $3,500,000 of the present campaign oversubscribed in that church alone before midnight.

"The people of our church will give, but they must be seen. The objects of the drive are so useful, sound and essential to the entire community, as well as to the diocese itself, no one will refuse. We must be shot through with the spirit of the whole-heart consecration to the enterprise as a whole and as a great benefit to our city and Church."

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, rector of St. John the Evangelist Church, then explained the method in which the "miracle" of securing more than $8000 from a workingman's congregation was accomplished. He had only moderate hopes at first, he said, especially since the members of the congregation could not spare the necessary time from their labors for canvassing.

OUR CHRISTMAS ROLL OF HONOR

What a Wonderful Christmas We Had!

All Christmas Eve the new Cross illuminated the sky with its bright message of God's love and sacrifice for man. At the early celebration of the Christmas Communion there was an amazing outpouring of the parish. It was the largest celebration ever held in St. John's. At the second celebration at the Mission of the Transfiguration there was another congregation of communicants in unusual numbers, and at the third service at St. John's Church there were almost as many present as were at the first celebration.

Then, too, never was the church so beautifully trimmed in laurel, holly wreaths, trees and lights. The whole scheme of decoration was extremely artistic and pleasing. It took one's breath away on beholding it for the first time.

Then the singing! Was there ever such a choir in the memory of the oldest communicant? We can still hear that beautiful Christmas anthem so wonderfully rendered. The members of the choir seemed inspired on Christmas Day. The Christmas hymns and carols could not have been rendered with better effect. There is no organization in the parish who deserve more praise than our choir. May God bless each and every member who added so richly to our Christmas joy.

Then there was the shower of Christmas envelopes! It was the biggest Christmas offering we ever received, and by far a larger number of folks contributed to the offering and many contributed much larger gifts than ever before. We promised to publish a list of names of the Christmas givers in this issue. By the list that follows you will see we have kept our promise.

Now just one word more. If you brought your Christmas gift to the church, and you do not find your name in this list, WE WANT YOU TO LET US KNOW INSTANTLY, and the amount you gave, so that you can get due credit in the next issue of the BROADCASTER.

If you have not brought your Christmas gift, but will do so at once, your name will be published in the next issue also.

May God bless you all for your Christmas spirit.

Adams, Elizabeth
Archer, Sallie
Alloway, H. M.
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Mrs.
Barnes, Cecelia
Barnes, Mr. & Mrs. Jacob
Barnes, Joseph
Barnes, Katherine
Barnes, Mary
Barnes, William, Sr.
Barnes, William, Jr.
Bedlow, Mrs. L.
Beisser, Annie
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Mary
Bender, Caroline
Blech, Jennie
Bowers, Elizabeth
Boyce, Agnes
Bricker, Jennie
Brinkman, Rebecca
Britton, Eleanor
Bromley, William
Bruch, Richard
Bruch, Susan
Bruch, Marion M.
Burns, George
Burns, Hazel
Bunting, Mr. & Mrs. W.
Butler, Mrs. A.
Carson, Robert
Clark, Harry Belmont
Clark, Kathleen
Clerico, Ferdy
Clerico, Mattie
Colvey, Joseph
Cooper, Mrs. Anna
Cooper, Mrs. Emma
Cooper, Mr. & Mrs. Jos.
Cook, Robert
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Coyle, John
Cressee, Mrs. Abbie
Cressee, George, Sr.
Cressee, George, Jr.
Cressee, Raymond
Cunningham, Ida
Darr, Walter
Darr, Mrs. Walter
Dougherty, Edw. J.
Dougherty, Josephine
Daughters of the King
Davis, Amelia
Dean, Agnes
Dean, Mary
Dean, Mildred
Dean, Ruth
De Costa, Florence M.
Deffler, Dorothy
Dengler, Annie
Dobbins, Mary
Drumm, Robert
Dunne, Charles
Dunne, Marie
Easterday, Anna
Emberscheid, Mrs. Anna
Evans, Sarah
Evans, Thomas
Ferguson, Albert
Fischer, John
Fischer, Mrs. John
Fisher, Miss M. B.
Fludina, Dorothy
Forster, William
Fort, Elsie
Friend, Florence
Fuhr, Mrs. Anna
Gallagher, Isaac
Gallagher, Joseph
Gallagher, Mrs. Kate
Geiger, Paul
Geiger, Albert
Gibbs, Mrs. Dora
Goodrick, Mrs. Mary
Green, Mrs. E.
Green, Joseph
Green, William
Greenfield, Mrs. Lydia
Greenfield, Robert
Gregory, George
Gregory, Grace
Gregory, Mrs. Grace
Gresh, Margaret
Gresh, Nellie
Grigg, Mrs. E.
Grubb, Pauline
Grubb, Rufus W.
Grubb, William
Hallowell, Catherine
Hallowell, Elizabeth
Hallowell, Grover
Hare, Bertha
Haring, Emma
Hartman, Earl
Hartman, Wm. Earl
Hasson, Kate
Hasson, Kathryn
Hasson, William
Haury, Mary
Haynes, George
Haynes, Ida

Haynes, Kate
Henderson, Elizabeth
Hill, Anna
Hill, Catherine
Hill, Florence
Hill, George
Hill, William
Hill, William
Hinckle, Rebecca
Hollowell, Enos
Holt, Mrs. A.
Holt, Malvina
Holton, Mrs. M.
Hornberger, Mrs. E.
Howlett, Mrs. K.
Hufford, Mrs. J.
Hudak, Frances
Jackson, Elsie
Jaeschke, Gus
Jaeschke, Herman
Jacobus, Mrs. Edw.
Jacobus, Edw., Jr.
Kaiser, Mrs. Emma
Kalesse, Elizabeth
Keen, Mrs. L.
Kelly, Mrs. M.
Kelly, Mrs. Mary
Kelly, Raymond W.
Kensil, William A.
Kensil, John
Kensil, Margaret
King, Clara
King, John
King, William
Knowlton, Mrs. Anna
Knowlton, Frank C., Sr.
Knowlton, Frank C., Jr.
Kraft, Edward
Kraft, Ornet
Krause, Mrs. S.
Lafferty, Martha
Larkin, Mrs. K.
Larkin, Katherine
Larkin, William
Lawrence, Catherine
Lawrence, George, Sr.
Lawrence, George, Jr.
Lawrence, Jessie
Lawrence, Mary
Lenhardt, Mrs. Mary
Little, Charles
Little, Mrs. Charles
Little, Mr.
Little, Mrs. M.
Logue, Charles
Logue, Herbert
Logue, Margaret
Logue, Robert
Ludwig, Mrs. W. Charles
MacVaugh, Mrs. Annie
MacVaugh, Sylvania
MacVaugh, William
Maguire, Elizabeth
Maguire, George
Maguire, Lydia
Major, William
Marley, Emma
Matthews, Vernon
McCall, James
McHenry, John E.
McKeown, Lillian
McKeown, Matthew
McKeown, James
McKeown, Mrs. James
McKeown, Rebecca
McLaughlin, Mrs. M.
Mehring, Mrs. A. E.
Miller, Anna May
Miller, Mrs. D.
Miller, Dorothy
Miller, Robert
Miller, Walter
Mills, Richard
Mitchell, Florence
Mitchell, Madaline
Morozzi, Mrs. A.
Morozzi, Francis
Morozzi, Mrs. Frank
Morris, Anna
Moser, Mr. & Mrs. John
Murphy, Mrs. M.
Neilsson, Helma
Nelson, Mrs. A.
Nelson, Catherine
Nelson, Ella
Nelson, Harry
Nelson, John, Jr.
Nuttall, Hannah
O'Donnell, Katherine
Patterson, Anna
Patterson, Carrie
Patterson, John
Payne, Emma
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, Augustus
Pearo, James
Pearo, Mary
Piccione, Elizabeth
Pine, Lillian
Pine, May
Prettyman, George, Sr.
Preole, James
Preole, James
Preole, John
Poynter, Elizabeth
Poynter, Jennie
Poynter, Mary
Read, Mrs. H. H.
Rhoades, Francis
Rhoades, John
Rhoades, Matilda
Rhoades, Walter
Rhoades, William A.
Robins, Anna
Robins, Robert
Roberts, Frank
Rodebaugh, Elwood
Rodebaugh, Evelyn
Rodebaugh, Robert
Rodebaugh, Samuel
Rodebaugh, Susan
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Eva
Rutter, Jeremiah K.
Rutter, Margaret
Rutter, Robert
Scarinci, Rev. G. A.
Schabacker, Miss Anna
Schield, Mrs. B.
Schlembac, Harry
Schlembac, Mrs. K.
Schmidt, Frank
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank
Schmidt, Martha W.
Seaborne, Dorothy
Seaborne, Frederick
Seaborne, Ira
Seaborne, Leslie
Seaborne, Lorenta
Seaborne, Mrs. M.
Seaborne, Noble
Seher, Catherine
Senatz, Anna May
Senatz, Harry
Senatz, William
Seventy-two Club
Shields, Mrs. E.
Silbert, Mrs. Ella
Silbert, Ella
Simpson, Mrs. Emma
Skelly, Florence
Skelly, Thomas
Snell, Mrs. B.
Snell, Mrs. Katherine
Snell, Richard, Sr.
Snell, Richard, Jr.
Snell, Samuel, Sr.
Spratt, Catherine
Spratt, Finley
Spratt, John, Sr.
Spratt, John
Springer, Mrs. A.
St. Clair, Harold
St. Clair, Jessie
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, Laura
Stenger, Webster
Stenger, William
Stewart, Catherine
Stockman, Harry
Stockman, Mrs. S.
Stone, Elizabeth A.
Stone, Emily
Stone, William
Stryker, Mrs. Emma
Stryker, Valentine
Sutterlin, Ethel
Sutterlin, Mrs. E.
Sutterlin, Thelma
Sweeney, Mrs. James
Sweeney, James
Tittermary, Margaret
In memory of Annie E.
Tittermary, Anna
Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Johanna
Tittermary, Harry, Sr.
Tittermary, Harry, Jr.
Volpe, Peter
Warren, Anna
Warren, Samuel
Watkins, Mary
Watts, Sarah
Watts, William
Weber, John
Weber, Mrs. John
Weir, Gertrude
Wertley, Helen M.
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Elizabeth
Woerner, Hannah
Woerner, Rudolph
Woessner, Mrs. Charles
Woessner, Mr. Charles
Woessner, Miss Clara
Woman's Auxiliary
Woodruff, Edmund
Woodruff, Howard
Woodruff, Joseph
Woodruff, Mary
Woodruff, Walter
Wharton, Arthur
Wharton, Mrs. Arthur
Wharton, Mabel
Young, George M.
Young, Laura
Young, Viola
Young Women's Christian League

Broadcasting From Station S T J

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

* * * * *

Next comes the Bishop's Crusade.

* * * * *

"Earnestly contend for the faith."

* * * * *

What a wonderful Christmastide we had!

* * * * *

Line up for the first payment of the Bishop's Campaign!

* * * * *

WANTED: 300 CANDIDATES FOR CONFIRMATION.

* * * * *

Congratulations to the Mission of the Transfiguration. Its members' pledge to the Bishop's Campaign was a big surprise.

* * * * *

"LORD, TEACH US TO PRAY."

* * * * *

Say this before meals: "We thank Thee, O Lord, for this food. Bless it to our use, and us to Thy service, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen."

* * * *

One Church Envelope in the Alms Basin is worth a pack in the Bureau Drawer.

* * *

If most of us fed our bodies as little as we feed our souls we would soon know the definition of "attenuation."

* * * *

"Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for time is the stuff life is made of."—Benjamin Franklin.

GERMAN AT PENN LOSES HIS HATRED OF YANKS

Remarkable Holiday Story Told of Berlin Student at the University

There came to light yesterday, in the records of the Christian Association of the University of Pennsylvania, a story of the recent holidays that is full of the spirit that inspired Dickens' famous "Christmas Carol."

There came to the University last September, from Berlin, a student named Heinrich Schmidt, bitter, vengeful and hating the peoples of the nations that had crushed his fatherland. He despised them all and he expected his hatred to be returned in kind. To his surprise, the students at Penn associated, even fraternized, with him. But when, recently, one of the officers of the Christian Association obtained him a position, and this was followed by an invitation from his employer to a house party made up of foreign students, his amazement was unbounded.

"But," he said to Rev. Robert Gearhart, Lutheran student pastor, who had taken a special interest in him, "I cannot accept this invitation. I am a German. They will not tolerate me, these students of the Allied nations, my enemies. One of them, even, is a Frenchman. Where I come from the Rhine is called the River of Hate, and we are taught to hate all across its borders." Schmidt finally yielded, went to the party and was given a welcome that astonished him. Then came the climax of the evening.

"Heinrich," said his employer, "I want you to shake hands with Leon Fabre, of Paris, France."

"But I cannot possibly meet this man," protested Heinrich. "He must hate me. I am his mortal enemy." The French student, however, far from exhibiting hatred, put his arms around the German, clasped his hand, and said:

"War or no war, there's no reason why we shouldn't be friends."

And friends they became from that moment, the fastest of friends. Today they are inseparable chums, and Schmidt, who looked for hate, has found close comradeship, and now knows how to forgive.

Financing the Church

If you love the Lord and His Church as you should, you WILL do your part toward supporting it. Your part may be large or it may be small, but whatever your part is, you are obliged to do it.

"If you cannot give your thousands,
You can give the widow's mite;
And the least you give for Jesus
Will be precious in His sight."

Many of our members have not subscribed and are not paying anything. Others have subscribed, but are not keeping their pledges paid up. We should and must take this matter seriously. A church cannot exist on good wishes alone.

DO YOUR PART, THAT PART IS ONE-TENTH OF YOUR INCOME, ACCORDING TO THE SCRIPTURES.

The Baptist Builder, Harlan, Ky.

This Is My Church

Here through helpful services I come close to God and to my human comrades in worship.

Here in many ways I learn the truths by which I may live a brave, happy, useful life.

Here I gain the strength by which I become that which I have learned I ought to be.

Here I find comfort in my sorrow, courage in my struggle, joy in my victories.

Here I come into union with Christ, my Master and Friend.

—Bulletin, First Christian Church, Portland, Ore.

EACH IN HIS OWN TONGUE

A fire-mist and a planet,
  A crystal and a cell,
A jelly-fish and a saurian,
  And caves where the cavemen dwell;
Then a sense of law and beauty
  And a face turned from the clod—
Some call it Evolution,
  And others call it God.

"A haze on the far horizon,
  The infinite tender sky;
The ripe-rich tint of the cornfields,
  And the wild geese sailing high;
And all over upland and lowland
  The charm of the goldenrod—
Some of us call it Autumn,
  And others call it God."

Like tide on the crescent sea-beach
  When the moon is new and thin,
Into your hearts high yearnings
  Come welling and surging in—
Come from the mystic ocean,
  Whose rim no foot has trod—
Some of us call it Longing,
  And others call it God.

A picket frozen on duty,
  A mother starved for her brood,
Socrates drinking the hemlock,
  And Jesus on the rood;
And millions who, humble and nameless,
  The straight hard pathway plod—
Some call it Consecration,
  And others call it God.

W. H. C.

THE OPTIMIST

Don't do it!

Don't say that unpleasant thing which so lures your tongue; which your ear is so eager to hear issuing from your lips.

It may be deserved, but you deserve something better of yourself. You deserve more self-control.

Don't turn away so quickly from that chance to help. Whatever it be, don't be as blind and deaf as your selfish side asks you to be.

What did that selfish side ever do for you, anyway? Has it ever made you a mite happier? Now that you can sift the years to get at real results, has it ever added to your real success?

Don't fail to voice that kind or encouraging word which waits on the threshold of your heart.

For all you know, it may be the door to some one's achievement. Speak freely and gladly—and what you give will come back to you.

That's the whole point. What you give does come back to you—the unpleasant as well as the pleasant; the unkind as well as the kind.

Your whole life is a sort of sum total of what you have been giving as you went along the way.

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.
WHOLESALE
MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY
QUALITY
402-404 N. SECOND STREET
PHILADELPHIA

WILLIAM LAMPLUGH
FRUIT AND PRODUCE
1442 South Second Street.

Mrs. Smith's
Home Cooking : Lunch Room
S. E. Cor. 22d and Naudain Streets

Bell Phone—Jackson 1887
Kathryn's Floral Shop
Fresh Cut Flowers Daily
Funeral Designs
Wedding Bouquets
1727 SOUTH SECOND STREET
Artificial Flowers and Flower Baskets Always on Hand

Hodge Podge
Given By Class No. 8
Saturday Ev'g, Feb. 5, 1927
At 8 O'clock
Church St. John the Evangelist
N. W. Cor. Third and Reed Streets
TICKETS - - FIFTEEN CENTS

DIAMONDS
Watches and Jewelry
Guaranteed Savings, 25% Appraisements, 1%
CHAS. H. DEAN 119 S. Eighth St.

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

We think we store our valuables in bank vaults, and we have an idea that we can draw on them with the aid of check books.

Our best treasures, our truest riches, are stored in other lives, and that bank is open every hour of every day, and the interest it pays on deposits is so large and unfailing that the account never can be overdrawn.

It saves the trouble of writing checks, too.

All this may sound good; but the best part of it is that the actuality is so far ahead of the sound that until you've tried the plan, you cannot have the least idea of its value.

One of the fine things about life here is that nothing ever is lost.

Of course, we lose sight of things, but every act remains. And often our acts and words come back to us when we least expect them—come back to help or harm us.

What kind of deposits are you making in this bank of daily words and deeds?

All you can draw out is what you have put in.

"All you can carry with you to the grave is what you have given away in life."—Evening Bulletin.

IDENTITY

A raindrop, lifted to the sky
And blown by all the winds, am I.
Through cycles vast my course is run,
By star and star and sun and sun;
I merge with river, rock and man,
According to an endless plan;
An atom of the cosmic whole.
I lurk in body, mind and soul;
I know not whither I must go,
But this alone I surely know
That this, the thing that men call "I",
Is one with all and cannot die;
Aye, one with that vast shoreless sea,
The mystic strange infinity
That forms mind, body, soul and sod—
Yea, one with you—and one with God.

—T. K. Hedrick, in the Century.

His Ears Grew Red

"I believe you ought to see these" said a pastor to a bank president. He laid on the desk the weekly offering envelopes of the banker and of a washerwoman. Each envelope contained 50 cents.

The banker fingered the envelopes and grew red. He made a new pledge on the spot—proportioned to his income.

Why not make your church contribution on a proportionate basis, 1-20, 1-10, 1-5 of your income—as you can? But be definite with yourself.

DO IT NOW.—Presbyterian Publicity.

F. BEATTY

Meats and Groceries

Corned Beef Our Specialty

1430 South Second St.

Bell Phone—Oregon 2054

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Good Meat Is Our Specialty

Groceries at Special Prices

Giving a Dance? CALL
BLUEBIRD SERENADERS
Oregon 3822 R — WILLIAM MacVAUGH
Oregon 9782 M — GEORGE CRESSEE, Jr.

Philadelphia Bag Co.
BURLAP AND COTTON BAGS
Water and Dickinson Streets

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. I, NO. 5. FEBRUARY, 1927. By Mail, $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

Mr. Thomas Skelly, Advertising Manager, S. W. Corner Third and Market Streets.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Mrs. Annie Cooper, First Women's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Second Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
Richard Snell, Treasurer.

Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Annie Cooper, President.
Mrs. Margaret Gresh, Vice President.
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh, Secretary.
Mrs. Mary Corson, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Laura Stenger, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

Mr. S. M. Hopson, Scoutmaster.
Mr. James Adgate, Assistant.
Mr. Samuel Warren, Assistant.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryn Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Women's Auxiliary		3:00
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

January 30—Charlotte Cherry Henderson.
January 30—Catherine Cecelia Brabason.
January 30—Lillian Laura McLaughlin.
February 6—William James Hines.
February 6—Martha Lord.

BURIALS

January 10—Mrs. Isabella S. Dallas.
January 21—Mrs. Josephine Tucker.
January 28—Miss Margaret Reid.

THE REAR PEWS

We have always been told that when the Devil goes to church he sits in the choir. That may or may not be true. We are certain, however, that if the Devil ever does go to church he brings his whole family of imps with him and seats them in the rear pews. We have been in many churches in our young life and have observed the same performance in most all of them.

The most popular seats in the church are those farthest from the pulpit. All the rear pews are sort of reserved seats where, not only the youth but the adult as well, sit and talk and joke and laugh and chew gum and scatter paper scraps all over the floor, and pray (?) so hard that all the leaves drop out of the book; and sing the hymn book to scraps, and draw funny (?) pictures on the fly leaves and backs and write feeble wit on anything handy and have petting parties and talk out loud so that many of the remarks are heard by the preacher; and hold animated conversations with folks beside them, folks in the front pew, folks in the pew back, folks across the aisle, during the prayers, the reading of the lessons, the preaching of the sermon and the Celebration of the Holy Communion. In fact something is going on every minute of the service in the rear pews.

On a recent Sunday evening we turned to the congregation to pronounce the benediction and to our astonishment and horror, we observed a whole group of folks rocking with glee and laughter in five of the rear pews. We were forced either to withhold our blessing or pronounce it upon those whose sense of dignity and reverence was apparently dead. We did the usual thing and pronounced the benediction, knowing that there were many earnest worshippers whose right it was to receive it.

Someone said to us some time ago that the parents ought to come to church and see how the young folks "cut up." Yes, but who is going to come to church to see how many of the parents themselves "cut up"? For they, too, are often guilty of irreverent levity in the church, as well as the young folks.

When we draw up a plan for a new church we are going to eliminate rear pews where sit the imps of the family of Satan, whose special vocation is to disturb the service and the prayers of the earnest worshippers by tempting many an otherwise fine boy or girl; man or woman into feebleminded acts and irreverent conduct towards God and sacred things.

The only way you can avoid the temptation is to shun the rear pews and sit up front.

YOU CAN'T BLAME IT ALL UPON THE CHOIR

NOW WHAT?

The Bishop's Crusade gave us a wonderful start on our way towards our big parochial Revival Week, March 13-18. At that time the parish will be in charge of our dear and beloved friend, the Rev. J. L. Saunders, rector of the Church of St. Jude and the Nativity.

Long before the Crusade got under way we had formed a parochial program, because we foresaw the possibilities and opportunities that would follow in its wake. We organized our Senior and Junior Crusaders and the Flying Squadron. From all accounts we are receiving of their activities we are approaching our Revival Week with a splendid enthusiasm.

Before that time the Senior Crusaders will have visited every parish family in order to tease the indifferent into a state of church interest, and if possible, to enlist them into active campaigning. The Seniors are to search for all families and individuals of the parish who do not attend church, and report all such to the Flying Squadron. They are canvassing the whole parish to learn how many families are without Bibles and Prayer Books. The information they have gained thus far on this point is astounding. About twenty-five per cent. of the parish have Bibles in their homes, and less than two per cent. have Prayer Books.

The Seniors are distributing Bibles and Prayer Books as fast as they can be obtained. How under the sun can we expect a community to heed the Word of God if they never read the Word of God?

Other offices of the Senior Crusaders are to stimulate all churchmen to a more regular attendance at church service, a more active participation in parochial matters, and a more consistent spiritual attitude towards the Holy Communion. From the reports received from every quarter we are conscious that the Senior Crusaders are accomplishing far more than we imagined could be done, even by such a band of consecrated and experienced workers.

The Junior Crusaders have responded nobly to the call of duty, too. Their special field of service is, of course, among the young folks of the parish. They are beginning at the beginning and are canvassing the parish for all unbaptized infants and children, and arranging for their christening. They have the Sunday School under their special care and are "rounding up" all delinquent scholars and using all their persuasive powers to win them back. They are carefully studying the Sunday School, class by class, in order to note the weak classes, and do all in their power to cooperate with the teachers in an endeavor to strengthen them. Their third endeavor is to encourage regular church and Sunday School attendance of the young folks, and particularly to strengthen the membership of St. John's Fellowship.

We are proud of the consecration and the aggressive activity of our Junior Crusaders. Their contribution to our Revival is of the utmost value and importance. They, too, are searching for boys and girls who have not yet accepted Jesus Christ as their friend, and are giving the names and addresses of all such to the Flying Squadron.

And that brings us to the third division of active members of the Crusader band. The Flying Squadron holds a roving commission. They go anywhere, visit anybody, do anything they find to do. Their particular field is among the unchurched, the unbelievers, the sinner and the spiritually dead. They are at the command and call of the Senior and Junior Crusaders. Whatever task is too difficult for everybody else in the parish, they are expected to handle efficiently. In a word, they are the "trouble shooters" of the parish. Every resource of the parish is at their disposal and they are expected to make use of them. As we said before, their special assignment is to "round up" all the wandering sheep in St. John's parish and bring them into the fold during Revival Week.

We do not propose to have Mr. Saunders come and use all his revival ammunition upon habitual churchgoers. We want him to have lots and lots of raw

DAILY BIBLE PUZZLE

WORSHIP

		Book	Chap.	Ver.
1.	"Let them make me a sanctuary that I may dwell among them"	Ex.
2.	"Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God and serve Him"	Deut.
3.	"O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows"	Neh
4.	"Fear God and give glory to Him"	Rev.
5.	"All the nations shall come and worship before Thee"	Rev.
6.	"Mine house shall be called a house of prayer for all people"	Isa.
7.	"O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord"	Ps.
8.	"In vain do they worship Me"	Matt.
9.	"Ye worship ye know not what. We know what we worship"	John
10.	"Worship Him all ye gods"	Ps.
11.	"Fall down and worship me"	Matt.
12.	"Worship at His footstool"	Ps.
13.	"Moses made haste and bowed his head towards the earth and worshipped"	Ex.
14.	"Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness"	Ps.
15.	"Let us go speedily to pray before the Lord"	Zec.
16.	"Worship ye afar off"	Ex.
17.	"God is in heaven and thou upon earth; therefore let thy words be few"	Ecc.
18.	"I will worship toward thy holy temple"	Ps.
19.	"Whoso offereth praise glorifieth Me"	Ps.
20.	"I will call on the Lord, who is worthy to be praised"	II Sam.
21.	"All the people said amen, and praised the Lord"	I Chron.
22.	"In the congregations will I bless the Lord"	Ps.
23.	"O Lord, save thy people"	Jer.
24.	"Praise ye the Lord"	Ps.
25.	"My soul doth magnify the Lord"	Luke
26.	"Praising God"	Acts
27.	"Unto God and our Father be glory forever and ever. Amen"	Phil.
28.	"To Him be glory and dominion, forever and ever. Amen"	I Pet.
29.	Worship Him that made heaven and earth and the sea and the fountains of water"	Rev.
30.	"Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace"	Luke
31.	Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory"	Isa.

material to work over and make into Christian men and women, boys and girls.

Then all through Lenten season until Easter Day we are going to bend our every effort to deepen and enrich our spiritual experience by extra services of preaching and prayer. And continue in the hope that this year it will be our glorious privilege to bring many Sons of God home to the Father's house.

Thus do we mean to use the opportunities the Bishop's Crusade has opened up for us.

A MISUNDERSTANDING

Possibly it is because we have a misunderstanding as to the real significance of our church offerings that so many of us either do not give at all, or else we give only when we happen to feel like doing so. It is quite certain that a very few of us give either generously or regularly of our substance to the church. Indeed, it is so meagre and irregular that we are sure most of us are totally ignorant of the importance of this act of worship.

Yes, I mean this act of worship!

For that is just what it is, and what it always has been. Even the Pagan, in his centuries-old worship of his idols, would have found worship without personal sacrifice and offering unthinkable. Sometimes his offerings were fearfully valuable to him, in cases, for instance, where he would offer his offspring a living sacrifice to his god, or mutilate or immolate himself as a propitiation for his sins.

The more we read the history of the Jewish worship, as set forth in the Bible, the more we are impressed with the fact that worship and personal sacrifice, or offering, were bound up with each other. And also that the sacrifices of the Jews were of no insignificant value. Sometimes it was an ox or a sheep, or grain, oil, fruit, jewelry, turtle doves, goats, or a tenth of all they possessed. With the Jew, as with the Pagan, worship without offerings and sacrifices was unthinkable.

The same is true with our Roman Catholic brethren. The reason why the Roman Church is so strong; why their churches are so magnificent; why the Roman Catholic Church in every land is so rich and powerful ,and has so many priests, missionaries, brotherhoods, sisterhoods, etc., etc., is because the Catholic worshippers, like all worshippers of all times, all beliefs, all countries, understand and appreciate that worship and offering always go hand-in-hand.

Do we mean by this that religion is mercenary?

Emphatically no! It is an act of devotion by which a worshipper shows by this outward and visible sign his gratitude to God for the stupendous sacrifice

He, through infinite love for us, made in offering Jesus Christ for sin for all mankind. If He loved us so dearly, can any act of ours, any sacrifice of ours, cancel that debt of love? Is there anything we can offer to God in return or in payment for that love? Apparently nothing, except it be a feeble gesture of reciprocal love and gratitude in offerings and sacrifice we get from Him out of the storehouses of His wealth, which we inaccurately call our own.

If we were to understand the meaning of offering and sacrifice as do the Pagan, the Hebrew, the Roman Catholic, there would be no need whatever for any parish to make special "collections" for coal, repairs, salaries, or any other church expenses, including the support of our home and foreign mission work.

The consecrated offerings of a grateful and loving people would be ample to meet all our parish, church or mission needs; there would be vast sums available for the extension of Christ's kingdom, and the blessing of God would be ever over us and His work.

God help us to know that worship and sacrifice go hand-in-hand. God help us to know that our faith and God's love is worth more to us than we can possibly pay for in dollars and cents.

May God speed the day when we will no longer have suppers, bazaars, plays, dances, entertainments, candy sales, gambling or any other catch-penny way of financing the work of God, but out of hearts full of love and gratitude will come gifts worthy of our God and His kingdom.

START EARLY

It's time to lay your plans for raising your quota of the Sunday School Lenten Offering.

Fifty years ago Mr. John Marston, superintendent of the Sunday School of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Cynwyd, founded the S. S. L. O., first for his Sunday School alone. Later Mr. Marston and Mr. George C. Thomas, of the Church of the Holy Apostles, Philadelphia, discussed the matter of the offering over a luncheon.

Mr. Thomas, becoming greatly interested in the possibilities of Mr. Marston's plan, took up the idea, and with his characteristic vigor began to develop it, until it became a Diocesan affair.

Eventually the plan spilled over into other Dioceses, until today the S. S. L. O., like the Thank Offering of the Women's Auxiliary, is nation-wide, and has become a prolific source of revenue for the support and development of the missionary work of the church.

If such an undreamed of calamity could happen to the church that the S. S. L. O. should suddenly stop, more than half of the missionary institutions of the church would collapse and the hands of a great army of consecrated men and women would be helpless to continue the work. Such men, for instance, as our beloved Rev. Edmund Lloyd Souder, Wuchang, China, whose life and the lives of his family are gravely threatened in the uprising in China.

For fifty years the money of the S. S. L. O. has been spent to spread the Kingdom of God throughout the world. The Sunday School children of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of Philadelphia, have joined the Sunday School children of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Cynwyd, and they are doing their share of supporting the church missions by their offerings. Last year our school raised $1353.69.

As this is the Fiftieth Anniversary of the S. S. L. O., and Bishop Garland is ambitious to raise a special sum to commemorate the occasion, I am asking our scholars to put forth extra efforts and try to raise $1500 as our quota for this year. You can do it if you put your mind to it. What you need to do is to

START EARLY

READ THIS

We ask you to be sure and read this article to the end. It ends with a letter of appreciation from a young man who was, and is, one of the most popular fellows of St. John's parish. We have every reason to believe he means what he says; because he is a young man who generally says what he means, regardless of consequences. It is a fine testimonial of the influence of the church in one life that is being lived in a worthwhile way.

We know there are many other young men and women of our parish who could easily duplicate this splendid witness for Jesus Christ. It would be most helpful and encouraging if others would follow his example. We would like to publish a series of such letters in the Broadcaster. They would be the means of bringing many others to a realization of the love of God and the soft and gracious influence of His church.

We urge you to give your testimony for Jesus Christ as this young man has done. He has done nothing but told the simple truth. From an irresponsible fun-loving boy, totally indifferent to the future, and with every prospect of losing out because of indifference, he has developed into a man of responsibility with a profound personal influence over the lives of many.

If St. John's Church had accomplished nothing else than waking up the boy who eventually struggled to manhood with power in his grasp, it would not have survived in vain. Here is the letter.

"Dear Mr. McHenry:—

"Enclosed please find check for One Dollar—my subscription to your parish paper.

"It is indeed very helpful and I enjoy reading it. St. John's will always be very dear to me and I only regret that I cannot do my share to make the work there a success. I assure you that I am a different man than I would have been had you not placed me —that is, given me the opportunity of becoming an (here follows his present occupation which I omit, for to mention it would reveal his identity and I cannot do that without his permission).

"The church has had its influence in my life. And I am thankful and hope that very soon I may return to the church, through helping St. John's, what graces have been bestowed upon me by our God.

"I wish you all the success that can be yours and hope that more and bigger checks will be forthcoming from this end.

"As ever,

"Yours sincerely,

"....."

WHO WILL BE THE NEXT?

SUNDAY SCHOOL HONOR ROLL

The month of January was a real test upon our school attendance. Every Sunday was either very cold or very stormy. The kind of weather when even the kiddies would rather stay home than go out. And although our general attendance was very good, it was next to impossible for any class to attain a hundred per cent. of its scholars present on a Sunday. Consequently we feel highly gratified to publish one class which actually did have a perfect attendance. It is that great big class of girls with that tiny little teacher who is always walking away with the honors. We take pleasure in publishing the names of the teacher and scholars of this class in our Honor Roll:

Elizabeth Bowers, Teacher
Dorothy Stenger
Thelma Sutterlin
Ethel Sutterlin
Warnetta Hart
Anna Senatz
Catherine Spratt
Eleanor Woerner
Mildred Dean
Helen Ashman
Dorothy Ashman
Elizabeth Kalessee
Florence Friend
Eva Rutter

Miss Margaret Kensil, Teacher

Virginia Dean
Blanche Eckert
Clara Frederickson
Lillian Renninger
Anna Ward
Dorothy Reynolds
Adelia Peaco
Ethel Stenger
Margaret Hogg

HIGH COST OF DISHONESTY

The People Taxed Hundreds of Millions on Account of the Rogues

The high cost of dishonesty is a problem to cause concern to the American people. Last year an army of burglars, robbers, embezzlers, forgers, confidence men, bucketshop operators and common thieves levied

Jackson 2423

PIPE AND PIPELESS HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Church and House Roofing
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET PHILADELPHIA

Southern Pressing Establishment
715 SOUTH FIFTEENTH STREET

R. L. HAMMEY
DeLancey Tailor
FOR
Ladies and Gentlemen
S. W. Cor. 23d and Pine Streets

My Trip Through the Yellowstone
Picture Talk by H. CRESSON McHENRY
SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 12, 1927
Church of St. John the Evangelist
Third and Reed Streets
Class No. 17. Sunday School Teachers' Offering
ADMISSION - - - - - - FIFTEEN CENTS
Candy and Refreshments on Sale

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds Both Phones

Philadelphia Bag Co.
BURLAP AND COTTON BAGS
Water and Dickinson Streets

a tax on the United States that is estimated by one of the large surety companies to aggregate the sum of $3,325,000,000.

This is approximately equal to entire internal revenue receipts of the Federal Government for last fiscal year, and is the equivalent of a per capita tax on the entire population of the country of more than $30. And it does not include the tribute that has been exacted by bootleggers from those who persist in defying the prohibition amendment.

The items in this appalling bill which crooks collected in one year in the United States are: Stock frauds, land frauds and confidence games, $2,000,000,000; burglary and theft, $525,000,000; embezzlement and defalcation, $125,000,000; fraudulent bankruptcy and credit swindles, $100,000,000; bad debts owing wholesale and retail merchants, $150,000,000; worthless checks cashed by merchants, $100,000,000; forgery, $25,000,000; graft, looting of the public domain and conversion of public property, $200,000,000.

The expert who made the estimate says he makes no claim of accuracy except as to minimums, and says that the total is probably nearer $4,000,000,000. Another authority fixes the first item in the list at $3,000,000,000, instead of $2,000,000,000, and insists that he is conservative.

FAITH

I will not doubt, though all my ships at sea
Come drifting home with broken masts and sails;
I will believe the Hand which never fails,
From seeming evil worketh good for me.
And though I weep because those sails are tattered,
Still will I cry, while my best hopes lie shattered:
"I trust in Thee."

I will not doubt, though all my prayers return
Unanswered from the still, white realm above;
I will believe it is an all-wise love
Which has refused these things for which I yearn;
And though at times I cannot keep from grieving,
Yet the pure ardor of my fixed believing
Undimmed shall burn.

I will not doubt, though sorrows fall like rain,
And troubles swarm like bees about a hive;
I will believe the heights for which I strive
Are only reached by anguish and by pain;
And though I groan and writhe beneath my crosses,
I yet shall see through my severest losses
The greater gain.

I will not doubt. Well anchored is this faith,
Like some staunch ship, my soul braves every gale;
So strong its courage that it will not quail
To breast the mighty unknown sea of death.
O, may I cry, though body parts with spirit,
"I do not doubt," so listening worlds may hear it,
With my last breath. —Selected.

Broadcasting From Station S T J

ASH WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2D.

* * * *

Easter day, April 17th.

* * * *

Lenten Season comes between.

* * * *

Week of Missions, March 6th to 11th.

* * * *

Rev. J. L. Saunders, missioner that week.

* * * *

During Mission Week Mr. Saunders wants to meet all the spiritually and morally sick, maimed, halt, lame and blind of this parish. Let's dig 'em up and drag 'em in.

* * * *

You are a church member, but are you a Christian?

* * * *

It's not what you profess, but what you do that counts.

* * * *

REMEMBER THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING.

* * * *

Every Sunday School class is expected to do as well or better than last year.

* * * *

First instalments of the Bishop's Campaign Fund are due now. Pay at once. Don't "owe" it.

* * * *

What do you think of a person who makes a promise to you, then breaks it?

* * * *

That's what folks think of you when you make a promise and break it. Maybe God does, too.

* * * *

During Lenten season weekday services every Wednesday and Friday evening.

* * * *

Congratulations to the Senior and Junior Bishop's Crusade and the Flying Squadron. They have entered into the spirit of the Great Commission, "Go ye." It's the "go getter" church that grows.

* * * *

REGULARITY BREEDS CONTENT.

* * * *

Try it in your church attendance.

* * * *

HOW ABOUT YOUR COMMUNION?

Patronize Our Advertisers—They Are Our Friends—and Yours

TOO TIRED TO GO TO CHURCH

You are "too tired to go to church"? That's sheer nonsense. There isn't a place on the continent so restful as the church. You are going to lie around the house all day; in a hammock; loll in a big rocking chair; go to sleep over a book. Tell yourself honestly—did you ever see a loafer who didn't look tired all the time?

A group of laborers had worked all the morning digging a sewer excavation. They had eaten their dinners from the little tin pails and now they were "resting." Some of them were pitching quoits. They were workmen "resting." And sitting on the curbstone watching them—too lazy to even stand up and look up and out at them—were the loafers, who had been watching them work all the morning. These fellows were too tired to even join the games by which the workers rested themselves.

You have no need to loaf all day. An hour in church, an hour of the quiet, the sermon, the reading, the uplift which comes from the new channels into which your thought, your mind is led, will rest you more, physically, morally, intellectually, than all the day spent in trying to "rest."

WHY MEN STAY AWAY FROM CHURCH

A seared Sabbath conscience sends men to the golf links on the Lord's Day.

The masculine mania causes thousands to take the family, the dog, and the lunch basket into the automobile early Sunday morning when they begin to break the Ten Commandments, the speed laws and Sabbath observance.

Screenitis sends thousands into the motion picture houses, where they make a pagan attack upon God's Holy Day.

Laziness keeps thousands at home wrapped in the bed clothes of indolence—too indolent and sloven to dress and attend divine worship.

False conception of worship, or because the sermon is poor, or the minister worse than dead, they drift into the habit of neglecting church attendance.

There are thousands of business, professional, political and official men who neglect church because they are conscious of the fact that they are grossly sinful, selfish, conceited and derelict in the performance of their duties. They know that if they face

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Good Meat Is Our Specialty

Groceries at Special Prices

Giving a Dance? CALL
BLUEBIRD SERENADERS
Oregon 3822 R WILLIAM MacVAUGH
Oregon 9782 M GEORGE CRESSEE, Jr.

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

DIAMONDS
Watches and Jewelry
Guaranteed Savings, 25% Appraisements, 1%
CHAS. H. DEAN 119 S. Eighth St.

This Space Contributed

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

the gospel as expounded from God's infallible Word they will have to surrender their selfish, mean, conceited business and professional attitude toward the church and the gospel.

Every desirable, worthy citizen ought to be found in his pew every Sunday morning worshipping God and paying his honest obligations to the church of Jesus Christ.

A TEST OF EDUCATION

A wise man has said that no one is educated until he can say "yes" to the following questions:

Has your education given sympathy with all good causes and made you espouse them?

Has it made you public-spirited?

Has it made you a brother to the weak?

Have you learned how to make friends and to keep them?

Do you know what it is to be a friend yourself?

Can you look an honest man or a pure woman straight in the eye?

Do you see anything to love in a little child?

Will a lonely dog follow you in the street?

Can you be high-minded and happy in the meaner drudgeries of life?

Do you think washing dishes and hoeing corn just as compatible with high thinking as piano playing or golf?

Are you good for anything to yourself. Can you be happy alone?

Can you look into a mud-puddle by the wayside and see anything in the puddle but mud?

Can you look into the sky at night and see beyond stars?

Can your soul claim relationship with the Creator?

ELECTION! IMPORTANT!

Question: Shall the Church Live?

AFFIRMATIVE	NEGATIVE
How Vote? By—	How Vote? By—
1—Regular attendance	1—Never or seldom attending.
2—Daily prayer.	2—Never or seldom praying.
3—Weekly giving.	3—Never or seldom giving.
4—Often talking it up.	4—Often talking it down.
RESULTS	RESULTS
1—Spiritual membership.	1—Fault-finding membership.
2—Live church.	2—Dead church.
3—Happy pastor.	3—Heartbroken pastor.
4—Souls saved.	4—Lives ruined.

F. BEATTY

Meats and Groceries

Corned Beef Our Specialty

1430 South Second St.

Bell Phone—Oregon 2054

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.
WHOLESALE
QUALITY
MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY
402-404 N. SECOND STREET
PHILADELPHIA

WILLIAM LAMPLUGH
FRUIT AND PRODUCE
1442 South Second Street.

Mrs. Smith's
Home Cooking : Lunch Room
S. E. Cor. 22d and Naudain Streets

Bell Phone—Jackson 1887
Kathryn's Floral Shop
Fresh Cut Flowers Daily
Funeral Designs
Wedding Bouquets
1727 SOUTH SECOND STREET
Artificial Flowers and Flower Baskets Always on Hand

The Parish Broadcaster

Vol. 1, No. 6. PHILADELPHIA, MARCH, 1927 By Mail, $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

Mr. Thomas Skelly, Advertising Manager, S. W. Corner Third and Market Streets.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Mrs. Annie Cooper, First Women's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Second Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
Richard Snell, Treasurer.

Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Annie Cooper, President.
Mrs. Margaret Gresh, Vice President.
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh, Secretary.
Mrs. Mary Corson, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Laura Stenger, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

Mr. S. M. Hopson, Scoutmaster.
Mr. James Adgate, Assistant.
Mr. Samuel Warren, Assistant.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryn Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Women's Auxiliary		3:00
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

February 13—Ruth Lord
February 13—Roselia Frances Worrell.
February 13—Joseph Charles Fleming.
February 20—George William Hilbert.
February 27—Dorothea June Worrell.
February 27—John Douglass Walters.

BURIALS

February 16—Mrs. Ella Robinson.

YOU CAN NEVER TELL

You can never tell what a "feller" is inside by the looks of him on the outside.

Last Sunday we had occasion to pass through Vernon Matthews class of boys, when he stopped us and said, 'What do you know about that! There's a fellow sitting down there on the front row who just gave me fifty-three cents for the class Lenten Offering? And how do you suppose he got it? Yesterday he earned it cleaning snow off pavements."

We looked at the boy and, judging from his OUTSIDE, he was just the same as all the other boys in that class. Then too, maybe the other boys are just like him on the INSIDE, only they haven't had his chance yet to show what is inside them.

The fact remains, however, that this one boy has a thinking machine in his head and a generous spot in his heart. He got thinking about the SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING, and the more he thought about it the more he wanted to do his bit in helping to put over a big thing. With that in mind he takes his Saturday holiday, a day when most fellows want to have a good time, he shoulders his shovel and broom and goes out looking for work shoveling snow.

Now both you and I know from bitter experience that shoveling snow is no easy job. It takes a regular he-person to stick to the job 'till its done.

Well, this St. John boy went right to work, earned his pay and then he did what nine-tenths of us boys would not have done. He brought it to the class and gave it to missions instead of spending it on the movies or a lot of candy.

Last Sunday we asked a certain class of boys to stand up and answer a question in Catechism. Every boy stood up, but they didn't answer the question, because their cheeks were bulging out with unchewed candy.

We looked at them wondering how many of those boys were chewing up their Sunday School offering. One thing we were morally certain of, and that was they had more money in their mouth than they put in the class envelope.

Now this boy in Vernon Matthews class didn't have a thing in his mouth that Sunday he turned in his fifty-three cents, but what he did was to make us all sit up and take notice of one boy who is big enough to take the money he worked hard to get and give it to the SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING.

HIS NAME IS ROBERT GALLAGHER.

If any other boy or girl is known to earn their SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING in a similar self-sacrificing way, we hope the teacher will tell us all the circumstances; for we want to write as many of these kind of stories for the "BROADCASTER" as we can possibly get.

LENT

The original of the season of Lent is obscure, though it is supposed to be observed in commemoration of our Saviour's forty days' fasting in the wilderness. However, we learn from history that the primitive Christians considered the words of the Redeemer, "the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days," an allusion to the institution of a particular season of fasting and prayer.

Accordingly, they, in the first instance, began this solemn period on the afternoon of the day on which they commemorated the crucifixion, and continued it until the morning of that of the resurrection. The whole interval would thus be only about forty hours. From forty hours the penitential season was extended to other additional days, but with great variety in their number, according to the judgment of the various churches. Some fasted three days in the week before Easter, some four, some six. A little later, some extended the fast to three weeks, and others to six, and other churches appointed certain portions of seven weeks in succession.

The result of all this was the eventual fixing of the time at forty days, commencing on Wednesday in the seventh week before Easter and excluding the intermediate Sundays. It is certain that this term of forty days was definitely settled in the early days of the Church. This is evident from the writings of the Bishops of those times in which they defended the practice by referring to the fastings of Moses, Elias, and our Lord, all of whom fasted forty days .

The name we apply to this season is derived from the time of the year when it occurs. The term Lent, in the Saxon language, signifies Spring; and as we use it, indicates merely the spring fast, preparatory to the rising of Christ from the grave.

The Lenten fast does not embrace ALL the days included between Ash Wednesday and Easter; for the Sundays are never included, because the Lord's Day is always held as a festival and never as a fast. The principal days in Lent are Ash Wednesday, Passion Week and particularly the Thursday and Friday of this week.

ASH WEDNESDAY

has its name from the ashes in which, as well as in sackcloth, the first Christians used to appear when they were penitent, and wished to be again admitted into the Church.

PASSION WEEK

is the last week in Lent, in which the Church commemorates some of the most affecting events in the life of our Lord. It was also known as the GREAT WEEK and the HOLY WEEK. And the observation of it is so ancient that it is ascribed to the Apostles themselves.

MAUNDY THURSDAY

THURSDAY in Passion Week is known as Maundy Thursday. It is the day on which our Lord instituted the holy sacrament of his body and blood. The name of Maundy Maunday or Mandate is said to have allusion to the mandate or new Commandment which, on this day, Christ gave to his disciples, that they should love one another as he had loved them.

Some have supposed that the name arose from the maunds or baskets of gifts, which, at this time, it was the ancient custom for Christians to present one to another as a remembrance of that inestimable gift of Christ to be our spiritual food in the Sacrament of his body and blood. It is wrong to designate the day as Holy Thursday. In speaking of Holy Thursday we refer to Ascension Day.

GOOD FRIDAY

received its name from the blessed effects of our Saviour's sufferings, which are the ground of our hope and joy. It is the day on which the great sacrifice was offered for sin, and has been set apart for a peculiar

DAILY BIBLE PUZZLE

Blasphemy

	Book	Chap.	Ver.
1. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain	Exo.
2. Ye shall not swear by my name falsely	Lev.
3. Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed	II King.
4. They spake against God of Jerusalem	II Chro.
5. His mouth is full of cursing	Psalm
6. The voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth	Psalm
7. The sin of their mouth	Psalm
8. Foolish people have blasphemed thy name,	Psalm
9. He clothed himself with cursing as with a Garment	Psalm
10. They spake against thee wickedly	Psalm
11. The curse causeless shall not come	Pro.
12. Take the name of my God in vain	Pro.
13. Curse their king and their God	Isa.
14. My name continually every day is blasphemed	Isa.
15. Blasphemed me upon the hills	Isa.
16. Because of swearing the land mourneth	Jer.
17. Your fathers have blasphemed me	Eze.
18. I have heard all thy blasphemies	Eze.
19. He shall speak word against the most high	Dan.
20. Shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods	Dan.
21. By swearing, they break out, and blood toucheth blood	Hos.
22. Every one that sweareth shall be cut off	Zec.
23. Swear not at all	Matt.
24. Beelzebub	Matt.
25. All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven	Matt.
26. Out of the heart proceed blasphemies	Matt.
27. The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you	Rom.
28. Put off these: blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth	Col.
29. Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing	Jas.
30. I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet colored beast, full of names of blasphemy	Rev.
31. Above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth; neither by any other oath; but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation	Jas.

solemnity of devotion, from the first ages of Christianity.

"HOW INCONSISTENT AND HOW CULPABLE IS THE CONDUCT OF THOSE CHRISTIANS, WHO, BELONGING TO THE CHURCH WHICH SETS APART A DAY FOR THE COMMEMORATION OF THEIR SAVIOUR'S DEATH, DO NOT THUS DEVOTE IT BUT PURSUE ON THIS DAY THEIR CUSTOMARY BUSINESS AND PLEASURES."

WHO WINS?

In order to stimulate an interest in Church history the rector offers the following awards to the Sunday School classes towards the class Lenten Offering for this year:

Class answering correctly 50 per cent of the questions $2.00

Class answering correctly 75 per cent of the questions 3.00

Class answering correctly 100 per cent of the questions 4.00

First class submitting 100 per cent correct answers, $5.00 gold-piece extra.

THE QUESTIONS

1. What was Ash Wednesday formerly called?

2. What is the name of Thursday in Holy Week?

3. What church was known as the "Mother Church;" at what General Council was the title given?

4. Who were the Catechumen?

5. What does the word "Catholic" mean? Name the great branches of the Catholic Church. To which branch do you belong?

6. What does the word Creed mean? How many great creeds does the church accept? Give a short account of each.

7. What is the difference between a general and a provincial Church Council? Give names and dates of the first four General Councils.

8. What is the difference between the cross and the Crucifix? Why was the use of the crucifix banished from most of the protestant churches?

9. What is the Decalogue? In what service of the Book of Common Prayer is it found? When did the Decalogue become an established part of the service?

10. What were the Diptychs of the early church and how were they used in the service?

11. Name the four main divisions of the Litany.

12. During worship when does the church generally speaking, enjoin (a) kneeling, (b) standing, (c) sitting?

The Jubilee of the Lenten Offering

In Fifty Years It Has Grown to be a Mighty Force in the Church

BY THE REV. LLEWELLYN N. CALEY, D. D.

Chairman on Pennsylvania Committee on Commemoration of Fiftieth Anniversary of Children's Lenten Offering

(From the Spirit of Missions)

It was Christmas time more than fifty years ago and the boys and girls of the Sunday School of St. John's Church, Cynwyd, a suburb of Philadelphia, had enjoyed a very happy Christmas. The following Sunday Mr. John Marston, the superintendent of the school, told them he was sure that they had had a splendid Christmas at home, with lots of fun and many presents, and at their Christmas entertainment they had candy and other things given them.

What a happy time they had all had! Then he told them he had been thinking of the thousands of other boys and girls in our own country, and thousands and thousands of boys and girls in other countries who did not know anything about the happiness of Christmas, and who had never had any Christmas present or seen a Christmas tree; and he asked them if they would not want to do something to make some of those boys and girls happier, and to give them a bright and joyous Christmas. He knew they would and therefore he had been wondering whether they would not like to give their offerings during the Sundays in Lent that year for missionary work at home and abroad for that purpose; adding that some of the money might be given to help make the red-faced boys and girls of the Indians in the West happy, some might make the black-faced boys and girls of the Negroes in the South happy, some might help to make the white-faced boys and girls in the Southern mountains happy, and some might help to make the yellow-faced boys and girls living in China and Japan happy.

And the members of the Sunday School of St. John's, Cynwyd, thought what Mr. Marston suggested was a fine idea; and they promised to do what they could to make their Lenten Offering larger than it had ever been before.

On Septuagesima Sunday Mr. Marston reminded the members of the school about the plans agreed upon for their Lenten Offering, and what they had promised to do. How hard some of those boys and girls and young people did work to earn some extra money, and how nobly they denied themselves candy and other pleasures during Lent! And when Easter Day came and the various classes presented their Offering for Missions it amounted to two hundred dollars. That was in 1877, fifty years ago, and that was the first Lenten Offering for Missions.

Then Mr. Marston told several of his friends in Philadelphia about the Lenten Offering for Missions in his Sunday School, and among them was Mr. George C. Thomas, superintendent of the Sunday School of the Church of the Holy Apostles, who said that he would adopt the plan next Lent; and from that year to the present time that Sunday School has given each year the largest Lenten Offering for Missions.

By degrees the plan spread to other dioceses and districts, and in the year of 1900 the Lenten Offering amounted to just over ninety-seven thousand dollars. Year by year the offering continued to grow until in 1920 it reached a quarter of a million dollars, and last year it reached nearly half a million dollars, which was a splendid offering for missions from the boys and girls and the Bible classes of our Church. When we remember that in forty-nine years the Sunday Schools of the Church through the Lenten Offering have given over six million dollars for missions we see how great has been the growth from a small beginning.

Thus during Lent this year, 1927, we shall commemorate the Jubilee, or Fiftieth Anniversary, of the starting of the Lenten Offering. Let us all therefore work harder than ever this year, and deny ourselves more during the coming Lent, so that when Easter comes we may place upon God's Altar in His Church the largest Lenten Offering for Missions we have ever made.

The National Service commemorating the Fiftieth Anniversary of the starting of the Lenten Offering is to be held in the Academy of Music, Philadelphia, on Sunday, June 5, at 3 P. M., when the Presiding Bishop of the Church, the Right Rev. John G. Murray, D. D., has promised to preside; and it is hoped that a representative from every diocese and district of the American Church at home and abroad will be present. We wish all the members of all our Church Schools could be there and take part in that great jubilee service; but we can all help to make it a splendid success by making our Lenten Offering this year larger than ever before.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL HONOR ROLL

Three cheers for the Women's Bible Classes. February was their month to roll up a one hundred per cent. class attendance. We congratulate them, and hope they will repeat often during the year. We are delighted to publish the names of the teachers and scholars of the two classes. We are also glad to note the new member in Miss Schmidt's class.

MRS. ANNA COOPER, TEACHER

Mrs. Annie Morozzie	Mrs. Emma Cooper
Mrs. Rebecca Henckle	Mrs. Jennie Paynter

MISS MARTHA SCHMIDT, TEACHER

Miss May Pine	Miss Helen Darr
Mrs. Margaret Carson	Miss Anna Warren

CONFIRMATION

It is rather interesting to note the points of similarity between the old Jewish worship and the Christian worship. Thus in the Christian Church baptism succeeded circumcision, and the Holy Communion that of the Passover. We have our cathedrals and churches for the worship of God. They had their Temple and synagogues. Our form of worship consists of praise, the reading of the Scriptures, the expounding of Scriptures in public sermons and the use of a prescribed form of prayer.

The Jewish Church used exactly the same form in worshiping Jehovah, thousands of years before the Christian era. We have a ministry in three orders. The Jews had the same kind of ministry before men ever dreamed of Christianity.

So it is with Confirmation. We are told by writers of Jewish History that at the age of thirteen, the children were "publicly examined before the congregation, in order TO RENEW THE COVENANT WHICH THEIR PARENTS HAD MADE FOR THEM IN THEIR INFANCY, AND TO TAKE UPON THEMSELVES THEIR OBLIGATIONS TO THE DIVINE LAW." This Jewish custome and Christian confirmation are very significant in their likeness.

That Confirmation was practiced by the Apostles cannot be successfully contradicted. Read Acts 8; also Acts 19. In the first instance Philip the Deacon, conducted a big revival service in the city of Samaria, then S. S. Peter and John were sent down to confirm the converts by the laying on of hands. In the second instance St. Paul finds a number of the disciples of St. John the Baptist at Ephesus who were practicing a religion closely resembling the Christian faith. First he baptizes them in the name of the Lord Jesus, then he confirms them by the laying on of hands.

THE SAME APOSTLE DESIGNATES THE LAYING ON OF HANDS AS ONE OF THE FIRST PRINCIPLES OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE AND SETS IT UP ALONGSIDE OF FAITH, BAPTISM, THE RESURRECTION AND ETERNAL JUDGMENT.

If these other fundamental points are binding on Christians, then certainly must Confirmation be also, being one of them. Or else St. Paul was guilty of "teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

Again we find that for 1500 years after the founding of the Christian Church the Rite of Confirmation was universally practiced. Certainly the consent of the whole Christian world for so long a period must have its own weight of authority. Besides this testimony of Scriptures and the Church we have the witness of the early church fathers as to the importance attached to Confirmation such as Tertullian, St. Cyprian and St. Jerome.

Even at the time of the Reformation, when the church was undergoing its stupendous upheavel, Confirmation was never questioned but was practiced consistently by the Church of England and the Lutherans. Even such men as Calvin and his colleague Beza and also Dr. Owen "acknowledged that it existed in the Apostolic Churches.

Therefore; to those who are disposed to undervalue the Rite of Confirmation, or to neglect it altogether, we have this much to say, viz., that before they can overthrow the obligation of this ordinance, they must PROVE THAT SS. PETER, JOHN AND PAUL KNEW LESS OF THE MIND OF JESUS CHRIST THAN THEY DO THEMSELVES.

"801"

When we look at this heading we are staggered. It does not seem possible! We look around in every direction and wonder if we are not dreaming. If that heading is what it represents itself to be, then there are lots and lots and lots to be explained by somebody. We do not see how it can possibly be 801. Is there anybody in the parish who can explain it? Yet is it so, for we have proven it. We have checked it over twice. But when we look around the church, it is invisible.

If we go inside the church and look in the big Sunday School room or the kindergarten, or the small Bible Class room; or in the kitchen among the pots and pans and kettles and dishes; or if we go up in the gallery of the church or look behind the organ; or search under the pews or if we go down the cellar and look in the coal bin; or the ash pit; or the wood box or in the three big heaters, the mystery deepens! It is not found even in the Alms Basin.

Yet, there it IS—an indisputable fact—801. And yet it is NOT there. What an utter absurdity! How can a thing be there and not there at the same time? Either it IS or it ISN'T, it cannot be otherwise. It IS 801 or it ISN'T 801, and yet though it IS it isn't. If it is, then what became of it? Because it surely ISN'T now although it is and we KNOW it is. You may well ask what is it that isn't yet is.

We can only answer it is 801 though it isn't. It isn't any more than one third of 801 if we look for it at Holy Communion, or at the morning or evening service, or in the alms basin, or among the busy folks; but it is almost 801 if you look among the lazy drones, or the fault finders, or the parish register.

It is 801 plus when it comes to making calls, or visiting the sick, or burying the dead, or comforting the afflicted, or helping the poor, or getting jobs for the unemployed or christening the children, or marrying the young folks or doing a score of other things a minister must do for his flock; whether they are faithful or not. 801 sheep is a pretty big flock for one shepherd who can give only part of his time to the job.

It wouldn't be so bad if they were all nice, kind, gentle, obedient, helpful sheep; but when fifty per cent of them are mutton heads and act more like goats than sheep then the task of shepherding becomes enormous.

It has often seemed to us that this 801 sheep could make their shepherd's task not only much lighter but much pleasanter by being a little bit more considerate and come regularly to church, the fold of the GREAT SHEPHERD, and help us shepherd other sheep.

Some folks will say no doubt, No, sir, you go ahead, it's your job, that's what you're paid for!

Are we, indeed?

How much?

DO YOU GIVE ANYTHING TOWARDS A RECTOR'S SALARY?

We are a parish of 801 sheep—some are all wool, some are just mutton.

WHICH ARE YOU?

AN OLD FABLE

Once upon a time a man was hunting through a forest when a storm came up. Looking about for shelter from the rain he found and crawled into a hollow log, which fitted quite snugly. The rain lasted for hours and soaked through the wood. The log began to contract. When the storm was over the hunter could not get out. Finally, the exhausted man gave up trying. Death by starvation stared him in the face.

Then his life flashed before him. He remembered, among other things, that he had not attended the weekly means of Grace nor the Holy Communion as he should have done. This made him feel so small that he was able to crawl out of the log without difficulty.

MORAL: Always have your conscience oiled up and running before you get into a tight place.

IS YOUR BIBLE INTERESTING?

Little Mary wanted to learn her Sunday school lesson and had asked her older sister to help her. At length the sister finished her other duties and, taking her Bible from the bureau, called "Come, Mary, I will help you now, and then you can go back to your play."

Mary came running, all ready to begin, but on seeing the Bible her sister had brought, said, "Sister, let's read the lesson out of Grandpa's Bible."

"Why, what difference will that make?"

"Grandpa's Bible is so much more interesting than yours."

"Oh, no, Mary. They are exactly alike."

"Well," replied the observant little girl, "I really think that Grandpa's Bible must be more interesting than yours, he reads it so much more."

—Adapted from St. Luke's Messenger.

Jackson 2423

PIPE AND PIPELESS HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Church and House Roofing
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET PHILADELPHIA

CHARLES HALL, Tailor
Southern Pressing Establishment
715 SOUTH FIFTEENTH STREET

R. L. HAMMEY
DeLancey Tailor
FOR
Ladies and Gentlemen
S. W. Cor. 23d and Pine Streets

THOMAS MAGEE
Printer Stationer Engraver
Well Selected Stock of EASTER CARDS
44 South Second Street

EASTER All the Latest Novelties & Designs Can Be Found Here
HANDSOMELY TRIMMED BASKETS AT POPULAR PRICES
CHOCOLATE COCOANUT CREAM EGGS, FINELY DECORATED
Also a Full Line of
EASTER RABBITS, CHICKENS, ETC.
G. H. Geilfus, Confectioner
1444 South Second St. Cor. Dickinson

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds Both Phones

Philadelphia Bag Co.
BURLAP AND COTTON BAGS
Water and Dickinson Streets

Broadcasting From Station S T J

How are you using this Lenten Season?

* * * *

Easter Day—Sunday April 17th.

* * * *

Confirmation Day—Sunday June 12th.

* * * *

Rector's 15th Anniversary—Sunday June 12th.

* * * *

Don't forget that Sunday School Lenten Offering.

* * * *

And remember your Easter Envelopes.

* * * *

Names of all who give an Easter Offering will be published in "The Broadcaster."

* * * *

HERE IS SOMETHING NEW.

My first word is found in Rev. 10:11.
My second word is found in Judges 3:7.
My third word is found in Eccles. 5:8.
My fourth word is found in Job 16:20.
My verse is found in the Book of Genesis.

* * * *

THAT'S AN EASY ONE. HOW ABOUT THIS?

My first word is found in Nehemiah 2:19.
My second word is found in Genesis 31:49.
My third word is found in II Kings 3:19.
My fourth word is found in Exodus 3:14.
My fifth word is found in Joshua 24:15.
My sixth word is found in Psalms 95:1.
My seventh word is found in Psalms 84:3.
My eighth word is found in Exodus 18:14.
My ninth word is found in Obadiah 11.
My tenth word is found in Titus 3:10.
My eleventh word is found in St. Matt. 10:12.
My twelfth word is found in II Samuel 16:22.
My verse is found in the Book of Psalms.

* * * *

Revival Week—March 13th. to 18th.

* * * *

ARE YOU AFRAID TO DIE? WHY?

* * * *

LENT WELL SPENT MAKES EASTER CONTENT.

* * * *

"REMEMBER YOUR EASTER COMMUNION!"

AN HONEST MAN

There is a preacher in Kansas who should have his salary raised for making the following announcement from his pulpit; "Brethren, the janitor and I will hold our weekly prayer meeting next Wednesday evening as usual."—Household Magazine.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Good Meat Is Our Specialty

Groceries at Special Prices

Giving a Dance? CALL
BLUEBIRD SERENADERS
Oregon 3822 R — WILLIAM MacVAUGH
Oregon 9782 M — GEORGE CRESSEE, Jr.

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

DIAMONDS
Watches and Jewelry
Guaranteed Savings, 25% Appraisements, 1%
CHAS. H. DEAN 119 S. Eighth St.

ONE DOLLAR

Roger Babson says:

One dollar spent for a lunch lasts five hours.
One dollar spent for a necktie lasts five weeks.
One dollar spent for a cap lasts five months.
One dollar spent for an automobile lasts five years.
One dollar spent in service for God lasts for eternity.
—Bulletin First Congregation Church, Everett, Mass.

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

MY CHURCH

"My Church is the place where the Word of God is preached, the power of God is felt, the Spirit of God is manifested, the Love of God is revealed, and the Unity of God is perceived.

"It is the home of my soul, the altar of my devotion, the hearth of my faith, the center of my affections and the foretaste of Heaven.

"I have united with it in solemn covenant, pledging myself to attend its services, to pray for its members, to give to its support and to obey its laws.

"It claims the first place in my heart, the highest place in my mind, the principal place in my activities; and its unity, peace and progress concern my life in this world and that which is to come.

"I owe it my zeal, my benevolence and my prayers. When I neglect its services, I injure its good name, I lessen its power, I discourage its members and I chill my own soul.

"I have solemnly promised, in the sight of God and men, to advance its interests by my faithful attendance, by reading the Holy Bible, by never neglecting its ordinances, by contributing to its support, by meeting with my fellow-members, by watching over their welfare, and by joining with them in prayer and praise and service; and that promise I this day renew, before God my Father, Christ my Redeemer, and the Holy Spirit my Sanctifier."

O God, Holy Ghost, Sanctifier of the faithful, visit, we pray Thee, every member of Thy Church with Thy love and favor; enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the everlasting Gospel; graft in their minds a love of the truth; increase in them true religion; nourish them with all goodness; and of Thy great mercy keep them in the same, O blessed Spirit, whom, with the Father and the Son together we worship and glorify as one God, world without end. Amen.

As we approach the season of Lent, may I look to the various parish organizations and the members of the congregation, all and each one, to take advantage of every opportunity to attend your church services as well as the Holy Communion.

Faithfully your Rector,

JOHN LINKER SAUNDERS.

Atmore's Creamy Mayonnaise

For Salads, Sandwiches, Meats—the crowning touch of good taste!

Made by the makers of the famous ATMORE'S MINCE MEAT

ATMORE & SON, Inc.

110-124 Tasker St. Phila.

Founded 1842

1825--One Hundred & Two Years Old--1927

Southwark National Bank

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

William W. Foulkrod, Jr., President

Make THIS Bank YOUR Bank

Every Department of Banking at Your Service

MAIN OFFICE — 610-12-14 S. Second St.

Central City Office — 1515 Chestnut St.

Resources, Over $16,000,000.00

WILLIAM LAMPLUGH

Fruit, Produce, Groceries, Butter and Eggs

1442 South Second Street.

Phone Orders Promptly Attended To. Oregon 74-96

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.

WHOLESALE

MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY

QUALITY

402-404 N. SECOND STREET

PHILADELPHIA

Mrs. Smith's

Home Cooking : Lunch Room

S. E. Cor. 22d and Naudain Streets

Bell Phone—Jackson 1887

Kathryn's Floral Shop

1727 SOUTH SECOND ST.

Fresh Cut Flowers Daily

Funeral Designs

Wedding Bouqeuts

Res., 153 Moore St.

Palms with family trade. Potted Plants for Easter.

The Parish Broadcaster

Vol. 1, No. 7. PHILADELPHIA, APRIL, 1927. By Mail, $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

Mr. Thomas Skelly, Advertising Manager, S. W. Corner Third and Market Streets.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Mrs. Annie Cooper, First Women's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Second Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
Richard Snell, Treasurer.

Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Annie Cooper, President.
Mrs. Margaret Gresh, Vice President.
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh, Secretary.
Mrs. Mary Corson, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Laura Stenger, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

Mr. S. M. Hopson, Scoutmaster.
Mr. James Adgate, Assistant.
Mr. Samuel Warren, Assistant.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryn Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Women's Auxiliary		3:00
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

March 6—Thomas Cattell Boyd.
March 6—James William Johnson.
March 6—Catherine Henrietta Burkhardt.
March 13—Michael Goff Rutter.
March 27—Louisa Bedlow Bruch.

BURIALS

March 9—Miss Laura Bright.
March 10—Mrs. Susan Kee.
March 20—John L. Douglass.
March 23—Mrs. Florence G. Gray.
March 26—Miss Lois Mary Orr.
March 31—Mrs. Katie Bauer.

IN MEMORIAM

ADELIA CARR

April 24th, 1926

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

EASTER DAY

There have been so many millions upon millions of words written about this most beautiful of Christain festivals that we have neither hope nor intention of contributing anything original. There is not a man, woman or child of Christian antecedents who does not know it is the anniversary of the resurrection of our blessed Lord Christ from the dead.

To every one in the Faith this is a matter of supreme importance. First, it means that though wicked men did actually succeed in putting the Lord Jesus to death, a most cruel and barbarous death at that, they were unable to hold back the hand of God who willed that he should arise again at the appointed time. In the second place, His resurrection is in itself an assurance of our resurrection; that death is not final, but just an incident in our lives.

LIFE IS THE ONLY REALITY. Death, like

sickness, can affect this physical frame for a season; but in God's appointed time its clutch will be loosened and we, who are held its prisoners, shall be free. He who died and rose again shall unlock the prison gate and liberate forever the Sons of Light, which sons we are.

Not everyone believes this statement, however. What a pity it is they do not. Not only because such faith is necessary to salvation but because also it gives us such a wonderful picture of our Lord's deep love for us and is mighty power over the natural enemy of man.

Why should one refuse to believe in the beautiful scheme of the resurrection? Certainly we have lots and lots of wonderful illustrations of its principle and law in Nature. Illustrations which we honestly believe God has purposely scattered with prodigal hand along life's pathway, so that all might see and believe and be at peace.

The miracle of awakening nature in the springtime accompanied, as it is, with showers of joy, the sunshine of love, the gentle breezes of stirring life and the music of God's choir of field and forest, surely does not need the soul of a poet to interpret its meaning. The meaning is that death is after all just the temporary suspension of life. The most materialistic soul, when it thinks, must surely be moved by Spring's secret message to man.

Yes, "He is Risen Indeed." And we rejoice in His resurrection; because by His mighty victory over death and because of the assurance of our ultimate victory, too, through Him.

Oh, unbelieving soul, why will you reject the consolation and assurance that LIFE IS THE ETERNAL REALITY AND DEATH IS BUT A PASSING SHADOW? Why will you not believe and live?

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING

Of course it is impossible to tell at this time whether we will raise the amount we hope to raise for our Lenten Offering. But, whether we do or do not, we are confident that every officer, teacher and scholar, from the Superintendent to the tiniest bit of humanity on our Cradle Roll, is doing his bit. All Lenten season the parish has been afire with enthusiasm and zeal for the offering. Many classes raised part of their apportionment by giving entertainments on Saturday evenings and the entertainments they gave were worthy of the splendid patronage they received.

We take this opportunity to thank the friends of the parish for the fine support they gave the classes. All the entertainments were good, clean and wholesome. And we are sure that our friends were satisfied we gave them more than they expected for the price of admission.

Now may we say just a few words to the parents of our scholars? On the Sunday before Ash Wednesday we gave every boy and girl of the parish a Mite Chest to collect as many pennies as they could between Ash Wednesday and Easter Day. These Mite Chests are to be returned to the Sunday School on the afternoon of Easter Day.

We know forty days is a long time for boys and girls to keep thinking about one certain thing. After the novelty wears off their interest begins to waver and unless somebody helps them to remember, their interest is in danger of a collapse. The result is when Easter Day comes 'round they have forgotten all about the Mite Chest—perhaps they have lost it.

Now here is where "Mother" can do some fine work for the LENTEN OFFERING. She can take care that the Mite Chests are always kept in a conspicuous place and handy. She can frequently call attention to them and urge Tom, Dick and Harry, and their little sisters too, to give some of their spending money to the boxes. THE MITE CHEST IS A MIGHTY CHEST for gleaning loose change for missions.

Again, both father and mother, big brother and big sister, uncle and aunt, grandfather and grandmother, friend and acquaintance can encourage the little folk ad set them an example of giving by dropping their mite into the chest, too.

For instance, mother can give the price of a pound of coffee; father, the price of half dozen cigars; brother, the price of a "movie" for himself and girl friend; sister, the price of a lip stick; uncle, the price of a necktie; aunt the same as mother; grandfather, the price of two bags of tobacco; grandmother, any amount her dear heart suggests; friend, as much as the friendship is worth; and acquaintance, not less than a quarter. If the whole family will just get together and show the little folk how to give we are sure we will raise the sum we have in mind. Therefore.

FAMILY, DO YOUR STUFF!

CO-OPERATION

Co-operation means team work.

A group of just ordinary folks working together can accomplish lots more than a group of smart people who are jealously working against each other.

Any parish that has all its organizations working in harmony with each other for the general success of the parish is in a most happy condition and is bound to flourish.

These bits of wisdom are inspired by the splendid co-operation of the Sunday School folks and the ladies of all the organizations of the parish in their determination to make our Saturday evening entertainments a paying success. All are conscious that we owe it to each other that our particular entertainment was "put over" because of the help others gave us.

When we were told how much money each S. S. class was expected to raise for the S. S. Lenten offering we were at our wits' end. The task seemed impossible to do. But here we are, at this writing, a month to go and several classes have already raised their apportionment and some of the others are within sight of the goal. And all of us realize that if it hadn't been for the timely help of the folks not members of our class, we would have failed.

Some of the finest acts of co-operation were exhibited at the entertainments organized by the different classes of the Sunday School and the rector's night was a real moving picture of co-operation. First comes along Carl Brobson and his troupe of actors and actresses from Germantown; then the young folks of the Rainbow Minstrels, and, last but by no means least, the ladies of the many organizations of the parish, who baked cakes, made candied apples (only that particular lady was a gentleman) sold tickets, sold candy and refreshments and did

DAILY BIBLE PUZZLE

THE RESURRECTION

	Book	Chap.	Ver.
1. "This is the first RESURRECTION"	Rev.
2. "There is no RESURRECTION"	I Cor.
3. "The RESURRECTION of the just"	Luke
4. "I am the RESURRECTION and the life"	John
5. "The power of His RESURRECTION"	Phil.
6. "So also is the RESURRECTION of the dead"	I Cor.
7. "If there be no RESURRECTION of the dead—"	I Cor.
8. "Witness of the RESURRECTION of the Lord Jesus"	Acts
9. "After His RESURRECTION"	Matt.
10. "Unto the RESURRECTION of life"	John
11. "Rise again in the RESURRECTION at the last day"	John
12. "The RESURRECTION of damnation"	John
13. "A witness with us of His RESURRECTION"	Acts
14. "In the RESURRECTION whose wife shall she be?"	Matt.
15. "In the RESURRECTION they neither marry nor are given in marriage"	Matt.
16. "He that hath part in the first RESURRECTION"	Rev.
17. "They might obtain a better RESURRECTION"	Heb.
18. "The RESURRECTION is past already"	II Tim.
19. "By man came also the RESURRECTION of the dead"	I Con.
20. "In the likeness of His RESURRECTION of the dead"	I Cor.
21. "There shall be a RESURRECTION of the dead"	Acts
22. "A lively hope by the RESURRECTION of Jesus Christ"	I Pet.
23. "Which say there is no RESURRECTION"	Matt.
24. "Be a witness wth us of His RESURRECTION"	Acts
25. "In the likeness of His RESURRECTION"	Rom
26. "Of RESURRECTION of the dead"	Heb.
27. "Preached unto them Jesus and the RESURRECTION"	Acts
28. "The hope and the RESURRECTION of the dead"	Acts
29. "The children of the RESURRECTION"	Luke
30. "Sadducees say there is no RESURRECTION"	Acts

many other things too numerous to mention; all of which contributed to the success of the evening.

Now what were the results of this spirit of co-operation? First: the classes were able in most cases to make their Lenten apportionment. Second: the parish put over some of the best balanced entertainments ever enjoyed in the church. And third: all of us have learned how much more we can do if we do it all together with a desire to help.

It seems to us that if we have learned the value of true parochial and individual co-operation this Lenten Season, our time has been well employed.

Your pastor takes this occasion of congratulating the parish in so happily applying the spirit of co-operation to its Lenten activities and prays that this same spirit will grow stronger and stronger; for in that direction rides success.

THE EASTER ENVELOPE

Just a little talk about our Easter Envelopes. There is a sentiment back of the Easter Offering, which, it seems to us, ought to be a most powerful urge for us to raise the offering to an impressive amount.

EASTER DAY is the occasion of the offering and EASTER DAY has a peculiar significance to every intelligent and spiritually enlightened and confirmed member of the parish. To them it is the anniversary of the supreme sacrifice of Jesus Christ, Son of God, Redeemer of the world, for the sins of man. In His resurrection rests our hope of eternal life with God. When that fact sinks into our hearts and we realize what such love means to our future welfare we are bound to make grateful response and are joyful to find an opportunity at hand.

Our EASTER ENVELOPE OFFERING therefore becomes our means of praising God for His love, His sacrifice and the hope He has given us of Everlasting life. How gladly we pay the doctor his fee for restoring our sick to health! How much more willingly ought we to give all we can to Him who saves us from the horror of eternal death.

Think over this, dear fellow member of St. John's Parish. Think over it deeply and prayerfully and when the true meaning and joy of EASTER DAY reaches your heart, you will give as you have never given before.

So much for the sentiment of the EASTER ENVELOPE.

Now just a few words on the practical side. The Easter offering is the one big offering of the year upon which the parish depends for its financial support. It is just as impossible to run the church without funds as it is to run your automobile without gas or your heater without coal. If our EASTER OFFERING is small we who have the financing of the parish are embarrassed all year. If the EASTER OFFERING is large we can meet all our obligations with ease and also make necessary repairs and improvements to the church.

Please understand, this is not a begging article, written in the hope you will give more than you ever gave before on EASTER DAY. It is just a reminder of the big reason back of our Easter giving which ought to urge us to give "bigly." We will be most unhappy if any communicant accuses us of begging. If the sentiment of EASTER DAY does not inspire you to give your EASTER ENVELOPE with love and gratitude to our blessed Lord Jesus then—

TEAR IT UP

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ROLL OF HONOR

We are proud of our Roll of Honor this month because of the number of classes who have made the grade. Our readers will notice that a few new classes are getting in the select company. When the month comes that we can inscribe on the Roll one hundred per cent. of officers, teachers and scholars of our school, we are going to hold a jubilee. This month the one hundred per cent. classes are:

MRS. ANNA COOPER, Teacher

Mrs. Annie Morozzi	Mrs. Emma Cooper
Mrs. Rebecca Henckle	Mrs. Jennie Poynter

MISS REBECCA McKEOWN, Teacher

Myrtle Serad	Viola Young
Elsie Jackson	Martha Lafferty
Alice Holton	Elizabeth Dunbar

MISS M. B. FISHER, Teacher

Ida Allen	Catharine Alloway
Jennie Chestnut	Anna Easterday
Margaret Lenhardt	Margaret Moore
Catherine Nelson	Elizabeth Poynter
Dorothy Quaile	Cecelia Tesche
Sadie West	Beatrice Woerner

MISS ELIZABETH BOWERS, Teacher

Catherine Spratt	Dorothy Ashman
Ethel Sutterlin	Eleanor Woerner
Thelma Sutterlin	Mildred Deane
Elizabeth Kalessee	Warnetta Hart
Dorothy Stenger	Florence Friend
Helen Ashman	Eva Rutter

MISS CATHERINE RUTTER, Teacher

James McCall	James Krause
Edward Pine	William Krause
George Murphy

BIBLES AND PRAYER BOOKS

If you were to ask us we would state that one of the interesting results of the canvass of our Bishops Crusaders was the discovery of many homes in which the family Bible and a copy of the Prayer Book were missing.

If we had 250 copies of each we could dispose of them in a day and be ready for a new consignment the next day.

This is a matter which ought to receive our serious and prayerful consideration. In our judgment we cannot expect the folks of the community to know much about Jesus Christ if they have no text books at home to study. We cannot expect the feeble folk of the world to have an understanding vision of the Kingdom of Heaven without the revelation contained in the Bible and the guide to Prayer in the Book of Common Prayer.

We can remember when we were young how agents from certain Bible distributing institutions were sent in all parts of the city distributing Bibles right and left in the homes of those who did not possess a copy. We venture to say, that were a canvass of the city made, we would find fifty thousand copies of the Bible could be disposed of without difficulty.

We are perfectly aware of the wonderful work

Jackson 2423

PIPE AND PIPELESS HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Church and House Roofing
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET PHILADELPHIA

CHARLES HALL, Tailor
Southern Pressing Establishment
715 SOUTH FIFTEENTH STREET

R. L. HAMMEY
DeLancey Tailor
FOR
Ladies and Gentlemen
S. W. Cor. 23d and Pine Streets

EASTER All the Latest Novelties & Designs Can Be Found Here
HANDSOMELY TRIMMED BASKETS AT POPULAR PRICES
CHOCOLATE COCOANUT CREAM EGGS, FINELY DECORATED
Also a Full Line of
EASTER RABBITS, CHICKENS, ETC.
G. H. Geilfus, Confectioner
1444 South Second St. Cor. Dickinson

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

Mrs. Smith's
Home Cooking : Lunch Room
S. E. Cor. 22d and Naudain Streets

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds Both Phones

Philadelphia Bag Co.
BURLAP AND COTTON BAGS
Water and Dickinson Streets

of the Pennsylvania and the Philadelphia Bible Societies; also of the Bishop White Prayer Book Society and the Female Protestant Episcopal Prayer Book Society of Pennsylvania. But evidently their resources are very limited and they cannot supply the demand.

We have been clamoring for 250 Bibles and 250 Prayer Books for nearly six months. We are assured they are coming; but the difficulty is we need them NOW, while the folks in the parish are in such a wonderfully receptive frame of mind. Delay is fatal. Is there no way we can get the supply of Bibles and Prayer Books we need?

MUST WE GO ON MAKING BRICKS WITHOUT STRAW?

Broadcasting From Station S T J

SERVICES EASTERDAY

Holy Communion at the Church.....	6.30 A. M.
Holy Communion at the Chapel.....	9.00 A. M.
Holy Communion at the Church.....	11.00 A. M.
S. S. Lenten Offering at the Chapel.....	2.30 P. M.
S. S. Lenten Offering at the Church....	3.00 P. M.
Evening Service at the Chapel.....	8.00 P. M.

* * * *

Easter is one of the five days of obligation. Every Communicant in good standing is careful to receive his Easter Communion.

* * * *

Remember your Easter Envelope.

* * * *

Don't forget your S. S. Lenten Offering.

* * * *

Send potted plants and cut flowers to adorn the choir and chancel Easter Day.

* * * *

AFTER EASTER COMES CONFIRMATION AND OUR FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY—AS MINISTER-IN-CHARGE OF ST. JOHN'S

* * * *

We rise to remark that we do not know anything about the statement that only DEAD Indians are GOOD Indians; but we do most emphatically contend that only LIVE Christians are GOOD Christians.

* * * *

My first word is found in Acts 23 : 25.
My second word is found in Jude 24.
My third word is found in St. Mark 9 : 9.
My sentence is found in St. Mark 16.

* * * *

AN EASTER WISH

May the dear Lord who rose today
Thy guide and guardian be;
May every stone be rolled away
'Twixt His dear love and thee.

* * * *

Build a little fence of trust around today;
Fill its space with loving work, and therein stay.
Peer not though the sheltering bars at tomorrow;
God will help thee bear what comes of joy or sorrow.

* * * *

I CAN DO ALL THINGS THROUGH CHRIST WHICH STRENGTHENETH ME. PHIL. IV : 13.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Good Meat Is Our Specialty

Groceries at Special Prices

Giving a Dance? CALL
BLUEBIRD SERENADERS
Oregon 3822 R — WILLIAM MacVAUGH
Oregon 9782 M — GEORGE CRESSEE, Jr.

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

DIAMONDS
Watches and Jewelry
Guaranteed Savings, 25% Appraisements, 1%
CHAS. H. DEAN 119 S. Eighth St.

EASTER JOY

The Easter praises may falter,
And die with the Easter day,
The blossoms that brighten the altar,
In sweetness may fade away;
But after the silence and fading
Lingers a blessing unpriced,
Above all changing and shading,
The love of the living Christ.

Mary L. Dickinson.

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

The Parish Broadcaster

Vol. 1, No. 8 PHILADELPHIA, MAY, 1927 By Mail, $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

Mr. Thomas Skelly, Advertising Manager, S. W. Corner Third and Market Streets.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Mrs. Annie Cooper, First Women's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Second Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
Richard Snell, Treasurer.

Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Annie Cooper, President.
Mrs. Margaret Gresh, Vice President.
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh, Secretary.
Mrs. Mary Corson, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Laura Stenger, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

Mr. S. M. Hopson, Scoutmaster.
Mr. James Adgate, Assistant.
Mr. Samuel Warren, Assistant.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryn Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Women's Auxiliary		3:00
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

April 3—Ellen Britton Lafferty.
April 24—Edward William Later.
April 24—Leola Smith.
April 24—Julia Electa Bryan.

BURIALS

April 14—Mrs. Mary Dougherty.
April 25—Miss Amy Herdel.
April 26—James Ditty.
April 27—Edward Talley.
April 28—Mrs. Mary C. Armstrong.

MARRIAGES

April 27—Thomas A. Snyder.
Miss Evelyn E. Burke.

CHAPEL OF TRANSFIGURATION

Baptism

April 17—Robert Martin Hetzel.

EASTER DAY AT ST. JOHN'S

Easter Day at St. John's was a day that will linger long in the memory of those who worshiped there.

The weather was ideal. The showers of early morning washed everything clean and bright. The rising sun shone gloriously on a sparkling world. The air was fresh and keen and clear. All nature seemed to realize it was a special day—the anniversary of the Resurrection of the Son of Man; the Son of God.

"Earth her joy confesses, clothing her for spring,
All fresh gifts returned with her returning king;
Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
Speak his sorrow ended, hail his triumph now,
Hell today is vanquished, heaven is won today."

In the early morning hour there reigned an holy quiet and peace inside the church. The sun rays, piercing the great Rose Window bathed the cross in a rainbow of brilliant colors. The air was fragrant with the beautiful Easter blooms which adorned the altar, chancel and choir. A holy hush brooded over all, to be broken by the rustle of arriving worshipers who sensed the ground whereon they stood was holy ground.

Upon the stillness was borne the golden tones of the organ ushering in the day with music of surpassing sweetness. The great triumphant swelling of the hymn of hymns, "Welcome Happy Morning."

How the choir did sing! They sang as they never sang before. They sang till it seemed the very air was vibrating with a melody that would never cease. The great congregation of worshipers seemed caught up in the spell and sang as though their very lives depended upon their singing. Then came the beautiful anthems woven through the Holy Eucharist like a golden thread of harmony; and finally the rank upon rank of worshipers pressing eagerly forward to receive the symbols of His sacrifice, the seal of His promise. Then too, there were the Alms Basins spilling their overflowing contents to the floor—the Easter gifts of the children of God.

There never was another such service as that early Easter service at St. John's.

The second service was its fitting and worthy successor. There was the same setting, the same choir, the same music but a totally different congregation as large if not larger than the first.

And finally, in the afternoon, came the great outpouring of boys and girls bringing with them their gifts for Missions to carry the story of the Resurrection far and wide into strange distant lands to people dwelling in great darkness and without hope.

And what a gift it was they brought! Over $1,500.00! When the news reached us we were too stunned for a moment to do a thing. Then with one accord we stood and sang, "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow."

IT WAS A FITTING END TO A HOLY DAY

THE GREAT REPUDIATION

Easter Day of 1927 will go down in history as the day of the GREAT REPUDIATION that Jesus Christ is losing his hold upon the heart and the imagination of the world. From everywhere and all denominations the reports are the same—Jesus Christ reigns with renewed strength and glory. Churches are crowded. In a small town nearby one church was forced to hang out a sign, "Standing Room Only." Rows upon rows of communicants crowded the chancel rails to receive Easter Communion. The clergy in a state of near collapse from physical exhaustion. Alms Basins spilling their rich offerings of money and Easter gifts. Donations to missionary activities bigger than at any time in Christian history. The laity bending every effort and straining every nerve in a joyful attempt to put over a record breaking endeavor to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Young and old; rich and poor—all co-operating in one big joyous effort to conquer the world in the name of Jesus.

What a revelation it would have been to the enemies of Jesus Christ and the faint hearted camp followers of the church had they mingled with the church going crowds on Easter Day. They would soon have seen what was "going on" under the surface of things and would no longer hug to themselves the delusion that Christianity is dead. On the contrary their experience would have convinced them that "the world has gone mad after Jesus Christ."

What a discouraging fight the forces of evil are waging against the Kingdom of God. How foolhardy are all their efforts. How recklessly blind they are not to see that the Divine Personality dominates the universal heart. Men may stumble weakly along life's path but they seldom lose entirely their allegiance to the cross. They often are defeated and distressed but they are seldom permanently out of the fight. When the call comes; when the roll is called; they are there; battle scarred, maimed, sin soiled, weak, spent, almost exhausted, all forward marching to the Altar of Christ; there to bow the knee in adoration and to renew their allegiance before the cross and to seal that allegiance with the body and blood of Jesus Christ in Holy Communion.

The world has arrogantly boasted of the weakening of the Christian faith but the events of Easter Day proved a

GREAT REPUDIATION

CONFIRMATION

Now that Easter is past we must turn our attention and energies in the direction of the next big parochial event, which is the Confirmation Service scheduled for SUNDAY, JUNE 12th.

There are scores of persons in the parish who have hesitated, for one reason or another, to take this all important step. The object of this article is an attempt to answer the most common excuses so as to encourage our reluctant ones to reach a definite decision and present themselves for Confirmation at the time appointed.

Just another paragraph before we take up and analyze some of these excuses. We are not so foolish as to think that folks are not sincere, and mean what they say, when they give their reasons for hesitating. If we were not persuaded they really do mean what they say, we would not waste our time composing this answer. There are many earnest souls who would take the step if they could be convinced their excuse is unfounded.

With this understanding let us take up these excuses one by one and weigh the merits of each. Let us begin with the commonest of all; and is made by the parents of children who ought to be confirmed.

EXCUSE NO. 1—"THE CHILD IS TO YOUNG"

He does not understand nor appreciate the seriousness of the step he is taking.

a. Then why did you have the child christened in and force upon him the promises and vows made in his name by his sponsors? Certainly he knows more now than he did then and he is simply—according to the Bishop's question in the Confirmation Service—publicly renewing these vows and promises made for him in baptism.

b. Again, we quote a sentence from the Office of Public Baptism of Children. At the very end of the service is the paragraph. "YE ARE TO TAKE CARE THAT THIS CHILD BE BROUGHT TO THE BISHOP TO BE CONFIRMED BY HIM, SO SOON AS HE CAN SAY THE CREED, THE LORD'S PRAYER AND THE TEN COMMANDMENTS AND IS SUFFICIENTLY INSTRUCTED IN OTHER PARTS OF THE CHURCH CATECHISM SET FORTH FOR THAT PURPOSE."

You will notice in this exhortation that it is not a question of years but the proficiency. Many a child of the age of six is quicker to learn and understand than many another child of fourteen years. THE ROMAN CHURCH APRRECIATES THIS FACT AND ACTS ACCORDINGLY.

c. Some parents would advance this excuse for not permitting their child to be confirmed and in the same breath would deliberately lie about the child's age and evade the child labor law so as to get him a job. Why is it that he is to young to be confirmed but old enough to be taught to break the law?

EXCUSE NO. 2—"PERSON IS TOO OLD"..

Many a person offers this excuse in all sincerity. To their way of thinking they cannot possibly learn the Creed, the Ten Commandments and the Lord's Prayer and all other parts of the Catechism. Consequently, they cannot be properly prepared for Confirmation.

a. Though we appreciate the sincerity of the person offering this excuse we feel he is deliberately barring the gate into the kingdom of heaven against himself with a misapprehension. The Church does not require that you know the words of the Catechism but rather that you know the meaning of its contents. Confirmation is not an award for a trick of memory but the result of a sincere desire to do the will of God.

b. Again; the Prayer Book provides an Office of Baptism for those of riper (adult) years. If the church adjudged any person too old to be confirmed why did she take the trouble of arranging such a service for the benefit of those denied it in infancy?

c. Also if a person is too old to be confirmed why does the Bishop in his question in the Confirmation service ask "DO YE HERE IN THE PRESENCE OF GOD, AND OF THIS CONGREGATION RENEW THE SOLEMN PROMISE AND VOW THAT YE MADE—AT YOUR BAPTISM."

If Confirmation was intended for only those who were baptized in infancy and could repeat the catechism, then why does the Bishop ask "THAT YE MADE" if he is not addressing those who were baptized after infancy and were able to answer for themselves?

EXCUSE NO. 3—"NOT GOOD ENOUGH"

There are scores of really sincere folks who give this excuse and mean it. How we wish we could convince them that it is founded entirely upon a misapprehension. It is not a question of being either good or bad. It is a question of publicly "RENEWING THE SOLEMN PROMISE AND VOW THAT YE MADE OR THAT WAS MADE IN YOUR NAME, AT YOUR BAPTISM; RATIFYING AND CONFIRMING THE SAME; AND ACKNOWLEDGING YOURSELF BOUND TO BELIEVE AND TO DO ALL THOSE THINGS WHICH YE THEN UNDERTOOK, OR YOUR SPONSORS THEN UNDERTOOK FOR YOU."

In other words, you are publicly assuming the moral and spiritual responsibilities which you ought to assume because you have arrived at that period of your life when you can no longer shirk that responsibility. It is not a question of being good but of "growing in Grace."

EXCUSE NO. 4— "TOO MANY HYPOCRITES IN THE CHURCH"

This is the one excuse we doubt is ever advanced by a sincere person. It may be true there are too many hypocrites in the church. Still there is room for another. And the man who offers this excuse is elected to fill the next vacancy.

EXCUSE NO. 5—"TOO BUSY, CANNOT AFFORD TO GIVE TIME TO CHURCH AFFAIRS"

The man who offers this excuse is generally a "business man." What a curious misapprehension we have here! The foundation of every real business is integrity, honor, faith, consistency, square dealing, etc.

Dare any business man ignore or underestimate the value of the one universal institution which teaches these fundamentals? Is he not taking an enormous risk and jeopardizing his business by neglecting and failing to support the church and refusing to be confirmed?

EXCUSE NO. 6— "NOT INTERESTED"

He who assumes this attitude is hard to arouse. He is so encased in selfishiness and hedged about with egotism that he is absolutely powerless to understand how interested GOD is in him; how the SON of God has offered himself a supreme sacrifice for his redemption; how the SPIRIT of God is constantly watching over him. IF GOD WAS EVER TO NEGLECT HIM AS HE IS NEGLECTING GOD HE WOULD NOT LAST LONG ENOUGH TO KNOW HOW INTERESTED HE OUGHT TO BE IN EVERYTHING SPIRITUAL.

EXCUSE N. 7—"CHRISTIANITY IS TOO GLOOMY"

In this age of jazz there is no place for "glooms" only the "joy" boys hold the stage.

It would almost seem that this is true. But we have faith in our young folks. They do jazz it up a lot probably more than is wholesome; but underneath is a broad strain of sincerity and real Christianity. And why should it not be so? The only man who has real reason to be happy and frolicsome is THE MAN WHO IS "RIGHT WITH GOD." CHRISTIANITY IS NOT GLOOMY. A real Christian is the happiest man in the world because he has learned what real honest-to-goodness joy is and he is not being fooled with a lot of froth.

EXCUSE NO. 8—"DON'T BELIEVE WHAT THE CHURCH TEACHES"

We will admit there are many things in Scriptures we do not understand. St. Thomas was a doubter. There are lots and lots of honest doubters in the world. It is no disgrace to doubt; provided you have an open mind and are ready to be convinced if reasonable proof is presented. THE MOST CONVINCING PROOF IS EXPERIENCE. He who cannot believe owes it to himself to surround himself with an atmosphere in which HE MAY KNOW THE TRUTH through association and experience with things pertaining to the Kingdom of God. The Church provides that atmosphere and experience. If you are sincere in your doubts and beliefs enter into the House of God and learn of Him.

EXCUSE NO. 9—"WORLD HAS OUTGROWN RELIGION"

It does seem as though the world has gone on another periodical spree of infidelity and irreligion and that history is repeating itself. But to say that "the world has outgrown religion" is far from the truth. In another article of this issue entitled "THE GREAT REPUDIATION" we give an instance of how deeply rooted in the hearts of all is the "Hunger and thirst after righteousness." How on Easter Day every church was packed at every service—as many as five services in some churches, and how the wealth of the masses was poured into the treasuries of the churches, ESPECIALLY FOR MISSIONARY PURPOSES, i e., the spread of the Gospel. To our way of thinking, the congregations of Easter Day is the most impressive answer to this last excuse, which is no excuse at all, but a false statement, made by those who are either ignorant or dishonest.

ONE DEFENDER

After service the family dined and churches and their procedure came in for criticism. Father criticised the sermon. Mother disliked the blunders of the organist. The eldest daughter thought the choir's singing was atrocious. But the subject had to be dropped when the small boy of the family volunteered the remark: "Dad, I think it was a mighty good show for a nickel."—Pittsburg Chronicle.

THE EASTER ROLL OF HONOR

The parish has reason to be proud of its Easter Roll of Honor. The list of names may mean very little to a stranger to our parish. But to us it is really a most dramatic story, alive and afire with interest and self-sacrifice by those to whom a sacrifice is a real event. Among the names are those of boys and girls who, though young, have learned the true spirit of giving; who worked hard for what they gave. Other names we see of widows and orphans who gave all they could. On the Roll, too, are names of sick and shut-ins, who could not come to church on Easter Day, but sent their gifts by the hands of others. Still others are those who gave joyously and generously because they wanted to make a THANK OFFERING unto the Lord for some special blessing bestowed upon them. While other names are there because they desired, out of the depth of their sorrow, to give a MEMORIAL in the name of the beloved who are now waiting the great Resurrection.

There are names missing from this Roll of Honor which ought to be here. Some, no doubt, will eventually bring their gift to the Church, while some others, we mourn to say, have not yet learned the blessedness of giving. How much real happiness they are missing they will never know until they begin to give.

Adams, Elizabeth
Adams, Jeanette
Adgate, James
Adgate, Mrs. Margaret
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Archer, Mrs. Sallie
Ashman, Dorothy
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Mrs. Margaret
Barnes, Mrs. Cecilia
Barnes, Mrs. Mary
Barnes, William
Beisser, Annie
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Mary
Bender, Mrs. Caroline
Blech, Mrs. Jennie
Boehner, Hattie
Boehner, William
Bowers, Elizabeth
Bricker, Mrs. Jennie
Bright, Kate
Bright, Robert
Bright, Sarah
Britton, Eleanor
Bromley, Wiliam
Brotherh'd of St. Andrew
Bruch, Marion
Bryant, Francis
Bunting, Walter
Bunting, Agnes
Burns, George
Burns, Hazel
Chestnut, Jennie
Clerico, Ferdy
Clerico, Mattie
Colvey, Joseph
Colvey, Margaret
Cook, Robert
Cooper, Mrs. Anna
Cooper, Mrs. Emma
Cooper, James
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Cressee, Abbie
Cressee, George, Sr.
Cressee, George Jr.
Cressee, Raymond
Crone, Thomas
Cunningham, Mrs. Ida
Davis, Mrs. Amelia
Davis, Mrs. Margaret
Daughters of the King
Dean, Agnes
Dean, Mary
Dean, Mildred
De Costa, Florence
De Costa, Florence M.
Dengler, Annie
Dillon, Mrs. M.
Dobbins, Mrs. Mary
Dodd, Mary
Dougherty, Edward
Dougherty, Josephine M.
Drumm, Robert
Eckert, Anna M.
Emberscheid, Mrs. A.
Evans, Mrs. Sarah
Evans, Thomas
Falck, Edward A.
Ferguson, Albert
Fischer, John
Fischer, Mrs. John
Fisher, M. Beatrice
Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Catherine
Fitzpatrick, Edward D.
Flomerfelt, Emma
Forster, William
Fort, Elsie
Fort, Cornelius
Fort, Mrs. Minnie
Fort, Minnie
Friend, Florence
Friend, Thomas
Fuhr, Mrs. Annie
Gallagher, Mrs. Kate
Gallagher, Joseph
Geiger, Mrs. Anna
Geiger, Albert
Geiger, Paul
Gibbs, Dora
Gibson, Mrs. Laura
Goodrick, Mrs. Mary
Gorman, Mr. William
Green, Mrs. Emma
Greenfield, Robert
Greenfield, Mrs. Lydia
Gregory, Grace
Gregory, George
Gresh, Margaret
Gresh, Nellie
Griggs, Mrs. Elizabeth
Grubb, William
Hackett, Harry
Hackett, Jamie
Haines, William
Hall, Mr. William
Hallowell, Grover
Hare, Mrs. Bertha
Hartman, William E.
Hasson, Kathryn
Hasson, Kate
Hasson, William
Henderson, Mrs. Elizabeth
Henkel, Mrs. Rebecca
Hill, Anna
Hill, Catherine
Hill, Florence
Hill, George, Jr.
Hill, William, Sr.
Hill, William, Jr.
Howlett, Mrs. K.
Holton, Margaret
Hornsberger, Mrs. Eliza.
Jackson, Miss Elsie
Jacobus, Mrs. Edward
Jaeschke, Herman
Jaeschke, Gus
Johnson, Harry
Kaiser, Mrs. Emma
Kalesse, Elizabeth
Keen, Mrs. Lena
Kelly, Frank
Kelly, Mary
Kelly, Mrs. Mary
Kelly, Raymond
Kelly, Sarah
Keaugh, Mrs. Mary
King, Clara
King, Edward
King, John
Knowlton, Mrs. Anna
Knowlton, Frank C., Sr.
Knowlton, Frank C., Jr.
Kraft, Edward
Kraft, Ornet
Krause, Mrs. Sarah
Lawrence, Catherine
Lawrence, Mary
Lawrence' Mrs. Jessie
Lawrence, James
Larkin, Catherine
Larkin, Mrs. Catherine
Larkin, William
Lenhart, Mrs. Margaret
Lenhart, Harry
Little, Charles
Little, Mrs. Charles
Little, Mrs. Mary
Logue, Mrs. Margaret
Logue, Robert
Logue, Herbert
Ludwig, William C.
Lynch, Mrs. Irma
Maguire, Mrs. E.

Major, William
Mann, Mrs. Leta C.
Marley, Mrs. Emma
Marne, Thomas
Matthews, Vernon
Maybin, Mrs. Ida
Maybin, William
Meckling, Philip
Mehring, Mrs. Anna E.
Meyers, Charles
Meyers, Mary
Miller, Mrs. Dorothy
Mitchell, Florence
Mitchell, Madeline
Morris, Anna
Morris, Robert
Morris, Sadie
Morozzi, Francis
Murphy, Mrs. Margaret
Murphy, Mrs. Sadie
MacVaugh, Mrs. Anna
MacVaugh, Sylvania
MacVaugh, William
McCall, James
McCloskey, Mrs. Carrie
McDowell, Samuel
McGinnis, Robert
McHenry, Rev. H. Cresson
McHenry, John
McKeown, Mr. James, Sr.
McKeown, Mrs. James, Sr.
McKeown,
Mr. and Mrs. James, Jr.
McKeown, Matthew
McKeown, Lillian
McKeown, Mrs. Rebecca
McKeown, Rebecca
Neher, Mrs. Mary J.
Neilsson, Hilma
Nelson, Mrs. Anna
Nelson, Catherine
Nelson, Harry
Nelson, Ida
Nelson, John, Jr.
Nordgreen, Mary
Nuttall, Miss Hannah
O'Donnell, Catherine
Orr, Richard
Parks, Mrs. Elizabeth
Patchin, Mrs. B. C.
Patterson, Mrs. A.
Patterson, Mrs. Carrie
Patterson, John
Payne, Mrs. Emma
Pine, May
Pine, Frank
Pine, Lillian
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, James
Pearo, Mary
Poynter, Elizabeth R.
Poynter, Mrs. Jennie
Preole, James
Preole, John C.
Prettyman, George, Sr.
Quaile, Mrs. Clara
Quaile, Marion
Raynor, Clair
Raynor, Marion
Read, Mrs. Hannah H.
Reed, Lottie
Reed, Frank
Reynolds, Dorothy
Rhoads, Francis
Rhoads, John
Rhoads, Matilda
Rhoads, Walter
Rhoads, William
Robins, Mrs. Anna
Robins, Miss Anna
Robins, Mabel
Rodebaugh, Robert
Rodebaugh, Susan
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Jerry
Rutter, Margaret
Rutter, Robert
Schabacker, Miss A.
Schlembac, Mrs. Kath'r'ne
Schmidt, Frank
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank
Schmidt, Martha W.
Seaborne, Dorothy
Seaborne, Lorena Ruth
Seaborne, Frederick
Seaborne, Ira
Seaborne, Lisle
Seaborne, Mrs. Matilda L.
Seaborne, Noble
Seher, Mrs. M.
(Memory of H. P. Seher)
Seher, Catherine
Seher, Mary C.
Serad, Mary
Shepherd, Mrs. Ella
Shields, Mrs. Electa
Shockley, Mrs. Margaret
Silbert, Miss Ella
Silbert, Mrs. Ella
Simpson, Emma
Simpson, Jennie
Skelly, Florence
Skelly, Thomas
Snell, Richard, Sr.
Snell, Richard, Jr.
Snell, Mr. & Mrs. S. Jr.
Snell, Mr. and Mrs. S. Sr.
Spratt, Catherine
Spratt, Finley
Spratt, John
Spratt, John, Jr.
Spratt, Margaret
Springer, Mrs. Anna
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Sutterlin, Ethel
Sutterlin, Thelma
St. Clair, Mrs. Jessie
St. Clair, Harold
Stenger, Ethel May
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, Laura
Stenger, Webster
Stenger, William
Stewart, Mrs. Catherine
Stockman, Robert
Stockman, Samuel
Stockman, Mrs. Samuel
Stone, William
Stone, Emily
Stone, Elizabeth A.
Stryker, Valentine
Stryker, Mrs. Emma
Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Harry, Sr.
Tittermary, Harry, Jr.
Tittermary, Johanna
Tittermary, Margaret
Tittermary, John
Volpe, Peter
Vaughn, Annie
Vaughn, John
Warren, Anna
Warren, Mrs. Elizabeth
Watkins, Mrs. Mary
Watts, Miss Sarah
Watts, William
Weber, John
Weber, Lettie
Webster, Mrs. Margaret
Weist, Florence
Welsh, Mrs. Edna
Wertley, Helen M.
Wharton, Mrs. M.
Wharton, Mabel
Winters, Mrs. Ethel
Winters, John
Winters, William
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Eleanor
Woerner, Mrs. Hannah
Woerner, Rudolph
Woessner, Charles
Woessner, Mrs. Clara
Woessner, Clara
Women's Auxiliary
Woodruff, Edmund
Woodruff, Howard
Woodruff, Walter
Woodruff, Joseph
Woodruff, Mary
Woods, Mrs. Margaret
Wressig, Mrs. Catherine
Young, George
Young, Mrs. Laura
Young, Viola
Young Women's Christian League
72 Club

MOTHER'S DAY

Sunday, May 8th, is a day made doubly sacred because of its being dedicated to the Mothers of the Land. We intended to write a special article on the meaning of Motherhood; but this morning we found in our morning paper an article so much superior to anything we could compose that we called up the City Editor of the Philadelphia Record and asked permission to publish Dr. Copeland's article. Permission was given and here is the article. We are anxious to have all our boys and girls read it. Especially the last paragraph.

ABOUT ROCKING THAT CRADLE

Rearing a New Generation the Most Important Job of All, and the Most Satisfying One, and It Is the One Which Rules the World

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D., United States Senator from New York, Former Commissioner, of Health, New York City.

Somebody sent me this funny clipping from a paper:

"Anybody can be a mother. All you gotta be is a cook, a nurse, a judge, a hairdresser, a minister, a chiropodist, a queen, a laundress, a story-teller, a decorator, a doctor, a sleepwalker, an actress, a clairvoyant, God and an encyclopedia. That's all."

Isn't it a fact?

"God couldn't be everywhere," said some wise person of old, "so He made mothers."

When I think about the pioneer women and all they endured my heart aches for them. We should erect a monument in every community, a monument dedicated to motherhood.

They suffered all the dangers and privations, the sacrifices of creature comfort, the deadly monotony of pioneer life. As Joseph Choate said, "The Pilgrim mothers endured everything the Pilgrim fathers endured and the Pilgrim fathers besides."

But this gives no idea of what they did suffer.

Without the ministrations of the nurse, the comforts of the hospital and the aid of skilled servants, they suffered the agonies of maternity. Almost immediately they returned to the arduous duties of the household. Baking, weaving, sewing, mending—there was no end to their activities. Thank God, those days are over. But even so, motherhood is no summer picnic in this day and generation.

No matter whether the mother lives in a cottage or a palace, there are limitless demands upon her vitality, patience and endurance. There is no let-up, no vacation, no day off, no respite from her duties.

When the baby is little, there are the regular feedings, the bathing and changing, the watchful care over the needs and wishes of the infant. As the child grows older and runs about there are new anxieties for its safety and welfare.

When the youngster begins to talk there are questions to answer, and pretty soon, there are calls upon her knowledge giving need of encyclopedic learning. A thousand times the same answer must be repeated by the tired but patient angel of God.

Why do I remind you of these things? Because I want to make an appeal to everybody to help Mother. The rest of us must run the errands, fill the woodbox, bring up the potatoes, tell stories to the baby, and take off mother's shoulders some of her burdens. We must do this to preserve her health, as well as to make her happy because somebody cares.

The mother job is the most important job in the world. It is, too, the best job and the most satisfying one. But, boys and girls, and fathers, too, let's help.

THE EGOTIST

We wonder if the Egotist is as successful in making himself unhappy as he is in making others so. Or, does he (she) feel as unpopular with himself as he most assuredly is with everybody else?

What is an Egotist?

Well, there are several varieties of him (her). All of them use the capital "I" and heavily underscore it, so that there will be no misunderstanding in whom he (she) is most interested. Most of them go around with a chip on his (her) shoulder, just itching to have somebody come along and, intentionally or unintentionally, knock it off in order to give him (her) an excuse to start something.

When the Egotist Goes to Church

When he (she) goes to church, then there is excitement. The complaints are manifold. Perhaps it's the pastor—he has snubbed them by turning his back and addressing Mrs. Jones just as he (she) was about to speak to him. Or, the members of the congregation are snobs and are deliberately cutting him (her) just to be spiteful. Or, the pastor never can find time to visit him (her) in times of sickness. And yet he can find time to visit other sick people in the street back of him (her). If you were to ask him (her) whether the pastor had been notified of their illness, he (she) would probably be honest enough to acknowledge he had not, and perhaps that might in a measure excuse him for his neglect.

Then, too, Sallie Brown or Jim Jones, who, by the way, are very ordinary people, are always preferred for any position of honor in the church, while he (she) is treated with polite contempt or indifference.

Jackson 2423

PIPE AND PIPELESS HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Church and House Roofing
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET PHILADELPHIA

CHARLES HALL, Tailor
Southern Pressing Establishment
715 SOUTH FIFTEENTH STREET

R. L. HAMMEY
DeLancey Tailor
FOR
Ladies and Gentlemen
S. W. Cor. 23d and Pine Streets

Keystone—Main 4644 Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

Mrs. Smith's
Home Cooking : Lunch Room
S. E. Cor. 22d and Naudain Streets

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds Both Phones

Philadelphia Bag Co.
BURLAP AND COTTON BAGS
Water and Dickinson Streets

This state of affairs keeps up until everybody's nerves are jumping hurdles. Church folk dread to see him (her) coming in the church door and flee incontinently at his (her) approach. They get into the habit of drawing away from him (her) and never dreaming of asking him (her) to take part in any function; because they fear unpleasant results. Of course, this is just exactly what he (she) wants. It gives them a wonderful chance to publish abroad how the whole church is discriminating against them and the time has come for him (her) to strike back and leave the church.

This is meant to be very calamitous to the church.

And yet, it is surprising how the church bears up under the strain, and somehow seems to muddle through in spite of these desertions. It seems almost that when the Egotist goes he (she) invariably takes with him (her) all the gloom and cold; and the sun comes out and the joy folks dance and the air grows warm and we feel a big burden lifted off our shoulders and we sigh a great big, deep sigh of relief and feel that now we dare speak above a whisper without fear of wounding the sensitive feelings of the Egotist.

Now we would not leave you with the impression that the Egotist is a person with no redeeming characteristics, because that would misrepresent them. We know of many Egotists who have certain very wonderful and really charming points of character. In fact, these very streaks of real gold in their nature make the effect of their egotism all the more lamentable. For one cannot help regret that folks possessing such fine, yes noble, traits, would deliberately ruin their lives and alienate their best friends by a willful exhibition of childish egotism.

The only thing we can do for them is to hope some day they will come to realize how they have cruelly sacrificed the affections of their real friends on the altar of selfishness.

UNTIL THEN LET US PRAY FOR THEM.

DO YOU KNOW THAT IN RURAL AMERICA—

There are fifty-five million people?

Thirty million people live on farms?

There are more children per thousand of population than in the cities?

Only one person in five goes to church?

One-seventh of all town and country communities are without non-Roman churches?

Seven out of ten rural churches have only a fraction of a pastor apiece?

One-third of all rural pastors have to supplement their income by secular work?

Two out of five rural churches are standing still or going backwards?

There are four million boys and girls who never go to church or Sunday school?

Eighty-three per cent. of the members of the Episcopal Church live in cities and towns?

County after county in the United States hasn't a single Episcopal Church?

The Episcopal Church is awakening to the challenge at its doors?

The wife of a kind friend of mine doesn't speak to him any more." "What did he do?" "Died."—Oklahoma Whirlwind.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner

2d and Reed Streets

Good Meat Is Our Specialty

Groceries at Special Prices

Giving a Dance? CALL

BLUEBIRD SERENADERS

Oregon 3822 R — WILLIAM MacVAUGH

Oregon 9782 M — GEORGE CRESSEE, Jr.

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

"My father can write about ten lines of poetry and get five dollars," said the first boy, with a superior air. "That's nothing," said the second, "My father can draw a few lines, put on some notes of music and get twenty-five." Said the third: "My dad's a preacher and he can say about a dozen words, and it takes four men to carry the money down the aisles.—Christian Science Monitor.

GEORGE C. GALLAGHER

Wholesale and Retail Dealer In

Grain : Feed : Hay : Straw

Both Telephones — 225 WHARTON STREET

Jackson 2881 — "SAY IT WITH FLOWERS" — Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R

FRANK C. QUINN

...FLORIST...

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets — Cut Flowers — Palms — Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.

Prescription Druggist

(Deutsche Apotheke)

S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

Broadcasting From Station S T J

CONFIRMATION SERVICE SUNDAY 12

* * * *

The 15th Anniversary of the Rector, Sunday, June 12

* * * *

Congratulations to May Pine and Elizabeth Bowers; the Sunday School was unanimous in awarding them the Easter merit pin.

* * * *

What a Lenten Offering! $1500 and more to come!!

* * * *

Did you ever see such enormous congregations, even in St. John's Church? Easter Day broke all the records.

* * * *

BROTHERS OF ST. ANDREW: Remember that confirmation is drawing near and you have promised to try to bring at least one man into the church. HAVE YOU GOT HIM?

* * * *

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING: You were asked by your rector to bring at least one woman for confirmation. HAVE YOU GOT HER?

* * * *

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY: You are the missionary arm of the church. Confirmation is coming. You ought to have many candidates to present. HAVE YOU GOT THEM?

* * * *

ST. JOHN'S FELLOWSHIP: You who represent the young men and women, the boys and girls of the parish. You have golden opportunities to get the young of the parish interested in things pertaining to the Kingdom of God, and bring many to confirmation. ARE YOU BRINGING THEM?

* * * *

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS: Precious souls are in your keeping to shepherd into the fold of God. Confirmation day is near. ARE YOU BRINGING THEM?

* * * *

DEAR FELLOW COMMUNICANT: The harvest is ripe, but the laborers are few. ARE YOU WORKING?

* * * *

"I CAN DO ALL THINGS THROUGH CHRIST WHICH STRENGTHENETH ME."—Phil. IV:13.

Apparently Not

He—"The man who married Ethel got a prize!"

She—"What was it?

She had applied for a job as manicure. "What experience have you had?" asked the boss. "Oh, I used to work in a nail factory," replied the applicant.

Some men are born great, some acquire greatness and others put up a successful bluff.

Sonny had just returned from his first attendance at Sunday School. He beamed proudly as he announced that the minister had spoken to him. "Well," said his father, "what did he say to you?" "He told me to keep quiet," replied Sonny.—Pathfinder.

1825--One Hundred & Two Years Old--1927

Southwark National Bank

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

William W. Foulkrod, Jr., President

Make THIS Bank YOUR Bank

Every Department of Banking at Your Service

MAIN OFFICE 610-12-14 S. Second St.

Central City Office 1515 Chestnut St.

Resources, Over $16,000,000.00

Atmore's Creamy Mayonnaise

For Salads, Sandwiches, Meats—the crowning touch of good taste!

Made by the makers of the famous ATMORE'S MINCE MEAT

ATMORE & SON, Inc.

110-124 Tasker St. Phila.

Founded 1842

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.

WHOLESALE

MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY

QUALITY

402-404 N. SECOND STREET

PHILADELPHIA

Bell Phone—Jackson 1887

Fresh Cut Flowers Daily

Kathryn's Floral Shop

Funeral Designs

Wedding Bouqeuts

1727 SOUTH SECOND ST.

Res., 153 Moore St.

Palms with family trade. Potted Plants for Easter.

The Parish Broadcaster

Vol. 1, No. 9 PHILADELPHIA, JUNE, 1927 By Mail, $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

Mr. Thomas Skelly, Advertising Manager, S. W. Corner Third and Market Streets.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Mrs. Annie Cooper, First Women's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Second Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
Richard Snell, Treasurer.

Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Annie Cooper, President.
Mrs. Margaret Gresh, Vice President.
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh, Secretary.
Mrs. Mary Corson, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Laura Stenger, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

Mr. S. M. Hopson, Scoutmaster.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryn Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Women's Auxiliary		3:00
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

May 8—Louisa Bedlow Beck.
May 15—Joseph Erwin Cooper.
May 15—Emma Bertha Rudderow.

BURIALS

May 6—Mrs. Elizabeth Graham.
May 8—Mrs. Helen H. Russell.
May 23—Mrs. Hester Bright.

CHAPEL OF TRANSFIGURATION

Burial.

May 10—Mrs. Mary Craig.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

Several months ago we fell to wondering why the church did not use the teaching method of question and answer more than it does. The Catechism has been in use for hundreds of years and what little the majority of us know about the fundamentals of religion and church history we owe to our early drilling in the Catechism.

After thinking the matter over we determined to introduce an innovation into our Evening Service at St. John's Church. Instead of preaching a sermon, to which probably nobody listens, we drew up a list of twenty questions on church history, doctrine, customs and practices. Then we gave each person present a sheet of paper spaced for twenty answers and a place for the name and address of the writer. When the sermon period arrived, instead of preaching a sermon, we asked the members of the congregation to write down their answers to the questions we were about to ask them. The success of the experiment was instantaneous. Folks seemed generally anxious to learn how much they knew and the answers submitted showed that most of the congregation had an astonishingly clear conception of the Christian faith. The interest was intense and the feelings that were stirred were both deep and true. One young girl in commenting on some of the questions said: "One does not realize how carelessly we live until such searching questions are asked us." It would take a wonderfully eloquent sermon to cause a person to express such a sentiment.

After the experiment we continued the method every Sunday evening with growing success. We are afraid, however, that, owing to certain special services in which it is necessary to preach sermons, we will be forced to temporarily abandon the plan. However, now that we have formed the habit, suppose we continue it in the columns of the Broadcaster. We will ask the questions and you look up and write out the answers and mail them to the Rector. Let's see how much we can learn outside the church?

Everybody is allowed to use every help they can get.

1. Why is the Prayer Book called the Book of Common Prayer?
2. How many seasons are in the church year? Name them.
3. Give names and dates of all the Saints' days and Holy days in the year.
4. How many Holy days have special Prefaces for the Communion Office? Give the significance of each.
5. What is the meaning of the following: Catecheuman, Deacon, Priest, Bishop, Evangelist, Disciple, Apostle?
6. What doctrine of the Holy Communion is generally taught by the Episcopal Church: Transubstantiation, Consubstantiation, a Memorial feast, the Real Presence?
7. What are Ember Days; Rogation Days?
8. Over whom does the Church forbid the use of the Order of the Burial of the Dead?
9. What is an "Episcopal Visitation?"
10. Where in Holy Scriptures can be found the account of the Conversion of St. Paul?
11. Where are the following found in Holy Scriptures: The Benedicite, Benedictus, Jubilate Deo, Magnificat, Cantate Domino, Bonum est Confiteri, Nunc Dimitis?
12. What is a parish?
13. When does the Christian Church celebrate "Pentecost?"
14. Who is the Presiding Bishop of the American Church?
15. What is hypothetical baptism?
16. What are the 39 articles?
17. Name the branches of the Holy Catholic Church. To which branch do you belong?
18. What is the Ante-Communion Service? Post Communion?
19. How many exhortations are in the Book of Common Prayer? Name the services in which they are found.
20. What is the name of the oldest book in the World?

The person or persons answering all the above correctly and whose paper is neat and clean will be given a CERTIFICATE OF PROFICIENCY IN CHURCH LEARNING.

St. John's Big American Flag

Used at the First Religious Service on the Cathedral Site, Saturday, May 21st, 1927

The following is a letter of thanks from the President of the Church Club, under whose auspices the service was conducted.

THE CHURCH CLUB OF PHILADELPHIA
961 Drexel Building

May 28, 1927.

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry,
225 S. Third St., Philadelphia.

My dear Mr. McHenry:

The Board of Governors of the Church Club have asked me to thank you for the use of the large American Flag, which you loaned for use at the Cathedral site on May 21, where the first religious services were held. It added very much to the day and as time goes on the Parish of St. John the Evangelist will be proud of the fact that their flag was spread to the breeze over the first religious service on the Cathedral site.

Yours very sincerely,
(Signed) JOHN D. LEAR,
President.

SUMMER SERVICES

It has been the custom of St. John's Parish every summer to change the order of Sunday services and run on a summer schedule. Instead of having the Sunday School at 2.30 P. M., we have a summer Bible School at 10.00 A. M., which is taught by the Minister-in-charge. Immediately following this is the regular morning service and sermon; but the hour is changed to 11.00 A. M. After that there are no more services at the church and all the parish takes a half holiday from worship.

Several months ago, however, your pastor had an experience which has made him feel uneasy about closing the church on Sunday evenings during the summer. He was standing at the corner of Second and Market Streets one Sunday evening waiting for a car. A young man, evidently a stranger in the city and a Scotchman, addressed him and said that he and two friends of his were looking for a church that had evening services and they had been unable to locate one south of Market Street and could he direct them to one. He invited them to jump the next car and come with him; which they did, and paid his fare in the bargain. When they reached Reed Street they left the car and walked to St. John's Church. Upon approaching the church they saw two men standing on the corner reading the church sign. Your pastor inquired of them whether there was anything he could do for them. They, too, told him they were strangers in the city and were looking for a church that held evening services. He piloted all five strangers into the Church and soon learned they were churchmen well acquainted with the service.

One cannot help but wonder what those five men were thinking about when they found that so very few churches are open Sunday evening for worship and praise. Of course, conditions in the summer are even worse. Very nearly all the churches go out of business and everybody, especially the preachers, takes life easy.

Our conscience troubles us about this matter. Why do we stop church services in the summer? Some churches keep open all year and their summer congregations are very large. Last summer we attended several Sunday evening services in other churches and the congregations averaged about one thousand souls. Who knows? Maybe there were many strangers among them.

The question that troubles us is are we justified in ever closing our churches? Even if only a handful of folks attend are we not responsible for the spiritual welfare of even those few?

We are thinking this matter over very seriously and perhaps may arrange a summer evening schedule of services for St. John's Parish. So look out for further announcements.

IF ONLY THE DEVIL WOULD GO OUT OF BUSINESS DURING THE SUMMER, THEN WE OVERWORKED PREACHERS MIGHT TAKE A VACATION.

MARY'S BIRTHDAY

Mary had another birthday on May 1st. This makes 78 birthdays she has accumulated thus far. We begin to fear that Mary is getting the bad habit of acquiring birthdays and we are sorely tempted to admonish her to stop. First thing she knows folks will say she's an old woman. For a young lady as full of "pep" as is our Mary that would be a base insinuation. Why you should have been at her birthday party May 2d. As she so graciously presided over the two long tables of guests she made all the flappers look like toothless old ladies with false hair and steel spectacles, hobbling around on crooked sticks with hands resting on rheumatic hips. She was livelier than a cricket all evening. In fact we doubt if the most agile cricket of cricketdom wouldn't have suffered two weeks from "Charlie horse" had they attempted to pace it out with our Mary at that party. A big group of folks got the bright idea that they would start a new version of "Paul Jones" and dance Mary out. They formed a ring and while the orchestra played they each in turn entered the ring and danced Mary a round or so. At the end of the contest Mary was still in the ring and going strong. So with what's-the-use expression on their weary faces they quit the game and went seeking less strenuous pastime.

If anybody ever doubted Mary's popularity they should have seen the shower of presents she received. An immense twelve-pound birthday cake, lighted with 78 tapers, was first on the list. Then a huge bouquet of 78 American Beauties was presented to her. Also a big basket of fruit—must have been almost a bushel of fruit in it. Then they came so fast that the writer despairs of trying to remember them all. Sufficient to say that every organization of the parish and many individuals sent her gifts of all sorts.

Yes, indeed, it was a big event in Ireland, when, 78 years ago, our Mary condescended to be born on the "Emerald Isle." It was a big loss to Ireland when she embarked for the "Land of the free and the home of the brave." But America's the only country big enough to honor our Mary.

Now that she has reached the age of 78 years we hope she will heed our salute of affection as we with one accord exclaim—"AH THERE! STAY THERE!"

THE STORY OF THE CLUB

Once upon a time, many years ago, when men did funny things and their sons and daughters had to pay the fiddler, a number of men determined to borrow a lot of money and build a building. After the building was built they did not attempt to pay back the money, but contented themselves in paying the interest on the money. This went on for many years until they had paid in interest more than the original sum they had borrowed and still they owed the bank the original amount.

As years passed these foolish folk grew very old and finally died. The debt was still owed and the sons and the daughters of these men were made responsible for the debt and they, too, kept on paying and paying and paying.

One day a stranger came along and found the building in great need of repairs and the sons and the daughters too poor and too discouraged to raise the interest any longer. He asked them how much was the original debt and how much interest they had to raise each year. After he heard it he was so scared he did not know what to do. He felt sure the sons and daughters would lose their home.

Several months passed by. Then on a stormy day in February, while the snow was swirling in great drifts outside, two of the daughters were gathered close to a bright burning fire in the kitchen and were talking about this old building, with its big mortgage and the big interest that had to be paid every year. In the course of the conversation one said to the other: "I wish we could pay off that old mortgage and get rid of it once and forever."

Then she dropped dead before her companion.

They were the last words she ever spoke.

The stranger who had been asking about the mortgage heard of the sad incident. Suddenly he exclaimed, "Why, of course! We ought to have thought of paying that debt long ago! I'm going to call all the sons and daughters together and tell 'em what to do."

The very next day he called them all together and he told them how their loved one who had just died had solved their problem for them. "All we have to do," said he, "is to pay off the mortgage."

Everybody listened to him in silence until he said that. Then they began to laugh and jeer at him for being such a fool. "Of course," said they, "if we had the money to pay the mortgage we wouldn't be so crazy as to keep on paying the interest."

This made the man feel very uncomfortable indeed and he wished he hadn't said anything at all. He wondered how he ever could have made such a foolish remark. Blushing with shame and mortification he sought how best he could get out without attracting attention. Just when the situation seemed desperate a great, big, tall man stood up and said, "Well, what's so funny about what the stranger says? I want to repeat his remark. The thing for us to do is to pay off the mortgage."

Then pandemonium reigned. Some shouted with laughter; others were angry and yelled insults at him; others said, "How can we pay off the mortgage when we are too poor to pay the interest when it is due?"

But the big man just stood still until the others could think of nothing more to say or do. Then he said, "Now if you are through bleating like a pack o' sheep probably you will listen to common sense. Let's all pay a cent a day to the stranger who started the notion of paying off the mortgage. If we all do this there are enough of us here to pay up the interest and set a little aside to pay off the principal." This made the folks laugh the louder. Some said, "You foolish fellow, how can you pay off this mortgage with a cent a day?" The big man replied, "If you are willing to give the cent and pay promptly and regularly, I'll guarantee that before many more years we will pay the debt. At last some were bright enough to see that it might be done after all. They talked it over with the others and finally agreed to try out the plan.

A year went by and very much to the surprise of all the folks the interest on the mortgage was paid and a few dollars were left over to pay on the principal. Just because everybody had given their cent a day to the stranger who wanted the mortgage paid.

The story of what these poor folk had done reached the ears of a rich old gentleman who knew all about the mortgage. He sent for the stranger who was trying to pay the mortgage and said to him—

(To be continued.)

THE BIBLE

The Bible contains the mind of God: the state of man, the way of salvation. Its doctrines are holy; its precepts are binding; its records are true. Read it to be wise; believe it to be safe; and practice it to be holy. It contains light to direct you; food to support you, and comfort to cheer you. It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, the Christian's charter. Christ is its grand object, our good its design, and the redemption of man its end. It should fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet.

—Rev. John L. Saunders.

A SCOUT PRAYER

Composed by a Scoutmaster of Detroit, Mich.

Our Father, make us Trustworthy, for there are those who trust us.

Make us Loyal, for through loyalty we reach our highest ideals.

Teach up to be Helpful, for through helpfulness do we forget ourselves.

Make us Friendly, for there are so many who need a friend.

Train us in Courtesy, for courtesy is the carpet on life's floor, which deadens the sound of shuffling feet and adds warmth to silence.

Make us Kind, for kindliness is the oil in the cogs of life's machinery.

Insist upon our Obedience, for victory comes to him only who obeys.

Make us Cheerful, for cheerfulness is the green grass near the pebbles in the road.

Train us in Thrift, for thrifty habits brighten our future.

May we be Brave—brave in the dark and brave in the light, but save us from becoming fakers in bravery.

Help us to be Clean in thought, in speech and in deed, and may we remember that our bodies are Thy Holy Temples, and that any abuse thereof is to tamper with the plans of the Almighty Architect.

Above all, O God, help us to be Reverent, not reverent only toward Thee, but reverent toward all things which Thou hast made for our enjoyment. When we are out in Thy great out-of-doors among the trees, along the streams and on the hillside, may we know that it was Thee who made the waters to flow, the trees to reach heavenward, and the mountains to endure all ages."—"The Expositor."

EXTRACTS FROM "THE SILENT PARTNER"

To say "There is nothing to fear but fear" is so near right that it is far from being wrong.

* * * *

IT TAKES TWENTY MINUTES

A young married man left a sealed envelope on his office desk addressed to "Whom it may concern," and in the envelope was this short note:

"It takes twenty years for a mother to make a man of her son but it takes the wrong woman only twenty minutes to make a fool of him."

This note will strike some reader with full force.

* * * *

THE TONGUE

Not the tongue in your shoe, not the tongue on the low-down wagon, but the tongue in your mouth is the thing I want to talk about.

The human tongue starts more trouble than friends or finance can stop. It is the tool that can do more harm in a day than you can correct in many days.

Lincoln said little and Grant said less. Washington talked only when necessary and Coolidge is as silent as a steam calliope with a broken boiler.

The more men talk, the less time they have to think, and the less time others have to think.

If you are a great talker, you are not a great thinker.

Listen to yourself and get your own weights and measures.

* * * *

LITTLE THINGS

"Oh, it's just the little homely things,
The unobtrusive, friendly things,
The 'Won't-you-let-me-help you' things
That make our pathway light.

"And it's just the jolly, joking things,
The 'Never-mind the trouble' things,
The 'Laugh-with-me-it's-funny' things
That make the world seem bright.

"For all the countless famous things,
The wondrous record-breaking things,
Those never-to-be-equaled things,
That all the papers cite

"Are not like the little human things,
The every-day-encountered things,
The 'just-because-I-like you' things
That make us happy quite!

"So here's to all the little things,
The done-and-then-forgotten things,
Those 'Oh-it's-simply-nothing' things,
That make life worth the fight."

* * * *

AFRAID TO BE AFRAID

Personally, I am afraid to be afraid and always fear fear.

It is said that necessity makes the coward brave, so you see I am coward enough to be brave.

I would not dare dwell too long on failure, for the failure thoughts would make me fail.

When my mind is hopeful, business improves. When my mind droops, my business droops, therefore, I always try to keep my mind cheerful and hopeful.

Let me get blue and discouraged and I might as well advertise to the world that my business is on the down grade.

But you say: When business is bad, how can you look cheerful and appear hopeful?

Reverse this thought: Should I continue to look and act a failure, would this improve my business?

EVERY BUSINESS HAS ITS UPS AND DOWNS, PROBLEMS AND PERPLEXITIES, AND THE ONLY WAY TO SOLVE THESE TROUBLES IS TO STOP WORRYING AND GO TO WORK.

Integrity, Intelligence and Industry will win, provided you have the Pluck to stick.

Without courage and grit, pluck and perseverance your honesty, ability, and ambition will fall far short.

In the final analysis, it is more often a lack of courage than the real need of cleverness.

The point is, expect to win, and then you will work to win. But how on earth can you "expect" to be successful with your grit gone, your courage collapsed, your pluck punctured?

Perseverance is the power that holds men on the map.

Pluck, spunk, grit, fortitude, firmness—these are all your own, and without these resolute resources, man is but a creature of circumstances.

My personal task is to keep my pluck up to the boiling point and my courage recharged.

Your job is to keep your gizzard full of grit.

WHEN YOUR COURAGE BEGINS TO GO, YOUR BUSINESS WILL GO WITH IT.

Perhaps I can help you by asking a question: Just what would you do, what could you do in some other line if you now lack the courage to carry on in your present line?

If you lack persistency where you are, you will lack grit where you go.

I am afraid to think of anything but the idea of keeping on and keeping on.

You dare not drop your courage or throw away your pluck, for then the results wold be—flat failure.

So I say: Talk courage, think courage, act courageously, for the opposite course will surely cause you to have more mental burdens than you can carry.

We attract what we are—mentally.

AND THEY WONDER WHY

Mrs. Myrtle Walkinshaw-Shupe.

One Sunday night after church services, like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, the pastor read his resignation. The faithful few were the only members present—faithful in attendance, in all services of the church.

Then the news spread, and this is what was heard from the lips of almost everyone, "I wonder why he's leaving?"

And the answer was within the souls of the church members who asked the question.

1. Was I regular and conscientious in my attendance on the Sunday services?

2. Did I attend prayer meeting faithfully?

3. Did I, whenever it was actually possible, go to Sunday School with my children?

4. Did I fill to the best of my ability every office to which I was elected or appointed?

5. Did I try honestly to practice daily the Christianity to which I subscribed when my name was entered on the church roll?

6. Did I pay my subscription regularly by using my duplex envelopes?

If the answer to these six questions is "Yes," then you are one of the faithful few who heard the pastor read his resignation that Sunday night.

Let's make a comparison.

1. If a pastor held services only when he felt like it;

2. If he went to prayer meeting only when nothing else was "doing";

3. If he never went to Sunday School and sent his boy only when the weather was good;

4. If he never held board meetings, never visited the sick when asked to do so, and was indifferent to pastoral duties;

5. If he used profanity during the week and slandered his church members and did not pay his just debts;

6. If he did not contribute of both time and money to his field of work—

You would soon say, "Get out."

Do you practice the Golden Rule toward your church and its pastor? If so, you will never wonder "Why?"

IF

If you keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you.
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting, too;
If you can wait and not be tired of waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise.

If you can dream and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop to build 'em up with wornout tools.

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart, and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the WILL which says to them: "Hold on."

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings, nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run
Yours is the earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a man, my son!

—Rudyard Kipling.

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

CHARLES HALL, Tailor
Southern Pressing Establishment
715 SOUTH FIFTEENTH STREET

R. L. HAMMEY
DeLancey Tailor
FOR
Ladies and Gentlemen
S. W. Cor. 23d and Pine Streets

Keystone—Main 4644

Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

Mrs. Smith's
Home Cooking : Lunch Room
S. E. Cor. 22d and Naudain Streets

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds

Both Phones

Philadelphia Bag Co.
BURLAP AND COTTON BAGS
Water and Dickinson Streets

BROADCASTING FROM LAUGH LAND

The Latest.

Office Boy (to Employer)—"Well, you see, sir, my grandmother just swam a channel and I want the afternoon off so I can see her in the news reel."—"New York World."

Those Ancestors.

Every man is an omnibus in which all his ancestors are seated.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Prof.—"First I'll take some sulphuric acid and then I'll take some chloroform."

Senior—"That's a good idea."—"Annapolis Log."

"Stop sniffling, little boy. Can't you do something with your nose?" the austere old lady asked on the crowded street car.

"Yes'm," returned the lad politely, "I can keep out of other folks' business.—"Pathfinder."

Then, again, when one observes certain types of the new and perky generation, one is moved to repeat with the poet the line: "Oh, for the smack of a vanished hand on the place where the spank ought to be."—"Lafayette Journal and Courier."

The Frenchman Was Puzzled.

A Frenchman called to see a friend and announced: "I call to see Mr. Brown."

Maid—"You can't see him, sir; he's not up yet."

Frenchman—"Vat you tell? I come yesterday, and you say, can't see hem because he is not down; now you say, can't see heem because he is not up. Vat you mean? Ven will he be in ze middle?"

Jazz and Vibration.

"To attain happiness," says a lecturer, "one must vibrate in tune with one's environment."

According to that, a man with St. Vitus dance at a jazz concert would be in perfect bliss.—"Boston Transcript."

Mother—"What was the matter, Johnny? Didn't the butcher have any beef?"

Johnny—"I didn't ask him. He had just sold an ox-tail to some man, and I knew that was the last part of the animal."—"America's Humor."

He received this telegram: "Your wife's mother is dead. Shall we bury, embalm or cremate her?" Whereupon he replied, "Do all three; leave nothing to chance."—"Town Topics."

Scotty—"Hooray—the wind has changed!"

Wife—"Well, what of it?"

Scotty—"Ye ken the doctor said ye wanted a change of air."—"Pathfinder."

"That florist surely keeps in touch with his slogan, 'Say it with flowers.'"

"What's his method?"

"Well, he sent me a bunch of forget-me-nots with each bill."—"Christian Register."

Fashion has lifted a considerable burden off the clothesline.—"Harrisburg News."

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner

2d and Reed Streets

Good Meat Is Our Specialty

Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

GEORGE C. GALLAGHER

Wholesale and Retail Dealer In

Grain : Feed : Hay : Straw

Both Telephones 225 WHARTON STREET

Jackson 2881 "SAY IT WITH FLOWERS" Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R

FRANK C. QUINN

...FLORIST...

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.

Prescription Druggist

(Deutsche Apotheke)

S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

Teacher—"Robert, give me a sentence using the word 'satiate.'"

Bobby—"I took Mamie Jones to a picnic last summer and I'll satiate quite a lot."—"The Open Road."

Fussy Old Lady (as radio broadcaster sneezes)—"There! Now I'm sure I shall catch cold."—"Boston Transcript."

"Help your wife," says a writer in a domestic magazine. "When she mops up the floor, mop up the floor with her."—"Boston Transcript."

Broadcasting From Station S T J

JOIN THE 85 CLUB

* * * *

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW has visited every male member of the parish. The Confirmation Class is sure to show the results.

* * * *

THE DAUGHTERS OF THE KING have done a great missionary work among the women and girls of the parish, too. The 1927 Confirmation will surely be greatly augmented by it.

* * * *

Join the 85 Club; Only 7 Cents a Week.

* * * *

The Sunday evening Questions and Answers have been a big success. All of us learned how much we know—especially about that verse of Scripture on the Liberty Bell.

* * * *

The 85 Club Is Worth $8,139.23. Let's All Join and Make It Worth $50,000.00.

* * * *

St. John's Parish broke another record. The Sunday School Lenten Offering reached $1600.00.

* * * *

When everybody lifts, the load is very light. That is why a parish as poor as St. John's can do such big things. We could do twice as much if every drone in our hive was a busy bee.

* * * *

On Thursday, May 19th, Boy Scout Troop No. 274 won the RED STAR. We congratulate both the Scouts and their officers. Remember, with added honors always comes added responsibility.

* * * *

Join the Richest Club in the Parish and Move in Distinguished Society.

The 85 Club is worth $8,139.23 and its membership is unlimited. It admits all who love old St. John's Parish and are willing to pay 7 cents a week dues. Just put the dues in the 85 Club pocket of your church envelope and your name will be added to the list of Parish Boosters.

* * * *

The young man who flew from New York to Paris, and today stands shoulder to shoulder with Columbus for intrepidity and courage, neither smokes nor drinks, nor is he a jazz kid. AND ALL THE WORLD IS PROUD OF HIM—ESPECIALLY AMERICANS.

* * * *

BE SURE YOU JOIN THE 85 CLUB TODAY

1825--One Hundred & Two Years Old--1927

Southwark National Bank

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

William W. Foulkrod, Jr., President

Make THIS Bank YOUR Bank

Every Department of Banking at Your Service

MAIN OFFICE 610-12-14 S. Second St.

Central City Office 1515 Chestnut St.

Resources, Over $16,000,000.00

Atmore's Creamy Mayonnaise

For Salads, Sandwiches, Meats—the crowning touch of good taste!

Made by the makers of the famous ATMORE'S MINCE MEAT

ATMORE & SON, Inc.

110-124 Tasker St. Phila.

Founded 1842

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.

WHOLESALE

MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY

QUALITY

402-404 N. SECOND STREET

PHILADELPHIA

Bell Phone—Jackson 1887

Kathryn's Floral Shop

1727 SOUTH SECOND ST.

Palms with family trade.

Fresh Cut Flowers Daily

Funeral Designs

Wedding Bouqeuts

Res., 153 Moore St.

Potted Plants

The Parish Broadcaster

Vol. 1, No. 10 PHILADELPHIA, JULY, 1927 By Mail, $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

Mr. Thomas Skelly, Advertising Manager, S. W. Corner Third and Market Streets.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Mrs. Annie Cooper, First Women's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Second Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
Richard Snell, Treasurer.

Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Annie Cooper, President.
Mrs. Margaret Gresh, Vice President.
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh, Secretary.
Mrs. Mary Corson, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Laura Stenger, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John Edward Wolf, Scoutmaster, 4613 Tampa St.
Carl W. Schoenau, Asst. Scoutmaster, 1024 Wagner Ave.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryn Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Women's Auxiliary		3:00
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

May 29—William Ellsworth Smith.
June 12—Thelma May Little.
June 12—Jean Catherine Logue.
June 12—Edward William Capie.
June 12—Florence Hickman McBlain.
June 12—John Raines.
June 19—Robert Louis Daley.

MARRIAGES

June 11—Victor R. Coates, Florence M. Mitchell.
June 15—Harry W. Nelson, Nellie B. Gresh.

BURIALS

June 15—Mrs. Emma Cooper.
June 18—Elmer Ellsworth Sague, Sr.

Our Fifteenth Anniversary

If we can help it we will not write rapturously about our Anniversary. We are just going by the clock and tell of the events as they occurred.

11.00 A. M.

Day began with a Processional Hymn to the Holy Trinity, followed by the Anniversary Sermon from the text, Ezra III: 11. "ALL THE PEOPLE SHOUTED WITH A GREAT SHOUT WHEN THEY PRAISED THE LORD, BECAUSE THE FOUNDATION OF THE HOUSE OF THE LORD WAS LAID."

It was an incident which occurred at the rebuilding of the Temple at Jerusalem. To the rector it seemed to be a most appropriate setting for the Fifteenth Anniversary of the rebuilding of St. John's Church.

The sermon was followed by the Anniversary offering and an anthem by the Choir. Parenthetically we want to say that the splendid singing of our Choir added greatly to the enjoyment of the day.

Then followed the Holy Communion. The preliminary work of the Daughters of the King and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew was most manifest at this service. The congregation was enormous in size, quite equal to an Easter or Christmas service, because of the house-to-house work done by these church organizations. The number of men and boys who were present and received the Holy Communion was astonishing.

A tender feature of the morning's celebration was the presentation of two beautifully bound Altar books by Mr. Louis Zimmerman, in loving memory of his beloved wife, Mary F. Zimmerman. The rector used the books in all the services of the morning.

At the close of the service the rector baptized one man, one little girl and three infants.

1.00 P. M.

A great crowd of hungry guests met in the Sunday School room, where seven long tables stood bow-legged and wobbly under the strain of the load of real "eats" those wonderful ladies of the parish had started to prepare on Saturday morning. WE STILL CONTEND THAT THERE ARE NO SUCH COOKS IN THE WORLD AS THE HOUSEWIVES OF ST. JOHN'S PARISH.

3.00 P. M.

Our Sunday School got started an half hour late. But that didn't matter much; because, when we got under way, we made up for lost time and had a glorious afternoon. One of the interesting features of the service was the Bible readings on "Happiness" by the members of the Sunday School.

Just as we were in the midst of our work who should drop in on us but Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Warnock and their charming little daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Warnock were formerly prominent members of St. John's Parish. Mrs. Warnock was the church organist fifteen years ago and Mr. Warnock was an active and deeply interested worker in the parish; especially in the Sunday School and with the Boy Scouts. Upon request, Mr. Warnock gave an interesting talk before the Sunday School. It seemed like old times to have them with us.

5.00 P. M.

Supper was served! And oh, what a supper! However, to avoid tautology we will refer our readers to our remarks about the dinner. They applied at 5.00 P. M. as well as at 1.00 P. M.

6.00 P. M.

We began to register the candidates for Confirmation to be presented to the Bishop at the evening service. Before we had finished and had called the Class Roll, the Bishop and Mrs. Garland had arrived and the Bishop was introduced to our Class of 1927.

8.00 P. M.

The Choir led the class procession into the Church singing, "Stand up, stand up for Jesus" tune, Dr. Adam Geibel. The congregation was the largest ever gathered in St. John's Church.

After the Processional the Bishop made a very complimentary address as to our fifteen years' achievements and promised us our Parish House in the near future.

Mr. Peter Volpe sang his own musical composition to the beautiful solo "Ave Maria" for the Offertory. It was rendered in Mr. Volpe's usual masterly way.

Following the Offertory was the presentation and Confirmation of the Class of 1927. Seventy-seven were confirmed and two were received on declaration of faith.

At the conclusion of the Confirmation Service, St. John's Choir rendered in splendid style the anthem, "How Beautiful Are the Mountains." For a volunteer choir the artistry of St. John's is superior. On every side were heard favorable comments upon their singing.

Then came the second feature of the evening's program when the rector in a few words commented about certain helpful friends who had encouraged him in the years of struggle. "Especially," said he, "there was one person, a woman of prominence in the Diocese, who had been helpful and sympathetic. The parish wanted her to know how much she was loved by all its members by presenting her with a basket of flowers. No name was mentioned; but at this point a group of girls came forward, received the basket of flowers from the rector and carried it around the church to the pew in which Mrs. Garland was seated and presented it to her. The surprised and gracious way she received it completely won the hearts of all. The girls who presented the basket are "Bishop Garland's" Sunday School Class.

Then followed the final surprise of the evening when Bishop Garland came forward and presented a green gold ring, bearing the insignia of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, to Mr. Sidney Hopson, Scoutmaster of St. John's Boy Scout Troop. The ring was the Brotherhood's way of showing him how much they appreciated what he had done for the boys of the parish. Mr. Hopson is leaving us to take up his ministry in the Diocese of Florida, where he is about to be ordained.

Another feature of the evening was the surprise visit of Grebel Post, No. 10, Sons of Veterans, of which the rector is a member. He spotted them as soon as he entered the church and both the Bishop and he expressed their pleasure in having the Post as their guest of the evening.

After the Recessional, "Oh Jesus, I Have Promised to Serve Thee to the End," the Bishop held an informal reception for the newly confirmed members in the Sunday School room.

And THAT was the end of a perfect day.

THE STORY OF THE CLUB

(Continued.)

"See here, young man, I have been waiting years and years and came nearly dying of old age for those folks to think up some plan to pay that debt. I said to myself if that time ever comes and they make an honest-to-goodness trial at paying up I'm going to give them one-half of the price of that mortgage. You have at last done what I wanted them to do, so here is money to pay one-half that mortgage at once."

The man was so stunned he almost fell over backward. But he wasn't too surprised not to take the money, and he paid one-half that debt right away. Of course that cut the interest in half and that made it so much easier to raise the rest of the money, so that at the end of two more years all the money was raised and the mortgage was cancelled.

Of course, everybody was happy.

Then the stranger who wanted the mortgage paid said, "Now why don't we go right on and pay our one cent a day in just as before? So if at any time we want to repair the building or want money for something else, we will have it on hand and will never get into debt again?"

There was a long silence. Some folks drew away; others after considerable thought said, "Sure, why not?" And arrangements were made to form a club and each member continue to pay a cent a day. Fourteen years went by and today when the man (no longer a stranger) went over the bank book of the Club he found the Club was worth $8139.23 and was now getting $320.00 year interest on its deposits.

Now most of you no doubt are saying, "My! but that was an awful long story. Too bad it was only a story and was not true.

But it IS true!

The number of men who built that building were the original members of the original Church of St. John the Evangelist.

The building was the church itself.

The sons and daughters were the members who were christened, confirmed and married in the church.

The stranger who wanted the mortgage paid is your present rector.

The woman who put the idea in his head but who died so suddenly was one of the saints of the parish.

The big man who stood by the stranger was not a member of the church but the father of one of the members.

The club that was formed and has grown so rich is the 85 Club.

The way money is paid is in the pocket of the weekly church envelope. Every Sunday the faithful pay 7 cents in the 85 Club.

If you want to join, all you have to do is to put 7 cents in your 85 Club pocket every week and watch the club grow richer.

MEMBERS OF THE 1927 CONFIRMATION CLASS

The one outstanding feature of the rector's' fifteenth anniversary was the splendid Confirmation Class presented the Bishop Sunday evening, June 12. The following is the list of those who were confirmed:

GIRLS

Catherine Anderson
Florence Matilday Armstrong
Marie Bartels
Anna Marie Bright
Catherine Burns
Esther Capie
Anna Capie
Elizabeth Darr
Clara Mary Frederickson
Anna Geiger
Anna Lloyd Grigg
Anna Elizabeth Hill
Theresa Elizabeth Henderson
Margaret Louisa Hogg
Kathryn Dick McBlain
Rosella McLaughlin
Anna Elizabeth McLaughlin
Margaret Louise Matthieu
Margaret Elizabeth Marquart
Margaret Ellen Moore
Mary Elizabeth Moore
Emma May Miller
Eleanor Marie Nugent
Florence Penrose
Evelyn St. Clair Pierce
Elizabeth Catharine Pine
Jennie Miller Reynolds
Leona Caroline Reynolds
Bertha Hannah Righter
Mabel Elizabeth Robins
Hattie Marie St. Clair
Helen E. St. Clair
Carrie Ward.

WOMEN

Helen Adams
Nancy Casper
Ida Dean
Anna May Fauger
Elizabeth Mackenzie Grigg
Eva St. Clair Peirce
Irene Melvina Rebman
Matilda Greenwood Tittermary
Margaret Elizabeth Tomlin
Margaret Marie Snell
Agnes Elizabeth Sweeney

BOYS

Clarence William Anderson
James Baxter
William James Clements
William Lafayette Clendenning
Charles James Clendenning
Charles Joseph Dunne
Francis George Dillmore
John Dillmore
John Walto Dingler
William Owen Dingler
Clarence Easterday
Thomas Robert Friend
Peter George Jacobus
David Lenhardt
Frank Morris Miller
James Matthew McKeown
Michael Charles McLaughlin
Albert Marquart Nilsson
Richard Franks Orr
Walter Orr
John Henry Penrose
Walter Joseph Reynolds
William Henry Rutter
Harry Lemuel Rutter
Richard Powell Rutter
John Albert Schmidt
Harry Schmidt
James Edward Stockman
Abraham Lincoln Ward

MEN

John Dysert
Robert MacGinniss
William Quailes
Samuel Nathaniel Reeves
John Raines
Edward Morris Tittermary

TUESDAY, JUNE 14

Tuesday, June the 14th, 1927, was a day of many events. First and foremost, as all good Americans know, it was the 150th Anniversary of the birth of "Old Glory." Second; it rained and rained and rained from early morning till late at night. Just like it always does when St. John's parish is celebrating something. And Third; it was the Fifteenth Anniversary Celebration of your rector. Those who started it going and kept it up can give our dear readers a more coherent account of the events of the occasion than can the writer. He is still in a semi-comatose state, and like our "Hoppie" said the old darkey said he, too, is saying, "Oh, Lord, I don't deserve this."

The rector dimly remembers being met at Fourth and Reed streets by the Boy Scout Troop, being escorted to the church, led into a darkened room, where he was greeted by an appalling yell from hundreds of lusty lungs which made the "welkin ring," whatever a welkin is. Next he remembers being rushed forward to gaze upon a horse shoe brilliantly lighted with electric blubs with the figure "15" right in the center of the kick. Then there floated on his consciousness the sweet strains of music which seemed to filter through the air from the direction where the piano is parked. Then he must have fallen into a deep sleep and dreamed a most wonderful dream about a group of beautiful girls singing and playing. Then it seemed to him that one of these beautiful creatures all in pink, with black hair and dark eyes, whose face was strangely familiar, stepped out of the crescent and off the stage and took him by the hand and led him right up to the very center of all those rainbow beauties and began to sing the most beautiful melodies to him.

Then after a time the dream shifted and he was on a big stage before a great company of people with an enormous birthday cake, bearing 15 burning tapers, in front of him. He was commanded "to blow the candles out." He remembered saying something about the difficulty of the task and asked if blowing the lights out would do as well. Then with a mighty puff he blew all 15 flames right off the candles, clear through the room, out the front door into the wet rain, where they got damp and expired. The next vision he had was that of a very beautiful bird, in a beautiful golden cage, which began to say "Cheep" or "Cheap," we are not just certain which. But as he appeared to be a jolly little fellow, the rector took no offense at his thinly veiled innuendo. Maybe the little rascal had been told to say it by somebody the size of that elongated Master of Ceremonies who was bossing everything from the tolling of the dish pan in the Stygian darkness of the night to the heavenly chimes of Grandfather's clock "that stood on the floor."

Then through the dream was heard a familiar voice say, I fell out of the buggy and landed on my "Apostolic Succession." That the rector of St. John's was this, that and the other thing; that a certain city was spelled by three-sevenths of a chicken, two-thirds of a cat and one-half of a goat; I'll not be hearing in H—— anything worse than this, etc., etc., etc. It was just like a dream. It was the voice of one of our dearest and best friends, a voice we love to hear.

After the voice ceased its friendly comments somebody comes up and puts certain missiles in the rector's hands and hissed into his leaden (or was it a tin) ear something about "Hoppie" and "give it to him." At the suggestion the rector mounted a stage bathed in Philadelphia Electric and calling Hoppie began to pelt him with the packages when he appeared.

The next phase of this wild dream was the sudden public appearance of the rector's much better half, who jumped completely out of her character to wave a big basket of flowers before a vast multitude of people and shout in a whisper that could be heard a foot away,

"THANK YOU." After which burst of eloquence she reverted to her natural dignified self and didn't say another word all night.

It seems that some humane and thoughtful dream spirit noticed the flowers in Mrs. Rector's basket were peonies and evidently recalling the fact that the rector was not above sneezing in the faces of a bunch of peonies, procured a box of big hankies to hold before his face to muffle the explosion.

Just then two creatures closely resembling human beings came out of the side of the wall. One began to push the trees around while the other gesticulated wildly and made funny noises with his mouth. Suddenly the one stopped changing the landscape and the other ceased his calisthenics and both made a dash for the northwest corner, waved the American flag and like the genii of Aladdin's lamp, produced with uncanny magic a big grandfather's clock, full of chimes and things. The rector evidently slipped into a sound and dreamless sleep after that and remembered nothing more 'till he found himself walking out in the rain with twenty-four pounds of cake under his arm.

It Was a Great and Glorious Time.

MORBUS SABBATICUS

(More prevalent in summer.)

Morbus Sabbaticus, or Sunday sickness, is a disease peculiar to church members.

1. The symptoms vary, but it never interferes with the appetite.
2. It never lasts more than twenty-four hours.
3. No physician is ever called.
4. It always proves fatal in the end—to the soul.
5. It is becoming fearfully prevalent and is destroying thousands every year.

The attack comes on suddenly every Sunday; no symptoms are felt on Saturday night, and the patient sleeps well and awakes feeling well; eats a hearty breakfast, but about church time the attack comes on and continues until services are over for the morning. Then the patient feels better and eats a hearty dinner. In the afternoon he feels much better and is able to take a ride and read the Sunday papers. He eats a hearty supper, but about church time he has another severe attack and stays at home. He awakens Monday morning refreshed and able to go to work, and does not have any symptoms of the disease until the following Sunday.—The First Christian Church Record, Houston, Texas.

THE UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE

A group of travelers gathered in the corner of a midtown club were discussing the question of languages. Several contended that a knowledge of foreign tongues facilitated travel, while others argued that the sign language would take a man around the world without his experiencing any difficulties. One veteran circumnavigator stated that attempts to use foreign tongues only complicated matters, but that gestures were always understood. He turned to Irvin S. Cobb, who was one of the group, for confirmation of his assertions.

"Well, yes and no," remarked the well-known humorist. "It's all right if you don't get your signals mixed. Now, one time when I was in Spain I wanted to get a bottle of milk, and for the life of me I couldn't think of the word for milk, nor of the word for bottle. After several attempts I decided upon the sign language. Holding my index fingers to my temples like horns, I uttered, 'Moo! Moo Moo!' several times. Suddenly the face of the shopkeeper brightened, and with understanding he exclaimed, 'Si, Senor!' and disappeared into a back room, to return presently with two tickets to a bull fight."

PASS IT ON

Have you had a kindness shown?
Pass it on;
'Twas not given for you alone,
Pass it on;
Let it travel down the years,
Let it wipe another's tears,
Till in Heaven the deed appears;
Pass it on.

Did you hear a loving word?
Pass it on;
Like the singing of a bird,
Pass it on;
Let its music live and grow,
Let it cheer another's woe,
You have reaped what others sow—
Pass it on.

'Twas the sunshine of a smile,
Pass it on;
Staying but a little while,
Pass it on.
April beam, a little thing,
Still it wakes the flowers of Spring,
Makes the silent birds to sing;
Pass it on.

Have you found a heavenly light?
Pass it on;
Souls are groping in the night,
Daylight gone;
Hold thy lighted lamp on high,
Be a star in someone's sky,
He may live who else would die—
Pass it on.

—Selected.

BROADCASTING FROM LAUGH LAND

An echo is the only thing that can cheat a woman out of the last word.—Blue Dragon.

* * *

The usher was passing the collection basket. He passed it to a man who shook his head and refused to give.

"Take some then," said the usher. "It's for the heathen."—St. Matthew Monthly, St. Matthew E. L. Church, Appleton, Wisconsin.

* * *

A worthy missionary in India had the hymn, "Rock of Ages," translated into Hindustani. On retranslation into English by a student, the first two lines were as follows:

"Very old stone, split for my benefit
Let me absent myself under your fragments."

—St. Paul's Herald, St. Paul's U. L. Church, Dansville, New York.

* * *

"Am dere anybody in de congregation what wishes prayer for dere failin's?" asked the colored minister.

"Yassuh," responded Brother Jones. "Ah's a spen'-thrif', and Ah throws mah money 'round reckless like."

"Ve'y well. We will join in prayer fo' Brother Jones—jes, aftah de collection plate have been passed."—B. Y. P. U. Booster, San Diego, California.

* * *

Some people can't believe they are petting the cat at all unless they are rubbing the hair the wrong way!

* * *

Some fellows think that the way to stop violation of the law is to make everything legal.—American Lumberman.

* * *

A Footnote: The Richmond News-Leader expressed a great truth, not much exaggerated, when it said: "Man is an able creature, but he has made 32,647,389 laws and hasn't yet improved on the Ten Commandments."

* * *

A contemporary describes betting as a means of getting something for nothing. Experience teaches us that it is usually a method of getting nothing for something.—Punch.

* * *

"Have you ever been at sea before?" asked the captain of an Irishman who applied as a cook on a steamer docked at New York.

"At sea before? An' dy'e think Oi come over from the ould country in a cab?"

* * *

The following motto is found in Woodland Christian Church (for Negroes), Kansas City, Missouri:

"Wake up, sing up, preach up, pray up, pay up, stay up and never give up, or let up, or back up, or shut up, until the Cause of Christ in this church and the world is built up."—St. Paul's Lutheran Messenger, Spokane, Washington.

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

CHARLES HALL, Tailor
Southern Pressing Establishment
715 SOUTH FIFTEENTH STREET

R. L. HAMMEY
DeLancey Tailor
FOR
Ladies and Gentlemen
S. W. Cor. 23d and Pine Streets

Keystone—Main 4644

Bell—Lombard 035

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

Mrs. Smith's
Home Cooking : Lunch Room
S. E. Cor. 22d and Naudain Streets

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds

Both Phones

Philadelphia Bag Co.
BURLAP AND COTTON BAGS
Water and Dickinson Streets

In a certain town, says London Answers, an earthquake had terrified the inhabitants and sent them scurrying away to other places.

But one particular family were unable to leave their business and so they sent their only child, a small boy, to an uncle's house, in case another quake took place.

Less than a week later the boy returned to his parents. In his hand he held a note addressed to his father:

"Dear George," ran the missive, "am returning Willie herewith. Send the earthquake."

* * *

First Citizen—"Did you swear to your income tax papers?"

Second Ditto—"I swore to them, at them, through them, in them, over them, under them, before them, behind them, about them and all around them—if that is what you mean."—Pathfinder.

* * * *

Immanuel, the Brave Toreador—"Ah, senorita, tonight I will steal beneath your balcony and sing you a sweet serenade."

Consuello, the Beautiful Senorita—"Do. And I will drop you a flower."

Immanuel—"Ah, in a moment of mad love?"

Consuello—"No, in a pot."—Penn State Froth.

A LITTLE RHYME AND A LITTLE REASON

Rev. Henry Anstadt, D. D.

If a man would be a soldier, he'd expect, of course, to fight;
And he couldn't be an author if he didn't try to write.
So it isn't common logic, doesn't have a real, true ring,
That a man to be a Christian doesn't have to do a thing.

If a man would be a hunter, he must go among the trees;
And he couldn't be a sailor if he wouldn't sail the seas.
How strange for any member of a church to think that he
Can stay away from worship and a worthy member be!

When you join associations, you must pay up all your dues;
And you pay for all you purchase, from your hat down to your shoes.
There are social clubs for women. and the same for men and boys,
But the members all expect to pay for what each one enjoys.

Then how is it that the members of a church can sit in pews,
And expect some few to run it without others paying dues?
The costs of operation must be met in church the same
As in home or corporation or in work of any name.

Let us honestly consider why this difference we find,
Between our church relations and every other kind.
Our business obligations MUST be met, the laws provide;
But the church is not insistent, so we let the matter slide.

May we undertake our duties for our church and for our Lord
With such measure of devotion as accords with His own Word.
If our human obligations thus are recognized, why then
Surely God should have our service now and evermore. Amen.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

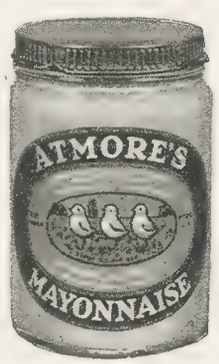
Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

GEORGE C. GALLAGHER
Wholesale and Retail Dealer In
Grain : Feed : Hay : Straw
Both Telephones 225 WHARTON STREET

Jackson 2881 "SAY IT WITH FLOWERS" Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R
FRANK C. QUINN
...FLORIST...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.



Atmore's Creamy Mayonnaise
For Salads, Sandwiches, Meats—the crowning touch of good taste!
Made by the makers of the famous ATMORE'S MINCE MEAT
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 Tasker St. Phila.
Founded 1842

Broadcasting From Station S T J

The Director of our Brotherhood of St. Andrew Chapter is an early bird. Sometimes he comes to church an hour and a half ahead of time. All "sleepy-heads" and "lazybones" please copy.

* * *

Brother Sidney Hopson—familiarly known as "Hoppie"—is wedded to St. John's parish. He received the ring on Sunday, June 12.

* * *

CHARLIE LITTLE IS A POP.

* * *

The presence of Bishop and Mrs. Garland made our fifteenth anniversary just about perfect.

* * *

A certain young couple we know were riding one dark night through the wilds of Jersey, but they never reached their destination. It appears that the young man had two ribs fractured and had to be returned for repairs. The young woman was uninjured. If it had been her ribs that were fractured no explanation would have been necessary. Any person old enough to appreciate beauty and heart thrills could easily understand. But for the young man to be damaged would make it seem that next time he had better "tackle" first, only he need not be so rough as she was.

* * *

We wish to publicly express our thanks to the ladies of the parish for our Anniversary "eats."

* * *

The Chapters of the Daughters of the King and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew have every reason to be proud of the results of their efforts to build up our 1927 Confirmation Class. Now keep right after the newly confirmed and make them feel that they "belong."

* * *

HOW ABOUT PAINTING THE CHURCH?

* * *

Did you catch what the Bishop said about that new parish house of ours?

* * *

There are over 200 Sunday Schools in the Diocese and St. John's ranked the eighth in the size of its Lenten offering on Easter day. The Bishop is so pleased that he is telling it all over the Diocese?

* * *

We hope the distinguished guests of our fifteenth anniversary will come again. Their visit added greatly to our pleasure.

* * *

What city is spelled by three-sevenths of a chicken, two-thirds of a cat and one-half of a goat? Ask Dr. Tomkins—he knows.

* * *

The parish gave the rector a canary named Peter. He is a friendly little fellow and sings like a bird. His permanent residence is 225 South Third street.

* * *

Also, the parish gave the rector something he has yearned for these many years but felt he could not afford to spend so much money. It is a beautiful Grandfather's clock with chimes. DOES HE LIKE IT? WELL, RATHER!!

* * *

"HOPPIE" WAS ALL "FUSSED UP," TOO.

* * *

SO LONG, HOPPIE. COME BACK SOON. WE LIKE YOUR STYLE.

1825--One Hundred & Two Years Old--1927

Southwark National Bank

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

William W. Foulkrod, Jr., President

Make THIS Bank YOUR Bank

Every Department of Banking at Your Service

MAIN OFFICE 610-12-14 S. Second St.

Central City Office 1515 Chestnut St.

Resources, Over $16,000,000.00

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.

WHOLESALE

MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY

QUALITY

402-404 N. SECOND STREET

PHILADELPHIA

Bell Phone—Jackson 1887

Kathryn's Floral Shop

1727 SOUTH SECOND ST.

Palms with family trade.

Fresh Cut Flowers Daily

Funeral Designs

Wedding Bouqeuts

Res., 153 Moore St.

Potted Plants

The Parish Broadcaster

Vol. 1, No. 11 PHILADELPHIA, SEPTEMBER, 1927 By Mail, $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

Mr. Thomas Skelly, Advertising Manager, S. W. Corner Third and Market Streets.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Mrs. Annie Cooper, First Women's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Second Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Annie Cooper, President.
Mrs. Margaret Gresh, Vice President.
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh, Secretary.
Mrs. Mary Corson, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Mary Woener. Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John Edward Wolf, Scoutmaster, 4613 Tampa St.
Carl W. Schoenau, Asst. Scoutmaster, 1024 Wagner Ave.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryn Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Women's Auxiliary		3:00
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Martin O'Brien.
Joseph James Stancliff.
Myrtle Marie Ward.
Shirley L. Laughlin.
Robert Charles Nilsson.
Lilly May Dingler.
Alice Hankins
Harry Philip Meinhardt.
Claire Eleanor Wilhelm.
Irvin Warren McAdams.

MARRIAGES

Samuel H. Bainbridge. Frances M. Pharo.
Louis C. Zimmerman. Mary R. Alburger.
Charles Moan. Edna Elisa Hines.

BURIALS

Edward E. Jones.
Theresa R. Champion.
Adam Alburger.
Charles Wernley.
Mabel E. Gerry.
Margaret Baxter.
Mary Keen.
Albert Jones.
Elmira Bunker
Ernest Prowattain
Walter Ryan

IN MEMORIAM

James A. Sweeney, Jr.
September 9th, 1926
Age 5 Years

"Of Such Is The Kingdom of Heaven"

Anna S. Loughrey

"Whosoever Liveth and Believeth in Me Shall Never Die."

Not Good Enough For God

While we were eating our lunch today the following two stories were told us which we feel are worth repeating. The first was about a missionary who went to preach to a congregation of very poor Negroes in Hawaii. The one fact that impressed itself most strongly upon the missionary was their extreme poverty. He conducted the service as usual and preached the sermon, after which he closed the service, but much to his surprise he noticed the congregation made no move to go home but just sat still. Thinking they did not understand he told them the service was ended. "Oh, no," said they "you did not take up the offering, and it is not a service if you have no offering. Thinking to humor them, and at the same time feeling deeply touched by their spirit of sacrifice, he requested one of them to pass a hat among the members of the mission. When the hat was returned he was astounded at the size of the offering and made the remark that it was most surprising. The man who had passed the hat looked most disturbed and said, "Did they not give enough? Just say the word and I will pass the hat again." "Oh, no," hastily replied the missionary, "I did not mean that; I meant it is much larger than I expected. Why there is not one copper among all these coins." "Of course not," replied the man, "WE WOULD NOT THINK OF GIVING COPPERS TO GOD. THEY ARE NOT GOOD ENOUGH FOR HIM."

The other story was about a man who was invited to talk to the scholars of a certain church school. In the course of his talk he held up a cent, when the following dialogue took place:

Speaker—"What is this?"
Answer—"A cent."
Speaker—"What do we do with it?"
Answer—"Give it in Sunday School."

The speaker then held up a dime and the following dialogue took place:

Speaker—"And what is this?"
Answer—"A dime."
Speaker—"And what do we do with the dime?"
Answer—"Buy candy with it."

Again, the speaker held up a quarter when the following dialogue resulted:

Speaker—"Now what is this?"
Answer—"A quarter."
Speaker—"And what do we do with it?"
Answer (shouted)—"Go to the movies."

EVIDENTLY EVERYBODY BELIEVES IN TAKING THE QUOTATION LITERALLY WHICH DECLARES "SALVATION'S FREE."

Ten Bible Questions.

1. What is the meaning of "Aceldama," and where is the word found in Scriptures?
2. On what mountain is it supposed the Transfiguration took place?
3. On what mountain was the Sermon on the Mount supposed to have been preached?
4. Who built Caesarea-on-the-Sea, Tiberias, Caesarea-Phillipi?
5. Where did Jesus Christ perform his first miracle; his second miracle?
6. Name the Disciples of Jesus; the Apostles of Jesus.
7. Where were the followers of our Lord first called "Christians," and why?
8. What Apostles, being imprisoned by the authorities, were liberated by the Angel of God? Name the several occasions.
9. Where did the slaughter of the Innocents occur?
10. What does "Decapolis" mean, and where is it found?

Notes From The Summer Camp

Shack-in-the-Pines
Browns Mills, N. J.

Let him that hath ears listen:

We think the "Shack" a wonderful place and are happy to be here. We hope those who have been fortunate enough to have spent a vacation here will recall with pleasure those days while reading these notes.

We regret that all the girls could not stay the entire period, but were most happy to have them for the few weeks they did stay.

WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW:

Who forgets prayers?
Who forgot their coal contribution?
Who forgot their Easter envelope?

BECAUSE:

We have had nothing but rain—fine rain—heavy rain

—drizzly rain—big drops—all kinds of rain—even wet rain.

Some Pertinent Questions

Who told our Chaperon she could dance? Ask John Nelson.

Does Anna Warren know her head from her feet? She usually covers her head and leaves her feet exposed.

Does Peggy Kensil know any other word beside "young" and spaloofious?" We can give no information regarding the source of the last word, but it is in Peggy's vocabulary.

Does May Pine know any other pet name besides "Dope," with an outstanding "D?"

What did Peggy Kensil say when she went after water and got stalled in the lake?

What would happen if Margaret Rutter stood up straight?

What would happen if Elizabeth Bowers added a few inches to her stature?

Will Kathryn Hasson refuse to bark when she no longer eats hot dogs?

Did Frances Hudak enjoy her walk?

Some Things We Never Saw at Camp

Margaret Rutter NOT cleaning her glasses.

Frances Hudak NOT taking a mile trot back and forth in the "Green Dragon."

The Chaperon MINUS her book and pencil, also a pretzel.

Peggy Kensil talking WITHOUT moving her hands.

Anna Warren LAST in line to get washed.

May Pine WITHOUT a smile.

Elizabeth Bowers SITTING QUIET for an hour.

Kass Hassan WITHOUT candy.

Martha McHenry ON TIME for breakfast.

Things We Heard at Camp

"Well, I must take my medicine."

"Now, in my time——"

"I think I will have to take a 'young' bath."

"Do you need a special invitation to dry dishes?"

"I wonder if they have lemon lolly-pops!"

"I wish it was time to go to the movies."

"Cherry ice cream cone, please."

"Time, please—oh! what a dizzy operator."

People to Whom We Are Indebted

Mr. McHenry for making it possible for us to enjoy ourselves at the "Shack."

Mrs. Pine for her delicious salads and pies.

The "boy friends" who kindly brought them—said pies and salads—from the city to the camp.

Meta Jaeschke for her delectable cup cakes.

Herman Jaeschke for the unlimited use of his "Cheve."

And finally,

HERE'S HOPING WE ALL MEET AT THE "SHACK" NEXT YEAR.

The Missionary Spirit of the Politician

THE GREATEST AND MOST EARNEST MISSIONARY OF CIVILIZATION IS THE POLITICIAN.

If you don't believe it this is the time of the year to see him at his best and be convinced. The explanation of those yells and applause down the street in that hall is that some politician full of "pep" is convincing a crowd of men that his particular party is the only party in the country that can possibly save this fair land of ours from national, commercial, social, financial and all other brands of oblivion. All you have to do in order to be prosperous and have a full dinner pail and own houses and lands and drive your own "Henry" is to vote the way he tells you. He is telling his audience that the other party or parties are either weak-minded or positively criminal and have sinister designs on the peace and prosperity of this "sweet land of liberty." He is calling black black and white white. He is sarcastic, pleading, abusive, persuading and dead in earnest. So earnest in fact that he actually almost convinces himself with his own arguments. He is talking to make converts. He wants the majority of voters to see the issues as he sees them and make the country safe for his party.

When he is through will he go home and roll into his bed and take his well-earned rest? No! No! This is only one of a series of speeches he is to make tonight. There is a car waiting him at the door. After he has succeeded in stirring these hundreds of men and women to a frenzy of enthusiasm he will jump into that car and rush off to a similar meeting several miles away and repeat his missionary effort. Then to another and still another until very late in the night, and then, but not till then, will he give up and seek his bed. He is not thinking of his comfort, he is spending the best of himself, both physically and mentally, for his party. And does his missionary efforts stop with talking convincingly to the voters? Not a bit of it! At home and in his office there are small armies of earnest litttle fellows who must be directed and told what to do for the salvation of the party. There is a constant ring of the phone; there are letters to read and answers to dictate; there are the "big fellows" to confer with; there is money to disburse; and so it goes on ceaselessly from early morning till late at night. There is always the fire of battle in his eye; his whole being is on the alert; his brain is hitting on all six cylinders as it were. Every minute of the day he is alive and humming. He eats, drinks, thinks, feels, sees, breathes, talks and even dreams his political faith. As sure as you come in contact with him you will feel the power of his convictions, and in all probability be converted. He is an irresistible and dynamic force. Nothing is left to chance. Money is paid out with dizzy abandonment. Differences are healed between fighting factions. Opposition is crushed with a cruel finality. Inefficiency is punished. Betrayal receives its just reward. Every cog in the political machine is closely inspected and tested, down to the humble ward heeler, whose duty it is to push door bell buttons and haul to the polls the inhabitants thereof, either dead or alive. Yes, sometimes in his earnestness to get results, he makes even the dead vote.

Go-get-'em, go-get-'em, go-get-'em! is the incessant cry and every henchman will be rewarded according to his works on the great day of election. Indeed, the politician is a missionary whose hunger for souls is amazing. He sends out into the highways and byways and compels them to come in. He goes after the poor, the halt, the maimed, the lame and the blind, especially the blind. No man is too great, rich or influential; no man is too lowly, poor or decrepit for him. He wants them all to join his party and go with him to the polls and vote with him on the great election day. And when it is all over and he and his have been rewarded for their labor by an overwhelming victory over their enemies, then there is music and dancing and parading with bands and the dividing of the spoils. He is a missionary who believes in his cause. He is a missionary who is not afraid of hard work. He is a missionary jealous of his opponent's success.

HE IS A MISSIONARY WHO GETS RESULTS.

WHAT IF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST WERE TO HAVE A BAND OF MISSIONARIES FULL OF THE POLITICIAN'S "PEP," MINUS HIS FAULTS!

What Sort of a Missionary Are You?

Daughters of the King

The Daughters of the King have now passed the first anniversary of their work in the Church of St. John the Evangelist. Those of us who have joined the Order and done the work with consecrated heart and mind have not only done much good but have also deepened our own spiritual life. From a social standpoint we have had many a good time. But it is to the women in the Parish in general that we wish to speak. We do not want you to have the idea that we are a selected few to which you cannot belong.

It is true we are an Order and not a society. It is true our motto is "Prayer and Service" in the name of the Master. It is true we are trying to abstain from gossip and unseemly jokes and stories, both inside and outside of our meeting. All these things are true, but is it not also true that every decent, self-respecting Christian woman is trying to do the same? So if you feel inclined to join the Order of the Daughters of the King do not hesitate, feeling we think ourselves better than others, for we do not. In addition to this, we also wish to say that if any of the older young women are interested in doing spiritual work for the Kingdom it would be wise for the Rector to organize a Junior Chapter.

THE CHOIR

The choir! What do those words mean to you? Do they make you think of the value of your choir or of the sacrifices that are made in order that you may have a beautiful service? How would you like a service without a choir? It is only when that question is asked directly to you that you realize just what the choir stands for.

If you want your choir to be the best it is up to you to make it so. Have you ever thought of encouraging the choir? Often people make remarks about how well the choir sings but these remarks they make among themselves. Suppose you did something very well, would you want people to tell some one else; or would you want them to tell you? The choir wants you to tell them when they have done well. Let them enjoy the benefits of your remarks or criticisms.

During the past few months many people have remarked about the improvement of the singing of the choir. Bishop Garland congratulated the choir on its good work. If people outside are beginning to notice your choir, don't you think it's time you noticed it yourself? Maybe your choir sings well, but how does it look? Would you be ashamed to have the choir of St. John's go in their vestments to another church? The next time you come to church take a good look at the choir's vestments. Some are tattered and some are torn. One cannot expect vestments to last forever. If you enjoy the singing and would like to show your appreciation, why not send a little donation to the choir? The choir is in need of new vestments. A well-dressed choir is what St. John's needs. Will you do your share to help us? The choir, your choir, is necessary to the church.

Invest Your Money in Vestments!

Recreation Center

On Saturday, July 2, the recreation center was opened for another summer. It was good to see many of our former members, and all the new people that came with them.

It was an unusually cool summer, so the children could play more and harder than they had in former summers. They enjoyed all the old favorite singing games, and delighted in learning new ones.

However, it was not all play at the recreation center. Children, as well as older people, get tired of nothing but leisure, so we provided plenty of work for them. The little children sewed cards by the dozen. We had any number of green pigs, orange apples and purple cats, but why shouldn't we have variety if we want? If children can imagine green pigs, let them have them. They also enjoyed cutting colored paper and making patterns from them.

The children also had little paper gifts to work on. They used great originality and much thought in the coloring and shaping of them. They worked hard because they were pretty things, and the children wanted them to look good enough for Christmas presents.

And the dolls! Who would have thought that so many different nationalities could emerge from the same kind of yellow stocking? We had an Indian, some Chinamen, a Hawaiian—and—an Irish-Dutch-Chinaman. Ask Elsie Fort. Also, we had quite a number of attractive wooly-headed colored children.

The older girls also spent a great deal of time on the planning and making of the costumes that they wore in the exhibition. And they were pretty!

For the girls who came regularly, a special treat was provided in the form of a trip to Brown's Mills. Every Monday morning a group of happy children would be waiting at the church all ready to start. They looked so anxious and eager to be gone—and they were evidently not disappointed in their stay. The next Monday the children would be back in the recreation center with wonderful tales to tell of the swimming, canoeing, parties and all the other good times they had. Most of Monday was spent in reminiscing—"Do you remember this?"—"Say, what did you think of that?"—"Didn't we have fun that night?"—"Didn't she look funny when she fell overboard?"—and so on until the rest of us who had been in the city all week were just green with envy.

"What do we have on Fridays?" Children scream, "Ice cream!" Correct. We had the most fun on Fridays. That was one time when we did play all day long—because it was our party day. It was so interesting to listen to them—yelling and screaming all morning—but at half-past eleven there would be a dead silence. One would have thought that all the children had gone—but no—they were still there. Without saying a word? Of course! They were all so busy eating they hadn't a chance to talk!

But the biggest party of all was on Wednesday, August 31, when we had our commencement, and brought our parents and brothers and friends to show them what we had been doing. People sitting on the floor enjoyed themselves—but we had the best time of all. We were so excited that we could hardly keep still during the speeches, but who wouldn't be excited when they are giving a show that they had prepared so carefully? Before we started we gave the people a chance to admire the handiwork and the decorations that we had made all by ourselves.

Then the program began. This is what we gave:

I. Songs—entire group.
   1. "The Clock."
   2. "The Hurdy Gurdy."
   3. "Content."

II. Dances—Elsie Fort's smaller children.
   1. "Dance of Greeting."
   2. "Carrousel."

III. Talk by Mr. McHenry.

IV. Dances—older girls.

V. Awarding of Prizes.
   1. Attendance. Eleanor Lenhart, absent only three times all summer.
   2. Good behavior and general helpfulness at Brown's Mills and the Recreation Center, Florence Armstrong.
   3. Best handwork.
      1. Junior Group, Margaret Lenhart.
      2. Senior Group, Dorothy Stenger.

VI. "Little Brother and Sister"—Fairy Tale Dramatization.

VII. Cake Walk.

Mrs. Morazzi won the prize—a great big chocolate cake that Mrs. Fort was kind enough to bake for us.

It was a wonderful close to a happy season. There wasn't a single disappointing thing about the commencement. Everything was done so well that the directress, for one, felt very proud. The children really worked hard to make everything a success, and they deserved the applause they received.

There's another thing—we took a silver offering, to be used in interior decorating the church—and we earned just about thirty dollars. Wasn't that good?

It seems a long, long while to wait for next summer, but we are hoping that next summer will be even more successful and happy than this one was. And we hope that our friends will support and cheer us just as much next year as they have done in the past.

How Long Shall I Give ?

Go break to the needy sweet charity's bread,
"For giving is living," the angel said.
"And must I be giving again and again?"
My peevish and pitiless answer ran.
"Oh, no," said the angel, piercing me through;
"Just give 'till the Master stops giving to you."

—Anon.

MY IMPRESSIONS OF THE SUMMER SUNDAY EVENING SERVICE

* * *

St. John's Parish has again been the fortunate recipient of something new and attractive—The Summer Sunday Evening Service. Of course, only those who have attended one of these services can realize the enjoyment and pleasure obtained from it. But the enjoyment and pleasure mentioned is genuine because of the education attached. It is indeed the greatest service I have ever attended. There is the opportunity to come in closer contact with the life of Christ. I have learned many things about Christ that were new to me, and others have said the same. Then those who are fond of music have had the privilege of selecting their favorite hymns every Sunday if one so desired. I was particularly impressed by the large attendance of elderly ladies, who otherwise might have remained at home, missing, perhaps, the wonderful spiritual benefits they must have derived from these lectures. An interesting feature was an examination given periodically by the pastor to the congregation on the lectures delivered. A reward of $5 was given to the person answering the largest number of questions correctly. I am sure the congregation has appreciated this wonderful opportunity to become more intimately acquainted with the life of our Lord and to realize the awful struggle He made to overcome His many mountainous obstacles. His unfailing humility and patience is a most valuable lesson to us all. My only regret is that we can't continue to hear these lectures during the winter months. However, we have next summer to look forward to.

O-B-Server.

JUST NOW

Never mind about tomorrow—
It always is Today;
Yesterday has vanished,
Wherever none can say.

Each minute must be guarded—
Made worth the while somehow;
There are no other moments,
It always is: JUST NOW.

JUST NOW, is the hour that's golden,
The moment to defend,
JUST NOW, is without beginning,
JUST NOW, can never end.

Then never mind tomorrow,
'Tis TO-DAY you must endow
With all that's true and noble
And the time for this is NOW.

—Writer Unknown.

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

CHARLES HALL, Tailor
Southern Pressing Establishment
∵ 715 SOUTH FIFTEENTH STREET ∵

R. L. HAMMEY
DeLancey Tailor
FOR
Ladies and Gentlemen
S. W. Cor. 23d and Pine Streets

Keystone—Main 4644 Bell—Lombard 035

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

Mrs. Randolph's
Home Cooking : Lunch Room
S. E. Cor. 22d and Naudain Streets

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds Both Phones

Philadelphia Bag Co.
BURLAP AND COTTON BAGS
Water and Dickinson Streets

I DO BELIEVE

We are quite sure
That He will give them back—bright, beautiful, and pure.
We know He will but keep
Our own and His until we fall asleep.
We know He does not mean
To break the strands reaching between
The Here and There.
He does not mean—though Heaven be fair—
To change the spirits entering there, that they forget
The eyes upraised and wet,
The lips too still for prayer,
The mute despair.

He will not take
The spirit which He gave, and make
The glorified so new
That they are lost to me and you.
I do believe
They will receive
Us—you and me—and be so glad
To meet us that when most I would grow sad
I just begin to think about that gladness.
And the day
When they shall tell us all about the way
That they have learned to go—
Heaven's pathways show.

My lost, my own, and I
Shall have so much to see together by and by,
I do believe that just the same sweet face,
But glorified, is waiting in the place
Where we shall meet, if only I
Am counted worthy in that by and by.

I do believe that God will give a sweet surprise
To tear-stained, saddened eyes,
And that His Heaven will be
Most glad, most tided through with joy for you and me
As we have suffered most.

God never made
Spirit for spirit, answering shade for shade
And placed them side by side—
So wrought in one, though separate, mystified—
And meant to break
The quivering threads between. When we shall wake,
I am quite sure, we shall be very glad
That for a little while we were so sad.

GEORGE KLINGLE.

Broadcasting From Laughland

A husband is like an egg. If you keep him in hot water he'll become hard-boiled.—Pen Points.

* * *

Photographer—"Look this way and you'll see a pretty little dickey bird come out."

Modern Child—"Oh, don't be a nut; expose your plate and let's get this over with."—Vancouver Province.

* * *

"Can anyone here tell of one honest business that has been helped by the saloon," asked the orator.

"My business is honest and the saloon has been a great help to it," said one of the audience.

"What is your business?"

"I am an undertaker."

* * *

Plumber—"I've come to fix that old tub in the kitchen."

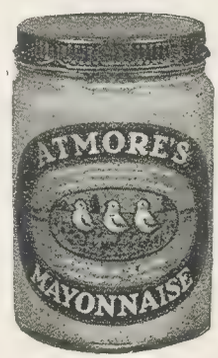
PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881 "SAY IT WITH FLOWERS" Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R
FRANK C. QUINN
...FLORIST...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.



Atmore's Creamy Mayonnaise
For Salads, Sandwiches, Meats—the crowning touch of good taste!
Made by the makers of the famous ATMORE'S MINCE MEAT
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 Tasker St. Phila.
Founded 1842

Youngster—"Mama, here's the doctor to see the cook."—Cynic.

* * *

Medical Examiner (to young student)—"Suppose there was a gunpowder explosion and a man were blown into the air. You, as the nearest doctor, are called in. What is the first thing you would do?"

"Wait for him to come down again," was the prompt reply.

* * *

Ardent suitor—"This ring I offer you is a symbol of the love I bear for you. It has no end!"

Haughty damsel—"It is also a symbol of the love I bear for you—it has no beginning!"—Chicago Tribune.

* * *

"How is it, Sambo, that you and your large family keep so healthy?"

Sambo—"Well, suh, Ah tell you! We've done bought one of dose sanitary drinkin' cups an' we all drink outen it."—Hardware Age.

* * *

"Come on, Margery! Let's have a dip."

"Oh, wait until they've finished looking at the airplane."—Bystander (London.)

* * *

CELEBRATING

"My dear," said the old man tenderly, "today is our diamond wedding and I have a little surprise for you."

"Yes," said the silver-haired wife.

He took her hand in his. "You see this engagement ring I gave you seventy-five years ago?"

"Yes," said the expectant old lady.

"Well, I paid the final installment on it today, and I am proud to announce that it is now altogether yours!"—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Broadcasting From Station S T J

Welcome home, everybody! Hope you had a fine vacation.

* * *

Vacation is the time to PLAY. Always is the time to PRAY.

* * *

Our Sunday evening summer services were seasons of real spiritual refreshment. Somehow Jesus Christ seems nearer to us who spent our summer evenings studying His life.

* * *

How do you like our church since it got a bath?

* * *

Now put away your tennis racket and your bathing suit and get out your overalls and working tools. We are going to do a lot of work at Old St. John's this year.

* * *

SPIRITUALLY SPEAKING—were your week-ends your weak ends?

* * *

We are proud to state that St. John's Church joined the group of churches that are open morning and evening all year 'round and has met with gratifying results. Our Sunday evening service of favorite hymns was quite a feature this summer.

* * *

What the future has in store for us—Bazaar, Coal bill, Painting the church and Paying up our Bishop's campaign Pledges.

* * *

Our congratulations are due to the members of our choir who were most loyal during the summer. Our services were made most helpful by their co-operation.

* * *

The Commencement exercises of St. John's Vacation School were most interesting. Miss H. W. McHenry, Miss Elsie Forte and Miss Martha McHenry deserve great credit for the success of the school.

* * *

Now everybody help the sexton to keep the church clean.

BELL PHONE—LOMBARD 3352

THOMAS A. SKELLY, President
WARREN V. ZELLERS, Sec'y and Treas.

WHOLESALE and RETAIL

SKELLY & ZELLERS

Successors to CADMUS BROS.

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN

Suit Cases, Trunks
Bags and Shoes

300 MARKET STREET

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.
WHOLESALE
MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY
QUALITY
402-404 N. SECOND STREET
PHILADELPHIA

The Parish Broadcaster

Vol. 1, No. 12 PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER, 1927 By Mail, $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

Mr. Thomas Skelly, Advertising Manager, S. W. Corner Third and Market Streets.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woener, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John Edward Wolf, Scoutmaster, 4613 Tampa St.
Carl W. Schoenau, Asst. Scoutmaster, 1024 Wagner Ave.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryn Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Women's Auxiliary		3:00
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

The Woman's Auxiliary

By McH.

TO OUR way of thinking the Woman's Auxiliary is by far the most important church organization of every parish or mission. It is the one society that ties up the interests and spiritual inspiration of all the women of the whole church and brings into activity one of the greatest forces for aggressive missionary work the church has ever possessed. In a parish, where there is a real live auxiliary, its zeal is felt in every branch of parochial life. It stimulates all that is good and spiritual in every woman and the inevitable result of such an awakening is a church on fire.

Extent of the Woman's Auxiliary

It is national in its scope. Its branches are found in nearly every parish and mission in the land. Wherever its principles and ideals are intelligently understood, the women of the church welcome it joyfully as the medium through which they can do their best work for the Glory of God and the propagation of the Gospel.

Membership of the Auxiliary

Its membership is made up of all the confirmed women of the church. No woman who is a member of the church need to make application for membership. It is not necessary to propose her name; nobody can prevent her, either by ballot or otherwise, from becoming a member. She has as much right to attend the meetings, make propositions and suggestions and vote on any questions that come up as any other woman. She has an equal right with all the other women of the parish to nominate any woman of the parish to any office or to accept any office in the Auxiliary or serve on any committee without challenge if she is elected or appointed thereto. There is no age limit as to membership. A consecrated young woman of 18 years is just as eligible as a woman of 80 years. As a matter of fact, the Auxiliary would welcome recruits from the ranks of the young women. The time is NOW that young church women of every parish and mission ought to come forward and give themselves to the aggressive prosecution of God's work by means of the Auxiliary.

Purpose of the Auxiliary

Its purpose is missionary in the parish, the Diocese; also in the Domestic, Foreign, Colored and Indian Hope Missions. This missionary activity of the Auxiliary is one of the greatest inspirations of the entire church. One must attend a Triennial meeting of the National Auxiliary before the truth of this observation can be fully appreciated. The demonstration of its missionary power on such occasions is a thrilling exhibition of enthusiasm, resources and strength. We believe that if such a calamity as the loss of the priesthood were possible, the Woman's Auxiliary, with its thousands of women members, could still "carry on" and plant the Cross of Jesus Christ in every land. One needs to attend only one national United Thank Offering Service to have his eyes opened to the real power of the Auxiliary.

Of late it has been developing a closer co-operation between itself and other women's parochial organizations. Such, for instance, as the Girls' Friendly Society, the Daughters of the King, the Church Mission of Help, etc., etc. Its object is the mutual strengthening and upbuilding of the women's organizations and work of the church. How very logical this co-operation is can be appreciated when one remembers that all women of the church are members of the Auxiliary; consequently the members of these other fine bodies are members of the Auxiliary and their labors and interests are more or less identical. A good, active consecrated Auxiliary woman is bound to make an almost perfect Daughter of the King.

Missionary Work Supported by the Auxiliary

It has the proud and enviable reputation of supporting many missionaries, both male and female, in the missionary fields of the church at home and abroad, about 214 in all. One can spend a most interesting time any week of the year listening to the reports of its five great committees, which meet Wednesdays at the Church House, Nineteenth and Walnut streets. As a matter of fact, we do not know a better way to acquaint ourselves with the big work of this wonderful organization than to attend the meetings of the Committees on Colored, Diocesan, Domestic, Foreign and Indian Hope Missions. If you were never interested before you are bound to become so after such visits. There and there only is revealed the Romance of Missions.

The Area of Auxiliary Mission Work

Wider and ever wider stretches the field of labor of the Auxiliary. The story of its modest beginnings and its gradual growth in strength and importance is of gripping interest. Even the reading of the financial reports of the five great committees of the Auxiliary of our Diocese reveal an area of labor that is astonishing in its extent. Money is sent to such missionary stations as Rosebud, S. D.; Fort Defiance, Arizona; Brazil, Onedia, Wiconsin; Indian Work, Duluth; Alaska, New Mexico, Nevada, Idaho, North Carolina, Porto Rico, Philippine Islands, Dominican Republic, South Carolina, Guantanamo, Japan, China, Liberia, Mexico, Cuba, Arkansas, Georgia, Florida, Iowa, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas, to say nothing of our own Diocesan missions and instititutions that are being aided through the supply shop and many other activities.

The Auxiliary Offering

We are impressed not only with the wide area of the Auxiliary activities, but also with the vast sums the Woman's Auxiliary raises to "carry on." The last national report of the society is most amazing, which was $953,450.52 for the year 1926. Also there is the United Thank Offering of $912,841.30, which is a triennial offering to missionary activities. And the bulk of this staggering sum is growing bigger and bigger every year.

The Challenge

The Woman's Auxiliary challenges the loyalty and enthusiasm of every woman of the church. Who is so dead to the romance of the work that she cannot be thrilled by such a record and determine to join the biggest movement in the church for the spread of salvation at home and abroad? Who is so lacking in imagination and heroism as not to see the big things our splendid and enthusiastic women are doing to "lighten the darkness" in many lands?

God grant the day is near when every woman, poor as well as rich, low as well as high, will come out under the standard of the Woman's Auxiliary and shoulder to shoulder, march from victory unto victory for the Kingdom.

Auxiliary Prayers

The Prayer for the Woman's Auxiliary

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Indians' Hope

O God of all the peoples of the earth, we implore Thy blessing on the Indian tribes, the oldest inhabitants of our country. Pardon the oppression and wrong which we have inflicted upon them. Grant that with justice and consideration our nation may care for its wards. Prosper, we pray Thee, all endeavors to win them to the knowledge of Thy Son, and to build them up in Christian faith and life. Protect and bless all who minister to their spiritual and temporal needs and reward all who seek their good, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The Prayer for the United Thank Offering

O Lord, our heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more laborers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere to give gladly as Thou hast given to them. Accept, from grateful hearts, our United Thank Offering of prayer and gifts and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Mission Study

Merciful Lord, we beseech Thee, cast the bright beams of Thy light upon the little groups that come together in Mission Study Classes throughout the church; grant them grace, to hear and see, that they may make known abroad Thy love; in that light to speak understandingly one to another of the work of Thy Holy Church and set forward her mission, in obedience to Thy commandment and according to Thy purpose, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Collect of the Commission on Evangelism

Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ came to cast fire upon the earth; grant that by the prayers of Thy faithful people a fire of burning zeal may be kindled and pass from heart to heart, that the light of Thy Church may shine forth bright and clear; through the same Thy Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

"OF MICE AND MEN"

It was Bobbie Burns who made the observation about the best laid plans of the animals mentioned in our title. Since then all us other human animals have ejaculated from time to time "ain't it the truth!" Among the latest endorsers of this Scotch wisdom is the organist of our church.

As we know she left the shores of America and sailed "over the bounding Main" to Germany. On her arrival she cornered the market in German post cards and proceeded to develop writer's cramp by inditing and addressing several hundred of said cards to members of unsaid parish. After the job was well and truly done she dismissed the matter from her mind and plunged into the festivities of the land of her ancestors and visited Auntie "This" and Uncle "That" and Cousin "It." After she had spent all her money and had badly strained her credit, she wisely set sail for her native land. One week after her arrival the United States Post Office delivered the cards of greeting from Germany from the lady now in America. It seems that somebody in the United States Post Office got so interested in reading the greetings and looking at the pictures, that he or she lost all track of time and did not finish until six weeks after they were mailed.

That's the reason our organist was back on her job before her greetings reached you. When she learned of it she was dreadfully "put out," and we distinctly heard her say,

OH PSHAW!!!

Making People Glad

A bright-eyed, shabby little fellow was working his way through a crowded street car selling his papers.

A white-haired old gentleman seemed interested in the boy, and questioned him about his way of living and his earnings. It appeared that there was a younger brother to be supported. "Jimmie is lame and can't earn much himself," said the boy.

"Ah, I see," said the gentleman. "That makes it hard. You could do better alone."

The shabby little figure was erect in an instant, and the denial was both prompt and indignant.

"No, I couldn't," replied the boy. "Jim's somebody to go home to. He's lots of help. What would be the good of havin' luck if nobody was glad? Or of getting things if there was nobody to divide with?"

"Fourteenth street," called the conductor, and as the newsboy jumped out into the gathering dusk, the old gentleman remarked to nobody in particular: "I've heard many a poorer sermon than that."

Questions on St. Matthew's Gospel

		Chapter
1.	How many generations were there from Abraham to Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew's Gospel?	I
2.	What did Herod do to the children of Bethlehem?	II
3.	Upon whom did the Spirit of God descend?	III
4.	How many times did Satan tempt Jesus Christ?	IV
5.	How many beatitudes did Jesus Christ give?	V
6.	What did Jesus Christ tell you to do to your enemies?	V
7.	Where did Jesus Christ tell you to deposit your treasures?	VI
8.	What did Jesus Christ say you must not feed dogs?	VII
9.	How can you tell the variety of a tree?	VII
10.	What happened to the house on the sand bank?	VII
11.	What was the matter with Peter's mother-in-law.	VIII
12.	Who laughed at Jesus Christ?	IX
13.	What's the price of two sparrows?	X
14.	What ought a man do with his ears?	XI
15.	What is the unforgivable sin?	XII
16.	What is the name of the enemy who sowed tares among the wheat?	XIII
17.	Why couldn't Peter walk on water?	XIV
18.	What incident in this chapter is similar to one in the last chapter?	XV
19.	Who called Peter names and why?	XVI
20.	How much faith does it take to move a mountain?	XVII
21.	What is God going to do to the unforgiving?	XVIII
22.	How do you know Jesus Christ loved children?	XIX
23.	Who went on a strike for higher wages?	XX
24.	What happened to the stone the builders threw away?	XXI
25.	How many wives will a man have in heaven if he marries seven here on earth?	XXII
26.	Who swallowed a camel?	XXIII
27.	When is the Son of man coming?	XXIV
28.	Where will you go if you do not feed the hungry?	XXV
29.	What great supper did Jesus Christ prepare?	XXVI
30.	Who used profanity at the trial of Jesus Christ?	XXVI
31.	Who committed suicide during the trial of Jesus Christ?	XXVII
32.	What thief was released when Jesus Christ was crucified?	XXVII
33.	In whose tomb did the body of Jesus Christ lay?	XXVII
34.	Who brought the news of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ to His disciples?	XXVIII
35.	How many disciples met Jesus Christ at Galilee?	XXVIII

Broadcasting Sta. S. T. J.
Church of St. John the Evangelist

Sunday Services

Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30 A. M.
Sunday School	2.00 P. M.
St. John's Fellowship	7.00 P. M.
Evening Service and Address	7.45 P. M.

Baptism Every Sunday After Morning Service
Weddings and Funerals
By Appointment

Celebration of Holy Communion
First Sunday, Each Month

The Broadcaster
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 1. PHILADELPHIA, NOVEMBER, 1927. By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Parterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John Edward Wolf, Scoutmaster, 4613 Tampa St.
Carl W. Schoenau, Asst. Scoutmaster, 1024 Wagner Ave.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryne Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King (Woman's Auxiliary)		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Armsworthy, Jeanette Veronica
Donovan, Mary Margaret
Gillen, Eva Evelyn
Kelly, Raymond Francis
Patterson, Helen Jane
Rutter, Paul Preston
Seibert, Florence May
Tittermary, John Devine
Westfield, Dorothy Madaline
Woodworth, Isabel May
Snell, Evelyn Denora
Zardus, Lillian Charlotte

BURIALS

Baus, John
Clark, Kathleen
Evans, William J.
Howlett, Catherine
Kelly, Raymond Francis
Watts, Robert H.
Wilson, Robert Gerald

WEDDING

Lawrence R. Dallett—Anna Mae Hutchins

THANKSGIVING

Before the next issue of the BROADCASTER appears Thanksgiving Day will have come and gone. It is appropriate therefore that we use space in this issue to make a few observations upon this great national and religious feast.

What Have We To Be Thankful For?

Well, there are the daily gifts of God, without which we cannot live, which naturally are our first consideration. Three meals a day, shelter for ourselves and families, fuel to keep us warm, clothing to cover us, good health, a steady job, our share of friends and a reasonable amount of pleasure and recreation. Then there is the matter of our birth. We are the sons of the greatest nation of the earth. We are born in the Christian faith and have an heritage greater than the angels. Where untold millions are born in dense ignorance, superstition and a low civilization we have the advantage of all things that come with knowledge and the enlightenment of a high civilization.

There are all the bright and joyous experiences of the past, the thousands of blessings of the present and the shining promises of the future to inspire our gratitude.

Besides these selfish reasons for Thanksgiving we have our sentimental and unselfish reasons, too. The fact that God has given us so many great opportunities to do good for others is a matter of thanksgiving. The fact that God has made it possible for us to spread the glad tidings of His Church is an honor to make us proud and happy. | The fact that God has such an high regard for our loyalty to Him, that He entrusts His Kingdom to our keeping, is something to make us deeply grateful to Him.

Even the refining influence of our sorrows, our bereavements, our misfortunes are sources of profound thanksgiving. For as fire refines the ore, as water washes away impurities, so does adversity refine and cleanse our souls of all things that are not of the Spirit.

Yes, we have great and abundant reason to thank God for our sorrows as well as our joys.

The Woman's Auxiliary

We are almost ready to say that the WOMAN'S AUXILIARY of the parish has become an aggressive organization. We think this is due to the plan of organization we laid down for our fall and winter work. The plan is perfectly simple and will eventually bring a great number of our women under the influence of the Auxiliary. Instead of meeting on an independent date we have adopted the method of meeting on the date of and with one of the women's parochial organizations. The offices for the evening are filled with the Auxiliary Staff who conduct the meeting. All the women present, whether they are members of the organization whose guests the Auxiliary are, participate in the evening's proceedings as members of the Auxiliary.

Our first meeting was held on the Y. W. C. L. night, who entertained the Auxiliary as their guests. The officers of the Y. W. C. L. retired from office in favor of the Auxiliary officers. The Rector presided over the meeting and appointed Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary, and Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer, to serve for the year. Many of the women brought sewing with them and gave the evening quite a homey and intimate appearance.

After the organization many questions were taken up for discussion. It was arranged by the members of the Auxiliary to take over the Parish Bazaar and do their utmost to help make it a success. Also the younger women discussed a parish party for Hallowe'en.

We are pretty sure that before the Auxiliary has gone the rounds of visiting the women's organizations of the parish, every woman, both young and old, will be an interested member of the Auxiliary.

In conclusion we want to say that our radical departure from all precedent and the change of the executive officers of the Auxiliary is not due to a dissatisfaction with the officers who had served so many years and so well; but it was done with the firm determination that the time had come for drastic action and that new and startling things had to be done to attain our object. We want to express our thanks and admiration to the former officers who were so faithful for so many years and hung on when there seemed to be nothing "to hang on to."

We realize that our action was not altogether understood but we determined to go on and trust to the good sense and sportsmanship of the ladies who we seemed to be ignoring.

The time will come when we will hand back the Auxiliary to the ladies a complete and a working institution. To do this we must have the co-operation of all our women.

WILL YOU CO-OPERATE?

STEPPING OUT

That is what the men of the parish are doing. They have already put over two events in the parish that have attracted attention and interest.

The first was their burlesque on the Atlantic City Beauty Pageant which they staged. It was the funniest farce that was ever staged at St. John's.

The other was the supper they cooked and served October 14th; also their Radio Concert, which was both novel and successful.

If the men of the parish continue the pace they have set, this is going to be a most interesting year.

We congratulate them for their fine start and hope they will continue to be interesting.

QUESTIONS ON ST. MARK'S GOSPEL

		Chapter
1.	What four men met Jesus Christ at the sea-shore?	I
2.	How did Jesus Christ lose his reputation with the Pharisees?	II
3.	What organization did Jesus Christ form?	III
4.	When is harvest time?	IV
5.	What three men went with Jesus Christ to a funeral?	V
6.	Who was too busy to eat?	VI
7.	Who said "Epa-pha-tha?"	VII
8.	What must Christians pick up and carry?	VIII
9.	What makes all things possible?	IX
10.	Who did Jesus Christ take in his arms	X
11.	Who wouldn't stop shouting when he was told?	X
12.	Who upset the tables?	XI
13.	Are marriages made in heaven?	XII
14.	What poor person gave more to the church than all the wealthy folk of the congregation?	XII
15.	When is it summer?	XIII
16.	What great feast did the Master Institute?	XIV
17.	Where was Jesus Christ crucified?	XV
18.	Who buried Jesus Christ?	XV
19.	Who met Jesus Christ in the garden?	XVI
20.	Who will be saved and who will be damned?	XVI

OUR BAZAAR

At a largely attended and very important meeting of the WOMAN'S AUXILIARY held Monday, October 10th, it was planned to hold OUR BAZAAR, DECEMBER 1ST, 2ND AND 3RD. The whole Bazaar is to be under the direction and care of the Auxiliary, who arranged for the setting up of the following booths under their respective captains:

1. Fancy Goods	Captain,	Mrs. Frank Schmidt.
2. Larkin Goods	"	Mrs. A. McVaugh.
3. Candy	"	Mrs. John Weber.
4. Household Articles.	"	Mrs. Annie Springer.
5. Fish Pond	"	Mrs. E. Woodruff.
6 2d-hand Goods	"	Mrs. Rebecca Henkle.
7. Groceries, etc.	"	Mrs. Jessie St. Clair.
8. Soft Drinks	"	Mrs. A. Maybin.
9. Kitchen	"	Mrs. Lillian Pine.
10. Dolls	"	Mrs. Annie Beisser.
11. Cigars	"	Mr. John McHenry.
12. Artificial Flowers	"	Mr. Mat. McKeown.
13. Jewelry	"	Miss Marion Bruch.
14. Games, etc.	Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

As this is about the biggest social and get-together event of the parish, the Auxiliary asks that all the members do everything in their power to make it a success. We need donations of all kinds—cakes, home-made candy, fancy work, trifles for the fish pond, donations of fruit, groceries, canned goods, vegetables, pies, crullers, meat, coffee, tea, sugar, butter, cheese, flour, lard, second-hand clothing in good enough condition to sell, trinkets for the jewelry table, aprons, iron and pot holders, kitchen necessities, novelties of all kinds. In fact anything we can sell and turn into cash.

All donations can be sent direct to the church. Our sexton, Mr. James Sweeney, is always on the job and will see that everything sent will be duly credited to the donor.

IN THE JANUARY NUMBER OF THE BROADCASTER WILL APPEAR A LIST OF THE INDIVIDUALS AND FIRMS WHO HAVE CONTRIBUTED GOODS TO THE BAZAAR.

We hope all our parishioners will note who they are and patronize them if they are in business.

Roll of Honor

Contributors to the Coal Fund

Adams, Elizabeth
Adams, Jeanette
Allen, Mrs. Ida
Allen, Marie
Allen, Emily
Allen, Ida
Alloway, Catherine
Anderson, Jennie
Archer, Mrs. Sallie
Armstrong, F. M.
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Margaret
Ashman, Dorothy
Barnes, Cecelia
Bedlow, William
Bedlow, Mrs. Louisa
Beisser, Mary
Beisser, Annie
Beisser, Charles
Blech, Jennie
Bowers, Elizabeth
Bricker, Mrs. Jennie
Bromley, William
Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Bruch, Marion
B. R. J. McH C. B.
Bunting, Agnes
Bunting, Walter
Burns, Hazel
Carbarnes, Mrs. Meta
Carbarnes, Frances
Carey, John F.
Carson, Robert, Jr.
Cook, Robert
Cooper, Mrs. Anna
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Cressee, George, Sr.
Cressee, Abbie
Cressee, George, Jr.
Cressee, Raymond
Cucknell, James
Cucknell, Mrs. James
Cunningham, Walter
Cunningham, Sarah
Davis, Mrs. Margaret
Dean, Agnes
Dean, Mrs. Mary
Dean, Mildred
Dean, Ruth
DeCosta, Florence May
Dengler, Annie
Dillon, Mrs. M.
Dobbins, Mrs. Mary
Dougherty, Mrs. Frances
Dysert, John
Emberscheid, Mrs. A.
Evans, Mrs. Sarah
Evans, Thomas
Fanger, Anna
Ferguson, Albert
Fisher, M. Beatrice
Fitzpatrick, Edward D.
Fitzpatrick, Catherine
Forster, William
Fort, Mrs. Minnie
Fort, Minnie
Fort, Cornelius
Fort, Elsie
Frederickson, Clara M.
Geiger, Mrs. Annie
Geiger, Albert
Geiger, Anna
Geiger, Paul
Gibbs, Dora
Glendenning, William
Glendenning, Charles J.
Glendenning, Jennie
Goodrick, Mrs. Mary
Green, Mrs. Emma
Greenfield, Robert
Greenfield, Mrs. Lydia
Gregory, George
Gregory, Mrs. Grace
Gresh, Mrs. Harry
Griggs, Anna
Griggs, Mrs. E.
Grubb, William
Grubb, Pauline
Grubb, Rufus Warren
Haines, William
Hallowell, Mrs. Elizabeth
Hallowell, Enos
Hallowell, Grover
Hare, Mrs. B.
Hasson, Kathryn
Hasson, Mrs. Kate
Hasson, William
Haynes, Mrs. Ida
Haynes, Mrs. Kate
Haynes, George
Henkel, Mrs. Rebecca
Hill, Mrs. Florence
Hill, Mrs. Anna
Hill, Anna E.
Hill, William, Jr.
Hill, George, Jr.
Hill, William, Sr.
Hogg, Margaret L.
Holton, Mrs. Margaret
Hornberger, Mrs. Elizabeth
Howard, Mrs. Hannah
Hudak, Frances
Jackson, Elsie
Jaeschke, Herman
Jaeschke, Gus
Kaiser, Mrs. Emma
Keen, Mrs. Lena
Kensil, William
Kensil, John
Kensil, Margaret
Knowlton, Frank C., Sr.
Knowlton, Frank C., Jr.
Knowlton, Mrs. Anna
Kraft, Mrs. Ornet
Lawrence, Catherine
Lawrence, Mary
Lawrence, George, Jr.
Lawrence, George, Sr.
Lawrence, James
Lawrence, Mrs. Jessie
Little, Mrs. Mary
Little, Charles
Little, Mrs. Charles
Logue, Robert
Logue, Margaret
Ludwig, Mrs. Johanna
McAdams, Mrs. Emily
McBlain, Mrs. K. D.
McCall, Mr. James
McGinnis, Robert
McHenry, John E.
McKeown, James, Sr.
McKeown, Mrs. Rebecca
McKeown, Miss Rebecca
McKeown, Matthew
McKeown, Mrs. Lillian
MacVaugh, Mrs. Annie
MacVaugh, William
MacVaugh, Sylvania
Maguire, Lydia
Maguire, Elizabeth
Major, William E.
Marley, Mrs. Emma
Martin, Susanna
Matthews, Vernon
Meckling, Philip
Meckling, Isabella
Mehring, Anna E.
Meyers, Charles
Meyers, Mrs. Mary
Miller, Anna May
Miller, Emma May
Miller, Dorothy
Miller, Mrs. Dorothy
Mitchell, Mrs. Madeline
Miller, Robert
Miller, Walter
Morozzi, Mrs. Frank
Morozzi, Mrs. Annie
Morozzi, Francis
Murphy, Mrs. Margaret
Neher, Mrs. Mary
Nelson, John, Jr.
Nelson, Harry
Nelson, Nellie
Nugent, Eleanor M.
Nuttall, Hannah H.
O'Donnell, Catherine
Orr, Mrs. Mary
Orr, Richard
Parks, Mrs. Elizabeth
Patterson, Carrie
Patterson, John, Jr.
Patterson, Anna
Payne, Mrs. Emma
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, James
Pearo, Mary
Piccione, Mrs. Elizabeth
Pierce, Eva
Pierce, Evelyn St. C.
Pine, Mrs. Lillian
Pine, May
Poynter, Mrs. Jennie
Poynter, Elizabeth
Preole, Mr. John C.
Preole, John, Jr.
Preole, James
Quaile, Clara
Quaile, Dorothy
Quaile, Marion
Read, Mrs. H. H.
Reeves, Samuel
Reynolds, Leona
Reynolds, Dorothy
Reynolds, Walter J.
Reynolds, Jennie

Righter, Bertha
Rodebaugh, Robert
Rowe, Ernest
Rutter, Catherine
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Margaret
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth
Rutter, Robert
Rutter, Jeremiah K.
Schabacker, Anne
Schmidt, Frank G.
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank
Schmidt, Martha W.
Seher, Catherine
Shepard, Mrs. Ella
Silbert, Ella
Silbert, Mrs. Ella
Smith, Lewis
Smith, Edward
Snell, Samuel, Sr.
Snell, Katherine
Snell, Richard, Jr.
Snell, Samuel, Jr.
Snell, Margaret
Snell, Richard, Sr.
Snell, Mrs. Richard
Springer, Mrs. Anna
St. Clair, Harold
St. Clair, Jessie
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, William
Stenger, Webster
Stenger, Laura
Stone, Elizabeth A.
Stone, William
Stone, Emily
Stryker, Mrs. Emma
Sutterlein, Mrs. Ethel
Sutterlein, Thelma
Sutterlein, Ethel
Sweeney, James
Sweeney, Mrs. Agnes
Sweeney, Mary
Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Anna
Tittermary, Harry, Sr.
Tittermary, John
Vaughn, John
Volpe, Peter
Ward, Carrie
Ward, Abraham L.
Warren, Anna
Watkins, Mary
Watts, Miss Sarah
Weber, John
Weber, Lettie
Webster, Mrs. Margaret
Weiss, Harvey
Weist, Florence
Wertley, Helen M.
Wharton, Mrs. Martha
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Eleanor
Woerner, Rudolph, Jr.
Woerner, Hannah
Woerner, Rudolph, Sr.
Woessner, Mrs. Charles
Woessner, Charles
Woessner, Miss Clara
Wood, Mrs. Margaret
Woodruff, Edmund
Woodruff, Mary
Woodruff, Joseph
Woodruff, Howard
Woodruff, Walter
Young, Viola
Young, George
Young, Laura

PLAYING THE GAME

We had a friend one time who always said if you wanted to make a person reveal his true self engage him in a game of cards. Our philosopher friend claimed that when a man's mind is upon the game he unconsciously lays bare his soul.

If he is dishonest he will try to cheat.

If he is pugnacious he will argue.

If he is weak he can't stand to lose.

If he is reckless he will plunge.

If he is cautious he is slow and conservative.

If he is carefree he plays with abandonment.

If he is generous he will wink at mistakes.

If he is selfish he will allow no mistakes.

If he is honest he will acknowledge his errors when silence might be to his advantage.

If he is cruel he will take vindictive pleasure in beating his opponent and rubbing it in by boastful and sarcastic remarks.

If he is a sneak he will mark his cards.

If he is determined he will play on in the face of defeat.

If he is four square he will play the game for all he is worth; honestly and for the pleasure there is in it. At the close of the evening he will thank his friends for the good time, even though he has been the loser.

The summary is most interesting; because we have observed these same characteristics among our church membership.

PLAYING THE GAME on the square is a grand and heroic occupation whether in church or out of it. What a wonderful record the church would make if everybody would be square, generous and honest instead of being pugnacious, weak, selfish and cruel.

Let's all be good sports and show the folks we

CAN PLAY THE GAME

PLEASE ANSWER THESE

1. How is it that folks will spend dollars on pleasure and kick like a mule if asked to spend dimes on the church?
2. How is it that folks will go to a ball that keeps up till 3 o'clock in the morning and enjoy it; but will growl like a bear if the preacher keeps them in church an half hour longer than they think he ought?
3. How is it a man will get up 4 o'clock Sunday morning to go fishing several miles away but is never able to get up by 10.30 A. M. to go to church just a block or two away?
4. How is it that folks will stay up all night to read the latest putrid sex tale but cannot spend five minutes a day reading the Bible?
5. How is it that folks are more afraid of what folks think of them than they are of what God thinks of them?
6. How is it that folks can chatter to one another on most inane topics and seem to enjoy it but they get no pleasure whatever in spending five or ten minutes with God in prayer?
7. How is it that folks will do more for gold than for God?
8. How is it that folks go to church in infancy to be christened; in young manhood to get married, in old age to get buried but stay away almost all the rest of their lives?
9. How is it that we are so utterly ignorant of our desperate spiritual need?
10. How is it that God is so patient with such ungrateful wretches as we?

HOW IS IT?

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

CHARLES HALL, Tailor
Southern Pressing Establishment
∴ 715 SOUTH FIFTEENTH STREET ∴

R. L. HAMMEY
DeLancey Tailor
FOR
Ladies and Gentlemen
S. W. Cor. 23d and Pine Streets

Keystone—Main 4644

Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
A Large Variety of Christmas Cards
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

Mrs. Randolph's
Home Cooking : Lunch Room
S. E. Cor. 22d and Naudain Streets

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds

Both Phones

Philadelphia Bag Co.
BURLAP AND COTTON BAGS
Water and Dickinson Streets

PETE'S MEAT MARKET
Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881

'SAY IT WITH FLOWERS'

Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R

FRANK C. QUINN
...FLORIST...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

If You Want—
Delicious Mince Pies
USE
Atmore's Extra Fancy
MINCE MEAT
Or, You May Prefer
Atmore's Plum Pudding
Ask Your Grocer For Both
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 TASKER ST.
Founded 1842

"HOME"

"Home ain't a place that gold can buy or get up in a minute;
Afore it's home there's got t'be a heap o' living in it;
Within the walls there's got t'be some babies born and then
Right there ye've got to bring 'em up t'women good, an' men:
And gradjerly, as time goes on, ye find ye wouldn't part
With anything they ever used—they've grown into yer heart;
The old high chairs, the playthings, too, the little shoes they wore,
Ye hoard; an' if ye could ye'd keep the thumbmarks on the door.

Ye've got t'weep t'make it home, ye've got to sit and sigh
And watch beside a loved one's bed, and know that Death is nigh;
An' in the stillness o' the night t' see Death's angel come,
An' close the eyes o' her that smiled, and leave her sweet voice dumb,
For these are scenes that grip the heart, an' when yer tears are dried,
Ye find the home is dearer than it was, an' sanctified;
An' tuggin' at ye always are the pleasant memories
O' her that was an' is no more—ye can't escape from these."

—Edgar Guest.

WE ALMOST BELIEVE IN EVOLUTION

by

Cheerful Idiot.

We are not at all scientific but when we listen to the various comparisons of some of our fellow-men by some of their fellow-men, we wonder if after all there are not certain animal traits which link us to the "dumb ones" and prove that Darwin was right.

For instance, it seems that most all of us have certain animal "throw backs" which make some "grin like an ape," "chatter like a monkey," "fight like a gorilla," "act like a mule," "growl like a bear," "roar like a lion," "squeal like a pig," "croak like a raven," "sing like a canary," "talk like a parrot," "laugh like a loon," "fight like a dog," "scratch like a cat," "run like a hare," "crawl like a snake," "act like a goose." "bray like an ass," "yell like a panther," "be as sly as a fox," "as timid as a lamb," "as humble as a worm," "chicken hearted," etc., etc., etc.

Now we claim that how could such a menagerie of wild animals, birds and beasts be so marvelously reflected in the nature of man if we have not descended from an interesting zoo?

Read over the list again and try to pick out who was your great-great-great granddaddy. If you don't happen to locate him pin another animal on the tail of the list and thus help clinch our claim that after all this argument for and against, there's a lot to be said in favor of evolution.

ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS

Says Mothers' Smoking Is Deadly to Infants

Sixty per cent. of all babies born of cigarette-smoking mothers die before they reach the age of two, due primarily to nicotine poisoning, Dr. Charles L. Barber, of Lansing, Mich., told the annual convention of the American Association for Medico-Physical Research.

"A baby born of a cigarette-smoking mother is sick," he declared. "It is poisoned and may die within two weeks of birth. The post-mortem shows degeneration of the liver, heart and other organs. Sixty per cent. of all babies born of cigarette-smoking mothers die before they are two years old."

"Be Sure Your Sin Will Find You Out." Numbers 32: 23

Got a big sin you are hiding?
Don't be a fool. You are going to be caught.

Wager almost anything, if we were betting, that most all the parish knows it already.

They know, too, that you are cheating and lying desperately to cover it up.

Then, too, there is God. You didn't think you could hide that sin from HIM, did you?

WHY HE SAW YOU COMMIT IT. HE WAS LOOKING RIGHT AT YOU ALL THE TIME!

Better repent, confess and be converted. There is absolutely no other way of getting right with God.

Again, in your fool endeavor to hide the wicked act you may be putting your best friends in an extremely embarrassing position. When your sin finds you out, and folks know what you have done, they will say, "so and so was your friend. Most likely they are just as bad." Do you know what you are if you sin and then lie about it?

Why you are a great big coward and do not deserve the love and mercy of God nor the good-will of your friends.

Anyhow:

"Be Sure Your Sin Will Find You Out"

Awake, Thou That Sleepeth

It is high time that the church awoke from her sleep. It is a disgrace too great for words to see the churches half-filled while the amusement centers are crowded. Yet these same people who crowd the places of amusement are desperately in need of that which the church is commissioned to give The itch for a ceaseless whirl of amusement comes frequently because everything spiritual has faded out of the life. Hundreds of young and old, too, are being swept along, not knowing where they are going. Whole groups of people are living in a state as pagan as though they had never heard of Christ. They are utterly without God and without hope. Meanwhile many in the church are in desperate straits. The ones who should be stemming this tide of worldliness are standing almost helpless, or are weakly floating with the tide. Some can do no more than pat people on the back and tell them that all will be well. When did anything ever become well except some one took a stand for the right! Some are like people in their dotage and can can only blubber foolishly about "People are fundamentally sound, and we are getting better all the time," while hundreds are sowing their wild oats and are preparing a harvest of death. Many honest hearts are troubled and disheartened. They realize that they do not have the power that they need. They know that Christianity should have a message, but they fail to find it in too many of her representatives.

We need a band of chosen men whose hearts God has touched, filled with love and zeal; men who have thrown themselves in absolute reliance upon God, ready to suffer the loss of all things if they can but win Christ; men to whom the rewards that this world can give have become but dross, in whom self has died, having been conquered by the dynamic life of the risen Christ. We need to rouse again the spirit that lived in those pioneers of the cross, who counted peril and hardship as small things compared to the joys of Christian service. We plead for a renewal of the devotion that lived in those who:

"—met the tyrants' brandished steel,
The lion's gory mane.
They bowed their necks, the death to feel,
Who follows in their train?"

The battle is still on. The road to adventure is still open. The Master beckons—"Follow Me!" Not to ease, nor luxury, but to sacrifice, and a cross and glory. Who follows?—Evangelical Churchman.

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

We congratulate the GIRL SCOUTS on their wonderful growth in numbers. Keep it up, girls, you are making a great record.

* * * * *

Our new plan for the WOMAN'S AUXILIARY is having astonishing results. Have we at last discovered a way to interest ALL our splendid women in the Auxiliary?

Palms Furnished With Family Trade

Wedding Bouquets a Specialty

Christopher Strobel
FLORIST
1330 South Second Street
Philadelphia

Phone: Lombard 3928

FUNERAL DESIGNS FRESH CUT FLOWERS DAILY

G. H. CEILFUS
CONFECTIONER
Wholesale and Retail.
Candy Novelties for Thanksgiving
1444 SOUTH SECOND STREET
Corner Dickinson Street.

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.
WHOLESALE
MEATS PROVISIONS AND POULTRY
QUALITY
402-404 N. SECOND STREET
PHILADELPHIA

Have you ever seen anything like those men of ours? Why they are doing stunts that make us dizzy. There has never been anything like their dash and daring before.

* * * * *

Without mentioning names we would advise certain young men who won the beauty contest to remain close to home at night. Their ravishing beauty won't save them from the knife of jealousy and vengeance. BEWHERE!!!

* * * * *

One of the hardest working societies of the parish is the CHOIR. They deserve the hearty support of the entire parish.

REMEMBER THE BAZAAR

* * * * *

Well! Jerry and Elizabeth went and did it!!

* * * * *

Before you use the Rector for reference in getting a job, please consult the Rector.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 2 PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER, 1927. By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John Edward Wolf, Scoutmaster, 4613 Tampa St.
Carl W. Schoenau, Asst. Scoutmaster, 1024 Wagner Ave.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Kathryne Hasson, Leader.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Lumback, Cecelia Theresa
Agar, Edward Benjamin
Baldwin, Helen Lois
Carson, Kathryne Mary

BURIALS

Legg, Maria
Holt, Esther
Wells, Elizabeth L.
Rabbit, William

WEDDING

Joseph Mason and Helen Pierce.
Jeremiah K. Rutter and Elizabeth Adams

INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Do you feel you ought not to spend much money on Christmas gifts? Do you feel sorry and ashamed that you are compelled to give just little trifles to your friends because you cannot afford expensive presents? Why should you feel so? It is far better to be honest and sensible about Christmas giving than to spend money you know you ought to use for other and more necessary things. Why should you or I feel we must spend extravagantly in order to keep up the spirit of Christmas?

Did it ever occur to you that there are gifts that cost nothing but are priceless to those who love you?

For instance there is the gift of Love. It is most inexpensive, yet most priceless to your friends.

Then there is the gift of cheerfulness. Nothing can make our friends so happy. It is a gift that is both rare and acceptable.

Then there is the gift of helpfulness. It does not take gold to purchase. In fact it cannot be bought in any store or shop, yet it is a gift that makes both the giver and the receiver glad.

Then there is the gift of encouragement. If you want to know the value of this gift go out on Christmas day and give encouragement to the first discouraged person you meet. It will be more acceptable to him than jewels or gold.

Then there is the gift of friendliness. This poor old world of ours is starving for an expression of this most precious gift. You will make more friends by friendliness than you will by distributing presents costing thousands and thousands of dollars.

Then there is the gift of sincerity. Oh, what a rare gift is this? How little of it there is in the world. How very very little of it we have received from those about us. Even from our dearest friends. A sincere friend is a real friend, a true friend.

These are a few valuable Christmas gifts the poorest of us can give and the richest of us are glad to get.

They are real Christmas presents, too; because they are the kind of gifts that Jesus Christ has given to us.

Let's begin giving these gifts to our friends and then both them and we will have a

MERRY CHRISTMAS

OUR CHRISTMAS ENVELOPE

When we make up our list of Christmas gifts let us be sure to place at the top of that list the gift we mean to present to our Lord Jesus as our birthday remembrance to Him. As we have pointed out from year to year it seems both inconsistent and ridiculous to give gifts to everybody on His birthday and forget to remember Him. If Jesus Christ had not been born we would have no Christmas to celebrate. It is Christ's mass or Christ's feast. Therefore it is our duty to honor Him rather than honor ourselves. It has always seemed to us a curious custom to give our best gifts to one another and to give our less gifts to Him on Christmas day. Why not reverse things this year and give our best to Him?

All the names of Communicants returning their Christmas envelopes will be published in the next issue of the Broadcaster.

Will Your Name Be There?

Why Is An Organization?

An Address Delivered before the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, of the Parish, by its Director
JOHN C. PATTERSON, JR.

In beginning this rather rambling discourse on organizations in general and church organizations in particular it seems that the most logical thing to do first is to get clear in our minds just what is meant by organization or an organization. The dictionary definition of the word "organization," as applied in the sense we are discussing, is "a number of individuals systematically united" and the keyword of that definition is united. In other words when a number of individuals decide to systematically unite themselves they lose their identity as so many individuals and merge into one individual whose strength is proportionate to the combined strength of the many. A most apt illustration of this combining of many individuals into one can be found in the large business establishments of today which go under the name of corporations, a name derived from the Latin word corpus which means a "body." A corporation has been defined by a former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States as an "artificial being, invisible, intangible, and existing only in the contemplation of law. . Being a mere creature of law, it possesses only those properties which the charter of its creation confers upon it, either expressly or incidental to its very existence. . . . By these means, a perpetual succession of individuals are capable of acting for the promotion of the particular object, like one immortal being."

Therefore we see that when a number of individuals get together and systematically unite, each person of the group so doing gives up his or her individuality and becomes lost in a new, artificially created, invisible, intangible body or person that we call an organization or corporation. And this same idea defining an organization or corporation is also accepted as applying to a club, society, guild, brotherhood, company or whatever name we choose to call such a banding together of individuals.

Now why are such organizations created? Are they necessary? Why should John Jones or Bill Smith or Mrs. Brown lose their highly-prized individualities and whatever "It" they may possess and submerge themselves by joining the Mysterious Order of Billy Goats or the Ancient and Accepted Order of Bricklayers or the Thursday Afternoon Sewing Circle or any other organization? Why can't we just go along and do things ourselves as we see fit or without giving or receiving aid? For the simple reason that such a program is contrary to human nature and, what is more, is seems to be contrary to Divine Will. The entire history of man shows that from the beginning of his existence down to the present time, whenever he has wanted to accomplish some great feat, protect himself, improve his condition in life, or was desirous of helping others protect or improve themselves, he has organized. We can imagine that his first principal reason for organizing was for protection against a stronger enemy or perhaps a desire to gain by making war upon others. So therefore a number of individuals no doubt banded themselves together in a primitive organization, submerged their personal ideas and wishes under a leader, who was usually the mightiest warrior, and fought a common battle of aggression or defense. War has always been a potent reason for man's organizing, as is evidenced even today by the fact that the most highly organized branches of our national organizations are the military and naval departments. Nowhere does a man lose his personality or individuality so much as when he becomes a part of the military forces of a nation, regardless of what rank he attains.

But mutual defense is only one reason why men have organized. It seems he just couldn't help it. If he wanted a path or road from his abode to some other place that he wished to reach he would have to build it himself even though he knew that others would also reap benefit from it. So what was more natural than for him to commune with himself and reason, a little selfishly perhaps, "now why should I build this road alone? Why not go to the others who will also use it, explain its benefits and persuade them to help me? Then the road can be built much more quickly and cheaply." And so we have the inception of what we would term today a Road Building Company, an organization. Thus for defense, road making, marketing, education, construction, entertainment, culture, for a million reasons, man has found cause to organize until today the world is a complex mass of organizations—nations, governments, companies, corporations, armies, navies, lunch clubs, fraternal and beneficial societies, societies for the suppression of this, societies for the upbuilding of that, until if a person wore the insignia of all the organizations in which he held membership or could join if he desired he would have to wear some of them on his back. The front of his clothes would not provide enough room. In fact he would look like an Eagle Scout.

And so we can be pretty sure that organization and organizations are not only helpful, but history, human nature and common sense tell us they are necessary. In fact even Nature herself has proven the efficacy of organization, as is evidenced by the old story of the old Negro and his whip. It seems that a traveler along a country road in a Southern State, meeting an old darky driving his ramshackle wagon to town, was given a lift along the way. While driving along the old Negro took delight in displaying his skill with the long whip he carried. Butterflies, grasshoppers, flowers and twigs were deftly touched with the lash of the long rawhide. Finally the traveler noticed a wasp's nest hanging from the branch of a tree by the side of the road. "There you are, Uncle, try your skill on that." "Naw, suh, Boss," came the reply. "Dey's organized!"

(Continued in January Issue.)

OUR CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

As Christmas comes on Sunday this year we feel that we ought to make our program fit in with the desires of most of our congregation. It is our intention, therefore, to have the usual celebrations of the Holy Communion in the morning, but dispense with the Sunday afternoon and evening services. This arrangement will give everybody more time to enjoy the festivities of the day in their own homes. Of course, the ideal way of observing the day would be to spend all day in worship and prayer, but we fear such a procedure would be too great a strain on the patience of our young folks. The services for the day, therefore, will be:

6.30 A. M.—Celebration of the Holy Communion, Church.

9.00 A. M.—Celebration of the Holy Communion, Chapel.

10.45 A. M.—Celebration of the Holy Communion, Church.

As Christmas is one of the five days of obligation of the church year it is expected of all communicants of the parish to receive the Holy Communion at one of these services. Let's make the day a real Christian festival by receiving our Communion on that day.

SUPPOSE

Suppose you were a total stranger on earth;

Suppose you had lived all your life on another planet;

Suppose you had left your little world to pay us a visit;

Suppose you arrived on earth just about Christmas;

Suppose you went around visiting the department stores, and toy shops, and candy shops and stationery shops;

Suppose you watched the massed and packed crowds of Christmas shoppers and the increased congestion of Christmas traffic and the hurry and the worry of everybody;

Suppose you saw folks spending hard-earned money with reckless abandon—trying to outspend their spendthrift friends upon useless and expensive presents and jewelry, high-priced furs and automobiles;

Suppose you wandered into some of our "high-toned" hotels and restaurants and saw the horrible orgies of illicit and drunken Christmas parties;

Suppose you heard ribald songs in rotten shows mingled with the Christmas thought;

Suppose you heard the greeting "MERRY CHRISTMAS" from lips of evil women and drunken fools;

Would you judge that Christmas is a Christian or a Pagan feast?

Questions On St. Luke's Gospel

1. What did Zacharias see at the right hand of the Altar? .....Chap. I.
2. Who became a deaf mute because he doubted God? .....Chap. I.
3. Who visited a virgin in Galilee? .....Chap. I.
4. The birth of what two great personages were foretold? .....Chap. I.
5. Where is the MAGNIFICAT found? ....Chap. I.
6. Where is the BENEDICTUS found? ....Chap. I.
7. What great Prince was born in a manger? .....Chap. II.
8. Who heard the angels singing? .....Chap. II.
9. Who was named before he was born? ..Chap. II.
10. Where is the NUNC DIMITTIS found? ..Chap. II.
11. Who got lost in Jerusalem and where was he found? .....Chap. II.
12. What was the name of the boy who obeyed his parents? .....Chap. II.
13. Who was the first Christian preacher?..Chap. III.
14. Who baptized the "Son of God"? .....Chap. III.
15. How does the genealogy of Jesus Christ in St. Luke's gospel differ from the genealogy of Jesus Christ in St. Matthew's gospel? .....Chap. III.
16. In what three places was Jesus Christ tempted? .....Chap. IV.
17. Who preached a sermon that made everybody "mad"? .....Chap. IV.
18. What is one of the best fish stories ever told? .....Chap. V.
19. What publican did Jesus Christ choose to be his companion? .....Chap. V.
20. How does God treat the unthankful?...Chap. VI.
21. If you give, how much will you get back? .....Chap. VI.
22. What Gentile built a Jewish Synagogue?. Chap. VII.
23. Who raised the dead? .....Chap. VII.
24. What did St. John, Baptist, want to know? .....Chap. VII.
25. Who used their hair for a towel? .....Chap. VII.
26. Name some of the women who ministered to Jesus .....Chap. VIII.
27. Into how many kinds of soil did the sower sow the seed? .....Chap. VIII.
29. What did the devils do to the swine?....Chap. VIII.
30. Whose spirit left their body for the abode of spirits and returned again? .....Chap. VIII.

(Continued in January Issue.)

14 POINTS ON THE FOLLY OF SIN

1. Even the world hates a liar.
2. Jails are full of thieves, cheats, gamblers, murderers and seducers of women and girls.
3. Hospitals are crowded with victims of loathsome venereal diseases due to immoral living.
4. Insane asylums are overflowing with fools of the same class. Also with dope fiends.
5. Police stations, courts, penitentiaries, jails, houses of detention, houses of refuge, night courts, detectives, judges, policemen, district attorneys, criminal lawyers, are maintained to punish the crook at the enormous cost of billions of dollars per year. We taxpayers pay the bill.
6. Last year $10,000,000,000.00 worth of property was stolen by thieves and robbers: a loss suffered by the owners.
7. Bootlegging and hi-jacking have cost the country untold millions.
8. The dope traffic has produced thousands of thieves, gunmen, maniacs, liars and cheats.
9. Love tangle stuff is prolific in desertions, murders, suicides and electrocutions.
10. Gossips are hated worse than liars.
11. Drunkards are in most cases incipient criminals.
12. Gambling is the mother of poverty.
13. Brutality causes suffering.
14. Murderers are either life termers or electrocuted.

DOES THE WORLD NEED CHRISTIANITY? WE'LL SAY IT DOES

Ten per cent. of the cost of crime will support every church, mission, Sunday school and church work in the land.

Scripture Answers to Common Objections

1. I work all week and need rest on Sunday .....Exodus 20:8-11
2. I can't afford to give to the church .....St. Luke 6:3
3. I am not good enough to go to church .....St. Matt. 9:12-13
4. Too many hypocrites in the church .....Job 13:16
5. Church is for the rich .....St. Luke 6:20-26
6. I am as good as any Christian..Isaiah 1:16
7. I don't believe in God .....Psalms 14:1
8. I want to have a good time ...I John 2:15-17
9. Why should I believe in Jesus? Acts 16:30-34
10. I don't believe the Bible .....Rev. 22:7-21
11. I am not conscious of sin ....I John 1:8-10
12. I do not need to join church to be good .....Acts 2:37-42
13. I don't want to join church and then fail .....I Cor. 10:15

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

CHARLES HALL, Tailor
Southern Pressing Establishment
∴ 715 SOUTH FIFTEENTH STREET ∴

R. L. HAMMEY
DeLancey Tailor
FOR
Ladies and Gentlemen
S. W. Cor. 23d and Pine Streets

Keystone—Main 4644

Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
A Large Variety of Christmas Cards
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

Mrs. Randolph's
Home Cooking : Lunch Room
S. E. Cor. 22d and Naudain Streets

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds

Both Phones

Philadelphia Bag Co.
BURLAP AND COTTON BAGS
Water and Dickinson Streets

PETE'S MEAT MARKET
Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881

'SAY IT WITH FLOWERS'

Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R

FRANK C. QUINN
...FLORIST...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

If You Want—
Delicious Mince Pies
USE
Atmore's Extra Fancy
MINCE MEAT
Or, You May Prefer
Atmore's Plum Pudding
Ask Your Grocer For Both
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 TASKER ST. Founded 1842

OUR CHRISTMAS PLAY

Every year the Rector writes a Christmas play for the children's Christmas festival. This year he has written a two-act Christmas comedy, full of fun and music. The scene is in a room of a girls' college. A number of students are gathered together. Eventually the conversation turns to the near approach of Christmas. The question arises what are the students to do with themselves whose families live so far away from the college for the girls to visit. They are all sure they will be miserable and homesick during the holidays. At last one of the girls suggest they form a club and call it the Holly Club. Another suggests they visit the hospital, the almshouse and the orphans' home in the village and invite certain lonely folk to be the guests of the Holly Club on Christmas day.

The idea is acted upon. The girls take some of their Christmas allowance and buy a tree and wreaths, etc., and decorate the room. Then they buy candy and presents for their guests.

When Christmas day comes their visitors arrive. Instead of the Holly Club entertaining them, they entertain the Holly Club with their quaint and funny ways.

At last, like all things, the day comes to an end and everybody goes home or to bed tired but happy.

Come out and see how the girls interpret the comedy.

LOVELINESS

Once I knew a little girl,
Very plain;
You might try her hair to curl
All in vain;
On her cheek no tints of rose
Paled and blushed, or sought repose;
She was plain.

But the thoughts that through her brain
Came and went,
As a recompense for pain,
Angels sent;
So full many a beauteous thing,
In her young soul blossoming,
Gave content.

Every thought was full of grace,
Pure and true;
And in time the homely face
Lovelier grew;
With a heavenly radiance bright
From the soul's reflected light
Shining through.

So I tell you, little child,
Plain or poor,
If your thoughts are undefiled,
You are sure
Of the loveliness of worth;
And this beauty not of earth
Will endure.

—Maria Locey, in St. Nicholas.

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

Sunday School Christmas festival December 27th.

* * *

Remember your Christmas Communion.

* * *

And also your Christmas Envelope.

* * *

Who gave the first Christmas present? St. John.

* * *

What gift did God ask for Himself? Proverbs.

* * *

What great gift of God is mentioned in Romans?

* * *

Whence comes every good and perfect gift? James.

* * *

When does a gift cause blindness? Exodus and Deuteronomy.

* * *

To whom should we give especially? Matthew and Mark.

* * *

What is better than receiving gifts? Acts.

* * *

Do your best to make everybody happy this Christmastide. Try to think more of others than of yourself.

* * *

GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST; AND ON EARTH PEACE, GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN.

Broadcasting From Laugh Land

A man whose whole life had been spent in active business passed to the spirit world. On arriving there he thought, "Now for some rest and perfect peace." After quite a short time a spirit tapped him on the shoulder and said: "Excuse me, sir; you are wanted on the ouija board."—Tid Bits.

* * *

Mother—"It is whispered that you and John aren't getting on!" "Nonsense! We did have some words and I shot him, but that's as far as our quarrel ever went."—Judge.

* * *

"Why did that cop make you move your car away from the horse?" "He almost arrested me for parking near a plug."—Rutgers Chanticleer.

* * *

"By the jade Buddha of Temple Shan Chi, honored friend of my heart, I have lent a tricky mandarin in Canton street 2000 Mexican trade dollars and he has not given me a receipt. What shall I do?"

"Write sternly and demand the payment of the 4000 silver pieces."

"But, most careless listener, it was only 2000 pieces."

"I know—but he will indignantly and with much heat reply and tell you so. That will serve as your receipt."—Fat-ze of Nanking.

* * *

A boy announced at the dinner table that his room at school was to have a clean-up contest, says The Public Health Nurse.

"A clean-up contest?" exclaimed his father. "And yet you come to the table with those dirty hands?"

"Oh, but the contest doesn't start until next week!"

Policeman (producing notebook)—"Name, please."
Motorist—"Aloysius Alostaire Cyprion."
Policeman (putting book away)—"Well, don't let me catch you again."—Punch (London).

* * *

"What funny names these Chinese towns in the news have," remarked the man from Schenectady as he read a Poughkeepsie newspaper on his way to meet a friend in Hoboken.—Christian Science Monitor.

* * *

Blink—"What did you get on your birthday?"
Blank—"A year older."—Judge.

* * *

A short-sighted man who was also very inquisitive was walking in the country one day when he saw a notice board nailed on a tree that stood in a field. As he could not read the notice at that distance, curiosity prompted him to climb over the fence and walk across the field toward the tree.

A few moments later he managed to scramble back over the fence just in time to escape the horns of a raging bull.

"Well," he gasped, breathlessly, "I had the satisfaction of finding out what the notice was."

It said: "Beware of the Bull."—London Tid Bits.

* * *

A Columbus Circle soapbox orator was orating in full-throated high. A gentleman eddied up and cupped his ear.

"Can't you hear me?" screeched the speaker.

"No, thank God," he replied, and walked on.

* * *

"Marriage," said the philosopher, "is like a railroad sign. When you see a pretty girl you stop; then you look, and after you're married you listen."—Hardware Age.

* * *

In Egypt a plate over the door means there is a marriageable girl in the house. In America a flivver in front of the house says it.—Publishers' Syndicate.

BEAUTIFUL GIFTS FOR ALL THE FAMILY

Store Orders Accepted

S. GROSS

1614 South Second Street

BRAUDE'S MILLINERY
1530 S. Second Street
Everything in Millinery
REASONABLY PRICED

MRS. T. PEARSALL
DOLL HOSPITAL
1232 S. Second Street

Palms Furnished With Family Trade

Wedding Bouquets a Specialty

Christopher Strobel
FLORIST
1330 South Second Street
Philadelphia

Phone: Lombard 3928

FUNERAL DESIGNS FRESH CUT FLOWERS DAILY

G. H. GEILFUS
Wholesale and Retail.
Christmas Candies
1444 SOUTH SECOND STREET
Corner Dickinson Street.

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.
WHOLESALE
MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY
QUALITY
402-404 N. SECOND STREET
PHILADELPHIA

HELENA'S Beauty Shoppe
PERMANENT WAVING, $5.00
NO EXTRAS
Water-Waving, Marcelling, Manicuring, Hair Dyeing, Facials
Scalp Treatment
1229 S. Second Street

William F. Englehart, Jr.
Watches and Diamonds
112 S. THIRTEENTH STREET
Established 1831 Philadelphia

THOMAS MAGEE
Printer - Stationer - Engraver
Stock of Well-Selected
Christmas Cards
44 S. SECOND STREET

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 3 PHILADELPHIA, JANUARY, 1928. By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John Edward Wolf, Scoutmaster, 4613 Tampa St.
Carl W. Schoenau, Asst. Scoutmaster, 1024 Wagner Ave.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Callahan, Margaret Florence
Penny, Ada Mary

BURIALS

Brandt, Henry K.
Brosius, Frank C.
Gamble, Mary Ella
Johnson, Edward
Renismer, Howard E.
Schlemback, John W.

THE NEW YEAR

It is the custom to ring out the old and ring in the new.

Evidently we are glad the old year is dead and all the worries, troubles, misunderstandings, bereavements and sorrows are dead, too.

We are glad a new leaf has been turned and we look forward with hope for better things.

This is as it should be.

But before we get started would it not be well to stop and consider just how much of the unpleasant things of last year were really our own creations? Could we not have prevented many of them? Were they at all necessary? If we had it to do over again could we not improve lots of things and avoid lots of other things?

Was it at all necessary to commit those sins the memory of which makes us blush now? Could we not have retained the friendships we so ruthlessly destroyed in anger? Would it not have been better had we been a little more patient? Was it necessary for us to be so extravagant and selfish? Did we not let many opportunities slip to do a good turn? Did we try day by day to live a Christian life? Did the world do near as much damage to us as we did to the world?

An honest answer to such questions would make most of us humble-minded indeed; because, now as we look back, we can see that the responsibility of our discomfort lies at our door.

Such a review now will greatly help and strengthen us for the New Year. If we profit by our past errors and determine to avoid them in the future we will indeed have

A Happy New Year

Some Christmas Thoughts

Christmas has come and gone. It was a wonderful and blessed holiday season for our parish. As we glance back there are many things we will cherish long.

We shall long remember our first glimpse of the chancel at that early Christmas service. The wonderful play of many colored electric lights, the Star of Bethlehem, the illuminated cross, the crown of gold. All symbols of our beautiful faith and the marks of the incarnate progress of the Divine Personality.

We shall long remember the inspiring music of our Christmas choir. The beautiful old Christmas hymns, the uplifting Christmas anthems, the Christmas carols were rendered as only our devoted and loyal choir members could render them. Their effort showed how hard they had worked to make their contribution to our Christmas joy something to be remembered indeed. We wonder whether the parish truly appreciates the hard work that is back of such a musical program. It involves weeks of laborious work on the part of each loyal member of our choir. Their only compensation is the satisfaction they derive from your pleasure. Be generous to them and let them know how much you appreciate their efforts to please you.

We shall long remember our deep emotions as we watched the ushers bearing the overflowing alms basins containing the birthday gifts of a devoted and loving parish to Jesus Christ on His natal day. Basins so full that at both services the offerings spilled to the floor. We know that Jesus Christ rejoiced with us to behold our offering of love. They were the largest offerings ever received on Christmas day. They would have been larger if certain members had not been unavoidably detained but who have promised us that their Christmas offering will be forthcoming without fail in the very near future. When the offering is all in it will be by far the largest we have ever received. This is most remarkable because the parish had just come through a bazaar which brought in nearly $900 and also many of the communicants have been out of work for weeks.

We are deeply thankful to God for the love and devotion of the men and women of the parish. What a splendid group of Christians they are! It takes just such an occasion as Christmas to show how truly big and fine our people are. Oh yes, we get hurt and petulant and cranky just like other folks in other parishes, but then after we have the poison of ill humor out of our system we forget to be angry at one another and pitch in and work all the harder to show that we were not really angry and we do want to do our share to help Jesus Christ in his redemption of South Philadelphia. All personal and selfish considerations are absorbed in that big idea.

May our motto ever be: NOT ME BUT THEE, O CHRIST.

OUR BAZAAR

Though the whole parish and his wife were there we are sure a few appropriate remarks about our bazaar will not be amiss.

We must have caught the weather man in an extraordinarily good humor this year, for he let us off with only one stormy night. We wonder if he is really sorry for the way he has always treated St. John's parish, and is about to turn over a new leaf. Wouldn't it be fine if he would?

Never before have things gone so smoothly in every department of the bazaar. The spirit of co-operation was strongly manifested all the time. This was particularly encouraging when one considers the surprisingly large number of new workers. Folks who heretofore have been content to be among those present but who did not seem to find their particular niche in the working machine.

The thing that surprised and gratified us the most was the extraordinary financial success of the bazaar. We will now confess that previous to the bazaar we were very dubious as to the volume of business we would do. Work has not been at all abundant this winter and if folks are not earning the money they certainly cannot spend it. You can appreciate our feelings therefore when we learned that we had gone beyond last year's receipts. We know that the whole parish is interested in the receipts of the bazaar, and in order to satisfy our natural curiosity we have worked up a list of money taken in at each table. Here it is:

1.	Fancy Table	$88.84
2.	Doll	304.40
3.	Men's Furnishings	101.45
4.	Bingo	21.40
5.	Larkin's Goods	30.40
6.	Candy Table	56.39
7.	Household Goods and Aprons	42.25
8.	Jewelry	29.47
9.	Cigars	25.12
10.	Fish Pond	21.87
11.	Second-Hand Goods	11.46
12.	Grocery Table	53.45
13.	Kitchen	77.49
14.	Lemonade	5.24
	Total	$868.93

Added to this are a number of scattered money gifts which brings the sum up to nearly $900.

We Congratulate Everybody

SOMEBODY

Somebody made a monthly pledge,
Testing his purse to utmost edge;
Somebody paid it through the year,
Brightening the world with Christian cheer.
Was that somebody you?

Somebody handed cheerfully in
Money to help God's cause to win;
Somebody kept his promise to pay,
Writing each check on schedule day.

Was that somebody you?
Somebody let the year slip by,
Heedless of payments piling high.
Somebody said, "No more delay;
Quickly I'll settle that debt today."
Was that somebody you?

Somebody's pledge was only a scrap,
Paper that had no value, mayhap;
Somebody's soul grew shriveled and small;
Failing, he grieved the Lord of all.
Was that somebody you?

—Anonymous.

OUR STANDING ARMY

Heretofore we have spoken of the supporters of our parish as Roll of Honor members. We have come to feel, however, that this designation is not at all satisfactory or true. When we speak of a Roll of Honor we instinctively think of the heroic dead. Now the persons whose names we have inscribed upon our "Roll of Honor" every Christmas and Easter may be and are heroic but they are by no means dead. They are the backbone of the parish; they are "doing their bit" in service and in supplying the ammunition (money) to carry on the campaign of Jesus Christ in his war against the strongholds of sin in Southwark. They are the dependable, strong and active members of the parish who are not ready yet to have their names inscribed among the dead, no matter how heroic those dead may be. They are a STANDING ARMY, a successful, victorious, loyal STANDING ARMY, who knows it has a big fight for righteousness on its hands and means to fight it out to the finish. Every recruit whose name is enrolled on the lists of our STANDING ARMY is worthy the name of a soldier. God bless them all, and may many more of our parishioners enlist and strengthen our STANDING ARMY with their strength. May we have no mere camp followers this coming year. May the deserters be few. May all traitors be converted and made true and loyal soldiers of Jesus Christ and heroes of our STANDING ARMY.

Have You Enlisted Yet?

The Disease of Distrust

If we believe the New Testament, we believe that men were once "made whole" without medicine or doctor.

If this was a fact in New Testament times, why may it not become a fact in the present day? If it is a fact, it is the most beneficent fact in history, and being such, it ought, if possible, to be recalled and re-established. To grasp the question wisely and thoroughly, we must go back to Christ's own time and think with Him. Did Christ heal men? Yes, He did. Did Christ's apostles heal men? Yes, they did. Was the healing mechanical, surgical, medicinal? No, it was not. Was the healing, spiritual, sympathetic, mental? Yes, it was. Is Christ the same yesterday, today and for ever? Yes, He is. Does Christ still work and reign? Yes, he does. That settles it. Suffering is the same, Christ is the same, love is the same. Then what is wanting? Just what was wanting in Christ's own day. Dost thou believe? Believest thou that I am able to do this thing? All things are possible to him that believeth. He could not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief. We must simply and heartily adopt the belief —most rational belief—that the things which are impossible with men are possible with God. That is all. The belief must not be mere assent; it must be the ruling and ever-active principle of the life. The curing of disease is a paltry matter. To cure the disease of distrust of God is the supreme miracle.

JOHN PARKER, D. D.

The Standing Army

Church of St. John the Evangelist

Adgate, James
Alloway, Earl
Alloway, Catherine
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Archer, Sallie
Armstrong, Florence M.
Arnsworthy, Caroline
Ashman, Dorothy
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Margaret
Barnes, Jacob
Barnes, Mrs. Jacob
Barnes, Joseph
Barnes, William, Sr.
Barnes, William, Jr.
Barnes. Mary
Baus, Annie
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Annie
Beisser, Mary M.
Bedlow, Mrs. E.
Bender, Caroline
Blech, Jennie
Bowers, Elizabeth
Bricker, Jennie
Brinckman, Rebecca
Bromley, William
Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Bruch, Susan
Bruch, Marion
Bunting, Agnes
Bunting, Walter
Burns, Hazel
Carbarnes, Anna
Carbarnes, Elizabeth
Carbarnes, Frances
Carbarnes, Henry
Carbarnes, Meta
Carson, Robert
Carson, Margaret
Chestnut, Reba
Chestnut, Jennie
Clark, Harry B.
Clark, Katherine
Clendenning, Charles
Clendenning, William
Clendenning, Jennie
Clerico, Ferdy
Clerico, Mattie
Coarse, Jane
Coates, Florence
Colvey, Joseph
Cook, Robert
Corson, Mary
Cressee, Abbie
Cressee, George, Sr.
Cressee, George, Jr.
Cressee, Raymond
Crone, Thomas
Cucknell, James
Cucknell, Mary
Cunningham, Walter
Daughters-of-the-King
Davis, Amelia
Davis, Mrs. M.
Dean, Mary
Dean, Mildred
Dean, Ruth
Deffler, Dorothy
Dingler, Annie
Dougherty, Edwin
Dougherty, Josephine
Drumm, Robert
Dysert, John
Emberscheid, Anna
Evans, Sarah
Evans, Thomas
Fanger, Anna M.
Ferguson, Albert
Fisher, M. Beatrice
Forster, William
Fort, Cornelius
Fort, Elsie
Fort, Minnie
Fort, Minnie
Fischer, John
Fischer, Mrs. Mary
Fitzpatrick, Catherine
Fitzpatrick, Elmer
Frederickson, Clara
Friend, Florence
Friend, Thomas
Gallagher, Isaac
Gallagher, Joseph
Gallagher, Kate
Geiger, Annie
Geiger, Albert
Geiger, Paul
Geiger, Anna
Geswein, Viola
Gibson, Florence
Gibson, Frances
Gibson, Laura
Gibson, Mrs. Lewis
Gibson, Florence
Gibbs, Dora
Glendenning, Charles
Glendenning, William
Glendenning, Jennie
Goodrick, Mary
Gorman, William
Green, Emma
Greenfield, Lydia
Greenfield, Robert
Gregory, George, Sr.
Gregory, Grace
Gresh, Margaret
Griggs, Anna
Griggs, Elizabeth
Grubb, Pauline
Grubb, Rufus
Grubb, William
Hackett, Jennie
Hall, Louise
Hamilton, Florence
Hare, Bertha
Hartman, Earl
Hasson, William
Hasson, Kate
Hasson, Kathryne
Haury, Kate
Haury, Mary
Haverty, James
Haverty, William, Jr.
Haynes, Kate
Haynes, Ida
Henkle, Rebecca
Hill, Annie
Hill, Anna
Hill, Florence
Hill, George
Hill, William,Sr.
Hill, William,Jr
Hogg, Margaret L.
Holt, Anna
Holt, Esther
Holt, James
Holton, Alice P.
Holton, Edna
Holton, Elizabeth
Holton, Mary
Holton, Joseph
Hornberger, Elizabeth
Howard, Hannah
Hudak, Frank
Hudak, Frances
Jackson, Elsie
Jaeschke, Gus
Jaeschke, Herman
Kaiser, Emma
Keen, Lena
Kelly, Mrs. Mary
Kelly, Raymond
Kelly, Samuel
Kelly, Sarah
Kehoe, Mary
Kensil, John
Kensil, Margaret
Kensil, William
Knowlton, Anna
Knowlton, Frank, Sr.
Knowlton, Frank, Jr.
Kraft, Edward
Kraft, Ornet
Krause, Sarah
Lafferty, Mrs.
Lafferty, Martha
Lamprey, May
Lawrence, Catherine
Lawrence, George, Sr.
Lawrence, George, Jr.
Lawrence, James
Lawrence, Jessie
Lawrence, Mary
Lenhart, David, Jr.
Lenhart, David, Sr.
Lenhart, Margaret
Lenhart, Margaret
Little, Joseph
Little, Charles
Little, Mary
Little, Pauline
Logue, Charles
Logue, Mary
Logue, Robert
Ludwig, William C.
MacVaugh, Annie
MacVaugh, William
MacVaugh, Sylvania
McAdams, Emily
McCall, James
McCloskey, Carrie
McGinniss, Robert
McHenry, John E.
McKeown, James, Sr.
McKeown, James Jr.
McKeown, Rebecca
McKeown, Mrs. Rebecca
McKeown, Jessie
McKeown, Charles
McKeown, Jennie
McKeown, Matthew
McKeown, Lillian
Maguire, Eliza
Maguire, George
Maguire, Lydia
Major, William
Marley, Emma
Marnie, Thomas
Martin, Susanna
Matthews, Vernon
Mehring, Anna
Meckling, Isabella
Meckling, Philip F.
Meyers, Charles
Meyers, Mary
Miller, Anna M.
Miller, Dorothy
Miller, Dorothy

Miller, Robert
Miller, Walter
Mitchell, Madeline
Moore, James
Morozzi, Annie
Morozzi, Francis
Morozzi, Mary A.
Murphy, Mrs. Margaret
Neff, Martha
Neil, Mary
Nelson, John, Jr.
Nilsson, Catherine
Nilsson, Hilma
Norcross, Vera
Nugent, William
Nuttall, Hannah H.
O'Donnell, Katherine
Orr, Mary
Orr, Richard
Parks, Elizabeth
Patterson, Anna
Patterson, Carrie
Patterson, John C., Jr.
Payne Emma
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, James
Pearo, Mary
Pearsall, Ella
Penrose, Florence
Pierce, Evelyn St. Clair
Pierce, Eva
Pine, Lillian
Pine, Little Knots
Pine, May
Poynter, Elizabeth K.
Poynter, Jennie
Preole, James
Preole, John, Sr.
Preole, John, Jr.
Quaile, Clara
Quaile, Dorothy
Quaile, Marion
Quaile, Marion
Quaile, William
Read, Hannah H.
Reeves, Samuel
Reynolds, Jennie
Reynolds, Leona
Reynolds, Walter
Rhoads, Matilda
Rodebaugh, Evelyn
Rodebaugh, Robert
Rutter, Catherine
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Margaret
Rutter, Robert
Rutter, Jeremiah K., Jr.
Rutter Mrs. J. K., Jr.
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Michael
Rutter, Eva
Rutter, Charles
St. Clair, Harold
St. Clair, Jessie
Schabacker, Anna
Schields, Bella
Schlembac, Charles
Schlembac, Ernest
Schlembac, Julius
Schlembac, Harry
Schlembac, Mrs. Cath.
Schmidt, Frank
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank
Schmidt, Martha W.
Seaborne, Mrs. Matilda
Seaborne, Dorothy
Seher, Catherine
Seventy-two Club
Silbert, Ella
Silbert, Ella
Simpson, Emma
Simpson, Jennie
Skelly, Elizabeth
Skelly, Thomas
Skelly, Florence
Snell, Katherine
Snell, Richard, Sr.
Snell, Richard, Jr.
Snell, Mrs. Richard, Sr.
Snell, Samuel, Sr.
Spratt, Catherine
Spratt, Finley
Spratt, John
Spratt, Margaret
Springer, Anna
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, Laura
Stenger, Webster
Stockman, James
Stockman, Harry
Stockman, Robert
Stone, Elizabeth
Stone, Emily
Stone, William
Stryker, Emma
Stryker, Valentine
Sweeney, Agnes
Sweeney, James
Sweeney, Mary
Sutterlin, Ethel
Sutterlin, Ethel
Sutterlin, Thelma
Tesche, Cecelia
Thessing, Mr.
Thessing, Mrs.
Tittermary, Margaret
"In memory of my mother, Annie E. Tittermary"
Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Johanna
Tittermary, Harry, Sr.
Volpe, Peter
Ward, Abraham L.
Ward, Carrie
Warren, Anna
Warren, Elizabeth
Watkins, Mary
Watts, Sarah
Weber, John
Weber, Lettie
Webster, Mrs. Margaret
Weiss, Harvey
Weissinger, Mary
Weissinger, Frank
Weist, Florence
Weist, Charles
Wertley, Helen M.
Wharton, Arthur
Wharton Martha
Woerner, Eleanor
Woerner, Hannah
Woerner, Rudolph, Sr.
Woerner, Rudolph, Jr.
Woerner Beatrice
Woessner, Charles
Woessner, Clara
Woessner, Clara
Woman's Auxiliary
Woodruff, Edmund
Woodruff, Howard
Woodruff, Joseph
Woodruff, Mary
Woodruff, Walter
Woods, Mrs. Margaret
Wressig, Catherine
Young, George
Young, Laura
Young, Viola
Young, William
Young Women's Christian League

Nine Points of Church-Going

By Theodore Roosevelt.

1. In this actual world, a churchless community, a community where men have abandoned and scoffed at or ignored their religious needs, is a community on the rapid down grade.

2. Church work and church attendance mean the cultivation of the habit of feeling some responsibility for others.

3. There are enough holidays for most of us. Sundays differ from other holidays in the fact that there are fifty-two of them every year—therefore on Sundays Go to Church.

4. Yes, I know all the excuses. I know that one can worship the Creator in a grove of trees, or by a running brook, or in a man's own house just as well as in a church. But I also know as a matter of cold fact that the average man Does Not thus worship.

5. He may not hear a good sermon at church. He will hear a sermon by a good man who, with his good wife, is engaged all the week in making hard lives a little easier.

6. He will listen to and take a part in reading some beautiful passages from the Bible. And if he is not familiar with the Bible, he has suffered a loss.

7. He will take part in singing some good hymns.

8. He will meet and nod or speak to good, quiet neighbors. He will come away feeling a little more charitable toward all the world, even toward those excessively foolish young men who regard church-going as a soft performance.

9. I advocate a man's joining in church work for the sake of showing his faith by his works.

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

R. L. HAMMEY
DeLancey Tailor
FOR
Ladies and Gentlemen
S. W. Cor. 23d and Pine Streets

Keystone—Main 4644

Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

Mrs. Randolph's
Home Cooking : Lunch Room
S. E. Cor. 22d and Naudain Streets

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds

Both Phones

High Pressure Washing

Tires Repaired

Ed. Pennington
GARAGE
306-310 REED STREET
Storage Space Available
No Crowding

Oregon 10276
Open Day and Night

PETE'S MEAT MARKET
Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881

'SAY IT WITH FLOWERS'

Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R

FRANK C. QUINN
...FflorIST...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

If You Want—
Delicious Mince Pies
USE
Atmore's Extra Fancy
MINCE MEAT
Or, You May Prefer
Atmore's Plum Pudding
Ask Your Grocer For Both
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 TASKER ST.
Founded 1842

Broadcasting From Laugh Land

MODERN LULLABY

Rock-a-bye baby, upon the bough,
You get your milk from a certified cow.
Before your eugenic young parents were wed,
They had decided how you should be fed.
Hush-a-bye baby, on the tree-top,
If grandmother trots you, you tell her to stop.
Shun the trot-horse that your grandmother rides,
It will work harm to your litttle insides.
Mamma's scientific—she knows all the laws,
She kissed her darling through carbolized gauze.
Rock-a-bye, baby; don't wriggle and squirm;
Nothing is near you that looks like a germ.

—From Southern Hospital Herald.

* * *

SOUL OF DISCRETION

Sambo—"Did Brudder Brown gib de bride away?"

Rastus—"No, sah; he gwine let de groom fin' her out for hisself."—Hardware Age.

* * *

Quack Medicine Vendor—"Sir, I might mention as a slight testimonal to this world-famed 'rejuvenator' that a year ago, after taking one small dose overnight, upon awakening in the morning, I said to my wife, 'Mother, give me my satchel—I shall be late for school.' "—Western Christian Advocate.

* * *

A moving picture producer, on filming "The Passion Play," noticed that there were twelve Apostles. "Oh, that won't do," he said, "this is a big production. That number will have to be increased to twenty-four." —Outlook.

* * *

Nature abhors a vacuum. Just as the country went dry the girls turned the hose on us.—Collier's.

* * *

"What makes that new baby at your home cry so much, Tommy?"

"It don't cry so much, and anyway, if you had all your hair off and your teeth out and your legs were so weak you couldn't stand on 'em, I guess you'd feel like crying, too."

* * *

CAN YOU "BEET" IT?

This thrilling love letter was found in a basket of beans: "Dearest Sweet Pea: Do you carrot all for me. My heart beets for you, with your radish hair and your turnip nose; you are the apple of my eye. Give me a date. If we canteloupe lettuce marry, anyway. I know we would be a happy pear."

* * *

GEORGIE PATCHES IT UP

Little Georgie was invited out to dinner with his father and mother, and before starting the latter impressed upon the darling boy the necessity for his speaking in complimentary terms of the food.

After he had tasted the soup, he said to the hostess: "This is pretty good soup—what there is of it." A glare from his mother pulled him up. So he corrected himself by saying: "And there is plenty of it—such as it is."

* * *

"Say, Pop, what do you call a man who drives an automobile?"

Father—"It all depends how close he comes to me."—Slo-grins.

* * *

A famous lawyer undertook a trade-mark suit that looked hopeless for a client. The client went abroad leaving his cable address with instructions that he was to be notified of the decision. The lawyer won the case and cabled "Justice has triumphed," whereupon the client cabled back "Take an immediate appeal."

* * *

It's today that I am living,
Not a month ago;
Havin', losin', takin', givin',
As time wills it so.

Yesterday a cloud of sorrow
Fell across the way;
It may rain again tomorrow,
It may rain—but, say,
Ain't it fine today?

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

1927 Is Dead

* * *

Here's to a better and a brighter New Year!

* * *

How about your pledge to the Bishop's Campaign Fund? Have you paid it? DO IT NOW.

* * *

Your pledge is your promise. If you make a pledge nobody can keep it but you.

* * *

What a Bazaar! What a Bazaar!

* * *

The men wound up the year in a blaze of glory. Their oyster supper and social evening was the best ever. Here's hoping they make 1928 a humdinger of a year.

* * *

Speaking about the men—how about the women? The Woman's Auxiliary, the Daughters of the King, the Y. W. C. L. and the 72 Club for instance?

* * *

BE SURE YOU PAY YOUR BISHOP'S CAMPAIGN FUND PLEDGE AT ONCE. THE EYES OF THE DIOCESE ARE UPON YOU.

* * *

Our 1928 pledge: More individual service, more co-operation.

* * *

Our 1928 job: Painting the interior of the church.

One full church envelope every Sunday is far better than fifty-two empty ones at the end of the year.

* * *

Didn't we have a grand and glorious Christmas day?

* * *

How That Choir of Ours Can Sing!

* * *

How many times did you receive your communion in

* * *

1927? How About 1928?

* * *

Wouldn't it be a novelty if we were to spend our week-ends in church instead of in extravagant pleasures which cost us ten hundred times more in railroad fares and hotels than we ever dream of putting on the alms basin? At the end of the year we would be several dollars in pocket and much richer in spiritual experience.

* * *

Please glance over the names of our STANDING ARMY. Do you wonder we are proud of our parish?

* * *

Do you patronize our Advertisers? Remember, it is their patronage of us that makes the printing of the "Broadcaster" possible.

* * *

1928 Is Here!

* * *

What are you going to do with it?

* * *

Hope you left all your 1927 grouches die with the old year. It is easy enough to get a brand new supply for 1928.

ENVELOPES

Let's Get This Matter Straight

Several communicants have complained that they did not receive their packages of envelopes this year.

There Is a Reason

In almost every case it was not an oversight of ours. When we examined Mr. Weber's books this year we found that most of these communicants had paid little or nothing during the year. Every package of envelopes costs the parish 15 cents and we felt we could not afford these extra packages unless we were reasonably sure they would be used.

Special Envelopes for Coal, Christmas and Easter have always been sent to every member of the parish, both young and old. On these three occasions we mail out over 800 envelopes. In almost every case we find that the delinquent members default in these special envelopes as well.

NOW WE ASK YOU

Is it either honest or fair to complain if such names are put upon the delinquent list?

If any of those who have not paid in the past will assure us that they will do their share in the future we will be delighted to issue packages of envelopes to them.

We want you to contribute and be a "regular feller." Nothing will give us greater pleasure than to have you join our STANDING ARMY. All you need do is to see the rector and he will enthusiastically welcome you as a recruit for active service.

SIGN UP AND CARRY ON

PRAYER FOUND IN CHESTER CATHEDRAL

Give me a good digestion, Lord,
And also something to digest.
Give me a healthy body, Lord,
With sense to keep it at its best.
Give me a healthy mind, O Lord,
To keep the good and pure in sight;
Which seeing sin is not appalled,
But finds a way to set it right.

Give me a mind that is not bored,
That does not whimper, whine or sigh.
Don't let me worry overmuch
About the fussy thing called "I."
Give me a sense of humor, Lord,
Give me the grace to see a joke;
To get some happiness from life
And pass it on to other folk. AMEN.

SOUR KROUT SUPPER

Given Under Auspices of

Women's Bible Class

Church of St. John the Evangelist

Third and Reed Streets

Saturday Evening, Feb. 4, 1928

5.30 to 8.00 o'clock

Tickets - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - 35 Cents

Proceeds for Lenten Offering

COSTS

Light Lunch and Quick Service

219 South Ninth Street

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.

WHOLESALE

MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY

QUALITY

402-404 N. SECOND STREET

PHILADELPHIA

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 4 PHILADELPHIA, FEBRUARY, 1928. By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John Edward Wolf, Scoutmaster, 4613 Tampa St.
Carl W. Schoenau, Asst. Scoutmaster, 1024 Wagner Ave
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Harry Wesley Nelson
Daniel James Price

BURIALS

William H. Gampher
William T. Kelly
Anna E. Morozzi
David B. Quaile
Kate Van Sciver

Important Notice !

EVERY MEMBER OF THE PARISH ATTENDING THE WEDNESDAY AND SUNDAY EVENING SERVICES DURING LENT WILL RECEIVE A BEAUTIFUL AND APPROPRIATE GIFT ON EASTER DAY.

TWO ABSENCES WILL BE ALLOWED EACH PERSON, BUT NO MORE.

THERE WILL BE NO FRIDAY EVENING SERVICES AS THE CHOIR NEEDS THAT NIGHT FOR REHEARSAL.

PRE-LENTEN MEDITATION

We are fast approaching that season of the church year which most churchmen welcome with quiet satisfaction and joy because it affords so many opportunities to overhaul one's life and learn just what sort of progress has been made towards spiritual growth.

To get the best results out of our Lenten experience is first of all to be wary of the pitfalls of Satan who would turn even our penitential season into a stumbling block for our soul.

Like all definitely fixed institutions as to time and purpose, Lent is always in danger of becoming a time of mechanical and meaningless church observances, "Sounding brass, tinkling cymbals." Satan must laugh out loud when he sees how many churchmen keep the letter and not the spirit of the forty days. They are so extremely careful to refrain from eating candy, playing cards, smoking cigarettes, attending social functions, going to theaters, fasting strictly according to rule and yet ignore the weightier matters of the spirit. Such a Lenten experience is a wretched travesty on christianity. It does more deadly injury to the soul than does a complete ignoring of the blessed season.

With this introduction permit us to recommend the following for your pre-Lenten meditation which we are sure will bring great peace and happiness to your soul.

First. Pray daily. Pray fervently. Pray thoughtfully. Pray constantly. Pray more for others than for yourself. And remember always God answers prayer.

Second. Practice self-restraint. We purposely avoid using the oft-repeated expression self-denial. Self-restraint implies you are the master of your soul. Self-denial implies you are the tyrant of your soul. A master can always accomplish more than a tyrant. God does not want us to tyrannize over even our souls. He wants us to be calm masters of our desires.

Third. Practice liberality of money, time, self to the poor, the sick, the church, the missions. Nothing wounds and hurts our selfish natures so much as absolute unselfishness. It is the very discipline we need this Lent.

Fourth. Yield not to temptation. They will appeal to you during Lent just as strongly as during any other part of the year. Perhaps even more so. If we turn Lent into a training season for practicing a few knockout blows on our pet temptations I'm sure we will be in great form to lick 'em all the rest of the year.

Fifth. Confess your sins. Name them separately and call them by their right names. If you are a liar, a cheat, an adulterer, a thief, a coward, a miser, a slandermonger, a glutton or whatever you are, say so right out loud so that both you and God can hear the ugly word. YOU will hate yourself for falling so low and GOD will love you for being so honest.

Sixth. Attend church services regularly with the determination to form the habit of attending church always. Use the start you get in Lent as a springboard into the future. See that your wife and children go to church, too. If friends and visitors call expecting to enjoy a big Sunday dinner at your expense and your wife's health, invite them to come to church with you or tell them to wait 'till you return and you will knock together some sort of a cold lunch to keep them from going home hungry. Take our advice; it is better to have the good-will of God than that of irreligious and hungry acquaintances. If they want a big Sunday dinner let their wives slave in a hot kitchen Sunday morning and let your wife have a chance for soul refreshment.

Seventh. Be a missionary. No real Christian can keep his religion corked up in his own heart. You want to become a spiritual gossip and tell everybody you meet all you know about Jesus Christ until there is nothing left to tell. You will make friends for Him wherever you go and you will wind up your Lenten season an enthusiastic partisan of Jesus Christ.

ANNA E. MOROZZI

Saturday evening, January 14th, the whole Parish was stricken and plunged into sorrow because of the sudden translation of Anna E. Morozzi from earth to her eternal home.

Her passing was not a family but a community loss. Jew and Gentile; Roman Catholic and Protestant; yes, and many of no religious affiliations whatever, felt the loss most keenly. Seldom has St. John's Church been so filled at a funeral service. And even more rare was the large attendance at the Memorial Service, January 22nd. The crowds on both occasions were an amazing testimonial of her worth and popularity.

At the Memorial Service a great package of letters from fellow-church members, friends, neighbors, societies and community organizations were read. Among other interesting documents was a list of boys and girls, men and women who signed a special communication from the parish to the family. Certainly the family must have been impressed with the true greatness of Anna E. Morozzi.

No ordinary person could have drawn together such a large and cosmopolitan congregation. One was irresistably reminded of that beautiful poem of James H. L. Hunt:

Abou Ben Adham (may his tribe increase!)
Awoke one night from a deep dream of peace,
And saw, within the moonlight in his room,
Making it rich and like a lily in bloom,
An angel writing in a book of gold.
Exceeding peace had made Ben Adham bold,
And to the presence in the room he said,
"What writest thou?" The vision raised its head,
And with a look made of all sweet accord
Answered, "The names of those who love the Lord."
"And is mine one?" said Abou. "Nay, not so,"
Replied the Angel. Abou spoke more low,
But cheerily still; and said, "I pray thee, then,
Write me as ONE THAT LOVES HIS FELLOW MEN."

The Angel wrote, and vanished. The next night
It came again with a great wakening light,
And showed the names whom love of God had blessed,
And, lo! BEN ADHAM'S NAME LED ALL THE REST.

It was her real love and interest for her fellow-men that endeared her to such a multitude. The sentiments of each and every one no doubt were the same as those expressed by her rector.

So far as earthly and physical treasures count, I have lost a friend; but Heaven has gained a soul kindred to the Saints of God.

OUR LATE MEMBERS

"A diller a dollar,
A ten o'clock scholar,
What makes you come so soon?
You used to come at ten o'clock
And now you come at noon."
Mother Goose.

Really it is getting almost as bad as that. Soon we will be holding our morning service after dinner.

Why This Lateness?

Are we as late for work on Monday as we are for Divine Service on Sunday? Of course not! But that is different. If we came to work an hour late we would lose our job. We must be there on time and punch the clock.

Well, are we as late for a train, as we are for church, when we want to take a trip? Why, what a silly question! What railroad would ever keep a train waiting a whole hour just for us? That is more than they would do for prominent men. Either we reach the train on time or else it goes without us.

Do we send our boys and girls to school an hour late? No indeed! When 9 o'clock comes we see to it that they are in their place in school. We cannot expect them to learn very much if they are late every day. Another thing, the school authorities would not stand for it but would punish the child.

Are we late to an evening function—say a dinner, a reception, a theater party, an entertainment? Indeed we are not! We know it would be showing little if any consideration for our host if we did such a rude thing. We hope we are all well bred enough to know better than to keep others waiting.

Well, if lateness is so reprehensible in everything else why do we think it is excusable in church attendance? Is it because we actually do consider other engagements of greater importance? O folk of little thoughts, can there possibly be anything so important as the refreshment of the spirit and communion with God?

It is quite clear that multitudes do not know the importance of how to go to church. One must be in church at least five minutes before the time for service. We need that margin in which to kneel in silent prayer, asking God's blessing upon the service about to begin and that great spiritual refreshment shall be derived therefrom. Then we need to have our minds and bodies composed and receptive in order to get the very best out of the service.

Also we show that we are considerate of others and are careful not to disturb them in their devotions. There is nothing quite so distracting as to be engaged in prayer, or listening to God's Holy Word, or listening to a sermon than to have somebody come in the church late. Lateness to church shows as much lack of delicacy for the feelings of others as does lateness to a theater. You know how it is. Just when the most exciting thing is happening on the screen or stage some inconsiderate and boorish late person or persons come in and upset everybody trying to get in their seats and shutting off our view of the stage. What we mutter is murderous. It just might possibly be that when we come late to church we may be making just as great a nuisance of ourselves to other worshipers.

It is said that George Washington would always allow a margin of five minutes to any person having an engagement with him; the idea being to allow for a possible discrepancy in time pieces. At the end of five minutes the engagement was forfeited if the party did not appear.

The really irritating part about lateness to church services is the fact that it is inexcusable. There is no day in the week where one has more time at his disposal and can easily keep his "tryst with God" if he will. How we dare to come so late to God's house when we are so sensitive in keeping our engagements with men shows that God's claims on our interest and our time are weak.

What a Terrible Thing to Say!

"THEY SAY"

A few days ago the writer was sitting in a group of folks who were discussing an absent person in a rather free and easy way. On no less than four occasions someone of the group would say, "They say," and then would follow a particularly mean and vindictive narrative of what the absent one was supposed to have done.

We did not hear one direct accusation against the absentee. Not one person in the group would commit himself with "I say." None were willing to stand together and declare, "We say." The only witnesses against the accused were "They."

After listening to their gossip for sometime we came to the conclusion that the nameless "they" were a vindictive, cruel, lying, cowardly crew who had no regard for the reputation of any honest person and who took devilish delight in dragging the honor of helpless, perhaps innocent, men and women through the filth of scandal. And we could not help but feel that the man or the woman who peddled what "They say" about unsuspecting and absent persons who are given no chance to defend their reputations against the infamous "They" certainly must be on a very confidential footing with that criminal crew and therefore are no better than "They."

Every person is known by the company he keeps. Consequently it is just as well not to appear to know so much about what "They say" for fear you will be suspected of being one of "They." If you are found out you will be hated and shunned by every decent man and woman of the community and you will richly deserve your punishment, too.

THE ANNA E. MOROZZI MEMORIAL FUND

"Their works do follow them."

Anna E. Morozzi had scarcely gone home before the suggestion was made that a fitting memorial should be founded in the parish to keep her memory ever green in the minds of those who knew and loved her. The first suggestion was to place a tablet in the church but somehow this did not seem to be adequate enough for her. Eventually it was decided that a permanent memorial fund should be raised to be known as the ANNA E. MOROZZI MEMORIAL FUND for the relief of the poor of St. John's Parish regardless of denominational or racial difference. The principal to remain intact perpetually and the interest to be used as directed by the Rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist or by a trustee appoined by the Court in case the church should be defunct.

It is suggested that this fund be started immediately after Easter and that the parish and the community attempt to raise the sum of $5000.00 for this purpose. The method that no doubt will be used will be the pledge system, which is so universally used in raising money in these modern times.

There is something thrilling in the thought that for hundreds of years to come the interest of this fund will be helping some poor neighbor over a rough spot in life. It is just exactly what Anna E. Morozzi would do herself and we are sure she must be glad right now to know what we are about to do in her name.

The income of $5000.00 will be $250.00 a year. That can do a lot of good to a poor family needing a lift.

SOAP

The Kindergarten of our Sunday School are selling soap to raise their quota for the SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING.

They are charging just exactly what you pay at any store. The price is 5 cents per cake and they are prepared to sell you any amount up to 1800 cakes and even more than that if necessary.

It is real economy to buy at least twelve cakes at a time; because it will dry out and become hard and will last almost twice as long and be just as good as when it is used fresh.

Please give in your order at once and pay cash for the soap. We cannot sell the soap on credit because our bills are very heavy.

Instructors of the Kindergarten,
FRANCES HUDAK,
MARY HAURY.

THE BIBLE

AN UNFETTERED BOOK

Have you ever really stopped to think what a wonderful book the Bible is? How it appeals to the needs of the human heart everywhere and reveals God. That it is a living book, and lives, not because of its science or its history or its literature or even its theology, but because it is inspired; that is, it begins with God—continues with God, reveals God, and ends with God. That it is new and always up-to-date.

It has been translated into over 800 languages and dialects and that is one criterion of its popularity and importance. No other book in the world has ever had such prominence as the Bible. Homer has been translated into about a score of modern languages. Shakespeare into about 40 foreign tongues, including Japanese and Icelandic. Tolstoy has been read in 50 languages. Thomas a Kempis' "The Imitation of Christ" has been written in 40 different languages and "Pilgrim's Progress" has been issued in no less than 118 versions, yet all these added together fall far short of the marvelous many-languaged Bible. The Bible is the common property of mankind. The Bible leads all other books. It marches ahead of all pioneers of civilization; it penetrates in front of the newspaper correspondent. In Abyssinia and Somaliland—in Spain and on the Canadian wilds—in the Buddhist marketplaces—on the blistered soil of Australia and the frost-bitten shores of Iceland, there comes the good news of the comfort and strength of the Word of God. This book tells of God's seeking and finding man. This book is about God—about man's deepest spiritual needs and their fulfilment in God and herein lies its permanent value to mankind. As long as men seek God this Book's message will come home to his soul bringing into his tired being the revelation of Divine power and peace. Let our attitude be: God has spoken, I will obey. R. M. B.

KEEP SMILIN'

"By Saint"

When days are dark and skies are gray,
Keep smilin'.
When trouble haunts you night and day,
Keep smilin'.
When grief and sorrow come along,
And everything you try goes wrong,
Try bustin' right out with a song;
Keep smilin'.

When winds of winter moan and sigh,
Keep smilin'.
The summer's comin' by and by,
Keep smilin'.
No matter if you're feelin' blue
And hard luck keeps a trailin' you,
Open your mouth and holler—"Boo!"
Keep smilin'..

Sometimes you don't see how you can
Keep smilin'.
But let me say, as man to man,
Keep smilin'.
There is no loss without some gain,
So what's the use of raisin' Cain
And actin' like you were insane;
Keep smilin'.

Don't waste a minute lookin' sad,
Keep smilin'.
You're still on earth and should be glad,
Keep smilin'.

Wounding Mother's Heart

Don't criticise mother harshly or unkindly, children; boys and girls, it hurts, and she can stand the criticisms of strangers, but from you whom she loves so dearly it hurts, writes Mrs. Blake L. Woodson in the "Catholic Register." Stop it, if you have been doing it, at once, for there will come a time some day, when she has slipped away, and you miss her voice; you will miss her love, and when you have made mistakes, bitter ones, you will miss her sustaining hand, and wise advice, and in your lonely agony, you will cry out Mother, come back from the echoless shore, and the only answer which will come to you will be that of conscience reminding you of the unkind things, the criticisms you made as you scorned her motherly advice.

Prohibition and Public Health

This is the title of an address given before the American Institute of Homeopathy (at its recent convention on board the S. S. Lapland) by Charles McDowell, M. D., of Brooklyn. He has made a serious and painstaking study of the effect of prohibition on the mortality rate in the United States, and his findings are shown on graphic charts. Briefly they are as follows: The alcoholism death rate per 100,000 population shows only two-thirds of the mortality before prohibition. The record for cirrhosis of the liver is even better—a marked decline in the tracing during the past seven years. Bright's disease had been increasing in mortality, but a decided fall has followed prohibition. Tuberculosis had been decreasing in mortality for some years, but took a marked plunge downward in 1920, and has remained down.

Dr. McDowell finds that in New York City the death rate has fallen over two points since 1920, which in a city of nearly six millions means the saving of over eleven thousand lives every year; this fact alone shows how greatly prohibition has improved living conditions among the masses.

Considering the question whether partial carrying out of the prohibition law would lead us to expect such benefit to public health, Dr. McDowell feels that it would: because (1) we know that alcohol is now looked upon as a narcotic rather than a stimulant; he quotes various medical authorities on this point and also on the following: (2) that the effect of alcohol on human efficiency is well known to be depressing; for instance, directors of athletic sports agree that abstinence results in greater muscular strength and endurance, and Lord Kitchener and others proved the same in regard to troops. Also in this connection is (3) the matter of the effect of drinking on length of life, as shown by statistics of life insurance companies of America, Britain and Scotland—all agreeing that abstainers have the lowest mortality, occasional drinkers a higher, and moderate regular drinkers a still higher mortality.

Dr. McDowell concludes in part as follows: "Seven years are not long enough for final judgment . . . but prohibition is the biggest social experiment yet made—an experiment having for its aim human health and welfare—and there is wisdom in carrying it out as thoroughly as possible for one or two generations. It is reasonable to believe (especially in view of the remarkable results during the first years of prohibition) that with better enforcement there will result better health, increased efficiency of the people and a lengthening of life, as well as a great addition to the sum of human happiness."

L. W. S.

Crimes' Annual Cost Ten Billion Dollars

The annual cost of crime in the United States is $10,000,000,000, and in the next 12 months $3,000,000,000 worth of property will be stolen, United States Attorney Charles H. Tuttle told delegates to the National Better Business Bureau convention recently at a luncheon given by the Advertising Club of New York.

After reading the above clipping from the "Record," we ask you is it not high time to back our churches in a drive against crime? Do you realize that you are the victims of this huge theft and that you pay the bill in higher taxes and higher prices on every living commodity? These 10 billions must be refunded somehow and as usual you are the goat.

DON'T BE A MUTE TOO.

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

R. L. HAMMEY
DeLancey Tailor
FOR
Ladies and Gentlemen
S. W. Cor. 23d and Pine Streets

Keystone—Main 4644

Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

Mrs. Randolph's
Home Cooking : Lunch Room
S. E. Cor. 22d and Naudain Streets

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds

Both Phones

High Pressure Washing

Tires Repaired

Ed. Pennington
GARAGE
306-310 REED STREET
Storage Space Available
No Crowding
Oregon 10276
Open Day and Night

PETE'S MEAT MARKET
Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881

'SAY IT WITH FLOWERS'

Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R

FRANK C. QUINN
...FflorisT...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

If You Want—
Delicious Mince Pies
USE
Atmore's Extra Fancy
MINCE MEAT
Or, You May Prefer
Atmore's Plum Pudding
Ask Your Grocer For Both
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 TASKER ST.
Founded 1842

"E"

"I've just bin readin' a story 'ere,
Of the night afore Jesus died,
And of 'ow 'E prayed in Gethsemane
'Ow 'E fell on 'Is face and cried.
Cried to the Lord Almighty above
Till 'E broke in a bloody sweat,
And 'E were the Son of the Lord, 'E were,
And 'E prayed to 'Im 'ard; and yet,
And yet 'E 'ad to go through wiv it, boys,
Just same as pore Bill what died.
'E prayed to the Lord, and 'E sweated blood,
And yet 'E were crucified.
But 'Is prayer were answered, I sees it now,
For though 'E were sorely tried,
Still 'E went wiv 'Is trust in the Lord unbroke,
And 'Is soul it were satisfied.
For 'E felt 'E were doin' God's Will, ye see,
What 'E come on the earth to do,
And the answer that came to the prayers 'E prayed
Were 'Is power to see it through;
To see it through to the bitter end
And to die like a Gawd at the last,
In the glory of light that were dawning bright,
Wi' the sorrow of death all past."

—Anonymous.

Broadcasting From Laugh Land

"SPUNK"

A little cork fell in the path of a whale
Who lashed it down with his angry tail,
But in spite of his blows, the cork quickly arose;
And floated serenely before his nose;
Said the cork, "You may flap and splutter and frown,
But you never, never can keep me down;
For I'm made of stuff, that's buoyant enough,
To float, instead of to drown."

—Security Mutual Roster.

* * * *

Willie returned very proudly from his first day at school, and his father asked him what he had been taught.

He replied: "Teacher taught us how to say 'Yes, ma'am,' and 'no, sir.'"

"Is that so?"

"Yep!"

* * * *

"Mamma," chirped little Betsy, "why did you marry papa?"

Mamma looked puzzled, then she snapped: "So you've begun to wonder."

* * * *

THIS MIGHT HAPPEN

"Pardon me, did you drop your handkerchief during the last dance?"

"Oh, I was never so embarrassed in my life. That wasn't my handkerchief, that was my dress."—Wesleyan Wasp.

* * * *

Mrs. Fox said to Mrs. Cat: "I hear you have an addition to your family. Was it a boy or a girl?"

"Oh," replied 'Tom's' wife (Mrs. Cat), "just six of one and half a dozen of the other."

* * * *

The inebriated young man rocked into the lobby of a great hotel far from his native land. He looked into a tall mirror and smiled with pleasure.

"Look!" he cried. "They've got a picture of me here!"

* * * *

"Here, ma," requested the boy, hurrying in from school before time, "hang my jacket up behind the stove."

"Is it wet?"

"No, but teacher sent me home to tell you to warm my jacket for me."

* * * *

Eph—"What am de difference between an old man, a young man and a worm?"

Mose—"Nuffin. Chickens gets 'em all."

* * * *

A hungry dog once wandered
Into a butcher's store;
The butcher threw some sausage
To the dog upon the floor.
The butcher said, "Now eat it,"
The dog said, "I decline,
For in that link of sausage
Is that Old Gal of Mine!"

—Contributed by N. C. R.

* * * *

After slaving away for years the inventor had produced a machine that was a success. He opened a bank account, and went home to tell his wife of his success.

"At last, my dear," he cried, "you'll be able to buy some decent clothes!"

"I'll do nothing of the sort," came the sharp reply. "I'll get the same kind that other women are wearing!"—Author unknown.

* * * *

Teacher—"Now, Willie, if James gave you a dog and David gave you a dog, how many dogs would you have?"

Willie—"Four."

Teacher—"Now, dear, think hard. Would you have four if James and David each gave you one?"

Willie—"Yep. You see, I got two dogs at home now."—Author unknown.

* * * * *

KISSING

Kissing may be a frolic, but better to miss many than kiss all or any and get the painter's colic.

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

We very earnestly request that all conversation be dispensed with during the services of the Church. It is impossible for those who have certain duties to perform, to do so in a reverent manner, if there is talking going on.

This is nothing new for St. John's Services, but now it has come to the point where the conversation is so loud that everybody can hear what is being said.

There is no provision made in the Prayer Book whereby we may expect a recess, although a great many folks show by their attitude that they think the time to talk is during the Offertory.

Won't you help our Rector to make the services dignified, reverent and beautiful?

We thank you!

* * *

Patronize our advertisers and our advertisers will patronize us.

* * *

Remember the Bishop's Campaign Fund

* * * *

Cleanliness is next to Godliness. One dozen cakes of soap costs 60 cents. Buy from the kiddies and help them in their Lenten Offering.

* * * *

Some folks are getting out of the habit of coming to church.

* * * *

By the way, why is it that so many of us form bad habits but break good habits?

* * * *

Scriptures say: "Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth." Some day we are going to see a tremendous centralization of capital controlled by a mighty small company of stockholders.

* * * *

Lenten Season Is Almost Here!

* * * *

The man who thinks as much of his neighbor as he does of himself is yet to be born.

* * * *

Now is the time to get set for Lent. Make it a worthwhile season. Get all the spiritual good out of it you can, and come to your Easter Communion with the happy consciousness that you have been forty days with God.

* * * *

Every Sunday School class is making mighty efforts to raise their Lenten Offering quota. Do your best to help them. No parish in the world has as much reason to be grateful for the missionary impulse of the Church as the parish of St. John the Evangelist. Let's show our gratitude by giving all we can to missions.

* * * *

After Easter we start the ANNA E. MOROZZI MEMORIAL FUND for the poor of the parish.

* * * *

Don't forget about that painting job.

* * * *

Well, was the first month of the new year satisfactory? Did you keep all your resolutions so far? Are you sitting tight on your old sins and are you still developing new virtues?

* * * * *

Ecclesiastes, Chapter 12

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

Dr. C. E. Smith, Formerly Practicing as
Dr. Bayn's, 1434 South St.
Modern Dental Offices
Fillings: Gold, Porcelain and Silver
BRIDGE WORK, $7.00
Work Guaranteed. 22k. Gold Used in All Crowns, $7.00
Open Evenings Bell Phone, Oregon 1630

"For Rent–Furnished"

A THREE-ACT COMEDY

Wednesday, February 8th, 1928

St. JOHN'S CHURCH, Third and Reed Sts.

TICKETS, 25 CENTS Be Sure to Come

Get Rid of Your Rheumatism by Using Shipley's Anti-Rheumatic Tablets
40 Doses for 60 cts.

GILES' DRUG STORE
Second & Federal Streets

COSTS
Light Lunch and Quick Service
219 South Ninth Street

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.
WHOLESALE
MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY
QUALITY
402-404 N. SECOND STREET
PHILADELPHIA

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 5 PHILADELPHIA, MARCH, 1928. By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John Edward Wolf, Scoutmaster, 4613 Tampa St.
Carl W. Schoenau, Asst. Scoutmaster, 1024 Wagner Ave
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Bedlow, Anna
Collins, Charles
Muller, William Edward
Muller, Alice Elaine
Robins, Beatrice Catharine

THE MITE-I-NESS OF THE MITE

If you take away every snowflake out of the blizzard you have no blizzard.

If you take every drop of water out of the ocean you have no ocean.

If you take every leaf off the tree you have no shade.

If you pluck every blade of grass off the lawn you have no lawn.

So you see it is after all the snowflake, the drop of water, the single leaf, the blade of grass that counts.

We could go on to tell you a true fairy story of how great impassable mountains are created by tiny little electrones, hundreds of which can lodge upon the head of a pin.

As a matter of fact all nature is nothing but the congregation of particles too small to see, too tiny to handle and at the same time, the united force of their combined feeble strength and substance forms a force too irresistable to overcome, producing destruction or promoting good according to their destiny.

So is it with our Lenten Mite Chests. It is a little cardboard box each S. S. scholar has for the purpose of gathering mites for missions. Every penny, nickle, dime or quarter counts. If each scholar will just keep busy gathering in the mites all during Lenten season we are going to have a mite-y big S. S. Lenten Offering to present on Easter Day.

We want every scholar to help raise the rain of pennies. So do not mislay your Mite Chests but keep on putting a mite in them every day until they are so full they are ready to "bust."

The reason we want to raise a mite-y mite offering is, we want to inundate every heathen land with a flood of Christianity so the people of the land will learn to know and love Jesus Christ.

Now Who's Going to Raise the Mite-i-est Mite?

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS

Let's write a tabloid story of our Sunday School teachers.

Chapter I

They are a group of young men and women who deserve to be written up and the very best things we can say of them is not good enough. There is not another parish in the Diocese which has anything compared to them in any particular. They are true blue.

Chapter II

Seldom do we have less than 100 per cent. of our teaching staff present on Sunday afternoons. This high percentage of regular attendance is not a new development. It has always been so. Very rarely are we called upon to supply substitutes.

Chapter III

Our teaching force is interested in the work. Those who are acquainted with our method of teaching know how true this must be. It takes interest plus brains plus patience plus personal magnetism, to teach in our school and our teachers have them.

Chapter IV

In order that the reader of this tabloid may appreciate the real quality and personnel of our teachers, let's write an explanatory chapter about what and how they have to teach. Their text book is the Bible. They are given a portion of a subject each Sunday to teach and they have only their Teacher's Bible to aid them. They are not supplied with a predigested review of the subject. They must dig out the lesson for themselves and write down their findings to be read before the whole School and criticized. In other words each class led by the teacher makes an analytical study of the passage of Scripture and gives its own interpretation. Some Sundays our classes will present as high as a dozen different interpretations and lessons—most of which are true deductions. As a result of this system our study and review periods are intensely interesting. Each class tries to make the most practical deduction but gives a sympathetic hearing to the lessons presented by the other classes.

Chapter V

Whew, that fourth chapter was a long one! But we had to tax your patience in order to let you see why our teachers must be expert in their calling. We could never use such pedagogical methods if it were not for the high standard of our instructors.

Chapter VI

It is a source of special pride to us that our teachers are graduates of our own school. We have no out-of-the-parish nor paid teachers. The staff is made up of home talent. As a matter of fact most of our teachers were christened, confirmed and trained in St. John's Church. Consequently what they are doing in the way of teaching originated among themselves and is not borrowed from outside sources.

Chapter VII

Then too, the success of our Lenten Offering is due entirely to the self-sacrifice and hard work of our teachers. Each knows the power and resources of the class and knows pretty well how to get maximum results out of the class.

Chapter VIII

There is one other officer of our Sunday School who ought to be mentioned in our concluding chapter.

We refer to our Treasurer. She was treasurer before we were Rector. She is always on the job. We cannot remember a Sunday she has ever been absent. She is as interested in the school as any teacher.

When a class forges ahead in its offerings she gleefully calls our attention to it. If a class drops off in its offerings she gets awful "blue" and "gloomy" over it.

Our Sunday School Teachers

Bowers, Miss Elizabeth J.
Bruch, Miss Marion
Cressee, Mr. George, Sr.
Fisher, Miss M. Beatrice
Fort, Miss Elsie
Hasson, Miss Kathryne
Haury, Miss Mary
Hudak, Miss Frances
Kensil, Miss Margaret
Maguire, Miss Lydia
Matthews, Mr. Vernon
McHenry, Rev. H. Cresson
McKeown, Miss Rebecca
Nelson, Mr. John, Jr.
Nuttall, Miss Hannah H.
Read, Mrs. Hannah H.
Rutter, Miss Catharine
Rutter, Miss Eva
Rutter, Miss Margaret
Schmidt, Miss Martha W.
Tittermary, Mr. Edward
Watts, Miss Sarah

AS TO DANCING

It seems to us that for obvious reasons we ought to make our attitude clear as to dancing in the Sunday School room of the Church on evenings we have entertainments and social gatherings.

Personally, we were raised in a very strict manner and were taught that really nice persons do not dance. This, of course, was very many years ago. Thoughts and customs have changed greatly since then and we find ourselves quite able to sit and watch the whirl-i-gig of boys and girls to music without batting an eye.

And yet, there is no doubt about it our early training has left its traces insofar that we accept the modern habit of dancing with certain restrictions and reservations. Frequently we have been importuned by our young folk to let them have a dance after an evening entertainment. Sometimes we have given the permission; at other times we have not.

No doubt our attitude appeared to be inconsistent. But we assure you it has not been so. If you stop and think you will remember that every time permission was given it has always been on occasions when we were holding a parish party or reception when no charge for admission was made and where it was reasonably certain that most of those present belong to our own younger set.

Of course, during Lenten season dancing is forbidden absolutely as being inconsistent with the spirit of the season. No really conscientious church member will indulge in dancing in or out of the church building during that period.

Also, we have always refused to give our consent on occasions when we have paid entertainments on the grounds that upon such occasions we have many other than our own folk and feel that for safety's sake we cannot give our consent to promiscuous dancing. We know our own young folk and have every confidence that they will not abuse the privileges. We cannot be so sure of strangers and are not willing to take the risk.

Questions on St. Luke's Gospel

		Chapter
1.	Who took a journey without anything to eat or money to spend?	IX
2.	How did Jesus Christ make much out of little?	IX
3.	Who said Jesus was the Christ?	IX
4.	Who is going to lose his life?	IX
5.	What did Moses, Elias and Jesus talk about?	IX
6.	Why could not the disciples cast out the demon?	IX
7.	Who wanted to burn up a village?	IX
8.	What warning is repeated twice in the first eleven verses?	X
9.	Why should men rejoice?	X
10.	Who asked Jesus questions?	X
11.	How did Jesus answer him?	X
12.	Who complained to Jesus because her sister would not help her get dinner ready?	X
13.	What prayer did Jesus teach his disciples?	XI
14.	What will happen to those who ask and seek and knock?	XI
15.	What sentence in Chapter X is repeated in Chapter XI?	XI
16.	Who is opposed to Jesus Christ?	XI
17.	What is Jesus Christ's opinion of self-reformation?	XI
18.	Who is greater than Solomon and Jonas?	XI
19.	What's the difference between good eyes and bad eyes?	XI
20.	Who is a fool?	XI
21.	Over whose graves do men walk?	XI
22.	What was Jesus' opinion of lawyers?	XI
23.	What are five sparrows worth?	XII
24.	Who will not be forgiven?	XII
25.	How can a man be rich and poor at the same time?	XII
26.	How is the son of man like a thief?	XII
27.	Who is going to get a sound beating?	XII
28.	How many parables in Chapter 12? Name them.	XII
29.	What does a king do when he goes to war?	XII
30.	What does a man do when he builds a tower?	XII
31.	What ought a man do with his ears?	XII

(Continued next month)

"TOO BUSY"

"I Am Too Busy"

This excuse, with about a thousand variations, is offered us with monotonous regularity whenever we ask a delinquent son of the Church why he no longer attends church services, why he neglects his Communion or why he takes no active interest in parochial affairs.

What poor harrassed work-ridden mortals we are!

Too busy to walk with God.
Too busy to pray.
Too busy to sing.
Too busy to refresh and nourish one's soul.
Too busy to be interested in our neighbor.
Too busy to prepare for a life with God.
Too busy to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.
Too busy to be saved.

Our prayer for all such is: God pity the busy man and wreck his business that in a state of bankruptcy he may cease being busy and turn to Thee. Amen.

MY CATECHISM

Have I any real reason for being loyal to my church? Why should I support it by my presence, with my money, by my efforts? Suppose I make me a catechism and answer my own questions?

1. In time of sickness did my rector minister unto me?

Answer:

2. In time of death did my rector come to comfort and serve me?

Answer:

3. Have I been distressed in mind and gone to my rector for advice and did he turn me away comfortless?

Answer:

4. Did I first meet the person I most dearly love at the church and has a great happiness come into my life through my beloved?

Answer:

5. When my heart was almost broken by the sinful acts of one I love has my rector been my friend and comforter?

Answer:

6. When I applied for a position and was required to give a reference and I gave my rector's name, did he stand by me loyally and recommend me?

Answer:

7. Have I ever done a wicked or a foolish thing and come to my rector for advice and did he help me?

Answer:

8. What would be my financial or social standing today had it not been for the interest of my rector in my welfare?

Answer:

9. Who got me my first job?

Answer:

10. Who loaned me money when I was temporarily embarrassed?

Answer:

11. Who paid my rent and supplied me with clothing, food, fuel and temporary work when times were hard and I was idle and my children were suffering?

Answer:

12. Was I ever homeless—spending nights sleeping on park benches in public squares—and did a member of the church take me in, give me food and clothing and hold me up until I could get a job?

Answer:

13. Was I christened, confirmed, married in the dear old church and are there no loving memories clinging to it because of these blessed associations?

Answer:

14. Did I receive my first spiritual training there and was my first Communion made before its Holy Altar?

Answer:

15. Can I look my rector in the eye and say: Even though you christened me, presented me for confirmation, married me, visited me when I was sick, buried my beloved ones, christened my children, advised and comforted me, you are not my friend?

Answer:

16. Am I putting forth my best effort to build up the cause of Jesus Christ in my parish by co-operating helpfully with my rector; by regularly attending the services of the church and taking an active part therein; by going out into the highways and byways of the parish and inducing strangers to come into my Father's house; by working for harmony and discouraging discord among my fellow members?

Answer:

17. Is my love for my church strong and pure enough to enable me to ignore all fancied wrongs and possible misunderstandings between myself and my rector or other members of the parish?

Answer:

18. Is my church stronger or weaker because I am a communicant thereof?

Answer:

19. Have I done one-tenth as much for the church as the church has done for me?

Answer:

20. Can I do more for the church or any of its members than I am doing?

Answer:

My Prayer

Blessed Lord, give me grace, strength of character, honesty of spirit to enable me to answer this MY CATESHISM truthfully. May my answers enable me to gauge my loyalty to thee and my church and help me to be a truer and more earnest servant to both than I have ever been before. May I attain this ideal state through the grace and help of thy Holy Spirit. Amen.

A-CENT-A-DAY

* * *

The following letter will be of special interest to all the members of St. John's Parish, especially to the "old-timers" who were in the "thick of it" years ago when the old church put up that wonderful fight for its parochial life and won out.

The writer, Mrs. Achelis, is a friend whose good-will we value greatly. Such a communication from her is most encouraging and suggests that St. John's Parish is accomplishing a most important work beyond its parochial boundaries by stimulating, encouraging and suggesting practical and attractive ways for other parishes to solve their problems.

We are most grateful to Mrs. Achelis for her fine letter. It encourages us to attempt other big things we have in mind.

"My dear Mr. McHenry:

Our "Penny-a-day" taken up by St. Ursula's Guild so joyfully is flourishing—and as it was a copy of your "Cent-a-day" I thought you might be interested to know that your good example at St. John the Evangelist, was bearing fruit.

Our object was to pay the interest on our debt and we have already collected enough to do that—with something over—of course "our old gentleman to reduce the debt" has not yet arrived.

The habit of finding fault is so common that it seems only right to commend when possible.

Our debt was made by the alterations to our church and Parish Building and seemed to be very contentedly hanging on but as you know, women hate debt, so it is fitting that they should be the ones to work to wipe it out.

Thank you for the papers which helped us see a way to do it. It is only another example of good behavior being contagious."

Very sincerely yours,

MIRA J. ACHELIS.

Mrs. George Achelis.

UNEMPLOYMENT

What Can We Do About It?

Unemployment in the parish has reached serious proportions. Wherever one goes there is idleness due to a lack of demand for labor. Many of our families, who have always been self-supporting, are feeling the pinch of poverty for the first time. Men and women who never before knew what it was to be unemployed, today would be glad to get any sort of a job that would help them keep the wolf from the door. It is a blessing that we had such an open winter. Had it been otherwise the suffering would have been an hundredfold worse.

If any member or communicant of the parish hears of any jobs, we would be grateful if you will phone the information to the Rector and thereby help a fellow-member get work.

If any member or communicant feels he or she can give a little to some poor family belonging to the church, we will be most grateful if you will send your gift to the Rector so that he can give it where it is most needed.

God will prosper all who love their fellowmen to the point of aiding them in trouble. We are anxious for the whole parish to know the seriousness of the matter; because we who are more fortunate must carry the financial burden of the parish until our brothers get re-established.

This is the time to show what kind of a game Christian you are. You must not let our Easter Offering or our Sunday School Lenten Offering sag because our brothers are temporarily out of it. Let's work a little harder and give a little more. Then if we fail to make the grade we will know we did our best to overcome the odds.

Anyhow, God will know we went the limit and we failed through no fault or shirking of ours.

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

Did You Start Lent Right?

* * *

Did you renounce all your mean little sins along with cigarettes, cards, theater, candy, etc.?

* * * *

Easter Is Coming!

* * * *

And be sure you are on hand to receive your Easter Communion. Your only legitimate excuse you can offer for staying away will be the one GOD will accept.

* * * *

A man's word is as good as his bond. Trouble in most cases is his bond is no good.

* * * *

Grandpop, Grandmom, Pop, Mom, Uncle, Aunt, Cousin, Brother, Sister, Friend, Acquaintance, Stranger, are you helping the little fellow fill his Mite Chest?

* * * *

The Size of our Lenten Offering depends upon YOU!!!

* * * *

Remember Your Easter Offering

* * * *

The names of all who return their Easter Envelopes will appear in the next issue of the Broadcaster among those who are entitled to be recruits in the Standing Army!

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

Keystone—Main 4644

Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
Well Selected Stock of EASTER CARDS
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds
Both Phones

High Pressure Washing
Tires Repaired

Ed. Pennington
GARAGE
306-310 REED STREET
Storage Space Available
No Crowding
Oregon 10276
Open Day and Night

H. D. REESE, Inc.
Meats Poultry Cheese
1208 ARCH STREET
Philadelphia

PETE'S MEAT MARKET
Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881
'SAY IT WITH FLOWERS'
Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R
FRANK C. QUINN
...FLORIST...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets
Cut Flowers
Palms
Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

If You Want—
Delicious Mince Pies
USE
Atmore's Extra Fancy
MINCE MEAT
Or, You May Prefer
Atmore's Plum Pudding
Ask Your Grocer For Both
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 TASKER ST.
Founded 1842

Easter Services Will Be as Follows:

6.30 A. M.—Early Communion.

10.45 A. M.—Second Communion.

2.30 P. M.—Sunday School Easter Service with presentation of Easter gifts and Lenter Offering.

No evening service.

All chapel folks are invited to come to the church to receive their Easter Communion.

* * * *

If you know of a vacant job tell your Rector at once. There are a score of men and women in the parish out of work and must be helped.

* * * *

The last missionary journey was amazing in its results. Twenty-six old scholars returned to Sunday School the next Sunday. One class that had run down to one was built up to almost 100 per cent. present.

* * * *

Our next big job is our Confirmation Campaign.

* * * * *

The Rector has formed a permanent Campaign Committee of the whole of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. Each Brotherhood man is appointed a permanent Captain over the men and boys of each district.

* * *

We want every Sunday School Class to work for 100 per cent. attendance and Mite Chests on Easter Day.

* * *

Do you realize that almost every Sunday we have every teacher present and in their classes? Where is there another such corps of faithful teachers in the city?

* * *

Go after one and bring one to the Lenten Services.

* * *

Have you got your candidate for Confirmation yet?

* * *

A dear old Quaker lady, distinguished for her youthful appearance, was asked what she used to preserve her charms. She replied sweetly: "I use for the lips, truth; for the voice, prayer; for the eyes, pity; for the hands, charity; for the figure, uprightness, and for the heart, love."—The Bookan Wrap.

Broadcasting From Laugh Land

The Jones family were visiting a large city for the first time since the children had been old enough to observe. Consequently, the children, a boy and a girl, whose names were John and Mary, asked a number of questions about the sights which they were unaccustomed to seeing in the country.

In one of the parks was a large statue of a prominent citizen, and John, who was the younger, gazed at it in open-mouthed amazement.

"Mother, what is that?" he asked after he had felt the statue's limbs and admired its proportions.

"Don't you know?" said his sister scornfully, who was the pride of her Sunday School teacher. "The peopel here are heathens and this is one of their idols."

* * * *

"You have heard what the last witness said," persisted Counsel, "and yet your evidence is to the contrary. Am I to infer that you wish to throw doubt on her veracity?"

The polite young man waved a deprecating hand. "Not at all," he replied. "I merely wish to make it clear what a liar I am if she's speaking the truth."

* * *

Pat had been away from home serving in the army for several years, during which time he had been very ill. Upon returning to his home town he was met by a close friend who rushed up to him and said: "Well, well, Pat, I'm glad to see your back from the front."

Pat looked worried and replied: "Begorra I knew I was getting thin, but I never thought you could see clear through me."

* * *

"Brothah Johnson," said Parson White, "Ah'd lak to git yo' to come to church."

'W'hy pahson," exclaimed Mr. Johnson, in shocked tones, "dey ain't no need fo' me to come to chu'ch, yo' all done converted me las' Augus'."

* * *

"I like that doctor for his quiet persevering ways. Every time I see him I think of Patience sitting on a monument."

"You do, do you? Well, every time I see him I think of the monument sitting on his patients."

* * *

There used to be a Turkish bath in Cincinnati that was the Saturday night rendezvous for lushers. And there one of the best of the old yarns had its origin. A befuddled gentleman fell asleep in the baking room and his roystering friends coated his face and chest with tar and a sprinkling of feathers. After a time he awakened, dripping with perspiration, glanced at himself in a mirror and cried: "In hell—and a bird!"

* * *

If wedding cards, why not divorce cards? As a matter of fact divorce cards have been printed. One came to our notice not long ago. It ran as follows:

Mrs. John Henry Howard is pleased to announce

Her husband, John Henry, is given the bounce.—Boston Transcript.

* * *

Dealer (rushing into the newspaper office)—"See here, you've published an announcement of my death by mistake. That's got to be fixed up somehow."

Editor—"Well, we never contradict anything we have published, but I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll put you in the births column tomorrow and give you a fresh start."—Good Hardware.

Simp Son—"I don't need any speedometer on my car. I can easily tell the speed." Friend—"How do you do that?" Simp Son—"When I go 10 miles an hour, my lamps rattle; when I go 15 miles an hour, my mudguards rattle, and at 25 miles an hour my bones rattle."—Pathfinder.

* * *

The gentleman in a silk hat who walks the streets in full evening dress making his shirt front at intervals an illuminated ad for a cigar was standing in front of the opera the other evening. A teetering gentleman came around the corner to have the sign flash in his face. He blinked, shook himself like a wet dog and exclaimed: "That's the way I feel inside, mister, but it doesn't show."

* * *

McPherson—"Give me twa penny-worth o' poison." Chemist—"We can't make up two penny-worth, sir. We can only make up six pennyworth." McPherson (after deep thought)—"Aw, well, I'll na commit suicide."—Table Talk (Melbourne).

* * *

Mother—"I told you never to kiss a man unless you were engaged."

Helen—"Well, I'm engaged to Bob, so I guess it's all right to kiss Jack.—Cheerful Chaff.

Questions and Answers

Q. What is the best way to prevent the diseases caused by biting insects?

A. Do not bite the insects.

Q. How can I cheer a despondent friend?

A. Use laughing gas.

Q. How long should I cook spaghetti?

A. About ten inches.

Q. How can I tell the horsepower of a car?

A. Lift the hood and count the "plugs."

Q. Have decided to discharge two pretty stenographers. What shall I say?

A. I should say this is not the season for canning peaches.

Q. Where is the best place to get auto parts?

A. At the railroad crossing.

Q. What is the hardest job you know of?

A. Trying to sell buggy whips to Ford.

Q. Should a woman run for Congress?

A. Yes! Women can introduce more bills than men.

Q. How often does the Pennsylvania Railroad kill a man?

A. Just once.

Q. Where is the easiest place to find success?

A. In the dictionary.

Q. Who is the happiest man at a modern wedding?

A. The bride's father.

Q. How can I make people think I am smart?

A. Agree with them.

—Silent Partner.

HOW TO TORTURE YOUR WIFE

"John dear, I am to be in an amateur theatrical. What would folks say if I were to wear tights?"

"They would probably say that I married you for your money."—Hardware Age.

* * *

A young lady friend of ours, while teasing a tame squirrel, held out a nut to the little tree climber. He knocked it out of her hand and bit her finger. If that wasn't calling said Y. L. F. a "fresh nut" in sign language then we would like to know what it was.

BECAUSE

A motorist in the South once stopped for water at a dilapidated house where a barefooted man was gazing across a field that had grown up to weeds. "How is your cotton this year?" the motorist asked. "Well, sir," replied the man, "I ain't got no cotton. I didn't plant none, cause I was afraid the boll weevil might be bad." "How is your corn?" "Well," came the reply, "I didn't plant no corn neither, for I didn't know we'd git rain." The motorist hesitated. "How are your sweet potatoes?" he asked at last. "Well now, stranger," the man replied, "you see, it's this way: I didn't plant no sweet pertaters cause I was afraid the bugs might take them. No, sir, I didn't plant nothin', I just played safe." If we see only the rubbish, we'll do no building.—From the Youth's Companion.

ALLEN GARDNER
Missionary Hero

Do you know the story of Allen Gardiner, a missionary to Patagonia, of a bygone day? He came through some cruel hardships. Here is the end. He was found, too late for life, lying under an upturned boat. He had kept a diary, and the last entries were something like these: "I am lying under an upturned boat, out of reach of the sea. I am dying, but I am in peace; my chief discomfort arises from a strong feeling of thirst." A later entry, in a weaker hand. "Last night it rained heavily, and by thrusting the corner of the sail out under the gunwale, and getting it drenched, I have been able to allay the almost intolerable pangs of thirst." Then the last entry—scarcely legible: "I AM OVERWHELMED WITH A SENSE OF THE GOODNESS OF GOD." What a testimony! Lying dying on a cannibal shore, thousands of miles away from home, and friends: sucking the rain water out of a coarse canvas sheet; but "overwhelmed with a sense of the goodness of God." The Lord make us ashamed of our murmuring. Let us up and play the game.

"Some murmur when their sky is clear,
And wholly bright to view,
If but one speck of dark appear
In their great Heaven of blue.
And some with thankful love are filled,
If but one streak of light,
One ray of God's great mercy, gild
The darkness of their night."

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 6 PHILADELPHIA, APRIL, 1928. By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John Edward Wolf, Scoutmaster, 4613 Tampa St.
Carl W. Schoenau, Asst. Scoutmaster, 1024 Wagner Ave.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Marion Bruch, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Girl Scouts Troop		7:30
Young Women's Christian League		8:
Tuesday
Boy Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 11 A. M.

EASTER DAY

Hail! Festal day, to endless ages known,
When Christ, o'er death victorious, gained his throne.
Now with the Lord of new and heavenly birth,
His gifts return to grace the springing earth.
He reigns supreme, who died the death of shame;
And all created things adore his Name.
Fulfill thy promise, King of Love, we pray!
The third morn brightens; rise, and come away.
No mouldering tomb shall hold thee in repose;
No stone the ransom of the world enclose.
Who holdest all things in thy hollowed hand,
No rocky barrier can before thee stand.
Cast off thy grave-clothes; let them there remain:
Come forth to us, our All, our only gain.
Creator, Fount of Life, thou knowest the grave;
And thence returning, thou art strong to save.
Light of the world, show us thy face once more,
The day that died with thee, today restore.
A countless people, from death's fetters free,
Own thee Redeemer, join and follow thee.
The shades of death are pierced, his laws undone,
And trembling chaos flees the rising sun.

Venantius Fortunatus, c. 530-609.

Your Easter Communion

Every Communion is an extremely important event in the Christian's life. Yet there are two such celebrations in the year which are of even greater importance than your regular Communions. These are the celebrations which occur on Christmas and Easter. Both are days of special obligations and cannot and must not be ignored by any confirmed member of the church. A really conscientious Christian would no more ignore or evade these means of grace than a man would default in his life or fire insurance. Even that comparison is inadequate to explain the importance of receiving your Communion on these two occasions. Maybe, however, it will properly impress the minds of some who can understand values when compared to familiar things. Your Easter Communion must not be neglected. It is not necessary for us to explain why. It is a duty fraught with real consequences to those who neglect to perform it. Its significant symbolism of the sacrifice and resurrection of the Lord Jesus is enough in itself to stress the importance of the Easter Communion. The lesson of a great spiritual battle fought and won for our salvation is so plain and simple that we cannot fail to know how intimately connected we are to the Master. He did not fight the forces of evil for a principle only. He fought them because they menaced our eternal welfare. Consequently, for our sakes, he destroyed forever their power over our souls and we are free today from the thraldom of those forces because He fought and won our freedom for us.

We give universal expression to our respect for Washington and Lincoln on their birthdays for their great service to America.

We surely ought to give greater and even wider expression to our reverence for Jesus Christ on His Resurrection day for the great service to humanity in every nation, in every generation, to every individual everywhere

You Must Not Neglect Your Easter Communion!

OUR EASTER OFFERING

Why Do We Need a Big Easter Offering?

For the same reason why you need adequate wages to run your house and meet your daily expenses.

We must pay our gas bills or the gas will be turned off.

We must pay our electric bills or we will be left in darkness.

We must pay our repair bills or the church will go to ruin.

We must pay our salaries or our employees must get other jobs.

We must buy Bibles, prayer books, hymnals and all sorts of church and Sunday school materials or we cannot worship.

We must keep our altar supplied with vestments and Communion necessities or we cannot celebrate the Holy Eucharist.

We must pay our insurance premiums or our policies lapse.

We must meet our Diocesan budget or we cannot be represented in the Diocesan Convention.

If we are delinquent in paying our bills to the Diocese we are penalized and are charged an extra per cent. on our unpaid debt.

All these and many other extra items of expense arise during the year that demand full and prompt payment.

Our only source of income is what we get through our regular and special envelope system.

If you default in keeping up your church envelopes, your coal envelopes, your Christmas envelopes or your EASTER ENVELOPES, you place us in a most embarrassing position. You force us to conduct YOUR church business on an insufficient budget.

WHICH CANNOT BE DONE!

Conditions this EASTER are more serious than usual. Many of our regular and most generous contributors are in the class of the unemployed and cannot possibly help meet the church expenses. If YOU, who are fortunate enough to have a regular job, do not do better than in past years we will be hard put to it to meet our obligations.

If you could only realize how important the church is to you it would not be necessary to write such an article as this. Then your weekly envelopes would be paid up to date; your coal money would be promptly paid; your Christmas envelope would never be missing and your EASTER ENVELOPE will be on the alms bason on EASTER DAY.

FURTHERMORE YOUR NAME AND THE NAMES OF EVERY MEMBER OF YOUR FAMILY WILL BE ENROLLED AMONG THE REGULARS OF THE STANDING ARMY IN THE CURRENT ISSUES OF THE PARISH BROADCASTER.

Will Your Name Be There?

Questions on St. Luke's Gospel

	Chapter
1. Who went to the chief priests to betray Jesus?	XXII
2. How did Jesus prepare for the Passover?	XXII
3. How was the Lord's supper instituted?	XXII
4. Who kissed Jesus in the Garden?	XXII
5. What question was asked Jesus in the Sanhedrin?	XXII
6. What question did Pilate ask Jesus?	XXIII
7. How did Jesus answer Herod's questions?	XXIII
8. Why had Barabbas been imprisoned?	XXIII
9. Who sentenced Jesus to be crucified?	XXIII
10. What prayer did Jesus offer at the crucifixion?	XXIII
11. What promise did Jesus make a thief?	XXIII
12. What was the Centurian's judgment concerning Christ?	XXIII
13. Where was Jesus buried?	XXIII
14. When did Jesus arise from the tomb?	XXIV
15. Who were the first to visit his grave?	XXIV
16. Who did they meet there?	XXIV
17. What did he say to the women?	XXIV
18. How did the disciples and friends of Jesus receive the news of the Resurrection?	XXIV
19. What disciple ran to the tomb, looked in and went away again?	XXIV
20. To what city were two of Jesus' disciples journeying on that first Easter day?	XXIV
21. Who met them on the road?	XXIV
22. How did they learn who the "stranger" was?	XXIV
23. What did they tell the other disciples?	XXIV
24. How did the disciples take the sudden appearance of Jesus Christ?	XXIV
25. How did Jesus Christ prove he was alive?	XXIV
26. At what place did Jesus Christ bless his discipes?	XXIV
27. Then where did Jesus Christ go?	XXIV
28. Did He leave His disciples cast down or joyous?	XXIV
29. Where did the disciples go and what did they do?	XXIV

EASTER FLOWERS

One of the beautiful traditions of St. John's parish is the loaning of potted plants and cut flowers to adorn the choir, chancel and altar on Easter day. Many of the members buy Easter plants and flowers to place upon the graves of their departed loved ones during Easter season; but before doing so they bring the flowers to the church and all Easter day they lend their beauty and fragrance to the services. After the final service of the day the owners of the flowers come forward and take them to the cemetery later. Many of our Communicants have formed the most generous habit of contributing flowers and plants to the church with the request that they be distributed among the sick of the parish who have been unable to attend Easter services.

We hope the same custom will prevail this year. We know that many of us will have scarcely enough to buy the necessities of life because of unemployment; but may we hope that the more fortunate of the parish will see that flowers are contributed to the church on Easter day in order that we may preserve the traditions to the Glory of God.

UNSEEN POWER

* * * *

Jesus, before His ascension, when the disciples were assembled together, commanded them to "wait for the promise of the Father." And what was that promise? The Baptism of the Holy Ghost.

"Ye shall receive the power of the Holy Ghost coming upon you, and ye shall be witnesses unto Me . . . even to the uttermost parts of the earth."

They were to be endued with power for service, and as the records in the Acts of the Apostles clearly show, this enduement was followed by extraordinary effects. Men and women were added daily to the church. It was the effect of preaching with the wisdom of God in it. It was the telling of something which had come into their experience and made them bold in witness. They had seen the Master and had been with Him. They had His promise and they had seen Him go away from them into Heaven and they now had a power in their hearts and lives which was to turn the world to God. It was a practical experience. It was an individual experience. It wrought conviction, as all preaching will, when the preacher is a man of God.

It is the Unseen Power of the Spirit which makes men unafraid of the face of men. The man who has "lived, seen God's hand through a lifetime" is the man who is able to guide others into the way of truth.

Our Sunday School Easter Service

* * * *

We hope the whole parish will visit our Sunday school on Easter day, because we are going to have an exceptionally enjoyable and profitable time. First of all we want you to hear our scholars sing their Easter anthems. They have been practicing them for several weeks and we feel that they render them exceptionally well. Then we want you to be the first to know how much our Sunday school has raised this year for their Lenten offering. We feel you ought to be in the "know," because you have helped so loyally to raise the money. We are somewhat apprehensive this year; for there has been so much unemployment in the parish that we fear we will drop far below last year's figure. However, we have done our best—and more than that we cannot do.

Again we want you to see the big number of folks who will receive the reward for attending Lenten services. The gifts are the most beautiful we have bestowed and we are sure you will admire them greatly.

Also we want you to listen to the singing of our kindergarten and Intermediate Department children. We are very fortunate in having teachers in this branch of our Sunday school work who understand child psychology and know how to draw the best out of our little ones. The children sing with abandon and pleasure and do not seem to be at all self-conscious. You MUST come out and hear them.

Then comes the time for giving out the chocolate eggs. Every scholar will receive one.

All these interesting features will of course be woven in with a delightful and an appropriate Easter service. You will enjoy every minute of it so:

BE SURE AND COME!

THAT LITTLE MITE CHEST

* * * *

This is our last word about that little mite chest for missions. On the Sunday before Ash Wednesday we distributed hundreds of mite chests among our Sunday school scholars for the purpose of raising an offering for missions. Every boy and girl ought to have one and ought to be gleaning pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters, etc., in these boxes. Also we hope the grown folks of the family are going to take enough pride and interest in what the young folks are trying to do that they will see, by their help, that the mite chests leave home for Sunday school on Easter day full to the brim.

These mite chests are held by the scholars for over 40 days; or all through Lenten season. If you grown folks see to it that—everybody helping—at least five cents a day are raised and put in the chest, at the end of the 40 days of Lent the boxes will contain $2 each. If ALL the mite chests are returned with $2 in each we will have almost $600 for Lenten offering from this one source alone. Many scholars may not be able to raise that much; but many other scholars can and will give much more.

We sincerely hope the parents and friends of our Sunday school scholars will do their "bit" in helping us make a successful offering this year.

The Eyes of the Diocese Are Upon Us!

THE AGGRESSIVE AUXILIARY

* * * *

Whoever would have imagined that the Woman's Auxiliary of St. John's parish would have developed into the aggressive organization it has become?

We started last fall by holding monthly meetings on evenings when another woman's organization met so as to be sure to have a nucleus for the auxiliary meeting. The meetings were a success from the beginning and grew in interest as we progressed. The five committees have been reasonably regular in attending the meetings at the Church House and reporting back to the Auxiliary the items of interest of those meetings. Among other practical things done the Auxiliary made up a large mission box to be sent to South America. Another very important thing the Auxiliary did was to overhaul the choir vestments, mending those that could be mended, cleaning those that needed cleaning and making new vestments to replace those so worn that they could no longer be used.

On Easter day our choir will be all washed and ironed and mended and made new by the Woman's Auxiliary. The choir thanks the Auxiliary for all the time and work they spent in making them presentable on Easter day. We are sure the Easter music will be rendered much more effectively by the choir because of the consciousness that it is not all ripped and soiled and torn as it proceeds in and out of services. This incident just goes to show what a little co-operation will do.

THE EASTER MUSIC

* * * *

As you listen to the musical part of our Easter services we want you to think of the many hours of hard work each member of the choir has given to prepare that program for us. Maybe our choir has its defects as compared to choirs of other churches; but it has one outstanding virtue that overcomes any deficiency whatever. It is its patient and loyal rehearsal week after week from New Year's day till the last day of December year after year. The beautiful feature of their work is it is all voluntary service. Not one member of the choir receives so much as carfare for the service rendered. There are members of the choir always present at every choir re-

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

Keystone—Main 4644

Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
Well Selected Stock of EASTER CARDS
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds
Both Phones

High Pressure Washing
Tires Repaired

Ed. Pennington
GARAGE
306-310 REED STREET
Storage Space Available
No Crowding
Oregon 10276
Open Day and Night

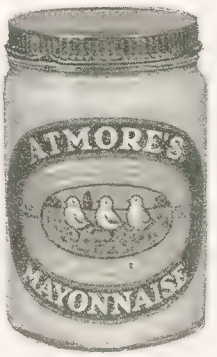
H. D. REESE, Inc.
Meats Poultry Cheese
1208 ARCH STREET
Philadelphia

PETE'S MEAT MARKET
Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881
'SAY IT WITH FLOWERS
Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R
FRANK C. QUINN
...FLORIST...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets
Cut Flowers
Palms
Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.



Atmore's Creamy Mayonaise
For Salads, Sandwiches, Meats—the crowning touch of good taste!
Made by the makers of the famous ATMORE'S MINCE MEAT
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 Tasker St. Phila.
Founded 1842

hearsal, at extra services and at both morning and evening Sunday services.

We want you to think of these things on Easter day as the choir leads our Easter music and then we want you to show your appreciation for their self-sacrificing service by giving them a little credit in words of approval and appreciation.

Says Young People Drink Abroad As Much as They Do in America

* * * * *

Gifford Gordon, noted lecturer, of Sidney, Australia, speaking on the subject of prohibition before 500 students of Temple University recently, said that drinking by young people is one of the most serious and most widely-discussed problems in Australia today, despite the fact that there is no prohibition law in that country.

"On every hand," said Mr. Gordon, "one hears the argument from anti-prohibitionists in the United States that the widespread habit of drinking intoxicating beverages on the part of young men and women, at parties, on joyrides, and the like, is a direct result of the prohibition laws.

"'Before prohibition,' these people say, 'things like that did not happen; our boys and girls did not drink intoxicants in those days, and now they only do it to be smart, just because there is a law which forbids it.'

"The fallacy of this argument is proved by the fact that in Australia and in England, two countries which do not have prohibition, this very same condition prevails and constitutes one of the gravest problems facing educators, parents and right-thinking people generally."

Mr. Gordon, with a wealth of statistics, demonstrated the results for good achieved by the Eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act. He declared these laws had aided in combating crime and reducing poverty and destitution in America.

Philadelphia Record.

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

EASTER DAY!

Remember your Easter communion.

* * *

Don't Forget Your Easter Offering!

* * *

How about that mite chest your child is to bring on Easter day? Do you know where it is? Will you see that it comes back full of gifts for missions?

* * *

Do you get a Lenten attendance gift?

* * *

Are you going to loan any flowers for Easter day? Bring or send them on Saturday. Reed street door.

The choir members thank the ladies of the parish for their Easter vestments.

* * *

Be sure to come to the Sunday school Easter service. You will be delighted.

* * *

Keep the hours of the Easter services ever before you. Be on time. Attend ALL the services. ENJOY YOUR EASTER DAY IN OUR EASTER WAY.

* * *

Whether a rainy day or a clear day it will still be Easter day. Remember that! !

* * *

Bring somebody to church with you; don't be stingy and keep all the good things to yourself.

EASTER SERVICES:

Easter Communion . . . . . 6.30 A. M.
Second Communion . . . . . .10.45 A. M.
Sunday School Easter Service . . . . . 2.30 P. M.

* * *

MEMBERS OF THE MISSION OF THE TRANSFIGURATION ARE ASKED TO RECEIVE THEIR EASTER COMMUNION AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

* * *

SUNDAY SCHOOL SCHOLARS BE SURE TO BRING YOUR MITE CHETS.

What Does Your Family Think of You?

The real test of a man's religion is how he acts at home. Are you kind, amiable and sweet in your family circle? "Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ," is the teaching of Christianity. The church helps men lead lives that are reflected in the lives of their children.

Some claim they can follow Christ's teachings without going to church. These same people deny themselves many opportunities to help others by neglecting the church and its means of grace. This is an appeal to you to join our ranks and help the church exert the influence in the community that it ought.

Link your efforts with the energies of those who are trying to build up the best things in your community. Come to church.

* * * *

I Go to Church.

I go to church because I believe in it and in its service. When death comes into my home, I shall want a minister whom I have helped and worked with. I shall want to be able to look him in the eyes and greet him without apology. I don't want to say to him: "I have scorned you and your kind and make your works my mockery, but now I need the very thing I have been mocking. I have never given a dollar to the church, but I want the church to bury me."

Most of us are for the church when we are dying.

If many of us were not for the church when we are in health, there would be no clergymen to come at our bidding in the last sad hours.

I don't want to beg my prayers at the finish."

Edgar A. Guest.

* * * *

Advertise Your Church.

Every business is dependent for its success upon those who patronize it. If a customer likes a store he tells his friends; if a sick man has been helped by a physician he recommends that physician to others who have the same disease.

Do you like the church? Has it been of any help to you? Do you enjoy its services? Are you better because of its fellowship? Then why not tell others who need the church, too? You will not only help the church, but you will help your friends.—Parish Notes.

* * * *

Father's Advice Falls Flat.

When the father sits at home, reads the paper and insists that the son and daughter go to church-school, it doesn't carry much weight. Children can see through us much better than we can see through them. They are straightforward and likely to call a spade a spade.

The father who says to his son, "come," has some influence. The father who says to his son, "go," has considerably less influence. If you want men or children to take a certain course, the best way is to lead them.

When we bring children into the world our duty increases. And what we do counts for a great deal more than what we say, even to our children. They are quick to see through us.

If you have children, especially, you had better go to church.

Why not start now? You never got anywhere without starting, did you?

* * * *

Essential.

Religion is the essential. The community without a church goes to pieces. I have seen it again and again in New England. Our nation was founded by men who came over for the sake of religion. They made it what it was. Our nation cannot live without morality, and morality cannot live without religion.—Calvin Coolidge.

* * * *

Christian Living.

A gentleman called on a well-to-do merchant for a contribution to some charitable object. "Yes, I must give you my mite," said the man. "Do you mean the widow's mite?" asked his friend. "Certainly," answered the merchant.

"I shall be satisfied with half as much as she gave," said the solicitor. "Now, how much may you be worth?"

"Oh," said the merchant, "about $75,000."

"Then," said the friend, "give me your check for $35,000; that will be half as much as the widow gave, for she gave, you remember, 'all that she had, even all her living.' ". The man was quite embarrassed by the proposition, but he was not the first person who has tried to shelter himself behind the widow's mite. But it is a dangerous refuge.

* * * *

Seek Other Pastures.

Notice in a Kansas paper: "Positively no more baptizing on my pasture. Twice in the last two months my gate has been left open by Christian people, and I can't afford to chase cattle all over the country just to save a few sinners."—Selected.

Broadcasting From Laugh Land

"On being offered $70,000,000 for one of his properties," we read, "Mr. Mellon replied: 'It's a good price, but I don't care to be bothered reinvesting $70,000,000.' " That has frequently been the objection in our own case. "No," we say quietly but firmly, "your proposition is interesting, but really we prefer not to have the bother of rehandling and reinvesting fifty or sixty millions; it cuts into our golf so."—Boston Transcript.

* * *

A middle-aged, childless farmer and wife resorted to prayer that their loneliness might be relieved. After a time they were receiving congratulations on the birth of triplets. "Prayers are always answered!" exclaimed a pious friend. "Yes, but I never prayed for no bumper crop like that," replied the farmer.

* * *

Tommy, who had no great love for soap and water, was observed by his mother washing the forefinger of his right hand.

"What's the idea of washing only one finger?" she inquired.

"The boy next door has asked me to come over and feel his baby sister's new tooth," explained Tommy.—Boston Transcript.

* * *

At a golf club one Sunday morning a member turned up late. Asked why, he said it was really a toss-up whether he should come there that morning or go to church. "And I had to toss up 15 times," he added.—The Plugger.

* * *

"Now, boys," said the teacher, "can any of you tell me how iron was first discovered?"

A hand shot up. "Yes, sir!" cried Thompson.

"Well, Thompson, just tell the class what your information is on the point."

"Please, sir," replied the scholar, "I heard father say yesterday that they smelt it!"—Stray Stories.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 7 PHILADELPHIA, MAY, 1928. By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt, President

Miss Elizabeth J. Bowers
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Rebecca McKeown
Miss May Pine
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Anna Warren

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Men's Bible Class.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Webster Stenger, Secretary.
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John L. Kay, Scoutmaster.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Boy Scouts Troop		8:00
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00

Announced

Woman's Auxiliary .....

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Allen, Laura Caroline
Alburger, Joseph George
Capie, Joseph
Capie, Hester
Dougherty, Bertha May
Hallowell, Samuel Allen, Jr.
Johnson, David Sylvester
Müller, William Edward
Müller, Alice Elaine
Müller, Marion Eleanor
Quaile, Beatrice May
Skelly, Elizabeth Catherine
Smith, Samuel Harry
Stevenson, Elizabeth Mae
Tomlin, Calvin Aaron

BURIALS

Dean, Charles H.
Duhiss, Edward
Evans, Sarah A.
Ford, Albert E.
Seibert, Edward
Wilkie, Daniel

MARRIAGES

Andrew Rand and Mary C. Goodrick
Lawrence A. Brodie and Elizabeth A. Stone

A Letter from the Bishop

The Diocese of Pennsylvania

The Bishop's House
251 South Twenty-second Street

Philadelphia
April eleventh
1 9 2 8

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry
225 South Third Street
Philadelphia, Penna.

Dear McHenry:

I was delighted and also surprised to hear the wonderful news of your Easter Services at old St. John's. I am sure you considered it a great privilege to minister the Holy Communion to four hundred of your people and that it was a great delight when your Sunday School exceeded its remarkable record of last year in its Lenten offering.

When one realizes how much unemployment there is in our City at the present time, and how this affects a neighborhood like yours, it speaks more than volumes could record of the devotion and love of your people for old St. John's, for their Rector and also for their interest in the great Missionary work of the Church.

Please give them my heartfelt thanks,

Very faithfully yours,

TJG/FEG

Thomas J. Garland

REVIVAL WEEK!

* * *

Rev. John L. Saunders, Preacher

* * *

JUNE 3rd TO 8th, 8 P. M.

OUR PURPOSE

It is our purpose, with the help of God, to hold a week of Parish Revival, beginning Sunday evening, June 3d and ending Friday evening, June 8th.

During the whole week we will have with us as our special missioner our dear friend, the Rev. John L. Saunders, Rector of the Church of St. Jude and the Nativity. Mr. Saunders needs no introduction to a St. John's gathering. To know he is coming gives each of us a real thrill of pleasure and anticipation.

Our use of the word "Revival" is deliberate and meaningful. It is going to be a week of revival in a real sense; not meaning only a season of conversion. What we hope to do is to stir up the saint as well as the sinner and bring both into a closer and more intimate contact with God and with Jesus Christ through the power and inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Also we hope to so deepen our love and quicken our zeal for His church that we may be the means of strengthening its influence over the lives of all who live in our community.

With this object in view we mean to divide the week up as follows:

SUNDAY MORNING

Holy Communion, 9.30 A. M.

Holy Communion, 10.45 A. M.

SUNDAY EVENING

Sermon by Mr. Saunders. A service of praise; a sort of Parish Reunion; a get-together evening in which we will join each other in singing the good old hymns we used to sing when our fathers and mothers were young and took us to church and Sunday School. We are going to make it a "FORGETTING NIGHT." We are not going to remember any personal animosities or differences. We are going to smile and shake hands and say, "how-d-doo" and act like real, true blue, honest-to-goodness Christians who are really and truly trying to love one another for Christ's sake. And mean to use all our time and energy to the Glory of God and the building up of His kingdom.

MONDAY EVENING

will be CHURCH MEMBERS' night. A season for all baptized and confirmed members of the parish to come together and, after listening to one of Mr. Saunder's inspiring talks, to reconsecrate ourselves in prayer and scripture reading. To ask God to cleanse us from all our sins and to fill us full of the Holy Spirit so that we may stand ready to serve where and when our service is needed. So that we will overcome our spiritual diffidence and will be ready to go boldly about our Father's business.

TUESDAY EVENING

will be BACKSLIDERS' night. We want every cold, indifferent, dissatisfied and backsliding child of God to be present this night. No, we are not going to try to make public examples of you. We want to have you come home to your Father's house for the night. We want you to join again the family circle; to recall the good old days of your conversion; to remember that wonderful thrill you had when you realized you were God's child. We are not going to say one word of rebuke nor give you one reproachful look. We just want you to be with us this night—to sing with us, to pray with us, to join us in listening to Mr. Saunders tell us how much God loves us and about how Jesus Christ fought to the death for us. Please don't disappoint us that night; we want you to come home.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

will be STRANGERS' NIGHT. The night we promise to come to church BUT NOT TO COME ALONE. This will be our night to bring home the stranger to our Father; the neglectful of their spiritual need; the unbeliever, who cannot imagine that God is the wonderful loving Father we say He is,—but who listen to us with half sneering, half wistful eye wishing they could believe but knowing not how to believe.

This ought to be a night of glorious experiences when we introduce these sons of earth to their Heavenly Father and tell them how Jesus Christ, the strong elder brother, has overcome all difficulties for them and made it possible for them to become the adopted Sons of God.

THURSDAY EVENING

This will be our QUESTION NIGHT. A night of real heart searching; a night when we mean to be strictly honest with ourselves and our God; every question that is asked us we will answer 'tho it shames us scarlet. We will be dead in earnest this night at every cost. We will be quite sure where we stand in the sight of God ere this night closes.

FRIDAY EVENING

will be the "ROUND UP." This night will be the final night of our Revival Week. We will use these last moments in an earnest endeavor to get the unconverted to come to a decision to surrender to the love of God; to accept Him as their Father; to receive Jesus Christ as their Saviour and Redeemer; and to become willing followers of the Holy Spirit and to learn of him the beautiful lessons of love and worship.

We need all the forces of the parish to make our REVIVAL WEEK an ideal experience. We need the Daughters of the King; we need the Choir; we need the Y. W. C. L.; we need the 72 Club; we need the Woman's Auxiliary; we need the Brotherhood of St. Andrew; we need the Boy Scouts; we need the Girl Scouts; we need the members of the Sunday School; we need the members of the Church; we need the entire parish.

WE NEED GOD!

The Standing Army

Church of St. John the Evangelist

Adams, Helen
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Armstrong, Florence
Arsnworthy, Caroline
Ashman, Dorothy
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Margaret
Barnes, Cecelia
Beck, John
Bedlow, Annie
Bedlow, Louisa
Bedlow, William
Beisser, Annie
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Mary
Bender, Mrs. C.
Blech, Jennie
Bowers, Elizabeth
Bromley, William
Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Brush, Gertrude
Bruch, Marion
Bunting, Agnes
Bunting, Walter
Burns, Hazel
Carbarnes, Anna
Carbarnes, Elizabeth
Carbarnes, Frances
Carbarnes, Henry
Carbarnes, Meta
Clark, Kathleen
Clark; Harry B.
Clendenning, Jennie
Clerico, Ferdy
Clerico, Mattie
Coates, Florence
Coates, Victor
Colvey, Joseph
Colvey, Margaret
Cook, Mrs. A.
Cook, Robert
Cooper, Joseph
Corson, Mary
Crawford, Mabel
Cressee, Abbie
Cressee, George, Sr.
Cressee, George, Jr.
Cressee, Raymond
Cucknell, Mary
Cucknell, James
Cunningham, Sarah
Darr, Margaret
Darr, Walter
Daughters of the King
Davis, Amelia
Dean, Agnes
Dean, Mrs.
Dean, Thomas
Dean, Mary
Dean, Ida
Decosta, Florence
Dingler, Annie
Dobbins, Mary
Dougherty, Josephine M.
Dougherty, Edward
Dougherty, Agnes
Drumm, Robert
Dysert, John
Emberscheid, Annie
Evans, Sarah A.
Evans, Thomas
Fanger, Anna M.
Ferguson, Albert
Fischer, John
Fischer, Mary
Fisher, M. Beatrice
Fitzpatrick, Catherine
Fitzpatrick, Edward
Fitzpatrick, Elmer
Flomerfelt, Emma
Fogarty, Andrew
Fogarty, Joseph
Forster, William
For my Son Robert
Fort, Minnie
Fort, Cornelius
Fort, Mrs. Minnie
Fort, Elsie
Frederickson, Clara
Friend, Florence
Friend, Thomas
Gallagher, Kate
Garson, John
Garson, Mary
Geiger, Anna
Geiger, Paul
Geiger, Anna
Geiger, Albert
Geswein, Viola
Gibbs, Dora
Gibson, Mrs. Laura
Gorman, William
Gray, Clara
Green, Emma
Green, William
Greenfield, Lydia
Greenfield, Robert
Gregory, George
Gregory, Grace
Gresh, Margaret
Griggs, Anna L.
Griggs, Elizabeth
Grubb, Pauline
Grubb, Rufus
Grubb, William
Haines, William
Hall, Louisa
Hallowell, Elizabeth
Hallowell, Grover
Hallowell, Enos
Hamilton, Florence
Hare, Bertha
Hartman, William Earl
Hasson, Kate
Hasson, Kathryne
Hasson, William
Haury, Mary
Haverty, William, Jr.
Haverty, Jennie
Henkel, Rebecca
Hill, Anna
Hill, Mrs. Anna
Hill, William
Hogg, Margaret
Holt, Anna
Holt, Anna M.
Holt, Charles
Holt, James
Holt, Malvina
Holton, Alice
Holton, Edna
Holton, Elizabeth
Holton, Joseph
Holton, Margaret
Hornberger, Elizabeth
Hudak, Frances
Hudak, Mrs.
Jackson, Elsie
Jaeschke, Herman
Jaeschke, Gus
Jorett, Mrs. C.
Kalessee, Elizabeth
Keen, Lena
Kehoe, Mary
Kelly, Charles
Kelly, Frank
Kelly, Mary
Kelly, Raymond
Kelly, Ruth
Kelly, Sarah
Kensil, John
Kensil, Margaret
Kensil, William
King, Clara
King, Edward
King, John
Knowlton, Anna
Knowlton, Frank, Sr.
Knowlton, Frank, Jr.
Kraft, Edward
Kraft, Ornet
Krause, Sarah
Lafferty, Martha
Lamprey, Mrs. M.
Larkin, Catherine
Lawrence, Catherine
Lawrence, George, Sr.
Lawrence, George, Jr.
Lawrence, James
Lawrenc, Jessie
Lawrence, Mary
Lenhart, David, Sr.
Lenhart, David, Jr.
Lenhart, Mrs. Margaret
Lenhart, Margaret
Lewis, Charles
Little, Charles
Little, Joseph
Little, Mary
Little, Pauline
Logue, Charles
Logue, Margaret
Logue, Robert
Lynch, Irma
MacGinniss, Robert
MacVaugh, Annie
MacVaugh, Sylvania
MacVaugh, William
McAdams, Emily
McCall, James
McCloskey, Mrs.
McDowell, Samuel
McHenry, H. Cresson
McHenry, John E.
McKeown, James, Sr.
McKeown, James, Jr.
McKeown, Jennie
McKeown, Lillian
McKeown, Martha
McKeown, Matthew
McKeown, Mrs. Rebecca
McKeown, Rebecca
McLaughlin, Anna
McLaughlin, Michael
McLaughlin, Rosella
Maguire, Eliza
Maguire, George
Maguire, Lydia
Major, William
Mann, Leta
Marley, Emma
Martin, Susanna
Matthews, Vernon
Meckling, Isabella
Meckling, Philip
Mehring, Anna
Miller, Anna May
Miller, Dorothy
Miller, Mrs. Dorothy
Miller, Robert
Miller, Walter
Mitchell, Madeline
Moore, Mary
Morris, Sadie
Murphy, Ella
Murphy, Margaret
Nelson, John, Sr.

Nelson, John, Jr.
Newman, Lena
Nilsson, Mrs. A.
Nillson, Catherine
Nugent, Eleanor
Nugent, William
Nuttall, Hannah H.
O'Donnell, Katherine
Orr, Mary
Orr, Richard, Sr.
Parks, Elizabeth
Patterson, John C., Jr.
Patterson, Carrie
Patterson, Anna
Payne, Emma
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, James
Pearo, Mary
Penrose, Florence
Penrose, Mrs. Florence
Pierce, Evelyn St. Clair
Pierce, Eva
Pine, Frank
Pine, Lillian
Preole, John C., Sr.
Preole, John, Jr.
Preole, James
Quaile, Dorothy
Quaile, Marion
Rand, Mary
Raynor, Clair
Raynor, Marion
Read, Hannah H.
Redding, Frances
Reeves, Samuel
Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs.
Reynolds, Jennie
Reynolds, Leona
Reynolds, Walter
Rhoads, Francis
Rhoads, John
Rhoads, William
Robins, Anna
Robins, Mable
Rodebaugh, Robert
Rutter, Catherine
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Jeremiah K.
Rutter, Mrs. J. K.
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Margaret
Rutter, Robert
Rhoads, Matilda
Rhoads, Walter
St. Clair, Harold
St. Clair, Jessie
Schabacker, Anna
Schaal, Fred
Schlembac, Catherine
Schlembac, Julius
Schlembac, Harry
Schmidt, Frank
Schmidt, Theresa
Schmidt, Martha W.
Seher, Catharine
Seher, Harry
Seher, Margaret
Seher, Harry P., in Memoriam
Senatz, Anna May
Senatz, Harry
Seventy-two Club
Shields, Bella
Silbert, Ella
Silbert, Ella
Simpson, Jennie
Skelly, Elizabeth
Skelly, Thomas
Skelly, William
Snell, Margaret M.
Snell, Richard, Sr.
Snell, Mrs. Richard, Sr.
Snell, Richard, Jr.
Snell, Samuel, Sr.
Snell, Mrs. Samuel, Jr.
Snell, Samuel, Jr.
Spratt, Catherine
Spratt, Finley
Spratt, John
Spratt, John, Jr.
Springer, Anna
Sprogell, Mr. and Mrs.
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, Laura
Stenger, Webster
Stenger, William
Stockman, Elizabeth
Stockman, Harry
Stockman, James
Stockman, Robert
Stockman, Samuel
Stone, Elizabeth
Stone, Emily
Stone, William
Stryker, Mrs. Emma
Stryker, Valentine
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Sutterlin, Ethel
Sutterlin, Thelma
Sweeney, Agnes
Sweeney, James
Sweeney, Mary
Thessing, G. W.
Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Johanna
Tittermary, Harry, Sr.
Tittermary, Margaret
In memory of my mother, Annie E. Tittermary
Tittermary, Mr. & Mrs. J.
Tomlins, Mary E.
Volpe, Peter
Ward, Abraham
Ward, Carrie
Warren, Anna
Warren, Elizabeth
Watkins, Mary
Watts, Sarah
Weber, John
Weber, Lettie
Webster, Margaret
Weissinger, Frank
Weissinger, Mary
West, Florence
Wertley, Helen
Wharton, Martha
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Eleanor
Woerner, Hannah
Woerner, Rudolph, Sr.
Woerner, Rudolph, Jr.
Woessner, Charles
Woessenr, Clara
Woessner, Clara
Woodruff, Edmund
Woodruff, Howard
Woodruff, Joseph
Woodruff, Mary
Woodruff, Walter
Woods, Margaret
Young, George
Young, Laura
Young, William
Young, Viola
Young Women's Christian League.

Founding of the Primitive Church

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

	Chapter
1. What are the disciples of our Lord now called in the Acts of the Apostles?	I
2. How many days intervened between the Resurrection and the Ascension?	I
3. How long were the Apostles to tarry in Jerusalem?	I
4. What great Commission did Jesus Christ give His Apostles?	I
5. How did the Ascension occur?	I
6. Where did the Apostles go after the Ascension?	I
7. Name the Apostles who roomed together?	I
8. What great election took place in those days?	I
9. Who were the candidates?	I
10. What method did the Apostles use in electing?	I
11. What did they do before election?	I
12. Who was elected?	I
13. Where were the Apostles on the day of Pentecost?	II
14. What great event took place on that day and instituted the Church of Jesus Christ on earth?	II
15. What wonderful power was given the Apostles?	II
16. How many different nationalities understood the Apostles?	II
17. Who preached the first Christian Sermon?	II
18. What two acts did St. Peter say were necessary before one can receive the Holy Ghost and become a true member of the spiritual Church of Jesus Christ?	II
19. How many were converted by St. Peter's Sermon?	II
20. What two Sacraments of the newly established church are mentioned?	II
21. What verses indicate a condition of Christian Socialism as existing in the primitive church?	II

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

Keystone—Main 4644

Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds

Both Phones

High Pressure Washing

Tires Repaired

Ed. Pennington
GARAGE
306-310 REED STREET
Storage Space Available
No Crowding

Oregon 10276
Open Day and Night

H. D. REESE, Inc.
Meats Poultry Cheese
1208 ARCH STREET
Philadelphia

PETE'S MEAT MARKET
Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

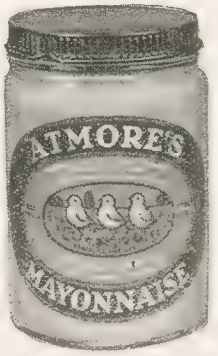
Jackson 2881

'SAY IT WITH FLOWERS

Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R

FRANK C. QUINN
...FLORIST...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.



Atmore's Creamy Mayonaise
For Salads, Sandwiches, Meats—the crowning touch of good taste!
Made by the makers of the famous ATMORE'S MINCE MEAT
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 Tasker St. Phila.
Founded 1842

EASTER DAY

Was there ever such a glorious day? The weather was perfect from morning till evening. Scarcely a cloud in the sky and the temperature just right. While going to church we felt a little apprehensive lest the beautiful day would tempt folks to the country and the shore. We had no need to worry, however, for we found the biggest early morning congregation on our hands that ever filled the church. Owing to the illness of the Rev. G. A. Scarinci we officiated alone. At one time during the celebration the nave of the church was packed solidly with kneeling communicants from the chancel rail to the door.

The choir, chancel and altar were loaded with Easter lilies, palms and ferns. We were standing in the church admiring the effect when a little girl entered the church, walked all the way up to the front pew and sat and gazed with such an ecstatic expression at the flowers we were moved to ask her what she thought of them. Clasping her hands tightly in her lap and shutting her eyes she said, "There never was anything so pretty."

The choir was one hundred per cent. present and rendered the hymns, anthems and communion service one hundred per cent. perfect at all services.

In the afternoon the church was packed with children as excited and restless as a colony of little ants. There was something in the air which even we older folks felt. We think we were all bracing ourselves for a disappointment in our Sunday School Lenten Offering. Everybody was anxious to learn how far below last year's offering we would drop. As everybody knows that had been the biggest Lenten Offering our Sunday School ever gave. On account of so much unemployment and sickness in the parish we were sure the "drop" would be tremendous. When the Committee was ready to report you could have heard a pin drop, so anxious were all to hear the sad news. When the report was read we were electrified to learn that we had not only reached last year's mark but had actually gone over the top. For a few minutes we were dumb with astonishment; then the school stood up and shouted the Doxology and went home to tell the good news. The Lenten Offering at this writing is $1703.50.

"ALL I CAN GIVE"

In one of the Easter envelopes we found a small slip of paper upon which was written the following message:

"This is all I can give as I am only working two and three days a week."

That little message got us in the region of our heart. Here is expressed a strong desire to give and real sorrow that the gift is so small.

Be of good cheer, dear friend, God knew all the time how little you had and what an act of self-denial you were making for His dear sake. You gave of your penury and doubtless it meant giving up a necessity. Such a sacrificial act is pleasing to God and some day you will learn to your great surprise that your little was invested wisely.

How your act shames us who have so much more and give so little and give that little so grudgingly. If our conscience were as tender and our duty to God were as fine I am sure our Easter Offering would have been ten times greater than it was.

How we wish our church were full of such willing and anxious givers. When all of us learn to give till we see the bottom of the purse we will be the wealthiest parish in the city and our souls will glow with the consciousness that we are approved of God. And that is the ultimate satisfaction.

I SERVE

How intriguing is that little sentence of two words! The more I ponder it the more I wonder what it means. I wonder what he who wrote it first had in mind when he wrote it. It is full of speculation and compels the mind to wander in many paths. For instance:

Whom Do I Serve? It is important for me to know beyond a doubt who is my master. If I am serving self or Satan or an evil cause or person, my motto is my badge of shame. If, however, I am serving those who need my service,—the poor, the weak, the sick, the sinful, the outcast, even as the Master would have me serve, then my motto is my joyous cry of real achievement.

Why Do I Serve? It is important to know the "why" of my service. Motive is powerful. If it is pure and springs from unselfish desires, then it is worth while. If, on the other hand, I serve because I mean to turn my service into personal profit or pleasure eventually, then my service is worthless to the world and of little value to myself.

How Do I Serve? It is important to know the "how" of my service as well as the "who" and the "why." If my service is intense, efficient, self-sacrificing, disinterested, complete, then my service is of greater value than rubies and diamonds to those whom I serve. If, however, I serve in a sketchy, indifferent way, wishing my service was over,—caring little whether it satisfies or not—my service is of no value to me, to my fellow-man, to God.

Where Do I Serve? It is important to render service where service is needed. Our standard is set for us. Jesus Christ points the way. Our service is needed in the home of poverty, at the bedside of the sick, in the resorts of wicked men and women, in places where discouragement and sorrow torture, where the fever of lust and passion scorches, where a weak and stumbling brother needs a friend, where the darkness of death envelops the light of life, where love is cold and hate is deep, where there is no other to serve and I must serve alone. Such places are fairly cluttering our pathway up and out. And if I serve my best through them from here to there the goal of my soul will have been reached.

When Do I Serve?

It is important to know the "when" of my service. If I serve when my service is most needed and without delay; if I serve when I am tired and want to rest; if I serve when service is loathsome; if I serve when all around me misunderstand and suspect my motive; if I serve even after my service is trampled upon; if I serve in spite of sneers and jeers; if I serve when service seems futile; if I serve when I know I will suffer for it,—then my service is a close likeness to my Master's ideal of perfect service and I can almost hear Him say:

"WELL DONE!"

KIDNAPPERS

Just a word of warning to our Communicants against the blandishments of members of certain denominations who indulge in the unethical practice of making house-to-house visitations in the community for proselyting purposes and to coax families away from the church to which they belong. Their method of approach is somewhat after this fashion: After making themselves at home they put their prospect through the routine questions as to name, faith, whether regular attendants in church. Then with the suave sweetness of a confidence man they begin to give you THEIR reasons for YOU to renounce your faith and pitch your tent among them. The three apples of temptation they dangle before the prospect are:

1. THE FAMILY LIVES NEAR TO THEIR CHURCH, AND, THOUGH IT IS OF A DIFFERENT DENOMINATION, IT IS MUCH SAFER TO SEND THE CHILDREN TO THAT SUNDAY SCHOOL THAN IT IS TO SEND THEM TO THEIR OWN SUNDAY SCHOOL.

To test their sincerity to such a plausible proposition just inquire of them whether they advise their own communicants, who live nearer a church of a different denomination to send their children, for their church training, to that alien church. You will get your answer and it won't be "yes." That's different.

2. ALL CHRISTIAN DENOMINATIONS ARE VERY SIMILAR AND ALL ARE STRIVING TO GET TO THE SAME PLACE, HENCE IT MAKES NO DIFFERENCE WHERE YOU GO SO LONG AS YOU GO TO CHURCH.

To an unthinking person this sounds like good sense. But to show you how far from the truth it is suppose you inquire of a Presbyterian or a Baptist or a Methodist, etc., whether they are satisfied to have their children trained in the doctrines and ritual of the Protestant Episcopal Church if they live near a church of that denomination.

3. THEIR CHURCH MAKES A SPECIALTY OF YOUNG FOLKS AND IS BETTER EQUIPPED TO GIVE THEM MORE AND FINER ENTERTAINMENTS THAN THE CHURCH OF WHICH THEY ARE MEMBERS.

It is well such churches have at least this much to offer the young folks. Evidently they place the emphasis upon AMUSEMENT and not upon GODLY TEACHING. The great contribution religion must make to the lives of young folks today is a clearer and more intimate knowledge of the power and grace of God and the redemptive love of Jesus Christ. THE CHURCH IS THE PLACE TO TEACH THE YOUNG TO PRAY; IT IS NOT THE PLACE TO TEACH THEM TO PLAY. But just like the common or garden variety of kidnappers they offer this stick of candy to seduce the young from their church home.

Our object in writing this article is to exhort the faithful of our own household not to use such methods in their missionary efforts to bring families and children into the fold. These are they of whom Jesus Christ said: "Ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves."

We are fully aware of the strength of this quotation but experience is proof of its truth. We have innocently and ignorantly called upon one or two families, who had been seduced from the church, and met with a blast of hatred and denunciation which left us stunned and helpless. When a family is kidnapped it evidently is immediately put through a process of hate that burns out all natural affection for true home and kindred.

As for you: Do not waste your time and energies in proselyting those who are already bowing the knees before the Cross of Jesus Christ, even though they are worshipping in a way differing from ours. Let them be as they are. Leave kidnapping to that class of church workers who do not know how to win souls to Jesus Christ but must fatten upon the toil of others.

Come out from among them and go to work where men know not Jesus Christ. Untold thousands are waiting to hear you tell the story of Jesus and His Love.

IT IS HIGH TIME WE WERE ABOUT OUR FATHER'S BUSINESS INSTEAD OF TRYING OUR HARDEST TO DESTROY EACH OTHER'S WORK.

Mrs. Mack—"I'm bothered with a little wart I'd like to have removed."

Dr. Williams—"The divorce lawyer is at the second door to your left."—Lock Haven Express.

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

What a glorious Easter day!

* * *

Four hundred made their Easter Communion.

* * *

Our Lenten Offering is $1703.50.

* * *

Our Easter Offering is over $500.00.

* * *

The choir sang as never before on Easter day.

* * *

A number of Easter envelopes are missing.

* * *

Now clear the deck for Confirmation.

* * *

Date of Confirmation, Sunday Evening, June 10th

* * *

The Rev. J. L. Saunders will hold a week of revival from June 3d to 8th. He will preach every night.

* * *

We expect every member of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Daughters of the King, the Young Women's Christian League, the 72 Club, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Sunday School Association, the Choir, the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts to take an active part in helping Mr. Saunders put it over.

During Revival Week all camp followers, slackers, critical and indifferent members will be classed as BACK-SLIDERS and will be special objects of our prayers.

* * *

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew is doing good work getting jobs for unemployed men and women.

* * *

Boy Scouts meet every Monday night.

* * *

Girl Scouts meet every Tuesday night.

* * *

How to make Mr. Saunders' work a success: Every man bring a man, every woman bring a woman, every boy bring a boy, every girl bring a girl

EVERY NIGHT

The Nerve to Try

He said that he would do it
And he had the nerve to try,
And the heart to stay right by it
And all obstacles defy.

We know that he has done it,
And we know the reason why,
Was because he said he'd do it,
And he had the nerve to try.

—American Flint.

"There Is a Time to Laugh"

Ecclesiastes III:IV

We are about to preach the parish a sermonette on the right time to laugh. Most folks think the right time to laugh is before there is anything to laugh at. On this account we are moved to make the profound and philosophical remark that he who laughs first Hee-Haws; he who laughs last Haw-Haws. Which means certain folks in this parish who are famous for their lack of vision have hee-hawed at the rector these many years.

For nearly sixteen years he has been going 'round the parish telling everybody he meets that some day we are going to have a parish house. Every time he tells it some smile, some grin, some snicker, some chuckle, some chortle, and some laugh out loud. In fact it's a regular Hee-Haw chorus. It's grown to be a parish joke.

On Thursday, April 12, 1928, Bishop Garland invited certain missionaries to take luncheon with him at the Bellevue-Stratford. After lunch the Bishop invited each missionary present to tell of the needs of his particular work. The object was to learn which missions should be helped this year by the Bishop's Campaign Fund. Among those present was your own pastor. After each man told his hard luck story the Bishop invited the missionaries to choose from among themselves those to be the beneficiaries of the Fund this year. The first and unanimous choice of those present was the Church of St. John the Evangelist for its much-needed parish house.

Then you ought to have heard the nice things the Bishop and all present had to say about our parish and our people. We were all puffed up like a toad and almost split our clerical vest with pride.

What the Bishop said about old St. John's and especially the Confirmation classes of the past made us feel so good that we knew our time to laugh had come.

So, friends and unbelieving and faint-hearted folks, lend me those big ears and listen to my loud

HAW—HAW ! ! !

*The Commandments

1. Thou shalt have no other gods but Me.
2. Before no idols bow thy knee.
3. Take not the Name of God in vain.
4. Nor dare the Sabbath Day profane.
5. Give both thy parents honor due.
6. Take heed that thou no murder do.
7. Abstain from words and deeds unclean.
8. Nor steal, though thou be poor and lean.
9. Nor make a wilful lie, and love it.
10. What is thy neighbor's do not covet.

"A new commandment give I unto you, that ye love one another."

*From a framed version of the Commandments hanging in the Sunday School room at Calvary, Rockdale.

Broadcasting From Laugh Land

THE LOST GLASSES

O Johnnie, my laddie, your eyes are young;
Use them for grandma, dear.
My glasses, alas! are lost again;
I've searched for them far and near.
For lack of my glasses I cannot find
The glasses I lack—'tis true!
Look well, and some one, when you are old,
Will do the same for you."

"When I am old, dear grandmamma,"
Said Johnnie, with roguish eye,
"I s'pose I shall read with glasses, too,
And sometimes lay them by;
But, when they're lost, I shall never search
On window-sill or shelf,
I shall just put my hand on top of my head,
And find 'em there for myself."

—St. Nicholas.

* * *

How difficult is it to escape the pitfalls of sin when even the music has traps!—Princeton Tiger.

* * *

Mary, a pretty golden-haired girl of 5, was quite ill the other day, not ill enough to be in bed, but just enough to be confined to the nursery and have milk sent up to her. The child's mother was reading to her when a friend called, and Mary wanted to go downstairs with mother. "Please let me come; I'm afraid to stay up here all alone," begged Mary. "But you won't be alone," said her mother, "God will be with you. He is everywhere." Skeptically, the child yielded to this argument. A few minutes later Mary's cry, "Mamma!" broke the silence. "Well, what is it now?" asked the parent. Pleadingly, the girl called: "Mother won't you please let me entertain Mrs. Jones while you come up here and keep God company?"

* * *

The treatment of prisoners in one South Australian jail is remarkably humane. A regular visitor inquired recently regarding an old offender. "What's wrong with Bill? He seems to have a grouch." "No wonder," said one of his mates. "He threatened the warden with a shovel today, and now they won't let him go to choir practice."—Smith's Weekly.

* * *

A Negro preacher had pestered his bishop so much with appeals for help that the bishop finally told him with a tone of finality that he didn't want to hear any more appeals from him. The next week there came another letter from the preacher as follows: "Dear Bishop: I assure you this is not an appeal. It is a report. I have no pants."—Judge.

* * *

Small Bob—"What is college-bred, pop?"

Pop (with daughter in college)—"They make college-bread, my boy, from the flour of youth and the dough of old age."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

POPULAR FEMININE SLOGAN

Kansas, we note, has now invented a Greek letter title for its Leap-year soriority—"Gotto-Getta Poppa."—New York Evening Post.

* * *

Dusty—"Aren't rosy cheeks a sign of good health?"

Rusty—"I should say they are."

Dusty—"In that case, I saw a girl the other day who was a lot healthier on one side than on the other."—Life.

* * *

In a Federal Court at Syracuse, a church sexton admitted that he practiced bootlegging as a sideline. This seems a rather drastic method for a gravedigger to get customers.

* * *

At a recent bridge party, the conversation of the young people present drifted, as it usually does when young people play bridge, to a subject entirely not germane to the game. On this particular occasion the talk meandered into the exchange of jokes bearing on the alleged frugality of the natives of Scotland. "I always believed that all of these so-called Scotch jokes were highly exaggerated," said one young woman who was present, "until I attended a recent meeting of our church social. It was decided that the organization would hold a picnic in the near future, and when the details were being considered it was suggested that the women would provide the lunch, and that the male members would stand the cost of transportation to the picnic grounds. You can imagine our surprise when a young and recently-arrived Scotchman assumed the floor and ventured this comment: 'Thot is a splendid idee, but don't you think the destination should be taken in mind by the men folk?"

* * *

"So you had an operation. What for?"

"Three hundred dollars."

"No, no. I mean what did the doctors take out of you?"

"Three hundred dollars."

"You don't get me. What did you have?"

"Three hundred dollars."

"Oh, I see. I was just wondering."—Judge.

* * *

Little Mary, who had fallen ill, begged for a kitten. It was found that an operation was necessary for the child's cure, and that she must go to the hospital. Her mother promised that if she were very brave she should have the very finest kitten to be found. As Mary was recovering from the influence of the anesthetic the nurse heard her muttering: "It's a rotten way to get a kitten."—Tit-Bits (London).

* * *

Young Lady—"Were you pleased with the new school, little boy?"

Little Boy—"Naw! Dey made me wash my face an' when I went home my dog bit me 'cause he didn't know me."—Exchange.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 8 PHILADELPHIA, JUNE, 1928. By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt

Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Rebecca McKeown
Miss May Pine
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Anna Warren
Miss Margaret Kensil

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Mr. George Cressee, Jr, Men's Bible Class
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Edward Proffitt, Secretary
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John L. Kay, Scoutmaster.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Boy Scouts Troop		8:00
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Hall, James George
Madden, Virgin Frances
McGrath, Erma Britton
Peruso, Russell William

BURIALS

Ford, Elizabeth S.
Eastburn, Susanna
McKeown, Miriam L.
Schweppenheiser, Elizabeth

MARRIAGES

Herman A. Jaeschke and Elizabeth J. Bowers.
Harry Morris and Julia Donges.

Presentation of the Sunday School Lenten Offering

The officers, teachers and scholars of our Sunday School who attended the Presentation of the Sunday School Lenten Offering at the Church of the Holy Trinity on Sunday, May 13th, must have been thrilled through and through when Bishop Garland spoke so glowingly of the offering from our school. What he said made up for all the hard work we did to raise the money. It was desperately hard work and many times we felt we could not possibly make the grade. That we did so, is due entirely to the splendid spirit of our young people, who would not admit defeat. Nobody outside the Parish will ever know the effort it cost our young folks to raise that $1703.50. The raising of this missionary fund is a most remarkable demonstration of what wonderful things can be accomplished through co-operation. Every class accepted its responsibility of raising its class apportionment, but did not hesitate to co-operate with other and weaker classes to raise theirs, too.

We feel that special mention ought to be made of the fine spirit the members of the Rainbow Minstrel showed in giving their services to the different classes in their entertainments. To them we can credit a few of the hundreds of dollars we were able to present.

Then, too, are those members of the Parish who were ever ready to help the classes. Think of our Kindergarten, for instance, selling thirty-nine hundred cakes of toilet soap in the Parish! Think of how the parishioners bought boxes and boxes of candy; how they patronized all sorts of entertainments; how they bought wash cloths, iron holders, aprons, tooth paste and a score of other articles offered for sale! In fact were we to attempt to draw up a list of those to whom we owe a debt of gratitude for the aid each gave us in raising our Lenten offering we would save time by simply giving the Parish Record. Added to this, are many many friends of the Parish who were interested in our endeavor.

WHY DO YOU WAIT?

We are looking forward, with pleasure, to the visit of Bishop Garland, Sunday, June 10th. He is coming to confer the Rite of Confirmation upon those who will present themselves at that time.

In the meantime, we would have a final word with certain men and women in the Parish who are not communicants of any Church and who would make ideal churchmen could they be brought to a full realization of the importance of being Confirmed. We have begged them many times to take this all-important step only to be met with the reply "not this year; perhaps next year."

Dear friend, why do you wait? You will be no better prepared a year hence. Understand, we are not pleading with you on the grounds that Church membership is neces-

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

Keystone—Main 4644

Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds
Both Phones

High Pressure Washing
Tires Repaired

Ed. Pennington
GARAGE
306-310 REED STREET
Storage Space Available
No Crowding
Oregon 10276
Open Day and Night

H. D. REESE, Inc.
Meats Poultry Cheese
1208 ARCH STREET
Philadelphia

sary to salvation. Many a Church member in that day the Master will not recognize. Our anxiety for you is due to your need of a proper Christian environment in which to grow, a systematic training in Christian ideals and the moral and spiritual strengthening of the sacraments. We want to see you "grow in grace." We are sure such growth can be encouraged in you, if you yield yourself to the influences of the Church and the guidance of the Holy Spirit of God. Church membership may not save you but Church membership may be the means of your salvation, nevertheless.

Again, every recruit for the Church means its strengthening of God's influence in the community. You may think that you are of so little importance that in such matters your influence does not count. Let us assure you, dear friend, every human being alive is of so much importance that Jesus Christ fought and bled and died for him. Just as if he were the only man in the world. You may be very poor, you may be very ignorant, you may be very sinful, you may be very unprepossessing, yet in the eyes of God you are His child and His love for you is greater and more enduring than a mother's love. What He asks of you is to reciprocate His love and "stand up for Jesus" in your community. Your act of love and loyalty will encourage others to do likewise. Thus, other lives will be joined with Jesus Christ and sooner or later the whole community will begin to feel the uplifting power of the Church of Jesus Christ. And the Kingdom of God will be brought a little nearer.

Why Do You Wait?

George Foster Cressee

What is the sense of waiting until a man is dead before you say all the nice things you can think of about him. We are sure he would like to hear them himself, as well as his family and friends. With this thought in mind, it is our purpose to write articles of appreciation about members of our Parish who are living and are in active service in helping to build up the Parish and Church of St. John the Evangelist.

The first name we mean to hang in our Hall of Fame is that of our Genial Sunday School Superintendent, George Foster Cressee, Jr.

We are most fortunate in having such a leader for our great Sunday School. He shows his devotion to his position by his regularity. Another point in his favor is that he is never late. We know it is just 2.30 P. M. when our school begins to sing the first hymn because our Superintendent rarely starts a second later.

Another habit of our Superintendent worth emulating is his regularity in attending the services of the Church and his presence always at the Holy Communion.

Recently Mr. Cressee was appointed the leader of the H. Cresson McHenry Men's Bible Class, the class that

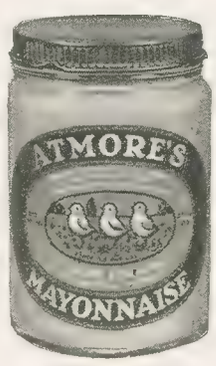
PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881 'SAY IT WITH FLOWERS Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R
FRANK C. QUINN
...FflorisT...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.



Atmore's Creamy Mayonaise
For Salads, Sandwiches, Meats—the crowning touch of good taste!
Made by the makers of the famous ATMORE'S MINCE MEAT
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 Tasker St. Phila.
Founded 1842

gave over $400.00 to the Sunday School Lenten Offering. We are quite sure that under his leadership the Bible Class will increase in members and importance.

We are glad to make special mention here of his personality and activity for we are quite sure that his name will occupy an important niche in the annals of the Parish in years to come.

Mr. Cressee and his family have been communicants for many years.

Silent Partners

There are a few conscientious and sensitive members of the Parish who shrink from having their contributions to the Church broadcasted. True, we feel sympathetic towards them, because we know there are certain modest souls who find their greatest pleasure in being Silent Partners with God. We are sympathetic, but we are not sure we approve. That we be not misunderstood we would say right now that the real Silent Partner is always a beautiful spiritual Christian, ever serving the Master with loving zeal and gets inspiring pleasure out of that service. But having said this, we are constrained to add, that we wish they would stop hiding the lamp of good works from the rest of the world and "let their light so shine before men that they may see their good works and glorify their Father which is in heaven."

One of our reasons is because you find in every parish a group of sly, wretched, wicked hypocrites, who do nothing and give nothing for Jesus Christ and hide their shame behind the pose of Silent Parnters with God. If the real Silent Partner will cease being silent and will make manifest his works in a modest way to the world the pretenders will be exposed for what they are, and the Church of Jesus Christ will put on a greater dignity before the world who will glorify our Father which is in heaven.

If we were to expose the true nature of some "Silent Partners" we wonder what would happen!

The "Break Down" of Prohibition

The Brewery Chorus has been so persistently chanting the old sing song that Prohibition is dead and about to be buried that we feel it is time to change the record and sing a newer, sweeter song.

The first stanza of the Brewery Chorus is: "Since horrid Prohibition stalked through the land our boys and girls are carrying flasks." Why say "Since?" Any old-timer in the good old pre-Volstead days will tell you that the boys and girls of his youth had a way with joy water that would put modern youth under the table and out for the count. Think of the good old college days when "us boys" got good and drunk on the least provocation, or upon no provocation at all, for that matter. Those were the days when we called such fellows as decent as our modern youth—"sissies" and "mamma's pets."

The second stanza of the Brewery Chorus is: "There is more drinking today than before the Volstead act." That's funny! If such is the case then why is Mr. Beer Brewer and Mr. Whiskey Distiller spending a billion dollars a year in a propaganda against Prohibition and for the recall of the Eighteenth Amendment? What's the matter with their bootlegging trade? If more people than ever before are drinking, they ought to be bringing home bushels of sheckles, especially as they are not bothered with a revenue high license law and do not have even the overhead charge of the corner saloon.

The third stanza of the Brewery Chorus is: "The business has passed out of legitimate channels and the bootlegger is skimming all the golden cream off the milk of beer and whiskey business." That's twice as funny as the second stanza, because it's the old breweries and distilleries that are being convicted of bootlegging and are being padlocked by the Federal Courts all over the land. Also the little fellows, who made money when that iniquitous amendment was first passed, are now getting discouraged with the way business is going. One of the biggest bootleggers down town met us in a drug store one day. We got to talking about business—his business. He wound up the talk with the remark that if things kept up he would "go broke" before the end of the year. "It's costing us fellows more and more every day for protection," said he. On the other hand, and not so very long ago, a policeman, an all around, fine, upstanding cop, told us that the boys had to take the graft in order to keep their jobs. If a cop tried to be funny with the bootlegger or refused "his share" of graft he was suspected of being a double-crosser by the bootlegger on the one hand and by the "higher up" cop on the other hand. And that meant he could "kiss" his job "good night." Thus, on the testimony of the bootlegger and the cop the advocates of more beer, more wine, more whiskey, are convicted of making false and misleading statements.

The fourth stanza of the Brewery Chorus is: "Prohibition robs a man of his personal liberty." Every man has a right to eat and drink what he pleases. Now, we are just contrary enough to protest this attitude on moral, economic and legal grounds. If a man eats and drinks that which is healthful and does not have the tendency to break down the morals and health of the consumer; or if what a man eats and drinks enables him to work better and longer, and does not have the tendency to incapacitate the consumer and impair his earning powers; or if what a man eats and drinks does not drive him to a frenzy to fight, steal, commit murder and other criminal offenses, then the advocates of Prohibition would be guilty of unpardonable presumption and should justly be condemned as intolerable meddlers. But, unfortunately for the valiant defenders of dethroned King Alcohol, all these moral, economic and legal laws are violated by the drinkers of beer, wine, whiskey, etc. Also, if a man has a right to eat and drink what he pleases without being robbed of his liberty then why under the sun do we lock this same man in prison when he commits some fool act while under the influence of what he drinks?

On the other hand, is the drinking man the only man who has liberties to defend? Why should non-drinking, decent, sober, hard-working men be deprived of their liberty of spending the money they earn as they please? What right has the State to demand of me a tax to maintain our police, our courts, our prisons, jails, penitentiaries, hospitals, insane asylums, orphans' homes, etc., made necessary by our liberty-loving, drinking neighbor? Also why must my right and privilege of living in a decent environment be denied me because some drink-crazed advocate of personal liberty insists upon making a disgusting and vile exhibition of himself before my wife and family on the trolley car, in the street, in public places, both day and night? No use talking, this personal liberty stanza is a mighty irritating song.

A few weeks ago the writer received a questionnaire issued by a group of representative citizens who favor the return, at least in part, of the old beer and whiskey days. The purpose of the questionnaire was to take a sort of straw vote on the Prohibition question with the idea of proving it unpopular. On the questionnaire was the name of one of our leading railroad men who in pre-Volstead days would have fired without a hearing any engineer, telegraph operator, switchman, conductor or brakeman who was even seen entering a saloon. The significance of this is that they who are raising the pitiful wail of oppression against the poor workingman for depriving him of his humble glass of beer were the forerunners of Mr. Volstead by many, many years. And why? Because it endangered the business of the corporation and increased its liabilities. No, we are afraid our friend and his associates are not exactly weeping over the poor laboring man's missing stein of beer. They have a way of regulating that, but if they work up enough sob stuff for the stein they may be able to put over the decanter, too; and they think they won't be happy till they get it.

POSTSCRIPT—We submitted this article to a friend for criticism. She was kind enough to say it was interesting. But, she added, "all the same there are more drunkards today than before the Volstead act." She thought she based her opinion upon observation. We are inclined to believe, however, that she is unconsciously influenced by the billion dollar brewery propaganda, which is engaged in trying to make folks see five drunken men every time they look at one and then advertising it is all on account of that wicked Eighteenth Amendment that there is so much drinking now. Understanding this peculiar hypnotic state of mind, we have made a sporting proposition to her: that we will pay her fifty cents for her next year's class' Lenten Offering for every drunken man she sees on the cars during the week. Our friend is on the street and using the cars all day in a section of the city where, before the Volstead act, we would frequently get off a car and wait for another rather than ride with the disgusting and indecent, drink-sodden maniacs, whose bestial state was intolerable.

If there are more drunkards now than then, our friend is going to have one splendid Lenten Offering next year. However, we are not drawing any fat checks against our account in anticipation of a raid. And we are pretty sure she will think differently before the end of the week.

Founding of the Primitive Church

The Acts of the Apostles

		Chapter
1.	Where did the Apostles go to church?	III
2.	Who did Peter and John find sitting on the church steps?	III
3.	How long had the beggar been lame?	III
4.	By what power and authority did S. Peter cure the lame man?	III
5.	At what hour was the beggar cured?	III
6.	Where did S. Peter preach his second sermon?	III
7.	What was his subject?	III
8.	What did he exhort his hearers to do?	III
9.	What did he promise to all who repented?	III
10.	What did he say would happen to the unrepentant?	III
11.	Among what people did he say the Christian Church should be founded?	III
12.	How did his hearers receive his sermon?	IV
13.	How many were converted by S. Peter's sermon?	IV
14.	Before what great Council was SS. Peter and John brought?	IV
15.	Under whose influence was S. Peter when he addressed the Council?	IV
16.	What great crime did S. Peter accuse the Council of committing?	IV
17.	Who did S. Peter declare was the corner-stone of the new faith?	IV
18.	What did the Council do with the Apostles?	IV
19.	How old was the man who was cured?	IV
20.	How were the Apostles received by their friends?	IV
21.	What mighty Being came upon them when they prayed?	IV
22.	How did the courage of SS. Peter and John effect the other?	IV
23.	How did the first Christians care for their poor?	IV
24.	Who was Barnabas?	IV

What About Our Young Folks?

Everybody is talking about them. Some think they are terrible and the capers they cut up are awful. Others look on their antics with a smiling tolerance and repeat the wise old saw, "Boys will be boys." But what is the matter, if anything, with our young folks? Are they so very different from the boys and girls of our generation that we are justified in thinking them any worse spiritually, morally or otherwise than we were? Again, if they are different whose fault is it? Are they or their parents to blame?

We can distinctly remember in our "Mom" and "Pop" days that the parents had a disconcerting way of insisting upon being the governing heads of the family and the regulators and censors of all the acts of the subordinate members of the family circle. Those were the days when parents were actually serious in thinking it was their sacred duty to curb and train the son and daughter through the colt age and rear them to a sense of personal responsibility to God, their country, their fellow-man and themselves.

In these days of the "Old Woman" and the "Old Man" the parents seem to have resigned their job, abdicated the throne of parental authority and turned over the reins of government to the inexperienced and reckless hands of untrained youth. The result is all that could be expected and if anything is going wrong the boys and girls of the home circle are not to blame. The job they have taken over has been thrust upon them before they were prepared to handle it intelligently, and naturally they do make a mess of things now and then. Taking it all in all, however, we honestly believe they are an improvement upon their weak and lazy parents who are so self-indulgent and so negative that they have degenerated from the dignity of "Mom" and "Pop" to the pitiful "Old Woman" and "Old Man." A descent from reverence to contempt. What we are praying for is that the youth of today will eventually catch on to the fact that what this old world needs most is parents who insist upon being parents even if it means the spoiling of a bundle of rods in order to save the child. Yes, son-daughter, we modern parents have given you a pretty raw deal. We are to blame for the mistakes you are making. If we had not forgotten that we were the senior members of the family corporation of "Parents & Sons" we would have trained you in the family business until you had your feet well under you. If the family business has gone bankrupt under your inexperienced management, we, the senior members of the corporation have been lying down on our job. We deserve your contempt. May our pitiful state be your warning. When you become senior members of the family corporation of "Parents & Sons" may you make a better showing than we. And we, even in our moral weakness, give you our permission and advice to wallop our grandchildren into a reverend and respectful attitude of mind towards God and you and their fellow-man. Use the old reliable remedy of your grandparents and

"Purge the Spirit of Youth with Birch"

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

Everybody was proud of our Lenten Offering.

* * *

Our Sunday School is fifth on the list.

* * *

Our offering was $1703.50.

* * *

Bishop Garland's comments were greatly appreciated.

* * *

It was hard work, but now we are proud of what we did.

* * *

Sunday, June 3d, to Friday, June 8th, Revival Week

* * *

Sunday, June 10th, Our 16th Anniversary

* * *

Sunday, June 10th, at 8 P. M., Confirmation

* * *

Tuesday, June 12th, the Rector's Reception

* * *

We are confidently expecting you to do your duty and bring a candidate for Confirmation.

* * *

We Will Continue Evening Services During the Whole of the Summer. The Nature of the Services Will Be the Same as Last Year.

Your Truest Friend

I greet you at your birth, bless you at the Baptismal Font and make you an inheritor of eternal life.

I instruct you in sacred truth and thus give you the foundation for a happy, useful and noble life.

I solemnize your wedding day and give you Heaven's Benediction for a joyous and serene home life.

I have, through the ages, filled the world with high ideals (forgiveness, honor, charity), and now helpfulness and sympathy are ever about us to offer one comfort and relief and cheer.

With private and public ministrations, especially in the Holy Communion, I console you in sorrow, and strengthen the purest impulses of your being.

I comfort your aging years, cheer your heart with assurances of the happy, unending reunions soon to be yours with loved ones gone before; and at last I commend your soul into the welcoming hands of God with my prayers that you may have joy and felicity for evermore.

A Life-long Friend,

YOUR CHURCH.

Broadcasting from Laughland

"Willie," asked the teacher of the new pupil, "do you know your alphabet?"

"Yes, miss," answered Willie.

"Well, then," continued the teacher, "what letter comes after A?"

"All the rest of them," was the triumphant reply.

* * *

"What is your brother in college?"

"A halfback."

"I mean in studies."

"Oh, in studies he's away back."

* * *

Joe—"What's become of the Hikers' Club?"

Jim—"Oh, it disbanded. It was getting too hard to persuade passing motorists to pick us up and give us a lift."

* * *

"I want a dress for around the house," said the lady in the department store.

"How large is your house, madam?" inquired the new clerk.

* * *

"How useless girls are today. I don't believe you know what needles are for?"

"How absurd you are, grandma," protested the girl. "Of course I know what needles are for. They're to make the graphophone play!"

* * *

"You wish to marry my daughter. Can you cook, sew, wash and iron, sweep, darn, nurse children, shop—?"

The young man gave a puzzled laugh. "Why ask me if I can do these things?" he said.

"Because," said the elderly man, "my daughter can't."

* * *

Willie—"Maw, that dentist you sent me to that was advertised as painless wasn't."

Mother—"He wasn't?"

Willie—"No, I bit his finger, and he yelled just like any other dentist."

* * *

Hyman—"At least once in my life I was glad to be down and out."

Lowe—"And when was that?"

Hyman—"After my first trip in an airplane."

* * *

Jack—"It must be awful to live in Miami. They never have Christmas there."

Jessie—"How come?"

Jack—"Haven't you seen that sign, 'It's always June in Miami?'"

* * *

There are three types of Christians who respond to the call to service:

1. Rowboat Christians—have to be pushed wherever they go.

2. Sailboat Christians—always go with the wind.

3. Steamboat Christians—make up their minds where they ought to go and go there, regardless of wind or weather.—Bulletin of the First Christian Church, Muskogee, Oklahoma.

The Daughters of the King

On April 21 we had the great pleasure of having a visit from three distinguished guests. Each of them favored us with a short and inspiring address. Mrs. W. J. Loaring Clark, one of the Vice Presidents of our National Council, spoke on the work of the Daughters in the home, where those who have families have an immense opportunity of doing work for the King, both by precept and example; in the Parish by always being ready to obey the call of the King, which comes to us through our Rector. Mrs. Clark emphasized the fact that a true Daughter can often reach a sister where even the Rector might not succeed; amongst her neighbors and in the community by always being ready to be a sister to every woman who needs a friend whether it be from sickness, poverty, sorrow or sin.

Mrs. Charles Arndt, wife of the Rector of Christ Church, Germantown, and also the National Treasurer of the D. of K., told how proud she was of our Chapter, as we were the first Chapter to get their All Points Offerings in the National office.

The Rector of the Parish also gave us a very inspiring talk. Mr. McHenry spoke on the coming revival and instructed us as to the part he wished us to take in the same, the parish to be divided into districts and each family to be visited, to arouse enthusiasm in the revival. When visiting we were to get names and addresses of persons to be baptized or confirmed. We were also requested to seek out children and adults who do not attend Sunday School and invite them to ours.

This has been done and most of the order has been able to make very interesting and encouraging reports.

After visiting those who had already taken a stand for Christ we were to go out and visit those who as yet have not taken this step. This work is now being done, and from the reports received we are very hopeful of having a successful revival.

On May 16 we received another call to service from our Rector in which he asked us to be about the business of the King in aiding him to build up the Sunday Evening Service. It is hoped that all the Daughters who can will be present themselves and bring others with them.

Some More Figures

Annual United States Tobacco Bill	$2,031,000,000
" " " Gasoline Bill	1,541,961,000
" " " Candy Bill	1,000,000,000
" " " Soft Drink Bill	497,500,000
Total	$5,070,461,000
Annual Protestant Contribution for the support of all the Protestant Churches in the United States	$469,871,678
Balance in favor of pleasure	$4,600,889,322

The Mission of the Transfiguration

The Mission of the Transfiguration is now located at the southwest corner of Seventh and Bigler streets, which is 2900 South. Several months ago the Convocation was notified to move the chapel from Stonehouse and Stampers' Lanes. After a score of disappointments we were finally able to purchase the Bigler street site from the Girard Estate. After a thorough renovation, both inside and outside, the Chapel will be opened for worship today (Sunday, May 27th), after being closed since Sunday, January 8th. Many of the families living along Stonehouse Lane and attending the Mission were also notified to move out. Hence, our little flock became very much scattered. However, we are gradually re-building our congregation and hope to be established on a solid foundation in the near future.

Members of the Parish are cordially invited to visit the Mission whenever convenient.

Do You Know Where to Find—

1. The Lord's Prayer?
2. The Ten Commandments?
3. The Beatitudes?
4. The Story of St. Paul's Conversion?
5. The great prayer of Jesus Christ?
6. The Story of the Prodigal Son?
7. The Parable of the Ten Virgins?
8. The Parable of the Talents?
9. The "Abiding" Chapter?
10. The Resurrection Chapter?
11. The Good Shepherd Chapter?
12. The Charity (love) Chapter?
13. The Tongue Chapter?
14. The Armor Chapter?
15. The Traveler's Psalm?
16. The Bible Study Problem?
17. The greatest verse in the Bible?
18. The Great Invitation?
19. The Rest Verse?
20. The Consecration Verse?
21. The Worker's Verse?
22. The Teacher's Verse?
23. The Great Commission?
24. Christ's Last Command?

PURELY DECORATIVE

Little Girl—"I want a package of pink dye?"

Storekeeper—"For woolen or cotton goods?"

Little girl—"I want it for my mamma. She has a stomach trouble and the doctor says she has to diet, and mamma wants a pretty color."—Outlook.

UNEMPLOYMENT

According to Senator Smoot (Rep.) of Utah there are one million eight hundred thousand unemployed in the United States. According to Senator Wagner (Dem.) of New York the number is nearer four millions.

As each of these gentlemen has his own political axe to grind one is safe in reaching the conclusion that the former is reporting the minimum of unemployment; while the latter is giving the maximum figure. No doubt the true approximation is about two millions nine hundred thousand. A truly serious industrial problem to solve.

A few weeks ago, at one of our parish organization meetings, the question of unemployment arose and we were startled to find that less than fifty per cent. of the men present had steady jobs. Since that meeting we have been making a quiet survey of work conditions in the parish and we are not at all cheerful over the results. Just last Sunday morning a member of the parish, a skilled mechanic, came to us with the story that he had just been given the choice of taking a big cut in his wages or losing his job altogether. He has a beautiful little home and his ambition is to "get up" in the world. Now he will do well if he succeeds in "making ends meet."

Another member of the church has a crippled husband to support and is driven almost frantic by the menace of unemployment and poverty. Another married man told us that work was so dull that he had to go to work for a bootlegger in order to support his family.

Another man, a skilled carpenter, who can do anything a human being can do with saw, hammer and plane, is living a most precarious existence by doing what odd jobs he can get. The men folks of one of the oldest St. John's church families are out of steady employment and are ashamed to come to Sunday services because they never before came to church without paying their dues. So it goes, through a long dreary list of unemployed men and women.

We beg those who are fortunate enough to hold steady positions to show their thanksgiving for their good fortune by assuming a greater financial support of the Church and by reporting without delay any vacant jobs they may find. Send your rector immediate word and let's co-operate to help each other over these hard times.

WHICH ARE YOU?

An Attender or an Absentee?
A Pillar or a Sleeper?
A Wing or a Weight?
A Promoter or a Provoker?
A Giver or a Getter?
A Doer or a Deadhead?
A Booster or a Knocker?
A Supporter or a Sponge?
A Soldier or a Slacker?

—From the Bulletin of St. John's M. E. Church, South, Rock Hill, South Carolina.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 9 PHILADELPHIA, JULY, 1928. By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt

Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Rebecca McKeown
Miss May Pine
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Anna Warren
Miss Margaret Kensil

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Mr. George Cressee, Jr, Men's Bible Class
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

John C. Patterson Director.
Matthew McKeown, Vice Director.
Edward Proffitt, Secretary
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John L. Kay, Scoutmaster.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Boy Scouts Troop		8:00
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Beck, Robert Smith
Connor, Doris May
Krider, John Francis
Walters, George Albert

BURIALS

Jules V. Smith

MARRIAGES

Harry Hopkins and May Pine

The American Flag

When Freedom from her mountain height
Unfurled her standard to the air,
She tore the azrue robe of night,
And set the stars of glory there;
She mingled with its gorgeous dyes
The milky baldric of the skies,
And striped its pure, celestial white
With streakings of the morning light;
Then from his mansion in the sun
She called her eagle-bearer down,
And gave into his mighty hand
The symbol of her chosen land.

Majestic monarch of the cloud!
Who rear'st aloft thy eagle form
To hear the tempest trumpings loud,
And see the lightning lances driven,
When stride the warriors of the storm,
And rolls the thunder-drum of heaven!
Child of the Sun! to thee 'tis given
To guard the banner of the free!
To hover in the sulphur smoke,
To ward away the battle stroke
And bid its blendings shine afar,
Like rainbows on the cloud of war,
The harbingers of victory.

Flag of the brave! thy folds shall fly,
The sign of hope and triumph high;
When speaks the trumpet's signal tone,
And the long line comes gleaming on,
Ere yet the life-blood, warm and wet,
Has dimmed the glistening bayonet,
Each soldier's eye shall brightly turn
To where thy sky-born glories burn;
And, as his springy steps advance,
Catch war and vengeance from the glance;
And when the cannon-mouthings loud
Heave in wild wreaths the battle shroud,
And gory sabres rise and fall,
Like shoots of flame on midnight's pall,—
Then shall thy meteor-glances glow,
And cowering foes shall sink beneath
Each gallant arm that strikes below
That lovely messenger of death!

Flag of the seas! on Ocean's wave
Thy stars shall glitter o'er the brave;
When death, careering on the gale,
Sweeps darkly round the bellied sail,
And frighted waves rush wildly back,
Before the broadsides reeling rack,
Each dying wanderer of the sea
Shall look at once to heaven and thee,
And smile to see thy splendors fly
In triumph o'er his closing eye.

Flag of the free heart's hope and home!
By angels' hands to valor given;
Thy stars have lit the welkin dome,
And all thy hues were born in heaven.
Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us,
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us.

JOSEPH RODMAN DRAKE.

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

Keystone—Main 4644 Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds Both Phones

High Pressure Washing Tires Repaired

Ed. Pennington
GARAGE
306-310 REED STREET
Storage Space Available Oregon 10276
No Crowding Open Day and Night

H. D. REESE, Inc.
Meats Poultry Cheese
1208 ARCH STREET
Philadelphia

A Fourth of July Meditation

A Majority of the Fathers of Our Country Were Episcopalians of High Standing

1. PATRICK HENRY, a loyal Episcopalian, uttered the immortal words "Give me liberty or give me death."

2. RICHARD HENRY LEE, an Episcopalian, offered in Continental Congress the resolution "That these Colonies are, and ought to be, free and independent States."

3. THOMAS JEFFERSON, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN and ROBERT LIVINGSTONE, all Episcopalians, were three of the five members appointed on a committee to draw up a Declaration of Independence.

4. JOHN MORTON, a prominent Episcopalian, cast the deciding vote that put Pennsylvania in the list of Independent colonies.

5. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN was most most influential in moulding public opinion, both at home and abroad, in favor of American Independence.

6. CAESAR RODNEY, a Delaware Episcopalian, cast the deciding vote admitting that State into the group of Independent colonies.

7. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, an Episcopalian, formally presented the Declaration of Independence to Congress.

8. THIRTY-SIX OF THE FIFTY-SIX signers of the Declaration of Independence were members of the Episcopal Church.

9. THE REV. JACOB DUCHE, an Episcopalian clergyman, was the first Chaplain of the Continental Congress.

10. JOHN NIXON, an Episcopalian, was chosen for the first public reading of the Declaration of Independence.

11. OLD CHRIST CHURCH BELLS were the first to respond to the Old Liberty Bell when it proclaimed liberty and independence throughout the land.

12. OLD CHRIST CHURCH, on July 4, 1776, officially changed the Prayer Book to make it accord with the Declaration of Independence.

13. GEORGE WASHINGTON, Commander-in-chief of the Continental Armies and first President of the United States, was born, lived and died an Episcopalian.

14. THE RIGHT REV. WILLIAM WHITE, the first Bishop of Pennsylvania, was the first chaplain of the United States Congress.

15. ALEXANDER HAMILTON, ROBERT MORRIS, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN and many others framers of the United States Constitution were Episcopalians of high standing.

Our Church is Truly an American Church

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881 'SAY IT WITH FLOWERS Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R
FRANK C. QUINN
...FLORIST...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

Atmore's Creamy Mayonaise
For Salads, Sandwiches, Meats—the crowning touch of good taste!
Made by the makers of the famous ATMORE'S MINCE MEAT
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 Tasker St. Phila.
Founded 1842

John Weber

Long before we knew anything about the Church of St. John the Evangelist, JOHN WEBER was the Junior Warden of the Vestry. He has witnessed many changes in the parish. When it was apparently an active parish; when it entered into its decline, which resulted in a complete collapse, and when it took on new life until now it stands out one of the influential parishes of the Diocese.

JOHN WEBER is most quiet and unassuming; yet always just where he ought to be. He is not big in stature; but when he is absent from service (which is very rarely) his vacant seat is conspicuous. He has always taken a deep interest in church and parochial affairs and is most helpful to his rector.

The Preaching Mission

Recent Revival Week Services Brought Out Many Old Members, as Well as Strangers

Those who attended the Preaching Mission of St. John's Church, June 3-8 inclusive, agree that it was the most impressive and spiritually helpful series of services held in the parish in recent years. That the parish was interested in the innovation was shown by the augmented attendance from night to night. Probably the program we arranged for each night had an important bearing upon the success of the meetings. Instead of shooting into the air, as it were, we knew beforehand what the topic for the evening would be and we were able to adjust ourselves accordingly. The task for the Rev. J. L. Saunders and us was to see that the sermon and the service carried along the evening thought to its logical conclusion. It was, indeed, a week of spiritual awakenings and refreshment. One of the encouraging features of the services was the presence of a number of old members, as well as strangers.

The sermons of Mr. Saunders were most helpful. Through them he had a way of presenting the ugliness of sin and the beauty of righteousness that was most appealing. His preaching did us good and we are under lasting obligations to him for his week of service.

May the wonderful lessons we learned in Revival week linger in our hearts to the conversion of our spirits.

GILES' DRUG STORE

Full Line of
Cameras, Kodaks
and Supplies
Special Price on Albums

We Develop and Print Pictures and Enlargements

Second & Federal Streets

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

E. BOWEN & SON
1018 South Second Street
(Above Washington Avenue)

FRITZ & LA RUE, Inc.
Oriental and Domestic Rugs
1615 CHESTNUT STREET

KATHRYN'S
OWN MAKE
CHOCOLATES - CANDIES
1735 South Second Street

Our Sixteenth Anniversary

Rector Overwhelmed by Loyalty of His People and Spiritual Advancement of the Parish

There does not seem to be any special reason why we should report the happenings on our Sixteenth Anniversary because everybody in the parish was there. All we can do is to comment upon certain persons and events and tell how they had an influence upon the occasion as a whole.

Our first impression was there seemed to be a deeper spiritual tone to all the services than heretofore. Even the younger set appeared to have a calm appreciation of the significance of the anniversary. It was not altogether an occasion of riot and hilarity, but a day that marked a definite advancement in the spiritual development of the parish. We were not slapping each other on the back and congratulating ourselves on what we had done. Rather, we were looking forward to the tasks that lay ahead of us with the happy consciousness that what success we left behind us was just so much training to give us strength and experience to tackle the problems that are ahead.

Another impression which will be with us for many days was that which we got when we looked over our Sunday School in the afternoon. A church filled with children is a rare sight to behold these days. We doubt if any church in South Philadelphia could possibly have duplicated the afternoon session of St. John's young people.

Another impression was the quiet orderliness of the young folks at lunch and supper. The crowds the parish entertained at both meals surpassed any similar occasion in the history of our ministry, yet there was nothing like the noise and confusion of previous years and everybody went away contented.

Our most satisfying impression was what we got in the evening. It was the largest congregation we ever saw in St. John's Church. The Confirmation Class of seventy-seven candidates was made up of men and women, boys and girls that any rector could be proud to present to his Bishop. We are sure Bishop Garland must have felt the strong and stimulating spirit of co-operation between pastor and people that night. We felt it strongly ourselves and the choir augmented it by their enthusiastic contribution to the service.

We cannot conclude without expressing our deep appreciation to Mrs. Lillian Pine and her aids in preparing the lunch and supper for so large a crowd. How they ever managed to know the quantities of food it was neces-

Bell Telephone Notary Public for Pennsylvania
Commissioner of Deeds for New York and New Jersey

J. L. Atkinson & SON
(J. POWELL ATKINSON)
Conveyancers and Real Estate Brokers
1400 MOYAMENSING AVENUE
Near Third and Reed Sts.
Houses Bought, Sold, Rented and Exchanged
Deeds, Wills and Legal Instruments Skillfully Drawn
All Kinds of Insurance Effected

J. RHEA CRAIG, JR.
Realtor and Conveyancer
Building Associations 3d and Tasker Sts.

William F. Englehart, Jr.
Watches and Diamonds
112 S. THIRTEENTH STREET
Established 1831 Philadelphia

Bell Phone, Oregon 3806
I. EDWARD MARSDEN
HARDWARE
1718-20 South Second Street

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.
WHOLESALE
MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY
QUALITY
402-404 N. SECOND STREET
PHILADELPHIA

Bell, Jackson 6347 Hot Buns, 5 P. M.
Andrew A. Friesdorf
Fancy Cakes and Ice Cream Wedding Cakes a Specialty
1713 SOUTH SECOND STREET

sary to cook and serve is beyond our understanding. It was an undertaking to daunt an experienced caterer for nobody had any conception that so many would stay for lunch and supper, yet our Commissary Department was more than equal to the demands upon its capacity.

Another impression we got which filled us with a quiet pleasure was the way the young folks stepped out and rendered valuable service in the kitchen and waiting on the crowds at the tables. The young people seem to be realizing more and more that they have a life interest in St. John's Church, and it is up to them to see that its parochial affairs are run right and they must take hold and help if they expect things to go to suit them.

Our last impression was: St. John's future is assured. Our sixteen years of hard work were not in vain. We have built stronger than we knew and the Spirit of God has been with us all the way. We know the revered founders of our beloved church must have looked down with great joy upon the modern Church of St. John the Evangelist; even as we looked up to them with deep gratitude for founding the Church of Jesus Christ where it was much needed.

Our Parish Reception

Outpouring of Parishioners Swamps the Caterers, Who Rise to the Occasion

Rector Felicitated by Laymen and Prominent Clergymen

What a time! What a time!! In the last issue of the "Broadcaster" we extended an invitation to the world to come to our Parish Reception. Did he come? We should say! He came and brought his wife and all the children. Were we mad? We should say NOT! We were tickled to death. There were so many folks present that the ice cream "went bust" before everybody got served and folks were running 'round looking for crumbs of "them" good cakes which disappeared so quickly. like magic.

Did we have fun? We should say so! Some smarty girls wanted to tuck us in bed right on the stage, before the whole public. They turned out the lights and "lit" some tallow candles and began to sing us to sleep. We were so scared at what was going on we almost cried. Then they came in with a big birthday cake and we were so happy and all the rest were so happy that we all got singing the cradle song and forgot to go to sleep.

Oh! but that was not all of it. At the other anniversaries everybody always got us up on the stage and made a monkey out of us. Then everybody else would laugh. Yes! but this time we beat them at their own game. After that group of "impident" girls told us by song and music "please to make a speech but keep your mouth shut" we

ESTABLISHED 1899

Bell Phone—Lombard 3061 Keystone Phone—Main 7415

SAMUEL SNELL

FRUIT AND PRODUCE

Commission Merchant

524 SOUTH SECOND STREET

Burn--

CREAN'S CLEAN COAL!

Quality and Service Always the Best

Crean Brothers, Inc.

18th ST. and OREGON AVENUE
50th ST. and WARRINGTON AVE.
SECOND and HUNTINGDON STS.

took matters into our own capable hands, and oh, my! didn't we do some funny things to a lot of them!! You just ask George Cressee or Charlie Little, or Mrs. Pine, or John, or John, or John, or John, or a lot of others and they will tell you "Yes, he did and what we think of him can't be found in the hymn book." Well, somebody said something some time ago that the worm will turn some day. This was our worm day, we turned, we wiggled, we did every sort of wormy trick upon those funny folks 'till they did not know what to do next. Oh, my, Yes!

Besides the funny things that happened you should have seen our galaxy of beauty. Pre-brides, brides and ex-brides were among "them" present. And the funny part was most all of them were still trying to look happy. But, then, whoever could understand a woman? She's beyond me, you and us. We give'er up.

Then there was that bunch of heavy hitters occupying the pit benches—Sam Warnock, Dr. Charles Henry Arndt, Rev. J. L. Saunders and Dr. Floyd Tomkins. My! what nice things they said about us! We did not know we were so nice 'till they told us all about it. Of course we have to believe what they said was the truth and today we have a much better opinion of us than we used to have. But did you ever see such a group of folks for giving things away? Last Christmas, Mary Corson was sick. We went to her home to give her her Christmas Communion. When we got there we noticed that our sick communion set was in pretty bad condition. We made a casual remark that we wished we could afford a new set. Last night we were stunned when we were presented with an exquisitely beautiful communion set and vestment case. Did we go home happy? You should ask such foolish questions!

Confirmation Class of 1928

Bishop Garland Says Honor of Largest Class of the Diocese Goes to St. John's

The sixteenth anniversary of our ministry in the parish of St. John the Evangelist was brought to a close with presentation of seventy-seven candidates for Confirmation, Sunday evening, June 10th. Bishop Garland announced that it was the largest Confirmation Class of the Diocese this year. Following are the names of those confirmed:

Abrouski, Frances T
Anderson, Thelma Ethel
Barnes, Ethlyn
Bauer, Emil
Beck, Archibald Smith
Bradley, Sarah Ann
Capie, Joseph
Carbanes, Meta Anna
Carroll, Emma Ervin
Collins, Dorothy Lois
Collins, Helen
Collins, Louisa May
Connor, Laura May
Connor, Rachel Virginia
Dougherty, Florence Marie
Davis, Naomi Mercedes
Davis, Oliver Corsey
Doan, Laura Josephine
Fanger, Harry
Ford, Caroline
Gallagher, Robert William
Garson, Francis Joseph
Garson, Walter Jacob
Harper, Elizabeth Caroline

TRADE MARK NICE REG. U.S.A.
Paint & Varnish Products
Quality That Spells Economy
Eugene E. Nice Company
Philadelphia

1825--One Hundred & Three Years Old--1928
Southwark National Bank
PHILADELPHIA, PA.
William W. Foulkrod, Jr., President
Make THIS Bank YOUR Bank
Every Department of Banking at Your Service
MAIN OFFICE 610-12-14 S. Second St.
Central City Office 1515 Chestnut St.
Resources, Over $16,000,000.00

Haverty, Marion Ella
Henderson, Harry Henry
Henderson, Josephine T.
Hill, Robert John
Holton, Margaret
Holt, William Gill
Hughes, John Page
Humes, Edith Emma
Kaiser, Emma Matilda
Krause, Edna
Keenan, Elmer Carroll
Keenan, Joseph Walter
Kelly, Anna Mary
Kinsley, Ruth Evelyn
Lafferty, Anna Teresa
Lafferty, William Walter
Ludwig, Anna Mary
Lumback, Mary Elizabeth
McGrath, Emma Brinton
McKeown, Mat. Cresson
McKeown, Wm. Alexander
Meinhart, Herbert Adrian
Miller, Charles
Miller, Eleanor Marie
Miller, Warren Joseph
Moore, Sarah Kathlyn
Morris, Sadie
Muller, Helen Louisa
Munion, Benjamin
Munion, Harry James
Munion, Henrietta Platt
Munion, Mary Smith
Munion, Winthrop Fulton
Quaile, Clara Virginia
Rebman, Augustus
Redding, Dorothy
Reynolds, Catherine
Richards, Viola May
Robinson, Annie
Rutter, Jennie Irene
Rutter, May Gertrude
Schaab, Frederick
Schmidt, Frederick
Schoenheiter, Harry
Seher, Harry Philip
Spratt, Thomas
Stone, Thomas Howell
Stuart, Estella Pierson
Stuart, Harriet Elizabeth
Taylor, Benjamin
Tucker, Benjamin
Ward, Abraham Lincoln
Ward, Carrie

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

Passed the Sixtieth Milestone!

* * *

The Mission week, with Mr. Saunders preaching, will linger in our memory for many years to come.

* * *

What would we do without our hard-working and self-sacrificing women—especially when it comes time to eat?

* * *

We were delighted to see the young women of the parish helping in the kitchen and serving at the tables on anniversary Sunday.

* * *

Did you ever see such a crowd of boys and girls?

* * *

The parish can boast of two rising orators—Mr. George Cressee and Mr. Vernon Matthews. Their speeches delivered at the Children's Mass Meeting were masterly efforts. They escaped alive.

* * *

77 Candidates Confirmed

* * *

Though tired to the point of exhaustion Bishop Garland was as happy as we. He told us that it was the largest class he confirmed this year.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Warnock and daughter were among those present.

* * *

Also we saw George Seeds sitting with us in the congregation. Wonder if he knows how fine he made the rector feel by being there.

The absence of Mrs. Garland was a disappointment to the whole congregation. We like to see her smile.

* * *

As Usual, the Choir Was Very Much There

* * *

The palms provided for the chancel on Sunday and for the platform on Tuesday evening were loaned by Mr. Frank Quinn, florist, 2008 South Third streef.

* * *

Dr. Floyd Tomkins, Dr. Charles Henry Arndt, Rev. J. L. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Warnock and Miss A. M. Burt were most welcome guests to our Parish Reception.

* * *

We invited the world to our parish reception and the world accepted our invitation. It was a jam.

* * *

How come old Mr. Weather Man forgot his sprinkler? St. John's folks don't know how to act without some rain.

* * *

The crowd was so big the ice cream gave out.

IS YOUR NUMBER UP?

A Perusal of This Article Will Show Whether You Are a Worker or a Shirker

Six months of the year have passed. It is a good time for us to audit the accounts of the parish and see where we stand financially. The first move is for us to take up the delinquent list of envelope holders and try to impress upon such members the necessity of adding their offerings to the church in order that we may pay our debts. Below we give two lists of delinquent members. The first list contains those who have given nothing in their envelopes this year. The other list contains those who have given less than one dollar thus far.

Please glance over these two lists and make sure your number is not up. If it is, and you can prove you have paid your church pledge regularly, let us know at once and we will make the correction next month. If your number is there and you have not contributed to the church expenses, see to it at once that your pledge is paid in full so that we can publish it next month as being no longer on the BLACK LIST.

Those contributing nothing for the first half year are:

13, 15, 17, 18, 21, 27, 29, 38, 55, 70, 78, 91, 92, 102, 104, 105, 111, 115, 123, 127, 128, 139, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 148, 162, 173, 177, 204, 212, 233, 247, 248, 251, 252, 254, 259, 263, 267, 272, 274, 275.

Those contributing less than one dollar are:

5, 9, 11, 12, 42, 45, 64, 68, 107, 113, 114, 118, 119, 130, 137, 147, 152, 156, 157, 172, 203, 213, 220, 225, 227, 234, 235, 237, 241, 243, 244, 246, 249, 253, 255, 261, 262, 265.

Total number of blank envelopes.....	45
Total number of less than $1.00 contributions	38
Total number of delinquent contributors...	83

Many of these numbers are held by members who can better afford to give than some who are giving generously. Now let every delinquent member get busy and give at least two cents a day for the whole year. Certainly your religion must be worth at least two cents to you. If it is not you had better get rid of it quickly. It is worthless!

Broadcasting From Laughland

It's a striking coincidence that "American" ends in "I can."

* * *

A story which at all events has the merit of brevity was told the other day.

It concerned an indifferent actor who pestered his manager for a letter of recommendation.

To get rid of him the manager gave him a letter to another manager. The communication read:

"The bearer plays Macbeth, Hamlet, Shylock and billiards. He plays billiards best."—Pearson's Weekly.

* * *

The Eighth Grade examination paper demanded an instance of how the physical features of our country had affected our development of history. One bright lad scored perfect with the following: "If it hadn't been for the Delaware River, Washington couldn't have crossed it."—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

* * *

The wife of a Southern archdeacon sent his vestments to be washed by the family laundress, who was black. Next morning the telephone rang. It was the laundress.

"Miss Mary," she said, "do the archangel wants his shroud starched, too?"—Capper's Weekly.

* * *

He—"When I was young the doctors said that if I didn't stop smoking I would become feebleminded."

She—"Well, why didn't you stop?"—Extension Magazine.

* * *

An absent-minded grocer called on his old friend, the family doctor, one evening. They chatted for a couple of hours, and as the grocer rose to go the doctor asked: "Family all well, I suppose?"

"Good heavens!" exclaimed his visitor, "that reminds me. My wife's in a fit."—Progressive Grocer.

* * *

Jemina, at the zoo, saw a zebra for the first time. "Rastus," she said, "what kind uv animal am dat?"

Rastus also gazed in much perplexity and awe. He had never seen one before, either. "Why, Jem, dat ere are a sport model jackass!"—Brooklyn Eagle.

* * *

Scotchmen laugh at jokes about themselves in the papers. One of them laughed at some Scotch jokes over my shoulder this morning.—Judge.

* * *

A West Virginia mountaineer and his wife came down to the village to lay in a week's supply of provisions. The man was riding on a mule, and his wife was walking. On the way back to their mountain cabin the mountaineer was still riding the mule, while the woman was still carrying the provisions in several "pokes" slung over her back. A stranger stopped them and asked why his wife was walking and carrying the supplies. "Well, you see, it's this way," the mountaineer said, slowly shifting his quid. "My wife, she ain't got no mule."—Record.

* * *

Grandma (looking up from paper)—"It says here that young women are abandoning all restrictions. Now, mind, don't let me catch you going out without yours, Ethel."

* * *

A man went into Cohen's book store and asked: "Have you a copy of 'Who's Who and What's What,' by Jerome K. Jerome?"

Cohen replies: "No, sir, but ve got 'Who's He and Vat's He Got," by Bradstreet.

* * *

What's the use o' havin' sky that smiles at you
If there wasn't ever clouds t' hide the blue?
What's the use o' seein' grins that make you glad,
If there wasn't faces somewhere that are sad?

Kind o' looks like sickness comin' for a spell
Makes folks all the gladder for the time they're well.
An' I know that posies seem a sight more sweet
Bloomin' up through ragweeds at a feller's feet.

So it must be heaven makes days dark and blue
Jest so things will glitter when the sun bursts through.

* * *

Wife—"Tomorrow is the tenth anniversary of our wedding. Shall I kill the turkey?"

Husband—"Why, the poor animal is not to blame for it."—Buen Humor, Madrid.

* * *

"Have any big men ever been born in this town?" No, only babies."—Pathfinder.

* * *

"My, my! You've lost quite a bit of your hair since

I saw you last."

"Oh, no! I never lost it; it just came out and I threw it away."—Lock Haven Express.

* * *

A colored preacher in Alabama noticed a new face in his congregation, and when the service was ended he hurried down to greet the newcomer.

"Martin," he said, "this is the first time you've been to our church. I'm mighty glad to see you here."

Whereupon Martin replied: "Ah had to come, parson. Ah needs some strengthenin'. Ah's got me a job whitewashin' a chicken coop an' buildin' a fence 'round a watermelon patch."—From The Lutheran Messenger, St. John's Lutheran Church, Brunswick, Mo.

* * *

DON'TS FOR STAY-AT-HOMES

DON'T stay at home for the big Sunday dinner—get a fireless cooker.

DON'T stay at home for company—bring them with you.

DON'T stay away because it rains—that does not keep you home from other business.

DON'T stay away because the Church is not perfect—how lonesome you would feel in a perfect Church!

Come to Church, and in its atmosphere you will become less critical, less pessimistic and certainly more happy.—From the Bulletin of Myers Park Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Charlotte, N. C.

* * *

MOUSING AROUND

Wigg—"Sorry to keep you waiting, old man, but I've just been setting a trap for my wife."

Wagg—"Heavens! What do you suspect?"

Wigg—"A mouse in the pantry!"—America's Humor.

The Headline and the Story

How Truth May Apparently Be Confounded by a Clever Manipulator of Words and Phrases

On May 29, 1928, the Philadelphia Record printed an article on its front page which was most interesting. The headline so completely hid the news story that to the hasty reader the impression was bound to be just the contrary to the facts contained in the article itself. We print the article below and invite the attention of our readers to the deliberate attempt of the headline writer to kill or at least misrepresent the statements contained in a report made by Mr. Paul Guthrie, Field representative of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association made at a luncheon of that association in New York. This is the sort of newspaper propaganda that is being spread all over the country against the Volstead Act. However a few readers did read beyond the headlines, and were sorely puzzled over the contradiction between the headline and the story. One of these was a pretty bright student of the Chester High School. He wrote to the editor of the Record asking for an explanation of the discrepancy between the heading and the story. The editor, evidently a veteran at word juggling, with a great show of frankness published the student's letter, to which he attached an editorial, skillfully worded and intended to lead the Record out of an ugly position. We feel a certain amount of admiration for the agile way the editor dodged the issue. To us, however, the editorial does more to expose the misrepresentation of the headline than does the headline itself. We invite our readers to read both the article and the editorial carefully and then judge for themselves whether or not the Record played fair with its readers or was honest in answering the Chester High School student in its editorial. We give both below:

COLLEGIANS DRINKING MORE THAN EVER, SURVEY SHOWS

Figures Include Both Men and Women, Field Representative Tells Intercollegiate Prohibition Association at Luncheon in New York.

New York, May 28 (AP).—Paul Guthrie, Field representative of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association, said today that college student opinion throughout the country was overwhelmingly convinced that both men and women students were indulging more freely in alcoholic liquors than before the prohibition era, but that his personal observations failed to justify this student opinion.

He addressed a luncheon of the association at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel and described the results of observations made on personal visits to university campuses. He said that he failed to witness conditions that would justify the student opinion.

Wilbur Simmons, another field representative, who visited 125 colleges during the year, reported thot he had found less drinking than ever before among students. Opinion was evenly divided, among students, he said, on the question whether prohibition was good or bad for the country.

Guthrie said that three out of four students believed that there was more drinking among the male students than before prohibition and four out of five were sure that the girl students were drinking more than ever before.

In general the reports of other field agents were optimistic. The association, with headquarters in Washington, had five men on the road who visited and obtained statistics on drinking for more than 400 colleges during the last year.

APPLYING THE TEST TO HEADLINE ACCURACY

The Record is in receipt of the following letter:

The heading of a news item appearing on the front page of Tuesday's Record reads as follows:

"Collegians Drinking More Than Ever, Survey Shows."

This statement, with the smaller type headline, is very definitely contradicted in the body of the item.

A member of my history class in the Chester High School brought the matter to the attention of the class. The heading and item were read to two history classes and shown to some other teachers, and it was generally agreed that the body of the item flatly contradicts the heading.

Since we all are interested in knowing facts based upon reliable information, we shall appreciate a correct statement.

Furthermore, we are interested in having your readers, which include several of our classes, know the facts in regard to the matter of drinking by college students. Therefore, we shall appreciate your making the correction and giving it the same publicity as the article referred to.

GEO. M. DE HAAS.

Philadelphia, May 30, 1928.

This request for facts is reasonable. Let us see how far the text of the article contradicts the heading.

The article, an Associated Press dispatch from New York, attributed to Paul Guthrie (described as "field representative of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association") the statement that "college student opinion throughout the country was overwhelmingly convinced that both men and women students were indulging more freely in alcoholic liquors than before the prohibition era," but added that "his personal observations failed to justify this student opinion." His personal observations, it appeared, were made on "visits to university campuses."

William Simpson, "another field representative," visited 125 colleges and found less drinking than ever before. But Guthrie "said that three out of four students believed there was more drinking among the male students than before prohibition, and four out of five were sure that the girl students were drinking more than ever before."

The accuracy of the heading seems to depend on what constitutes a survey. If the survey is the opinions of field representatives of a prohibition organization, the heading was wrong. If the survey consists of information as to what the representatives learned from the students themselves, the heading was right.

We lean to the opinion that the students know more about what is going on in college than do the investigators who visited them. With due deference to the contrary belief of our correspondent, we stand pat on the heading.

June 2, 1928.

The italic in the last paragraph of the editorial is ours. Now let us call your attention to the nimbleness of the editor's wit. In the article of May 29th Mr. Guthrie is reported as saying "TODAY COLLEGE STUDENTS' OPINION THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY WAS OVERWHELMINGLY CONVINCED THAT BOTH MEN AND WOMEN STUDENTS WERE INDULGING MORE FREELY IN ALCOHOLIC LIQUORS THAN BEFORE THE PROHIBITION ERA; BUT THAT HIS PERSONAL OBSERVATIONS FAILED TO JUSTIFY THIS STUDENT OPINION."

The editorial writer in his last paragraph makes it quite clear that he does not agree with Mr. Guthrie because he is "OF THE OPINION THAT THE STUDENTS KNOW MORE ABOUT WHAT IS GOING ON IN COLLEGE THAN OF THE INVESTIGATORS WHO VISITED THEM."

Why does the editorial writer so confidently lean on the opinion of these students of "today?" How old were these college students of today when the Volstead act was enforced? Were they college students at all? If not, what do they know about how much drinking was done by college students "before the prohibition era?" If they were too young to know anything about pre-Volstead college drinking then how do they know that both men and women students are indulging more freely now than then? Why should their immature judgment be preferred to the trained judgment of a man like Mr. Guthrie?

The whole incident is a fine illustration of the dishonest newspaper propaganda against the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

MONEY TALKS

It Can Tell You Many Things You Don't Know, Others You Should Know and Barrels of Things You Don't Care to Hear About Yourself.

Yes, money talks. It talks about things and conditions and nations and men. It talks about you. Yes, it talks about you! It tells your friends all about you. Just what sort of a man you are and it tells the truth. As you walk along the street or go about your daily tasks, money goes with you and cries, "Here comes the miser!" He scrimps and starves and freezes and suffers that he may hug me to his bony breast. He hoards me in bags and tea cups and secret places where no eyes shall see me, save his. At dead of night, when the world's asleep, he brings me forth to mumble and count and gloat over me under dim candlelight. He begs his food and drapes his skinny body in rags that he need not part with me. He will not let me buy him the common comforts of life. He never sends me on a mission of mercy. I cause him constant worry and fear. It would kill him were he robbed of me. He is hated of all men because of me. I have hypnotized him till at last GOLD IS HIS GOD."

"There goes a waster and a fool! He does not know how to use me. He throws me away on trivial things. By abusing me he ruins himself through over-indulgence. He sends me on errands of debauchery from which I never return. He forced me into evil and degrading service and I have left him. I was his once; but now the fool and I have separated forever. He is a fool, I am money; we cannot remain together."

"There goes a thief. I was another man's possession. I was intrusted to his care. By trickery and deceit he stole me from my rightful owner. See how furtively he looks around. See how he starts, turns pale and trembles if someone looks at him over long. His conscience disowns me. Soon he will be seized with panic and flee to hide his guilty self from his betrayed and over-confiding friends. He will take me with him but I will not be his solace. Fear will ride him day and night till kindly death will enter in and bid him sleep. TO HIM I AM NEMESIS!!!"

"Behold the gambler! He risks all he has of me in foolish ventures to get more of me. He ruins his own resources, he hypothecates from bank and business what is not his to squander me on dreams of wealth. Soon he will be a fugitive, hunted by his fellow men. Eventually he will have lost me and have nothing left—not even honor."

"Behold the purse-proud and ostentatious man! He walks aggressively. His head is high. His manner is proud. Prosperity and power are stamped upon him. He abuses those who do not own me. He is hard and cruel to the weak and servile to the strong. He is abnormally conscious of my power; but he thinks it his. How vain he is! Some day he will leave me at the edge of the grave to become a banquet of the earth worm. TO HIM I AM DELUSION."

"I am a fatal fascination! Men lie, cheat, steal, betray their best friends and murder to get me. Women sell their honor and drag their good name through the mire of shame for me. There is no cruelty, no treachery, no violence I have not inspired. Hell is filled with my slaves. I have turned the peaceful retreats of nature into a scared wilderness where lustful demons seek the gold. My power is devilish. Satan himself uses me to the undoing of God's creatures. I AM MERCILESS!"

"Yet I am the slave of philanthropy and industry. I have built buildings that will endure for centuries; I have constructed mighty bridges that span deep chasms and rushing torrents; I have girded continents with thousands upon thousands of miles of railroads. I have developed electricity. I have searched out the secrets of nature's laboratories. I have built up mighty armies and navies. I have erected great cities. I have reclaimed the desert and made it blossom as the rose. I have dammed the rushing waters and turned the course of many a river. I have created vast national and international trade and commerce. In short, I have built up, torn down, wrecked and rebuilt the world."

"Yet my greatest work has ever been to serve the man who would be my master. He uses me in the only service I am fit to give. He sends me to buy food for the starving, fuel for the freezing, medicine for the sick, clothing for the naked. For him I build hospitals, schools, sanitary homes, churches, recreation centers. I fall with silent flutter upon the alms basin in God's house. I softly steal in homes of poverty. I turn despair into gladness and courage. Indeed my greatest work is work for him. I AM HIS WILLING SLAVE!"

Rich or Poor

If in my heart there is no love for those by sin defiled,
And if I lack compassion for a wayward, wand'ring child;
If I possess no strong desire to help him in his need,
To lead him back to paths of peace, then I am poor indeed.

If I have lost the tenderness, the grace I once possessed,
If I cannot appreciate another soul's distress;
If I have not within my breast a willingness to feed
The hungry multitudes of life, then I am poor indeed.

If I have not the strength to feel another's burden sore,
If I am blind to all the needs that clamor at my door;
If I am deaf to all the cry of hearts that break and bleed,
Without the sympathy of love, then I am poor indeed.

If I cannot appreciate the good in those I meet,
If in my blindness I abhor the outcast in the street;
And if my hard, cold heart desires to crush the bruised reed,
Then know that I have lost my wealth and I am poor indeed.

And if I thrill not at the touch of little baby hands,
Nor feel the wealth my humble home and all its love commands;
And if the finer things of life are lost in grasp and greed,
Then in my heart a beggar dwells, and he is poor indeed.

If I have love for those who hate and tears for those who fall,
If I have mercy for the one who loves me not at all;
If I have patience with the one who holds another creed,
A heart for all the whole wide world, then I am rich indeed.

—Northeastern Hospital News.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 10 PHILADELPHIA, SEPTEMBER, 1928. By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt

Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Rebecca McKeown
Miss May Pine
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Anna Warren
Miss Margaret Kensil

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Mr. George Cressee, Jr, Men's Bible Class
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director
Vernon Matthew, Vice Director
Edward Proffitt, Secretary
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Philip Mecklin, Treasurer

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John L. Kay, Scoutmaster.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Boy Scouts Troop		8:00
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Burkhardt, John Henry
Cook, Elizabeth Anna
Fryer, Wilson Dchaven
Hackett, Joseph Stephens Neff
Piccione, Robert
Raymond, Emma Jane
Raymond, William Martin
Ward, William Henry
West, Howard Matthews

MARRIAGES

Albert W. Schoch and Minnie K. Fort
Robert J. Stockman and Emma F. Penrose

BURIALS

Burkhardt, Catharine H.
Gaw, William L.
McFinllan, Andrew
Moody, Thomas J.

Scratching the Surface

* * *

We Have Not Begun to Reach This Community With the Gospel of Jesus Christ

* * *

Jim Sweeney says, "We haven't even scratched the surface of this parish yet." He thinks the number of non-church members and unbelievers in any form of religion is beyond computation. After sixteen years of the hardest work we ever did in our lives we are inclined to agree with him and say "the job has got us licked." The harder we work the more there is to be done. There seems to be no end to the procession of seekers after God. We earnestly beg every member of St. John's Fellowship, of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, of the Daughters of the King, and of the Woman's Auxiliary to lend a hand and start a big visiting campaign this fall and round up as many of these non-churchgoers as we can and bring them in. If you do not help we despair of the results, for we cannot do it alone. For instance, here is less than one week's experience and it is only an illustration of what is constantly happening.

We were asked to visit a sick woman. When we called we learned she was not confirmed, though she is well over sixty years of age. Sitting at her bedside was her sister, who is a widow, and has never been confirmed. The two old ladies were living in the home of a young woman who is related to them and she is not confirmed. These three women were born and raised in this parish and evidently nobody had ever got interested in their spiritual growth.

Not so very long ago we were visiting in a certain street in the parish and came upon five large families in one block who have no church life. To them Sunday is different from the other days in the week only because they go to Jersey instead of going to work.

A few weeks ago we had a very beautiful wedding at the church. Many relatives of both bride and groom, though they live in the parish, scarcely ever come to church as they have never been confirmed.

A few weeks ago a young man whispered to me as he was leaving the church with his wife and mother: "Come down to the house and see my father. We want him confirmed and I have been talking about it to him."

We can truthfully state that we never spend an afternoon visiting in the Parish but that we find anywhere from ten to twenty-five non-churchgoers.

Scores of times we meet wives whose husbands and children are unconfirmed. Again, we meet husbands who are members of the church, but whose wives go nowhere. Men and women over 75 years of age are still out of the fold. A flock of young people apparently have given religion no thought and are running wild without a shepherd. Boys and girls by the hundreds are growing up in gross ignorance of their duty towards God.

Brothers, why stand ye here all the day idle? It is high time that we plunge into the harvest and begin to bring in the lives ripe for the Kingdom of God.

Bishop Garland will pay us a second visit on Wednesday, September 26, for the purpose of confirming the second class for the year 1928. There is still time to bring a soul to God. Let us be up and at it. When the Bishop comes may we have the joy of seeing many more souls brought to stand before the throne of Grace to declare their allegiance and loyalty to the King of Kings.

St. John's Church in Summer

* * *

When Other South Philadelphia Churches Suspend Business, St. John's Gets Real Busy

* * *

Several years ago we followed the usual custom of most city churches by closing down upon our activities in the summer season. We had the same thought that many others still have. That so many people go to the country and to the shore that it is not worthwile to keep up the usual church and parochial schedule. These were what we now call the stagnant years. Now we are even more active in the summer than we are at any other time of the year. This change came about in a peculiar way. When we had no evening services in the summer we did attend evening service in other churches and of other denominations. We were gradually impressed at the size of these summer evening congregations. In some churches we attended there were as many as a thousand to fifteen hundred worshipers present. This set us thinking. If other churches were able to hold such successful summer evening services why could not we do likewise? Last year we determined to try. We kept open all through the summer with indifferent success. We were wise enough, however to feel sure that the services were not very successful because the members of the parish were not in the habit of coming to church in the evening. Therefore, instead of being discouraged, we opened up again this summer with astounding success. From the start, members and strangers came out in strength. Every week the evening congregations are bigger. A great deal of the growth is due to the activity and pep of our young choir members, our Brotherhood of St. Andrew and our Daughters of the King. Besides the Boy and Girl Scout Troops keeping up their active work we have also our daily summer vacation school, our child clinic and our summer outing work at the Shack-in-the-Pines.

St. John's is, indeed, a working parish—in summer as well as in winter.

Charles Little

* * *

Whenever we have anything really important we want done there are always a certain few folks in the Parish we think of instinctively. Among them and high up in the list stands CHARLES LITTLE. Charles was confirmed when he was a very young man indeed. He has been a consistent church member and one who feels it is his duty as well as his privilege to do his share in building up the Church of St. John the Evangelist. As an all-round churchman he can't be beat. Every Sunday he attends service. He is seldom absent from the Communion. He is the most efficient director of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of St. John's Parish. He does a great deal of visiting among the men and boys of the Parish. In fact, he is one of those kind that can and will and does do big things for St. John's Church. We take pleasure in hanging his name in our Hall of Fame.

Origin of the Church of England

* * *

Questions and Answers Taken From the Prayer Book Reason Why

By the Rev. Nelson R. Boss, M. A.

* * *

Question: What was the origin of the Church of England from which the American Church is sprung?

Answer: Eusebius (A. D. 270) tells us that St. Paul traveled to the farthest limits of the West, and in the time of Eusebius, this is thought to include the British Isles.

Question: Was not the Christian Church first planted in Britain by missionaries sent by the Pope?

Answer: No; when Pope Gregory sent Augustine with forty monks as missionaires to Britain A. D. 596 they found the Church with a valid ministry and sacraments already established.

Question: What other evidence have we that the Church existed in Britain before the coming of Augustine?

Answer: At the Councils of Arles A. D. 314 and Sardica, A. D. 347, Bishops were present from the Church in Britain. This was 200 years before Augustine's time.

Question: Then why did the Pope send missionaries to Britain?

Answer: Because the heathen Saxons had conquered the country and having driven the Christian Britains from their homes and churches the land was in danger of relapsing into heathen superstition and barbarism.

Question: What did these missionaries do?

Answer: They labored, first alone, and afterwards in union with the British clergy, to convert the Saxon conquerors to Christianity.

Question: What was the result of these labors?

Answer: The Saxons were converted; the British and the Roman clergy working together and holding substantially the same faith, the two churches became united in one, and by degrees the Pope gained a controlling power over the whole.

Question: Was the Roman Church at that time corrupted by error?

Answer: No; the chief errors of Rome are the outgrowth of later times.

Question: To what source then does the present Church of England trace her origin?

Answer: To the early British Church, which was probably established by St. Paul and which had existed in Britain hundreds of years before Roman priests ever set foot on British soil.

Question: Is it true then to say that the Church of England is a schism from the Roman Church?

Answer: No; it is contrary to all facts. The Church of England is a lineal descendant of the old British Church, which, though brought for a time under the domination of the Church of Rome, resumed, at the Reformation, her old position as an independent Church.

Question: Is there any truth in the assertion that the Church of England was founded by Henry VIII?

Answer: None whatever. It is an assertion that coud be made only by one ignorant of history or regardless of truth.

Question: What part did Henry VIII take in the work of Reformation ?

Answer: His part was purely political and selfish. After his quarrel with the Pope, who refused to grant him a divorce from his lawful wife, Henry did all he could to free the realm and the Church of England from the Pope's influence and control; but in all other respects he was a Roman Catholic and held the doctrines of that Church till his death.

Question: How long did it take to complete and finally establish this reformation of England?

Answer: Over a hundred and thirty years. It began about 1527, during the reign of Henry VIII, and was completed in 1662, after the death of Queen Elizabeth.

Question: Was the Reformation accomplished peacefully and without difficulty?

Answer: No; it was only after a long struggle and bitter persecutions.

Question: What relation does the Episcopal Church in the United States bear to the Church of England?

as vital, for example, as I think it is?

How do I look to the man on the outside? Could he tell that I am interested by what I do? How do I look to him?

Am I a good example for anybody to follow, or do I just think I am? Or do I think about my responsibility in this connection at all?

Do I attend church services as often as I think I do?

How often do I speak a word of encouragement or praise to the minister, or have a pleasant word and smile for his wife? Do I as often as I think I do?

How would the minister classify me? As interested, indifferent, cold? As a friend and helper, or just as—one of the congregation? Would he be justified by what I do?

Do I reallly give as the Lord hath prospered me, or do I just think I do? If I should add up my contributions to local church support and to missions, would they represent as large a part of my total income as I think they do?

Would a stranger think me as liberal as I think I am, even if he had all the facts of my other responsibilities?

Do I really care for missions at all? Do I really ever deny myself—a new suit, cigars, street car rides (when walking would be better for my health)—anything, to help forward the cause? Do I really every deny myself, or do I just think I do?

Do I really believe it more blessed to give than to receive, or do I just think I do?

What kind of church member am I anyhow? Am I the kind I think I am, or do I just think I am?

I am going to try a little introspection along these lines.

"EVERYONE OF YOU"

* * *

When Jesus Christ established the Christian Church, ample provision was made in His divine plan for its support. In the Old Testament all the people were commanded to set aside ten per cent. of their total earnings. To every sincere and thinking Christian of this Gospel era the question must press for an answer: "What ought I give for the support of God's work?" A true child of God will not evade the question, but will honestly face it and endeavor to find an answer.

The Bible is not silent regarding the question of Christian giving. Referring to the collection, which St. Paul raised amongst the congregations, he established this principle, 1 Cor. 16: 12: "On the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him."

"ON THE FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK." That means systematic giving. Not just when you feel like it, but at regular intervals."

"EVERY ONE OF YOU," urges the apostle. That means the rich and the poor, the younger members and the older members. Every single Christian is called upon to contribute from his income for the maintenance of the Gospel work.

"AS THE LORD PROSPERED HIM." It is a mistaken notion that all Christians must give the same amount. The idea of church dues, requiring every member to pay alike, regardless of earnings, is not only unfair, but also out of harmony with God's Word.

Let the principle stand: "As the Lord hath prospered him." That statement is a challenge to the wealthy Christian to dig deep into his pockets for an amount which is somewhat in proportion to his income. It should serve as a stimulus for all, whether rich or poor, to begin to spend for God's cause, somewhat as we spend for ourselves.

Stop and think about it for a moment, and I am sure you will agree with me that the church makes the least demand on our pocketbook. Why, many a Christian man is spending more for "smokes," and many a Christian woman is spending more for pure luxuries than they are putting into God's treasury. Isn't it strange that people never complain, because their new car or radio or the show cost so much money?

But—when the church comes "abegging"—well, that's a different story. Strange, isn't it? The church asks for the smallest part of our income, and when it does ask for it to carry on the work of saving souls, what excusing, what complaining!

Every dollar you have, every square foot of ground you own, belongs to the Almighty. He has prospered you.

—From Fargo Lutheran Messenger.

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

How did you enjoy your vacation?

* * *

The busiest spot in Philadelphia during the summer was the Church of St. John the Evangelist.

* * *

Our Sunday evening services during the summer were very well attended, indeed.

* * *

Remember we have a second Confirmation class Wednesday, September 26, at 8 P. M. Bishop Garland will be with us.

* * *

Mr. Delinquent: Your pledge to the Bishop's Campaign Fund is overdue.

* * *

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew Chapter has been active all summer, especially at the Sunday evening services.

* * *

The Daughters of the King have held their regular weekly meeting all summer.

* * *

The Summer Bible School has been most interesting.

Bell Telephone Notary Public for Pennsylvania
Commissioner of Deeds for New York and New Jersey

J. L. Atkinson & SON
(J. POWELL ATKINSON)
Conveyancers and Real Estate Brokers
1400 MOYAMENSING AVENUE
Near Third and Reed Sts.

Houses Bought, Sold, Rented and Exchanged
Deeds, Wills and Legal Instruments Skillfully Drawn
All Kinds of Insurance Effected

J. RHEA CRAIG, JR.
Realtor and Conveyancer
Building Associations 3d and Tasker Sts.

William F. Englehart, Jr.
Watches and Diamonds
112 S. THIRTEENTH STREET
Established 1831 Philadelphia

Bell Phone, Oregon 3806
I. EDWARD MARSDEN
HARDWARE
1718-20 South Second Street

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.
WHOLESALE
MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY
QUALITY
402-404 N. SECOND STREET
PHILADELPHIA

Bell, Jackson 6347 Hot Buns, 5 P. M.
Andrew A. Friesdorf
Fancy Cakes and Ice Cream Wedding Cakes a Specialty
1713 SOUTH SECOND STREET

The attendance has been extra good all summer.

* * *

The Sunday evening illustrated Bible-studies will be continued after vacation season.

* * *

Remember your pledge to the Bishop's Campaign Fund.

* * *

Miss M. B. Fisher is elected delegate to the Triennial Convention of the Woman's Auxiliary to be held in Washington, D. C., in October.

* * *

The Woman's Auxiliary will hold its first fall meeting after the return of Miss Fisher from Washington.

* * *

Mr. Edward King was elected delegate to represent our Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew at Washington, D. C., in October. Mr. Philip Mecklin was chosen alternate.

* * *

Get Ready for the Big Entertainment.

Broadcasting From Laughland

There was once
A man waterin' his flowers
With a sprinklin' pot,
An' two little bugs
Heard the drops fallin'
An' one said to the other,
"We're lost—there's a flood."
Some folks is jest like
Them little bugs—
Ez soon ez they are hit
With a drop or two of misfortune
They set up a hollerin'
That they're done for.
What they should do
Is to hoist up
Their spuritual umbrels
An' they wouldn't get wet
At all.

* * *

Absent-minded Professor—after being rescued—"I have just remembered that I know how to swim."

* * *

INNOCENT HUSBAND

A young husband came home one evening to find his wife sewing some dainty little clothes.

"My dear, why didn't you tell me?"

"Don't be silly," she replied. "This is a new dinner gown."—Rice Owl.

* * *

Nothing on earth can smile but man. Gems may flash reflected light, but what is a diamond-flash compared with an eye-flash and a mind-flash? A smile is a light in the window of the face by which the heart sig-

GILES' DRUG STORE

Full Line of
Cameras, Kodaks
and Supplies
Special Price on Albums

We Develop and Print Pictures and Enlargements

Second & Federal Streets

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

E. BOWEN & SON
1018 South Second Street
(Above Washington Avenue)

FRITZ & LA RUE, Inc.
Oriental and Domestic Rugs
1615 CHESTNUT STREET

KATHRYN'S
OWN MAKE
CHOCOLATES - CANDIES
1735 South Second Street

nifies it is at home and waiting. A face that cannot smile is like a bud that cannot blossom.—Henry Ward Beecher.

* * *

Those who contend that there is more drinking under Prohibition may indicate the company they keep.—Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

* * *

Three New York churches are to form the ground floors of skyscrapers, the upper stories of which will be occupied by families acceptable to the church trustees. Only those who get in on the ground floor will be entitled to mansions in the skies.—Punch.

* * *

"THE SIN OF DRUNKENNESS"

This hideous monster will be dragged from his lair into the noonday sun Sunday night at the Baptist Church. —Ad in a Covington (La.) paper.

* * *

WOULD DO FOR THE PRESENT

He took her in his arms.

"Oh, darling," he murmured. "I love you so. Please say you'll be mine. I'm not rich like Percival Brown. I haven't a car or a fine house, or a well-stocked cellar; but, darling, I love you, and I cannot live without you!"

Two soft arms stole around his neck and two ruby lips whispered in his ear:

"And I love you, too, darling, but—where is this man Brown?"—Stray Stories.

* * *

Overheard from an adjoining cafe booth:

"Try again to say it. You're not that tight."

"'S no use, but I'll try. Here goes Thigs and fistles!"

* * *

"Who remembers when people used to call them 'flannel cakes?'" inquires a correspondent. We do for one, and recall a mild joke on the subject: "I'm hungry," complained a husky husband one morning. "But you've just had your breakfast," returned his wife. "I know it," he said, "but as soon as I finished I drank a glass of water and all those flannel cakes shrank right down to comparatively nothing."—Boston Transcript.

* * *

America's international slogan: "Say it with fliers."—New York World.

* * *

Work is the curse of our drinking classes.—Colgate Banter.

* * *

"Could you learn to love me?"

"Well, I learned to speak Polish."—Yale Record.

* * *

SOUVENIR FOR WAYNE McVEIGH

Minister—"I hear, Paddie, they've gone dry in the village where your brother lives."

Paddie—"Dry, mon! They're parched. I've just had

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner

2d and Reed Streets

Good Meat Is Our Specialty

Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881 'SAY IT WITH FLOWERS Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R

FRANK C. QUINN

...FLORIST...

2008 South Third Street

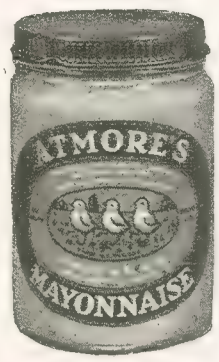
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.

Prescription Druggist

(Deutsche Apotheke)

S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.



Atmore's Creamy Mayonaise

For Salads, Sandwiches, Meats—the crowning touch of good taste!

Made by the makers of the famous ATMORE'S MINCE MEAT

ATMORE & SON, Inc.

110-124 Tasker St. Phila.

Founded 1842

a letter from Mike, an' the postage stamp was stuck on with a pin."—Chase Bag Co. "Bagology."

* * *

JUS' KEEP ON KEEPIN' ON

If the day looks kinder gloomy
An' your chances kinder slim;
If the situation's puzzlin'
An' the prospects awful grim,
An' perplexities keep pressin'
Till all hope is nearly gone,
Jus' bristle up, and grit your teeth
An' keep on keepin' on.

Fumin' never wins a fight,
An' frettin' never pays;
There ain't no good in broodin' in
These pessimistic ways—
Smile just kinder cheerfully
When hope is nearly gone,
An' bristle up, and grit your teeth,
An' keep on keepin' on.

There ain't no use in growlin'
An' grumblin' all the time
When music's ringin' everywhere,
An' everything's a rhyme—
Jus' keep on smilin' cheerfully,
If hope is nearly gone,
An' bristle up, and grit your teeth,
An' keep on keepin' on.

—From Our Clippings.

* * *

COLD CHARITY

When you talk about "Social Service" be sure you do not talk so as to make it sound like "So-shall-serve-ice."

* * *

NOT CLASSIC BUT TRUE

Some spend their dimes
To shine their shoes,
And often times
For buying booze.
Then go to church—
Perhaps are late.
And drop a penny
On the plate.

* * *

WASHEE-WASHEE

We most cleanly and carefully wash our customers with cheap prices as under—Ladies $2.00 per hundred; Gentlemen, $1.75 per hundred.—Laundry sign quoted in "Chinese Fantastics," by Thomas Steep (The Century Co.).

* * *

Science Teacher—"Name some liquid that won't freeze."

Bright Pupil—"Hot water."—London Answers.

* * *

TAKING THE PLEDGE

According to a press report, the members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union are going to stop gin drinking in colleges. Well, it's about time some of the old ladies went on the wagon.—Judge.

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

Keystone—Main 4644

Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON
General Automobile Repairing
AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY
Mechanical Electrical Welding
1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.
DRUGGIST
1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds

Both Phones

H. D. REESE, Inc.
Meats Poultry Cheese
1208 ARCH STREET
Philadelphia

Housewife—"But my good man, your story has such a hollow ring."

Tramp—"Yes, ma'am, that's what comes from speaking on an empty stomach."—Clipped.

* * *

"Why do they call a dental office a parlor?"

"That's just another name for drawing room, isn't it?"

Doctor—"Did you follow my advice and drink hot water one hour before breakfast?"

Patient—"I did my best, but I couldn't keep it up for more than ten minutes, doctor."

* * *

Office Caller—"How long has that office boy worked for you?"

Office Chief—"About four hours."

Caller—"Four hours! Why, I thought he'd been here a long time."

Chief—"Oh, yes, he's been here two years."

* * *

PROVED HIS METTLE

Mrs. Grubb (after a tiff)—"When I married you I didn't know you were such a coward. I thought you were a brave man."

Grubb—"So did everybody else."—Answers.

* * *

SAD CONFESSION

Landlady—"I think you had better board elsewhere."

Boarder—"Yes, I often had."

Landlady—"Often had what?"

Boarder—"Had better board elsewhere."—M. I. T. Voo Doo.

* * *

Sea Captain (introducing friend to his old aunt)—"This is my friend Barker; he lives in the Canary Islands."

"How interesting," murmured the old lady; and, gathering all her wits, she added: "Then, of course, you sing?"

* * *

ALL OVER

George (nervously)—"I'd like, the best in the world, Kitty, to marry you; but I don't know how to propose."

Kitty (promptly and practically)—"That's all right, George. You've finished with me; now go to father." Tit-Bits, London.

* * *

HANDS UP!

"The time will come," shouted the speaker, "when women will get men's wages."

"Yes," said a little man in the corner. "Next Saturday night."—Good Hardware.

* * *

ANYWAY, THERE WAS A FUNERAL

"I've just come back from old Bill's funeral."

"So old Bill's dead."

"Well, if he's not, someone has played a dirty trick on him."—Capper's Weekly.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 10 PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER, 1928. By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt

Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Rebecca McKeown
Mrs. May Hopkins
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Anna Warren
Miss Margaret Kensil

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Mr. George Cressee, Jr, Men's Bible Class
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director
Vernon Matthews, Vice Director
Edward Proffitt, Secretary
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Philip Mecklin, Treasurer

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John L. Kay, Scoutmaster.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Boy Scouts Troop		8:00
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Bennett, Charles William
Hines, James Joseph
Orr, Joseph Armstrong
Vaughan, Samuel Snell

BURIALS

Ferris, James
Holloway, Joseph
McClellan, Andrew
McDevitt, James B.
Mossop, Thomas A.
Randolph, John F.
Reasin, John Calvin
Rigby, Edward H.
Smith, Harper F.
Williams, Louise

BACK TO THE CHURCH

* * *

Materialism Is Dying—Spiritualism Is Reviving

* * *

The world is getting back to the church! And we don't mean perhaps.

The move started with the young people and is gaining strength and speed every day. In a few more years churchless civilization will be a thing of the past. Our church will be as strong, yes, stronger than ever before. The young people are awake to the true meaning and menace of a churchless world. In the first flush of "freedom" youth was intoxicated and reveled in moral and spiritual unrestraint. "Youth must be served" was the slogan of the times. The old ideals went a tottering to the ground. The postwar ideas were hailed as a social revolution. But reaction has set in and youth is rounding upon the new world of jazz and riot. They are satiated with its tinsel and disgusted with its putridness. They are looking back with wistful eyes to the days of yesterday. Youth has been cheated and is slowly realizing it. The inevitable is happening. Youth is retracting its steps. It is a return to the faith of our fathers. But the homecoming is not an humble and shrinking or an apologetic return. It is determined and purposeful. The young folks are not VOLUNTEERING to serve, they are DEMANDING that they be given work to do. The young peoples societies are filling up. Their membership is not only interested in services of prayer and praise as in olden times, but they are interested in mapping out an aggressive campaign along social service lines which will attract the non-church member into the church. The young people of every parish are rallying under the Fellowship standards. They are out for agitation in every branch of church life. They are filling the church offices; they are training themselves in Sunday School work, lay reading, parochial visiting, missionary endeavor, social service work, public speaking in Christian gatherings, Bible discussion, personal service and a score of other church and spiritual activities; and they are doing it all in a spirit of fearlessness and courage which in itself is a sign of sincerity.

The Spirit of God is abroad and is inspiring our youth to mighty deeds. The short and breathless era of materialism is almost dead. The eternal truth of God's supremacy is reasserting itself with redoubled vigor. Youth has snatched up the Standard and is leading the world back to the church and to spiritual revival.

The Faith of Our Fathers Is Living Still!

HEALING PRAYER

* * *

Heavenly Father, Who broodest over all Thy children in love, we thank Thee for the confidence born of every revelation of love. Whatever awaits us in the day's experience, may we know that we are never for a single moment alone. We will not be timid or afraid, for nearer than breathing, nearer than light itself, art Thou, the great Spirit of Love enfolding us. Thou art with us today. Thou wilt be with us through all the journey of life. May we find refreshment and peace in this realization and may we find in Thee the answer to every longing and the solution of every problem. Though we may not see, we may trust and wait. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

"I Shall Not Pass Again This Way"

* * *

The bread that bringeth strength I want to give,
The water pure that bids the thirsty live:
I want to help the fainting day by day;
I'm sure I shall not pass again this way.

I want to give the oil of joy for tears,
The faith to conquer crowding doubts and fears.
Beauty for ashes may I give alway:
I'm sure I shall not pass again this way.

I want to give good measure running o'er,
And into hungry hearts I want to pour
The answer soft that turneth wrath away;
I'm sure I shall not pass again this way.

I want to give to others hope and faith,
I want to do all that the Master saith;
I want to live aright from day to day;
I'm sure I shall not pass again this way.

—Ellen H. Underwood.

The Mission of The Transfiguration

* * *

Since It Has Moved to the Southwest Corner 7th and Bigler Streets Its Growth Has Been Remarkable.

* * *

We are beginning to realize our faith in the future of the Mission of the Transfiguration which, for nearly fifteen years, has been a subject for debate among many "downtown" churchmen. When the Mission was founded at Stonehouse and Jones' Lanes, it was thought to be an uncertain experiment—but it succeeded. When it was moved to Stonehouse and Stampers Lanes, certain folks recommended that the Convocation close it up—again it succeeded. When it was moved to Seventh and Bigler streets the act was denounced as a piece of folly and a waste of money—now it is a bigger success than ever. Yet, all through the storm and stress of controversy we held on like a bull pup and would not let go the idea that the Church had a big work for the Mission in South Philadelphia. We have been called all sorts of names. The honesty of our purpose has been questioned. Our "reckless" claims were nailed as statements far from the truth. In fact, we had no friends except, as usual, the Bishop—who has the peculiar, uncanny ability of seeing beyond the tip of his nose—and a few big men who knew, were willing to trust to our judgment, if we said a mission could succeed in South Philadelphia if properly managed.

Those who opposed the establishing of the Mission sure did make it embarrassing for us. By means of a whispering campaign they ruined the reputation of the Mission so that it had little or no standing in the Convocation and nobody was willing to help develop the work. But today, we are facing a remarkable growth in the Mission with no building but a little chapel, too poorly equipped to meet the neighborhood needs. As a matter of fact the old chapel building was moved to the new site as an act of caution. If the Mission proved a failure—which everybody expected—then, too much money would not have been wasted. Now that the Mission is growing more and more successful the Church is beginning to pay for its lack of faith and the work of the Mission is greatly hampered, because we are not properly equipped to cope with the development. A penny wise and a pound foolish as usual.

The Mission Needs a Parish House at Once

DO IT CHEERFULLY

* * *

Whatever you do, do cheerfully. It is better not to do at all if you do what you do grudgingly. This is especially true in matters concerning the Church. There is a certain young woman in our parish who has the right idea of doing. If we ask said person to do something for somebody in the parish or do something in the Sunday School, or Church, the first thing that person does is to smile brightly. The next thing is to say, "of course I will." It always makes us feel glad when we have a favor to ask that particular person. We like to see that smile and hear that cheerful voice.

The Choir Entertainment

* * *

The Choir members are setting a wholesome example which we hope all our parish organizations and communicants will follow.

On SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29TH, they will give a musical entertainment for the purpose of raising funds to meet the Choir pledge to the BISHOP'S CAMPAIGN FUND. Each and every member is awake to our moral responsibility in keeping our word with the Bishop and we are staging this entertainment towards this end. To default in meeting our pledge would be a dishonor to ourselves. The admission is only TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, and we are sure the whole parish will "stand by" and help us to raise our pledge. Certainly the voluntary service of our Choir every Sunday in the year deserves our twenty-five cents' worth.

Let's All Help the Choir Put It Over!

William Stone

* * *

The biggest man does not always make the biggest noise. "Bill" Stone is a living proof of that fact. He does not talk much about himself but he can certainly do big things. Because Bill is a "cop" he cannot attend church service as regularly as he might. He makes up for his enforced irregularity, however, by his contributions and the wonderful missionary work he does among the men of the parish. Some of the most active workers of the parish were brought to a definite decision to be confirmed by him. Several of the men confirmed by Bishop Garland in June were brought out by "Bill," who not only went after them but came to church and sat with them until they got to liking it and came of their own volition. "Bill" is a regular "go-getter" and is worth an hundred ordinary men in parish building. What we like about Bill is he smiles with his eyes.

So, Up Goes His Name
In Our Hall of Fame

Wednesday, September 26th

* * *

All Candidates for Confirmation Are to Present Themselves Before Bishop Garland on That Date to Receive the Laying-on-of-Hands.

* * *

The thought of Confirmation is like the thought of dying. So long as there seems to be no immediate necessity to entertain it we are impatient with those who insist upon pushing the idea under our notice. But when something happens and we are caught unprepared, then we regret our folly and procrastination. Then we wish we had not been so indifferent and had taken advantage of the opportunity that was given us.

It is the same with parents of growing boys and girls. Too often, when we exhort them to take up the matter of Confirmation with their children, the parents sweep aside the suggestion with the remark, "It's time enough for them to think of 'joining church' when they grow older." But when the son comes staggering home late some night as drunk as a fool; or the daughter comes sneaking in with a queer guilty look in her eyes; or some other member of the family comes furtively slinking home a fugitive from justice, then the parents learn the awful lesson that while they have been indifferent to the safety of their flesh and blood, the powers of evil have swept them off their feet. Then they abuse and upbraid the sinner and declare they have brought disgrace and shame upon the family. Whereas the blame rests more upon the lazy, self-indulgent, hypocritical criminally indifferent parent and friend rather than upon the young victim of their easy-going moral philosophy.

If there is a place of eternal punishment, and we are old-fashioned enough to believe there is, we are pretty sure it will be overcrowded with fathers and mothers who neglected the moral and spiritual welfare of their own children.

SEEK DIVINE COMFORT

"Lo, I am with you always."—St. Matthew 28:20.

"In strength, in weakness; in health, in sickness; in joy, in sorrow; in riches, in poverty; in youth, in old age; in safety, in danger; in day, in night; in fear, in courage; in life, in death."

(Today's text and addition suggested by the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, General Secretary of the Protestant Episcopal City Mission.)—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

* * *

How much dust did the Bible and Prayer Book accumulate during the summer?

* * *

Wednesday, September 26th, is Confirmation night; be sure to bring your candidate.

* * *

Remember Saturday, September 29th, is the Choir Musical Entertainment. The proceeds are for the Choir's pledge to the Bishop's Campaign Fund.

* * *

Sunday School at 2.30 P. M., beginning Sunday, September 16th.

"When a mule is kicking, he isn't pulling."

* * *

"You can't drive a new car down the street without meeting everybody you owe."

* * *

"He who can bottle up his temper is a corker."

* * *

Slogan for our Sunday School Rally: "ONE HUNDRED PER CENT OR BUST."

* * *

Labor Day is the day we all stop working.

* * *

All our dear little boys and girls are so eager to get back to their studies that they can scarcely wait for school to open.

* * *

Now, Get Ready for the Bazaar!

* * *

Now that our WEAK ENDS are almost over let's get down to business and make up for lost time by attending church services regularly.

* * *

At least one new member for the church ought to be the ambition of every communicant this year.

* * *

Mr. Delinquent: Why Don't You Pay Up Your Pledge to the Bishop's Campaign Fund?

* * *

Did you make that pledge just to appear generous; with no intention of keeping it?

* * *

Suppose the Bishop publishes the names and addresses of those who defaulted their pledge, will your name be on the list?

Better Get Busy!

* * *

Church Schedule of Services, Beginning Sunday, September 16th

Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30 A. M.
Sunday School	2.30 P. M.
St. John's Fellowship	7.00 P. M.
Evening Service—illustrated lecture on the Christian Church	7.45 P. M.

HOW TO HELP

* * *

There is not a great deal that any of us can do for our church. Sometimes what we can do seems so little that it is not worth doing. That is a mistake, but a very common mistake. The church loses thousands of dollars in gifts each year because so many people will not give at all unless they can give in large amounts. God asks us to give in proportion to our means and not in proportion to our desires, our vanity or our neighbors. He asks us to give lovingly and willingly what we can, whether large or small in amount.

There are many little things we can do for the church. A friendly invitation to someone who never goes to church may make more difference in the history of the world than the munificent gift of a millionaire. God uses the little things and the weak things to confound the great. He is always demonstrating that his grace is sufficient for the tasks He asks us to undertake. So why be afraid of the job that seems big or why be ashamed to do the thing that seems so insignificant as to be useless? There is something worth while to do for the church. Find your work and do it with all your might.

But besides this business of helping through work there is another and even more important way to help. No human activity or effort, no human skill or wisdom, no organization or enthusiasm can take the place of prayer. If we do not pray, if we do not pray alone and together, before the altar and behind closed doors, we shall always lag and faint and at least partially fail. We must pray and pray earnestly, regularly, offering ourselves to God if we are to find our fullest usefulness and do our most effective work for Christ and his church.

The Annual "Round Up"

* * *

The Fall "Round Up" of Our Parish Membership Is About to Start

* * *

The usual summer vacations of the parish are over. It's time to blow the whistle. And for every man, woman and child to get busy. We have a big job ahead of us.

The heavy work, as usual, will fall upon the Woman's Auxiliary, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Daughters of the King and St. John's Fellowship.

The Woman's Auxiliary and the Daughters of the King will visit the female members of the parish.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew will visit the male members.

St. John's Fellowship will visit the boys and girls of the Sunday School.

In this arrangement there will be a great deal of overlapping; which is most desirable. For instance, if the women's organizations visit the females of a family; then the Brotherhood will visit the males of the same family; then the Fellowship visit the boys and girls of the same family; that family is bound to realize that St. John's Church is very much interested in them.

We do not want any "doorstep visiting."

What we mean is, we do not approve of a visitor ringing a door bell and when the "visitee" comes to the door, to stand on the step and talk back and forth at one another through a crack just like you were selling shoe strings.

We want our visitors to greet the aforementioned "visitees" with an expansive grin and a big handshake—regular pump handle style—and say, "I thought I'd drop in on you for a little visit and say, 'howdy.'" Of course, that means—"please open the door and let me in." Folks like being made a fuss over.

When you get in, forget you are visiting and get good and gossipy. After asking how's everybody, talk about the weather, then about the neighbors and so drift along 'till you get around to OUR CHURCH. After that there are lots of topics to discuss. Such, for instance, as how it strengthens the church to be always present. Then there is the Bishop's Campaign Fund, the Duplex Envelope System as a means of paying the bills of the church and laying aside a penny a day for the rainy day; the folks who do not go to church and how it is our duty to get after them—especially our neighbors. Then receiving the Holy Communion regularly. The sending the children to Sunday School. The joining a church organization and getting into active parish work.

It is not a bad idea to gossip about family affairs in your visits—such as sickness, unemployment, the rent, grocery bills, where best to buy bargains in clothing, furniture, food, etc. Folks like to have you show an interest in such matters. It is being neighborly and is appreciated.

Most likely some of them would like you to kneel down on the parlor floor and have a prayer or two before you leave.

Above all things do not leave a home without finding out whether the family needs a Bible or a Prayer Book.

THE BIBLE FIRST

* * *

Keep the Bible first in your life all the time. This is the secret of a successful day, and a successful Christian life. You are to let God speak to you first, then you are qualified to speak to Him. He talks through the Book. He gave it for this purpose. The moment you meet the simple requirement of adjusting yourself to it, you begin to experience two activities. First, messages reach you specifically designed for and sufficient to meet your immediate and remote needs. And second, you begin to feel the inflow of grace. Grace surges through your entire being. You are suffused with His life, your capacity enlarging with each discovery.

By keeping the Bible first, you find God elsewhere. Beecher listened to God in the woods, understanding the invisible things by the things that are made. By companioning with Christ, your footsteps are ordered so that all the day long you dwell in the house of the Lord. You are safely guarded. Your contacts are Christian. You carry an assured mind. You have the consciousness of God. Whether in your labor or in your leisure, you find yourself unvocalizedly speaking to God. Into the domain of your soul come trooping persons, perhaps forgotten for years, and objects to be prayed for. It is "praying without ceasing." You receive impartations of wisdom and spiritual understanding." "The anointing teacheth you of all things."—Selected.

Why an Annual Every-Member Canvass?

* * *

1. It answers the personal questions and objections of members.
2. It supplements most helpfully the public instruction and appeal.
3. It compels a fresh consideration by each member of his personal missionary responsibility.
4. It dignifies the missionary cause in the minds of all.
5. It vastly increases the number of systematic contributors.
6. It discovers and develops many new workers.
7. It promotes acquaintance of canvassers with the congregation and with the community.
8. It often reclaims lapsed members of the congregation.
9. It stimulates church attendance.
10. It avoids multiplied appeals for money from the pulpit.
11. It is an invaluable spiritual inspiration to the canvassers and to the congregation.

—Selected.

KICKERS

* * *

It has been facetiously said that the only proper place for a kicker is on the football field. A popular slogan is: "Boost, Don't Kick." The idea embodied in these expressions is born of the fact that kickers and knockers, in the general acceptation of the term, are generally mere fault finders and destructive critics. Their kicks are all too frequently ill-tempered and injudiciously expressed.

But the fact remains that, if the kick be administered in the right direction, forward and upward, and if it be inspired by a well-considered judgment and a real desire to help, the kicker is serving a useful purpose. Indeed every group of constructive leaders against wrong and injustice is composed of the progressive type of men and women.

It is probable that every church has among its membership a few who have earned for themselves the unfortunate distinction of being regarded as kickers, with all its

Bell Telephone Notary Public for Pennsylvania
Commissioner of Deeds for New York and New Jersey

J. L. Atkinson & SON
(J. POWELL ATKINSON)
Conveyancers and Real Estate Brokers
1400 MOYAMENSING AVENUE
Near Third and Reed Sts.

Houses Bought, Sold, Rented and Exchanged
Deeds, Wills and Legal Instruments Skillfully Drawn
All Kinds of Insurance Effected

J. RHEA CRAIG, JR.
Realtor and Conveyancer
Building Associations 3d and Tasker Sts.

William F. Englehart, Jr.
Watches and Diamonds
112 S. THIRTEENTH STREET
Established 1831 Philadelphia

Bell Phone, Oregon 3806
I. EDWARD MARSDEN
HARDWARE
1718-20 South Second Street

GEO. L. WELLS, INC.
WHOLESALE
MEATS, PROVISIONS AND POULTRY
QUALITY
402-404 N. SECOND STREET
PHILADELPHIA

Bell, Jackson 6347 Hot Buns, 5 P. M.
Andrew A. Friesdorf
Fancy Cakes and Ice Cream Wedding Cakes a Specialty
1713 SOUTH SECOND STREET

unpopular significance. And to the extent that they merely complain of conditions which do not please them, they deserve the appellation. But if their protests are based on thoughtful consideration of real facts, and if they be made in the proper quarter, in good temper, and in a willing and loyal spirit of helpfulness, they are a most valuable asset to the church. They are not kickers, they are real boosters.

The man who merely has a grievance to air invites inattention if not opposition. But the man with a thoughtful suggestion, designed to be helpful, is entitled to a considerate hearing and usually gets it. Therefore, kick, if conditions warrant it. But kick in the right spirit, and in the right direction, and at the right time, and to the right person. Such kicking is helpful and might well be given a less unpopular name.

Broadcasting From Laughland

* * *

We go to church according to our whims,
And so the flippant thought to me occurs
That women go because they like the hymns,
Just as men go to mingle with the hers.

Employer—"I have called you in, Brown, to say that when I am not here you are the laziest man in the office." Boston Transcript.

"You never can tell. Even those who have blind faith should keep one eye on the devil."

Schoolmaster—"How it is you've written only ten lines on milk when the others have done pages?"

Pupil—"I wrote mine on condensed milk, Sir."—Passing Show.

"So your husband has been deceiving you, eh?"

"Yes, the wretch! I used to give him five cents for his carfare every day, and I found out that he's been walking to work and spending the money."—Pathfinder.

"Salvation is free," quoted the good deacon.

"Yes, if it were only 98 cents marked down from a dollar it would probably be more popular," suggested the unregenerate backslider.

Lot's wife was no sooner turned into a pillar of salt than he started looking around for a fresh wife.—Life.

"My father's a doctor, so I can be sick for nothing."

"Well, mine's a preacher, so I can be good for nothing!"—Old Maid.

GILES' DRUG STORE

Full Line of
Cameras, Kodaks
and Supplies
Special Price on Albums

We Develop and Print Pictures and Enlargements

Second & Federal Streets

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)
FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

E. BOWEN & SON
1018 South Second Street
(Above Washington Avenue)

FRITZ & LA RUE, Inc.
Oriental and Domestic Rugs
1615 CHESTNUT STREET

KATHRYN'S
OWN MAKE
CHOCOLATES - CANDIES
1735 South Second Street

Pedestrian—"What's the shortest way to the emergency hospital?"

Cop—"Just stand right where you are."—Wright Engine Builder.

A delver into such matters says there are only seven original jokes, the first of which unquestionably is, "I am through with girls forever."—Detroit News.

He had just hung out his shingle. That morning a stranger entered. The doctor asked to be excused as he hurried to the phone.

Taking down the receiver he said: "Yes, this is Dr. Whoosit. Yes, I will be ready for you at two-ten this afternoon. But please be prompt for I am very busy. Two hundred dollars? Yes, that was the estimate I gave you."

Hanging up the receiver, he turned to the stranger, and, rubbing his hands, asked: "Now, sir, what can I do for you?"

"Nothing," replied the stranger, quietly. "I only came in to connect the telephone."

One of our readers who is a teacher of public school music sends us the following pearl of wisdom from one of her class: "The function of the bass drum in the orchestra is to drown out the mistakes of the rest of the orchestra!"

As Bunthorne says: "Is it, and can it be?"

About a year ago a traveling salesman was accosted on Chestnut street by a young man, well dressed, but badly in need of tonsorial attention, with the request: "Say, buddy, give me a quarter. I've just come in from Bridgeport to take a position I've landed, but I want to make a good impression the first day on the job." When queried as to whether he had had breakfast, he said: "No, but I only want a quarter to get a shave." The salesman finally gave him a dollar, for which he was duly thanked. Recently this salesman on a trip to Detroit was greeted with the same request and recognized the fellow as the same one whom he had befriended before. "Say, didn't you ask me the same thing a year ago in Philadelphia?" The reply quite took his breath. "Yes, that was the first time I used it, and it went over so well that I've been using it ever since.—Reporter's Nosegay.

Philadelphia heat and the modern furniture which is being shown at so many of the department stores do not

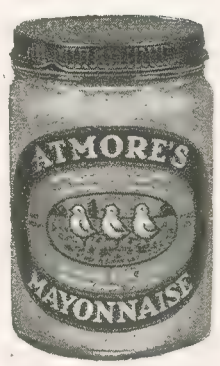
PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881 'SAY IT WITH FLOWERS Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R
FRANK C. QUINN
...FLORIST...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.



Atmore's Creamy Mayonaise
For Salads, Sandwiches, Meats—the crowning touch of good taste!
Made by the makers of the famous ATMORE'S MINCE MEAT
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 Tasker St. Phila.
Founded 1842

Palms Furnished With Family Trade

Wedding Bouquets a Specialty

Christopher Strobel

FLORIST

1435 South Second Street

Phone: Lombard 3928

FUNERAL DESIGNS FRESH CUT FLOWERS DAILY

TIN, SLATE
COPPER
ASBESTOS SHINGLES

PIPE AND
PIPELESS
HEATERS

P. MECKLING
Roofing and Heating
CONTRACTOR

1818 DALY STREET

Bell, Jackson 2423
PHILADELPHIA

Keystone—Main 4644 Bell—Lombard 0356

G. J. ACTON

General Automobile Repairing

AUTOCAR A SPECIALTY

Mechanical Electrical Welding

1238-1240 SOUTH SECOND STREET

FRED R. KELLER, Ph. G.

DRUGGIST

1812 South Fourth St., Cor. McClellan.

H. D. REESE, Inc.

Meats Poultry Cheese

1208 ARCH STREET

Philadelphia

GEORGE K. CRAIG

Dealer in

Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay

Third and Tasker Streets

Alfalfa Molasses Feeds Both Phones

CHOIR ENTERTAINMENT

Saturday, September Twenty-Ninth

Card of Admission Twenty-five Cents

Proceeds to Meet the Choir's Pledge to the Bishop's Campaign Fund

mix, according to the opinion of a recent visitor to the city. The gentleman who had risen from a lowly position to that of near millionaire by his own efforts had done so in spite of a lack of so-called polish and appreciation of finer things. When he was taken by his wife and educated daughter to one of the modern furniture exhibitions sheer boredom and heat caused him to doze off in one of the modern chairs. He slept soundly and awoke with no comprehension of his whereabouts. His startled gaze lit successively upon a grotesque marble or composition table and upon a dignified clerygyman who occuped a chair by his side. "Do you see that snake?" he inquired, pointing a shaking finger at the leg of a weird table. The cleric nodded. "What color is it?" asked the self-made one. "It is green and white with a red head," his companion informed him. The near-millionaire sniffed the air suspiciously and the lack of that taint he had expected to find in the atmosphere caused him to struggle to his feet and stare wide-eyed at the minister. "You got a great town here, reverend," he announced, "and some heat! Why, back in Janesville, where I come from, it would cost even a minister $100 worth o' bootleg to see one o' them there snakes!"

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 11 PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER, 1928. By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt

Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Rebecca McKeown
Mrs. May Hopkins
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Anna Warren
Miss Margaret Kensil

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Mr. George Cressee, Jr, Men's Bible Class
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director
Vernon Matthews, Vice Director
Edward Proffitt, Secretary
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Philip Mecklin, Treasurer

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John L. Kay, Scoutmaster.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Boy Scouts Troop		8:00
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Diamond, David Cresson
Dougherty, James Henry
MacAdams, Viola Dorothy
Morse, Julia Annie
Munion, Robert Jett

BURIALS

Abbott, Ella
Colladay, James L.
Garson, Leonard Michael
Hanna, Anna
Jackson, Josephine
Miller, Mary A.
Pinkerton, Sarah E.

MARRIAGES

William Morrison and Frances Carbarnes

The Mission of The Transfiguration

* * *

In the Extremely Hot Months of June, July and August, While Others Played, We Toiled Laborously.

* * *

Now we can sit down and heave a deep sigh of relief. Since January 1 'til now we have known what it means to be really busy. On that date the Chapel of the Transfiguration started on its journey over the waste lands of South Philadelphia, from Stonehouse and Stampers lanes to its new site at Seventh and Bigler streets. The distance is only about four city blocks but it took three and a half months to make the trip. At last, about the middle of April, it was settled on its new site but much the worse for moving. It resembled a huge and badly damaged dry goods box more than it did a chapel. Many of the windows were smashed, the doors were warped and badly splintered, the belfry was knocked off the roof and destroyed, the church bell got mislaid, all the screens were demolished, several boards were ripped off the sides of the chapel, the roof leaked in a hundred spots, the leaks had ruined the walls and ceiling; and as there was no city improvements extending that far south in Philadelphia the Chapel was stranded on a dump, a near wreck and useless. For once in our life we knew the meaning of despair. To tackle, single-handed, the job of repairing that building and putting it in fit condition for divine worship made our heart miss a beat every time we thought of it. We knew, however, our reputation as an organizer and a missionary was more or less at stake and that we did not dare to even dream of failure. So we screwed up our courage as tight as we could and went at the job, praying for a miracle to happen.

First we made application to the proper authorities at the City Hall for permits to open up Seventh street and also Bigler street for the purpose of laying pipes for water, sewage and gas. Next we made application to the U. G. I. and the Electric Company for service. The Gas Company rejected our application until we would guarantee to pay half the expense of running a gas main from the nearest source of supply to the Chapel, which meant the outlay of $125 for the Chapel. Then the Electric Company refused service until we ripped out the old wiring, which they said was defective, and re-wire the building; which, of course, we did. We then engaged a carpenter to reset the windows, replace all the boards that had been ripped off the Chapel, build new toilet rooms on each side of the building, re-glaze the windows, tear out the rotten wood work caused by the melting snow and soaking rains of the winter, make new screens and doors, repair the interior of the Chapel, build new front steps and erect a new belfry. He spent over four weeks at steady work making the repairs. Following the carpenter, came the plumber and electrician. The plumber installed two sets of toilets and the gas heating system. The electrician did the rewiring of the building and the installing of the meter. Then came the roofer who tore off all the old roof and replaced it with an entirely new roof. Then came the painter who painted every part of the building, inside and out. Then came the bucket and broom brigade and after they had removed all the furniture from the Chapel they scrubbed and swept and wiped and scoured and polished everything that was dirty—the floors, the windows, the walls, etc. Some overly curious person counted and declared it took 60 buckets of water to get rid of the dirt. All the furniture, including the chairs, closets, organ, altar, prayer stools, lectern, pulpit, etc., were oiled and rubbed and polished 'til they reflected like mirrors. When everybody got through with his particular job you would never have recognized the old Chapel, it looked so brand new.

While superintending these many activities we occupied our spare time making a survey of the neighborhood so as to get a line on what we might expect to work upon in the future. We found that the deeper we dug the richer the soil. It did not take many days of visiting to realize we had chosen an ideal spot to locate the Mission. Before we reopened the Chapel we were convinced that the future prospects for its success went far beyond our dreams.

On Sunday, May 27—just five months after the Chapel had been removed from Stonehouse lane—we celebrated our reopening. At the morning service there were present 39 persons. The Sunday School attendance was 34 scholars and 32 persons attended the Evening Service. Part of the Evening Service was held in the dark because the Electric Company had failed to give us service.

From reopening Sunday up to this present writing the prospects of the Mission have grown steadily brighter. Again the work is thoroughly organized and the following societies have been created, all of which are extremely active and fully attended.

Parish Organizations

Woman's Auxiliary—President, Mrs. George Pelter; membership, 22.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew—Director, John Wesley; membership, 12.

Young People's Fellowship—Director, Benjamin Dill; membership, 11.

Sunday School—Superintendent, John Wesley; Assistant Superintendent, Hartley McAdams; average, 34.

Girls' Club—Director, Virginia Pelter; membership, 19.

Men's Club—Director, John Wesley; membership, 14.

Boys' Club—Director, John Pelter; membership, 15.

Our Lay Missionary submitted the following report for the month of August:

Families attached to the Mission..... 67
Families unattached and good prospects..... 26
Contacts through visiting and advertising.....450

To this, as Missionary-in-charge, we wish to report that since May 27 there have been held

Sunday Morning Services and Addresses	18
Sunday School Sessions	14
Sunday Evening Services and Addresses	18
Christenings	4
Burials	1
Celebrations of the Holy Communion	4

The average Sunday attendance since May 27, including all services, was 68 persons.

Furthermore, a Confirmation Class is in the process of being prepared and is ready to be presented to the Bishop.

The visits of our Lay Missioner are having telling effects on the community. He reports this morning he has several candidates for baptism awaiting our next visit and most of them are adults.

These visits are augmented by a lively advertising scheme which is bringing results. During August alone 200 semi-monthly notices were mailed in the neighborhood and 1000 church notices distributed where they would do the most good.

Indeed, God hath wrought abundantly. Our despair has been turned into joy and now we are dreaming of the day to come when this little Chapel, which crossed the wasteland from there to here, will gradually change in form and size 'til we behold in its place a strong and independent church and parish.

One thing we lack and that one thing we must have. It is a

A NEW PARISH HOUSE

Confirmation at the Transfiguration Mission

* * *

The Chapel was midway between Stonehouse and Stampers lanes and Seventh and Bigler streets in its journey across the dumps of South Philadelphia last February, when the Mission should have had its annual Confirmation service. Under such conditions it was, of course, impossible to have the service. In order that we would have a class to present before the end of 1928, we worked hard the whole summer—visiting, teaching, exhorting, christening and doing a score of other things to make a Confirmation Service possible. We succeeded in our undertaking and on Sunday afternoon, September 23, Bishop Garland visited the Mission and confirmed a class of 19 men and women, boys and girls.

We are sorry the whole diocese could not be present at that service. We would like all churchmen to see for themselves the mighty work the Holy Spirit is doing in South Philadelphia.

After the service we had a photograph taken of the class and congregation together with Bishop Garland, Mr. John Wesley, Lay Missionary and the Missionary-in-Charge. We are selling copies of this photograph to whoever will buy. The proceeds are to go towards the building fund of the Parish House. The price of the photo is 75 cents and can be purchased from the Lay Missionary or Mrs. Pelter. This photo is bound to become valuable, because it will be the only picture of the first Confirmation Class of the Mission since it was reorganized at the southwest corner of Seventh and Bigler streets. It will be a special sort of pride to the members of the Confirmation Class.

Place your order for the photo now.

The Price Must Accompany Your Order. No Photo Will Be Ordered Unless the Money Is Paid First.

Our Second 1928 Confirmation Class

* * *

Three Months Ago We Presented of 77 Candidates. A Few Who Could Not Be Confirmed Then Are Ready Now.

* * *

Perhaps the most inspiring experience of our career came to us in the heat of the summer. It was occasioned by the amazing activity of the members of the Daughters of the King, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and the untiring efforts of Miss Hannah Nuttall, Parish Visitor, who took no vacation this summer. During June, July, August and September the two societies never missed a weekly meeting. And at these meetings they planned all sorts of aggressive methods to gather in those who should have been confirmed and such who in the meantime desired to be.

We happened to be closer to the work of the Brotherhood and were astonished at the summer activity of its members. Nearly every man reported each week that he visited at night one or more men and boys in the parish since the last meeting. Some weeks the reported visits mounted as high as twenty-nine. In every case the visiting member would give the name and address of the person visited and incidents of the visits, a proceeding that made the weekly meetings intensely interesting and very enjoyable. As to the attendance, the members themselves expressed surprise over the way the majority of members were present every week. The result of such interest naturally reacted upon the parish and many a man and boy had been either restored or added to the membership of the Church. The male attendants at Sunday morning and evening service and at the Holy Communion was greatly augmented, which was a most impressive demonstration of the man power of the parish.

As it was with the Brotherhood of St. Andrew so was it with the Daughters of the King. And the culmination of all this summer activity was the need of a second Confirmation in the parish. In response to our request Bishop Garland appointed Sunday evening, September 23, for the service at which time we presented 39 candidates.

As Bishop Garland is most popular in St. John's Parish there was naturally an unusually large congregation present to greet him.

We are deeply moved by such a demonstration of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon our parish and we pray earnestly that the Revival that has begun in the parish will gather strength and grow and grow 'til the whole parish shall be submerged in a great spiritual awakening.

Let Us Pray Earnestly for a Wealth of Souls This Year.

The Woman's Auxiliary

* * *

The First Fall Meeting Was Most Enthusiastic.

* * *

The first fall meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of St. John the Evangelist was held on Wednesday evening, September 12. We opened our meeting with hymns and prayers. A portion of the Scripture was read by Miss Marian Bruch. There were forty members present. The Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and the Treasurer's Report was given as $20.99.

Each Committee Chairwoman was requested to choose four additional members for their respective committees and send their names to the secretary before the October meeting.

A letter was read in reference to our "Blue Boxes." Mr. McHenry gave us a short talk explaining the significance and importance of "The United Thank Offerings." A special meeting will be held on Monday, October 1, primarily to take in 100 per cent. of our Blue Boxes.

Our Sick Committee was asked to look up all sick members of the parish and report such to the Rector.

The Bazaar of 1928 was discussed as new business. All members were asked to get "on the job." Miss Fisher was appointed "chief solicitor." We feel that Miss Fisher fits her position admirably."

Mrs. Lillian Pine reported that she had received thus far $16.85 for the United Thank Offering.

Refreshments were served and dues collected.

The meeting was then adjourned.

MARGARET A. RUTTER,
Secretary.

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

What a Rally Day!

* * *

The day was warm and moist but that made no difference to the dyed-in-the-wool St. Johnites.

* * *

The Sunday evening congregations keep growing.

Everybody seems pleased with the reorganization of the Sunday School.

* * *

The Parish had the pleasure of the Bishop's presence Sunday evening, September 23. He is the one whom the whole parish delights to honor.

* * *

Our second Confirmation Class was a surprise to the whole parish. This brings the number of Confirmations for the year up to 116.

* * *

We congratulate the MISSION OF THE TRANSFIGURATION for their splendid Confirmation Class.

* * *

Pay Up All Your Summer Envelopes Now!

* * *

We had such a good time in our Summer Bible School that we were sorry to give it up and go back to our Sunday School.

* * *

What would you think of the Rector if he were late at every service?

* * *

Answer These Questions:

a. While on your vacation did you try as hard to get to the movies?
b. Which got the most of your money this year—the movies or the church?
c. Did you stop paying your church dues during the summer so you would have more to spend on your vacation?
d. Did you spend the summer week-ends to the glory of God and the refreshment of your souls; or did you forget all about your spiritual obligations and fail to keep holy the Sabbath Day?
e. Have you returned from your vacation as much strengthened and refreshed in mind and spirit as you are in body?
f. Did you receive the Holy Communion regularly while away?
g. Did you spend as much time in prayer as you ought?
h. Did you set a Christian example to the vacationists you were with?
i. Did anybody go home uplifted by your Christlike example?

Answer me these questions and I will tell you how much good your vacation did you.

* * *

Mr. Delinquent: Pay Up Your Pledge to the Bishop's Campaign Fund

---

WANTED

For inside and outside work for the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Third and Reed streets, males and females of any age to qualify as GO-OPERATORS Previous experience or reference unnecessary. Apply at the church at any time. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Mrs. Caroline Bender

* * *

It is about time something was said about the women of St. John's splendid staff of workers.

There are many who deserve special mention for their interest and enthusiasm. From these many we have chosen Mrs. Caroline Bender because she is such a good type of the others. She is not very robust in health; neither is she possessed of a super-abundance of the world's goods. But she has that which so many Christians lack, i. e., a will to do cheerfully whatever she is able to do. As a Daughter of the King she is faithful to her pledge. She was most helpful in raising the Sunday School Lenten Offering this year and she has proven herself a sympathetic visitor to the sick. She carries sunshine wherever she goes and sheds its rays upon all she meets.

Brotherhood Chapter, No. 2612

* * *

New Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew Instituted at the Mission of the Transfiguration.

* * *

On Friday evening, September 14, the members of Chapter 717, Brotherhood of St. Andrew of the Parish of St. John the Evangelist, visited the Mission of the Transfiguration to assist the men of the Mission in installing the charter members of Chapter No. 2612, which had just been organized at the Mission. It was a most inspiring service. Miss Virginia Pelter very kindly volunteered to play the organ for the men and a number of the women of the Mission attended the service and helped in the singing. The Missionary-in-charge officiated and the Director of St. John's Brotherhood, Mr. Charles Little, assisted. After a brief service, consisting of a hymn, Creed, Lord's Prayer, Singing, Scripture Lesson and Hymn, Mr. Little called the Roll of the new Chapter. As each man's name was called he arose and was escorted to the Chancel by a member of St. John's Chapter. After they were lined up, with the St. John's members in the rear, Mr. Little introduced them to the Missionary-in-charge, who proceeded to install them according to the service printed on page 98 of the Brotherhood Hand-Book. After the new members received ttheir buttons, membership cards and hand-books, the Missionary-in-charge addressed the meeting on the work on the Patron Saint of the Brotherhood. He emphasized briefly the following points: (a) St. Andrew was first a disciple of St. John the Baptist. (b) Upon St. John announcing the Messiahship of the Master, St. Andrew unhesitatingly became a disciple of Jesus Christ. (c) His first act of discipleship was to go and dwell and talk with Jesus Christ. (d) His second act was to go and tell Simon Peter the news and introduce him to the Master. (e) It turned out that the act of St. Andrew was most important. He brought to Jesus the man who was destined to be the leader of the new church.

Application of the incident was made thus: (a) Every man is more or less a hero worshipper and is influenced by another personality, which is good for him if that dominant personality is a good man. (b) Every man sooner or later meets Jesus Christ in his life. At that point it is his duty to unhesitatingly give his allegiance to him and go and learn as much as he possibly can about Jesus Christ—through prayers, reading the Scriptures, in the Sacraments, in quiet meditation. (c) After he has become PERSONALLY acquainted with Jesus Christ he should follow St. Andrew's example and go and tell another man about finding the Messiah and bring him to Jesus Christ. (d) Who knows? The man you introduce to Jesus Christ may prove to be another Simon Peter!

In conclusion the Missionary-in-charge gave a few brief suggestions as to HOW men can bring other men to Jesus Christ, stressing the thought that there must be the same naturalness in inviting men into the Church as men use in inviting men to join a club or a lodge. And remember—YOU CAN'T WIN MEN WITH CANT.

After the address, the service was brought to a close with a hymn, prayers and Benediction.

Broadcasting From Laughland

* * *

Daughter—"Dad, I want some money for my trousseau."

Father—"But, my dear child, I didn't even know you were engaged."

Daughter—"Good heavens, father! Don't you ever read the papers."—Selected.

* * *

Pat—"Why air y'awearing so many coats on a blistering day the loike o' this?"

Mike (carrying a paint can)—"Oi'm goin' t'paint the fence, byjabbers, an' it says here, it says, 'T'obtain the best results put on three coats.'"

* * *

"I envy the jelly fish. He has no spine, hence no backaches; no brain, hence no headaches; no teeth, hence no toothaches. What more does any poor fish want?"—Nellie Revell.

* * *

"Who invented swimming?"

"Two Scotchmen who came to a toll bridge."

The wood alcohol addict was fumbling around at the base of a lamp-post one night when an officer stepped up and said:

"Look's if you'd lost something."

"Yes, lost sheventy-fi' shents."

"Lost it right here, I suppose."

"No-o-o-o-o! Losh it half a block f'm here."

"Then why are you hunting here for it?"

"On'y plash'e any light."—Anon.

* * *

As Pat boarded the train and took a seat there was a smile of triumph upon his face.

A friend turned to him and remarked, "What great joy has come to you, Pat?"

Pat's countenance beamed satisfaction. "Shure, Oi've bin ridin' on this road fer tin years and Oi got the best of the company for once in me loife."

"How's that?" asked the friend.

"Oi've jist bought meself a round-trip ticket, bejabbers, an' Oi ain't acomin' back."

* * *

Lily—"So yo' done mortgaged our li'l home?"

Mose—"Jes temp'rarily, honey, till de mortgage am fo-closed.—U. C. R. News.

* * *

Customer—"I want some powder to kill roaches."

Clerk—"Will you take it with you?"

Customer—"No, I'll have the roaches call, and you can rub it on their little tummies."—Unknown.

* * *

"What's de name of dis infant?" demanded the colored parson.

"Her name am Opium Bryant," was the reply.

"Opium ain't no fit name fo' a gal," he protested.

"Well, it fits dis gal," said the mother. "Fo' day say opium comes from de wil' poppy, and dis chil's poppy shure am wil'."

* * *

Said one man—"I know a man who writes a very small hand to save ink."

Said another—"A friend of my father stops the clock at nights to save wear and tear on it."

Said another—"Your men are spendthrifts. I know an old Scotchman who won't read a newspaper for fear of wearing out his glasses."

* * *

We are better physical and social beings for observing (in repose) the Lord's day.—Selected.

* * *

The rain comes pelting down, and through
The sun begins to shine again!
Though one day trouble comes along,
The next we sing a cheerful song.
And when it all is understood
The greater part of life is good.

IN MEMORIAM

In Loving Memory of Our Son and Brother

James A. Sweeney

Aged 5 Years, 2 Months

Died Sept. 9th, 1926

Dearly Loved by His Daddy,
His Mother and His Sister

Anna S. Loughrey

Died Sept. 20th, 1926

AT REST

The Rector as a Reference

* * *

Do Not Use Him as Such Unless Your Church Record Is Clear

* * *

This morning we received in our mail a communication from a prominent business firm marked, "PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL." Inside was a questionnaire as to the standing and reputation of a certain individual who had made application to them for a certain job and had given our name as a reference. As the applicant's church record is far from being clear there was only one thing we could do under the circumstances and that was to tell the truth and let the firm use its own judgment in employing the applicant.

The incident is by no means an exception. Over and over again we receive such letters from local firms. It is good psychology for an applicant to use the Rector's name as reference in applying for a job. Every business firm has an abiding faith in the integrity of a rector's recomdation and accepts his word as sufficient guarantee for the applicant's character. So it ought to be. And so it shall be so far as we are personally concerned. And it is our determination to protect that faith in our integrity though the heavens fall. Therefore we are issuing this warning to all—if your record is not clear do not use us as a reference in making application for a job. If you do we will do you more harm than good because we are sworn to tell the truth and protect the firm who makes an inquiry.

On the other hand it always gives pleasure to the

GEORGE K. CRAIG

Dealer in

Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay

Third and Tasker Streets

Alfalfa Molasses Feeds Both Phones

Answer: The Church in the United States was planted here by the Church of England, and fostered by her care until the American Revolution made it necessary for the Church of this country to have an independent government. The Church in this country is therefore the daughter and lineal descendant of the Church of England, having the same doctrine, ministry and form of worship.

ARE YOU DELINQUENT?

* * *

The Fair Name of the Parish Is in Danger of Being Tarnished by Members Who Fail to Keep Their Pledges

* * *

Some weeks ago your rector received from Bishop Garland's office a list of parishioners who are delinquent in meeting their pledge to the Bishop's Campaign Fund. The Bishop realizes of course that since these pledges were made the problems of unemployment have thrust themselves upon many of our parishioners. But we cannot repudiate our solemn pledge to our Bishop on that account entirely. What we must do is to make whatever adjustments we can in order to show the Bishop that our pledge was honestly made and will be honestly kept. We have directed Miss Fisher and Miss Nuttall to take the Bishop's list of delinquents and call upon them for the purpose of making plans for easy payments until the sum so long overdue is raised.

We cannot afford to lose the good opinion of our Bishop. He has been too kind a friend to us in all our struggles for us to be indifferent to our promises to him. For this reason we appeal to all delinquents to make a special effort to meet their obligations to the BISHOP'S CAMPAIGN FUND.

Sick? Want to Get Well?

* * *

Some True Stories About Remarkable Cures

* * *

Every patent medicine advertisement has its testimonials supposed to be written by certain folk who have been cured by the drug. Trouble with these testimonials, however, is they are generally written by people who live so far away that we never bother to learn from them whether their stories are true or false.

The testimonials we are going to submit to you are from people you know. In every case you remember they were very sick and you know, too, they have been cured and are well today.

Our remedy is never failing when properly administered, and it will cure any sickness man is heir to. Our first testimonial is from one who is known by everybody in St. John's Parish. Her name is Mrs. May Hopkins (nee Pine). She had just returned from her honeymoon when she was laid low by pneumonia. She was not expected to live. The attack was most acute. She had very little vital stamina to fight the disease. The rector was urged to come to her bedside without delay and give her Communion. He hurried to her and found the family in a state of panic. The doctor had forbidden any person in her room except the one nursing her and the rector. Her recovery was most doubtful. But we did not despair. We applied our never failing remedy with such success that today she is not only absolutely cured with no trace of any dread after-effects, but she is in better health than ever she was before, and looks to be the happy bride we believe she is.

But the remedy, you say, what is it?

Ah, that's the thing! It is not a new drug. In fact, it is very, very old. It is not at all rare. It can be got without costing you a cent. It is not a patent medicine or a secret prescription. It is a remedy you all know. It is not dangerous or poisonous. You can take it in big doses, before breakfast, between meals, before dinner, every hour in the afternoon, before supper and all night long before you retire. We ministered to Mrs. Stenger, who lives across the street from May, and she got well. We ministered it to a woman eighty-eight years old, who was supposed to be on her deathbed and she got well. We used it upon a member of the City Mission staff, whom the doctors and nurses gave up and who was so near her end that a telegram was sent to her mother to come at once that her daughter was not expected to live, and she got well. We used it on a friend of ours who underwent a very serious operation and he got well. We used it on a young woman who was told by her doctor she had incipient tuberculosis and she is fine. We have just got through using it on another patient who has been seriously ill and today we noticed she had no more symptoms of her trouble.

Our wonderful remedy is Prayer. Take, for instance, May's case. We would not give her up but began to pray earnestly for God to cure her and to send her guardian angel to nurse her. Her physician, who is a Godly man, mixed all his prescriptions with prayer. The whole Parish prayed for her. The rector prayed for her every day. The choir, of which she is a prominent member, prayed for her after rehearsal. Individuals all over the Parish remembered her in their devotions. Folks who had almost forgotten how to pray prayed for her.

And God answered our prayer so suddenly, so swiftly, so completely, that we were dumbfounded. In thirteen days she was up and about. In three weeks she was in church giving thanks to God for her wonderful recovery.

Was she very sick? Ask her doctor.

HONEST NOW

* * *

Am I really and truly interested in my church—in helping it achieve its objects and ideals—or do I just think I am? What do I do to prove my interest—that it's half

Rector to recommend any parishioner in good standing for a position. All such have our cordial consent to use us as reference with the assurance that we will do our part in helping them land a job.

In closing we would like to ask those who used us as a reference in the past, and landed a permanent job through our recommendation, if they think they are playing the game in ignoring their duty to the church after receiving such substantial, material and financial benefit from it? Does it not occur to all such that we can do you good spiritually as well as materially. If you ever lose the job the Rector helped you get what are you going to do about obtaining another? Will you use him again as a reference? Better not, unless you qualify.

Our Fall Opening

* * *

It Was One of the Greatest Parochial Rallies in the History of the Parish.

* * *

Sunday, September 15, marked the re-opening of all the parochial activities. We changed from our summer schedule of services back to the regular time. Generally we look for rather a poor showing on the first Sunday of the change; however, we received a real surprise in the size of our congregation and Sunday School. If anything, the morning service was better attended than it is in mid-season. The scholars of the Sunday School came out 153 strong. The meeting of the St. John's Fellowship was far better attended than it has been for months, and the interest and enthusiasm were exceptional. The evening service was attended by an even hundred persons. Folks who came late to church told us they could hear the congregation singing clear down to Dickinson street. It was a wonderful fall opening and we are looking for an unusually active year.

Let's All Get on Our Jobs and Stick

Go-Operators, Not Co-Operators

In many organizations nearly every member is a real co-operator, but only a few are go-operators.

The best bunch of team-workers in the country may all be co-operators—co-operators to kill time or get by.

Give an organization a few go-operators and there will soon be more co-operators.

So I say, remember to reward the go-operators and retire the co-operators who are in collusion with cheats.—Silent Partner.

The Daughters of the King

As most of our readers know, is purely a religious order and is attempting to develop the spiritual life of the parish. Notwithstanding this fact, it endeavors to be helpful in a practical way, not only in the parish but also in the diocese and the church at large. While it cannot do

Hallowe'en Decorations

Masks, Novelties and Favors for Hallowe'en Parties

Dennison's Crepe Paper for Decorations for All Occasions

GILES' DRUG STORE

Second & Federal Streets

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

E. BOWEN & SON

1018 South Second Street

(Above Washington Avenue)

FRITZ & LA RUE, Inc.

Oriental and Domestic Rugs

1615 CHESTNUT STREET

KATHRYN'S
OWN MAKE
CHOCOLATES - CANDIES
1735 South Second Street

any work to raise funds through its weekly dues (10 cents a week) considerable is done.

First, one dollar a year per capita paid to the National Council of the Order. Second, fifteen cents a year per capita is paid to the Local Assembly. Third, it contributes to the Master's Fund and the Self-Denial Fund of the Order for missionary purposes. Fourth, it takes its place among the other organizations of the Parish in contributing to the Coal Fund and Christmas and Easter Offerings.

Last, but by no means least, its pledge of $30 a year to the Bishop's Fund is not only paid up to date but is usually a few months in advance.

The Daughters of the King, while it is a spiritual Order, is also a very practical one, and is a living demonstration of what sacrifice can do in supporting the parish, the diocese and the missionary work of the Church.

"How Readest Thou?"

It is one thing to read the Bible through,
Another thing to read to learn to do.
Some read it as their duty once a week,
But no instruction from the Bible seek;
Some read to bring themselves into repute
By showing others how they can dispute;
While others read because their neighboors do
To see how long 'twill take to read it through.
Some read it for the wonders that are there—
How David killed a lion and a bear;
While others read it with uncommon care,
Hoping to find some contradictions there.
One reads with father's specs upon his head,
And sees the thing just as his father said.
Some read to prove a preadopted creed;
Hence understand but little that they read,
For every passage in the book they bend
To make it suit that all-important end.
Some people read as I have often thought,
To teach the book instead of being taught;
And some there are who read it out of spite—
I fear there are but few who read it right.
So many people in these latter days
Have read the Bible in so many ways
That few can tell which system is the best,
For every party contradicts the rest.
But read it prayerfully, and you will see,
Although men contradict, God's words agree;
For what the early Bible prophets wrote,
We find that Christ and His apostles quote;
So trust no creed that trembles to recall
What has been penned by one and verified by all.

—Selected.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET
Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881 SAY IT WITH FLOWERS Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R
FRANK C. QUINN
...FLORIST...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

If You Want—
Delicious Mince Pies
USE
Atmore's Extra Fancy
MINCE MEAT
Or, You May Prefer
Atmore's Plum Pudding
Ask Your Grocer for Both
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 TASKER ST. Founded 1842

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 12 PHILADELPHIA, NOVEMBER, 1928 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt

Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Rebecca McKeown
Mrs. May Hopkins
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Anna Warren
Miss Margaret Kensil

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Mr. George Cressee, Jr, Men's Bible Class
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director
Vernon Matthews, Vice Director
Edward Proffitt, Secretary
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Philip Mecklin, Treasurer

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John L. Kay, Scoutmaster.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Boy Scouts Troop		8:00
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Armstrong, Edward Thomas
Lawrence, James Albert
Llewellyn, William Lee
Baxter, James Joseph
Statsenberg, Madelaine
Statsenberg, Daisy Mae
Long, Margaret
McFetridge, Margaret
McFetridge, Lillie
Schwab, August Henry

BURIALS

Holt, Margaret Catherine
Blough, Harold
Lawrence, Jessie

THE RED CROSS

An Organization With a Divine Purpose,

The American National Red Cross is an organization chartered by the Congress of the United States. The Chief Executive of the nation is its president. Distinguished American citizens are members of its board.

The Red Cross assists disabled veterans and their families.

In time of flood, earthquake, epidemic, fire, etc., it provides emergency relief and then proceeds to build up adequate means of care and comfort until normal conditions prevail.

The Red Cross serves all the people, irrespective of race, politics or religion. Hence the Red Cross makes its appeal for support to all people.

Your membership helps to continue local, national and international Red Cross service. The dollar membership makes it possible for all to join. The society is working for 5,000,000.

WILL YOU WEAR A RED CROSS BUTTON?

The Woman's Auxiliary

Here we are again! But we just can't help it. Our meeting was such a happy one that we want to tell all the ladies about it who were unable to be with us.

As usual, we opened the meeting with a hymn, the Creed, prayers and a portion of the Scriptures. That's one of the main reasons why our Auxiliary is a success. We have a system!

Then we had the Reading of the Minutes by our very efficient secretary who is so faithful in whatever she undertakes. Immediately after followed the report of our kind and gracious treasurer. She surely did give us all a big surprise. We had no idea our treasury would ever have so much money.

But then no wonder! There are now enrolled on the books 69 members and we had 68 present at our last evening.

Things are just humming about the Bazaar. Everybody is so enthusiastic. And the very nice part about it all is the splendid spirit of co-operation and understanding that exists among the members of the Auxiliary. That means success right from the start.

Now this next little paragraph is especially for all the members and friends of our Parish.

During the next few weeks someone will probably call upon you or stop you in church and ask, "Won't you give something to the Bazaar?" For the sake of old St. John's we ask you to give just as much as you possibly can and to give it cheerfully. It helps the person so much who is asking for a donation if folks will, "GIVE WITH A SMILE." And then after giving we want EVERYBODY to come to the Bazaar EVERY night. Let's make it a grand reunion. Isn't it just the nicest feeling to meet someone you haven't seen for sometime and have a little chat with them about old times and old friends? Then come to the Bazaar and you'll meet lots of old friends and new ones, too.

Goodness! We almost forgot the eats. Do you know that every night of the Bazaar there is served a most delicious supper by Mrs. Pine, who knows just about all there is to know about cooking. And that delicious supper only costs 40 cents!!!

Some of our good friends may think we are premature in all these arrangements, but, after all, when you consider the immense amount of work necessary to make our Bazaar a success, we are sure everyone will realize we will just about make it by December 6th, 7th and 8th.

Mrs. Frank Schmidt has been appointed in charge of the Bazaar by Mr. McHenry.

The next meeting of the Auxiliary is Monday, November 26th. We therefore issue a very special invitation to all the ladies of the parish who thus far have been unable to join our happy group to come on November 26th, and we feel sure you will enjoy yourself so much that you will keep right on coming to the

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The American Red Cross

is a permanent organization chartered by Congress to carry out the objects of the International Treaty of Geneva and other humanitarian purposes. In fulfillment of its obligations the Red Cross—

Supplements Government assistance to war veterans and their families; provides friendly service for men of the Army and Navy.

Provides relief and rehabilitation to ameliorate the distress of those stricken by disaster at home, and represents the people in extending aid in foreign catastrophes.

Maintains a reserve of nurses for Government and emergency duty.

Promotes and protects individual and community health and helps save human life through public health nursing, and instruction in home hygiene, care of the sick, life saving, first aid and nutrition.

Organizes and trains volunteer workers for conduct of its services.

Through the Junior Red Cross instills in the youth of the land principles of health and of unselfish service, and promotes international friendship.

The Red Cross receives no financial support from the Government. The scope and effectiveness of its service depend upon th measure of support given by the people through individual membership annually renewed. It is YOUR Red Cross—these are YOUR services.

One Year of Red Cross Activities

It Extends Relief to All Distressed, Regardless to Race, Color or Creed.

1. The Red Cross rendered aid in 22 foreign and 66 domestic disasters, including epidemics, earthquakes, shipwrecks, volcano eruptions, fires, floods, typhoons, tornadoes, famines and landslides.

2. Over 650,000 people were given aid in foreign disasters; over 700,000 were given aid in domestic disasters, making a total of 1,350,000.

3. Thirty-three States in the Union received assistance of the Red Cross in disaster relief.

4. $7,000,000 was spent for domestic disasters.

5. 56,558 service men and ex-service men and their families were helped monthly with their bonus, hospitalization and family problems.

6. Red Cross nurses made 1,099,733 home visits and inspected 874,218 children in schools during the year.

7. 39,986 students were graduated in Red Cross classes.

8. 122,386 children were instructed in nutrition.

9. 43,455 students were graduated in first-aid work.

10. 38,924 students were graduated in life-saving work.

11. 10,049 civilian families were assisted by Red Cross Home Service Workers.

WILL YOU WEAR A RED CROSS BUTTON?

Church of St. John the Evangelist
Confirmation Class

Armstrong, Charles Bruce
Boyce, Benjamin Franklin
Boyd, Emma Margaret
Capie, Annie Barbara
Carl, Clara Virginia
Collins, Alice Course
DeCosta, Margaret Maylie
Deitrich, Marie Augusta
Dougherty, James Henry
Grear, Samuel
Gregory, George Fox
Harvey, Sarah Caroline
Karstein, Lillian Kathryn
Karstein, Elizabeth Viola
Kroll, Charles Joseph
Kroll, Doris Mary
Lamprey, Laura May
Lis, Estella Frances
Mathieu, Pauline Estella
Morse, Julia Annie
Müller, Julia Margaret
Mullin, Josephine
Murphy, Sarah
McMullen, Eleanor Louise
Penrose, Raymond
Penrose, Agnes
Randolph, Ida Olive
Robins, Anna
Robinson, Caroline
Schweppenheiser, Mabel Clara
Schmidt, Laura Virginia
Smith, Mary
Smith, Dorothy Eaton
Stone, David Sylvester
Tittermary, William
Tweedy, Hanna
Tomlin, Frank
Watkin, Richard Howard
Wilson, Florence Virginia

Chapel of the Transfiguration
Confirmation Class

Abbott, James
Abbott, Lawrence
Bady, William
Bady, Margaret
Harvey, Violet
Lee, Eddie
Lee, George
Myers, Anna
Myers, Jennie
Myers, Mary
Myers, Margaret
Mitchell, William, Sr.
Mitchell, William, Jr.
McAvoy, John
McAvoy, William
Mason, Florence
Ralston, Helen
Shellew, Margaret
Shellew, Daisy Mae

Invest a Dollar

It Is the Cheapest Insurance Rate We Know

Think of it!

Only one dollar a year and we become members of the greatest insurance society in the world. We are not annoyed by physical examination and we are assured of ample financial and physical relief in time of great disaster. Our families, which otherwise would suffer a great hardship and probably perish from starvation, exposure or disease, will receive adequate care until they are rehabilitated. We have a sense of satisfaction that we have provided against any emergency or disaster that may arise in which we might lose our own life. The assurance that the society is chartered by Congress, presided over by the Chief Executive of the nation, and is almost as officially connected to the national government as the army or navy is sufficient to commend it to us.

One dollar invested in the RED CROSS each year may some day return a thousandfold just when disaster has overtaken us.

WILL YOU WEAR A RED CROSS BUTTON?

Church Envelopes

This time every year it is our duty to remind you that we must renew our pledge to support the Church. Our method of support is by means of the duplicate envelope system. Each year more and more of our members are pledging their support. This is most encouraging. It will be still more encouraging, however, if more of those who take envelopes would return them when they are due or as near that date as possible.

So many members who have envelopes think if they miss attending Church service of a Sunday it is not necessary for them to use the envelope of that date, therefore they throw it away. This is all wrong. You are pledged to give so much a week. If you stay away one or more Sundays it is your duty to see that the envelopes for the Sundays you are absent are deposited on the alms basin before the end of the Church year.

The percentage of contributors is still far below what we have a right to expect from so large a parish. If all our members would do their duty and contribute regularly what they can afford to give we would have no need to have special collections for coal or Christmas or Easter.

Every year new members are added to the Church. Seldom have we taken these new members into our confidence and let them know we have certain financial obligations to meet which we cannot escape. Whose fault is that? To be perfectly honest we feel we are the guilty party and that our system of collections is faulty. If the Church were a lodge every member who joined would be carefully instructed as to the amount of dues he must pay and when he must pay. If afterwards he showed no inclination to pay his name would be dropped from its roll of membership. If such a policy were adopted by the Parish our members would have more respect for the Church. Such a system properly carried out would mean that the Parish would have more than a sufficient income to meet all parochial expenses.

Roughly estimated we would say we have about 600 members who can easily afford to pledge Church support. Most of them, especially those over 18 years of age, can pledge 25 cents a week. Most of those under 18 years could contribute one cent a day or 7 cents a week. If this is done we could get along nicely without ever thinking of raising funds by special means.

LET'S DO IT.

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

A CHRISTIAN IS—
A Mind—Through which Christ thinks.
A Heart—Through which Christ loves.
A Voice—Through which Christ speaks.
A Hand—Through which Christ helps.

* * *

ARE YOU A MEMBER OF THE RED CROSS?

* * *

Sunday, November 18th, is Coal Sunday.

* * *

REMEMBER THE BAZAAR.

* * *

Sunday, December 2d, Annual Corporate Communion of all the male communicants under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

* * *

Now is the time for all good Christians to return delinquents envelopes, full of cash.

* * *

Hundreds of members have no Church envelopes. Give your name and address at once to the Parish Visitor so that you will not be overlooked on the day of distribution.

* * *

What a wonderful experience we are having Sunday evenings! Our Illustrated Bible Studies are most interesting and instructive.

* * *

We need lots of things for the Bazaar. What will YOU give?

* * *

Invest a Dollar in the Red Cross.

* * *

You are invited to the Sunday evening service of the Young People's Fellowship. It is full of pep.

The Woman's Auxiliary have 66 members who are a-c-t-i-v-e. The Auxiliary seems to be the place where all our active women gravitate. Any Parish can succeed with such a grand troop of women.

* * *

Have you noticed the big increase in attendance in the Kindergarten, the Boys' and the Girls' Intermediate Departments?

* * *

Our Saturday afternoon children's parties are a great success.

COAL

A WORD THAT CANNOT BE STRUCK OUT OF OUR CHURCH BUDGET

What a heap of money we would save if that word COAL could be dropped from our annual church budget. Of all the necessary evils of life's long list of necessary evils, it seems to be the most necessary and the most evil of them all. It heads the list and is written in big heart-depressing letters.

We wish we could ignore this item of expense. It seems so like taking gold dollar bills and throwing them right into the furnace—and getting only ashes in return.

Here are the cold facts about keeping our church warm and comfortable:

40 tons of coal at $13.50 per ton = $540.00.

Over a half thousand of dollars just literally burned to ashes! What a lot of things that big sum of money could do in a score of ways. However, nobody wants to come to church and shiver and shake through the service. We must burn coal in our furnaces, not only to warm but to protect ourselves from pneumonia and like diseases.

Now it is impossible to burn coal unless we buy coal. We cannot buy coal unless we have dollar bills—540 of THEM. That will not be at all difficult if you and I give our dollar bill on Sunday, November 18, which is COAL SUNDAY.

There are over 1100 of us in St. John's Parish and —even after allowing 33 1-3 per cent. off that number as either unwilling or unable to meet this necessary evil—we still have a big enough crowd left to lift this heavy debt off the church as though it was as light as a feather.

There is another way of looking at it, too. After all we are getting off pretty cheaply when we pay only a dollar a year to keep warm.

So don't forget the date and begin now to save up your dollar for

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18th

OUR BAZAAR

The Annual Social Feature of the Parish

Our Bazaar is much more than just a bazaar. It is the social event of the year for the whole Parish. It is a time of reunion, when all St. Johnites from North and South, East and West, come home to the old brown church, so dear to them since childhood—a spot filled and overflowing with sacred memories.

We were stranded in a far corner of the city a week ago and were trying to figure out the best way to get home. Standing on the street corner with us was a man who must have been endowed with second sight for he came up to us and asked if he could direct us where we would like to go. We were grateful as well as surprised and told him our destination. He gave us the necessary information, then we got talking while waiting for the right car. It came out in our conversation that we were connected with the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Third and Reed streets. No sooner had we said it than our new frind grabbed our hand and while pumphandling it, told us with great glee that he was an old Sunday School boy of the dear old church and that his married sister still attended. We asked the name of his sister and sure enough she is a member in very good standing.

Now what do you think of that!

We got a little excited ourself and said how glad we were to meet him. We told him of our Bazaar and he promised to drop in upon us when the Bazaar is on and renew old acquaintances.

That is just one of a score of reunions which will happen December 6th, 7th and 8th.

The other feature of the Bazaar is the pleasant way it affords us to raise necessary funds for the Parish. This year we would like to raise $1500, because so many members were unemployed most of the year that they have been unable to keep up their pledges and we must make up the deficit.

There are many features of the Bazaar we would like to dwell upon but our space will not permit. May we call your attention to the dining room this year? Instead of using the small room beside the kitchen as in previous years, we mean to fit up the kindergarten room and use that instead. This year several parish organizations mean to hold organization suppers on some night of the Bazaar. Among them will be St. John's Fellowship, the Choir, the Woman's Auxiliary and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

By the way, the Brotherhood will again have a Men's Furnishings Booth. Do not buy any Christmas present for HIM until you look over the really fine line of neckties, handkerchiefs, mufflers, half hose, suspenders, garters, etc., which will be on sale. All these goods are fresh and bought direct from the manufacturers. They are of the best quality and are much cheaper than the same quality of goods you get at the regular store.

Just say, when you give him the present on Christmas, "I bought this for you at the Bazaar." Right away he will know the real value of the present and that you are a sensible and economical shopper. And in return he will say to himself this girl will make just the kind of a wife a poor man like me needs. And right then and there you will be snatched into his manly embrace and after—well, you know what—he will rush right out and get the ring. Then he will come straight to our office and arrange the date.

But the Men's Furnishings and the Dining Room are only two features of the Bazaar. There will be the Pure Food Stand, the Fancy Goods Table, the Soft Drinks Stand, the Candy Shop, the Cigar Store, the Jewelry Shop, the Fish Pond, Doll Store and lots of other booths including the

LARKINS GOODS TABLE

We charge you ten cents admission, then we give you a coupon for ten cents credit good at any of the shops.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

The Obligation

A primary obligation of the Red Cross as stated in its Congressional charter is:

> "To continue and carry on a system of national and international relief in time of peace and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods and other great national calamities, and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same."

The Fulfillment

In fulfillment of its charter mandate the American Red Cross has, since 1881, dealt with approximately 1119 disasters at home and abroad and has expended more than $75,000,000—an average in excess of $1,500,000 annually—entrusted it for relief. In the past three years alone it has served as the agency of relief in 310 disasters, administering nearly $30,500,000 of relief funds—an average of over 100 disasters annually, eight each month.

Thanksgiving Day

Thursday, November 29th

This is the day set aside by the Chief Executive of the United States for all the people of the nation to repair to their several temples of worship and render thanks to Almighty God for the blessings He has vouchsafed us as a nation and a people—collectively and individually.

There were some things he omitted from this most important proclamation.

He omitted to say that it will be just as well if you cut church and go visiting friends or relatives in the country where you anticipated cramming yourself with roast turkey, mashed potatoes, pumpkin pie, cider (fresh or hard), ice cream and a score of other things.

He omitted to say that the football game is more important than praise and thanksgiving, therefore if the one conflicts with the other just don't worry but go to the football game and forget the other.

He omitted to say we are to go to church in the morning and make a thanksgiving offering of one cent—perhaps a dollar—then go to some holiday function in the evening dressed in a hundred-dollar outfit, weighed down with jewelry and furs costing an ordinary man's yearly salary, in a taxicab to an expensive theater or hotel to show the world how we can make ten, twenty, fifty dollars fly for pleasure.

He omitted to say eat all you can, enjoy yourself all you can, spend in foolish pastime all you can, but don't give a thought to the poor down-and-out wretch whose hard luck—perhaps hard life—stamps him Ishmael.

Mr. President of the United States of America, there are many items you omitted from your Thanksgiving Proclamation. It is not a popular document as it stands. Perhaps you might ease our conscience if we return it to you for certain popular amendments.

The Choir Concert

It is the desire of the members of the choir to thank all those who helped to make the evening such a big success. And indeed, we feel it was a success in every way. Not even the rainy weather discouraged our friends and we hope they left at the end of the evening feeling that it was worth while to brave the rain.

The reading of the Camp Log by our Rector's charming daughters, the Misses Helen and Martha McHenry, added so much enjoyment to the evening. We congratulate the girls on having such a fine record.

We also congratulate Marion Bruch on receiving the prize for the best poem about the Shack-in-the-Pines.

The "Rainbow Minstrel Girls" were with us, too, and we want to thank them for coming to rehearsal sometimes three nights in the week. In addition to this, they always pay for and make their costumes for each concert. That is one reason why we cleared more than $70 and not only met our indebtedness for the past two years but have also paid the necessary amount for 1929.

We must not forget that the cheerful and co-operative spirit of our sexton is another reason for our success. Mr. Sweeney's personal interest in everything concerning the parish is well known to all of us and he is always so helpful when we set out to do something.

There are so many folks we could write about if we had the time and space, but before we close we do want to remind all that if it were not for the faithfulness of most of our choir members such a concert would have been impossible.

Again we thank you for your kindness.

MARTHA WEYMANN SCHMIDT,
Organist.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
Good Meat Is Our Specialty
Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Jackson 2881 'SAY IT WITH FLOWERS Res. Phone—Oregon 8408-R
FRANK C. QUINN
...FLORIST...
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

If You Want—
Delicious Mince Pies
USE
Atmore's Extra Fancy
MINCE MEAT
Or, You May Prefer
Atmore's Plum Pudding
Ask Your Grocer for Both
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 TASKER ST. Founded 1842

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 2, No. 12 PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER, 1928 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

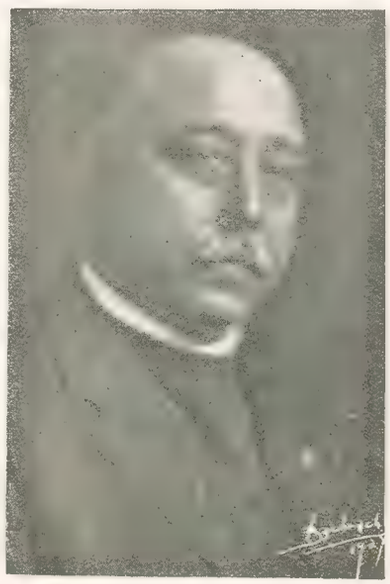
The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.



PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Associate.
Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr., Layreader.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

Committee on Parochial Finances

Mr. John C. Patterson, Jr.
Mr. John Weber.
Mr. William Forster.

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt

Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Rebecca McKeown
Mrs. May Hopkins
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Anna Warren
Miss Margaret Kensil

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Herman Jaeschke, Ass't Supt.
Mr. John E. McHenry, Secretary.
Miss Anna Mullen, Treasurer.
Mr. George Cressee, Jr, Men's Bible Class
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Women's Bible Class.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Instructor, Boys' Intermediate.
Miss Marion Bruch, Instructor, Girls' Intermediate.
Miss Frances Hudak, Instructor, Kindergarten.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director
Vernon Matthews, Vice Director
Edward Proffitt, Secretary
James Sweeney, Ass't Secretary.
Philip Mecklin, Treasurer

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Florence Hill, Vice Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop No. 274

John L. Kay, Scoutmaster.
Victor H. Loope, Chaplain, 207 St. Mark's Square.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Jessie St. Clair, President.

72 Club

Mr. William Grubb, Chairman.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Boy Scouts Troop		8:00
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8:00
72 Club		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Barnes, William Stup
Barnes, Walter Robert.
Barnes, Ida
Bouver, Emma Virginia
Valentine, Doris Milded

BURIALS

Lloyd, Thomas C.
Lutner, James
Ritter, Oscar L.
Townsend, Rhea

MARRIAGES

John K. O. Fee, Jr., and Veronica C. Organ.

The United Thank Offering

At the Missionary Mass Meeting when the amount of the United Thank Offering was announced, your delegate was fortunate in being there when the doors opened and secured a seat right in back of the choir. We had nearly two hours to wait before the service started.

It was most interesting to see the people, women especially, pouring in. There were quite a large number of clergy present and quite a few laymen, but an overwhelming number of women.

The service opened with the singing of the Processional Hymn,—

"Ancient of Days Who sittest throned in glory,
To Thee all knees are bent, all voices pray.
Thy love has blest the wide world's wondrous story
With light and life since Eden's dawning day."

In the procession we had the massed choirs, the missionaries from the foreign and domestic fields, together with the flags of the United States and the missionary districts.

We then had the opening prayers and address by the Right Reverend John Gardner Murray, Presiding Bishop of the Church, who stated that this was a Red Letter Day in Woman's Auxiliary and therefore the greatest day in the history of the Church as the Church is led by Woman's Auxiliary, which is not only the greatest organization for woman in the Church but is the greatest organization in the Church. Bishop Murray believes the prophecy, made by the prophet of old, will be fulfilled through the efforts of the Woman's Auxiliary "and the Kingdom of Christ shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea."

The amount of money, whether it be great or small, is of no concern. It is the measure of love and sacrifice which it represents. Value of love cannot be estimated.

The Bishop of Washington welcomed brethren of the clergy with great esteem but the women of the Church, with all the love of his heart. The immense service that morning and that massive gathering of women, representing elements of love and sacrifice, marked what was to him, the greatest day in the convention.

There is no city in the nation to which we could come with such perfect fitness—the one city which belongs to us all having the place of worship belonging to us in common.

One thing Bishop Freeman impressed upon us was what happens through your influence and mine—at home, in our parish, in the diocese, in the domestic and the foreign fields.

John W. Wood then introduced the missionaries from the different missionary districts, seated upon the platform. We saw our messengers from Hawaii, Honolulu, China, Japan, Brazil, Mexico, New Mexico, Virginia, Wyoming, Nebraska, the Dakotas, Oregon, the Philippines, Canal Zone, Porto Rico, Alaska and many other points. In fact, many of us saw, for the first time, those who actually render the service and make the supreme sacrifice of love. There were so many of them, both women and clerygymen, that Dr. Wood stated he knew every women was anxious to ask him two questions:

1. Is the money of the United Thank Offering entirely for women's work among women?

2. Has the Church any missionaries who are not here tonight?

After the introduction of the missionaries we sang:

"Ye Christian heralds, go, proclaim Salvation in Emmanuel's Name."

Reverend William Sturgis then made an address on "Christ for the World." We need to worship our Blessed Lord with our minds as well as with our hearts and he would like to see the Woman's Auxiliary do something to further Religious Education in order that we might be able to worship God more intelligently. We need to carry our worship into the realm of Social Service and make our love for Christ shown in our service to our fellow man. And then we need to think of our worship in relation to God; and, worshipping intelligently in our service to brothers and sisters, we will be enabled to render the highest service of love and worship to Jesus Christ.

Lewis B. Franklin, Vice-President and Treasurer of the National Council, announced the United Thank Offering. Three years ago it was $912,841.30, while this triennium, we are able to present $1,101,450.40.

After singing the Doxology and reciting General Thanksgiving, Bishop Murray pronounced the Benediction. During the Recession we all joined in singing, "Stand up, Stand up for Jesus!"

As you all realize from my report, it was a wonderful experience and was most inspiring. But what does it mean to you and to me? Does it just mean we gave a large sum of money and we must try to do better next time? May God forbid!

There we saw those who are making the supreme sacrifice of love in their work,—facing all kinds of perils of wilderness, wild beasts, heathen tribes, privation, disease, deprived of their homes, friends and loved ones, doing without the comforts of life—yea, in many instances, without the barest necessities, facing hunger and cold and scorching heat, going without seeing one of their own kind for weeks or months at a time.

All this we saw and we were glad that our offering was so big that we might help in spreading the message. But did it mean anything more—that enormous offering? Yes, it meant the thanksgiving of hundreds of thousands of women in every State of the Union and every village and city of every State; and not only in the Union, but women in all our missionary districts had been showing their thanksgiving to God for the blessings He had vouchsafed them. From women, rich and poor, high and low, educated and ignorant, pompous and humble, good, bad and indifferent, white, black, red, yellow and mixed—all had poured out to God their thanksgiving in the United Thank Offering. Thanksgiving to God for his many blessings of food, clothes, raiment, shelter, love of family, friends and neighbors, and for many other blessings too numerous to mention; but, above all, for the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ, for the means of grace and for the hope of glory! All this it meant and more.

Do all the women of the Church accept their responsibility as members of the Woman's Auxiliary and render thanks to God through the United Thank Offering? No, that is the one sad thought. Hundreds, nay, thousands of women are shirking their responsibilities in the Woman's Auxiliary today and it is our responsibility and privilege to bring them to a realization of their duty. Will you accept the challenge and make every woman of the parish a Woman's Auxiliary worker?

In conclusion I wish to state what a high privilege and pleasure it has been to me to represent the Woman's Auxiliary of St. John the Evangelist at this triennium in Washington and I am only sorry that you could not all be there to enjoy it with me.

With best wishes that our Auxiliary will continue to grow in numbers and usefulness but, above all, in the power of Jesus Christ, I am,

Sincerely yours,

M. Beatrice Fisher.

Report of Our Delegate

Doings of the Woman's Auxiliary Convention Vividly Pictured by St. John's Delegate

Reverend Chairman, Members of the Woman's Auxiliary and Friends:

Your delegate arrived in Washington Wednesday, October 10th, at about 1.30 P. M. After securing her hotel accommodations and getting some lunch, she immediately went to the Woman's Auxiliary headquarters, where she registered and secured her button.

As there was no business of importance to which she should attend, she spent the balance of the day in sightseeing and securing a car to take her to the Cathedral the next morning. That evening she had the pleasure of receiving a call from a very distinguished clergyman.

As she realized the Cathedral would be crowded, she arranged to leave the hotel at 7 o'clock. As it is only a fifteen-minute ride, she was more than amazed to find that the place was crowded through the Cathedral grounds down to the street, a distance of nearly a half mile. After moving step by step we reached the entrance to the edifice, where the sheep were separated from the goats. As your representative was merely representing an individual parish and not the diocese, she did not have a card which would admit her to the main service. She was therefore relegated to the overflow meeting in Bethlehem Chapel. As long as she could not be eligible for the meeting in the Cathedral proper, she was very glad that she was fortunate enough to gain admission to Bethlehem Chapel.

In this Chapel are found the tombs of the late President Woodrow Wilson and Admiral Dewey. Behind the Altar is the tomb of the late Bishop Slattery of Washington. Lying on the top of the tomb is a life-size figure of the departed Bishop—so real that you almost feel that he will awake and speak to you.

The Altar and furnishings of the chancel of this Chapel are most beautiful as are the stained glass windows.

This overflow service overflowed itself to the point where the choir stalls, priest stalls, etc., had to be occupied by the worshippers and even then overflowed to the Chapels of St. Joseph of Arimathea and the Chapel of Resurrection and even out into the amphitheatre, where a congregation gathered of over five thousand. It resembled nothing so much as a great pilgrimage where the faithful were coming to offer their gifts to the Most High. And that, in fact, was really what it was—many thousands coming to offer gifts to Jesus Christ for the many blessings He had heaped upon them.

At the service in the Cathedral proper to which we went on leaving Bethlehem Chapel it was most impressive to see worshippers kneeling all around and others making their way over rough stones to the Altar rail to receive the Holy Eucharist. In the Cathedral are three Altars—the High Altar and two side Altars. So immense was the throng to receive at this service that it was necessary to have fifteen bishops to assist the celebrant, Right Reverend John Gardner Murray.

There were many interesting features connected with this celebration,—first, it was the largest Communion service ever held in the Episcopal Church in the United States; then again, it was the first Communion Service to be held in the Cathedral proper; in addition to this, it was very unusual to see so many bishops, especially Missionary Bishops, actively taking part in one service; then the Golden Alms Basin, upon which the offering was presented, has been in use in successive United Thank Offering services for thirty-nine years. It is 22 inches in diameter and weighs nearly 19 ounces. It has a beautiful chased border of silver gilt and a panel of solid gold on which is depicted the offering of the Magi.

When the Alms Basin was presented it held an offering in which were Japanese yens, French francs, Chinese taels, English pounds and tokens of thanks from women in the far corners of the earth.

The Altar at which the offering was presented is known as the Jerusalem Altar because the stone of same was hewn from a quarry outside the walls of Jerusalem. From this quarry the stones of Solomon's Temple were also taken.

In place of the reredoses which have not yet been built, behind the Jerusalem Altar and the side Altars of St. John and St. Mary were draped magnificent dossals. The one behind the Jerusalem Altar was of red and gold with valences of black and gold while the dossals behind the other two Altars were of blue and gold.

After leaving the Cathedral we wended our way to the Bishop's Gardens, which are very beautiful and interesting from a historic viewpoint.

M. Beatrice Fisher.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

Who started the custom of giving Christmas presents? It seems to us that the only true answer is—God. On the first Christmas day He gave to us His only begotten Son. This surely is the greatest and most valuable Christmas present ever given or ever received. And how appropriate and necessary was that gift. The world needed some thing or some person who would lead it from darkness of sin to the light of righteousness. You were not worthy—I am sure I am not worthy. In fact, no man who ever lived was worthy to perform such a divine task. Only a new kind of a man—a man without sin—could possibly do it for us. We had no way of securing such a man, consequently God in His infinite love gave us His Son, and the world is still rejoicing in His gift.

Following immediately upon gift of God came the gift of the three wise men—gold, frankincense and myrrh.

From that time to this we have continued the beautiful custom begun by God. Every year at Christmas time we exchange presents between ourselves to commemorate His gift to us. And each one of our gifts ought to carry with it the Christmas greeting, "Good will."

It is not the size or the cost of the gift that counts so much as the spirit that actuates the giver. Some folks think it imperative that a gift must be very expensive else it is not a fit present to make. We have heard persons say on giving a present that it is more valuable than it seems—as though the value had anything to do with it. As a matter of fact we would rather have a hearty Christmas greeting coming from a friend who meant it than an automobile from a person who just wanted to outdo somebody else in giving expensive presents. If a child had only one cent and thought enough of me to spend it for a candy toy and give it to me for my Christmas present it would mean more to me than a gift worth ten hundred times more from a friend who could afford it. Do not measure the love and interest of your friends by dollars and cents on Christmas day. Think of your gifts in terms of love and sacrifice. In doing so you may find that your most modest gift comes from a heart of greatest love.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU

The Christmas Envelope

Every year we say the same thing—Your Christmas envelope is to be used by you to give a birthday present to Jesus Christ. And the deeper you love Jesus Christ the harder are you going to strive to give Him a worth-while Christmas gift. The three wise men gave Him gold, frankincense and myrrh. Because they realized that He is our prophet, priest and king. We must learn to realize this, too. Of course you cannot give money to Jesus Christ, but you can give money for the Cause of Jesus Christ, and the support of His Church and the spread of His Kingdom.

This is why you receive a Christmas Envelope every year. The money you return in them is used entirely for the advancement of His work among men. We call it church and parochial expenses. In reality it is a war chest of the Church in its campaign against the world and sin and Satan. Now when you go shopping to get a Christmas present for him or her you do not think of buying the cheapest possible present you can find. Most likely you are foolish enough to think you must try to express your sentiments in as many dollars and cents as you can possibly afford. I know some folks who even go to the extreme of buying costly presents for others on the installment plan—$5.00 down and a $1.00 a week for several weeks after Christmas. Of course they are foolish and wickedly extravagant. What we are getting at is this—if we are willing to involve ourselves to such an extent for just men and women why do we give so little to Jesus Christ for His birthday present? Did you ever hear of anybody giving Him a birthday present they had bought on the installment plan?

Of course some of you cannot afford to give much. But if your Christmas Envelope contains all you can afford to give and all the rest of the space is crammed with love Jesus Christ will understand and will love the giver.

The names of all who return their Christmas Envelopes will appear in the next issue of The Broadcaster.

Broadcasting From Station S. T. J. C.

Merry Christmas to All

* * *

Be sure you receive your Christmas Communion.

* * *

Be sure you bring your Christmas Offering.

* * *

Don't be foolish and spend more than you can afford on Christmas gifts.

* * *

Christmas is a HOLY DAY and not an ordinary holiday. Be sure you celebrate it as such.

* * *

Don't buy Christmas presents on the installment plan.

* * *

Happy New Year to All

* * *

The old year is like an old coat—past mending. Let's forget it.

* * *

A New Year brings new opportunities. Let's seize them.

* * *

Make the sins and mistakes of last year pay you big dividends by using them as danger signs to warn you away from the same temptations this year.

* * *

He who makes New Year's resolutions, though he falls, shows he has a conscience still.

* * *

Some Good New Year's Resolutions

(a) Attend church services regularly and cheerfully.
(b) Support the church liberally.
(c) Receive the Holy Communion as often as opportunity offers.
(d) Practice Christianity on week days as well as on Sundays.
(e) Be a Christian at home as well as in public.
(f) Not to forget you are a Christian when you are alone and you think nobody is looking.
(g) Walk like a Christian in time of trouble as in time of prosperity.
(h) Practice your Christianity in sickness as in health.
(i) Keep the Ninth Commandment yourself and insist on others keeping it.
(j) Though others sneer, be firm in the faith.

* * *

Be sure you start the New Year right by attending the Holy Communion and every service on Sunday, January 6th. Not only is it the first Sunday in the year, but it is also the

Feast of the Epiphany

Bell, Jackson 1887 Fresh Cut Flowers Daily

Kathryn's Floral Shop

Funeral Designs—Wedding Bouquets

1727 South 2d St.

Residence, 153 Moore St.

Palms With Family Trade Christmas Wreaths & Novelties

G. H. GEILFUS

Wholesale and Retail

CHRISTMAS CANDIES

1444 South Second Street

(Corner Dickinson Street)

Beautiful Gifts For All the Family

Store Orders Accepted

S. GROSS

1614 South Second Street

A Toast to Santa Claus

Whene'er I find a man who don't Believe in Santa Claus,
And spite of all remonstrances won't
Yield up to logic's laws,
And see in things that lie about
The proof by no means dim,
I straightway cut that fellow out,
And don't believe in him.

We find him in the maiden's eyes
Beneath the mistletoe,
A-sparkling as the star-lit skies
All golden in her glow.
We find him in the pressure of
The hand of sympathy,
And where there's any thought of love
He's mighty sure to be.

The good old Saint is everywhere
Along life's busy way.
We find him in the very air
We breathe day after day—
Where courtesy and kindness
And love are joined together,
To give to sorrow and distress
A touch of sunny weather.

So here's to good old Kindlyheart,
The best bet of them all,
Who never fails to do his part
In life's high festival.
The worthy bearer of the crown
With which we top the Saint,
A bumper to his health, and down
With them that say he ain't!

—Harper's Weekly.

A Christmas Carol

Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!
Christmas in lands of the fir-tree and pine,
Christmas in lands of the palm-tree and vine,
Christmas where snow-peaks stand solemn and white,
Christmas where cornfields lie sunny and bright,
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!

So the stars of the midnight which compass us round
Shall see a strange glory, and hear a sweet sound,
And cry, "Look! the earth is aflame with delight,
O sons of the morning, rejoice at the sight."
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!

—Phillips Brooks.

Broadcasting From Laughland

SAVING THE PIECES

"Well, George," said a country clergyman to an old man who sat by the wayside breaking stones, "that pile doesn't seem to get any less."

"No, Vicar," replied the old man, "them stones is like the Ten Commandments; yer can go on breakin' 'em, but yer can't get rid of 'em."—Western Christian Advocate.

* * *

Wearing a smile over a sour heart may be nothing but politeness, but we all prefer politeness to a puckered-up face.

* * *

AT BREAKFAST TIME

At breakfast time, when slumber lies not so remote from human eyes,
The Sons of Humor can evoke a twisted word that makes a joke.
It serves to speed us on our way, and rather brightens up the day;
It curves the lips that for a while have just forgotten how to smile.

And I have seen a growing wrath diverted from its crimson path,
And laid aside all cold and dead, by some fool thing that has been said.
There's plenty sad when day is done, but Sons of Humor find the fun.
And God bless every man who strives to keep the laughter in our lives.

* * *

He—"I've a great mind to rock the boat and frighten you."

She—"Once before a young man like you tried that with me and the boat upset."

He—"And what did you do?"

She—"I swam ashore and notified the coroner."

* * *

SMOKE UP

Sweet Young Thing—"Have a cigarette?"

Elderly Lady—"What! Smoke a cigarette! Why, I'd rather kiss the first man that came along!"

Sweet Young Thing—"So would I. But have a cigarette while you're waiting."—Pitt Panther.

A man went to see his physician for advice as to how to be cured of the habit of snoring.

"Does your snoring disturb your wife?" asked the M. D.

"Does it disturb my wife?" echoed the patient. "Why, it disturbs the whole congregation."

* * *

THE SMILE

For Sale—A full-blooded cow, giving milk, three tons of hay, a lot of chickens, several stoves and other articles too numerous to mention.

* * *

In a gram of molecular weight, scientists report, there are 606,200,000,000,000,000,000,000 molecules. The number seems to us to be adequate for all legitimate purposes, and we don't want to hear any gram complain of being under supplied.

* * *

THAT ACCOUNTS FOR IT

"Mathilda's a girl that could have married anybody she pleased."

"Then why is she still single?"

"She never pleased anybody."—C. C. N. Y. Mercury.

* * *

The jury in the Ackerman case, tried Monday before Judge Carlson, failed to agree and was discharged. Bill Perkins and his wife were on it.—Lewis County Herald.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner

2d and Reed Streets

Good Meat Is Our Specialty

Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Keystone, Main 3118 Bell, Jackson 2881

Frank C. Quinn

FLOWERS

X-MAS WREATHS

2008 S. 3d Street

If You Want—

Delicious Mince Pies

USE

Atmore's Extra Fancy MINCE MEAT

Or, You May Prefer

Atmore's Plum Pudding

Ask Your Grocer for Both

ATMORE & SON, Inc.

110-124 TASKER ST. Founded 1842

THE LAND OF BEGINNING AGAIN

I wish there were some wonderful place,
Called the "Land of Beginning Again;"
Where all our mistakes and all our heartaches
And all our poor selfish grief
Could be dropped like a shabby old coat at the door
And never put on again.

I wish we might come on it all unaware
Like a hunter who finds a lost trail,
And I wish that the one whom our blunders had done
The greatest injustice of all—
Could be at the gate like an old friend who went
For a comrade his gladdest to hail.

We would find all the things we intended to do
But forgot and remembered too late,
Little praises unspoken, little promises broken—
And all the thousand and one
Little duties neglected, what might have perfected
The day for a less fortunate one.

It wouldn't be possible not to be kind,
In the "Land of Beginning Again,"
And the ones we misjudged, and the ones we grudged
Their moment of victory here,
Would find in the grasp of our loving hand clasp
More than the penitent lip could express.

So I wish there were some wonderful place,
Called the "Land of Beginning Again,"
Where all our mistakes and all our heartaches
And all our poor selfish grief
Could be dropped like a shabby old coat at the door
And never put on again.

Select Your Christmas Gifts From

GILES' DRUG STORE

Second & Federal Streets

Kodaks Toilet Articles
Toys Candies
Perfume Toilet Sets
etc., etc.

A Small Deposit Secures Any Article

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

THOMAS MAGEE
Printer—Stationer—Engraver
A Stock of Well-Selected
CHRISTMAS CARDS
44 South Second Street

GUSTAV C. F. HELM, Jr.
Prescription Druggist
(Deutsche Apotheke)
S. W. Cor. Third and Morris Sts.

Doll Hospital

Dolls Repaired, Wigs, Slippers and Stockings, all sizes. Prices Reasonable. CHRISTMAS IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER!

Mrs. T. Pearsall
1232 South Second Street

GEORGE K. CRAIG
Dealer in
Grain, Feed, Hay, Straw & Salt Hay
Third and Tasker Streets
Alfalfa Molasses Feeds Both Phones

E. BOWEN & SON
1018 South Second Street
(Above Washington Avenue)

FRITZ & LA RUE, Inc.
Oriental and Domestic Rugs
1615 CHESTNUT STREET

KATHRYN'S
OWN MAKE
CHOCOLATES - CANDIES
1735 South Second Street

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 4, No. 1 PHILADELPHIA, JANUARY, 1930 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

PARISH COMMITTEE

William Forster
John Weber
Vernon Matthews
John Patterson, Jr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
Willliam Hasson
Robert MacGinniss

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Margaret Rutter

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Miss Martha W. Schmidt, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr. Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. William Capie
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Philip Meckling, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

Men's Club

President, George Cressee, Sr.
Vice President, Charles Little.
Secretary, George Downes, Jr.
Treasurer, John Weber.

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Henderson, Eleanor Mary
Keelan, Leona May
Lusher, Helen Louise
Lusher, Thelma Grace
Lusher, Robert Louis
Llewellyn, Anna May Elaine
Ward, Margaret Frances

MARRIAGES

Frank Amerman and Frances E. Hudak

BURIALS

Dooley, Mary G.
Hornberger, Elizabeth
Pearo, Charles
Rhodes, Amanda Ann
Tibbitt, Charles L.
White, George

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Boy Scouts Troop		8:00
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

WORK FOR THE YEAR

Our Plan for the Coming Year Is Development

Our organization is complete. We do not need any more societies or guilds in the Parish. What we need to do this year is to concentrate on what we have and develop to the utmost the resources and membership of each.

The Woman's Auxiliary

The first society of importance is the WOMAN'S AUXILIARY. It has shown astonishing growth in the past two years, but it has not attained its peak, either as to membership or importance. Every woman of twenty-one ought to be an active member and present at every meeting of the Auxiliary. In order to attract new members we ought to lay out a program for every meeting of the year. We should have a permanent committee on Choir Vestments, on clothing for the poor, on preparation for the Annual Bazaar, an entertainment and refreshment committee, a committee on membership, on church attendance and one for visiting the sick. The duties of each committee are obvious. At the next regular meeting of the Auxiliary we will propose this enlarged program. Please be sure to be present and give us the benefit of your suggestions.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Then there is the Brotherhood of St. Andrew to be considered. We need the re-consecration of ourselves to the rules of Service and Prayer. There are hundreds of men and boys in St. John's Parish who need the influence and strengthening of the Church of God. We need a strong Visiting Committee, a closer contact with God, a stronger consciousness of the personality of the Master, a more earnest life of prayer and service. One of the biggest and best things we can do for our men and boys is to encourage them to attend regularly the Holy Communion and receive the Communion in the impressive manner we adopted two months ago. Let's get busy NOW and have two hundred men and boys at the next celebration.

Then, too, there is the Sunday evening service. THIS OUGHT TO RECEIVE THE SPECIAL ATTENTION OF THE BROTHERHOOD. A campaign to increase the male attendance at Sunday evening service ought to make a strong appeal to the Brotherhood.

The Choir

The next is our Choir. We have in it many true and loyal members who are always on the job. Upon the Choir the beauty and interest of the service depend. Individual members can help improve the choir service by giving a little closer attention to both regularity and promptness. Choir Rehearsal is a necessity and we should take it very seriously. Many an anthem is ruined because some one or two members have been dilatory in attending rehearsal. Another matter which needs our attention is promptness. THE SERVICES BEGIN 10.30 A. M. AND 7.45 P. M. ON COMMUNION SUNDAYS AT 10.45 A. M. Every Choir member ought to be at the church not less than fifteen minutes preceding the hour. It will help lots if each member will try to be present.

Another matter which needs our attention IS THE BAD HABIT OF SITTING IN THE CONGREGATION DURING SERVICE. It is misunderstood by the other choir members and the congregation. The place for the choir member on Sunday is in the choir and not in the pew. Even if you are sick and cannot sing, you can sit just as comfortably in the choir as you can in the body of the church.

The Daughters of the King

This is one of the most influential orders in the Episcopal Church. The chapter in St. John's Parish is one of the largest in the city. The ideal of the Society is to struggle for a deeper and more illuminating consciousness of God and our Lord Jesus Christ. The Society has made an indelible impression upon many of its members. The Rector can see wonderful spiritual development in the lives of many of the women who have joined the Society. Best of all these women stand ready to bring their sisters home to the Father's House and do all in their power to aid the Rector. This year the Rector asks each member to reconsecrate herself to bringing more girls and women into the church and HELP THE RECTOR BUILD UP THE EVENING SERVICE BY ATTENDING AND BY BRINGING OTHERS.

As with the men the greatest service each can render God is to stir up all the women and girls of the parish to come regularly to Holy Communion. Their biggest field of work in this particular line is among married women. When a woman marries she is too quick to feel that the responsibilities of a home and child raising are more important than attending church. If she only knew it her home would be more beautiful and the atmosphere purer if she would shut the door of the home and open the door of the church now and then.

The Fellowship

We have been experimenting with the Fellowship long enough to know that we need two things. The first is a fuller consciousness of our relations and duty to God and a better organized social period. Our Sunday evenings are wonderful. We get lots of good out of our three-quarters-of-an-hour meetings and are gaining real worthwhile knowledge of many things concerning the Church, the Bible, etc. But we are not getting anywhere with our social program. We must give this our immediate attention and do something. Any suggestions any member has to make will be greatly appreciated. There are other matters for our attention, too. We need to make a more aggressive drive for new members; we must do something towards building up our Sunday School classes; we must give more attention to visiting the young folks of the parish—especially those who are sick; we must be ready at all times with suggestions and with efforts to do all we can to increase the influence of old St. John's. Our program is the most important of all for it must be one that looks so far into the future.

The Girl Scouts

It is rather difficult to plan for the Girl Scouts. They are developing so satisfactorily. More girls are joining the troop constantly and the social activities are very satisfactory. There is possibly a chance of improvement in the matter of attending church service. Of course, this is not a requisite of the Girl Scouts but for the individual girl it would be most helpful if the Troop arranged for more services. The Rector is always prepared to help make such services a success. The higher the spiritual tone of the troop, the finer the personnel.

The Young Women's Christian League

This organization is composed of members who have served in the parish in many capacities these many years. They are under the leadership of one who has the confidence and co-operation of the Rector. We need this society to look after the aged, shut-in and sick of the parish. There are other duties parallel with those of the Woman's Auxiliary and the Daughters of the King. The parish has grown to such enormous proportions that one organization simply cannot hope to do all that is to be done. All of these women's organizations are necessary to look after the mothers and children of the Parish. To bring infants to baptism; the men and women, girls and boys, to Confirmation and to stir up delinquent members to come regularly to Holy Communion.

The Sunday School

This ranks among the largest organizations of its kind in South Philadelphia. What we must do to hold our place is more missionary effort to bring in new members and build up our weak classes. There are hundreds of children in the Parish who can be entered upon our Rolls provided we try to get them interested. Our boys' classes need our immediate attention. Each class should make extra efforts to look up all the boys who have strayed away. THE RECTOR IS OFFERING A SPECIAL PRIZE EACH MONTH TO THE CLASS THAT GETS THE GREATEST PER CENT. OF ITS OLD MEMBERS BACK. THIS SPECIAL PRIZE IS TO EVERY MEMBER OF THE CLASS THAT WINS.

Our Sunday School Lenten Offering

Now is the time to lay plans for our Lenten Offering. This year, with BISHOP GARLAND'S PERMISSION, we will divide the Lenten Offering between Missions and our Memorial Parish House. Consequently the larger our offering the bigger the gift to the Parish House. We will have a meeting of the Sunday School teachers and officers in the near future to lay our plans for the raising of this fund. Be sure you come ready to make helpful suggestions.

I RESOLVE

The Real Value of a New Year's Resolution

Have you ever made a New Year's Resolution? No! Is it because you think it is a waste of time? Maybe it is—so far as keeping it is concerned. But, even considering the millions and millions of New Year's Resolutions made and broken before the year is a week old, we still have a sort of queer idea that New Year's Resolutions are not altogether futile. It is unquestionably a good habit to take a moral and spiritual survey of one's life at least once a year. Also, it is well to have a stated period to make this most important survey, and New Year's evening is a very logical and fitting date for making it because it is the beginning of a New Year. But of what value is such self-examination if one does not determine to eliminate the evil and develop the good in one's character?

A New Year's Resolution is certainly the expression of an inward desire to do better than we have done in the past. It is a gesture which shows that the conscience is still tender and one's moral and spiritual concepts are still active.

To the writer it is tragic to hear a man say he does not believe in New Year's Resolutions because he knows he will not keep them. What a complete surrender of one's spiritual life to the sordid passions of one's baser self.

Let's keep up the struggle over self and with the return of every New Year's Day raise our hand to God and say—

I RESOLVE

A-CENT-A-DAY

LITTLE THINGS COUNT

Did you ever stop to think that every big thing is really the accumulation of a lot of little things. The greatest snowdrift is only the piling up of little snowflakes. The long stretch of seashore is untold millions of grains of sand. The flood is caused by the downpour of little drops of water. The highest mountain is a mighty heap of electrons—so small that a hundred, perhaps more, can rest easily on the head of a pin. The greatest sweep of lawn is made up of multitudes of blades of grass. Every millionaire's fortune is just the multiplication of a cent. A-CENT-A-DAY is $3.65 a year. If our 900 communicants would give A-CENT-A-DAY towards the MEMORIAL PARISH HOUSE FUND, the Fund would be $3,285.00 richer at the end of the year than it is today. That would be over one-quarter of the whole mortgage.

All of us can afford a-cent-a-day. None of us would miss it. Yet look what we would get if everybody gave it. Put your Cent-A-Day in the 85 Club pocket of your envelope and help us pay the mortgage.

Learn to Use Little Things to Accomplish Big Things

God Loved . . . God Gave

"God So Loved . . . That He Gave"—St. John iii: 16

Our purpose in eliminating so much of the text is to emphasize the two words Loved and Gave. There is a peculiar affinity between these words. Where there is love there is always the desire to give. The greatest satisfaction in loving is giving. The greatest pain in loving is the inability to give. There can be no real love where the real desire to give is lacking. Loving drives us to the very extremity of giving. It drove God to give His Son for us. It drives men to sacrifice life and fortune, even honor, for the object of their love.

If God so loved us that He gave His Son for us, does He love us more than He loved Jesus Christ? Not at all. God loved us so dearly that He gave that which He loved most that we, through Him, might live. Yes, this is a paradox and cannot be satisfactorily explained. On the other hand it can be satisfactorily illustrated. For instance: A mother loves her son more than anything else on earth, yet thousands of war mothers kissed their sons goodbye and sent them to almost certain death to save the homeland. Salvation was the motive of love's sacrifice. Salvation was God's motive for the Great Sacrifice.

The extent for one's love can always be gauged by one's giving. If you love much, you give much. If you love little you give little. If your love for Jesus Christ is deep and true, you will give much of your life, time, thought, strength and means to His service. As you love so do you give. How much are you giving to Jesus Christ?

New Year's Resolutions for St. Johnites

With the HELP of ALMIGHTY GOD I am RESOLVED :

1. To try to love the Lord my God with all my heart.
2. To try to love my neighbor as myself.
3. To pray daily.
4. To read at least one verse of Scriptures every day.
5. To doubt less.
6. To smile more.
7. Not to neglect the Holy Communion.
8. To try not to be critical of others.
9. To say something good about those I do not particularly like whenever the opportunity affords.
10. To be helpful.
11. To attend Sunday morning and evening services regularly so as to set an example for others.
12. To support my church and my parish as God has prospered me.
13. To refrain from offering untruthful excuses for not doing my Christian duty.
14. To bring new members to church and Sunday School.
15. To help my Rector in every possible way.
16. To refuse to listen to idle gossip about others.
17. To try earnestly to overcome every bad habit I have been so foolish as to acquire.
18. To always help the poor, the sick, the sinful.
19. To look up and to lift up.
20. To walk with God.

AFTER THE BAZAAR

The Usual Success Attends This Big Social and Financial Event

We congratulate the Parish upon the success of its Annual Bazaar. It took several months of planning and hard work to get everything ready but the big success of the Bazaar more than recompensed all who helped. Our receipts were a little over $1200. Of course, there were some bills to pay and small expenses to meet but, even so, we will no doubt clear over $1000.

What we boast of most is that it was an HONEST BAZAAR. Every purchase was reasonably priced. In many cases the cost of an article was greatly below that which one would have paid in a regular store. We know our friends cannot afford to spend their hard-earned money on things that are worthless or too high priced. We kept this thought ever before us and we tried sincerely to be fairer to the buyer than we were to ourselves.

We could write a paragraph a mile long about the splendid co-operation of certain members of the Parish upon whose untiring efforts the success of the Bazaar rested. Miss M. B. Fisher, with her usual energetic and businesslike way of going about doing a job, certainly led the way by the aggressive organization of her soliciting corps. Hers was the initial step in the Bazaar's success. Mrs. Frank Pine, with her culinary corps, certainly added to the success of the event. Every night she was ready at the dot of six P. M. to serve a supper which she alone knows how to prepare.

Fred Schaab, William Grubb and Vernon Matthews are triplets. Such a set of live wires never happened before in or out of St. John's Church. First thing they did was to sell all their baskets of groceries. Next thing they did was to swing in and sell all the canned goods, etc., on the regular grocery table. And, finally, they collected a lot of glassware and ornaments and sold the lot to the highest bidder.

"Brother" got them all. He is putting them in his hope chest. By the time he dumps all that junk into the chest he will need to buy another or increase its capacity by knocking out the bottom.

Annie Beisser reminded one of the old woman who lived in a shoe and had so many children she didn't know what to do. Only Annie did. How that woman can sell dolls is a caution. The Bazaar looked like an orphan asylum. Wherever you turned there were babies and more babies. Of course she had a splendid staff of workers who helped loyally every night.

Poor Marion Bruch was scared skinny for fear she would not get rid of that beautiful toilet set. At last it went for $30.00. After that Marion was done up.

John McHenry has developed new methods of salesmanship for cigars, etc. For example, he sold a box of Cincos; then he auctioned it off; then he gave it away. Figure that out if you can—we can't, but all the same he did that very stunt.

How under the sun Charlie Little got rid of that pile of gents' furnishings is a mystery to everybody. He had five dozen mufflers, twelve dozen ties, four dozen socks, one-quarter dozen men's combination sets, to say nothing of the number of handkerchiefs, garters, sleeveholders, etc., etc. We were more than apprehensive over the disposal of such a big stock. You can imagine our surprise when he walks up in his matter-of-fact way about 9.30 Saturday night and said, "I'm all sold out. That red necktie held me up." That red necktie would—it would hold up a train or street traffic or anything else on earth. It was the reddest red neckpiece you ever "red" about.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff took in more money the first two nights at the Fish Pond than they got in all three nights of the previous Bazaar. Mr. Woodruff left his horse shoe and his rabbit foot home a couple of Bazaar evenings. The result was fatal.

Margaret Kensil and her galaxy of American beauties had charge of the Candy Table. The candy they sold was sweet, of course, but oh those cute little salesgirls! They were much sweeter.

Mrs. Young had the time of her life trying to quench the thirst of that mob. Her menu was Pale Moon, Root Beer, Lemonade, Orangeade and plain ice water. But it was no use trying to quench the Bazaar's big thirst. At last she just threw up her hands and quit cold. It would have taken a fire hose under full pressure to slake that thirst.

Mrs. Schmidt sold things so fast at the Fancy Goods Table that she has been in bed ever since with something the matter with her arms. Why, she was selling things so fast some times she looked as though she was standing behind the counter doing calisthenic stunts for the good of her health.

Mrs. MacVaugh was so near sold out on the second night that she almost had to drive customers away with a barrel stave so as to have enough left to open up with on the last night. She presided over the Larkins' Goods Table, and if she does not lay in a bigger stock of shaving cream next year she is going to start a riot. As it is, the men of the parish are so mad at her that they just can scarcely keep from sticking their tongues out at her every time they see her. Think of it! They must wait a whole year now to get a stick of shaving cream just because she did not have enough to sell.

Then there was Mrs. Springer, who comes all the way from Haddonfield to help whenever St. John's Parish needs her help. She and Mrs. Read presided over the Household Goods Table and sold everything except the table. We wager they would have sold that, too, if they had thought of it in time. Mrs. Springer says she must have more 'round the waist aprons next year. She did not have within dozens enough to sell. Wish all the ladies of the parish would make a New Year's Resolution to make at least one apron for Mrs. Springer's table next year.

Up north was a big band of regular fellers with Miss Nuttall in the lead. They stood ready to sell you tomatoes, corn, peas, jellies, onions, potatoes, apples soap, household ammonia, disinfectant, cranberry jelly, lifebouy soap, salt, pepper, mustard, all mixed up together and delivered to your house in one package or if you preferred to buy each article separate and unmixed they would just as cheerfully accommodate you.

Then there was Phil Meckling over in the Men's Bible Class Room doing sompin', we don't know exactly what. Anyway he would come out every once in a while with a handful of money and pass it to Martha Schmidt. Whether he was just quietly picking pockets or rolling the bones we never did find out. We have nothing to say Phil, only don't get reckless and make it necessary for us to notice what you are doing. As long as you bring in the money and don't get caught it's all right, maybe.

St. John's Christmas Party

Following are the names of those who joined ST. JOHN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY by bringing in their Christmas Envelope.

Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Adgate, Mrs. Margaret
Albert, Abigail
Alloway, Catharine
Alloway, Earl
Amerman, Mrs. Frank, Jr.
Armstrong, Florence M.
Ashmen, Dorothy
Ashmen, Helen
Ashmen, Mrs. Margaret

Barnes, Edward
Barnes, Ethlyn
Barnes, Mary
Barnes, William, Sr.
Barnes, William, Jr.
Baus, Mrs. Annie
Bedlow, William
Bedlow, Mrs. Louisa
Beisser, Mrs. Annie
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Miss Mamie
Bender, Mrs. Caroline
Blech, Charles
Blech, Mrs. Charles
Bricker, Mrs. Jennie
Bruch, Mrs. Richmond

Capie, Joseph
Capie, Mrs. Joseph
Capie, Stella
Capie, William
Carbarnes, Anna
Carbarnes, Elizabeth
Carbarnes, Henry
Carbarnes, Meta
Carl, Clara Virginia
Clark, Harry B.
Clark, Mrs. Harry B.
Clendenning, Charles
Clendenning, Jennie
Clendenning, William
Colvey, Joseph
Colvey, Maria
Connelly, Mrs. C.
Connor, Laura
Corson, Mary
Coyle, John
Cressee, Abbie
Cressee, George, Sr.
Cressee, George, Jr.
Cressee, Raymond G.
Cucknell, James
Cucknell, Mary
Cunningham, Mr.
Cunningham, Walter

Darr, Walter
Daughters of the King
Davis, Amelia
Davis, Margaret
Davis, Oliver C.
Dean, Harry
Dean, Mrs. Mary
Dean, Mildred
Dean, Ruth
DeCosta, Margaret M.
Deitrich, Marie A.
DeRivers, Charles
DeYoung, Mrs. Herbert
Dingler, Annie
Doane, Laura J.
Dooley, Edward, Sr.
Drumm, Robert
Dysert, John

Emberschied, Mrs. A.
Erickson, Mrs. James
Erickson, Joseph S.
Erickson, Mrs. Margaret
Evans, Thomas

Fanger, Mrs. Anna M.
Fanger, Harry
Felder, Heywood
Fisher, M. Beatrice
Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Cath.
Fitzpatrick, Edward
Forster, William
Fort, Elsie
Fort, Cornelius
Fort, Mrs. Cornelius
Friend, Florence
Friend, Thomas

Gallagher, Isaac
Gallagher, Joseph
Gallagher, Kate
Garson, Francis
Garson, John
Garson, Mary
Garson, Walter
Geiger, Anna
Gorman, William
Green, Emma
Green, Joseph
Green, William
Greenfield, Lydia
Greenfield, Robert
Gregory, George Fox
Gregory, George W.
Gregory, Grace
Griggs, Anna L.
Griggs, Elizabeth
Grubb, Pauline
Grubb, Rufus
Grubb, William

Hall, Louisa
Hamilton, Florence
Haury, Mary
Harbison, Mrs. George
Hartman, Mrs. Earl, Jr.
Hartman, Wm. Earl, Sr.
Hartman, Jack
Hartnett, Rose
Hasson, Kate
Hasson, Kathryne
Hasson, William
Henderson, Laura M.
Henkel, Rebecca
Hill, Florence
Hill, George
Hill, Robert
Hill, William
Holton, Alice P.
Holton, Edna
Holton, Elizabeth
Holton, Joseph
Holton, Margaret
Holton, Margaret
Hudak, Mr. and Mrs.
Jackson, Elsie
Jaeschke, Mrs. Herman
Jaeschke, Herman
Jaeschke, Gus
Jorett, Mrs.

Kaiser, Emma M.
Kaiser, Emma
Kalessee, Elizabeth
Karstein, Elizabeth
Karstein, Lillian K.
Keen, Mrs. Lena
Kelly, Mrs. Mary
Kelly, Ruth
Kelly, Raymond
Kensil, John
Kensil, Margaret
Kensil, William
King, William
Knowlton, Anna
Knowlton, Frank, Sr.
Knowlton, Frank, Jr.
Kraft, Edward
Kraft, Mrs. Orenet
Krause, Sarah

Lafferty, Mrs.
Lafferty, Martha
Lawrence, Catharine
Lawrence, George, Sr.
Lawrence, George, Jr.
Lawrence, James
Lawrence, Mrs. Mary
Lawrence, William, Jr.
Lenhardt, David, Sr.
Lenhardt, David, Jr.
Lenhardt, Eleanor
Lenhardt, Margaret
Lenhardt, Mrs. Margaret
Little, Charles
Little, Joseph
Little, Mary
Little, Pauline
Little, William
Logue, Charles

Logue, Margaret
Logue, Robert
Ludwig, Anna M.
Lumbeck, Jennie M.
Lumbeck, Lillian W.
Lundmark, Jacob

MacVaugh, Mrs. Anna
MacVaugh, Sylvania
MacVaugh, William
Maguire, Eliza
Maguire, George
Maguire, Lydia
Major, William
Marley, Emma
Matthews, Vernon
McCall, James
McDowell, Mary
McGinnis, Robert
McHenry, H. Cresson
McHenry, John E.
McKeown, James, Sr.
McKeown, Martha
McKeown, Matthew
McKeown, Lillian
McKeown, Rebecca
McLaughlin, Anna
McLaughlin, Matilda
McLaughlin, Michael
McLaughlin, Rosella
Mehring, Mrs. Anna
Meinhart, Herbert
Men's Club
Meyers, Charles
Meyers, Mary
Miller, Anna
Miller, Dorothy
Miller, Eleanore
Miller, Robert
Miller, Walter
Miller, Warren
Mitchell, Mrs. Madeline
Morris, Sadie
Morse, Annie J.
Munion, Harry
Munion, Henrietta P.
Munion, Winthrop
Murphy, Margaret
Murphy, Sarah

Nilsson, Frederick
Nilsson, Mrs. Anna
Nilsson, Catharine
Nilsson, Hilma
Nelson, John J., Jr.
Nelson, Mrs. Harry
Nelson, Harry
Nugent, Eleanor M.
Nuttall, Miss Hannah

O'Donnell, Mrs. Kath.
Olsen, Genevive
Olsen, Mrs. Genevive
Olsen, Grace
Orr, Mary
Orr, Richard, Jr.
Orr, Walter

Patterson, Anna
Patterson, Mrs. John
Patterson, John, Jr.
Payne, Mrs. Emma
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, James
Pearo, Mrs. Mary
Penrose, Dorothy
Penrose, Mrs. Raymond
Penrose, Raymond
Piccione, Mrs. Elizabeth
Pickering, Mrs. Nellie
Pierce, Evelyn
Pierce, Mrs. Eva
Pine, Catherine
Pine, Edward
Pine, Frank
Pine, Mrs. Frank
Poynter, Elizabeth
Poynter, Mrs. Jennie
Preole, James
Preole, John C.
Preole, John F.

Quaile, Mrs. Clara
Quaile, Clara V.
Quaile, Dorothy
Quaile, Marion
Quaile, William

Rand, Andrew
Rand, Mrs. Mary
Read, Mrs. Hannah
Redding, Mrs. Frances
Reynolds, Leona
Reynolds, Walter
Richards, Viola
Robinson, Mrs. Annie
Robinson, James
Rodebaugh, Mrs. Evelyn
Rodebaugh, Robert
Roddy, Dora
Rudderow, Godfrey
Rudderow, Bertha
Rutter, Catherine
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Jennie
Rutter, Jeremiah K.
Rutter, Mrs. Jeremiah K.
Rutter, Margaret
Rutter, Robert

Scarinci, Rev. G. A.
Schaab, Frederick
Schabacker, Miss Anna
Schlembac, Mrs. Catharine
Schlembac, Charles
Schmidt, Frank
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank
Schmidt, Martha W.
Schoenheiter, Harry
Seher, Catharine
Seher, Harry
Seher, Margaret
Shield, Mrs. Bella
Shoch, Mrs. Minnie
Silbert, Miss Ella
Silbert, Mrs. Ella
Smith, Mrs. Rebecca
Snell, Richard
Snell, Mrs. Richard
Snell, Richard
Snell, Mrs. Richard
Snell, Samuel, Sr.,
Snell, Mrs. Samuel, Sr.
Spratt, John, Jr.
Spratt, Margaret
Spratt, Thomas
Springer, Mrs. Anna
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, Mrs. Laura
Stenger, Webster
Stenger, William
Stockman, Florence
Stockman, Harry
Stockman, Robert
Sylvester, David
Stone, William
Stryker, Mrs. Emma
Stryker, Valentine
Subtalae, Mrs. Florence
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Sutterlin, Ethel
Sutterlin, Thelma
St. John's Fellowship

Tesche, Cecelia
Tittermary, Mrs. Anna
Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Harry, Sr.
Tittermary, Johanna
Tittermary, Margaret
Tittermary, Miss Margt.
Tucker, Benjamin

Venezialle, Mrs. Antoinette
Venezialle, Dominick
Vanezialle, Frances
Veronica, Mrs. Alberta
Volpe, Peter

Ward, Abraham
Ward, Abraham, Jr.
Ward, Carrie
Ward, Mrs. Carrie
Ward, William
Warren, Anna
Watkins, Mrs. Mary
Watkins, Richard
Watts, Miss Sarah
Weber, Mrs. Lettie
Weber, John
Weissinger, Frank
Weissinger, Mrs. Mary
Weist, Charles
Weist, Mrs. Florence
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Eleanor
Woerner, Mrs. Hannah
Woerner, Rudolph, Sr.
Woerner, Rudolph, Jr.
Weller, Mrs. C.
Woessner, Charles
Woessner, Miss Clara
Woessner, Mrs. Clara
Woman's Auxiliary
Woodruff, Edmund
Woodruff, Howard
Woodruff, Joseph
Woodruff, Mrs. Mary
Woodruff, Walter

Young, George M.
Young, Mrs. Laura
Young, Viola
Young, William, Jr.
Young Women's Christian League

Sunday Evening Service

Where do you spend your Sunday evening?

How do you spend your Sunday evening?

These are questions of real value I am asking you. It means more to you than you dream as to where and how you spend the Lord's Day. I remember some years ago I was spending several weeks at Colorado Springs. The first Sunday I went to church in the morning and was spiritually uplifted by the beautiful service and strengthening sermon. In the evening the friends I was with suggested that we visit a certain family of friends early in the evening. We did so. After a delightful Sunday evening tea, we sat around discussing different topics of interest. Along about 7.30 somebody turned on the victrola and we were regaled with light opera music. Of course, there was nothing particular in that. A little later I innocently asked if any present were going to evening service. I saw them all exchange peculiar glances and no one uttered a sound. Somehow I felt I had been guilty of some sort of social blunder and subsided forthwith. My apparent error did not seem to do much damage to anybody's feelings, however; for shortly after somebody turned on the jazz and five or six couples arose and proceeded to dance. No, I am not prepared to say that even that was wrong. If it is not a sin to dance on Saturday why certainly it is not a sin to dance on Sunday. Yet I felt very uneasy sitting there attired as a priest of the church and seemingly give countenance to a thing I felt was, to say the least, untimely. I am happy to say that my friends appreciated my position and, in order to relieve me of my embarrassment, they made excuses for early leaving. After we were away from the house they apologized for the occurrence. The great difficulty was that a spirit of frivolity had been injected into the Lord's Day. The spiritual lessons and the spiritual impressions of the morning were not given time to be fixed. Consequently, frivolity being the last influence of the evening was the lasting influence of the day. The tones are neutralized and the strengthening of the spirit is weakened.

The one great heritage we have received from our evangelical brethren is the Sunday Evening Service. It is amazing the outpouring of the people who attend these services. The singing is uplifting, the praying is appealing, the preaching is inspiring and no one can convince me that a Sunday evening spent in such exhilarating spiritual exercise is not of wonderful benefit to the spirit of the worshippers.

My object in writing so strongly in favor of the Sunday evening service is because I want you to join me in making our Sunday evening service more attractive and of greater spiritual benefit to each other. All year 'round—Spring, Summer, Fall, Winter, without missing one Sunday, we have Sunday evening service at St. John's. Come and join us in our Evening Worship and receive a Blessing.

AT THE CROSS ROADS

It is but a lonely country crossroad. Houses are few and scattered. The sun has set; darkness rests over all. A weary traveler stands uncertain which way to turn. With a sigh, as though it mattered little, he plods straight ahead. As he walks he wonders where he will rest his body this night. There comes to him from far away the music of church chimes, made doubly sweet by distance. They remind him that it is the closing of the Day of Rest. Ah, the "Day of Rest" and he so lonely, friendless and tired! There it is—in the distance ahead—the little Chapel of the Chimes. Light is streaming through the long narrow windows as though each ray is a reaching, beckoning, eager finger of welcome to the wanderer. There are the tones of the chapel organ, soft and sweet as only little chapel organs can be. It is playing the interlude of that mighty hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light." Now human voices sing in beautiful harmony:

"Lead kindly light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on.
The night is dark and I am far from home.
Lead Thou me on!
Keep Thou my feet, I do not care to see the distant scene.
One step enough for me."

Now the little congregation is singing the second stanza but they are not singing it alone. Out in the night a stranger joins in and sings from memory:

"I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
Shouldst lead me on.
I loved to choose my path, but now
Lead Thou me on.
I loved the garish days, and spite of fears
Pride ruled my heart, remember not past years."

A little pause, the organ plays the interlude to the last stanza, the stranger moves slowly forward as though walking in a dream. Again the voices in the cheery chapel and the voice of the night sing in unison:

"So long Thy power has blest me, sure it still
Will lead me on;
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent till
The night is gone.
And with the morn those angel faces smile.
Which I have loved long since and lost awhile."

Nearer and nearer draws the wanderer until just as the hymn is ended he stands with bowed, uncovered head before the open door, for it is summer time. The preacher, a venerable and Godly man, is addressing the Throne of Grace in quiet tones of prayer. The wanderer draws a little closer in time to hear, "Remember in Thy love, O Father, the children of the night. They are in Thy world. They are my brother, my sister. As Thou hast revealed Thyself to me, reveal Thyself to my brother that we may be one with Thee." And so in tones of childlike simplicity and faith, the holy man prays. After the Amen and during the natural pause before resuming the service, a low moan is heard by those nearest the door. Curiously they turn and see the ragged, tottering figure of the wayfarer. Involuntarily some spring to their feet, others with little suppressed sounds of alarm strain away. The commotion causes others to turn and stare until all the congregation are facing the stranger. Last of all the man of God looks from the Book as he is about to read God's message to His flock. Caught by the peculiar attitude of his people he, too, looks at the stranger. Their glances meet and seem to lock. Long and earnestly the two look into each other's eyes. As if by magic, a beautiful smile plays upon the lips of the pastor. He is coming down from his pulpit, he is outstretching his arms, he is almost running with glad, springing steps towards the strange visitor. He is putting his arm around his shoulder. Why, he is kissing him on the cheek! "Welcome, welcome, O my brother, God has answered my prayer at last."

Turning to his dumbfounded flock he is saying—dear friends, many years I have prayed that God would send back my brother to me. Tonight He has answered my prayer, for this is indeed the brother I have lost so long. Turning again with quaint eagerness he says, come in, come in, my brother, and sit with me. Proudly the old man leads him to the front of the church, and with delightful old school courtesy, he motions him to a seat. The congregation, moist eyed, with loving smile for their beloved pastor, resume their seats. The service progresses. Just before the sermon the stranger is seen leaning over and saying something to his minister brother, who gives a sign of assent. The stranger is speaking.

"Friends, you have witnessed a strange thing tonight. I have asked your pastor to let me tell you who I am. I am a poor wanderer who is paying the penalty of a great sin. I have been tramping all day long, begging my food at farm house doors. I have no place to go. I am a stranger to these parts. When I first saw this little chapel and heard the vesper bells and saw the light of welcome in the window, I was drawn as by a magnet. I heard the voice of prayer—I knew that voice too well. Over the years of the past I could hear its tones. It was the voice of my brother. For a moment I was wild with fright and dumb so that I could not speak. I must have made some sort of noise for as I was staring at my brother I was conscious of movements before me. Years ago, when we were boys on the old farm, I was hot tempered and vicious dispositioned. One day over a fancied wrong I went insane with passion. When I came to myself again I saw my brother stretched out before me still and pale."

"Stop! brother, stop!" White and trembling the pastor has risen. "You must not go on; I did not mean that you should——"

"No," the stranger interrupted with quiet dignity. "Either I must tell all or I must not tarry."

A look of deep pain creeps into the eyes of the pastor. "But why, why must you go on? My people are not curious, they will love and respect you because you are my brother."

"I must tell all, I must tell all," the stranger repeats. "This is my confession. I cannot hope for pardon until I tell who and what I am."

With a little gesture of sad surrender the pastor sits down. The stranger continues.

"I had struck him to the ground with a piece of wood. Frightened I leaned over and felt for his heart. I could not feel it beating. Terror-stricken I leaped to my feet and, like a coward, I fled with the brand of Cain upon me. I escaped detection and all trace of me was lost. For years and years I have been a wanderer and a vagabond, always fleeing, never resting. But, oh, dear God, what a relief. The burden of my guilt is lifted, the brand of Cain is obliterated and my brother is restored to me. At last I can cease my wanderings. I can rest in peace."

A sound of quiet sobbing is heard. Men cough, clear their throats and half-ashamed, brush an unbidden tear from their weather-beaten cheeks. There is a long stillness; then with instinctive delicacy the congregation quietly withdraws and leaves the brothers alone, kneeling side by side in the stillness of that holy place too thankful to utter a sound. But God who can hear the very thoughts of man, bows down and listens and smiles.

Use Me, Don't Abuse Me,
Neither Tear, Soil or Lose Me;
But Read Me and Heed Me
And in Future You'll Not Need Me.

I am your friend!

Like other friends, I give better service if you treat me gently.

I dislike to be thrown on the floor.

I feel crushed when someone sits upon me.

I am offended when you write or draw pictures upon my nice, clean pages.

My back aches terribly when you bend me the wrong way.

You'll be ashamed of me when I'm shabby.

I cost a good deal, but some of your friends bought me that I might help you.

Try to understand me.

Learn to love my messages.

Treat me gently——

And I will serve you faithfully for a long time.

I Am Your Hymn Book
and Your Prayer Book

Charles N. Perrin.

The Church Envelope

The Spark Plug of the Church Machinery

We have sometimes thought that if every communicant understood that the CHURCH ENVELOPE is THE VITAL SPARK OF THE CHURCH ORGANIZATION he would, perhaps, appreciate more fully the reason why we are so constantly playing a tune on this one string. The church is like the family. If the pay envelope is satisfactorily full, then we are prosperous; when the pay envelope is thin, then we are poor. THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A PROSPEROUS AND A POOR CHURCH IS FOUND IN THE CHURCH ENVELOPE. Some churches in very poor neighborhoods are prosperous because FOLKS GIVE WHAT THEY CAN AFFORD to the church in their envelopes. Some churches in a rich neighborhood are having a hard struggle for existence because THEIR MEMBERS DO NOT REALIZE THE NEED OF THE CHURCH ENVELOPE.

What we are anxious to establish in our Parish is a system of REGULAR GIVING THROUGH OUR CHURCH ENVELOPE by EVERY HOLDER of a package of envelopes. If we can persuade our people that EVERY ENVELOPE IS NEEDED to meet our expenses and provide for the future, our financial worries will be over and we will be able to devote more of our time and attention to other things of importance to the Parish.

In order to establish a more systematic and a more regular habit of giving in your Church Envelope WE ARE ARRANGING TO HAVE OUR AUDITING COMMITTEE EXAMINE THE CHURCH ACCOUNTS ONCE A QUARTER and send out statements to DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS as to how their account stands with the Church. THIS IS JUST A MOVE TOWARDS BETTER BUSINESS; for we confidently believe that if a communicant is informed of what he owes the Church BEFORE IT GETS TOO BIG FOR HIM TO HANDLE, he will be grateful for the reminder and will cheerfully meet his obligations to the Church. WE BELIEVE EVERY MAN IS FUNDAMENTALLY HONEST.

The real trouble frequently is an indifference bred of an irregular method of conducting church business. PERHAPS WE ARE MORE TO BLAME THAN THE DELINQUENT MEMBER FOR HIS DELINQUENCY. Had we just given him a little reminder—like every other honest man—he would have paid in full his obligation.

Now when you get your first reminder do not "blow up" and think you are insulted. Just take it like the reasonable honest man or woman you are and say, "Thanks, I will give this matter my earliest attention."

Everybody gets behind now and then. We need a statement of our account to keep us straight. And always remember, dear Parishioner, that SUPPORTING THE CHURCH IS NOT A CHARITY; IT IS AN OBLIGATION which, if we repudiate, we commit a sin against God.

Some folks always interpret the story of Ananias and his wife, Sapphira, as a moral for those who commit the sin of lying. Of course, that is involved. But this is not the original sin that led up to their death. The real cause lay in their attempt to cheat the Church of God out of what they knew they could give. HAD THEY NOT TRIED TO ROB GOD THEY WOULD NOT HAVE LIED TO S. PETER.

YOU know what you can and ought to subscribe to the Church. The only other One is GOD. It is a matter between YOU and HE what you put in your Church Envelope.

Be Sure He Does Not Catch You Cheating

74 More Names of Coal Contributors

The following is a list of Coal Contributors who, for different reasons, could not send in their envelope in time to have their names printed in the last issue of "The Broadcaster."

Archer, Sallie
Armstrong, Florence
Barnes, Mrs. Mary
Barnes, William, Sr.
Barnes, William, Jr.
Beck, John
Bryans, Annie
Capie, Hester
Capie, William
Crawford, Mabel
Cunningham, Mrs. Sarah
Cunningham, Sarah
Dart, Edward
Daughters of the King
Dean, Mary
Downes, George, Jr.
Erickson, Margaret
Erickson, Mrs. James, Jr.
Erickson, Joseph
Fanger, Anna
Fanger, Harry
Felder, Heywood
Fitzpatrick, Catharine
Fitzpatrick, Edward
Friend, Florence
Friend, Thomas
Gregory, George
Gregory, Grace
Griggs, Anna
Griggs, Mrs. Elizabeth
Hall, Louisa
Hartman, Earl, Sr.
Hopkins, May
Jaeschke, Gus
Kelly, Charles
Kelly, Mary
Kelly, Ruth
Kelly, Vera
Lenhart, David
Lenhart, Margaret
McCall, William
McKeown, Lillian
McKeown, Matthew
Mehring, Anna
Maguire, Eliza
Maguire, George
Maguire, Lydia
Mitchell, Madeline
Morris, Sadie
Munion, Henrietta
Murphy, Margaret
Murphy, Sarah
Patterson, Carrie
Payne, Emma
Pine, Lillian
Reynolds, Mrs. C.
Roddy, Dora
Rutter, Catharine
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Jennie
Schweppenheiser, Mabel
Silbert, Ella
Silbert, Ella
Stenger, Webster
Taylor, Ethel
Taylor, Sarah
Taylor, Benjamin
Tittermary, Harry, Sr.
Warrington, Charles
Watkins, Mary
Webster, Margaret
Young Women's Christian League

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

"Say It With Flowers"

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

Phone, Baring 0912

L. Spoerhase & Son

Watches, Jewelry, Diamonds

4078 Lancaster Avenue

Fine Repairing a Specialty

Store Open Friday and Saturday Evenings

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

A Happy New Year to All Our Readers

Now is the time to make your good resolutions and keep them.

* * *

St. John's Annual Bazaar Was a Success

* * *

Our job this year is to give A-Cent-A-Day to the Building Fund of the Memorial Parish House.

* * *

A list of the late givers of Christmas Envelopes will be published in the next issue of "The Broadcaster."

* * *

Remember the Memorials! The List Is Growing

* * *

We are glad to see so many new faces in our Sunday School. We like to welcome new scholars.

* * *

Just one more word about the Church Envelope. Please do not neglect it. We are working most economically and need every help you can give us.

* * *

"The people of the United States spend more than a million dollars for chewing gum every week"—and park the nasty stuff under the back pews of St. John's Church every Sunday.

* * *

"Spiders of New Guinea spin their webs so strong they are used for fishing nets."—That's how human spiders catch a lot of poor fish in Philadelphia.

* * *

"Officers of the Salvation Army preach in sixty-seven languages."—They sure are some linguists.

* * *

"The deepest place in the ocean is 32,636 feet."—We have been in much deeper holes lots of times.

* * *

FOUR HUNDRED COMMUNICANTS GAVE TO OUR CHRISTMAS PARTY. WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THAT!

* * *

Did you ever see such an outpouring of the Parish on Christmas Day?

* * *

REMEMBER THE SUNDAY EVENING SERVICE ALL THE YEAR OF 1930. BE PRESENT AND BRING OTHERS.

* * *

Broadcasting from Laughland

A colored preacher in Alabama noticed a new face in his congregation, and when the service was ended he hurried down to greet the newcomer.

"Marvin," he said, "this is the first time you've been in our church. I'm mighty glad to see you."

Whereupon Marvin replied: "Ah had to come,

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner

2d and Reed Streets

TURKEYS and Fresh-Killed CHICKENS

Groceries at Special Prices

CHAIR CANING

UPHOLSTERING SEWING

PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

If You Want—

Delicious Mince Pies

Use

ATMORE'S EXTRA FANCY

MINCE MEAT

Or, You May Prefer

Atmore's Plum Pudding

Ask Your Grocer for Both

ATMORE & SON, Inc.

110-124 Tasker St. Founded 1842

E. BOWEN & SON

1018 South Second Street

(Above Washington Avenue)

parson. Ah needs some strengthening. Ah's got me a job white-washing a chicken coop and building a fence around a watermelon patch."

* * *

"How did you cure your wife of her antique craze?"

"Oh, I just gave her a 1907 model automobile for her birthday."

Rastus (to lawyer friend): "Mistah George, I'se done feared dey's goin' t' arrest me foh stealing, an' Ah wants yo' t' 'fend me."

Lawyer—"You're afraid they are going to arrest you for stealing and you want me to defend you? Well, Rastus, have you any money?"

Rastus—"No, sah, Ah ain't got no money, but Ah got a nineteen-twenty-two model Fo'd cah."

Lawyer—"Well, you can raise some money on that. Now, let's see—just what do they think you stole?"

Rastus—"A nineteen-twenty-two model Fo'd cah."

* * *

"A house is built of logs and stone,
Of tiles and posts and piers;
A home is built of loving deeds
That stand a thousand years."

—Victor Hugo.

* * *

I heard a voice sayingors: vfourCo—waDchetaoi

I heard a voice at evening softly say, "Bear not thy yesterday into tomorrow, nor load this week with last week's load of sorrow. Lift all thy burdens as they come, not try to weight the present with the by and by. One step and then another, take thy way; live day by day. Though autumn leaves are withering 'round thy way, walk in the sunshine. It is all for thee. Push straight ahead as long as thou can'st see; dread not the winter whither thou mayest go, but when it comes, be thankful for the snow. Onward and upward. Look and smile and pray; live day by day."

* * *

Lucy's grandmother, with whom Lucy had often been shopping, gave her a dime one Sunday morning for the Sunday School collection. When Lucy returned home, her grandmother asked if she had put the dime in the class contribution.

"No, I didn't, Grandma."

"But why didn't you?"

"Because I found a bargain. You see it was this way: I met a man pushing one of those ice cream carts, and I stopped and asked him if he ever went to church, and he said he did, every Sunday. Then I said, 'Mister, if I give you this dime for two ice cream cones, will you put in the collection?' and he said, 'Sure, kiddo!' So I gave him the dime and he gave me two ice cream cones. Don't you think, Grandma, that was a pretty good bargain?"

* * *

"Why don't you buy something at my table?" demanded the girl at the charity fair.

"Because I only buy from the homely girls," said the man. "They have a harder time making sales."

The girl was not offended, and the man worked the game right down the line.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 4, No. 2 PHILADELPHIA, FEBRUARY, 1930 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

PARISH COMMITTEE

William Forster
John Weber
Vernon Matthews
John Patterson, Jr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
Willliam Hasson
Robert MacGinniss

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Margaret Rutter

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Miss Martha W. Schmidt, Secretary
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. William Capie
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

Men's Club

President, George Cressee, Sr.
Vice President, Charles Little.
Secretary, George Downes, Jr.
Treasurer, John Weber.

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Gillen, Harry Charles
Lord, Genevive Agnes

MARRIAGES

Harry W. Rutter and Helen E. Brown.

BURIALS

Jackson, Samuel
McLaughlin, Mary

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

Interesting and True

Two Incidents Which Show Our Brotherhood Is Making History

Tuesday, January 7, the Brotherhood Chapter of St. John's Free Church, Emerald and Elkhart streets, Frankford, invited the Brotherhood Chapters of the Church of St. John the Evangelist and St. George's, Kensington, to a reunion and supper which was held in the beautiful Parish House of that parish. After the regular business of the Chapter was disposed of, the Director invited the Rector, the Rev. Lewis Sasse, to welcome the visiting chapters and help make them feel at home, which he did in a most gracious manner. Mr. Hall, the Director, then called upon Mr. McHenry to speak. Mr. McHenry reminded those present that St. John's Chapter had every reason to be present and interested in the events of the evening, because it was St. John's Chapter that had really been the father of the local chapter inasmuch as it was to St. John's Chapter Mr. Hall and a few of his companions came for information and instruction as to how to organize and conduct a Brotherhood. To St. John's delegation the occasion had a peculiar interest because of this interesting fact. He congratulated the local chapter on its evident enthusiasm and extended most cordial wishes for its future success. The Rev. Arnold H. Hord, of St. George's Parish, followed Mr. McHenry and uncovered the interesting fact that the Brotherhood Chapter in St. George's Parish was organized by the Brotherhood Chapter of St. John's Free Church. "Such being the case," continued Mr. Hord, "I find an unsuspected relationship existing between Mr. McHenry and myself. If his Chapter is the father of St. John's Free Church Chapter and that chapter in turn is the father of St. George's Chapter, then surely Mr. McHenry and his Chapter is the grandfather of St. George Chapter." Which, of course, is true.

The incident shows that the influence of St. John's Chapter leaped parochial bounds and projected its influence into another parish and bore fruit in the birth of a new chapter, which in turn was the means of creating still another chapter. We do not mean to claim that neither of these parishes would have done Brotherhood work along Brotherhood lines had it not been for our Chapter. But we surely have the honor of being the source from which the one chapter drew its information and in turn passed it on.

Another incident worth recording among the annals of our Chapter is the founding of a chapter at the Mission of the Transfiguration, Seventh and Bigler streets. Our old and very valued friend, Edward Proffitt, is the Director and reports that it is making fine progress. Consequently, we find that St. John's Brotherhood is the father of two healthy children and a grandfather to a bouncing baby.

Personally we are proud of this record, and the parishioners of St. John's, especially the men and boys, have every reason to encourage the work of the home Chapter.

We need two things in our Chapter. The first is less delinquency among some of its members. And the second is, more applications for membership from the members of the Parish. If other parishes recognize the fine work of our Chapter, certainly the home folk ought to be in the van with their support and co-operation.

We wish our delinquent members had been within hearing and seeing distance on the evening of the reunion of the three chapters. We are sure that they would have been so proud that they would have renewed their allegiance to their Brotherhood Chapter there and then. The trouble with our delinquent brothers, and a few others, is they do not realize the real importance of our Brotherhood of St. Andrew, because THEY have been so long absent from the Chapter meetings they think IT has grown too weak to survive. Don't be so egotistical! Our Chapter is not only alive but it is doing a big work, even if YOU have stopped coming. Put some ice on that swelled head of yours and get normal enough to realize that YOUR CHAPTER IS FAMOUS even beyond the parochial borders and that YOU are getting more and more out of the picture. If you are not careful you will soon be a non-existent entity or something.

Suppose They Know And Understand?

We Are Sure of Your Answer Before You Give It

You and I believe in life after death. We do not know under just what conditions we live after we "Cross the Border." But suppose we are able to take cognizance of events here and under the motive and meaning of those events; what do you think is the attitude of our beloved "over there" who understand why we are not satisfied with the tombstone as an adequate means of registering our love and our temporary loss of them? That we feel a piece of marble, however beautifully sculptured, is too inadequate, too cold to be a real memorial to them. Suppose they see how we are working to raise a living, an active Memorial in the form of a Parish House, where the boys and girls, men and women, can come every day and every night for recreation and profit. Suppose they can understand what such a Memorial would mean in the life of the Community, DO YOU THINK THEY APPROVE OF WHAT WE ARE DOING?

Personally, I believe it fills them with profound joy to know that we are doing our best to show our love for them by helping our fellow man.

Then, too, it costs so much less than the piece of marble we call a tombstone. Every way you look at it we feel that such a house erected in their memory certainly must appeal strongly to them as well as to us. We are working hard to get enough names for the Memorial Tablet which is to be placed in the new Parish House to materially reduce the mortgage the Parish must assume in order to get the building. As has been so widely advertised the MINIMUM COST for each name that goes on the tablet is $10.00. This can be paid in cash or in weekly payments, just as you feel you can afford it. We would welcome enthusiastically memorials from those too poor to pay the cash. For all such it means a blessed opportunity to help erect a real memorial to their beloved whose name they are too poor to have carved in stone and placed upon the grave.

The amount is not limited to $10.00 for each name. Some have paid more for the privilege. If you feel so inclined and can afford to do so, you can raise your contribution to any amount you choose. It is being done.

Bishop Garland suggested that we work for a big Lenten Offering this year and divide the money between Missions and the MEMORIAL PARISH HOUSE. We are going to follow his advice. Our reputation in the Diocese for raising a big Lenten Offering will certainly suffer an eclipse but I feel we deserve to help ourselves now because we have helped so well the Missionary activities of the Church at large in past years.

Easter Day is an ideal day to bring in your Memorials. Why not make this Easter Day our Memorial Day and bring in as many names for the Tablet we can get? Tell all your friends what we are trying to accomplish. If any friend or relative should have the sad experience of laying to rest one who is near and dear to them, suggest this beautiful Memorial idea to them. It will surely give them the same comfort and outlet for their natural feelings as it has given so many of us. You will be doing a real kindness to them, for which they will thank you again and again in future years.

The Woman's Auxiliary

The First Meeting of the Year Shows An Increasing Interest Among Our Women

On the night of the Feast of the Epiphany the Woman's Auxiliary held the first meeting of the year. It was splendidly attended and the interest shown was keen. As usual, the meeting opened with the singing of a missionary hymn. Then followed the Creed and appropriate prayers. The Rector read the Gospel for the Epiphany for the lesson. After the reading of the Minutes of the previous meeting, the five Standing Committees offered their several reports of the meetings attended during the month at the Church House. After the reports had been made and discussed, the Rector called the attention of the members to the first paragraph of the Article on "Work for the Year" published in our last issue, and commented upon the program of work he hopes the Woman's Auxiliary will accomplish in 1930. He spoke of having permanent committees to look after certain parochial activities—such as the Choir, the Bazaar, Clothing for the Poor, the Sick, on Increased Membership and Church attendance. It was suggested that the Committee on visiting the sick purchase sympathy cards to mail to our sick while they are shut in. The Chairman reported that Mrs. John Hill had 'phoned to him asking that a delegation of young women be sent to a meeting that was to be held at St. Paul's Church, Fifteenth and Porter streets, January 15. The meeting was for the purpose of getting the young women of the Church interested in the work of the Auxiliary. It appears this was one of the subjects discussed at the Church House at a subsequent meeting. It would seem that the young women of most Parishes were leaving the work of the Auxiliary to the older women. The leaders of the Auxiliary felt that such an attitude was detrimental to the development of the organization; that in order to "carry on" recruits must be obtained from the ranks of the young womanhood of the Church. The Rector was most interested in the proposition—to such an extent that two years ago he asked the group of young women who were active in Church affairs to identify themselves with the Auxiliary movement, and they did. Their influence was wonderful. Since then our meetings have been full of life and a great spirit of warm friendliness prevails. These young women have taken over the entertainment of the Auxiliary altogether.

In discussing the program for the next meeting, to be held Monday, February 10, the Rector suggested that Mrs. John E. Hill, a leader in the Auxiliary movement, be invited to talk to us on Auxiliary work. The suggestion was unanimously received. Mrs. Hill has many warm friends among the women of St. John's Church and they will be glad to welcome her. We hope all the women of the Parish will try to attend the meeting. We are sure they will profit greatly by the message Mrs. Hill will bring us.

After the Roll Call and the collection of dues, which amounted to $9.76, the young women supplied ice cream and cake for those present.

We cannot help wonder why so many of our women let these Auxiliary meetings pass by without giving them the least thought, for they are wonderfully alive and full of fun and enthusiasm. At least we must not let our visitor come next month and not find a good representation of our women present.

Sunday Evening Services

Their Real Importance Soon Felt in Every Life

We view with uneasiness the tendency to neglect the Sunday Evening Service by the many churches and denominations about us. We fear the ones to blame are the pastors and rectors themselves. It is most unfortunate that the custom was ever started because the parishes are beginning to reap the results of such folly. Now that some churches have quit their Sunday evening jobs, other churches who sincerely wish to continue this most important service, find themselves greatly handicapped because the young folks freed from this Sunday evening obligation cannot understand why their friends who attend other churches do not have the same liberty to go and do what they please Sunday evening. Thus many a young man and young woman who once attended with commendable regularity every service of the church, consider it sufficient for their spiritual growth to come to the morning service and spend just ONE HOUR AND A HALF out of the ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-EIGHT HOURS OF THE WEEK in a sort of duty worship to God.

But is it sufficient?

Can anybody hope to get close to God in such short and perfunctory worship? IF WE SPEND ONLY 1½ HOURS OF GOD'S 24 HOURS IN PRAYER AND PRAISE WHAT ARE WE DOING WITH THE OTHER 22½ HOURS OF GOD'S TIME? Especially what are we doing with the evening hours of the Christian Sabbath? What do our young people do with themselves—where do they go?

Our parents ought to be specially awake to the responsibility of the situation. Sunday evening parties, Sunday evening dances, Sunday evening joy rides, Sunday evening street corner gatherings are not spiritually uplifting, but in all too many cases are the direct cause of a complete moral and spiritual breakdown of the individual. We are not alarmists in any sense of the word. As a matter of fact, we are covering up the real facts and giving the parents of our children just a peep under the curtain. If they knew all that is going on behind, they would urge the Sunday Evening Service as a refuge from the menace of the modern Sunday evening pleasure riots.

Fortunately, with few exceptions, the young folk of St. John's Parish are pretty well balanced. Our object in building up a strong and interesting Sunday Evening Service is to help our young folks win their friends of the closed churches to pass the closing hours of the Christian Sabbath with them in prayer and praise. We ask every parish organization to use every endeavor to help the Rector make the Sunday Evening Service a success that many souls may be saved. We specially ask the Woman's Auxiliary, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Daughters of the King, the Young People's Fellowship and the Choir to join hands and work for a more Godly Sunday evening by inviting men and women, boys and girls, to come and worship with us. Also, we ask your most earnest prayers in behalf of those who have become lukewarm and are neglecting this most necessary season of spiritual refreshing.

GOD HELP US ALL TO BE MORE THOUGHTFUL OF HIM AND OF HIS RIGHTS

Subscriptions to "The Broadcaster"

If It Is Worth Anything, It Is Worth Supporting

October, 1926, the first issue of the BROADCASTER appeared. It has become an important part of our parochial machinery and has been the means of keeping every communicant of the Parish in touch with its activities. It has also been a valuable medium for conveying news of our Parish to scores of influential churchmen outside the Parish and has aroused a sympathy and admiration in the hearts of many who heretofore had looked upon the "Downtown Problem" as a hopeless proposition. It has been the means of broadcasting far and wide in other States, in China, Japan and many other countries—the sparks of optimism so well known and appreciated by all the lucky members of St. John's Church.

The BROADCASTER is supported mainly by its advertisements. We owe a real debt of gratitude to them and the members of the Parish ought to show their appreciation for it by patronizing every advertiser who has taken space in the monthly. THE ADVERTISERS ARE YOUR NEIGHBORS. Consequently, you ought to show a neighborly feeling towards them and give them all your trade. SAVE YOUR CAR TOKENS FOR BETTER AND MORE URGENT USES AND DO YOUR SHOPPING AT YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD STORES. At least give your trade to those who advertise in the BROADCASTER.

We need more funds than just the receipts from our ads to keep our feet out of the mire of debt. WE NEED YOUR SUBSCRIPTION OF ONE DOLLAR a year to help us limp along our financial way. You certainly get ONE DOLLAR'S worth of interest and entertainment out of the BROADCASTER. Why, the "jokes from LAUGHLAND" are worth a dollar a year.

Yet we have just two subscriptions offered us this year. One is from MRS. MARY CORSON, the other is from MR. CHARLES LITTLE. As we said in the beginning, "IF THE BROADCASTER IS WORTH ANYTHING IT IS WORTH SUPPORTING." Do you know it costs 2 cents every month to mail you a Broadcaster? In 12 months it costs 24 cents for mailing alone. Now if you pay only $1.00 a year as your subscription you are actually paying 76 cents plus 24 cents postage for the finest Church Periodical out of captivity.

Our hand is out for more Subscriptions. Line please form on the right; do not push; have a dollar note in your hand so as it will not be necessary to waste time making change.

NOW, ALTOGETHER!!

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL

Shows a Most Surprising Increase Since Christmas

If anybody tells you that more children attend Sunday School just before Christmas than after Christmas, don't you believe them. St. John's Sunday School proves that it is not true. Here is our report covering the Sunday before Christmas and the three Sundays after Christmas:

December 22—Officers, Teachers and Scholars Present	214
December 29—Officers, Teachers and Scholars Present	264
January 5—Officers, Teachers and Scholars Present	272
January 12—Officers, Teachers and Scholars Present	280

Since that time there has been a steady and gratifying increase. This may be due to decreasing the number of our classes and increasing the membership of each. Our experience is that the big class is the best class. There is a stronger class feeling and more friendships are made and preserved in a big class group. It is our intention in the future to decrease the number of classes and build up the numerical strength of the classes we have. This policy will enable us to strengthen our teaching force also. One of the most embarrassing features of the old system was with our teaching staff. A peculiar lack of responsibility seemed to exist among some of our teachers. Now our teaching force, though smaller, is accomplishing 40 per cent. more efficient work than did the old staff. We do not mean this for criticism of the teachers who have retired, they no doubt had good reasons for so doing, though they never mentioned those reasons to us. But we are sure that the combining of the smaller classes into fewer and bigger classes has had a tonic effect upon the whole Sunday School.

St. John's is rapidly becoming the largest Sunday School in South Philadelphia. Just a little bit more missionary effort on our part and we will go over the top.

THE MEN'S CLUB

Interest in the Club is Growing

At the last meeting of the Men's Club we had the pleasure of listening to a very interesting description of how Christmas is celebrated in foreign lands. The talk was given by Mr. E. M. Frank, who speaks from experience. It is our intention to have some such interesting talk at each of the meetings. The whole purpose of the Men's Club is to get the men of South Philadelphia together in one social group once a month and spend a profitable and enjoyable evening in this manner. If any of our members have any suggestions to make to help make our meetings interesting we are open to suggestion. We hope some day to see as large and as active Men's Club in South Philadelphia as we have in other parts of the city. Any man, whether he is a member of St. John's Church or whether he is a member of no church is most cordially invited to join the club.

More Members of Our Christmas Party

Members of the Parish who were delayed in sending their Christmas Contribution:

Archer, Mrs. Sallie	Fischer, John
Clerico, Ferdy	Fischer, Mary
Clerico, Mattie	Gresh, Mrs. Margt.
Connor, Rachel V.	Kelly, Mary
Cooper, Helen	Righter, Bertha
Cunningham, Mrs. S.	Schweppenheiser, Mabel
Dart, E. J.	Taylor, Benjamin
Davis, John W.	Taylor, Ethel E.
Davis, Pressesses	Taylor, Sarah E.
Feinauer, Amy	Taylor, William A.

This makes a grand total of 416 Christmas Contributors, amounting to $522.00. We congratulate the Parish upon such an enthusiastic demonstration of Money Power and Man Power. What a wonderful work such a big organization can do for God and His Kingdom if we co-operate and get others as interested in our Christian effort to win men and women to the Service of the Cross.

Since our last issue we have also received contributions to our COAL FUND from Ferdy Clerico and William Hasson.

Mrs. John E. Hill Is Delayed

We are just in time to slip in the Broadcaster the notice that, owing to a previous engagement, Mrs. Hill finds it impossible to attend the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, Monday, February 10, but promises positively to be present Monday, March 3. We hope all our women, especially the young women, will be present to meet her. She is worth meeting.

Seven Reasons—With One Conclusion

The habit of church attendance is profitable because—

1—It Rests the Body.

It is good for a man's health to alter the routine in the week for attendance at the Lord's sanctuary. The rest and quiethood of the house of prayer will be a source of recuperation to any citizen.

2—It Refreshes the Mind.

Church attendance invigorates the mental faculties by engaging them with the great themes called love, duty and immortality.

3—It Promotes Brotherhood and Democracy.

The Church is a training school for democracy. It stands for brotherhood, a brotherhood that overleaps all distinctions of race, blood or nationality.

4—It Protects Secular Institutions.

The permanence and utility of our schools, libraries, hospitals, stores, mills and factories depend on the godliness of our citizens. The spiritual institutions conserve the material.

5—It Conforms to the Practice of the Best Man That Ever Lived.

Jesus went regularly to church, and if He was benefited by the practice, we may well expect to be benefited by it.

6—It Testifies to the Truth of Christ and Extends His Influence.

Church attendance is a form of religious confession which bears witness before the world to Christ's goodness and power. Every religious meeting is a contribution of the Lord's followers to the Lord's cause. It is through this united testimony that impressions are made on the community.

7—Best of All, It Enables Us to Meet God.

The church is the trysting-place of the soul and its Maker. Where shall we look for God, assured that we shall find Him? Christian experience answers this question of heart-hunger by calling us to the house of prayer.

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

Four Hundred and Sixteen Contributors to the Christmas Fund.

* * *

$522.00 in the Christmas Offering

* * *

St. John's Sunday School is growing every Sunday.

* * *

Be sure to put your CENT-A-DAY in the 85 Club

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

"Say It With Flowers"

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

If You Want—
Delicious Mince Pies
Use
ATMORE'S EXTRA FANCY
MINCE MEAT
Or, You May Prefer
Atmore's Plum Pudding
Ask Your Grocer for Both
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 Tasker St. Founded 1842

pocket of your Church Envelope every Sunday. Every cent counts against the Memorial Parish House Mortgage.

* * *

The ladies are getting ready for a Sour Krout Supper or an Oyster Supper, we don't know which yet. Will let you know later.

* * *

Be sure to speak to your friends about names and subscriptions for the PARISH HOUSE MEMORIAL TABLET.

* * *

Are You Keeping Your Church Envelopes Paid Up?

* * *

Do you realize that over one-half of the communicants of the Parish contributed to the Christmas Fund? Such a large percentage of givers would be remarkable for a wealthy parish. Maybe some day we will be able to report 100 per cent. on the giving line.

* * *

Now we must be getting ready for Lent and Easter.

* * *

The Rector is offering inducements to the Sunday School Class that succeeds in getting back the greatest percentage of old scholars.

* * *

While we are looking up our old scholars we must not forget to go after new ones.

* * *

The strength of the Parish depends greatly upon the strength of the Sunday School. Therefore the Sunday School Officers and Teachers deserve a great deal of credit and encouragement for the fine work they are doing. Some day some boy, some girl will look back with grateful memory to the Sunday School teacher who had such an influence in forming their characters and molding their thoughts which helped them meet the temptations and the trials of life. A GOOD SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER IS A POWERFUL PERSONALITY IN THE LIFE OF EVERY BOY, EVERY GIRL.

* * *

Suppose we all get busy working up our 1930 Confirmation Class. Do not leave all the work to the last minute. Now is the time to propose candidates for the class. Have YOU any candidate to propose?

* * *

Our Christmas Communion was the largest in the history of the Parish.

* * *

The Brotherhood Chapter was delightfully entertained by the Brotherhood of St. John Free Church, Emerald and Elkhart streets, Tuesday, January 7.

* * *

On Thursday, January 16, the Brotherhood Chapter visited St. Paul's Memorial Church, Fifteenth and Porter streets. It is good for the members to make these visits in a body. It gives us an opportunity to get acquainted with other Brotherhood men and a chance to see how they work. We are not so good but that we can learn how to do things better.

* * *

Where do you spend your Sunday evenings?

* * *

Mrs. John E. Hill Will Be the Special Speaker at the Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, Monday, March 3d, at 8 P. M.

Broadcasting from Laughland

STUNG

Vehemently the attorney for the defense bellowed, "Justice! I demand justice! My client ad——"

"Silence," called the judge. "The attorney for the defense will please remember that he is in a court room."

"Your honor, the indictment accuses my client of burglary, and I wish to make it clear to the Court that he did not break into the house. The accused did

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner

2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

E. BOWEN & SON

1018 South Second Street

(Above Washington Avenue)

Phone Jackson 4243-W

FRED SCHAAB

Fancy Fruit and Produce

FRONT and EMILY STS.

Orders Delivered Fish, Oysters and Clams

see an open window, inserted his arm and removed a few dollars from the plaintiff's trousers. My client's arm is not himself. Why punish his whole body when his arm was the guilty member?"

"You have put up a good argument," replied the judge with a wink at the clerk. "I therefore sentence the arm to five years' imprisonment. Your client can accompany it or not, just as he pleases."

The prisoner smiled, took off his artificial arm, handed it to the sheriff, and walked out.

AGGRIEVED AT SANTA

The commercialized Santa who puts in his appearance a full month ahead of Christmas destroys the faith of little children.

" 'Member what I tol' you t' bring me las' year—a automobile and airplane? 'Member what you brung me—jumpin' jack an' two oranges?" said an aggrieved seven-year-old to one of those street corner St. Nicks. "You do that this Christmas an' you'll get a crack in th' jaw!"

Frank—"I always say what I think."

Ethel—"I wondered why you were always quiet."

"What is that distinguished-looking man's business?" "Grave robber," answered Miss Cayenne. "How horrible!" "Not at all. He confines himself exclusively to Egyptian tombs."—Washington Star.

The hawker had just been moved by the policeman and was cross about it. "Garn! Who wouldn't be a policeman?" he taunted. "Nothing to do but stand still doing nothing while he walks around listening for anything he can see!"—Tit-Bits (London).

NOT FOR LONG

It's the little things that bother us. You can sit on a mountain, but not on a tack!—Panther.

'WAY BACK WHEN

He—"Oh, she's not as old as that!"

Ha—"Old! Why, that woman remembers the Big Dipper when it was just a drinking cup!"—Yale Record.

FAIR ENOUGH

Says Abie: "Cohen, I've been to the bank to borrow some money, and they say all I need is that you should sign to this note your name. Then I can have all the money I need. Ain't they fine?"

"Abie," says Cohen reproachfully, "you and I have been friends for many years, and yet you go to the bank when you need money. Abie, you just go again to the bank and say that they should sign the note, and then Cohen will lend you the money!"

NO GOOD AT GOLF

An old retired farmer lived next to a golf course, and was friendly with many of the members. For a long time they tried to induce him to join the club, but he resisted their invitation. Finally, however, he gave in, joined the club, and presented himself for instruction in the game.

They explained the uses of the various clubs to him, after telling him that the object was to hit the little white ball and make it drop into the cup. As they gathered about the old man he took the driver and hit the ball a terrific wallop. It sailed away out of sight.

They hunted for it for a time, and finally one of them discovered it lying by pure chance, six inches from the cup. Everyone congratulated the old man on his wonderful first shot. He looked at the ball, then at the hole, and said, "By heck, I missed it!"

Mrs. Garner—"Do you think the baby looks like his father?"

Miss Bett—"I do, but never mind, just as long as he's healthy."

Chatty—"Oh, he's so romantic. When he addresses me he always calls me 'Fair Lady.' "

Catty—"Force of habit, my dear. He's a conductor."

Forty per cent. of the women in the country are working-women. The other sixty per cent. are working men.

Elmer, age 13, was puzzled over the girl problem and discussed the matter with his pal.

"I've walked to school with her three times," he said, "carried her books and bought ice cream. Now, Joe, do you think I ought to kiss her?"

"Naw," Joe decided after a moment of deep thought, "you've done enough for that girl already."

WRONG KIND

Donal M'Tavish was not feeling just like himself, so he went to see the doctor.

"What do you drink?"

"Whiskey," answered the old man.

"It might be a bottle a day."

"Do you use tobacco?"

"I smoke sometimes," said Donal.

"You'll need to give up the whiskey and tobacco," announced the doctor.

At that Donal picked up his cap and walked toward the door.

"Wait a minute," called the doctor. "You haven't paid me for my advice."

"I'm no takin' it," and the old man closed the door quickly.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 4, No. 3 PHILADELPHIA, MARCH, 1930 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

PARISH COMMITTEE

William Forster
John Weber
Vernon Matthews
John Patterson, Jr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
Willliam Hasson
Robert MacGinniss

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Margaret Rutter

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Miss Martha W. Schmidt, Secretary
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. William Capie
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

Men's Club

President, George Cressee, Sr.
Vice President, Charles Little.
Secretary, George Downes, Jr.
Treasurer, John Weber.

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Beck, Margaret Frederick

BURIALS

Dodd, Mary Ann
Foster, Joseph

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

The Confirmation Service

The Bishop has appointed THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 8TH, for Confirmation at St. John's Church. In looking over our list of prospective candidates we are impressed with the SPLENDID MATERIAL the parish has to offer. Men and women, boys and girls who are a credit to the parish and would make WORTHWHILE members of the church. We cannot help but wonder why so many of them hesitate to "come forward," as our Methodist brethren say. They believe in God as our Father and in Jesus Christ our Saviour. They know it is right to do good and wrong to do evil. They are friendly towards the church and attend the services. They know that the absence of the church or religious training inevitably lead to careless moral and spiritual habits. They must know that EVERY PERSON WHO IS CONFIRMED STRENGTHENS THE CHURCH by one more unit and weakens irreligious forces in the same ratio. Personally we feel that so long as they know these things THEY ARE NOT FAR FROM THE KINGDOM OF GOD. They need but take one step more and that is to definitely accept the spiritual responsibility which their sponsors assumed for them in their baptism.

We are quite aware that there are certain things which appear to some as obstacles in the way of being confirmed. Some folks are so diffident that they cannot get up enough courage to present themselves for Confirmation. Their self-consciousness makes them weak in the knees and gives them palpitation of the heart when ever they think of going through the ordeal of being confirmed. IT IS SATAN'S FAVORITE WAY OF KEEPING FOLKS FROM BEING CONFIRMED and made active partisans for the Kingdom of God. Some others cannot see for the life of them why it is at all necessary to be confirmed in order to be good. Of course, this is not the reason for Confirmation but it pleases some to take this position. WE DO NOT CLAIM that Confirmation makes men better than they were. What WE DO CLAIM is by becoming a confirmed member of the church one is apt to feel A GREATER PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY for God's work and a more CO-OPERATIVE spirit in developing His Kingdom. Most every person on our list of prospects has been christened. All would unhesitatingly endorse the laws of honesty, purity, truth and neighborliness. Conesquently, there can be no real excuse for their hesitation.

We hope they will make the decision to enter into the service of God this year. We hope to see them standing in the ranks of our candidates on the night of the Confirmation.....

THURSDAY, MAY 8th

SALESMANSHIP

A Pointer For The Sellers of Tickets and Candy

When we approach Lenten Season it means great activity in selling tickets for entertainments, benefits, candy, etc. Now there is just one little suggestion we wish to submit in order to IMPROVE THE SALESMANSHIP of our scholars.

We have been content to bring our wares to the church and solicit sales among our own people. This is perfectly all right, but if we limit our efforts to only those who attend church service we get discouraging results. THERE ARE HUNDREDS OF FAMILIES connected with St. John's Church WHO WOULD BE GLAD TO BUY TICKETS AND CANDY if our sales staff would go to the trouble of calling on them and pushing the button.

THE RECTOR WILL GLADLY FURNISH A LIST OF NAMES AND ADDRESSES OF THOSE LIVING IN YOUR IMMEDIATE NEIGHBORHOOD and who are interested enough in St. John's Church to buy candy, rice, salt, washcloths, tickets or what you have.

A young lad of our parish, unknown to fame but having the "flare" of salesmanship, met a young woman on the street a few nights ago and said, "Lady, won't you buy some candy?"

"I never buy candy from folks on the street," she answered.

"Oh," said the little fellow, "but this is for St. John's Church, who is raising money for our NEW PARISH HOUSE. Our teacher gave us the candy and says we got'ta sell it."

"What church did you say?" demanded the young woman.

"Why, St. John's Church."

"Who is your Sunday School teacher?"

"Vernon Matthews."

"Alright, little boy, I'm a teacher in that Sunday School and sure I'd buy some candy."

"Um-m-m-m, My, that candy's good," said the young lady, chewing on the candy she bought.

"Sure thing," said the kid; "we sell only the best and sell it cheap. Thanks, lady."

That's the way to do it. Get out on the street, stop folks, ring doorbells, and you will sell twice as much as the folks who stand around the church, trying to sell to folks who have already bought.

And don't be squeamish in ringing door bells and ask the neighbors to buy. THEY RING YOUR DOOR BELL and ask your folks to give money or buy something from them.

Turn About's Fair Play

Our 76th Anniversary

It Was An Occasion That Will Long Be Remembered

Only twenty-four years more and we will be a century old. How time does fly! Nobody would have suspected we are so old had they been at our 76th Anniversary. A stranger would have imagined he had wandered into a church that had just been started by a crowd of boys and girls full of "vim" and "pep" and enthusiasm and that the church could not possibly have been older than its young congregation. In the morning we started the busy day with the celebration of the Holy Communion. It was a most impressive service; boys and girls as well as men and women crowded to the Chancel Rail for the Blessed Sacraments. It brought out a great demonstration of man power of the Parish. NEARLY ONE HUNDRED MEN AND BOYS came up in a solid body to receive their Communion. A double line extended all the way from the Chancel down the nave of the church through the door and out in the church hall. Such a sight had never been seen in old St. John's before.

Following the morning service Mrs. Pine and her faithful staff provided a most bountiful dinner for an amazing crowd of guests who had come to stay all day. Four long tables were laid in the Sunday School room which accommodated about one hundred guests. They were filled three times. Anybody who is good at addition can easily guess how many guests Mrs. Pine fed.

At 2.30 P. M. the youthful members of the Parish held their annual Mass Meeting in the church. We counted each head to be sure how many were present and, believe it or not, there were three hundred and twelve at that meeting. The exercises were most interesting and at 4 o'clock a great band of pilgrims went out two by two through the parish seeking delinquent Sunday School scholars and backsliding church members. This is a work for which our young people are specially trained and which they always do with real efficiency. The majority of our pilgrims were members of our Fellowship. They not only visited conscientiously the families of the parish but the reports they individually submitted showed how deeply interested they were in the work. We congratulate them upon their self-sacrificing efforts to make this feature of our 76th Anniversary a success.

Again, at 5.30 P. M., Mrs. Pine served a Parish Supper, which was enjoyed by hundreds of guests, among whom were the delegates of the Daughters of the King, who were there to attend their Sacrifice Offering Service, which was a feature of the evening service.

Were you to ask US what was the most impressive feature of the day we would say Children, Children and More Children. The church was bursting with them and overflowing the streets. The Community realized for the first time the youthfulness of Old St. John's Church.

We Are Getting Younger Every Day

Memorial Flowers For The Altar

A Tender and Beautiful Custom Observed By Many of Our Parishioners

Nearly every Sunday of the year you will see extra clusters of beautiful flowers upon the Altar, placed there by loving hands who wish to observe the Anniversary of the death of their beloved. At one time we sent a reminder to the family of the approaching anniversary so as to be sure the flowers would be sent. We discontinued doing so because we felt it was more or less of an impertinence on our part and that it was not possible for any of us to forget the day of separation.

Our object in bringing this matter to the attention of the parish now is to inform those who have not thought of this way of annually remembering their departed loved ones, that the ALTAR GUILD will be glad to receive all such memorial flowers and will be careful to place them on the Altar on the SUNDAY PREVIOUS TO THE ANNIVERSARY.

May we suggest that in purchasing memorial flowers for the Altar that you instruct your florist to send all white blooms. Mixed colors are not considered in good taste and seldom harmonize with the other flowers on the Altar.

"COMING EVENTS CAST THEIR SHADOWS BEFORE"

The Sunday School is selling candy from now until Easter.

PROCEEDS FOR THE NEW PARISH HOUSE

* * *

The men of the parish are in training for a Minstrel Show to be given early in March.

PROCEEDS FOR THE NEW PARISH HOUSE

* * *

The Women's Bible Class, No. 1, will give an entertainment Saturday, March 8th.

PROCEEDS FOR THE NEW PARISH HOUSE

* * *

A certain class of boys are thinking of giving an entertainment some Saturday night in Lent.

PROCEEDS FOR THE NEW PARISH HOUSE

We are coaxing a certain friend of ours to make soup and pies to sell Saturdays during Lent.

THE PROCEEDS TO GO TO THE NEW PARISH HOUSE

* * *

We are arranging other features to raise

MONEY FOR THE NEW PARISH HOUSE

* * *

YOU must patronize these events so that we will get more.

MONEY FOR OUR NEW PARISH HOUSE

Lines By An English Servant Girl

I do it unto Thee.
O Lord, of pots and pans and things, I haven't time to be
A saint by doing lovely things, and watching late with Thee;
Or dreaming in the twilight, or storming heaven's gates;
Make me a saint by getting meals, and cleaning up the plates.
Although I must have Martha's hands, I have a Mary mind.
And when I black the boots and shoes, Thy Sandals, Lord, I find;
I think of how they trod the earth whene'er I scrub the floor.
Accept this meditation, Lord, I haven't time for more.
Warm all the kitchen with Thy Love, and light it with Thy Peace;
Forgive me all my worryings, and make my grumblings cease.
Thou who didst live to give men food—in room or by the sea—
Accept this service that I do—I do it unto Thee!

The Bishop Said—

How We Can Divide Our Sunday School Lenten Offering

In discussing ways and means of raising money for the PARISH HOUSE the Bishop said he would advise dividing our SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING between MISSIONARY WORK and the PARISH HOUSE FUND. Your Rector feels that this proposition of Bishop Garland is most generous and that we ought to try and prove to him our gratitude by working all the harder to make the missionary offering a big one. Also, it seems to your Rector that this offer of the Bishop to divide the SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING with the PARISH HOUSE FUND should spur us on to make the offering the largest yet, so that we will have more money to give to the PARISH HOUSE FUND.

We can easily raise $2,000.00 during the Lenten Season if every Sunday School Scholar will co-operate with his or her Sunday School Class and if every Sunday School Class will co-operate with the whole Sunday School. If we raise $2,000, then we can give $1,000 to the Lenten Offering and give $1,000 to our PARISH HOUSE.

If the mothers and fathers of our boys and girls will keep their eyes on those Lenten Mite Chests and see that they are full before Easter, they, too, will be helping the LENTEN OFFERING and the PARISH HOUSE.

After what THE BISHOP SAID we want to show our appreciation by giving him 2000 thanks at $1.00 a thank.

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

Wednesday, March 5th, Ash Wednesday

* * *

CONFIRMATION SERVICE, THURSDAY, May 9. Get your candidate!

* * *

During Lenten Season special Litany Service every Wednesday evening.

* * *

Every Sunday and Wednesday Evening the short address will be a double-barreled talk on Lent and Confirmation.

* * *

YOUR CHANCE TO SERVE GOD IS NOW—Get your Candidate for Confirmation.

* * *

If you know of any man, woman, boy, girl, native or foreign, who is not confirmed, spend a cent, buy a postal, write their name and address on it and mail it to the Rector.

* * *

The CENT-A-DAY is going over big—let's make it unanimous by EVERYBODY joining the 85 CLUB. Remember, it is for that MEMORIAL PARISH HOUSE.

* * *

Remember, it is for that MEMORIAL PARISH minimum cost of each name is $10.00, which can be paid in installments.

* * *

Buy your candy from our Sunday School Scholars. They are raising money for the S. S. LENTEN OFFERING, HALF OF WHICH GOES TO THE PARISH HOUSE.

* * *

Over 300 Sunday School Officers, teachers and scholars on Sunday afternoon, February 2.

Now Let's Make It 350

* * *

We are 76 years young. We "ain't" in our second childhood, either.

* * *

GET READY FOR EASTER!!!

Finding Joyousness

Let love's sunshine fill your soul,
When the world seems going wrong
Sing a joyous little song
Of sweet peace and happiness,
Other aching hearts to bless.

Smile and find a cheerful way
To bring round a brighter day.
Let love's sunshine fill your soul,
Then you soon will reach the goal.

You were trying hard to find,
And a sweet, contented mind
Soon, for you, will seem to be;
Then, a brighter world, you'll see.

Rays of sunshine will appear,
Driving off all doubt and fear,
As a brighter day will dawn,
With life's darker shadows gone.

MARTHA SHEPARD LIPPINCOTT,
668 North Yewdell St., W. Philadelphia, Pa.

THE LENTEN SEASON

Does It Mean Anything to You?

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5, ASH WEDNESDAY, is the beginning of the Lenten Season. It is a season of penitence and prayer that can be traced to a period very near that of the Apostles. Its term of 40 days was settled at a very early date, as is evident from the writings of the Bishops of those days, who refer us to the examples of Moses, Elias and our Lord, ALL OF WHOM FASTED 40 DAYS, as wholesome examples of sanctity to follow.

The Lenten fast does not embrace ALL the days from Ash Wednesday to Easter. The Sundays are excluded, because they are always feast days.

The principal days of Lent are ASH WEDNESDAY, PASSION WEEK and particularly the Thursday and Friday in that week. Thursday in Passion Week is known as MAUNDY THURSDAY and NOT Holy Thursday. The name of Maundy, Maunday or Mandate (Dies Mandati) is said to have allusion to the mandate or new commandment Christ gave to His disciples at that time.

FRIDAY IN HOLY WEEK IS POPULARLY KNOWN AS GOOD FRIDAY and has been solemnly observed from earliest times a day of strictest devotion and humiliation.

The practice of observing LENTEN SEASON is spreading to the Evangelical branches of the Church of Jesus Christ. Methodists, Presbyterians, Baptists, Congregationalists, etc., are following the lead of the Early Christians and are observing the 40 days of Lent by special acts of worship, special noonday services, special sermons and are even MAKING SPECIAL SELF-DENIALS in manw cases. It is evident that the Spirit of Lent is becoming stronger every year. Christians of every type feel the real need of a complete and thorough spiritual house-cleaning and are not satisfied with the help of the ordinary means of grace. A SEASON OF EXTRAORDINARY SPIRITUAL REVIVAL IS IMPERATIVE and nothing less than 40 days of strictest application to our spiritual condition will satisfy. THE CLOSER WE COME TO THE CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS, THE MORE DO WE DEMAND THIS SEASON OF SPIRITUAL PURIFICATION.

AN EXHORTATION

I want to make a special appeal to the members of St. John's Parish to be careful to observe every day of Lent this year. Attend every service and practice self-denial for your spirit's good. Try to get into the ancient spirit of Lent and make it a special season of revival in your individual life. Attend every celebration of the Holy Communion. Be careful to attend Sunday morning and evening services. ALSO BREAK UP THE WEEK BY REGULAR ATTENDANCE OF THE WEDNESDAY LITANY SERVICE. Also be sure to bring offerings worthy of Jesus Christ, not only of your money but of souls who know not God. Let us prove our spiritual sincerity by offering to Jesus Christ a new convert. It will be a wonderful Lenten Season if by your effort and my effort we can stir up the hearts of the whole parish and bring about a mighty revival of religion in the lives of both friend and stranger.

BOTH SUNDAY AND WEDNESDAY EVENINGS DURING LENT WILL BE SET APART FOR SPECIAL SPIRITUAL EXERCISES. If you are interested in somebody who is not confirmed, INVITE HIM TO ATTEND these services. The short talks will be particularly instructive to him.

Any Old Rags, Old Paper, Old Junk?

Here Comes the Rag Man Again

We say "again" because he has not been paying us regular visits lately. Our system of collecting was not good. We have changed that, however. NOW we will send the notices as before and enclose a return addressed card which can be used by you if you have any old things to give away. This means a great saving of time and travel for Mr. Schaab or Mr. Capie. Instead of stopping at each house in a district—whether the family has any rags or not—they will call on just those who send the return postal notice for them to call.

Also Mr. Schaab suggests that a blank book and lead pencil be placed on the table in the upper hall of the church for any person to enter a call if he has any junk he wishes to give to the church.

We want to make a special drive on this business from now until after Easter so as to raise more funds for our Parish House.

Look for the call book in the lobby of the Church and help swell the

PARISH HOUSE FUND

Broadcasting from Laughland

I SURE DO

Judge—"Do you understand the nature of an oath, Mrs. Scruggs?"

Mrs. Scruggs—"Well, my husband is a golfer and my son drives a second-hand flivver."

Author Unknown.

WHY WE WALK

A pedestrian is simply a person who has failed to keep up the payments on his car.

Service Station.

IT'S NOT BEING DONE

Here lies the body of Ezra Tait;
He kidded his wife about her weight.

Andy—"Have you heard the last Scotch story?"

Sandy—"I hope so."

So We All Say.

HEARD HER FIRST TIME

She—"I wouldn't think of marrying such an intellectual monstrosity and physical misfit as you are—you numbskull! Do you get me?"

He—"Well, from the general trend of your conversation, I should judge not."

"I knew your first husband—a fine man—he died too soon."

"That's what my present husband says."

Author Unknown.

What we once figured as the luxuries are now the necessities; so it is not the high cost of living—it is the expensive extravagance.

A minister consented to preach during his vacation in the country at an Episcopal church. When he arrived at the church on Sunday morning, the sexton welcomed him, and said:

"Do you wish to wear a surplice, sir?"

"Why, man, I'm a Methodist. What do I know about surplices? All I know about is deficits."

The New Outlook.

The preacher had given up his charge and gone into the poultry business with the hope that it would prove a better way of keeping the wolf from the door. A few months later he met one of his former deacons on the street.

"Well, parson, how's the poultry game?" asked the deacon.

"Not so good," his former pastor sighed. "My hens seem to be as opposed to lay work as some of my former officers and members used to be."

The Witness.

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

"Say It With Flowers"

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

If You Want—
Delicious Mince Pies
Use
ATMORE'S EXTRA FANCY
MINCE MEAT
Or, You May Prefer
Atmore's Plum Pudding
Ask Your Grocer for Both
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 Tasker St. Founded 1842

A GALLANT CONDUCTOR

Chatty—"Oh, he's so romantic. When he addresses me he always calls me 'Fair Lady.'"

Catty—"Force of habit, my dear. He's a street-car conductor."

A RISING STORY

Two youths, evidently college boys, were seated in an interurban car directly opposite a stout woman. At a certain town the woman attempted to rise to get off, but, on account of her weight and the motion of the car, she experienced some difficulty.

"If she ate yeast, maybe she'd raise better," said one of the youths to his companion, in what was meant to be a whisper. But the car had come to a stop and the "whisper" was audible throughout the entire car.

The stout woman, who had by this time gained her feet, turned and rasped, "And if you'd try some yourself, young man, you might be better bred."

—Progressive Farmer.

Shingle belles, shingle belles,
Shingle all your hair!
Don't forget to wash your neck
Or else don't leave it bare.
Shingle belles, shingle belles,
Right up to the dome,
Ain't it fun, the more you cut
The less you have to comb.

BANQUET DEFINED

According to an after-dinner speaker, a banquet is an affair where a chap eats a lot of food he doesn't want, and then proceeds to talk about something he doesn't know anything about to a crowd of people who don't want to hear him.

BY REQUEST

Diner (to waiter)—"What's the name of that selection the orchestra is playing?"

Waiter—"'Go feather your nest.'"

Diner—"Go jump in the lake. I asked you a civil question."

Behind me is infinite power;
Before me is endless possibility;
Around me is boundless opportunity—
Why should I fear?

—STELLA STUART.

Weed—"What's the idea of the suitcase—going away?"

Lee—"No. I heard the church was giving a rummage sale, so I'm taking all my clothes down to the office until it's over."

—The Witness.

Judge—"Prisoner, the jury finds you guilty."

Prisoner—"That's all right, judge; I know you're too intelligent to be influenced by what they say."

THREE BOOKS TO BRING

A negro preacher walked into the office of a newspaper in Rocky Mount, N. C., and said: "Mista Edito, they is 47 of my congregation which subscribe fo' your paper. Do that entitle me to have a chu'ch notice in you' Sadday issue?"

"Sit down and write," said the editor.

"I thank you."

And this is the notice the minister wrote:

"Mount Moriah Baptist Church, the Rev. John Obadiah, pastor. Preaching morning and evening. In the promulgation of the Gospel three books is necessary: The Bible, the hymn-book and the pocket-book. Come tomorrow and bring all three."

Other pastors than Pastor Obadiah and other churches than Mount Moriah may well send out the

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money,
Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

E. BOWEN & SON

1018 South Second Street
(Above Washington Avenue)

word to everybody to bring these three books to church.

—Bulletin of Grace Presbyterian Church, Montclair, N. J.

NOTHING BUT PRAISE

"You may say what you like against ministers, but I have nothing but praise for our young pastor," the pompous Mr. Brown remarked as he passed out of the church.

"So I observed," dryly retorted the deacon who had passed the plate.

—From Bulletin of First Christian Church, Dallas Ore.

Church pews never skid into a ditch, smash against a telephone pole or get tagged for speeding.

—Cincinnati Enquirer, as quoted by Bulletin of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Hutchinson, Kan.

PASS IT ON

"When a bit of sunshine hits ye,
After passing of a cloud,
When a fit of laughter gits ye,
And ye'r spine is feelin' proud;
Don't forget to up and fling it
At a soul that's feelin' blue
For the minute that ye sling it
It's a boomerang to you!

A drug store in Oklahoma City advocates preparedness with this sign above its soda fountain: "Take home a brick. You may have company."

Jimmy—"Mother, did they play baseball in Bible times?"

Mother—"No, Jimmy; why do you ask?"

Jimmy—"Well, when my Sunday School teacher began reading this morning her very first words were, 'In the big inning.'"

HOW COME!!!

This news item appeared in the Philadelphia Record, Thursday, December 26:

PHILADELPHIA BREAKS RECORD FOR SOBRIETY ON CHRISTMAS

Central Station Holds No "Drunks" Over Holiday and Arrests in All City for Entire Yuletide Period Total Only 165 Persons.

Philadelphia yesterday experienced the most sober Christmas celebration in its history, according to records of the Police Bureau.

During the Yuletide period 165 persons were arrested for intoxication throughout the city. Police officials declared this marked a decrease of about twenty from the arrests for drunkenness during the same period last year.

While department records for Yuletide liquor arrests in previous years were not available yesterday—police admitted the arrests this year—were far below those of pre-Prohibition days. In those days, police say, Christmas morning usually found the central police station jammed with holiday imbibers.

Only three prisoners spent the holiday in the Central Police Station in City Hall. None of these was arrested on a liquor charge. Attaches of the cell room declared it was the first Christmas in their memory when they did not have several "drunks" to care for.

Despite the decrease in the arrest of "drunks," the total of 165 was nevertheless more than one-half the number of arrests made on all charges throughout the city, which totaled 303.

The districts where the drunks predominated included Tenth and Buttonwood streets, with seventeen out of eighteen prisoners charged with drunkenness; Third and Delancey with twelve out of sixteen; Fourth street and Fairmount avenue with seven out of seven, and Eighth and Jefferson with eleven out of thirteen.

The drop in the number of arrests for drunkenness is also evident in the record for the present year. To date 48,340 persons have been arrested for intoxication as compared with more than 52,000 for the entire year of 1928.

The point of real interest in this article lies in the fact that The Record has consistently been one of those news sheets that miss no opportunity to give the Volstead Act a swift, sly kick where it hurts most. Such a confession from such a source is most impressive.

Thus We Build

Every day we add a little to what we had the day before. It is like a mason laying bricks. A single brick goes only a little way in the making of a wall, yet it helps to make the work more complete. So we build day by day: a good deed here, an honest bit of service there, a smile and a cheery word thrown in for good measure. No one can say just when one's reputation is acquired, but one day we will find others saying for us, "Well done." Which of our deeds has given us our reputation? Which particular brick built the wall?

—Adapted from "Boys' World."

A SHORT LIFE

It is often said that such and such an one has been cut off before his time, and that this and that man has not lived half his days. It is not for us to say whether or not a man's work is done, for we know nothing of the task allotted to him. Much can be done in a short time, and many men have achieved great things when young in years. The most stupendous work of the ages, the salvation of the world, was accomplished in the short space of thirty-three years of our Lord's earthly life, when on the Cross the Son of God declared, "It is finished!" T. L. H.

We can readily understand the value of a human soul to God when we realize the terrific battle the Devil makes to wean that soul from God. T. L. H.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 4, No. 4 PHILADELPHIA, APRIL, 1930 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner, Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

PARISH COMMITTEE

William Forster
John Weber
Vernon Matthews
John Patterson, Jr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
Willliam Hasson
Robert MacGinniss

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Margaret Rutter

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Miss Martha W. Schmidt, Secretary
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. William Capie
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader

Men's Club

President, George Cressee, Sr.
Vice President, Charles Little.
Secretary, George Downes, Jr.
Treasurer, John Weber.

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Betteridge, Leila May
Betteridge, Agnes Williams
Betteridge, Thomas Anthony
Hall, Anna Theresa

MARRIAGES

Joseph Kalesse and Anna Malatesta
William J. Taylor and Marie M. Barnes
Thomas Corbett and Clara Barnes

BURIALS

Chestnut, Robert
Crystal, Alice
Cuthbert, John W.
Minster, John D.
Moffett, Thomas C.
Pierce, Robert

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7:00
Evening Service and Address		7:45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8:00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8:00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1:30
Daughters of the King		8:00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8:00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8:00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

THE PROGRESS OF THE PARISH HOUSE

At a meeting of the Bishop's Committee, Mr. Robert Gill, Architect, and your Rector, held at the Church House, Monday, March 17th, the architect submitted the estimates received for the building of the Parish House. The bids for the work were as follows:

General Contract	$26,717.00
Heating Contract	4,431.00
Plumbing Contract	2,125.00
Electrical Contract	1,178.00
Electrical Fixtures	441.80
Architect's Commission	2,095.00
Total	$37,095.00

The total of the bids demonstrates how efficiently our architect is handling the job. Months ago in a conference with Bishop Garland and your Rector, he told us that he was sure the cost of the building would not be over $38,000.00. The bids, including his commission, is $905.00 under his original estimate. Gradually the dream of your Rector is materializing. Everything is going forward.

FIRST your Rector bought and paid for the property upon which the Parish House will be built, $10,500.00.

SECOND, the Bishop gave us $25,000.00 for the building.

THIRD, an architect was engaged who drew up the plans and advertised for contract bids for the building.

FOURTH, a series of conferences with the Bishop's Committee was held at the Church House to consider and approve the architect's plans.

We are now about to take the final step. In a few short months we will begin to tear down and build up. And in a few short months later ST. JOHN'S MEMORIAL PARISH HOUSE will no longer be a dream but a realization.

In order to reduce the mortgage to a minimum we must now consider a little more seriously than we have the matter of raising funds. This task will not be at all difficult if each of us will "do our bit" as we are able to do it. We have several practical methods for raising this money, all of which are easily within our means.

FIRST: There are hundreds of families in the Parish who have not yet availed themselves of the privilege of placing names of deceased loved ones on THE MEMORIAL TABLET at a minimum cost of $10.00, which can be paid either in cash or instalments.

SECOND: There is the CENT-A-DAY proposition which would give us an income of over $3,000.00 a year if all our parishioners would pledge that amount to the 85 Club.

THIRD: The Bishop has proposed that we split our Sunday School Lenten Offering, GIVING ONE-HALF TO MISSIONS AND THE OTHER HALF TO THE PARISH HOUSE BUILDING FUND. Every one of us can help swell this fund by buying soap, wash cloths, dish cloths, salt, rice, peanut butter, soup, patronizing entertainments and HELPING THE KIDDIES TO FILL THEIR MITE CHESTS. Also the Sunday School boys and girls are in the business of selling candy. Most of us have a sweet tooth which sternly demands its desires candyward be satisfied. Look up some of these boys and girls and taste their wares. The candy is so good that if you eat one piece you will buy a whole box. All the time you are enjoying yourself you will say—WHAT A SWEET WAY TO RAISE FUNDS FOR OUR NEW PARISH HOUSE.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

The Sunday School Lenten Offering

The Sunday School Lenten Offering this year means more to the parish than that of any previous year. Many members of the parish feel that we are overdoing our support for Missions when we are so poor and need the money for our own support. We admit that to those who do not know the inside facts this seems to be a logical position. We want to meet the objection and win the objectors over to our way of thinking by making what we hope will be an enlightening statement.

IN THE FIRST PLACE we are MORALLY RESPONSIBLE to raise and give as large a Lenten Offering as we can possibly raise. Years ago, when the Parish was helpless and almost dead THE MONEY THAT WAS RAISED FOR MISSIONARY DEVELOPMENT BY OTHER AND MORE FORTUNATE PARISHES WAS THE MEANS OF SAVING OUR CHURCH AND PARISH FROM TOTAL ANNIHILATION. CERTAINLY NO

REAL ST. JOHNITE WOULD THINK OF REPUDIATING SUCH AN OBLIGATION, but would do more than double what was done for us in order to show we are gratefully aware of the big help we got when we needed it most.

IN THE SECOND PLACE the proceeds of the Sunday School Lenten Offering liquidates our debt to the Diocese which we would be forced to pay out of the Parish income if our Sunday School Lenten Offering fell below the amount we are taxed. This year the Diocese has taxed St. John's Parish $900.00. If we raise this much in our Lenten Offering the bill is cancelled. If we fall below that figure the Parish must make up the difference.

IN THE THIRD PLACE, Bishop Garland suggested that we try to raise a large Lenten Offering this year and split the proceeds between the Diocese and our Parish House. Of course, we MUST first pay at least $900.00 to the Diocese so as to meet our quota. That means we must work as hard as we can to raise as much money as we can over and above that $900.00 we must pay.

Perhaps somebody is thinking—well, why should we pay $900.00 to the Diocese? Sh-h-h-h! We are lucky—some parishes are being taxed $9000.00. Others are being taxed twice that amount. We are getting off easy and have no reason to complain against our apportionment.

With these facts before you, dear reader, we appeal to you to do your best and help us land a big Sunday School Lenten Offering. Here are some ways you can do it:

1. HELP THE KIDDIES FILL THEIR MITE CHESTS.
2. BUY TICKETS FOR WHATEVER IS GOING ON.
3. HELP THE BOYS AND GIRLS SELL THEIR CANDY.
4. BUY SOAP, ON SALE ALL THE TIME AT THE CHURCH.
5. BUY WASH CLOTHS, sold by the Kindergarten.
6. BUY DISH CLOTHS, sold by the Kindergarten.
7. BUY SALT, sold by Women's Bible Class No. 2.
8. BUY RICE, sold by Women's Bible Class No. 2.
9. BUY PEANUT BUTTER.

There are other schemes for raising money you will hear about if you come to church and stick around.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

What Has the Church Done For Me?

When we get tired "PATRONIZING GOD" and have about decided to deny the CHURCH of our VALUABLE GOOD WILL AND SUPPORT, it might help us back to HUMILITY OF SPIRIT to put ourselves through a catechism somewhat like this:

1. When I was in need of a job what did the church do about it?
2. When I needed a letter of recommendation, somebody to sign my bond, a person to use as reference so that I could go to work, who did I ask to help me?
3. When I wanted temporary work in the summer to whom did I apply? What did he do?
4. When I wanted a summer vacation with all expenses paid, who gave it to me?
5. Where did I first meet that "pal-o'-mine" who has become so necessary to my happiness?
6. Where did I first meet that man—that woman—who is now my life partner?
7. Who put me in touch with business opportunities which today mean hundreds, yes thousands, of dollars a year to me and my business?
8. Who stood by me, helped me to get my education, paid all my expenses for clothing, watched over my health, helped me generously financially when I could not help myself so that I might become self-supporting? Who did this against my will?
9. Who picked me up when Iwas down and out and sleeping upon a park bench and had no home, and my folks were too ashamed of me to let me stay around?
10. What institution clothed and fed me and my children; and sent me to the hospital when I was sick; and gave me coal when I was freezing; and paid my rent to chase the sheriff away; and comforted me in times of trouble; and visited me when sick; and paid my gambling debts to keep me out of trouble; and gave me money to settle up certain serious affairs to keep me out of prison; and buried my dead; and loaned me money; and advised me about my boy, my girl and performed a thousand other little services that have been forgotten? WHO DID ALL THIS FOR ME WITHOUT ANY THOUGHT OF REWARD OR RECOMPENSE?

It makes one shiver at "what might have been" had the Church of ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST stayed dead.

It seems to us that we ought to do all in our power to keep such a valuable and friendly a friend as much alive and active as we can. Another time may come when we will need the church or the Rector to help us.

AND WE HAVE NOT EVEN MENTIONED HOW THE CHURCH HAS REVEALED THE LOVE OF GOD FOR US AND THE HOPE OF SALVATION IT BRINGS US.

Can we afford to neglect or snub a friend who has done so much for us?

Are We That Kind of Forgetters?

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

PETITIONS

A man prayed for strength that he might achieve; he was made weak that he might obey.

He asked for health that he might do greater things; he was given infirmity that he might do better things.

He asked for riches that he might be happy; he was given poverty that he might be wise.

He asked for power that he might have the praise of men; he was given weakness that he might feel the need of Divine Power.

He asked for all things that he might enjoy life; he was given life that he might enjoy all things.

He received nothing that he asked for, but all that he hoped for.—Anon.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

OUR EASTER OFFERING

Our EASTER OFFERING is one of the two special offerings raised each year TO HELP PAY THE CURRENT EXPENSES OF THE PARISH. The other is the Christmas offering. On account of the weekly envelope contributions being so very "weakly" our only way to "keep the wolf from the door" is to make an extra drive on these two occasions to raise as much as we can.

Sometimes we think that possibly the reason why a few of us are so impatient whenever church offerings are mentioned is because we do not realize the real burden of expense the Parish must carry in order to do its work. In another article we give a list of expenses which, when totaled, amount to over $3000.00 a year. Our coal bill alone is nearly $1,000.00 every year, and YOU know by actual experience that the coal man is no philanthropist but a hard-hearted business man who will not be put off. But then he is only a type. He is no worse than our other creditors. They all demand their pouch of gold and we must pay, willy-nilly.

But how can we pay? They will not accept promises. Like us, they want cash for their wares and their work. Consequently we must give our share towards the church expenses. I'm going to do my best, how about you?

There is a grand old Methodist hymn which opens up with the question, "Is my name written there on the page bright and fair?" You know the tune, you have sung it often. I wonder if we will join in singing the old refrain on EASTER DAY referring to whether or not our names will be found in the after-Easter issue of the BROADCASTER among the names of others who gave and joined our EASTER PARTY.

Give all you can and then look for your name in the BROADCASTER, which will signify to the whole Parish that you are a "regular feller."

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

THE MITE CHEST

With concerted effort and a determined push it is possible for us to make our LENTEN MITE CHEST a LENTEN MIGHTY CHEST. Boys and girls from other churches succeed in raising hundreds of dollars for Missions just by going about collecting a cent here, a nickel there and a dime somewhere else. They first GIVE OF THE LITTLE THEY OWN, then they get after the members of the family, then they look up their friends and some even go so far as to ring door bells and ask the neighbors to drop something in the MITE CHEST.

Why not try some of these plans—all of them if you will—and make our MITE CHEST OUR MGHTY CHEST this year? We need a MIGHTY CHEST MIGHTY MUCH to help us raise our Lenten Offering and help us build our PARISH HOUSE.

You parents, relatives and friends can help the little folk materially just by dropping a coin in the MITE CHEST now and then.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

OUR EASTER COMMUNION

This is the one feast of the Church year you MUST NOT neglect or ignore. It is not only your duty but your high privilege to be present at least at one of the services on Easter morning and receive your EASTER COMMUNION. If you neglect it you have ex-communicated yourself from the Church, unless you have reasons you can honestly offer to God.

We hope you will try to realize the importance of your EASTER COMMUNION and will make every effort to be present.

Before you decide to pay no attention to this solemn admonition and stay away from your Easter Communion we beg of you to open your Bible to St. Matthew 22: 1-14.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

Our Intermediate Department

St. John's Sunday School is specially fortunate in the personnel of its teaching staff. This is particularly so with the KINDERGARTEN and the INTERMEDIATE Departments. We will leave the KINDERGARTEN go for a later issue of the BROADCASTER and will devote what space we have in commenting upon the work of the INTERMEDIATE DEPARTMENT. We have been spending much time in this department since Christmas and have been observing the vigor and enthusiasm of its teachers and their assistants in putting over a most interesting and comprehensive program in such a way that the children like it. The boys are under the instruction of Vernon Matthews, and the girls under Margaret Rutter. The team work between the instructors and the instructed is beautiful to behold. The program of work is well planned and well executed. Thus far the scholars have been drilling in the Church Catechism, the Books of the Bible and the Church year. In the exercises particular attention is given to the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments and the Sacraments. The Bible training is most interesting. The scholars are learning to group the different books under special headings and giving the number of chapters in each book. This may seem to many as of little spiritual value to the scholar, which is true, because it is only laying the foundation in Bible study which will be developed in the SENIOR DEPARTMENT. By the time the Intermediate scholar is ready to be promoted to the SENIOR DEPARTMENT he will at least know HOW to use his Bible—a knowledge that is sadly lacking in many parents of our children. If Vernon and Margaret were being paid for their work they could show no greater interest and earnestness in their teaching than they do. We, the Pastor and the parents of the children, have every reason to thank God for the earnest service of such teachers. In years to come the personality of these two teachers will linger in the memory of their scholars and they will dream of the days when the vitalizing Margaret and the dynamic Vernon put them over the hurdles of "My duty towards God" and "My duty towards my neighbor." The seed that is being sown now will bring forth fruit when the voice of the instructors is low and uncertain and the fire of enthusiasm is burning low.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

Whistling Away the Blues

All of us get discouraged one time or another, that is nearly all; there may be some very exceptional souls which escape that feeling, but they are very few. For the rest of us here is a recipe for the blues:

Two insurance agents met sometime ago, one of them was a plain Presbyterian, the other was a Quaker or Friend. The first asked the Friend how business was with him. He replied, "Perfectly rotten, I never knew it to be so bad. I am greatly discouraged. How is it with thee?" The other said it was just about as bad with him, but he said he had a remedy for discouragement. He said, "When the blue devils get after me, I start out down the street with my chest out, my head up, a smile on my face, and whistle as if I had not a care in the world. And do you know, I do not go many blocks before I really believe that is so." "Try it," he said. The Quaker said he would. When they next met the Friend said, "I have tried thy plan, and it works!" Reader, try it yourself; there is no patent on the plan nor any charge for its use.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

Speech by Vernon Matthews

Delivered on "Parish Nite," February 27th

I am going to say a few words about three things which are at the present time closely bound together—THE PARISH HOUSE, THE LENTEN OFFERING AND THE "85 CLUB." A good many of you who were present at a meeting sometime ago heard Mr. Gill, the architect, describe the details of our new PARISH HOUSE. I will, therefore, not take up any time in discussing the plans of the PARISH HOUSE.

I made the remark to someone the other day that I wondered how many of us really know what goes on in our Parish. We come to Church, find the doors open, the place heated and the electricity on. We do not realize that something has to happen to make this possible.

To illustrate this point I would like to recall to your memory the Sunday when your Rector first announced the purchase of the property next door. Many people looked surprised or took the announcement as a matter of course. Our Rector told us we had a $6500.00 mortgage on this property and that it was rented. Since then most of the people have not thought about it except when they happened to look at it. At the present time we have clear title to the property and I have here, as you see, the MORTGAGE which is paid. We have also the deeds and the insurance policies. In other words the PARISH HOUSE is just as much ours as is the Church.

What has made it possible? I am sorry to say that this entire amount, which is $10,000.00, was raised by one man, your Rector. We now have the opportunity of showing whether we appreciate the work of one man raising $10,000 by being willing to raise, under his leadership and with his help, the remaining necessary $13,000.00.

At this time we have on deposit in the BUILDING FUND $1030, and we have raised this in about four months' time. We have then, as a Parish, to raise $12,000—only $2000 more than our Rector was able to raise by himself.

We have as a means of raising this TWO WAYS in which I am chiefly concerned this evening—THE "85 CLUB" AND THE LENTEN OFFERING.

Last week I attended a meeting of your Convocation and pledged our Parish to raise its quota of $900.00 for the General Missionary work of the Church. St. John's, with two others last year, raised their assessment; in fact, turned in an amount in excess of $1600.00. If we can do the same this year it will mean that $700.00 of that will be put into our Building Fund. IF WE RAISE $2000.00—$1000.00 WILL GO TO MISSIONS AND $1000.00 TOWARDS OUR PARISH HOUSE. Therefore, this Lenten Season we are working as much for ourselves as for the Missions.

Most of you know more about the origin of the "85 CLUB" than I do myself. You know how it paid off your mortgage on the Church and made possible many repairs. I have in my hand the BANK BOOK which, together with some Liberty bonds, amount to OVER $10,000.00 RAISED BY THE "85 CLUB" METHOD OF ONE CENT A DAY. We are now going to turn this $10,000.00 into an ENDOWMENT FUND which will pay us 5% interest, which will amount to over $500.00 a year. When we have finished our PARISH HOUSE the "85 CLUB" will be turned back into the ENDOWMENT FUND.

You all know that our Rector has worked without a salary for over eighteen years; that his work at the City Mission during the week enabled him to support himself. We also know that at regular times he gives much more to the Church than any parishioner. WE HAVE AS OUR LEADER A MAN WHO IS SETTING AN EXAMPLE BY WORKING FOR NOTHING AND SUPPORTING THE WORK AS WELL.

And now we have reached a crisis in the affairs of the church. We have the biggest thing that was ever attempted in the history of the Parish. We have had a sporting proposition laid before us by a man who has given his time, his money and practically his health. We have reached the time when it is necessary for us to assume some of the responsibility.

You have now a PARISH COMMITTEE which is doing everything possible to help our Rector. I am appealing on behalf of this Committee to you as true, red-blooded parishioners of this old Church, to get behind the LENTEN OFFERINGS AND THE "85 CLUB" TO PUT OVER OUR PARISH HOUSE.

Bishop Garland has given us $25,000.00: and $10,000.00 raised through the efforts of your Rector amounts to $35,000.00 In comparison we are asked to raise a mere $13,000.00. I have here a letter written by Mr. Gill to the contractors from which I will read a paragraph.

LETTER

As you see the year, the month, the day, the hour of the day is now set when I might say actual work will be started. The next step will be the tearing down of the building and the replacing of it by the one which is to be OUR PARISH HOUSE. The dream of our beloved Rector is about to come true. We are about to show him that it is no longer a dream but an actual fact. We cannot do this by talking but IT CAN BE DONE BY PAYING UP OUR CHURCH ENVELOPES, HELPING THE CHILDREN WITH THEIR SALE OF CANDY AND TICKETS AND BY SUBSCRIPTIONS TO MEMORIALS, WHICH YOUR RECTOR HAS SPOKEN ABOUT.

We can all give according to our means and we can resolve to do it here tonight. I HAVE PLEDGED THIS EVENING TWO MEMORIALS, ONE FOR MY MOTHER AND ONE FOR MY SISTER. I AM GOING TO TRY TO FOLLOW THE EXAMPLE SET BY OUR RECTOR and I hope you are all going to do the same.

Now is the time to band ourselves together so that the future of this dear old Parish may be assured and that the work of the man we all love will not have been in vain.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

BRASS TACKS

Some time ago your Rector appointed a Parish Committee to consider the finances of the church. After several weeks' work they find the finances stand as follows:

Number of Members of St. John's Church....	982
" " Packages of envelopes distributed	332
" " Members who will not take envelopes	650
" " Communicants holding envelopes and contributing LESS THAN ONE CENT in the first quarter	86
" " Communicants holding envelopes and contributing LESS THAN ONE DOLLAR in the first quarter	130
" " Communicants holding envelopes and contributing LESS THAN TWO DOLLARS in the first quarter	76
" " Communicants holding envelopes and contributing less than THREE DOLLARS in the first quarter	20
" " Communicants holding envelopes and contributing less than FIVE DOLLARS in the first quarter.	16
" " Communicants holding envelopes and GIVING OVER FIVE DOLLARS in the first quarter	1
Total amount received through the envelopes in the first quarter	$272.55
A monthly income of	$91.51
A weekly income of	$22.88

Now honestly, dear reader, WOULD YOU TRY TO SUPPORT AN ORDINARY SIZE FAMILY ON SUCH A SMALL INCOME AS THAT?

Well, then, how DO you expect US to run a parish of over 900 souls on it?

Oh, but you say, the Church does not begin to have as many expenses as a family. Has it not? Let us see about that. The church expenses are:

1. Salary of Organist.
2. " " Parish Visitor.
3. " " Sexton.
4. Expenses of Rector.

5. " " Special Helper.
6. Bills for Coal—40 tons—$600.00.
7. " " Gas.
8. " " Electricity.
9. " " Organ Repairs.
10. " " General Church Repairs.
11. " " Furniture.
12. " " New Furniture.
13. " " Insurance.
14. " " Bibles.
15. " " Prayer Books.
16. " " Hymn Books.
17. " " Choir Music.
18. " " Sunday School Material.
19. " " Bread and Wine.
20. " " Stationery.
21. " " Stamps and Post Cards.
22. " " Printing.
23. " " Soap, scrubbing brushes, brooms, etc., for the Sexton.
24. Many small miscellaneous bills we find hard to classify.
25. Bills for Altar Flowers and flowers for Christmas, Easter and Confirmation.

SALVATION IS FREE, BUT—

Yes, we have our bills to meet the same as the family, only ours happen to be about ten times larger than you spend on your family and we spend none of our income for the "movies, cigars, ice cream or chewing gum." Our income is so small we are compelled to cut out such luxuries—even to the Radio—which very likely you have.

We do not know whether or not you will bother to read all this letter. We do hope, however, that your eye will drop on some part of it and you will get enough of what we mean that it will penetrate your understanding and you will become conscious that we are trying to make you see that though Salvation is free we still owe some bills we have contracted in making YOUR salvation possible.

You Cannot Cheat God All the Time

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

Broadcasting from Laughland

Jimmie—"Every time I kiss you it makes me a better man."

Ethel—"Well, you needn't try to get to heaven tonight."

The train to Backville, as usual, crawled along and stopped dead.

"Conductor," chuckled Jim Brown, shoe salesman, "may I get off and pick some flowers?"

"Afraid you won't find any?" laughed the trainman.

"Oh, there'll be lots of time," replied the salesman, "I've brought a packet of seeds."

"Oh, it isn't the money you're making,
It isn't the clothes you wear,
And it isn't the skill of your good right hand,
Which makes folks really care—
It's the smile on your face,
And the light in your eye,
And the burdens that you bear."

"What kind of a fellow is Smith?"

"Well, if you ever see one fellow trying to borrow money from another, the fellow shaking his head is Smith."

FARMER BLUES

Our hoss is gone dead,
An' our mule's gone lame;
I lost my dog
In a poker game.

A cyclone came
The other day
An' blew the house
Where we live away.

An earthquake followed
When that was gone,
An' swallowed the spot
The house stood on.

An' now the collector,
He comes 'round
An' makes me pay
On a hole in the ground.

—A Friend.

Many a man spends his life trying to decide whether or not to believe in God. . . . And then worries an hour or two on his deathbed over the question of God's belief in him.—N. Y. Herald.

AND A LOUD HOOTER

Algernon (reading joke)—"Fauncy this, Percy: a chap here thinks that a football coach has four wheels."

Percy—"Haw! haw! And how many wheels has the bally thing?"—The Log.

IN THE SUBURBS

She—"When a man who bores me asks where I live, I always say, 'In the suburbs.'"

He—"Aha! That shuts him up, I bet. But where DO you live?"

She—"In the suburbs!"

"Do you think it healthy to keep your hogs in the house?" a social investigator asked.

"Waal, I dunno," he drawled, "but I been akeepin' my hawgs there for fourteen years, and I ain't never lost one of 'em yet."

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THESE PICTURES?

"I simply won't have any more clothes," cried the young flapper, "until Mother gets all the things she needs."

"Don't trouble yourself, dear," promised the husband. "I'll gather up the papers when I finish reading."

"So you lost fifty dollars at poker? Well, never mind, dear, I can do without that new hat."

"Hello, dear," cried the husband; "I'm always glad to have you drop into the office this way."—The Shrine Magazine.

A MYSTERY

"What caused your husband to leave home?"

"I haven't the least idea. He just picked up and left the morning after my mother and two sisters came to spend the winter with us."

BUT IT'S TRUE

Chop-Suey is an American dish—not Chinese.
Irish stew is more American than Irish.
Catgut is from sheep and not from cats.
Most linen collars are made from cotton.
Rice paper is not made from rice at all.
Turkeys originally came from southern Mexico, and not from Turkey.

A gentleman is the one who keeps his promises made to those who are powerless to enforce them.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

"I NEVER PRAY"

With an overpowering, overwhelming conviction that he had no other way to turn, Lincoln was often on his knees in prayer.

No! I'm not going to offer prayer—I'm simply going to try to write about what we call prayer.

Prayer is a self-preached sermon. We cannot pray without learning what is uppermost in our hearts and minds, and when we know our inward thoughts, we know what we are. That's something.

A man said to me the other day: "I never pray," and of course I understood that he had never been to sea, for it is when we are in danger that we pray, and that is proof that we have faith in prayers.

Sometimes I think people are ashamed to acknowledge that they get down on their knees and pray. In fact, they would not think of kneeling in public, and if that is their personal attitude, I'll say it is all right, for it is not necessary to kneel; yet somehow, when we kneel, it leaves a great impression on others just to see a strong man bend his knees before his Maker. Impressions are always important.

Prayer is simply a sincere wish turned Heavenward and can be made while we are dressed in evening clothes and standing as straight as an arrow shot at the stars, but somehow it does not leave that same impression on others; so, you see, kneeling is not a bad idea.

Then again, there is that great urge of expectancy in prayer. If you do not expect any blessings, why ask for them?

People who have great faith in prayer honestly and sincerely believe there is no Gethsemane without an Angel.

Men with wisdom often pray, not as a means whereby they may simply obtain the desired things of earth, but as a means whereby they may get along without so many playthings of earth. That is a good prayer.

I know a man better than anyone else can know him and if he was to pray this moment with words, not a pen, here is what he would petition for.

Lead me, dear Lord, away from the quiet stupor of great success to the tiresome, tedious, prosaic path of small achievements that I may know the awful pangs of actual want, and then through my more enlivened energy, may I escape so great a punishment as that of hunger and cold. In plain words, dear Lord, give me the health and the strength to work hard.

Make me recall vividly the desolation of other days that I may fully appreciate my present advantages.

In my threatening dangers and trying difficulties, give me the courage to challenge with confidence those things that are not for my good.

Give me high and hard tasks that I may be better fitted to handle my opportunities when they arrive.

In my unguarded moments, guide me into a little trouble that I may be taught how to be more careful and not get into much greater trouble.

Keep me friendly with my better self and make me a severe critic of that other self of mine.

Give me a good forgettery for my enemies and a marvelous memory for my friends.

Give me a great sense of humor so that most of my troubles, like bubbles, will blow away.

Make my life simple and straight and I will serve Thee and obey Thee all the days of my life.—The Silent Partner.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

How Is the Lenten Season With You?

Our "Parish Nite" was a success and we hope to have another later in the year.

* * *

We must work harder than ever this year for so many are out of work that our SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING will suffer greatly unless we do.

* * *

The K. K.—Kindergarten Kids—are selling soap, wash cloths and dish cloths for the Parish House. Are YOU interested?

Make the Mite Chest the Mighty Chest

While we were BROADCASTING an authoress of more than local fame dropped in to see us upon a matter of business. In course of her conversation she told a story of her experience with a modern young woman. She asked the young woman whether she went to church. The young woman looked her up and down with cool contempt, then, with a withering sneer, she shrugged her shoulders and said:

"Who, I? Of course not."

"My!" replied my friend, feigning an expression of awe—"HOW SQUASHED GOD MUST FEEL."

People who patronize God are awfully funny. Arent' they?

* * *

Parents, are you helping to fill the Mite Chests of your children?

* * *

Are you using every means of Grace this Lenten season to help you to a truer realization of your relationship to God?

Will Your Name Appear in the Church Easter Party List This Year?

How about those overdue Church envelopes?

Don't Forget That Cent-a-Day!

Get your candidate for Confirmation.

* * *

Remember one-half of our SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING goes to the PARISH HOUSE this year.

* * *

If you pledge to give A-CENT-A-DAY to the PARISH HOUSE we will tell you a secret if you ask us. No catch in this, it's really worth hearing.

* * *

Are you out of a job? Perhaps Mr. Frank can help you.

* * *

How about your Church Envelopes—are they paid up to date?

* * *

We hope Mrs. John E. Hill will come often. We like her.

* * *

THAT GOES FOR FATHER SOUDER, TOO.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

The Power of Faith and Prayer

To get the connection in which the Apostle Paul made this statement you should read the 27th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. It is the story of a shipwreck, and the saving of all on board just because one man believed God, and did as God told him to do.

Here is another story of a man and his wife who believe God, and are doing what He tells them to do in His way. They also are telling the story to those who are lost in trespasses and sins, and showing them the way to Eternal Life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

They are members of the Soudan Interior Mission, which is interdenominational. Its offices are in Toronto, Canada, while its field of work is in Northern Nigeria, Africa. Some time ago this couple were home on furlough. The time had come for them to go back to their station, but there was no money in the Mission treasury to pay for their passage.

This is a "faith mission." That is, they never ask anyone for anything, but look directly to God to supply all of their needs. Has he not said, "Go up into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature, and lo, I am with you always?" They depend on Him for everything. They never borrow or go into debt, obeying the Scriptural injunction to "owe no man anything."

So, not having anything in the fund to send these missionaries back to their work, they did as they always do—went to their Banker. They set a day for definite prayer that the Lord would send them $1000 if it was His will that these people should go to Africa. The day came and they offered their prayer. The very next day a letter came from England with a draft for 200 pounds sterling, or about $1000, and designated "for outfit and passage," a most unsual designation, showing that it was a direct answer to prayer.

Someone to whom this story was told at once objected that it was not an answer to prayer, because the money had been sent before they asked for it. He was reminded of Isaiah 65:24: "Before they call on Me and I will answer them, and while they are yet speaking I will hear."

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

The Cheerful Caller

Somehow it seems to me that a star must have danced at the birth of the one who can help us smile and help us fight the infirmities of illness.

How I wish it were possible for me to write a worthy tribute to the cheerful caller on the sick.

When we are sick and so tired of studying the paper on the wall, how it helps to have a sympathetic, cheerful friend call.

The cheerful caller is like bright weather, spreading sunshine on a sick bed. The very presence of the cheerful caller keeps up that daylight in the mind of the ill.

Long live the cheerful caller!

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

"Here Am I, Lord"

In a certain church there is a group of men ready to do what they can to forward the Lord's work. Among other missionaries in whom they are interested is one in Montana. He wrote that one of his people, for whom he had done all he could, had tuberculosis, and had to leave his family for a sanitarium. He needed a warm bathrobe and a sweater. The day the letter was received the story was told, and before night the bathrobe and sweater were on their way west, with more to follow. Some one said "It was a miracle!" It was nothing of the kind. It was simply a case of some men saying, "Here are we, Lord, use us," and He used them.

Can He so use you?

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

THE CHURCH

"My House Shall Be Called the House of Prayer"

The air is full of pessimism.

The writer was seated in a gathering of clerical and lay delegates that had been convened to discuss certain phases of Church development in what, some folks are fond of saying, is a very difficult field of church work. Somehow it has become the fashion in such a congregation for someone to strike a minor note and everybody join in the weeping whenever the state of the Church is mentioned. On this occasion the hour of lamentation was started by the rector of one of our largest and most influential parishes. He arose with a solemn dignity that would have knocked any undertaker cold with jealousy and mournfully said he feared the day had come for old-time religion to quietly withdraw. The world didn't like it any more. The Church, if it would save itself, must cast off the robes of pure spiritual propaganda and assume the cloak of social service. Men's souls must be saved through their bodies.

What a rhetorical ringer!

The astonishing part of the incident was almost everybody in that assembly agreed with him.

Why President Smith of the American Society of Atheism could not have struck so shrewd a blow at the Church.

Boiled down, the idea is a paraphrase of St. John Baptist's great declaration—the world must increase but Jesus Christ must decrease.

We suspect our brother meant to imply that sugar-coated pills of piety would be taken by people aplenty; whereas if you force the raw dose of religion on the unregenerate sinner he will kick and howl and fight and spit it out.

Maybe so. Maybe so. On the other hand our observations on the result of sugar-coated dosing has led us to almost suspect that the naughty sinner has by some uncanny means learned to lick away the sugar coating and throw away the part that is good for what ails him.

A certain church in this city reached the conclusion that "it did not pay" to have Sunday Evening Service, so it closed its doors and turned out the lights.

On Monday night, and every other week night, however, the parish building was ablaze with light and life. All sorts of social events were in full swing. Boys and girls, men and women from other parishes were cordially invited to come to their social gatherings—to become members if they would. Many did. Many do. Just like monkeys, you know. The result was what one would expect. Today that church is a mournful monument to the spiritual demise of the parish. Its adopted motto—Christ the minimum, the world, the maximum—as a grinning skull, is a warning to the unwary priest who would attract the souls of men with the poisoned sweets of the world.

God's House must not only be "called" the House of Prayer. It must be so in very truth. The emphasis must always be laid on the spiritual. The social and the material elements of Christianity are only incidental and ought to be developed with great wisdom and discrimination. The Church has only one definite place in civilization. It must not stoop to disguise itself in the hope of winning men. As a matter of fact when the Church tries to entertain it is clownish. Its banquets are robberies. Its entertainments are the pitiful ravings of amateurs. The only result the Church gains in trying to ape the world is to make a monkey of itself.

The priest who says the world wants the Church to be new and up-to-date is a fool. God is God, Love is Love, Truth is Truth. What God is He always has been and always will be. Of course, the world wants a different God—a different Church. There has always been and always will be strife between the spiritual and the material. But the priest who forsakes the ancient altars of his faith for the call of the world is unworthy his high calling.

The Value of the Church

What is the best institution in our community today?

Is it the public school system? Is it the welfare organizations? Is it some or all of the various lodges?

Give all the honor you will to these things in which we rightly take great pride, and then ask yourself the question, "What would any or all of these amount to in our community if our community had no Churches?"

Would you be willing to invest your money in property, or seek such a place in which to live, or advise it as a place in which to develop young lives?

We believe that you will agree with us that in spite of all its defects, the Church is by far the greatest and best institution in this or any other community.

Why not then link up with that which is the biggest and best? It needs you.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

"Because I Love It"

By Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Gladstone's rule, even in his older years, was that of a "twicer," as he termed it, at public worship.

"Churchgoing," he said, "is not a matter of fancy for a Christian. It is his duty for the work's sake. I am a regular churchgoer. I should go for various reasons if I did not love it, but I am fortunate enough to find great pleasure in the midst of devout gatherings, whether I can accept their creeds or not. For I find that there is in a corner of my heart a little plant called Reverence which wants to be watered about once a week."

Are you looking about for a means or a method by which you can help improve the community in which you live?

There is no other way by which a man can make what is best in himself such a wide and permanent influence for good in his community as by throwing himself heartily and vigorously into Church work.

To be an outside saint is better than nothing, but the best position is to be an inside laborer in the life of the Church, thus helping to develop the finest character and bestowing the greatest blessings on mankind.

A man is never more safe or more happy, never more useful, than when he has associated himself with the composite life in the Spirit which the Church provides.

"Come thou with us and we will do thee good and thou shalt be to us instead of eyes."—From the Bulletin of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South Orange, New Jersey.

Confirmation, June 15th, 8 o'clock

A Citizen of Zion

Within Thy tabernacle, Lord, if any would abide,
And dwell for aye in Zion's hill, securely by Thy side,
He upright in his walk must be, in conversation true,
And from defilement keep his heart, as all the righteous do.

Upon his tongue he must not hold a single slanderous word,
Nor must he e'er in any case by man or God be heard
Repeating shameless gossip's lies against a brother's name;
He must not do his neighbor ill, nor any man defame.

This man, though just, in his own eyes must ne'er exalted be,
But, as befits a child of grace, think always soberly;
Upon the man who fears the Lord he must the honor place,
And keep his oath, to his own hurt, without a change of face.

Unlawful gain, called usury, he must not ever take,
Nor out of human helplessness aught of profit make.
The man who lives this life of grace, by man and God approved,
In Zion shall forever dwell; he never will be moved.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

E. BOWEN & SON
1018 South Second Street
(Above Washington Avenue)

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 6347 Hot Buns, 5 P. M.

Andrew A. Friesdorf

Fancy Cakes and Ice Cream
Wedding Cakes a Specialty
2240 So. Third Street
No Connection With Any Other Store

RISE UP, O MEN OF GOD

Rise up, O men of God!
Have done with lesser things.
Give heart, and soul, and mind, and strength
To serve the King of kings.

Rise up, O men of God!
His Kingdom tarries long.
Bring in the day of brotherhood
And end the night of wrong.

Lift high the Cross of Christ!
Tread where His feet have trod.
As brother of the Son of Man,
Rise up, O men of God!

PARABLES

1. What is a Parable?
2. Why did our Lord speak in Parables?
3. Is the meaning of a Parable always clear?
4. What is the best way of studying a Parable?
5. From what did Jesus sometimes take His Parables?
6. Name some of the things He used as the base of His Parables.
7. What is a sower?
8. From what was the Parable of the Sower spoken?
9. Why did our Lord enter the boat?
10. Into how many kinds of soil did the Sower drop His seed?
11. Name them.
12. What is meant by the "wayside"?
13. Why is this soil unfit for seed?
14. What is meant by "stony ground"?
15. Why wouldn't the seed geminate in it?
16. Whom does the Sower represent?
17. What does the seed represent?
18. What does the soil represent?
19. Who tries to keep the seed from growing? Eph. ii: 2.
20. What happened to the seed that fell among thorns?
21. What happened to the seed that fell in good ground?

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER
230-232 Queen Street

EASTER All the Latest Novelties and Designs Can Be Found Here
Handsomely Trimmed Baskets at Popular Prices
Chocolate Cocoanut Cream Eggs, Finely Decorated
Also a Full Line of Easter Rabbits, Chickens, etc.
G. H. Geilfus, Confectioner
E. JAISER, Manager
1444 So. 2d Street Cor. Dickinson

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118
"Say It With Flowers"
FRANK C. QUINN
Florist
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

If You Want—
Delicious Mince Pies
Use
ATMORE'S EXTRA FANCY
MINCE MEAT
Or, You May Prefer
Atmore's Plum Pudding
Ask Your Grocer for Both
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 Tasker St. Founded 1842

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 4, No. 5 PHILADELPHIA, MAY, 1930 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

PARISH COMMITTEE

William Forster
John Weber
Vernon Matthews
John Patterson, Jr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson
Robert MacGinniss

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Margaret Rutter

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Miss Martha W. Schmidt, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. William Capie
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

Miss Margaret Kensil, Leader.

Men's Club

President, George Cressee, Sr.
Vice-President, Charles Little.
Secretary, George Downes, Jr.
Treasurer, John Weber.

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Boyd, William Burns
MacFarlan, Robert Francis
Meckling, Raymond Arthur
Quaile, Helen Jean
Rutter, Regina
Terrare, Marie Ray

MARRIAGES

Carl O. Manson and Eva Margaret Stuck.

BURIALS

Jacobus, Margaret
Fox, William
Basil, William

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

The Ancient Church and the Modern Radio

Can the Church Be Supplanted by This New Invention?

Since the almost universal adoption of the Radio there appears to be a growing tendency among individuals and whole families to neglect going to Church on account of the Church coming to them out of the air as it were. Certain delinquent Church members assure us that they are not neglecting Church worship, they just "tune in" every Sunday on certain services and enjoy the best of Church music and the most famous preachers without stepping outside the house.

We admit the Radio is a great invention and adds lots of joy to our lives. It is an unqualified blessing to the sick, the aged and the shut-in. It is most comforting to know that we have this means of bringing to God's unfortunates great spiritual blessing and comfort. It is most satisfying to know that all of us can tune in upon the cathedral services and the famous pulpit orators and enjoy the intellectual exhilaration we get from the experience. But after all is said in favor of Radio, it still has its limitations as a substitute for the Ancient Church and many handicaps it can never hope to overcome.

THE CHURCH ATMOSPHERE AND ENVIRONMENTS

First of all, there are the Church environments and atmosphere which always take a worshiper's mind off the familiar and worldly things and envelop us in a finer and more spiritual atmosphere. This atmosphere and these environments in themselves are conducive to a truer worship. The interior of the Church with its pictured windows, the choir, the chancel, the altar, the cross, the font, impress their influence upon us the instant we cross the threshold of God's House. We know we are in another world, we walk almost on tip toe, we speak in whispers because the Church is so different in every respect from the rest of the world. We really get more spiritual help and satisfaction out of an empty and silent church than we do out of the most elaborate and beautifully rendered Radio service in our house, surrounded with the old familiar sofa, chairs, tables, etc. In the home the atmosphere and environment conducive to worship are lacking and there is no real substitute we can supply.

CONGREGATIONAL SINGING AND PRAYING

Another great handicap to the Radio service is the lack of congregational singing and praying one experiences in the Church service. Somehow even the most hopelessly untuneful singer forgets he is singing off key when he is in Church singing with the others, and is supremely happy in the knowledge that he is making a joyful noise unto the Lord. As it is with his singing so is it with his praying. He could never bring himself to kneel down in his home surrounded by his family while the Radio offered prayer; but he does not hesitate to kneel in the Church among his fellow worshipers. In this simple act of reverence there is an uplifting of the spirit one misses in the Radio service.

PERSONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Again there is a big difference between our Radio service associates and our Church service associates. Generally the Radio service audience is our own immediate family. One is reading a newspaper while the service is in progress, Mother is washing dishes or making the beds, Dad is in his socks smoking a pipe and talking to a friend, Sister is entertaining her boy friend, and Brother is doing everything and anything else under the sun than listening to the Radio. Now and then they catch a hymn or a sentence; but taking it all in all, the associates and their moving around and their talk and their general disturbance about ruin the spiritual effects of the Radio service. On the other hand, there is a poise and deportment among the Church worshipers which always leave their impression upon mind and heart. There is generally a pose of respectful attention which, if it be disturbed by the least act or sound of levity, calls forth frowns of disapproval upon the irreverant and a strong criticism as to one's proper conduct in the Church of God. This is a state of mind and spirit that the Radio service cannot possibly develop in a million years.

SACRIFICE OF EFFORT AND POSSESSIONS

Among the really serious shortcomings of the Radio service is the absence of any sacrifice of effort or money. The effort one puts forth to dress in his "Sunday clothes" and slick up his personal appearance so that he will look presentable among other Church-going folks is more than an empty gesture. One FEELS and THINKS differently in his Sunday clothes. He puts on a new set of emotions with them, and he is conscious all day long that Sunday is a day apart from other days. The Radio worshiper does not even have to shave himself or put on his shoes. He can loaf around in undress and "enjoy" the singing of the celebrated choirs and the preaching of the famous preachers. Curiously enough, such folks are violating the first law of the psychology of worship and do not know it. A man must "be clothed and in his right mind" in a very particular sense before he can "worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness."

"Taking up the collection" is an expression which always has its humorous appeal to a certain class of folk. But after all it has an important psychological and spiritual place in worship. In the truest sense IT IS AN OFFERING OR A SACRIFICE and ought to be referred to as such. No worship of man has ever been complete without its sacrifice. It is the universally accepted necessary part of worship. There can be no true worship without sacrifice. This is one of the places where Radio service breaks down. It is a service especially adapted to tight-wads and misers who imagine that because Salvation is free they are putting one over on the Church by patronizing the Radio and saving their penny. Their logic would be sound IF THE CHURCH OFFERING WERE NOT AN INTRINSIC PART OF WORSHIP. When Radio worshipers will make their sacrifices and offerings in the Churches in their vicinity, then we will believe in the sincerity of their worship.

THE SACRAMENTS

The Radio service has no Sacraments. It has no altar, no cross, no Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Therefore it cannot possibly be of spiritual benefit to its followers. The center of worship is its Sacraments. No true worshiper can starve his spirit of these essentials and remain a well poised and robust Christian. Nor will he retain the image of Christ long in his mind. The more he absents himself from the Holy Eucharist, the paler and more intangible will become the Christ. Christ will soon fade away from his life, and he will find himself eventually in the company of those who deny and forsake Him. There is life in the Sacraments. Their is death in their neglect.

CONVERTS

The Radio makes no converts. It is claimed for one broadcasting evangelist that even Jews and Roman Catholics are known to "listen in" and "enjoy" his service. No doubt it is true. But the point is, has any of these "listening in" Jews been converted to Christianity? Is any of them better Jews for the Radio? How about the Roman Catholic bloc of the audience, have they been converted to the evangelist's brand of Protestantism? Are they any better or more consistent Roman Catholics than they were? How about the non-professing and frankly sinful section of the Radio audience who enjoy the music and oratory of the service? Did any one of them at any time feel a conviction for his sins and fall down, as did the Publican in the Temple, and cry out in an agony of repentance, "God be merciful to me a sinner," and get up a converted man?

The Master Teacher Himself says, "By their fruits ye shall know them." SO FAR AS OUR PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE GOES, we do not know of one convert that can be credited to the Radio. It is here where the service of the Living Church is most potent.

If any of our readers take the trouble to read to the end of this article we are sure they will say the writer is a reactionary and has a grudge against the great power of the Radio. Such is not the case, however. We honestly believe the Radio is a great auxiliary to the Church. It is a blessing to those who cannot, for many reasons, attend Divine worship of the Church or are so isolated that they cannot reach the Church. We believe it is good for all of us to hear the glorious music of the choirs that broadcast. It is a great intellectual experience to listen to the eloquent preachers of the "Word." Our contention is not that the Radio service is altogether vicious and to be unsparingly condemned. Rather we are warning a certain careless class of Christians against substituting an auxiliary of the Church for the Church itself. In its place it is good. Out of its place, like everything else, it is bad.

PRAYER

Not that there be less to bear,
Not that there be more to share;
But for braver heart bearing,
But for freer heart for sharing,
Here I pray.

Not for scenes of richer beauty,
Not for paths of lighter duty;
But for clearer eyes for seeing,
Gentler hands, more patient being,
Every day.

Not that joy and peace enfold me,
Not that wealth and pleasure hold me;
But that I may dry a tear,
Speak a word of strength and cheer
On the way.

Words of Thanks

Next Time You Come to Church Take Notice of the Decorations of the Sunday School Platform

Though we do not see much of GEORGE himself, he has a way of reminding us that he is around. Last CHRISTMAS he and WALTER BENCKERT decorated the chancel of the Sunday School room so beautifully that we would not destroy the decorations but kept them up until Easter. Just a week or so before EASTER we dropped in on GEORGE, who is connected with the DENNISON COMPANY on Chestnut street, and asked him how about changing and freshening up the decorations for EASTER. With his usual genial smile, he acquiesced at once and began to plan an evening he could spend doing the job. On Wednesday evening in HOLY WEEK he arrived at the Church with two co-workers, FREDERICK L. LYNCH and ERIC SANDQUIST. And did those boys know their paper stuff? We'll say they did, and then a lot more. When GEORGE DOWNS & CO. got through with that platform we could not realize it was the same spot. The CHRISTMAS trimmings were beautiful, but this EASTER adornment is even better.

Thanks, GEORGE, for adding so materially to the

EASTER JOY of the whole Parish, and tell FRED AND ERIC to stop around now and then—we like to get better acquainted with such smart fellows.

CONFIRMATION

Our time has been so occupied with Lenten and Easter activities that we have given scant attention to this most important event of the Parish. We need the active aid of every man, woman, boy and girl communicant of the Parish to help us "round up" a well-trained and representative class for Bishop Taitt on his first visit to St. John's, on Sunday evening, June 15th, at 8 o'clock. There are scores of folk of all ages all around the Church who are not connected in the remotest way with any Church of any denomination who ought and would come out for Jesus Christ if they were given the slightest encouragement. Your Rector is constantly running into whole families, who are perfect prospects, every Sunday afternoon he makes his rounds of parochial visits. The trouble is he cannot follow up and cinch them as they ought to be cinched. He is confidently depending on the Y. W. C. L., the Daughters of the King, the Woman's Auxiliary, the St. John's Fellowship and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, to scour the Parish,—North, East, South and West, and bring in recruits for Christ. EVERY SUNDAY NIGHT WILL BE DEVOTED TO EXPLAINING THE CHURCH AND ITS PRACTICES. Bring your prospects to the Sunday evening service and get them educated and interested in the Kingdom of God and His Christ.

An Answer to Prayer

Last month we printed an answer to prayer in connection with the work of the Soudan Interior Mission. That occurred in Toronto, Canada. Here is another instance of how God hears prayer and honors the faith of His children. This time it was right here in Philadelphia.

Many of us know that when the late Dr. Russell H. Conwell built the Grace Baptist Temple, at Broad and Berks streets, it was a hand-to-mouth proposition. They had very little money and proceeded as they had funds. Sometimes it seemed as if the work must stop, because there was no money in hand or even in sight to carry it on. A friend tells the story:

One Sunday morning he went to hear Dr. Conwell preach. As he was about to begin his sermon, he glanced down at the place where his hand was resting on the open Bible. He gave a slight start, then said: "I had intended to preach another sermon today, but I feel that I must preach on the text on which my hand is lying," and he read "Oh ye of little faith." He went on to say that on a certain occasion when they were building their church, a payment of $18,000 was due the contractor at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, and he would be promptly on hand for his money. On Monday morning of that week there was no money in hand or in sight to meet the payment. That man of God went into his study, and after locking the door he spent an hour on his knees pleading with his Heavenly Father for the needed funds. He arose from his prayer with the definite assurance that when the time came the need would be met. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday morning passed, but no money came in. At noon on Wednesday the Chairman of the Building Committee came in to ask what was to be done. Dr. Conwell told him what had occurred, and said he was positively certain the money would be in hand when due in answer to his prayer. The other went out grumbling "that did not pay bills." Wednesday afternoon and Thursday passed, still no money came. On Friday morning a woman came in and said to Dr Conwell that she had been greatly helped by his preaching. She had $1000 which was lying idle and she gave it to him. He told her the story, and said her gift was part of the answer he was expecting. She said she was very sorry she could not spare more, but he told her not to worry, it was all right. From that time on, all through the day men and women came in with varying sums, from $50 to $750, until, just at the stroke of five o'clock the sum of $18,000 was made up!

People and organizations who live by faith in God, looking to Him for their needs and giving their lives to His service, find that our God is faithful, and never fails them. Like the Israelites in the wilderness, while He supplied their needs, He gave just what they needed. They gathered each day just enough manna to keep them until the next day except on the sixth day, when they gathered a double portion, so as not to work on the Sabbath.

The trouble with us is that we not only do not trust God enough, but to judge from our actions we do not trust Him at all. This in spite of the injunction of our blessed Saviour that we should cast ALL of our cares on Him, for He careth for us.

Cohen and his family sat down to dinner on Sunday. To his three boys Cohen said: "Now children, vhich of you vould vant it a nickel instead of meat for dinner?"

Each of the three decided in favor of the nickel settlement, so Mrs. Cohen put the meat away. Then she brought in the pie and put it on the table.

"Now, my children," inquired Cohen, "how many of you vant a nickel's vorth of pie?"

Our Bunny Party

This list of names are those who by contributing their EASTER OFFERING are entitled to be rated as SUPPORTING MEMBERS OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

Anonymous
Anonymous
Adams, Mrs. Helen
Adgate, James
Adgate, Margaret
Amerman, Mrs. Frank, Jr.
Armstrong Florence
Ashman, Dorothy
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Margaret
Barnes, Cecelia
Barnes, Ethlyn
Barnes, Joseph
Barnes, Mary
Barnes, William
Bauer, Mrs. Helen
Beck, John
Bedlow, Mrs. Louisa
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Mrs. Annie
Beisser, Miss Mamie
Bender, Caroline
Blech, Charles
Blech, Jennie
Branton, Eva
Bricker, Jennie
Bromley, Catherine
Bromley, John
Bruch, Marion
Burns, Katharine
Capie, Joseph
Carbarnes, Henry
Carbarnes, Anna
Carbarnes, Elizabeth
Carbarnes, Mrs. Meta
Clark, Harry
Clark, Kathleen
Clendenning, Charles
Clendenning, Jennie
Clendenning, William
Coates, Florence
Coates, Victor
Collins, Mrs.
Colvey, Joseph
Colvey, Maria
Connelly, Mrs. C.
Cooper, Mrs. Helen
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Coyle, John
Cressee, George, Jr.
Cressee, Mrs. George
Cressee, Raymond
Cressee, George, Sr.
Cunningham, Walter, Jr.
Darr, Margaret
Daughters of the King
Davis, John William
Davis, Mrs. Amelia
Davis, Naomi Mercedes
Davis, Oliver C.
Dean, Mrs. Mary
DeCosta, Margaret
Deitrich, Marie
DeYoung, Mrs. Herbert
Dingler, Mrs. Annie
Downes, Mrs. George
Downs, George
Doyle, Francis
Drumm, Robert
Dunbar, Elizabeth
Dunbar, Anna
Dysert, John
Emberschied, Mrs. Annie
Erickson, James, Jr.
Erickson, Mrs. James, Jr.
Erickson, Joseph S., Sr.
Erickson, Mrs. Margaret
Evans, Thomas
Fanger, Mrs. Anna
Fanger, Harry
Feinauer, Mrs. Amy B.
Felder, Heywood
Fischer, John
Fischer, Mrs. Mary
Fisher, Miss M. Beatrice
Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Cath.
Fitzpatrick, Edward D.
Fogarty, Andrew
Fogarty, Joseph
Forster, William
Fort, Elsie
Fort, Mrs. Minnie
Fowler, Mrs. Jennie
Fowler, Miss Myrtle
Frederickson, Clara
Gallagher, Robert
Gallagher, Isaac
Gallagher, Joseph
Gallagher, Kate
Gorman, William
Green, Emma
Green, Joseph
Green, William
Greenfield, Lydia
Greenfield, Robert
Gregory, George
Gregory, George
Gregory, Grace
Gresh, Mrs. Margaret
Griggs, Anna
Griggs, Elizabeth
Grubb, Pauline
Grubb, Rufus
Grubb, William
Hall, Louisa
Hall, William
Hallowell, Elizabeth
Hallowell, Enos
Haltz, Mrs.
Hamilton, Florence
Harris, Marie
Hartman, Earl, Sr.
Hartman, John
Hartman, William
Hasson, Mrs. Kate
Hasson, Kathryne
Hasson, William
Haury, Mary
Henderson, Catharine
Henkel, Mrs. Rebecca
Hill, George
Hogg, Margaret
Holton, Alice
Holton, Edna
Holton, Joseph
Holton, Margaret
Holton, Margaret
Hopkins, Mrs. Harry
Howard, Mrs. Hannah
Jackson, Elsie
Jaeschke, Herman
Jaeschke, Mrs. Herman
Jorett, Mrs. Catherine
Kalessee, Elizabeth
Karstein, Elizabeth
Kelly, Sarah
Kelly, Mrs. Mary
Kelly, Raymond W.
Kelly, Mrs. V. E.
Kelly, Charles
Kelly, Ruth
Kensil, John
Kensil, William
Keough, Mrs. J.
King, Mrs. Clara
King, John
King, William
Knowlton, Mrs. Anna
Knowlton, Frank, Jr.
Knowlton, Frank, Sr.
Kraft, Edward
Kraft, Ornet
Krause, William
Krause, James T.
Krause, Mrs. Sarah
Lafferty, Martha
Lawrence, Catherine
Lawrence, George, Sr.
Lawrence, George, Jr.
Lawrence, James
Lawrence, Mary
Lenhart, Eleanor L.
Lenhart, Miss Margaret
Lenhart, David, Jr.
Lenhart, David, Sr.
Lenhart, Mrs. Margaret
Little, Charles
Little, Mrs. Mary
Little, Pauline
Little, William
Long, James G.
Ludwig, Mrs. Anna M.
Lumbeck, Mrs. Jennie M.
Lumbeck, Miss Lillie W.
Major, William
MacVaugh, Sylvania
MacVaugh, Mrs. Anna
MacVaugh, William
McCall, William
McCall, James
McCloskey, Carrie
McDowell, Mrs. Mary
McDowell, Samuel, Jr.
McHenry, H. Cresson
McHenry, John E.
McKeown, Mrs. Lillian
McKeown, Mrs. Martha
McKeown, Matthew
McKeown, James, Sr.
McKeown, Mrs. Rebecca
McLaughlin, Rosella
McLaughlin, Mrs. Matilda
McLaughlin, Michael
McLaughlin, Anna
Maguire, Eliza
Maguire, George
Maguire, Lydia
Mann, Leta C.
Marley, Emma
Marnie, Thomas
Matthews, Vernon
Meckling, Philip
Mehring, Anna
Meinhart, Herbert
Miller, Dorothy
Miller, Eleanor
Miller, Robert
Miller, Mrs. Dorothy
Miller, Walter
Miller, Anna May
Miller, Warren
Mitchell, Madeline
Moffett, Edith
Morris, Robert
Morris, Sadie
Morrison, Frances
Munion, Benjamin
Munion, Henrietta P.
Munion, Mary
Munion, Winthrop
Murphy, Margaret
Nelson, John J., Jr.
Nilsson, Hilma
Nuttall, Hannah H.
Oliver, Mrs.
Olsen, Genevive
O'Donnell, Katharine
Patterson, John, Jr.
Patterson, Mrs. John, Jr
Patterson, Anna

Payne, Mrs. Emma
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, James
Penrose, Dorothy
Penrose, Harry
Pierce, Eva
Pierce, Evelyn
Pine, Mrs. Lillian
Preole, James
Preole, John
Preole, John F.
Preole, Ruth
Prettyman, Caroline
Quaile, Dorothy
Quaile, Mrs. Clara
Quaile, William
Rand, Andrew
Rand, Mrs. Mary
Read, Mrs. Hannah
Redding, Louisa
Redding, Dorothy
Redding, Frances
Reed, Lottie
Reynolds, Catharine
Reynolds, Leona
Reynolds, Jennie
Reynolds, Walter
Robins, Anna
Robinson, Annie
Rudderow, Bertha
Rudderow, Godfrey
Rutter, Mrs. Jeremiah
Rutter, Jeremiah
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth
Rutter, Ruth
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Jennie
Rutter, Edward
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Catharine
Rutter, Margaret
Rutter, Robert
Schaab, Frederick
Schabacker, Anna
Schlembac, Catharine
Schlembac, Joseph
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank
Schmidt, Frank G.
Schmidt, Martha W.
Schweppenheiser, Mabel
Scott, Mrs. George
Seher, Catharine
Seher, Harry
Seher, Margaret
Shields, Mrs. Bella
Silbert, Ella
Silbert, Mrs. Ella
Simpson, Emma
Simpson, Jennie
Smith, Mrs. Rebecca
Snell, Samuel, Sr.
Snell, Hazel
Snell, Mrs. Katharine
Snell, Richard
Spratt, John, Jr.
Springer, Anna
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, Webster
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, Laura
Stenger, William
Stockman, Elizabeth
Stockman, Florence
Stockman, Harry
Stockman, James
Stockman, Robert
Stockman, Samuel
Stone, David
Stone, Elizabeth
Stone, William
Strang, Mrs.
Stryker, Emma
Stryker, Valentine
Substalae, Florence
Sullivan, Ella
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Sutterlin, Thelma
Sutterlin, Ethel
Sweeney, James
Taylor, Benjamin
Taylor, Ethel
Taylor, Mrs. Sarah
Tesche, Cecelia
Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Harry, Sr.
Tittermary, Johanna
Tittermary, John
Tittermary, Mrs. John
Tucker, Benjamin
Venezialle, Frances
Venezialle, Antoinette
Venezialle, Dominick
Volpe, Peter
Von Franzke, Florence
Walker, Harry
Walker, Emily
Walker, Howard
Ward, Abraham
Ward, Abraham
Ward, Carrie
Ward, William
Ward, Carrie
Warren, Anna
Warrington, William C.
Watkins, Mary
Watkins, Richard
Watts, Miss Sarah
Weber, John
Weber, Mrs. John
Webster, Margaret
Weist, Charles
Weist, Florence
Wertley, Helen
Wilhelm, Mrs. Catharine
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Eleanor
Woerner, Hannah
Woerner, Rudolph
Woessner, Clara
Woessner, Charles
Woessner, Mrs. Clara
Woman's Auxiliary
Young, George
Young, Laura
Young, Viola
Young, William, Jr.
Young Woman's Christian League

The Man Power of the Parish

Its Fine Demonstration on Easter Day

The most striking feature of EASTER DAY was the impressive demonstration of the man power of the Parish. It has been the Rector's dream that sometime he would have the joy of giving the BLESSED SACRAMENTS to at least one hundred men and boys. EASTER DAY he more than realized his dream for just ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY-EIGHT MEN AND BOYS MADE THEIR EASTER COMMUNION. It was a wonderful sight—men and boys kneeling at the altar rail, men and boys kneeling in the choir, men and boys kneeling two abreast in the nave all the way from the choir steps down to the doors of the Church and in the hall beyond. CAN WE HOPE FOR OR EXPECT A GREATER BLESSING THAN THIS?

Good News from the Finance Committee

From the latest reports of the Finance Committee of the parish we have reason to congratulate ourselves on the upward tendency of our offerings, both to the CURRENT EXPENSES of the parish and the CENT-A-DAY fund. We are pleased with the quiet and understanding manner the members of the parish accepted the new and business-like way of reminding delinquent members of the amount they owe the Church at the end of each quarter of the year. The response has been extremely gratifying. Many who were several weeks behind in their offerings have settled their accounts up to date while a very big increase in the CENT-A-DAY contributions is shown.

We were sure all the time that if we put our finances on a business basis and took our members into our confidence, there would be a satisfactory response. Our first experience has been so pleasant that we mean to continue our quarterly letters to our delinquent brethren. May we suggest for your guidance that, unless you are out of employment; or there is serious sickness in the house, or your wages are hopelessly below the line of self-support, YOUR MINIMUM OFFERING TO THE CURRENT EXPENSES OF THE CHURCH OUGHT NEVER TO BE LESS THAN TEN CENTS, and that minimum ought to be obtained only so long as funds are needed for extraordinary family expenses. THE GENERALLY ACCEPTED MINIMUM OF EVERY PARISH IS TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. This is $13 per year per capita.

The point in making your offerings to your Church is not TO GIVE AS LITTLE AS YOU CAN BUT TO GIVE AS MUCH AS YOU ESTIMATE GOD'S BLESSINGS ARE WORTH TO YOU. If your life, your health your capacity to enjoy the good things of life, your financial state, your friends, your loved ones, are of more value and importance to you than a ten cents a week offering to the Source of all these blessings as YOUR expression of gratitude to HIM, then, by all means, MAKE YOUR OFFERING IN PROPORTION TO YOUR VALUATION OF THESE BLESSINGS. And remember this—the offerings you make to God and the Church, whether they be money or service, will always return to you a hundredfold. GOD PAYS THE HIGHEST INTEREST KNOWN TO MAN ON ALL THE FUNDS WE DEPOSIT WITH HIM. Don't be foolish and refuse to trust your money with Him. There are those in our own Parish who have "plunged" and speculated their little bit on God and have come out winners every time. If you have any sporting blood in you at all, take a "flyer" in Church offerings and WATCH YOUR PROSPECTS BRIGHTEN. You cannot possibly lose. It is the only sure thing gamble in life. It is so sure that it is no gamble at all.

The increase in the CENT-A-DAY or the 85 Club is most encouraging. We are watching several other members of the Parish, wondering when they are going to loosen up and help swell the fund with THEIR CENT-A-DAY. It means practically nothing to them, but it means the clearing off of the Parish House Mortgage to us as a parish. When everybody begins to pay in his CENT-A-DAY, we will have that mortgage licked in two years. Don't hesitate, brother. PUT YOUR HANDS IN YOUR PANTS' POCKET, BRING OUT THAT CHICKEN FEED AND DUMP IT INTO THE 85 CLUB POCKET OF YOUR CHURCH ENVELOPE EVERY WEEK. Then when the new Parish House is finished, you can stick your thumbs in your vest, spread your legs apart, throw out your chest, tilt your hat back on your head, elevate your cigar to a sassy angle, squint your eyes, and say to all and sundry: "There ye'ar, sir! That's the kind of building I help to build. Gee, it's great to have such a funny feeling!"

Church Vocabulary

The Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Philadelphia, has published what we think is one of the most helpful pamphlets ever issued to Churchmen, under the title of CHURCH VOCABULARY. It is so important that we have determined to print a portion of its contents in every issue of the BROADCASTER until we have published the whole of it. We advise the BROADCASTER readers to save each issue to keep ever handy. This list is especially valuable to the members of the Altar Guild.

THE CHANCEL

THE CHANCEL: That part of the Church separated by steps from the Nave or body of the Church. It comprises the choir and the Sanctuary.

THE CHOIR: That part of the chancel containing stalls and seats for the clergy and choir.

THE SANCTUARY: That portion of the chancel containing the Altar, Bishop's Chair and Credence, within the Communion rail.

THE LECTERN: That which supports the large Bible from which the lessons for the day are read. Its position is just outside the choir. The figure of an eagle with outspread wings, symbolizes the strong and far flight of the Gospel message over the entire world.

THE PULPIT: Stands on the opposite side from the Lectern. It suggests the thought of the sacred and important work of the Christian Ministry as preachers of the Word of God.

THE BISHOP'S CHAIR: Placed on the Gospel side of the Altar. It is a reminder of the highest order of the Christian Ministry.

THE CREDENCE: A table of wood or stone on the opposite side of the Sanctuary from the Bishop's chair, sometimes let in the wall or set against it. It is used to hold the sacred elements and vessels, also the alms basons when there is no Communion service.

THE ALTAR: A table of wood or stone on which the Holy Communion is celebrated. Strictly speaking, nothing is placed on the Altar but the Altar Desk, which holds the Service Book, and when the Holy Communion is celebrated, the Communion vessels with the Proper Altar cloths.

THE ALTAR CROSS: The special emblem of Christianity. This and the Vases for flowers (and nothing else) are placed upon the Re-table, i. e., the shelf back of the Altar. The vases ought to be placed well to the ends of the Re-table, so that the Cross may always shine out alone and take prominence.

ALTAR COVERINGS: The Altar is covered with Cere Cloth, Altar Cloth, Fair Linen and the cloths of Service for the Holy Communion. When there is no Communion, the Protector is placed on the top of the Fair Linen, and the Credence cover is removed from the Credence.

(Continued in Next Issue.)

NOW!

A Final Word About the Memorial Tablet

Only a few more months and the MEMORIAL PARISH HOUSE will be a dream come true. The contractor has begun to tear down the old building prior to its erection.

NOW is the time for those who mean to buy a space on the MEMORIAL TABLET to do so. After the PARISH HOUSE is built and the tablet is placed, it will be too late.

NOW you can arrange with the Rector to pay for the Tablet space on whatever terms you wish. As soon as the money is paid in full, the name you choose for the Tablet will be put in its space.

PLEASE DO NOT DELAY. DO IT NOW and get the matter off your mind.

Our Parish House

Its Building Presents a Challenge to the Parish

We hold no hard feelings against the Doubting Thomas group who never expected to see the MEMORIAL PARISH HOUSE completed. We realized ourselves the audacity of the venture and the magnitude of the undertaking. Now that we are committed too far to back out we will confess that many a time we were really scared and almost had heart failure when we stopped to think of what we were doing. But, on account of our fool tendency to hang on like a bulldog when once our teeth were sunk in a thing we could not and we would not let go.

Now the only thing we need to make the venture a grand triumph is the co-operation of every member of the Parish. We want the dubious-minded to join us in doing the most creditable thing the Parish has ever done. If everybody will do his little bit for the next few years we will not only have our MEMORIAL PARISH HOUSE but we will have it free of debt.

The plan of financing the proposition is sound in every way. The CENT-A-DAY idea will not only meet our interest but will pay off a big slice of the principal of the mortgage. The MEMORIAL TABLET idea is bringing in an income which will materially reduce the building debt. If we can consistently develop these two sources of income the Parish House will be clear of debt in a very short time, and the Parish of St. John the Evangelist will have the most up-to-date Parish House in South Philadelphia.

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

EASTER DAY

All the Easter services were well attended.

FOUR HUNDRED MADE THEIR EASTER COMMUNION.

One hundred and forty-eight men and boys received.

The Easter music of the choir was exceptional.

Sunday School Lenten Offering, $1442.57.

Church Easter Offering, $475.00.

Miss Martha Schmidt received a chorister's red collar for perfect attendance at choir practice and Sunday morning and evening service since the beginning of the church year.

Martha Lafferty, Viola Young and John Preole each received a red cloth-bound church hymnal with music for perfect choir service during the Lenten services.

Martha Schmidt, Thelma Sutterlin, Helen Ashman, Martha Lafferty, John Preole, Frank Knowlton, Jr., and Harry Seher received beautiful unframed pictures, subject, "In Remembrance of Me," for perfect attendance at choir practice.

"Not Understood"

Not Understood, we move asunder,
Our paths grow wider as the seasons creep
Along the years. We marvel and we wonder
Why life is life, and then we go to sleep—
Not understood.

Not Understood, we gather false impressions
And hug them close as the years go by Till virtue oft seems to us transgression
And thus men rise and fall and live and die—
Not Understood.

Not Understood, poor souls with stunted vision
Oft measure giants by their narrow gauge;
The poisoned shafts of falsehood and derision
Are oft impelled against those who mold the age—
Not Understood.

Not Understood, how many breasts are aching
For words of sympathy. Ah! yes, today
How many hungry hearts are breaking,
How many noble spirits pass away—
Not Understood.

Oh God, if men could see a little clearer
Or judge less harshly when they cannot see;
Oh God, if men would draw a little nearer
To one another, they'd be nearer then to Thee—
And Understood.

—Anon.

Broadcasting from Laughland

SAFETY FIRST

"I don't like your inviting that chap to dinner. He used to kiss you before we were married."

"Well, so did you."

"Yes, but I've got over it and maybe he hasn't."

* * *

THE COURSE OF TRUE LOVE

She—"You remind me of the ocean."

He—"Wild, romantic, restless—?"

She—"No, you just make me sick."

* * *

QUITE SO!

"Do you ever allow a man to kiss you when you are our motoring with him?" inquired a careful mother.

"Of course not, mother," answered the daughter scornfully. "A man who can drive safely while kissing me isn't giving the kiss the attention it deserves."

* * *

A rich man lying on his deathbed called his chauffeur and said, "Sykes, I am going on a long journey; rugged and worse than you ever drove me."

"Well, sir," consoled the chauffeur, "there's one consolation; it's all downhill."

* * *

NO CONCERN OF HIS

A landlord wrote to his tenant: "I regret to inform you that my rent is much overdue. Will you kindly forward me a check?"

Back went the reply: "I see no reason on earth why I should pay your rent. I can't even pay my own."

* * *

OFFHAND OBSERVATIONS

It appears that the Quebec housewife who recently gave birth to triplets was formerly a telephone operator. Wrong number—excuse it, please.

—Goblin.

* * *

Business Man (to his rival next door)—"Man, where are your ethics?"

"Oh, I traded that for a Hudson."

* * *

If you pull the tail of a frog,
Will he holler, kick or swim?
That's one thing we'll never know,
For there ain't no tail on him.

* * *

The young man was prematurely gray, and proud of it.

"Looks quite poetic, don't you think?" he asked the girl he had met at the beach.

"It does remind me of a certain poem," she said meekly.

"And what is that?"

"'When the Frost Is on the Punkin'."

* * *

"Stealing chickens again, Rastus?" asked the Judge. "Have you anything to say, any excuse this time?"

"'Deed, yes, Jedge," replied Rastus, "it ain't mah fault, Jedge; it's de fault ob mah high-up ancestors."

"How so?"

"Well, Jedge, mah ancestors dun come over in de

WILLIAM CAPIE
and his
MELANCHOLY ORCHESTRA
Music for All Occasions
Phone, Lombard 4024—Between 3 and 4 P. M.

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648
Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER
230-232 Queen Street

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118
"Say It With Flowers"
FRANK C. QUINN
Florist
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

If You Want—
Delicious Mince Pies
Use
ATMORE'S EXTRA FANCY
MINCE MEAT
Or, You May Prefer
Atmore's Plum Pudding
Ask Your Grocer for Both
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 Tasker St. Founded 1842

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452
Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

Mayflower, an' evah since Ah was born Ah has an' uncontrollable desire foh Plymouth Rocks!"

* * *

Teacher—"What's your name, little boy?"
New Pupil—"Sam."
Teacher—"What is the rest of it?"
New Pupil—"Mule."

* * *

I'm going to wash my hands of the whole affair," said the deaf-mute who had just finished telling a dirty story.

Claw.

* * *

HE ADDED TWO LINES

A man who is now 100 years old says: "When I was scarcely able to talk my mother taught me this prayer:

"Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep;
If I should die before I wake
I pray the Lord my soul to take."

At the age of 100 that man added two lines to his childhood prayer:

"Should I live for other days,
I pray the Lord to guide my ways"

* * *

MR. GERALD ALLEN, JR.

Personal Escorter

Tots and kiddies took to school and returned prompt in perfect condishion if receiveed that way. Military discipline. Rates 25 cents a week. Speshiol rates to twins. Refined conversashion. No extry charge for nose-wipin. All I ast is a trial.

* * *

GO ON! OR COME ON!

Sending your children to church is all wrong. Take them.

The greatest manager does not say: Go on! He says: Come on!

* * *

Thinking to be smart, the headwaiter suggested honeymoon salad and the groom blandly replied: "Yes, lettuce alone."

* * *

The high-hat, self-important individual who figured that inaccessibility indicated his individual imprtance, is now on the retired list.

Did it ever occur to you that selfishness and self love are the worst form of I-dolatry?

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

E. BOWEN & SON
1018 South Second Street
(Above Washington Avenue)

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 6347 Hot Buns, 5 P. M.

Andrew A. Friesdorf

Fancy Cakes and Ice Cream
Wedding Cakes a Specialty
2240 So. Third Street
No Connection With Any Other Store

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 4, No. 6 PHILADELPHIA, JUNE, 1930 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Margaret Rutter

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Miss Martha W. Schmidt, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. William Capie
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

Men's Club

President, George Cressee, Sr.
Vice-President, Charles Little.
Secretary, George Downes, Jr.
Treasurer, John Weber.

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Bunker, Dorothy Viola
Garson, George William
Kelly, Albert Charles
O'Donald, Elizabeth Ann
Scarinci, John Arthur

BURIALS

Cooker, Wilhelmina
Smith, Sarah L.
Stone, David A.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

CO-OPERATION

Its Meaning and Its Importance

What do we mean by CO-OPERATION?

Every schoolboy knows it is a compound word and is made up thus: Co-with and operation-working. If you put the two together, you have a word that means WORKING WITH. Therefore co-operation means working WITH and not AGAINST each other.

The whole world is coming more and more to feel that the greatest and biggest thing in the world is CO-OPERATION. If a man wants to start a business these days he does not "go it alone" and put in all his own cash. He gets a lot of others, forms a corporation (another form of co-operation) and each of them pays so much per share in the new business; and, after taking out articles of incorporation (another use of co-operation) they set up in business. The advantage of this is that the man gets more money to invest by taking others in with him and the danger of failure is much less if many instead of one are interested in the business.

This is the way CO-OPERATION works out. If you want anything you are interested in you want to get others to co-operate with you. There is an old saying, "IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH." This is very true.

Our Nineteenth Anniversary

The first instance in which I am anxious to get the full CO-OPERATION of the whole Parish is in connection with our NINETEENTH ANNIVERSARY. What I would like to see on June 15 is all the boys and girls whom I have baptized in those 19 years, all the boys and girls who were Sunday School scholars, all the boys and girls, men and women, who have been confirmed in old St. John's Church, all the original members who CO-OPERATED with me in my 19 years' labors, all the couples I have married in that period and their families, all the families of all those whom I have laid to rest, all those to whom I have given the blessed Sacraments. What a glorious company of people that would be, and how happy would be such a REUNION for all!

We hope everybody WILL CO-OPERATE with us on June 15 and make it the most joyous Anniversary we ever had. We want you to be at the

HOLY COMMUNION .....10.30 A. M.
DINNER .....12.00 Noon
ROSE FESTIVAL ..... 2.30 P. M.
PARISH VISITING ..... 4.00 P. M.
SUPPER ..... 5.00 P. M.
CONFIRMATION SERVICE ... 8.00 P. M.

Also we want you to CO-OPERATE with us in tendering to OUR BISHOP-COADJUTOR, THE RIGHT REVEREND FRANCIS M. TAITT, a most hearty welcome, and remember he was a downtown boy and one of us. DON'T LET IT BE SAID THAT OLD SOUTHWARK NEGLECTED TO DO HONOR TO ONE OF HER MOST DISTINGUISHED SONS.

Also we want you to CO-OPERATE with us in making the Rector's NINETEENTH ANNIVERSARY RECEPTION a success. It will be held on the evening of Tuesday, June 17. Please invite not only your friends but everybody else who might want to come.

Confirmation

If the whole Parish of St. John the Evangelist will CO-OPERATE on getting CANDIDATES FOR CONFIRMATION, we will have a bigger class than ever on June 15.

We are trying to stimulate CO-OPERATION in this matter by offering a beautiful limp leather-back Bible, with references, teachers' helps, maps, concordance, etc., to every person who will get 10 candidates for Confiirmation this year. It makes no difference how old they are, so long as they know the difference between right and wrong.

If you want to own a real Bible, now is the time to get it—just by CO-OPERATING.

A-Cent-a-Day

As we have said before, A CENT is the smallest coin in the United States. I know this because if there were smaller, I'd find 'em in the Church offering. There is where you find little things. Yet, at the same time, I'm not despising THE CENT. I have the greatest respect for it. Because I KNOW that if you and I CO-OPERATE and each gives A-CENT-A-DAY we will pay both the principal and the interest on our new Parish House in less than three years.

IF EVERY MEMBER OF THE PARISH WILL CO-OPERATE IN OUR CENT-A-DAY CAMPAIGN WE WILL HAVE AN ANNUAL INCOME OF OVER $3000 A YEAR.

If you want to CO-OPERATE with us in this business, put seven cents every week in the 85 Club pocket of your Church envelope. If you do not have Church envelopes then put seven cents IN ANY KIND OF AN ENVELOPE, MARK ON IT CENT-A-DAY PLEDGE FROM MR. OR MRS. — —.

YOUR CO-OPERATION IN THIS MATTER WILL BE MOST HELPFUL.

The Memorial Tablet

Again we need your CO-OPERATION in getting names for the MEMORIAL TABLET. You know many friends who have buried a member of the family who no doubt would be glad to have the name of the deceased inscribed upon our Tablet, did they know anything about it. A few words from you explaining the idea would be sufficient to induce them to make application for space on the Tablet. How about CO-OPERATING with us by helping us get two hundred more names on the Tablet?

Call their attention to the time payment plan of paying the subscription. Many persons will be glad to avail themselves of it. Point out to them that a Parish House is much more practical and useful than a tombstone and that it will bring much more joy in the lives of the living.

Our Current Expenses

We need your CO-OPERATION in raising money to meet our current expenses. We must pay our organist, our sexton, our coal bills, our light bills, our repairs, our printing, our stationery, our Bibles, our Prayer Books, our Hymnals, our choir materials, our insurance, our organ repairs, etc., etc., etc., and we must CO-OPERATE and give what we can afford towards them. I'm sure not one of us would expect our neighbors to pay OUR DEBTS; neither would we pay our NEIGHBOR'S DEBTS. Well, we have no more right to expect others to pay our share of our Church debts. Now, have we?

If we will just CO-OPERATE with each other and EACH OF US PAY OUR JUST SHARE OF OUR BILLS, the Church will always be out of debt. We have not had very close CO-OPERATION in the past in our finances and it has made the burden very heavy for us who have paid our own and the share of many other members who would not CO-OPERATE with us.

Our Parish Organizations

Where we show a grave need of CO-OPERATION is in our Parish Organizations. The most deadly thing in any Church or social institution is a "clique." If you do not know what a "clique" is, I'll tell you. It is an organization of men or women or young folks who get together in a little group all by themselves and then freeze out anybody and everybody who would like to join their group and work with them. CO-OPERATION with everybody in the whole Parish is the only remedy for this unwholesome social condition. Every member of every Parish organizatjon ought to be too big-hearted and too broad-minded to ever allow himself to exclude others from his companionship, especially in the Church of Jesus Christ. It has made me feel very sad indeed to see how sometimes some persons are snubbed and humiliated when they showed a desire to be friendly and work with a group in the Church. I am sorry to say that some who tried to be friendly and CO-OPERATIVE have stopped coming to Church because they were made to feel that there was no place in the parochial scheme for them. May it please God that there will be no "cliques" in Paradise, lest we might find ourselves cold shouldered out of Heaven.

Our Poor and Sick

Where your Rector needs special CO-OPERATION is in the visitation of the poor and the sick. The Parish is too big for him to manage as he should. There are nearly 900 souls who claim allegiance to St. John's Church. Your Rector must give his time to the City Mission every day in the week. The only time he has to visit is Sunday afternoons after Sunday School and before Fellowship service. In order to do this he must go without his supper every Sunday night. If the young folks, for instance, would group themselves into so many visiting committees and call on families by districts, it would be a wonderful act of CO-OPERATING with the Rector and would increase our Church attendance 50 per cent. How about trying it out and help the Rector make good on the big job he has on his hands? Think of the number of members we could restore to the Church! Think of the great Communions we would have! Think of the size of our Sunday School! Think of the aroused spiritual tone of the whole Parish if we would but CO-OPERATE with the Rector and help him in this greatest of all pastoral work—Visitation.

Those Who Do Not Co-operate

Those who do not CO-OPERATE are anti-social and narrow. They are like an ingrowing toe nail. Instead of being an aid, they turn in upon themselves and eventually hurt each other. Every "clique" sooner or later comes to a sad end. The group that does not expand and absorb new members all the time is bound to shrink within itself, dry up and die. Only in CO-OPERATION can there be life and growth.

Let Us, Therefore, Co-operate

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

A play entitled "THE ODD JOB MAN" will be given by the YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP of Calvary Church, Germantown, SATURDAY, JUNE 7, at the CHURCH OF ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST.

The FELLOWSHIP has volunteered this play to help us with our Parish Building Fund. We owe the Fellowship a big debt of thanks already for their splendid aid in previous years. TICKETS ARE ON SALE NOW. PRICE 25 CENTS. ICE CREAM WILL BE SOLD AT 10 CENTS A PLATE. STRAWBERRIES WILL BE SOLD WITH THE ICE CREAM FOR 5 CENTS EXTRA.

* * *

Our Sunday School Lenten Offering is now $1461.18. We are only $138.32 behind last year. This year's offering is really a greater demonstration of the self-sacrificial spirit of the Parish than last year's, because so many parishioners have been jobless so long.

ACTING UPON BISHOP GARLAND'S SUGGESTION, WE ARE TURNING OVER $1000 TO THE MISSIONARY WORK OF THE CHURCH AND DEPOSITING THE $461.18 IN THE PARISH HOUSE BUILDING FUND.

* * *

St. John's Church puts on it Summer Schedule of services Sunday, June 22:

Summer Bible School, 10 to 10.55 A. M.

Morning Service, 11 to 12 noon.

Evening Service of Singing and Pictures, 8 to 8.45 o'clock.

Everybody is most welcome to attend.

* * *

Want to get a new Prayer Book? Send in the names and addresses of 10 families who do not go to church. Address Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, 225 South Third street.

* * *

BOYS AND GIRLS OF THE CONFIRMATION CLASS: want to get a Prayer Book? Attend Friday afternoon instructions at 4 o'clock and you will get one when you are Confirmed.

* * *

EVERYBODY IN THE PARISH: want to earn a handsome limp leather back Bible with references, maps, concordance, etc? Get 10 candidates for our Confirmation Class and the Bible is yours.

* * *

Everybody arranging for the Baptism of any unbaptized person in the Parish will receive honorable mention in each issue of the "Broadcaster."

* * *

Please subscribe $1 for the "Broadcaster" and help us pay the postage in mailing it to you.

* * *

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS.

Remember the Confirmation.

Remember the Anniversary.

Remember the Rector's Reception.

Remember Bishop Taitt Is Coming.

Remember the Dates, June 15 and 17.

Our Christening Offer

We are appalled at the carelessness and indifference of the parents of the children in the Parish in the matter of attending to the all-important business of having their children Christened. This matter ought to have the parents' earliest attention, at the latest two weeks after the birth of the child. The Parish is full of unbaptized boys and girls. We must do something about it. WE ARE GOING TO DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT. We are going to ask our parishioners to get on the job at once and stay on the job. Get next to the parents of every unbaptized child you know and urge them to bring the child at once to the Church. EVERYBODY SUCCEEDING IN PERSUADING SUCH PARENTS WILL RECEIVE HONORABLE MENTION IN THE "BROADCASTER" SETTING FORTH HOW MANY CHRISTENINGS THEY ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR AND AT THE END OF THE YEAR THE PERSON WHO HAS BROUGHT THE MOST CHILDREN TO BAPTISM WILL BE SUITABLY REWARDED.

St. John's Summer Schedule

Beginning Sunday, June 22, St. John's Parish will go on its summer schedule of services. They will be as follows:

Summer Bible School .10.00 A. M. to 10.50 A. M.
Morning Service .....11.00 A. M. to 12.00 M.
Evening Service ..... 8.00 P. M. to 8.45 P. M.
Celebration of the Holy Communion every first Sunday in the month.
Weddings, Christenings, Sick Calls, Burial Services, by appointment.

The Summer Bible School will resume the study of the Missionary Journeys of Jesus Christ. The course formed the basis of a most interesting study last summer. We were able to cover only one-half of the subject, however, before we went back to our fall and winter schedule. This summer we hope to finish this phase of our Lord's life, and later we hope to study Jesus Christ as a Teller of Stories. We are sure it will be most interesting. May we urge the young folks to attend the Bible School sessions if they are in town. THE CHURCH IS THE COOLEST PLACE IN SOUTH PHILADELPHIA, and as long as you are in the city you might as well make yourself comfortable. There is always a lot of singing and the services are short and snappy. If you get thirsty there is always ice water on tap.

Then those summer evening services! What a beautiful way to close the day. Of course it will be too hot to preach a sermon, so we will show pictures instead.

How to Help Your Parish Grow

Here is an easy and a profitable plan to help you make your parish grow. There are hundreds of men, women and children living in the Parish who are not connected with any Church. We feel that scores of them can be reached and brought into the Church if we go about it in the right way.

Here is our proposition to you:

We will give every member of St. John's Church a new edition of the BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER for their very own for the names and addresses of 10 families who go nowhere to church and who live in the Parish.

As we do not wish our JEWISH friends to think we are trying to proselyte any of their faith, we will ask you to give names and addresses of GENTILE families only.

UNDERSTAND, YOU DO NOTHING TO EARN THE PRAYER BOOK EXCEPT TO SEND US THE NAMES AND ADDRESSES OF TEN GENTILE FAMILIES WHO ATTEND NO OTHER CHRURCH. You do not have to mention the fact to them. Your sole responsibility is to give us their names and addresses. WE WILL DO THE REST.

St. John's Sunday School Picnic

Sunday, May 11, we had lots of fun choosing a place for our Sunday School picnic this summer. We gave everybody in the Sunday School a slip of paper and asked them to show their preference by ballot. When the vote was counted it showed there was an overwhelming number of votes for Lenape Park. After the school session the teachers and officers met to choose the day and get a committee to look up the rates. The Sunday School Teachers' Association chose Saturday, July 12, and appointed a committee to look up the rates. The committee got busy and this is what happened. They found that no trains ran to Lenape Park. Next, Merz would rent busses at the following rates: One bus for 25 passengers, $30; one bus for 30 passengers, $35; one bus for 35 passengers, $40. The P. R. T. would provide busses holding 33 passengers for $44. This would make the trip cost over $1 per capita.

The Committee thought the price was too high. Then someone suggested that we investigate the trip and the prices to Riverview Beach. We did so and learned the boats are big and beautiful. It costs only fifty cents round trip for adults, twenty-five cents for children from 5 to 12 years, and free for those under 5. These prices just about suit our purse, and the Committee, feeling that it was justified to go ahead under the circumstances, arranged with the steamboat company for an excursion to RIVERVIEW BEACH WEDNESDAY, JULY 9. BOATS LEAVE CHESTNUT STREET WHARF 8.30 AND 10.00 A. M. AND LEAVE RIVERVIEW BEACH 4.00 AND 5.00 P. M.

ALL ABOARD!

BRICKS

Now we are ready to talk BRICKS for our PARISH HOUSE. Mr. Gill told Mr. McHenry it would take One Hundred and Twelve Thousand (112,000) BRICKS to build.

The mortgage on the PARISH HOUSE will be $12,000. IF WE SELL OUR BRICKS FOR TEN CENTS EACH we will have enough money to pay the mortgage.

Mr. McHenry asked Mr. Gill how many bricks a hod carrier carried in a hod. Mr. Gill said he thought he could carry TWENTY-FOUR bricks.

Now here is our suggestion: First of all, let's say that a hod holds only TWENTY BRICKS. Then we can sell 'em to our friends on this basis:

Cost of one brick—ten cents.

Cost of one-half hod (10) $1.00.

Cost of one hod (20) $2.00.

Anybody can pay for one brick. Most everybody can buy a half a hod. And lots of people can purchase a whole hod.

We will soon be ready to go into the brick business and we want about 100 salesmen and saleswomen full of "Pep" to help us.

Don't go to members of St. John's Church only. GO FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE in your street and ask the neighbors to pay for a brick. Hundreds of negihbors will do it and like you for asking them. Our Parish House is going to greatly improve the looks of our section, so of course the neighbors will want to feel that each has at least one brick in the building.

BUY BRICKS YOURSELF AND SELL BRICKS TO OTHERS.

CHURCH VOCABULARY

As noted in our last number, the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Philadelphia, has published what we think is one of the most helpful pamphlets ever issued to Churchmen, under the title of CHURCH VOCABULARY. It is so important that we have determined to print a portion of its contents in every issue of the BROADCASTER until we have published the whole of it. This number contains the second instalment. We advise the BROADCASTER READERS to save each issue to keep ever handy. This list is especially valuable to the members of the Altar Guild.

LITURGICAL COLORS

These are known as "Liturgical" or "Ecclesiastical Colors." They are:

WHITE: Signifying purity and joy, is used for the Great Feasts, Saints' Days—of those saints who were not martyrs—and on Festival occasions, such as Confirmation, Weddings, etc., and at some Funerals.

RED: The emblem of blood and fire, is used on the Feasts of Martyr and at Whitsuntide.

VIOLET: The emblem of penitence, is used in Advent, in the seasons from Septuagesima to Lent, in Lent and also on Rogation Days—and at most Funerals.

BLACK: Signifying mourning, is used on Good Friday and also sometimes at Funerals. (Only the Black Stole and a plain dark purple Dossall are used on Good Friday, no Hangings).

GREEN: Used on all other days.

THE HANGINGS

THE DOSSALL: The curtain which hangs behind the Altar.

THE ALTAR CLOTH. An ornamental cloth covering the front of the Altar. It is composed of a Frontal and Super-Frontal.

THE FRONTAL: This is embroidered and has fringe along the bottom and is put on a frame.

THE SUPER-FRONTAL. This covers the Altar and hangs down in front over the Frontal. The part covering the Altar is made of linen. The Super-Frontal may be used (if made separate from the Frontal) alone.

ACCESSORIES

THE SERVICE BOOK, on the Altar.
THE SERVICE BOOK MARKERS, of ribbon.
THE LECTERN BOOK MARKERS, in colors.
THE PULPIT FALL, from the pulpit desk.
THE BURIAL PALL, used at funerals.

THE LINENS

THE FAIR LINEN: A white cloth covering the top of the Altar and hanging down at the ends. It is embroidered with five crosses symbolic of our Lord's five wounds. (The Fair Linen is supposed to represent the cloth which was wound about our Lord's body at His burial).

THE CHALICE VEIL: This is of linen, square, embroidered and used to cover the vessels when not in use. (It is supposed to represent the cloth wrapped about our Lord's head at His burial).

THE PALL: A small square of fine linen cambric, embroidered and with lace, used to cover the Chalice during Celebration.

THE CORPORAL: A square of linen (embroidered with one cross in front) spread on top of the Fair Linen at the Celebration that the vessels may be placed upon it.

THE PURIFICATOR: A small napkin used at the time of the Celebration for cleaning the vessels.

THE CREDENCE CLOTH: A cloth used to cover the Credence.

THE CERE CLOTH: This is the first cloth which covers the Altar.

THE MUNDATORY, or Towel: This is made of linen (bird's-eye) and has a cross at one end. It is used after the Celebration for cleansing the Chalice.

THE PROTECTOR: A green linen or denim cloth, the length and width of the top of the Altar (embroidered with five crosses). This lies over the Fair Linen Cloth. As the Altars in Church are continually kept vested, this is used to protect the Fair Linen and is kept on for all services when there is no Celebration.

THE COMMUNION SILVER

THE CHALICE which is the cup.
THE PATEN, which holds the bread.
THE FLAGON, which holds the wine.
THE PERFORATED SPOON, to recover crumbs of bread.
THE ALMS BASON, to contain the offering.

(Continued in next issue)

Broadcasting from Laughland

* * *

"Where did you get that beautiful umbrella?"

"It's a gift from my sister."

"A gift from sister? But you have no sister."

"Neither I have, but that's what is engraved upon the handle."—Anon.

If the Eighteenth Amendment is repealed and selling intoxicants is legalized will the young people and college boys and girls stop drinking?

Judge: "It seems to me I have seen your face before."

Prisoner: "You have, your Honor. I gave your daughter singing lessons."

Judge: "Thirty years."

A man with all the earmarks of a laborer was smoking thoughtfully and watching a large building in process of construction. Being short-handed, a foreman approached and asked:

"Hey, you want a job?"

"Yes," was the reply, "but I can only work in the morning."

"Aw, shucks! Why can't you work all day?"

"Well," the man explained, "every afternoon I got to carry a banner in the unemployed parade."

Mark Twain was talking to some friends when the conversation finally touched on the authorship of the Shakesperian plays.

"When I get to heaven," said the great humorist, "I am going to ask Will Shakespeare whether he really wrote these plays."

"But," said one of the party, "Shakespeare will not be in heaven."

After a moment of contemplation Mark said: "That's so. You ask him."

Freshman: "Got my golf sock on today."
Soph: "How's that?"
Freshman: "Eighteen holes."

Sir Walter Scott was not a very bright boy. After he became famous he one day visited his old school. The teacher put the pupils through their paces. After a while Scott said:

"But, which is the dunce? You have one, surely? Show him to me."

The teacher called up a poor fellow, who looked the picture of woe as he bashfully came towards the distinguished visitor.

"Are you the dunce?" asked Scott.

"Yes, sir," said the boy.

"Well, my good fellow," said Sir Walter, here is a crown for you, for keeping my place warm."

He: "Then it is settled, we are to elope tonight?"
She: "Yes, darling."
He: "Are you sure you can get your trunk packed in time?"
She: "Oh, yes! Papa and mamma have both promised to help me."

PRETTY TOUGH!

"My razor doesn't cut at all."

"Why, Henry, you don't mean to tell me that your beard is tougher than the linoleum!"

A CLOSE SHAVE

Here's an old one that used to tickle the A. E. F.:

The sergeant rebuked the private angrily: "Jenkins, why haven't you shaved this morning?"

"Why, ain't I shaved?" the private exclaimed, apparently greatly surprised.

"No, you ain't," the sergeant snapped. "And I want to know the reason why."

"Well, now, I guess it must be this way," Jenkins suggested. "There was a dozen of us usin' the same bit of lookin' glass, an' I swan I must have shaved somebody else."

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

"Say It With Flowers"

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell, Jackson 6347 Hot Buns, 5 P. M.

Andrew A. Friesdorf

Fancy Cakes and Ice Cream
Wedding Cakes a Specialty

2240 So. Third Street
No Connection With Any Other Store

BLURRED VISION

"Do you mean to say you washed your face, Tommy?" demanded that youngster's mother.

"Yes'm," replied Tommy.

"Nonsense! It's just as dirty as ever."

"Mebbe the dirt's on your glasses, mom. Wipe 'em off."

A THOUGHTFUL YOUNGSTER

Mother: "Bobby, when you were eating nuts in the street car, I hope you didn't throw the shells on the floor."

Bobby: "No, mother, I put them in the pocket of the man who sat beside me."

SPEARMINT IS AN ASSET

The cool and fragrant mint that grows so luxuriantly and abundantly along many streams is a real boon to the housewife. While its natural habitat is near the water, it does very well in almost any location, and every garden should have a bed of it. It will appreciate the coolest, dampest corner where so many things refuse to grow. The city dweller may grow a fine clump under the faucet at the side or back of the house. A few sprigs from the market if placed in a glass of water will root in a few days. Transfer to the garden when well rooted and keep moist until well established.

Innumerable are the ways in which mint may be used. A little sprig boiled with new peas gives a pleasing flavor. Chopped fine and sprinkled over veal salad it imparts a piquant flavor, as well as a garnish. Try a few chopped leaves in the deviled eggs, or deviled ham sandwiches. When making fruit salads or cocktails, add a little chopped mint just before serving. It may be used the same way with grapefruit or orange. A green and gold luncheon dessert may be made by peeling oranges and cutting them into small bits. Sprinkle with powdered sugar and chopped mint leaves. Or you may add a grapefruit or pineapple juice and use as a cocktail.

A little sprig or a few leaves (bruised) added to a glass of iced tea, lemonade, or almost any cool fruit drink seems to enhance the coolness and flavor, and it plays the "leading part" in many delectable drinks.

Mint vinegar adds a delightful flavor to salad dressings and fish sauces. To make it chop enough mint leaves to fill loosely a quart glass jar and cover with cold vinegar. Let stand two weeks then strain off and bottle. The shredded leaves may be used in salads.

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER
230-232 Queen Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452
Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

If You Want—
Delicious Mince Pies
Use
ATMORE'S EXTRA FANCY
MINCE MEAT
Or, You May Prefer
Atmore's Plum Pudding
Ask Your Grocer for Both
ATMORE & SON, Inc.
110-124 Tasker St. Founded 1842

The Merchants whose advertisements are found here are leaders in their line of business. They want your trade and solicit your patronage through your own paper. Patronize them, they are worthy of your co-operation.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 4, No. 7 PHILADELPHIA, JULY, 1930 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt
Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Frances Hudak
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Margaret Rutter

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Miss Martha W. Schmidt, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Miss Marion Bruch
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. William Capie
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

Men's Club

President, George Cressee, Sr.
Vice-President, Charles Little.
Secretary, George Downes, Jr.
Treasurer, John Weber.

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Brodie, Lawrence Joseph
Burke, Richard Edward
Conover, Martha Washington
Dunne, Robert Emmett
Dunne, George Ogden Lummis
Dysert, Sarah Jane
Hoopes, Edward
Hoopes, William
Krider, Florence Reba
Logue, Charles Edward
Olsen, Oliver Joseph

BURIALS

Cucknell, James W.
Davis, Elmer J.
Morozzi, Angelo A.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

	A. M.	P. M.
Sunday
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

Our Summer Schedule

During the Vacation Season, Services Will Be Short

We have already instituted our Summer Schedule of Services. They are as follows: SUMMER BIBLE SCHOOL, 10.00 A. M.; MORNING PRAYER AND SERMON, 11.00 A. M.; EVENING SERVICE, 8.00 P. M.

The change of services is accompanied with a complete change in our program of work. The Summer Bible School will be under the personal charge of the Rector. He will continue last Summer's study of the Missionary journeys of Jesus Christ, using the Bible, the map, the blackboard and other materials necessary to an intelligent understanding of our subject. Every Sunday we will have a story period for the benefit of the younger scholars and the program will be interspersed with lots of singing of old familiar hymns.

THIS SUMMER WE ARE OFFERING A PRIZE OF A BEAUTIFUL NEW RED BACK PRAYER BOOK TO ALL THOSE WHO ATTEND SUMMER BIBLE SCHOOL NINE OUT OF THE THIRTEEN SESSIONS.

This gives everybody a wide margin of four Sundays for vacation. To those who received a Prayer Book at Confirmation another will be given—perhaps a new Church Hymnal.

Please understand the Summer Bible School is NOT for Sunday School scholars only. It is for every member of the parish—from the baby in the cradle to the old ones in their second childhood. Be sure you come and learn for yourself how delightfully cool it is in the church at that hour in the morning.

As to the Morning Service: We will eliminate the Venite, the Te Deum, etc., and use hymns instead. We will use short selections of Psalms for the Psalter and eliminate the Old Testament Lesson and the Ante-Communion Service. The Sermon will be reduced to fifteen minutes in length. With these changes the entire service will be over within the space of an hour. Our theory is, we would rather have a short service which is interesting and beneficial than a long service that is both tiring and trying.

In the evening we will have a very simple service of hymn singing, prayers and an illustrated talk on Bible incidents. Last Summer these Sunday evening services were very popular. We hope to make them more so this Summer.

Trinity Sunday and Our Anniversary

What a contrast there is between this Trinity Sunday and that Trinity Sunday of 1912! That was the day our Rector held his first service in St. John's Church. The romantic story of its miraculous growth is too well known to need repetition here. We feel, however, that we ought to give a brief account of our stewardship in order to show that our years of service have not been wasted. The following facts are gleaned from our Parish records and we can vouch for their integrity. Since taking over the work, the Parish shows the following development:

Families added to the Church	450
Individuals involved	1,800
Baptisms	960
Confirmations	1,402
Weddings	222
Burials	490

Our present membership, eliminating removals by death, by transfer and by removal, is about 830.

We were so weak during the first few years of our struggle from the brink of the grave and oblivion that only the appropriations from the Convocation saved us. However, we eventually developed such strength that at last we were able not only to support ourselves, but also to contribute our share to the Missionary needs of the Church. Our contributions through the Sunday School Lenten Offering, including 1930, amount to $10,677.57, which we are egotistical enough to feel is pretty good for such a little folk. Especially when one considers that in the meantime we have paid all the bad debts we inherited and have paid all our bills as they fell due. Today we are abreast of our current expenses, but before the close of the year we will be face to face with a mortgage of about $11,000, $3,000 of which we have in hand or will have in hand by that time.

Our study of the data of other parishes, especially those that are BLESSED WITH ENDOWMENTS and whose members have more of the world's goods than we have, convinces us that our record is at least fair and encourages us to press on to higher heights.

It is the favorite indoor sport of a few outside our Parish to charge, BY MEANS OF A WHISPERING CAMPAIGN, that our success is due entirely to generous and questionable raids upon the resources of the City Mission. We have branded the statement over and over again as false and made by persons irresponsible who do not know the truth. But who has ever been able to lay a false rumor? From now on we will save our breath for doing bigger things, while they are wasting their's telling fibs.

But, come to think of it, suppose we had drawn ever so heavily on the City Mission for aid, either financially or materially, just where would be the moral delinquency of that act? As a matter of fact, every parish, EVEN THE RICH AND THE ENDOWED, are urged by the Church to use the City Mission to their utmost, and the officers of the City Mission have never failed to respond to every demand from every parish in the Diocese and also many outside it. Even our critics have had both fists in the City Mission honey pot many, many times, and nobody even said boo! The officers liked to see 'em help themselves and make themselves at home.

St. John's Parish has the distinction of being the poor man's Church. WE HAVE MORE UNEMPLOYMENT THAN ANY OTHER PARISH. WE HAVE NO ENDOWMENT. NOT ONE MEMBER CAN PROPERLY BE CONSIDERED OUT OF THE WAGE CLASS AND IN THE SALARY CLASS. Yet by the CO-OPERATIVE EFFORTS of our membership, we have accomplished almost as much PER CAPITA for ourselves and for Missions AS HAVE THE ENDOWED PARISHES that surround us. This is not a boast; it is a simple statement of fact which no whispering campaign can put to rout.

We would also add that no real St. Johnite is given to criticizing or boasting. Many of our members show a cordial spirit of co-operation with other parishes and do much to help the spirit of fraternity to our neighbors. How much better for the growth of the Church if all parishes would forget the spirit of criticism and jealousy and would work for a better spirit of Christian understanding and endeavor in love to conquer Southwark for God.

Why not make the next step in our development a real unity of God's people of all creeds in order that we may present a solid and an aggressive front to the forces of Evil about us. Whoever wishes to criticize, let him criticize; as for us, let us ever keep the Christian ideals before us and press on to a moral and spiritual victory in the name of Jesus Christ.

Our Rose Festival

It Was Beautiful and Served a Practical Purpose

Our ROSE FESTIVAL on Anniversary Sunday was interesting in many ways. After the singing of the first hymn the devotional service was taken over by the young folks. One led off with the Creed, another with the Lord's Prayer, another with the Collect for the day, etc., etc. It was most impressive, from many unexpected parts of the Church would come the voice of a boy or a girl in prayer. The children of the Intermediate Department of the Sunday School rendered a Rose Song which, of course, was very appropriate. In place of a Bible lesson we took "WISDOM" as a subject for our discussion. First, a member of the congregation stood up and asked a question. For instance, "What is Wisdom?" Another member stood up with a Bible in his hand and read a passage from it telling us what "WISDOM" is. Thus we went through a series of questions and answers of the subject for about 15 minutes. It was most interesting. This was followed by a hymn. Then came the really beautiful part of the program. Everybody had come with at least one rose. At this point they were instructed to hold their roses high at a given signal. Suddenly the Church looked like an immense Rose Garden. There were roses and roses and more roses. The sight was beautiful. Then each class brought its offering of roses to the chancel as their gift to the shut-ins of the Parish. At the close of the FESTIVAL the girls made up the roses into bouquets and they were delivered to the shut-in candidates for Confirmation. And wherever the Bishop went that evening to confirm a shut-in, he saw and admired our Rose Offering.

After the Rose Program, Mr. Wendel Philips gave us a highly interesting and peppy talk on ANCIENT AND MODERN EGYPT. It was not half so serious as the title would indicate. As a matter of fact, it was not serious at all. He just kept all of us on our toes telling us one interesting story after another. Why he even got the preacher so stirred up that he wanted to start a matrimonial bureau in Heaven among the Arabians. And the kids! They simply would not let him go. They waylaid him after the FESTIVAL and drove him in a corner and made him tell them more. At times the riot was so boisterous that the Rector, who is a very quiet elderly man and always does everything decently and in order, was inexpressibly shocked. Oh, my, yes!

One thing that made Mr. Phillips so interesting was that he was telling things first hand. He had lived in Cairo, Egypt, some years after graduating from an American college and had gone to Egypt to take a position as instructor in languages and athletics in a college located there. And—oh, yes, we almost forgot to mention it. Wendel Philips has promised that he will come again some time and tell us more. So play Injun and keep your ear to the ground.

Say Fellas! How about the way Egyptians play baseball!

Scripture Cake

Three and one-half cups I. Kings, 4:22.
One-half cup Judges, 5:25 (last clause).
Two cups Jeremiah, 6:20.
Two cups I. Samuel, 30:12.
Two cups Nahum, 3:12.
Two cups Numbers, 17:8.
One-half cup Judges, 4:19 (last clause).
Two tablespoonfuls of I. Samuel, 14:25.
Three tablespoonsfuls of Amos, 4:5.
Season to taste with II. Chronicles, 9:9.
A pinch of Leviticus, 2:13.
Six of Jeremiah, 17:11.

A Dozen "DON'TS"

Summer "Dont's" Most Vacationists Don't Keep

1. Don't spend money on fun that ought to be spent on the family.
2. Don't forget that dissipation is not recreation.
3. Don't strain the laws of modesty beyond the limit, especially in the matter of bathing.
4. Don't take a vacation from Church attendance. Go at least once a Sunday wherever you are.
5. Don't ignore your Holy Communion.
6. Don't leave your Bible and Prayer Book at home.
7. Don't be ashamed to "Stand Up for Jesus" at all times.
8. Don't forget that even a cynical world secretly admires a sincere Christian.
9. Don't miss an opportunity to do good to others.
10. Don't make a raid on your Church obligations to help pay your vacation expenses.
11. Don't forget to pray without ceasing. A playing Christian needs to be a praying Christian, lest he fall into temptation.
12. Don't do or say anything among strangers you would be ashamed to do in the family circle.

Bishop Taitt's Itinerary

You may always depend upon St. John's Parish to introduce an innovation. On Confirmation night the unusual, as usual, happened. On checking up our candidates for Confirmation we found there were six shut-ins on the list who wished to be confirmed in our 1930 class. Of course, they could not come to the church, therefore other arrangements had to be made. In our perplexity we consulted Bishop Taitt, who, with his usual calm way of meeting an emergency, directed us to meet him at the home of one of the shut-ins at 6.30 P. M., and after having Confirmation Service there we would proceed to the home of each of the others in turn. We did as he planned and met him first at the home of our dear old friend, John Dysert, at 1106 Tree street, to confirm Mrs. Dysert. We left there for the home of Mrs. Jones, 115 Mifflin street; from there we went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Strang, 1810 South Front street. From there we went to the home of Mrs. Helen Welsh, 218 Greenwich street, and from there we went to the home of Mr. William Boyd, at 1217 East Moyamensing avenue. In each home we were met by a group of St. Johnites. Each group was different from the others. They had preceded Bishop Taitt and the Rector and had taken flowers with them. When the Bishop's and the Rector's cars arrived each group had everything in readiness for the service and they themselves participated therein. Bishop Taitt had the full Confirmation Service in every home. It was a new experience for all of us, but it was an experience we will always remember with real pleasure. Bishop Taitt is certainly at his best at the bedside. His ministry was most impressive, at times very tense. We were all the better for Bishop Taitt's itinerary through St. John's Parish. The five Confirmation Services were held in less than one hour and nothing was hurried in the least. At 10 minutes before the hour we had arrived at St. John's Church for the main Confirmation Service.

But that is another story.

FOOD FOR TALK

By EDGAR A. GUEST

Nobody noticed Bill Brown's lawn.
Nobody said: "Have you stopped to see
That Bill has planted a maple tree
On the spot where the ash can used to be?'

Nobody thought to pass along
The word that Bill could be found at night
Trimming his lawn in the fading light,
And putting the rubbish out of sight.

It seems that people who passed that way
Weren't stirred to talking about Bill Brown,
Who kept the weeds in his garden down;
He wasn't news for his little town.

His yard was neat and his lawn was trim,
And the rubbish pile wasn't plain to see,
And Bill had planted a maple tree
On the spot where the ash can used to be

But one night Bill didn't trim his lawn
And left the rubbish where men could see.
And somebody said: "Bill's on a spree;
Or has left his wife and his family."

There's little or nothing to this tale;
Save this: scarce noticed is man, if he
Is keeping his ground as it ought to be,
But his rubbish pile we are quick to see.

Copyright, 1930, by Edgar A. Guest.

"Honor to Whom Honor Is Due"

It gives us real pleasure to publish this list of teachers and scholars of our Sunday School for their perfect attendance record for the Sunday School year of 1929-30. The stars indicate those who are Sunday School teachers and show that we are especially fortunate in having a teaching staff so faithful to their duties.

Had we made allowance for sickness or absence due to unavoidable circumstances, our ROLL OF HONOR would have been much longer. As it is, we have eliminated the names of many a deserving and faithful teacher and scholar.

Incidentally we would add that our Sunday School year was most successful. We have an enrollment of 370 officers, teachers and scholars. Our high record of attendance was 286 three weeks AFTER Christmas. Our low record was 149 the Sunday before we disbanded for the summer and organized our Summer Bible School.

We have an idea this record will stand up in favorable comparison with any downtown Sunday School of any denomination.

HOW COULD IT BE OTHERWISE WITH SUCH A SPLENDID AND LOYAL STAFF OF OFFICERS AND TEACHERS?

CLASS

1. John McHenry
   Frank Knowlton
2. Miss Hannah Nuttall*
   Mrs. Bella Shields
5. Martha Lafferty
6. Helen Ashman*
   Dorothy Quaile
   Beatrice Woerner
7. Ethel Stenger*
   Florence Armstrong
8. Maria Colvey*
9. Adelia Pearo*
   Catharine Lawrence
   Margaret Spratt

CLASS

11. John Preole*
    Robert Drumm
14. Dorothy Stenger*
    Thomas Spratt
    Charles Clendenning
    William Clendenning
15. Miss Sarah Watts*
    William Winters
16. Mrs. H. H. Read*
17. Jennie Clendenning*

*Teachers

The Confirmation of 1930

THE CONFIRMATION SERVICE, held Sunday evening, June 15, 1930, brought to a close the celebration of the NINETEENTH ANNIVERSARY of our official connection with St. John's Parish. It was an amazing service from many angles. First of all, the big church was packed to the doors by the relatives and friends of the candidates. It was the largest congregation that has ever been in the church. Next, and really much more important, was the size and personnel of the Confirmation Class. In it were 11 men, 11 women, 24 girls and 21 boys, making 67 candidates in all. Added to this were the six shut-ins, which brought the total up to 73 candidates.

The evening was excessively hot, but Bishop Taitt was in such a happy and interesting frame of mind that I doubt whether many of us gave much thought to the heat. The size of the class was the most surprising feature of the evening. We were so sure that our 1930 class would be weak in numbers that we called out all the available strength of the parish to do missionary work. The men and women rose to the occasion magnificently. Night and day for months they were cross sectioning and doing duplicate work through the whole parish. Every argument and means of persuasion were used to win the men and women. On the night of the Confirmation the men had requisitioned seven cars, which were kept going between the church and the homes of the candidates so that they would be on time and prepared. The most surprising feature of the evening was the coming forward of two men, well-dressed and mechanics by trade. They had been seriously considering the move of being Confirmed and had evidently fought the fight alone and came to a decision independent of any outside influence. On Confirmation night they presented themselves and asked to have their names added to the class. Did we do it? We did.

Another feature of interest was a man who presented himself for Confirmation whom the Rector had coaxed for years to take the step. He was always friendly to the Rector and the Church, but he would not be persuaded. On Confirmation night, even after the class had been presented, who should come walking up the aisle of the church but our dear old friend. He went forward to the Chancel and was Confirmed.

A very touching little incident occurred on Confirmation night which we think it is well to relate. A lad, about 12 years old, whose shoes and clothing were sadly worn, who had no coat nor necktie, nor hat, whose every appearance denoted poverty, came to the Rector and told him that his mother was so poor and sick that she could not buy clothing for him for Confirmation and would it be wrong for him to be confirmed in his old clothes? Of course, you know the answer. Any boy who is earnest enough and brave enough to step over the conventions and present himself in his old clothes for Confirmation will never be turned away from the Chancel of St. John's Church. Call it sentimentalism or what have you—we believe that of such is the Kingdom of God.

HE IS GONE, AND WE REMAIN

He is gone and we remain
In this world of sin and pain:
In the void which He has left,
On this earth of Him bereft,
We have still His work to do,
We can still His path pursue;
Seek Him both in friend and foe,
In ourselves His image show.

He has gone! unto their goal
World and church must onward roll;
For behind we leave the past;
Forward all our glances cast:
Still His words before us range
Through the ages as they change;
Whereso'er the truth shall lead,
He will give what'er we need.

He is gone! but we once more
Shall behold Him as before,
In the Heaven of heavens the same
As on earth He went and came:
In the many mansions there,
Place for us He will prepare:
In that world, unseen, unknown,
He and we shall yet be one.

—ARTHUR PENRHYN STANLEY.

A Scotch traveling salesman, held up in the Orkney Islands by a bad storm, telegraphed to his firm in Aberdeen: "Marooned here by a storm; wire instruction." The reply came collect: "Start summer vacation as from yesterday."—Anon.

Confirmation Class of 1930

MEN

Bainbridge, Samuel, 2d
Boyd, William
Chinnis, Guy Roderick
Hudson, Edward
Jones, George Carlisle
Logue, Robert
MacFarlan, John
Powell, George
Rassman. Edward
Scarinci, John Arthur
Schmidt, Conrad, Jr.
Smith, Lewis, Sr.
Strang, Edward

WOMEN

Brown, Anna Nicholas
Bedlow, Anna
Crecelius, Ethel May
Dysert, Sarah
Hamilton, Irene Josephine
Hatty, Stella
Jones, Fannie Fassitt
Kurz, Elizabeth Reicther
Ronzelvalle, Marguerite Marie Virginia
Schmidt, Lillian
Scarinci, Dorothy Emma
Strang, Elizabeth
Tittermary, Hazel May
Welsh, Helen
Van Arsdale, Lillian

BOYS

Barnes, Edward B.
Capie, Richard J.
Capie, Frederick
Crecelius, Henry Herbert
Colvey, George Winfield Scott
Crystal, Joseph Robert
Crystal, Harry Frank
Dean, John
Hart, Martin
Jeffers, Arthur Charles
Jeffers, Benjamin
Kurz, John William
Kurz, Joseph Rudolph
Romano, Ralph Vernon
Romano, Thomas William
Rowand, James Thomas
Seher, Thomas Cichel
Schweppenheiser, Charles
Wilson, George Alfred, Jr.
Winters, William
Zigelmann, Christian Elias

GIRLS

Beck, Catharine Elizabeth
Bennett, Hester May
Butler, Anna K.
Butler, Emma Ida
Carney, Marie Agnes
Connelly, Marie Alma
Crecelius, Emma May
Dunbar, Irma Lorraine
Ewell, Thelma Virginia
Grubb, Marie Catharine
Heisler, Jacqueline
MacFarlan, Margaret Elizabeth
Moffett, Florence Edith
Outen, Elizabeth Jennie
Powell, Mary Elizabeth
Topper, Anna Laura
Sink, Charlotte M.
Walker, Ada May
Walker, Margaret Louise
Walker, Mabel Gertrude
Rutter, Margaret
Rutter, Mary
Wilson, Dorothy Mabel
West, Anna Mabel

A Vote of Thanks

George Downes and Frederick Lynch, of the Dennison Paper Co., Place Us Under Obligations Again

Again the Parish takes pleasure in extending to George Downes and Frederick Lynch, of the Dennison Paper Company, their unanimous vote of thanks for the beautiful decorations of our Sunday School platform. We thought their Christmas creation was beautiful. We were sure that their Easter design was more beautiful and now we are quite sure that their anniversary effort is most beautiful. The charming scheme of colors used by them added wonderfully to the pleasure and success of the Rector's Reception. We are sorry that George and Fred were not there to hear how much everybody appreciated the artistic effect of their labors.

George is an old member of St. John's Parish. His family and he worshiped in the old church long before the present rector knew anything about the parish. For many years he has been away from the church. Now, we are happy to say, he has returned to us and is doing many little things to show that he has the same old love for the dear old church.

The Rector Asks For a Purse

He Should Have Known Better and He Didn't Deserve What He Got

Of all the breaches of good manners and modesty our Rector surely succeeded in committing the worst this year. It has been the custom of the Parish to present him with a beautiful and useful gift on the reception night of his anniversary. This year he thought he would anticipate any such move on the part of the Parish and come right out boldly and tell them what he wanted for an anniversary present. Yes, he did! He was just that presumptuous! He got up one day in the choir and said to his people something like this: "Now folks, you know Anniversary Day is coming. Every anniversary you give me a present. In the past years you have given me dandy things, which I liked a lot. But this year I want you to let me choose my present. I WANT YOU TO GIVE ME A PURSE WITH LOTS OF MONEY IN IT." Then to cover up the perfectly apparent wish in the secret recess of his heart he had the grace to add he wanted to give the purse to the Parish House Building Fund. Likely story!

Well, of course, the folks are not so dumb as he imagined they were. They saw what he was after. They didn't say a word, however, but they just went along and collected the money for the purse, and on the night of his reception Vernon Matthews, acting as one of the mouthpieces of the Parish (he was ably aided by several juvenile mouthpieces from the audience), called Mr. McHenry to the front and said in effect: "Here you are, you old schemer. You thought we were too thick to know what you were getting at when you asked for the purse, didn't you? Well, we aren't such dumb bunnies you take us to be. You might have had the modesty to pretend you were not going to get any present at all. If I had such a nerve as you I'd kill it. Here is your old purse. It contains twice as much as what you ought to get—but take it and may you enjoy every cent of it yourself. We don't want you to spend it on our nice new Parish House. We will take care of that ourselves and don't need you to tell us how to pay our debts."

With that he got a lot of girls to come up on the stage and tell the Rector in song and dance what they thought of him and wound up in handing him a purse containing $223 to spend on himself.

Next time that smarty Rector will know his place and will be careful how he insinuates.

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

What an Anniversary Celebration!!!

* * * *

Our Rose Festival was beautiful. The shut-ins of the Parish were made glad with the big bunches of roses they received from it.

* * * *

6 shut-ins confirmed in their homes by Bishop Taitt.
3 candidates from the Mission of the Transfiguration confirmed.
64 candidates from St. John's Parish confirmed.

—

73 candidates confirmed on our nineteenth anniversary.

* * * *

BISHOP FRANCIS M. TAITT made quite an itinerary through St. John's Parish on Trinity Sunday evening. Beginning at 1106 Tree street, he confirmed our dear friend Mrs. Dysert; then at 115 Mifflin street he confirmed Mrs. Jones; then at 1810 South Front street he confirmed Mr. and Mrs. Strang; then at 218 Greenwich street he confirmed Mrs. Helen Welsh; then at 1217 East Moyamensing avenue he confirmed Mr. William Boyd; then he visited old St. John's Church and confirmed 67 more candidates. Outside of these six full confirmation services and a sermon he had nothing to do that night.

* * * *

The Confirmation congregation was the largest ever seen in old St. John's Church.

* * * *

Was Confirmation Night Hot?

* * * *

The greatest piece of missionary work ever done in the parish was put over by the men and women organizations. Out of an almost hopeless condition they built up the second largest class ever presented by us for Confirmation.

* * * *

KEEP AN EYE ON THAT PARISH HOUSE! IT'S GROWING!

* * * *

How about that name for the Memorial Tablet?

* * * *

Are you keeping up your Cent-a-Day?

* * * *

Bricks, 10 cents each; one hod containing 20 bricks, $2. Be sure you buy your hod load for the Parish House.

* * * *

Got a brick "selling" envelope? Get one and get your friends to buy bricks, too.

* * * *

Ladies of the Parish, we thank you politely for that anniversary dinner and supper. Mrs. Pine has not lost her art of arranging appetizing meals.

* * * *

That stunt of requisitioning seven cars to gather up the candidates for Confirmation was a great stunt for the Brotherhood men to put over.

* * * *

The Rector's Reception, Tuesday, June 17, was like old home night.

* * * *

The Parish took the Rector completely off his guard in presenting him with that purse of $223. He had asked for an anniversary gift of money for the new Parish House. The Parish was quick to pick up the idea of a purse, but on the night of the reception they insisted that the Rector must keep it for himself.

* * * *

The Parish presented Mrs. McHenry with a beautiful handbag also. It was their gracious way of showing their appreciation to her for keeping the "boss" in condition to do his stuff.

* * * *

Thanks, Mr. Quinn, for the loan of the palms and the gift of that beautiful bouquet for the Rector and all those beautiful roses for our Rose Festival!

The Progress of the Parish House

By Early Fall We Will Be Occupying It

Up, up, up she goes! Every day she is growing bigger and bigger. In a few more months our dream will be a reality and our Parish House will be built. Now what we want to do so that we can enjoy it thoroughly is to raise the money and reduce the mortgage. As everybody knows, we have several schemes afoot for this purpose. They are as follows:

THE CENT-A-DAY: You get a package of church envelopes and put in a cent-a-day in the 85 Club pocket every week. If you have no church envelopes then you put 7 cents in any kind of an envelope, write your name on it and drop it in the Alms Bason on Sunday.

THE MEMORIAL TABLET: You make known your desire to have the name of one you love who has died placed upon the Memorial Tablet that is to be erected in the new Parish House. It being understood you pay $10 for each name you have recorded there. It is also understood that you can pay this $10 either in cash or in installments.

THE BRICK FUND: We have learned that it will require 112,000 bricks to build the Parish House. If we can sell bricks at 10 cents each we ought to more than make the goal. We have several envelopes for brick money in circulation and hope those who have them will be interested enough to collect all the money they can by this means.

If each of us will scratch our heads over the problem we will raise the money easily. Our mortgage will be about $11,000. We have almost within our grasp the sum of $3000, which means we have only $8000 to raise.

Here is some more good news. In building the Parish House it was necessary to change our heating system so as to heat both the church and the Parish House. We have now installed a system that burns buckwheat coal instead of egg coal, which means a saving of about $150 in our coal bill. That is going to be a big help when the time comes around to pay the interest on our mortgage if we are so foolish as to allow our mortgage to run that long.

Church Vocabulary

As noted in our last number, the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Philadelphia, has published what we think is one of the most helpful pamphlets ever issued to Churchmen, under the title of CHURCH VOCABULARY. It is so important that we have determined to print a portion of its contents in every issue of the BROADCASTER until we have published the whole of it. This number contains the second installment. We advise the BROADCASTER READERS to save each issue to keep ever handy. This list is especially valuable to the members of the Altar Guild.

THE SEASONS

The Christian Year or Church Year

This is designed to commemorate the principal events in the Life of our Lord. It is the finest and most comprehensive of the Church's symbols. It is divided into nine principal seasons, thus:

ADVENT

Turning our thought toward the "Coming" great joy of Christmas. This season includes four Sundays and extends from Advent Sunday, which is the nearest Festival to Festival of St. Andrews (November 30), until Christmas Eve.

CHRISTMAS

Commemorating the Birth of Christ. The Christmas season lasts 12 days, from Christmas Eve to the Eve of the Epiphany.

EPIPHANY

Meaning literally the Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles. The Epiphany season extends from January 6 to Septuagesima Sunday and includes from one to six Sundays, according to the date of Easter.

Septuagesima, Sexagesima, Quinquagesima

The three Sundays in reverse order next before Lent.

LENT

The season of penitence, commemorating our Lord's fast for 40 days, His Passion, Death and Burial. The period extends from Ash Wednesday to Easter Even and includes six Sundays.

EASTER

Commemorative of Christ's joyful Resurrection. The Easter season continues from Easter until Ascension Day.

ASCENSIONTIDE

Commemorating the going up of Christ into Heaven. This season extends from Ascension Day (the fortieth day) after Easter.

WHITSUNDAY

Commemorating the outpour of the Holy Ghost. Whitsuntide continues until Trinity—one week.

TRINITY

The season extending from Trinity Sunday through the Summer on to Advent again is a period of from 22 to 27 weeks, according to the date of Easter.

BRICK SUNDAY

What It is. What We Do. How We Do It

We stay awake nights thinking of different ways to raise money to pay for our new Parish House. On one of these wakeful nights we determined we would try the old scheme of selling bricks for the purpose. We learned from our architect that 112,000 bricks would be used in erecting the building. If we can sell them at 10 cents a brick we will be absolutely out of debt. In order to further this idea we bought 500 "Brick Seller" envelopes, which hold $5 each when filled. We are distributing these among our folks with the request that they go through the parish and places where they work and ask their friends and neighbors to drop in at least a dime to pay for a brick. Also, we sell bricks by the hod load. There are 20 bricks in a hod. Whoever gives $2 will be credited with buying a hod of bricks.

SUNDAY, JULY 27, WILL BE BRICK SUNDAY; ALSO SUNDAY, AUGUST 31. On these two Sundays those who have BRICK SELLERS will please bring them to any service on those Sundays and drop them in the Alms Bason. BRING THEM EVEN IF THEY ARE NOT FULL. You are also requested to bring a dime, the price of one brick, for the offering on those Sundays. All the offerings for the two Sundays will be given to the BRICK FUND.

Now get your BRICK SELLER and DO YOUR STUFF.

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother

(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

The Merchants whose advertisements are found here are leaders in their line of business. They want your trade and solicit your patronage through your own paper. Patronize them, they are worthy of your co-operation.

FOOLISH QUESTIONS

At a Southern railway station it is the custom of darkies to sell chicken patties and other delicacies to travelers. A traveler who was enjoying a pattie leaned out the window and asked of the dusky salesman:

"Where do you get your chickens?"

The darky rolled his eyes. "You all f'om de No'th, ain't yo,' sah?" he queried.

"Yes," was the reply. "But why do you ask that?"

" 'Cause, sah! No gen'lman f'om de Souf eber asks a niggah whar he gits his chicken."

Broadcasting from Laughland

EASY!

Teacher—"Johnny, if your father could save $1 a week for four weeks, what would he have?"

Modern child (promptly)—"A radio, an electric refrigerator, a new suit, and a lot more furniture."

* * * *

In Scotland they call the victim of an April Fool joke a cuckoo. In France, the dupe of a practical joke on that day is branded a fish. In America we sometimes practice surprises on All Fool's Day, and sometimes these jokes carry us into the very clouds of ecstasy, and occasionally give us a deep dive into the depths of disappointment. Here is an example while you wait.

Consider the case of Mrs. Day, whose daughter, Theresa, thought to play an "April Fool" joke.

Bursting into the parlor where, on the afternoon of April 1, Mrs. Day was entertaining "society dames," Theresa exclaimed excitedly: "Oh, Mamma! There's a strange man in our kitchen! I peeped through the keyhole—an' he has Mary, our maid, on his knees, an' he's pettin' her an' kissin' her!"

Excusing herself, Mrs. Day started for the kitchen, to put an end to such carryings-on in her chaste household. Whereupon Theresa danced up and down in glee, crying:

"April Fool, Mamma! It's no stranger at all. It's only Papa."

* * * *

APOLOGY PENDING

The ladies of the Helping Hand Society enjoyed a swap social on Friday evening. Everybody brought something they didn't need. Many of the ladies were accompanied by their husbands.—Opelika (Ala.) Star.

* * * *

Reader—"Dear Editor—What's the best way to find out what a woman thinks of you?"

Answer—"Marry her."

* * * *

NO WONDER!

Street Car Conductor—"Madam, this transfer has expired."

Irate Lady—"Well, you can't expect much with the cars so poorly ventilated."—Columbia Jester.

* * * *

"Do you know Sharp?"

"Yes, he's a second-hand automobile salesman."

"But do you know anything about him? Is he honest?"

"Haven't I just told you what he is?"

* * * *

MUSIC VS. FINANCE

"That tenor has a wonderful voice. He can hold one of his notes for half a minute."

"That's nothing. I've held one of his notes for two years."—Cornell Widow.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner

2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

"Say It With Flowers"

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell, Jackson 6347 Hot Buns, 5 P. M.

Andrew A. Friesdorf

Fancy Cakes and Ice Cream

Wedding Cakes a Specialty

2240 So. Third Street

No Connection With Any Other Store

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 4, No. 9 PHILADELPHIA, SEPTEMBER, 1930 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
Joseph Colvey

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt
Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Margaret Rutter

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Miss Martha W. Schmidt, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. William Capie
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary
Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Daughters of the King
Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50
Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League
Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship
Margaret Rutter and John Nelson, Councellors
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

Men's Club
President, George Cressee, Sr.
Vice-President, Charles Little.
Secretary, George Downes, Jr.
Treasurer, John Weber.

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Bedlow, Beatrice
Bedlow, Ethel
Dingler, John Fralinger
Henderson, Marion Caroline
Palmer, Eugene Chester
Powell, Wesley Francis
Powell, John William
Raymond, Joseph Donley
Savin, Louise Desire
Watson, James Barrett

MARRIAGES

Robert J. Hamilton and Lillie May Despeaux
John L. Bergling and Jessie N. Cutchall
Wendell W. Phillips and Marguerite M. Ronzelvalle

BURIALS

Gabel, Henry
Hill, Catharine
James, Albert
Hammell, George
Yarger, Ella
Woodruff, Edmund

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

Summer Time at St. John's

The Parish Is Full of Hot Weather Christians

Yes, this is the hottest summer we have had for many a year. Yet, the dyed-in-the-wool St. Johnite has been right on the job most every Sunday and has paid about as much attention to the heat as he does to a snowflake in the winter. Of course, now and then, here and there, a face or two would fade away for a couple of Sundays while the owners of said faces took 'em to the country or the shore to get a coat o' tan. But sooner or later they would appear in their usual place in the congregation, brown and happy.

Our Bible School

We begin our Sunday with our Bible School at 10 o'clock in the morning. The curriculum of studies, though comprehensive, is easy and interesting. A gentleman visited our School on the second Sunday in July. After the session he told the Rector he did not wonder the School was so successful because it was so interesting. "Why," he remarked, "there is not a second that the students are not doing something worth while in an interesting way."

Our schedule is so arranged that the student is unconsciously absorbing something new or old all the time. First is the CATECHISM DRILL. Each Sunday we cover at least half of the Catechism. There is no attempt to memorize—that is too strenuous for summer days. The entire school have their books open and read the answers. By this method of constant reading the students find it much easier to memorize later on, the words fall into their proper place in the mind of the student. Also, this familiarity with the words of the answer makes it much easier for the instructor to explain the meaning when the Catechism is taken up for a more exhaustive study later in the year.

Our next period is devoted to the reading of the Collect, Epistle and Gospel for the day. This is done by the whole school. First, the Collect is read; and in order to assure us we know what we are praying about in this short prayer, we ask the school two or three leading questions, and after we get intelligent answers we note where the Epistle is found written and proceed to read it. Then we ascertain where the Gospel is found written and we read that, too.

Now comes our Drill in the Books of the Bible. First, we run rapidly through the names of the Books as they appear in the Bible; then we repeat them according to their classification; whether they belong to the Division of Law, History, Major, Minor Prophets in the Old Testament and whether they belong to the History, Pauline or General Epistles of the New Testament. Also we have spelling bees of the names of the Books and memory tests as to the number of chapters in each Book, and Book finding contests, too.

Our next period is spent in the Study of the Life and Missionary Work of our Lord Jesus. We are now studying His Perean Ministry. In our work we use the Bible for our text book along with a large wall map of the Holy Land and a blackboard. The history, geography and customs of the times seem to have a peculiar interest for the young students.

Probably the most interesting period is our Story Reading. The Rector selects a short story and then asks somebody present, whom he knows is a good reader, to read the story to the school. By the way, we have many really fine readers in our Summer School.

Of course, these different periods are separated by the singing of old familiar hymns.

The reader can judge from this account of our Bible School how busy we are all the time. Sometimes we are so busy and get so interested that we unconsciously steal a few minutes from the Church Service.

Our Summer Sunday Services

We put over our Summer Schedule of short Sunday MORNING services as we had planned to do. The attendance proved the wisdom of our plan. The attendance at the services of the Holy Communion was exceptionally good. Naturally we were greatly encouraged by this demonstration of the spiritual life of the parish.

During June and July we stuck loyally to our EVENING program and had the satisfaction of seeing them well attended. This was especially true of the Fellowship Service at 7 o'clock. The Rector wants to take this opportunity to express his feelings towards his wonderful band of young men and young women. THEY CERTAINLY PROVED THEIR LOYALTY TO OLD ST. JOHN'S DURING THESE HOT

MONTHS. Not only were they on the job at Fellowship meetings but they were present at, helped, aided and assisted in the later service and helped manipulate the machine during our picture talks.

We were forced for physical reasons to close the church during August. The intensely hot weather of July was just a little too much for the Rector and, having no assistant, he was forced to do what he declared he would never do and close the church Sunday evenings during August.

However, taking it all in all, it has been a most wonderful summer. We feel we have accomplished much and have been amply rewarded for all our efforts.

The Man Who Knows

I want to walk by the side of the man who has suffered and seen and knows,
Who has measured his pace on the battle line and given and taken blows,
Who has never whined when the scheme went wrong nor scoffed at the falling plan—
But taken his dose with a heart of trust and the faith of a gentleman;
Who has parried and struck and sought and given and scarred with a thousand spears—
Can lift his head to the stars of heaven and isn't ashamed of his tears.

I want to grasp the hand of the man who has been through it all and seen,
Who has walked with the night of an unseen dread and stuck to the world-machine;
Who has beaten his breast to the winds of dawn and thirsted and starved and felt
The sting and the bite of the bitter blasts that the mouths of the foul have dealt;
Who was tempted and fell, and arose again, and has gone on trusty and true,
With God supreme in his manly heart and his courage burning anew.

—Author Unknown.

Reducing Our Membership

The Rector Removes a Lot of Dead Wood From the Church Register

For many months the Rector has thought seriously of removing from the CHURCH REGISTER the names of all those WHO PERSISTENTLY NEGLECT THEIR COMMUNION, FAIL TO SHOW A DISPOSITION TO SUPPORT THE CHURCH AND IGNORE THE CHURCH SERVICES. His pruning operations involve many families and individuals; yet he has determined to put his elimination idea into effect. Hereafter he will go through this same process every six months until he is sure that the list contains the names of those who are reasonably interested and active in the things pertaining to their soul's welfare and the development of the Parish.

All the names he strikes off of the PARISH REGISTER will be put upon a PROBATION LIST so that if any person, whose name has been removed, shows a desire to be restored to membership in good standing, his name can be restored to the PARISH REGISTER. It is not the intention of the Rector to publish the names of the delinquents. They will realize who they are when they notice they no longer receive church mail.

The reasons for taking this step are manifold:

FIRST, to continue carrying delinquents and reporting them as members is to make annually a false statement to the Diocesan Convention as to our parochial condition.

SECOND, their names overload our mailing list and make our mailing expenses unnecessarily high. If these delinquents are carried on the PARISH REGISTER they assume the right to all the considerations and privileges of members in good standing.

THIRD, to carry such dead wood on our REGISTER is to cheapen our membership in the eyes of all in and out of the church. What we want to do is to make the public, as well as our membership, realize that it takes more than money or personal influence to be a communicant in good standing in St. John's Church. IT TAKES LOYALTY, MORAL SUPPORT AND CONSTANT DESIRE TO AID THE GROWTH OF THE PAROCHIAL INFLUENCE BY ACTIVE INTEREST IN PAROCHIAL AFFAIRS.

FOURTH, to carry the names of delinquents greatly increases the burden and responsibility of the Rector. By removing them to a PROBATION LIST he feels less responsibility in matters of ministration and can give more time and attention to those who are spiritually earnest. This does not involve his neglect of THEIR soul's needs (UNFORTUNATELY THE NEGLECTFUL ARE REALLY THE MOST NEEDFUL) but it does mean that possibly this slight difference in the matter of ministerial attention may arouse them to the realization of their spiritual condition and quicken their conscience.

FIFTH, their neglect breeds indifference in others who are weak enough to be influenced by such a bad example.

Thus we could continue multiplying reasons why we should press the RULE OF ELIMINATION until the Church files are purged of sleeping and lazy brethren. What we have stated we feel is sufficient to justify the act and win the approval of all right thinking Parishioners.

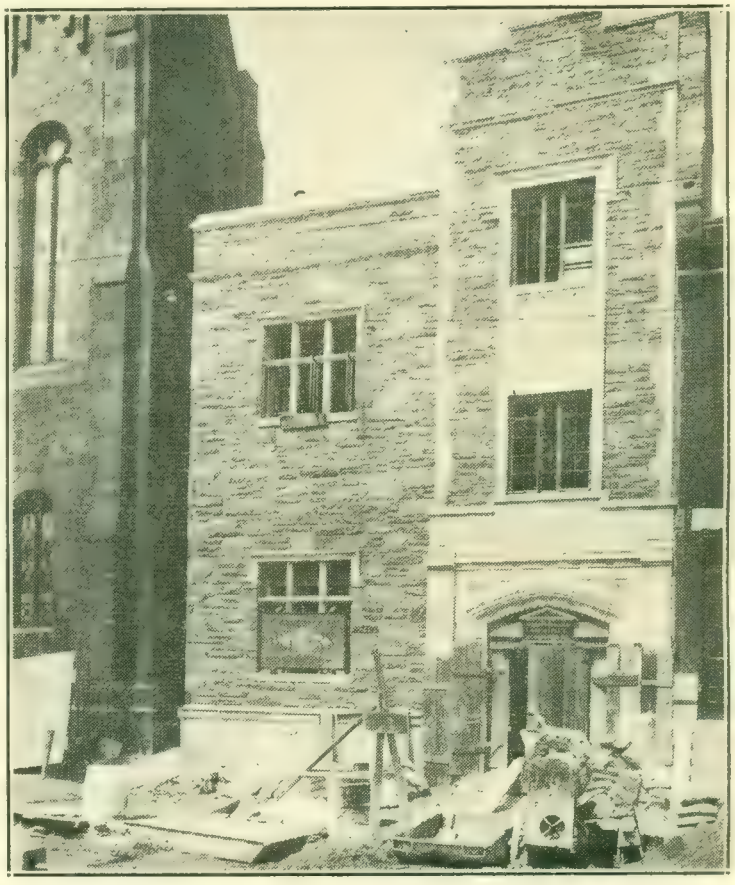
Remember, if your name goes on the PROBATION LIST it can be restored to the ACTIVE LIST whenever you are ready and willing to fulfill your Parochial and Spiritual duties.

A PHYSICAL MERGER

First He—"See that girl? Her face is her fortune."

Second He—"Yeah, and it runs into a nice figure."

—Ohio State Sun Dial.



Our New Parish House—Almost Completed

Send in your Memorials Now; Buy and sell all the bricks you can; Get your Cent-a-Day paid up to date.

THE MORE MONEY WE RAISE THE LESS WILL BE THE MORTGAGE

The Parish House of St. John the Evangelist

The Parish House is rapidly reaching completion. The importance of this announcement can be appreciated by only those who know the social and neighborhood problems that face such a locality as ours.

It will be the center of a most comprehensive Christian social service program. Among its activities will be:

An Employment Bureau.
Babies' Clinic (under the auspices of the Department of Health).
Neighborhood Library and Reading Room.
Game and Recreation Room.
Boy Scout Troop.
Girl Scout Troop.
Mothers' Meeeting and Sewing Society.
Men's Club.
Woman's Auxiliary.
Brotherhood of St. Andrew Neighborhood Council.
Basketball Clubs.
Dramatic Club.
Boys' Lyceum and Good Sport Club. (Lectures principally by leading athletes.)
Daughters of the King.
Neighborhood Meetings.

The first and second floors of the building are so arranged that six or seven of these activities can go on at the same time without interfering with each other.

The crowning feature is the Roof Garden. On warm or pleasant evenings one can retire here and get the cool breezes as they come up the Delaware just a few blocks away. We prophesy that this is going to be a favorite spot for the men to loaf and smoke and swap yarns.

The cost of the property is given below:

Property upon which it is built bought by the Parish	$10,000.00
Estimated cost of new building (architects' commissions included)	38,482.00
Advance from Bishop's Campaign Fund	25,000.00
Raised by Parish	3,000.00
Total amount to be raised	$10,482.00

The Parish is fighting tooth and nail to reduce this balance and will succeed in raising perhaps $1000.00 more during the coming year.

The full amount must be raised for the Parish has no business to carry a mortgage, the interest of which will be hard to raise.

ALL DEPENDS

Alexander—"Which is right: 'The girl began to walk home,' or 'The girl started to walk home?'"

Riddle—"Who was the girl?"

—College Paper.

Church Vocabulary

As noted in our last three issues, the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Philadelphia, has published what we think is one of the most helpful pamphlets ever issued to Churchmen, under the title of CHURCH VOCABULARY. It is so important that we have been printing a portion of its contents in the last three numbers of the BROADCASTER and will continue to do so until we have published the whole of it. This number contains the fourth installment. We advise the BROADCASTER READERS to keep each issue ever handy.

DIOCESAN MATTERS

ANGLICAN CHURCH

The name given to the Church of England as being the Church of the Anglo-Saxon race. The Church is supposed to have been introduced into Britain as early as A. D. 61, possibly by St. Paul. It has continued there as an organization ever since, the Church of the whole English nation, until within the last three centuries, speaking generally, when divers and sundry religious bodies have sprung up there as elsewhere.

ANGLICAN COMMUNION

The term used to designate the churches that are in communion with the Church of England, i. e., hold the same Faith, Order and Worship. Under this term are included the Church of England, the Church of Ireland, the Church of Scotland, the Church of British North America, South Africa and in all the English colonies throughout the world, wherever established, and the Episcopal Church in the United States.

APOSTOLIC SUCCESSION

"The fundamental principles of the Christian Ministry is that it is derived from our Blessed Lord Himself, for whom through the Apostles it is perpetuated by Episcopal Ordination." The Apostolic Succession is simply the theory that the Christian Ministry has never failed to exist since the time when our Lord commissioned it and sent it forth.

THE CHURCH

The name intentionally, though apparently arrogantly, used by Episcopalians for that body of Christians legally known as "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." American Catholic Church is a name desired by some in the hope that it would be descriptive of "The Holy Catholic Church" in so far as that has this land and people as the field of its operations.

THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

In the United States, this is already both in name and in fact, the daughter of the Ancient, Historic, Catholic and Apostolic Church of England; it is a partaker of the same life and the inheritor with the Mother Church, of the same worship, rites, customs, doctrines and traditions. It is, therefore, in its position, likewise, ancient and historic.

THE WORKERS-IN-CLAY

Those Who Bought and Sold Bricks for the Parish House. Another List of Names Will Appear in Our Next Issue

Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Adams, Helen
Allen, Rev. W. Fred

Barnes, Mrs. C.
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Mrs. Charles
Beisser, Mamie
Bender, Mrs. Caroline
Boyce, Benjamina
Boyd, William
Bullitt, Rev. James F.
Bullitt, Orville H.
Butler, Emma

Carter, Rev. & Mrs. G. C.
Carter, Mary Ridgely
Carter, Virginia Benson
Connelly, Mrs.
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Coyle, John
Cresswell, Mrs. Charles T.

Davis, A.
Davis, Naomi
Davis, Mrs. M. J.
DeYoung, Irene
Dean, Mary
Dingler, Mrs.
Downes, George, Jr.
Drum, Wm. Robert
Dysert, John
Doyle, Francis

Emberscheid, Mrs. Anna
Erickson, Mrs. J.
Evans, Thomas

Fanger, A.
Forster, William

Gallagher, Mrs. Kate
Gallagher, Robert
Gibson, A.
Gill, J.
Green, E.
Gresh, Mrs. M.
Gute, Fred

Harris, Marie
Hartman, Earl, Jr.
Henderson, George M.
Henkel, Mrs. R.
Holton, M.
Horstman, Mrs. Walter

Jackson, Elsie
Jaeschke, Mrs. Herman
Jeffers, Richard
Jefferys, Rev. Dr. & Mrs. Edward M.

Karstein, Elizabeth
Karstein, Lillian
Kelley, Ruth
King, William
Knowlton, Frank
Kraus, Sara

Little, Charles
Little, Mrs. M.
Logue, Mr.
Ludwig, Mrs.

Major, William
Moffett, Florence
Mogridge, Cecil
Morris, C. Christopher
Morris, Mr. & Mrs. P. H.

MacVaugh, Mrs. A.
McKeown, James
McKeown, Rebecca
McDowell, Mrs. Mary
McDowell, Samuel, Jr.
McNeeley, Florence

Neher, Mrs. M.
Newbold, Mrs. Arthur E.
Nuttall, Hannah

Orr, Mrs. M.
Outen, Betty

Patton, J. Lee
Patterson, A.
Payne, E.
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, James
Preole, J. C.
Preole, J. F.
Proffitt, Edward
Prettyman, Mrs.

Quaile, Clara
Quaile, Mrs. C.

Rand, Mrs.
Read, Mrs. H.
Robins, Anna
Reynolds, Leona
Rutter, Margaret
Rutter, Ruth

Schabacker, Annie
Schweppenheiser, Mabel
Schweppenheiser, Charles
Shields, Mrs.
Seher, Frank
Schmidt, Frank
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank
Smith, Edward
Smith, Mrs.
Strang, Edward
Sweeney, James
Sutterlin, Thelma

Tittermary, H., Sr .

Vaughan, Annie
Van Arsdale, Mrs. T.

Ward, Carrie
Welsh, Mrs.
Wharton, A.
Weber, John
Weber, Mrs. John
Webster, M.
Woerner, Hannah
Woessner, C. W.
Wilson, Richard

Young, Viola
Young, Laura

Zimmerman, Louis

August 31st

May we hope that the receipts to the BRICK FUND will be as satisfactory on Sunday, August 31st, as they were on Sunday, July 27th. If we are so fortunate, our receipts will be over $600.00 for the two days. We can go far beyond that figure if everybody in the Parish who still holds BRICK ENVELOPES will return them on the above date.

Remember, the names of all who buy or sell bricks will be placed upon the PERPETUAL ROLL of the WORKERS-IN-CLAY.

Scurry around and find that Brick Envelope and get it filled. If it is lost, then get any kind of an envelope and put your brick money in it and give it to the Rector the first time you see him.

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

"In the Good Old Summer Time" St. Johnites just keep on going to church. Our summer congregations have been above the average in numbers and interest.

* * * * *

Is It Hot Enough, Etc.!!!

* * * * *

The Summer Communion Services were surprisingly well attended.

* * * * *

The Parish House Is Almost Completed

* * * * *

How about the names for the Memorial Tablet? Hurry them up or it will be too late.

* * * * *

THE SHACK-IN-THE-PINES CAMP is as popular as ever—even with the wayfarer and the stranger.

* * * * *

Are you keeping up your CENT-A-DAY contribution to the Parish House Fund?

* * * * *

The Men's Club received the gift of a very fine pool table. It is the first contribution to our new Parish House equipment. Now we want a GOOD RADIO CABINET.

* * * * *

We have already sold 4227 bricks for our new Parish House. KEEP PUSHING THE SALES.

* * * * *

Sunday, August 31st, Is Another Brick Sunday Don't Forget the Date! Don't Forget Your Brick Envelope!! Don't Forget to Come!!!

* * * * *

Be sure your name is among the members of the WORKERS-IN-CLAY. Every buyer or seller of bricks is made a member of this new Parochial Society.

* * * * *

A meeting of the WORKERS-IN-CLAY will be held sometime in September for organization and the further consideration of business.

* * * * *

How About Your Church Envelopes?

* * * * *

Did you save money out of your summer vacation funds to pay up all your church obligations?

* * * * *

Get Ready for the Bazaar!

* * * * *

Bazaar Will Be in the New Parish House

* * * * *

Oily to bed,
And oily to rise,
Is the fate of a man
When an auto he buys.

Workers-In-Clay

The New Parish House Is Responsible for a New Parish Society

The Rector is most anxious to preserve for all time the names of those who are helping him raise funds for the new PARISH HOUSE. In order to do so, he is organizing all those who buy and sell bricks or aid the building of the PARISH HOUSE in other financial ways, into a new Society under the title of WORKERS-IN-CLAY. Only those who have rendered financial aid in building the PARISH HOUSE can be enrolled members. It will be arranged to keep perpetually the names of all the "Workers" by having the whole membership edited once every two years and carefully noting the reception of new members who may join from time to time by paying the initiation fee of a hod of bricks—$2.00.

The WORKERS-IN-CLAY will hold monthly meetings for business and pleasure in the PARISH HOUSE. The monthly fees of the Society will be the price of two bricks.

Broadcasting from Laughland

ALWAYS OBLIGING

A lay preacher was lost in the happy selection of his text, when he repeated in vigorous accents of pleading: "Brothers and sisters, at the last day there are going to be sheep and there are going to be goats.

who's going to be the sheep and who's going to be the goats?"

A solitary Irishman who had been sitting in the back of the church listening attentively, rose and said:

"Oi'll be the goat. Go on and tell the joke."

—Author Unknown.

Father—"Young lady, do you mean to tell me you've been carrying that money around in your stocking?"

Dora—"Why, daddy, you told me to put it where it would draw interest."

Cannibal Chief—"Gosh, this meat certainly is tough."

Wife—"Naturally, you would say that, just because it is mamma."

Cop—"Let me see your license."

Autoist—"Marriage, car, driver's, camper's, fishing, dog, hunting or builder's license?"

"How long have you been married, Dick?"

"Let's see, Harry. I bought this overcoat I'm wearing five years ago."

"Man is wonderful. He has learned to fly like a bird."

"Yes, but he hasn't learned to sit on a barbed wire fence."

Teacher—"Johnny, what is a cannibal?"

Johnny—"I don't know."

Teacher—"Well, if you ate your father and mother, what would you be?"

Johnny—"I'd be an orphan."

Caller—"Won't you walk as far as the street car with me, Tommy?"

Tommy (aged seven)—"I can't."

Caller—"Why not?"

Tommy—"'Cause we're gonna have dinner as soon as you go."

A CASE FOR THE DEFENSE

The car was crowded and the conductor was irritable.

"Where's the fare for the boy?" he snapped, as Mr. Cohen handed him one fare.

"Ach, de boy is only three years old," said Cohen placidly.

"Three years," sneered the conductor. "Three years! Why, look at him. That kid's seven years old if he's a day."

Mr. Cohen leaned over and gazed earnestly at the boy's face. Then he turned to the conductor.

"Vell, can I help it if he worries?"

A MIGHTY BIRD WAS HE

A dear old lady was showing her new parrot to her gardener:

"You know, James, that this parrot comes from the Congo, and the Congo parrots are so intelligent they seem almost human. This bird whistles 'Home Sweet Home' so beautifully that the tears run down his beak."

"Yes, mum," commented James. "I know about them Congo parrots. I used to own one that whistled 'The Village Blacksmith' so beautifully that the sparks used to fly from his tail."

CAUSE JUSTIFIED

The prisoner, a ragged tramp, had been brought before the Court charged with unlawful entry.

"Why did you enter this person's home?" the judge asked, sternly.

"Well, yer Honer," the tramp replied, "I saw a mat on the doorstep readin' 'Welcome to Our Home,' so I just walked in!"

A MATTER OF SPELLING

A teacher was instructing her class in the use of antonyms. "Now, children," she said, "what is the opposite of sorrow?"

"Joy," shrieked the class in unison.

"What is the opposite of pleasure?"

"Pain."

"And what is the opposite of woe?"

"Giddap."

Some folks give their mite,
Others give with their might,
And some don't give who might!

—The Pioneer,
Hyde Park Presbyterian Church, Chicago, Ill.

A TEST ON INDIA

At a school examination the examiner asked one child:

"What are the products of India?"

The wretched infant began at once to reel off the list she had learned by heart.

"Please, sir, India produces curries, and pepper, and rice, and citron, and chillies, and chutney, and—and—and——"

"Yes, yes!" said the examiner impatiently. "What comes after that? What is the most important of all?"

Another infant's hand was raised.

"Well, you tell her!"

"Please, sir, India—gestion!"

NOT LUSCIOUS AND TENDER

It was Mr. Spurgeon, we believe, who discovered a new and extra Scriptural reason for the safety of Daniel while temporarily abiding in the den of lions. According to his conclusions, it was absolutely impossible for the lions to eat Daniel, because "the most of him was backbone and the rest grit." What luscious eating lions would have with some of us!

—The Watchman-Examiner.

A river becomes crooked by following the line of least resistance. So does a man.
—The Immanuel Lutheran,
Mason City, Iowa.

THREE WISHES

I would I were beneath a tree,
A-sleeping in the shade;
With all the bills I've got to pay,
PAID!

I would I were beside the sea,
Or sailing in a boat;
With all the things I've got to write,
WROTE!

I would I were on yonder hill,
A-basking in the sun;
With all the work I've got to do,
DONE!
—The Christian Advocate, New York.

"Hey!" yelled the chauffeur, "don't you know anything about the rules of the road?"

"Well," replied the humble pedestrian, "I know that the Golden Rule doesn't seem to be one of them."
—Reformed Church Messenger.

Any Old Rags?

Here Comes the Rag Man Again!

You may not know it, but the sale of rags, paper, iron, bottles, etc., is a very profitable business. Quite a tidy little sum has already been received from the sale of junk for our Parish House. We are trying to get organized for the Autumn and gather up all the junk in the Parish. Soon there will appear a new call book in the Church Hall. Please enter in it a call for the car to come to your home to get the rags, etc., you have to donate to the cause. When once we get into the habit, this rag business is going to pay big dividends.

Fred Schaab is always ready to serve you cheerfully. When he comes give him an order for provisions just to show him you believe in patronizing a fellow church member. If you do, that smile of his will spread and spread until it meets at his collar button on the back of his neck.

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER
230-232 Queen Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

Ed. Pennington
GARAGE
306-10 REED STREET

The Merchants whose advertisements are found here are leaders in their line of business. They want your trade and solicit your patronage through your own paper. Patronize them, they are worthy of your co-operation.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 4, No. 10 PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER, 1930 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Martha Weymann Schmidt, Organist.

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
Joseph Colvey

CHANCEL GUILD

Miss Martha W. Schmidt
Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Margaret Rutter

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Miss Martha W. Schmidt, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Martha Weymann Schmidt; Organist

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

Margaret Rutter and John Nelson, Councellors
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Ward, Katharine Amanda
Tomlin, William Edward
Bady, Katherine Madeline
Snell, Catherine Elizabeth
Hines, Raymond Thomas
Gresh, Richard William
Burkhardt, Walter William, Jr.
Alburger, Donald Christopher
Horner, Marguarite Katherine
Gerry, Florence
Ibbetson, Virginia Alice

BURIALS

Marie Ferrar
Mary F. Taylor
Mary E. Wile
Michael Edward Barron
Martha Hibbs
Ella T. Pearsall

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

Our Parish Letter

To the Confirmed Women and Girls of Our Parish

Dear Ladies:

Would we had a magic pen that had power to indite the thoughts and feelings that clamor for expression in this epistle.

Our prayer for power to convey our emotions is inspired by the big army of women and girls whose names are on our Parish Register and who stand as loyal supporters of old St. John's.

In making up a mailing list of the female portion of our Parish we were astounded to learn upon completing it THE LIST CONTAINED THE NAMES OF 442 WOMEN AND GIRLS, CONFIRMED MEMBERS OF THE PARISH.

We fell to dreaming then.

WHAT IF THIS SPLENDID ARMY OF WOMEN AND GIRLS—every one of whom have sworn allegiance to Jesus Christ and His Church—should suddenly become inspired to faithfully adhere to their oath of allegiance they made in confirmation, what a profound sensation they would create! In less than a week that army of 442 women and girls would override the sin and iniquity of Southwark and claim the domain for Jesus Christ.

WHAT IF THIS SPLENDID ARMY OF WOMEN AND GIRLS determined to attend regularly to the services of the Church! Such a demonstration would inspire all women and girls of Southwark to do likewise. And where they went the men and boys would be sure to follow.

WHAT IF THIS SPLENDID ARMY OF WOMEN AND GIRLS would attend the monthly meeetings of the Daughters of the King and all other Parish Societies for women and girls. The fire of enthusiasm would burn so brightly and the spiritual warmth of the Parish so intensely, that every house in Southwark would feel its power.

WHAT IF THE WOMEN OF THIS ARMY should (as they ought) attend the meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary held every month. What if each of them realized how imperative it is for the WOMEN of the church in EVERY parish—ESPECIALLY IN ST. JOHN'S PARISH—to stand shoulder to shoulder as a WOMAN'S AUXILIARY and by the psychology of numbers, make the Church of Jesus Christ the greatest power and influence for good in Southwark.

Dear friends, this is a call to duty. This is a reminder of your oath of allegiance to God and His Church. This is your opportunity to prove your power for good, wholesome, decent, moral and spiritual community life.

Do You Acknowledge Your Allegiance?

WILL YOU SHOW YOUR LOVE FOR OLD ST. JOHN'S by a real endeavor to overcome all selfish desires, all narrow prejudices, all petty feelings and say, God helping me, I shall do my utmost for His cause in the Parish where I live and in the Church where I worship.

AND REMEMBER! Every confirmed female of the Church is an active member of the WOMAN'S AUXILIARY. Do not neglect nor ignore your duty to attend the monthly meetings of the Auxiliary.

What a glorious day it will be when the women and girls of Old St. John's rally 'round it and under its standard of the flying eagle spread its power east and west, north and south in the Parish.

Women and Girls, You Are Hailed to the Standard of the Cross!

Changing Our Schedule

After a Very Busy and a Very Happy Summer We Take Up Our Regular Sunday Schedule Again

Beginning Sunday, October 5th, we return to our regular hours for service, which are as follows:

Morning Prayer and Sermon ... 10.30 A. M.
Sunday School Service ..... 2.30 P. M.
Fellowship Service ..... 7.00 P. M.
Evening Service ..... 7.45 P. M.

Celebration of the Holy Communion, 11.00 A. M. every first Sunday and Holy days.

Christenings at any time by appointment.

Sick Calls and Private Communions by application made directly to the Rector.

Weddings ought to be arranged as far in advance as convenient.

Burial Services by appointment as soon after the decease as possible.

Please leave nothing to chance or to a third person. Get in communication with the Rector personally for all appointments.

A LEGAL SLAM

College Lad (arrested for speeding)—"But, your Honor, I am a college boy."

Judge—"Ignorance doesn't excuse anybody!!"

FIND YOUR NUMBER

Parishioners Holding Packages of Envelopes Numbered in This List

HAVE CONTRIBUTED NOTHING

To the CURRENT EXPENSES of the Church This Year According to the Parish Records

21	22	23	28	31	45	52
53	54	58	71	79	90	107
109	110	128	132	165	173	174
199	200	201	215	216	234	240
241	242	252	254	258	261	262
263	267	268	272	277	278	279
281	284	287	289	291	294	297
299	300	304	311	320

THOSE CONTRIBUTING 50 CENTS AND LESS:

12	18	29	49	50	52	81
94	105	112	113	114	118	142
155	158	167	184	208	210	213
222	224	229	237	243	257	266
274	276	293	310	313	318	321

THOSE CONTRIBUTING $1.00 AND LESS:

24	37	55	73	123	124	149
186	188	214	223	235	244	245
253	264	269	280	283	288	296
305	309	314	322	323	324

THOSE CONTRIBUTING $1.50 AND LESS:

67	74	77	85	102	103	159
165	211	225	226	230	232	238
239	265	319

THOSE CONTRIBUTING $2.00 AND LESS:

8	15	20	61	92	101	111
119	131	133	156	163	189	202
218	233	256	260	270	275	285
315

THOSE CONTRIBUTING $2.50 AND LESS:

13	17	27	30	46	47	134
150	212	228	231	246	259	271
312

THOSE CONTRIBUTING $3.00 AND LESS:

11	14	32	44	48	51	64
66	75	80	82	84	104	120
121	129	160	161	175	204	209
250	290	303

THOSE CONTRIBUTING $3.50 AND LESS:

5	19	25	83	93	143	154
176	185	187	193	194	219	227
247	251	273	292	302	317	325

THOSE CONTRIBUTING $4.00 AND LESS:

16	38	39	41	42	43	59
62	63	70	72	76	95	100
108	122	125	126	127	135	136
144	145	152	162	166	170	172
177	178	181	182	183	190	207
236	255	298	307	316

THOSE CONTRIBUTING OVER $4.00 ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1	2	3	4	6	9	33
34	35	36	40	56	57	65
68	69	78	86	87	88	89
91	96	99	106	115	116	117
130	137	138	139	141	147	148
151	153	157	164	168	169	171
179	180	191	192	195	196	197
198	205	206	217	221	248	249
286	295	301	308

Please locate your envelope number and see how many envelopes you need to bring to Church in order to square your account. THEN BRING THEM!

The Dream Realized

And What a Beautiful Dream It Is, Too

Once upon a time there was a little church in a very bad part of a big city. It was so weak and so neglected that everybody said it ought to die. One day the Bishop of the Diocese closed it up and told the few folk who still worshiped there to go to some other church to worship and forget the old church. This made the folk very sad indeed but they had no money to pay their bills or pay a salary to a rector. Besides, it was such an old church it needed a new roof and new floors and new organ and new lighting system and new carpets and a new heating system and new painting and no money to pay the gasbill, last year's coal bill, the big mortgage, the sexton's salary, the organist's salary and a multitude of unpaid bills which amounted to hundreds of dollars.

Just after the church was closed along came a man who said when once a Church was dedicated to God it was the House of God and belonged morally and legally to HIM and nobody had any right to dispose of another person's property without His consent.

This man went to the Bishop about the matter and at last got grudging permission to re-open the church for worship and see if anything could be done.

To make a long story short the church took on new life and in a few short years it became, through the Grace of God, the largest and most influential parish in southeast Philadelphia.

Then this man began to dream of even bigger things. The center of his dream was a new Parish House. When he told his dream to others they laughed and laughed. The idea of old St. John's Church having a Parish House was too ridiculous to consider seriously. Some folk said something about how they would never be alive to see such a miracle.

Well, that just goes to show some folk are no good as prophets; for anyone walking along Third street near Reed can see for himself that dream has come true and is built in solid stone just next door the church. And what a beautiful dream! Even on the outside it is the most beautiful building on Third street south of Market. The interior is wonderful, too. The first floor is arranged so that many things can be done at one and the same time. It has a dandy basketball room. It has a big stage with sixty footlights. It has toilets and showers. In the front is a large room for social service work, an Employment Bureau and a Child's Clinic.

On the second floor there are three large rooms to be used by the different parochial organizations, a pool room for the men, a private office for the Rector, a large wide hall and a beautiful retiring room for the ladies.

Then there is the Roof Garden! When you get up there you just don't want to come down. We can see how that is going to become the most popular spot in the house—only this is outside the house. It will make a dandy place for a smoker or a place to get a breath of fresh air on a hot day, or a place to play games, or a place to sit and see the boats passing on the river; or a thousand and one other things.

Yes, Sir! We had a dream and that dream has come true. Now watch St. John's parish grow.

AND KEEP ON LAUGHING AND HELP US ENJOY OUR DREAM NOW THAT IT HAS BEEN REALIZED.

CO-OPERATION

The Fine Spirit Building
A Parish House Reveals

We have a lot of folk to thank for all they have done to make the building of our Parish House pleasant and comparatively easy. We are now speaking of those who are not communicants of St. John's Church and are active members of other churches in the neighborhood.

Take, for instance, the Block Party held September 5th and 6th on Daly street. The lights were loaned by the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel and many of the communicants worked hard to help us. One little girl, FLORENCE MILLER, along with a little friend of hers, ONA WICHART, who goes to the Lutheran Church, Fourth and Carpenter streets, sold things for us and turned in $5.00 as their receipts.

And so it has been all over the parish: Jews, Roman Catholics, Lutherans, etc., etc., etc., have shown a splendid spirit of co-operation and much of our success is due to them.

We have always tried to be good neighbors, now we are reaping the reward of that neighborliness. It's simply great to know you have so many friends and well wishers. When our turn comes to give a hand we will be there cheerfully.

Brick Envelopes

We are a little surprised to note that many holders of Brick envelopes are still holding them. We need this money NOW. In order to give all holders of Brick envelopes a final chance to settle up we are setting SUNDAY, OCTOBER 19th, as the THIRD BRICK SUNDAY.

MAY WE URGE ALL WHO HAVE NOT GIVEN IN THEIR BRICK ENVELOPE TO DO SO EITHER ON OR BEFORE THAT DATE?

MEMORIALS

Which would you rather have as a monument to your beloved asleep in Jesus—a piece of marble which costs you anywhere from $250.00 up to $100,000 in a cemetery or the beautiful and useful PARISH HOUSE which everybody will be using all the time next door to our church?

And think of the modest sum you pay to be able to say, "See that beautiful building over there? Well, that's my MEMORIAL to John or Mary" or whoever it may be.

A Memorial costs $10.00. When that sum is paid the name of the deceased will be placed upon the Record and finally the Tablet will be placed in the front hall of the Parish House.

If you want to pay the $10.00 in installments you may do so, but you had better get busy for the books may be closed at any time.

After Which It Will Be Too Late!

Subscriptions

If the PARISH BROADCASTER is a welcome visitor to your home, why not show your appreciation by sending us the subscription price, $1.00 per year, to help us meet our mailing and printing expenses? Surely it is worth nine plus cents per month to you for the news and the Parish gossip it brings you.

Put a dollar in an envelope, mark it SUBSCRIPTION FOR PARISH BROADCASTER and either give it to the Rector or drop it in the Alms Bason on Sunday.

Multiplication and Subtraction

What a Cent-a-Day Will Do If You Will Let It

Names on the Parish Register.....	860
860 x 1 cent a day	$8.60 per day
$8.60 x 7 days in a week.....	$60.20 per week
$60.20 x 52 weeks in a year	$3,130.40 per year
The Parish House Mortgage	$10,000.00
Subtract 1st year Cent-a-Day Income.....	3,130.40
Our Mortgage is reduced to	$6,869.60
Subtract 2nd year Cent-a-Day Income.....	3,130.40
Our Mortgage is reduced to	$3,738.20
Subtract 3rd year Cent-a-Day Income.....	3,130.40
Our Mortgage is reduced to	$607.80

In less than THREE MONTHS MORE the income from A-CENT-A-DAY will pay the mortgage in full.

Of course, this splendid result depends entirely upon YOU paying YOUR CENT-A-DAY. If YOU fail then YOU make it necessary for the rest of US to work all the harder and all the longer to pay off OUR mortgage.

Any Old Rags?

Here Comes the Rag Man Again!

You may not know it, but the sale of rags, paper, iron, bottles, etc., is a very profitable business. Quite a tidy little sum has already been received from the sale of junk for our Parish House. We are trying to get organized for the Autumn and gather up all the junk in the Parish. Soon there will appear a new call book in the Church Hall. Please enter in it a call for the car to come to your home to get the rags, etc., you have to donate to the cause. When once we get into the habit, this rag business is going to pay big dividends.

Fred Schaab is always ready to serve you cheerfully. When he comes give him an order for provisions just to show him you believe in patronizing a fellow church member. If you do, that smile of his will spread and spread until it meets at his collar button on the back of his neck.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew

The Fall Meeting to Be Held in St. John's Parish House

On Thursday, October 16th, the Pennsylvania Diocesan Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will hold its Fall meeting in the new Parish House. It is many years since the Assembly has met in St. John's Parish and we are glad to have them for our guests especially as we have such a beautiful house in which to entertain them. We hope a goodly number will be present and let us show them around. We are sure they will pardon us if we seem to throw out our chests and strut a little.

The meeting will be called for 8.15 P. M. and one or two speakers will be presented who will talk on different features of Brotherhood work.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ST. JOHN'S PARISH WILL, OF COURSE, BE THE HOST OF THE OCCASION. WE ARE SURE THAT EVERY BROTHERHOOD MAN WILL TURN OUT AND HELP US DO THE HONORS.

AS A MATTER OF FACT WE CONFIDENTLY EXPECT EVERY MAN AND BOY OF

ST. JOHN'S PARISH TO ATTEND THE MEETING. THIS IS ONE OCCASION WHEN IT IS IMPORTANT TO EXHIBIT THE MAN POWER OF THE PARISH.

There will be many men, prominent in Church and business affairs, present at the meeting and we want to convince them by numbers that we are a man's church. Every man and boy of the Parish is in honor bound to uphold its good reputation on this occasion. Therefore, as Floyd Gibbson would say:

Until Then—Mark Time!

HELL-BENT

At one of the noonday services in St. Stephen's Church, the Rev. Donald G. Barnhouse was the speaker. He made the very remarkable statement that "IF MEN WILL GO TO HELL, THEY MUST DO SO OVER THE DEAD BODY OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST."

Think what this means. We all have heard people say that others should only do this or that thing over their dead bodies. That is mere boasting. They never intended for a moment to die to prevent others from doing the thing to which they objected. The statement of Mr. Barnhouse, however, is absolutely true, for it is based on the literal fact.

We believe that Jesus Christ was the Son of God incarnate in human flesh. He was very God of very God, of one substance with the Father. As such he was the only person in all of God's creation who had the power to lay down His life for another. He was the only one by whose death we or any others could be saved from the penalty of our sins. We might have all the love in the world and be willing to die to help our friends. We read, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friend." Any benefit to be derived from such an act would be but temporary—it could not save any man's soul.

Jesus Christ did actually lay down his life for us. He did it while we were enemies and not friends at all. He truly gave His life as a ransom for our sins, and for the sins of the whole world. "Whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life."—St. John 3:16. It is necessary for us to believe on Him, otherwise we can never have eternal life. We read St. John: 3:36. "He that believeth on the Son, hath everlasting life, but he that believeth not the Son, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him."

Therefore, if a man will not believe on the Son of God, he cannot be compelled to do so. Even in the days of His flesh, our Lord said to the people, "Ye will not come to me that ye might have life." As He died for them—if they will not come to Him, THEY ACTUALLY GO DOWN TO HELL OVER HIS BLESSED, BLEEDING BODY.

Why not be among those mentioned in St. John: 5:24. "He that heareth my words and believeth on Him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation but is passed from death unto life."

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

Did you enjoy your vacation?

* * *

An important date, Friday, September 26th, the Parish Night in the new Parish House.

* * *

Another important date, Sunday, October 5th, Holy Communion; Sunday School, 2.30 P. M.; Fellowship Service, 7 P. M.; Evening Service, 7.45 o'clock.

* * *

Another important date, Thursday, October 16th, fall meeting Diocesan Assembly Brotherhood of St. Andrew, to be held in our new Parish House. All men and boys of the Parish are drafted to service that night.

* * *

Have you returned YOUR Brick Envelope?

* * *

Have you paid up your Cent-a-day?

* * *

Are all your church envelopes paid up to date?

* * *

Do you return from your vacation as refreshed in Spirit as you are in body?

* * *

Did you go to church while you were on your vacation?

* * *

Do you now feel physically strong enough to attend church service regularly?

* * *

Our Dream Is Realized: Our Parish House Is Built

* * *

Congratulations to Mrs. Woerner and all her aids for her successful Block Party. Receipts were nearly $300.00.

* * *

Who Will Start the Next Block Party?

* * *

Receipts from all Block Parties and entertainments go into the Parish House Building Fund.

* * *

REMEMBER THE BAZAAR

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Papa and Mamma: Be sure the son and daughter are ready for Sunday School Sunday, October 5th, at 2.30 P. M. Please come with them. We are going to have a Sunday School Rally.

* * *

Don't Forget the Memorials

WORKERS-IN-CLAY

(Conti nued)

Those Who Bought and Sold Bricks for the Parish House. Another List of Names Will Appear In Our Next Issue

Anonymous
Anonymous
Armstrong, Florence
Blech, Charles
Bunting, Walter
Bunting, Mrs. Walter
Burt, Anna M.
Clay, Gertrude W.
Colvey, Joseph
Connor, Mrs. Rae
Connor, Mrs. Laura M.
Clark, Mrs. Harry
Clark, Harry
Cressee, George
Dean, Mrs. G.
Fitzpatrick, Mrs.
Fanger, Mrs.
Fisher, M. Beatrice
Fischer, Mrs. M.
Gorman, Mrs. William
Greenfield, Lydia
Hasson, William
Hasson, Mrs. William
Hasson, Kathryne
Henkel, Mrs. R.
Hopson, Rev. Sidney M.
Johnson, Margaret
Jones, George C.
Kensil, John
Kaiser, Emma
Kelly, Mary E.
Little, Charles
Maguire, Mrs. E. and Family
Mitchell, Madeline
Merrick, J. Vaughn
Martin, Susanna
MacFarlan, Margaret
McIntyre, Mrs. Mary
MacFarlan, J.
McHenry, John
Matthews, Vernon
Patterson, John, Jr.
Patterson, Mrs. John, Jr.
Roberson, A.
Romano, Ralph
Romano, Ida
Rudderow, Mrs. B.
Spratt, Peggy
Schaab, Frederick
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Substalae, Mrs. F.
Sweeney, James
Stone, David
Strang, Carrie
Tittermary, Edward
Weller, Mrs. C.
Woerner, Eleanor
Watts, Miss Sarah
Whitmyer, Lulu R.
Williams, Mrs.

The Club of Warwickshire

A Test

A noise merely annoys. Even a thunderclap is harmless. Sound never yet produced a dent. Gossip is simply the outburst of envy and malice—like a Chinese firecracker—often a fizz and usually dangerous only to him who explodes it.—Kaufman.

Near the small town of Warwickshire, England, lives the Rev. Frank Melville, vicar of Exhall. After many years of contact with people of all classes he has come to the conclusion that "half the sorrows of this world are caused by scandalmongers."

So, the Anti-Scandal Club of Warwickshire came into being. One of the requirements to membership is that even the subconscious mind must be purged of malicious gossip, because says the vicar, "The great trouble with scandal is that even if one does not believe it, it continually crops up in the subconscious mind whenever the victim is mentioned."

Members of this club take an oath either to speak well of people or remain silent. Before being enrolled as full-fledged members, applicants undergo a probation to test their ability to keep the rules.

* * *

All of which reminds us of a few paragraphs by Herbert Kaufman:

Hissing snakes are seldom deadly. The cobra, the fer de lance, the copperhead, and the moccasin do not advertise. Chattering birds are always harmless. The raven and the crow are arrant cowards—the eagle swoops without an outcry.

Only strong men can check or wreck you, and the strong do not stoop to meanness. They strike with clean weapons and not with the rusty sword of slander.

Broadcasting from Laughland

JUST REVERSED

When a woman dropped in one evening to chat with a friend, she was surprised to find the husband, enveloped in an apron, washing the dishes.

"Where's your wife?" the visitor asked, cheerily.

"Over at the barber shop," came the grumpy reply.—Sparks of Laughter.

* * *

DOUBLE BLESSING

An old maid was approached by a welfare worker.

"Will you subscribe for the Homeless Men Fund?" asked the solicitor.

"No," snapped the old maid. "But I might con sider taking one of the men."—Sparks of Laughter.

* * *

SORT OF A "B" ELIMINATOR

A chap was arrested for assault and battery and brought before the Judge.

Judge (to prisoner)—"What is your name, your occupation, and what are you charged with?"

Prisoner—"My name is Sparks. I am an electrician. And I am charged with battery."

Judge—"Officer, put this guy in a dry cell."—Sparks of Laughter.

* * *

HARD HEADED

"Tom had a terrible accident."

"What happened?"

"He got hit on the head with a sledge hammer and now he's got fallen arches."

* * *

Love is like eating mushrooms. You don't know whether it's the real thing until it's too late.

* * *

A hotel manager going along a corridor saw a kneeling bootblack cleaning a pair of shoes outside a bedroom door.

"Haven't I told you never to clean shoes in the corridor, but to take them downstairs?"

"Yes, sir; but the man in this room is a Scotchman, and he is hanging on to the shoe laces."

* * *

Rastus (at dance)—"Mirandy, is you program full?"

Mirandy—"Lawdy, no! It takes mo' dan two sandwiches and a cup of coffee to fill my program."

* * *

AND THEN THE FUN BEGAN

Boarder—"Oh, I understand all about your methods. Do you think I've lived in boarding houses all my life for nothing?"

* * *

Landlady—"It wouldn't surprise me in the least."

* * *

Father (at 1 A. M.)—"Is that young man asleep, Mary?"

Mary—"Hush, father. He has just asked me to marry him and make him the happiest man in the world."

Father—"I thought so. Wake him up and send him home."

* * *

"It took you a long time to pull that fellow's tooth," said the dentist's assistant.

"Yes, he married the girl I loved."—Magnolia Oil News.

* * *

Mary—"I will give yez my answer in a month, Pat."

Pat—"That's right, me darlint, take plenty of time to think about it, but tell me one thing—will it be yes or no?"

* * *

WRONG AGAIN

Customer—"Where is the Corset Department?"

Floorman—"Straight back."

Customer—"No, straight front."—Sparks of Laughter.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner

2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

"Say It With Flowers"

FRANK C. QUINN

Florist

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753

MAX SMITH

Dealer in

SHOES, BOOTS and RUBBERS

S. E. Cor. Third & McKean Streets

WELL BROADCASTED

Here lie the remains of a radio fan,
Now mourned by his many relations.
He went to a powder mill, smoking his pipe,
And was picked up by twenty-one stations.
—Sparks of Laughter.

* * *

John—"Waitress, I found a hairpin in the soup!"

Waitress—"Goody! Look and see if you can't find my comb, too."

* * *

Tom Davies to Waiter—"Do you serve any cheese with apple pie?"

Waiter—"Yes, we serve anyone. Here, sit down."

* * *

Bill—"How did they discover iron?"

Vincent—"I guess they smelt it."

* * *

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

A traveling man was talking to the proprietor of a jewelry store:

"I see your sign reads: 'A. Fraud, Jeweler.' That sounds bad; why don't you use your full given name?" he asked.

"Well," replied the proprietor, "My full name would sound worse; it is Adam."

* * *

TIGHT

Johnny—"These pants that you bought for me are too tight."

Mother—"Oh, no, they aren't."

Johnny—"They are, too, Mother. They're tighter'n my own skin."

Mother—"Now, Johnny, you know that isn't so."

Johnny—"It is, too. I can sit down in my skin, but I can't sit down in my pants."

* * *

August 27, 1930.

Dear Sir:

Due to my employer not having sufficient work to give me more than two weeks' full pay since the first of January, I am writing to learn whether you can get a family in a like position to share my home with me on a fifty-fifty basis as to rent, food, etc. I was forced to discharge my housekeeper five months ago, and unless I can be helped in the above manner I will be forced to break up and go back to live with my wife again.

Yours very truly,

_____

_____

* * *

APPROPRIATE

"When she threw the ammonia bottle at him what did he say?"

"Didn't say anything, he sung it."

"What did he sing?"

"I'm dancing with tears in my eyes."

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER
230-232 Queen Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

Ed. Pennington
GARAGE
306-10 REED STREET

The Merchants whose advertisements are found here are leaders in their line of business. They want your trade and solicit your patronage through your own paper. Patronize them, they are worthy of your co-operation.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 4, No. 11 PHILADELPHIA, NOVEMBER, 1930 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
Joseph Colvey

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Margaret Rutter

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

Margaret Rutter and John Nelson, Councellors
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Frank Abbott Wilson, Jr.
Naomi Lee Hartmann
Elmina Clark Hackett
Irvin Henry Naphy
Catherine May Swift

MARRIAGES

James Cratham and Dorothy Griffith
Vernon Matthews and Martha Weymann Schmidt

BURIALS

Charles A. Schaffer

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

Sunday School Notes

The Auspicious Opening Was Most Encouraging

It was hard to disband our Summer Bible School and get back to the regular Sunday School work. We feel that much good was accomplished for old and young in our mutual study of our Lord's Ministry. The highlights of our study centered 'round the Preparation, the Annunciation, the Nativity, the Circumcision, the period of Temptation, the Ministry, the Betrayal and Trial, the Crucifixion, the Resurrection, the Great Commission, the Ascension of Jesus Christ.

During the Fall, Winter and Spring terms we have planned a careful study of the Fixed Holy Days of the Church. The course will include the study of the companions of Jesus Christ and certain outstanding events in His earthly career. The course will involve Bible references, Church colors and vestments, biographies, map work, reasons why the Church has fixed certain events in its calendar, etc. We believe the course will be interesting as well as instructive.

We are more and more convinced that the only practical way to "put over" any sort of a Church School program is by the question and answer method. It is amazing how intelligently even small children grasp a subject if they are asked questions that intrigue their imagination. There is nothing new about this way of teaching. We are perfectly willing to acknowledge that we borrowed it from the classics.

Our Rally Day was a wonderful success. Though the day was warm and beautiful—such a day to tempt folks out-of-doors—we had 213 scholars present and 100 per cent. of our teaching staff. Everybody seemed glad to be back again.

HOWEVER DID WE MANAGE WITHOUT A PARISH HOUSE! Sundays find it overflowing with boys and girls of the Intermediate Department. It is also the meeting place of both number one and number two Women's Bible Classes. There were nearly as many in the Parish House as there were in the regular Sunday School rooms, where the Senior Department, the Kindergarten and the Men's Bible Class meet.

Several new schools were enrolled thus far and quite a few scholars, who have been absent for years, returned and asked to be assigned to classes.

THOUGHT

What a truly wonderful gift is thought,
It is priceless, though often sold or bought;
Through this medium we may travel o'er land and sea
And still be resting in the Land of the Free.

It carries us back to babyhood days,
To a mother's love and kindly ways;
The good-night kiss and the "God bless you, dear,"
We hear her voice, it is low, yet clear.

Then we attend school to be taught,
For life without knowledge amounts to naught;
And to this add common-sense and truth
And you have a sure foundation for youth.

On this build a structure so staunch and fine
It will stand all the havoc of time;
As you are the builder and owner, too,
Watch your work daily and make it true.

Walk in the mid-pathway of life,
And in that way avoid all strife;
Live close to your King, sing His praises aloud,
Then you'll live in the sunlight and not under a cloud.

—Jean Ardley.

Daughters of the King

Last fall, at the suggestion of the Rector, the Daughters of the King visited various women of the Parish, and, under the guidance of the Directress, organized a Bible Class, which met at the same time as the regular Sunday School. They met in the upper hall and had many enjoyable as well as profitable afternoons.

When it came time for the presentation of the Lenten Offering it was found the Bishop Taitt Class led all the rest with nearly $250.00.

They have again renewed their sessions on Sunday afternoons, meeting in a room of the new Parish House, which they share with the Daughters of the King.

Many of the D. of K. belong to the class, but there are also many of the class who are not members of the D. of K. Any woman of the Parish who does not already belong to a Bible Class will be welcomed to our class on Sunday afternoon and also to the meetings of the D. of K. on Wednesday evening.

This is only one thing which the D. of K. have attempted in the Parish, but we feel it is a very vital one.

COAL SUNDAY

It Comes Only Once a Year
Just Like Christmas

We have good news to pass around. The new heating system we installed when we built the new Parish House is much more economical in the use of fuel than were the three pipeless heaters we operated in past years. Though we have two buildings to heat now, we have a heating plant that burns smaller coal and will heat both the Church and the Parish House on almost the same amount of fuel.

We need about $550 to pay our coal bill. You will receive your coal envelope in time to return it SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 16.

If You Give Your $1.00 We Will Not Need to Worry

WE'RE OFF!

The Parish House Is Scarcely Completed Before Activities Start

On October 7, 1930, the Cresson Club of St. John's Church was organized by 10 of St. John's live wires with their slogan, "A GOOD TIME FOR ALL BY ALL." Officers, consisting of President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, were elected, and a Board of Governors is to be elected. The reason for the delay in the election of Governors was that, in order to be a member of this Board, it is necessary to be: (first), 100 per cent. member of St. John's, and (second), a 100 per cent. live wire. In short, the holders of these jobs must be O. K.

We started our basketball team with a two-hour practice, and we have been invited to join the South Philadelphia Church League. Any man in the parish between the ages of 18 and 80 years that doesn't get into this club is going to miss a wonderful winter. Plans are now being worked out for basketball one night a week; (and if there are any who can play basketball, we want them to come out for the team; but they must be good to make it).

We plan to have the stars of all sports down to meet you, and we also plan to have Ladies' Night one night a month. In other words, we plan to keep that parish house so crowded all the time that the walls will bulge. We are forming a string band, and we have a dandy pool table on the second floor. We need every man, woman and child in St. John's to help us put this over and make St. John's known from one end of the Diocese to the other.

St. John's has more man-power than any other church in the Diocese.

St. John's had the biggest confirmation class last year.

St. John's was the only church in the Diocese that gave its full quota to foreign missions; in fact, we doubled it.

St. John's is the only church that has Mr. McHenry —a regular fellow—for a rector, so let us all get in back of him and put this parish house over with a bang.

The dues of the club will be 25 cents a week, and anyone who doesn't get $2 worth of entertainment for his investment can have his two bits back.

And remember that every entertainment held by the Cresson Club is free to members in good standing.

WILLIAM HASSON.

The Other Man

Perhaps he sometimes slipped a bit—
  Well, so have you.
Perhaps some things he ought to quit—
  Well, so should you.
Perhaps he may have faltered—why,
Why, all men do, and so have I.
You must admit, unless you lie,
  That so have you.

Perhaps if we would stop and think,
  Both I and you,
When painting someone black as ink,
  As some folks do;
Perhaps, if we would recollect,
Perfection we would not expect,
But just man half-way correct,
  Like me and you.

I'm just a man who's fairly good,
  I'm just like you;
I've done some things I never should,
  Perhaps like you.
But, thank the Lord, I've sense to see
The rest of men with charity;
They're good enough if good as me—
  Say, men like you.

—Anon.

Our Church Envelopes

All This Year's Church Envelopes Are Due Sunday, November 30

We are quite aware that the continued unemployment has worked much havoc with the family purse. The first consideration must always be the family expenses. Rent, fuel, clothing, food must be paid for in order to maintain life. All other demands must be secondary. Church dues come under the head of secondary consideration. This state of affairs, of course, embarrasses those who are trying to conduct the business of the Church. There are certain imperative debts that must be paid. Fuel, light, sexton, organist, etc., are among such. Consequently we must raise an income from some source. We would suggest that instead of giving nothing towards the church budget that we give a smaller portion for the present until our affairs are on a more satisfactory basis.

This suggestion is to the members who are really suffering from a financial stringency and must retrench. Now we have a word for those whom God has blessed with steady jobs and comfortable incomes. Your thanksgiving ought to be so deep and sincere that you will do your part to make up the financal loss to the church due to the misfortunes of our unemployed members by materially increasing your subscription through your church envelopes. If our suggestion meets your approval we will not feel the reduction in our church finances caused by the retrenchments of the unemployed, because there are scores of our membership who are living comfortably and who owe everything they possess to God, who has blessed them with a bounty greater than their fellows.

We would suggest that our communicants read the sermonette on each church envelope. It will help them to understand why it is more blessed to give than to receive.

NO MAN IS A TRUE CHRISTIAN UNTIL HE HAS LEARNED TO SACRIFICE A GOODLY PORTION OF HIS WORLDLY POSSESSIONS ON THE ALTAR OF HIS FAITH.

My Tomb

Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.
—Joyce Kilmer.

When from man's sphere God summons me
I hope to rest beside some tree.
Beside some tree whose roots may hold
What was my frame when it be mold;
Whose buried arms can reach my place
And fold me in one long embrace.

I hope to lie where leaves may fall
And cover in my mortal all
With blankets russet, green and red
To cool and warm my final bed;
Where one may hear the linnet sing
Her song of nesting every Spring.

I want to sleep where music finds
Expression in the truant winds:
I want to rest where cooling shade
By leafy arms is ever made;
For nearer God no man could be
Than sepulchered beside a tree.
—Joseph R. Cushing.

THE BAZAAR

Our Annual Social Feature and Get-Together Is on the Way

December 4th, 5th and 6th have been chosen as the days upon which to hold this most important event of our Parish year. It is important in two ways. First, the BAZAAR affords an occasion for friends to meet friends. It is a sort of reunion and all of us look forward with pleasure to meeting those whom the busy times of life have kept separated. Then, too, it gives us a chance to make friends of those who have just recently come among us. There is nothing that "breaks the ice" of strangeness like the informality and good fellowship of a BAZAAR.

Another feature of the BAZAAR is its contribution to our Parish current expense chest. It is the one important element in our financial scheme. If we have a BAZAAR that is a money-maker, we are able to pay our bills and live comfortably through the year. The income of the BAZAAR, augmented by the Christmas Offering, Easter Offering, Coal Fund and Church Envelopes, generally enables us to keep out of debt and meet most of our obligations to the Diocese. Incidentally, may we state that it is only by adhering rigidly to this system of financing the Parish that we can hope to keep out of debt. For one member of our parochial family to renounce his or her responsibility for the state of the Parish money chest is a fatality.

The Advantages of the Bazaar

The BAZAAR has advantages for all who have the economy complex. It is always and purposely held just a few weeks before Christmas to give everybody a chance to buy presents at a far less cost than that charged in the stores. Our fancy goods table is full of valuable gifts at less than cost, which no one need be ashamed to give at Christmas time. It may surprise some of us to know that certain friends outside the Parish make it a habit to patronize our BAZAAR because they find so many gifts at such economical prices and save money in purchasing them.

Some Bazaar Booths Worth Mentioning

First of all, there is the FANCY GOODS TABLE, full of all kinds of rich, hand-embroidered work, from milady's handkerchief to table linen and bedspreads.

THE HOUSEHOLD TABLE, loaded with every sort of useful kitchen and household article, including aprons, pot holders, wash cloths, kitchen utensils, etc.

MEN'S FURNISHING TABLE, full of all sorts of men's wear at wholesale prices.

LARKIN'S GOODS TABLE, where every sort of toilet article, household soap, etc., can be purchased. We always have a Larkin's table, because of the high class of the goods and the low price you pay.

THE DINING ROOM, where you get a 75-cent supper for less than a half-dollar and all the trimmings that go with a big supper, too. It is a great opportunity to give the wife a few nights' vacation from the old kitchen stove and get as good a meal cheaper than you could possibly prepare it at home.

THE CANDY TABLE, on which will be home-made fudge made by Miss H. McHenry—fudge you buy at the store—candy for one cent, candy for five cents, candy for 25 cents, candy for even five dollars.

THE DOLL BOOTH, where a bewildering selection of dolls will be on exhibition and sale. There will be tiny little dollies and great big giant babies—blondes, brunettes, white, black, yellow, red, American, English, Dutch, Japanese, etc., etc.

THE JEWELRY TABLE upon whch you can find many a fascinating little trinket as well as a piece of real value and merit. Last year this table sold a $35 duPont toilet set for a ridiculous price.

THE CIGAR STAND, presided over by a young man who has sampled every brand of smokes and will recommend anything he has in stock. He will sell you one cigar or cigarette or a box. He aims to please.

THE GROCERY TABLE, where you can come with a market basket and get everything you need in vegetables and fruit for the Sunday dinner at less than what you pay on South street.

THEN THERE IS MRS. WOODRUFF'S FISH POND! Whatever would St. John's BAZAAR be without that? Ever since we had a BAZAAR Mrs. Woodruff has had a fish pond. Young men and young women of today went fishing in Mrs. Woodruff's fish pond when they were little kids in short pants and pig tails. They can still recall the thrill of opening the package fished from her pond. It was great sport!

How You Can Help

Your help is needed to make the BAZAAR a success. We want you to ask your friends for donations of money or materials. We want you to talk about the BAZAAR and invite all your friends and neighbors to come. We want you to bring all your family and stay to supper at least once. We want you to eat a plate of ice cream with us and treat the girl friend to another. We want you to patronize Mrs. Young's root beer and soft drink emporium and slake your thirst in the flowing bowl. In short we want you to have the time of your life. Be sure to remember the dates:

December 4th, 5th and 6th.

WORKERS-IN-CLAY

(Continued)

Those Who Bought and Sold Bricks for the Parish House

Ashmen, Margaret
Ashmen, Helen
Berkemeyer, C. M.
Bowden's Sea Food Market
Colvey, George
Carroll, Mrs. Fannie
Du Bois, J. Clifford
De Haven, Henry V.
Hamilton, Mrs.
Krause, William
Krause, James
Lewis & Ogborn
Nuttall, Hannah H.
Netter, Theodore
Piccione, Mrs. P.
Quaile, Dorothy
Rebmann, Irene
Raymond, Emma
Raymond, George
Smith, Mrs. R.
Shoch, Mrs. M.
Springer, Mrs. A.
Stenger, W. E.
Stenger, Mrs. W. E.
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, Ethel
Tittermary, Hazel
Tittermary, Irene
Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Mrs. Edward
Wister-Heberton Co.

A LETTER FROM PASADENA

After all life is full of pleasant surprises. A cynic must have an awful time being a cynic. Take, for instance, this fine letter, so full of encouragement and material aid. Your rector was feeling a tiny bit blue just before he got it. The financial atmosphere was a little foggy and he could not see clearly just how, in these days of unemployment and money shortage, he would be able to meet the current expenses of our parish. He almost wondered whether he had been wise in going ahead and building our beautiful Parish House and thus adding to the rest of our worries the extra expense of the interest on that mortgage.

With a sigh he reached for his letter opener and opened this letter. Out fluttered two checks, one from the writer and one from her sister. The letter is so fine and cheery that I know all of you will be interested to read it and to know what real friends in need God is sending us in times of trouble. This gift was a complete surprise and came without any solicitation whatever. God seems to have many such stewards working for Him here.

"Pasadena, California.
"October 6, 1930.

"My Dear Mr. McHenry:

"Congratulations to you and to those who worked with you, at the completion of your attractive Parish House which I am sure you are all enjoying. The roof garden especially appeals to me, for so many will be able to get a breath of cooler air during the warm season.

"'I forgot to remember,' as the person who personates a Jap boy on the radio, says, just when your Bazaar takes place, but enclose checks from my sister and myself for same whenever it may be, and hope the result will be entirely satisfactory—yes, even beyond your highest expectation.

"I have become much interested in your work, and think it wonderful you have now established such a plant where a church was on the point of closing its doors for lack of support. Yet not 'wonderful,' after all, for you entered with faith in our Heavenly Father and He has blessed you and your work.

"Cordially and sincerely"

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

NEXT COMES THANKSGIVING DAY.

* * *

Then Comes the Bazaar

* * *

However did we get along without a Parish House!

* * *

This is a good spot to thank all of our friends from California to London, England, for their voluntary gifts to our Parish Building Fund. To them is really due the credit of making the building possible.

* * *

We do not suppose that unemployment has affected St. John's Parish any more than it has any other downtown Parish. But we do know we have scores of men and women who are idle and who are suffering for the necessities of life. If any parishioner happens to hear of a vacant job he cannot fill himself, it will be a big favor if he reports it to the Rector, who no doubt will know somebody who can fill it.

* * *

First Sunday School session was attended by 213 scholars. The second by 218. From now on our attendance will be going up and up and up.

* * *

Several Sunday School scholars changed their addresses since last spring. Anybody knowing of any such changes will do us a big favor by sending us notice of such.

* * *

SUNDAY, NOVEMBSR 13, AT 9 A. M., THE THIRTEENTH ANNUAL NATION-WIDE CORPORATE COMMUNION OF THE MEN AND BOYS OF THE CHURCH WILL BE CELEBRATED. ALL THE MEN AND BOYS OF ST. JOHN'S PARISH ARE ASKED TO BE AT THE 9 O'CLOCK CELEBRATION ON THAT DATE.

* * *

The new packages of church envelopes will be distributed on the First Sunday in Advent. Please notify the Parish Visitor, the Treasurer or the Rector if you want a package. A reasonable contribution made regularly is much better than a big contribution given only occasionally.

* * *

Did you notice the amazing list of baptisms, weddings and burials in our last issue? Seems as though St. John's Church is very much needed where it is.

* * *

The Summer Bible School was most successful. We were just a little sorry when the time came to go back to our Autumn program.

* * *

Now, never forget that you are a member of Old St. John's and as such you have a special interest in the spiritual welfare of every man, woman and child in the parish. You are most emphatically your brother's keeper and your brother is he who needs your aid and comfort, whether he be stranger or enemy. Do your duty and do it well wherever and whenever you can.

* * *

Our Bazaar—December 4, 5, 6

Church Vocabulary

As noted in previous issues, the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany, Philadelphia, has published what we think is one of the most helpful pamphlets ever issued to churchmen, under the title of CHURCH VOCABULARY. It is so important that we have been publishing a portion of its contents in the BROADCASTER and will continue to do so until we have published the whole of it. This number contains the fifth installment. We advise the BROADCASTER readers to keep each issue ever handy.

Diocesan Matters

Bishop—The highest of the three Orders of the Sacred Ministry (Bishops, Priests and Deacons). It is derived from the Greek word, Episcopos, the transition being Episcopus, Biscob, Bishop; the "p" and "b" melting into each other by innersion and elision. The word means overseer. The functions of a Bishop are to rule his diocese, ordain to the Ministry, administer Confirmation, consecrate Church buildings, etc.

Bishop Coadjutor—When a Bishop of a Diocese by reason of old age or other permanent cause of infirmity, or by reason of extent of territory, is unable to discharge his Episcopal duties, a second Bishop may be elected by and for the Diocese to assist the first in his work. In case of the death of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor succeeds him in his office and becomes Bishop of the Diocese.

Bishop Suffragan—From the Latin verb, suffragor, to assist. An auxiliary or assistant Bishop. In the English Church, one consecrated for service in a limited portion of the Diocese. In this Church, however, where the office is a new one, only created by the General Convention half a dozen years ago, he is rather one consecrated with limited rights and duties. He has a seat but no vote in the House of Bishops, and his election does not carry the rite or even furnish the supposition of succession to the Bishop he is chosen to assist.

Missionary Bishop—A Bishop elected by the House of Deputies of the General Convention, on nomination by the House of Bishops, and consecrated to exercise Episcopal functions in States or Territories, or parts thereof, not organized into Diocese. Missionary Bishops are in the same manner nominated, elected and consecrated for the work of the Church in Foreign Fields.

Bishop's Charge—Title I, Canon 19, Section IX of the Canons of the General Convention makes the following provision: "It is deemed proper that every Bishop of this Church shall deliver, at least once in three years, a charge to the Clergy of his Diocese, unless prevented by reasonable cause. And it is also deemed proper that, from time to time, he shall address to the people of his Diocese Pastoral Letters on some points of Christian doctrine, worship or manners." Usually this practice prevails once a year instead of once in three.

Bishop's Visitation—Title I, Canon 19, Section X of the general Canons of the Church provides that "Every Bishop shall visit the Churches within his Diocese at least once in three years, for the purpose of examining the state of his Church, inspecting the behavior of his Clergy, administering the Apostolic rite of Confirmation, ministering the word, and, if he think fit, administering the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to the people committed to his charge." This also happens in this Diocese once a year.

Presiding Bishop—The name given to a Bishop of the Church, elected for a term of ten years. He presides, the year throughout, over the Executive Council. When the Convention is not in session, he has special duties and functions, all of which are defined in detail in the Canons.

Broadcasting from Laughland

The Magic of Sunshine

People who radiate sunshine have a faculty of turning the common water of life into the most delicious of wine. Their cheery salutation is like the coming of the morning after a long, dark night. Their smile acts upon a sad heart like magic. It dispels the fogs of gloom and despair as the sun dispels the mists which hang over a stagnant swamp.

These sunshine characters are public benefactors. Few, if any, really benefit by the money millionaire, but everybody is enriched who comes in contact with the millionaire of good cheer. And the more he gives of his wealth, the more it multiplies.

It is like the seed put into the ground—the more one sows, the greater the harvest.

* * *

Bill Lost the Bet

Three old cronies, Jim, Tom, and Bill, were out late one night enjoying themselves, when they suddenly became conscience stricken, and decided they had not acted properly in leaving their wives alone so long. So they decided that the only way to make up for their neglect was for each of them to do exactly what his wife told him to do when he got back home. To make sure, they agreed that if any one of them should fail to do what his wife ordered he should pay for a dinner for the three couples.

The first man went home and entered the front door very quietly. But as he felt his way toward the stairway, he had the misfortune to stumble against the piano, and strike the keys. The noise woke up the wife, and she yelled down at him: "That's right! Smash the piano!" So, in order not to lose the bet, he had to go out to the back yard, get the ax and smash up the piano.

The second man was lucky enough to get to the stairs of his home. But the cat was sleeping on the bottom step, and he stepped on her tail. She let out a screech, and the man's wife let out another: "What you trying to do? Why don't you go and kill the cat?" So he had to get his gun and shoot the poor cat.

The third man got as far as the top of the stairs, and there he stumbled over a rug and made a noise that waked up his wife. "Hey, clumsy," she yelled at him, "fall downstairs and break your neck!"

But he preferred to pay for the dinners.

* * *

Easy Divorces

Dr. James J. Shields, head of the New Jersey Anti-Saloon League, said at a Trenton banquet:

"Some people are horrified about the Russian divorce laws. A divorce costs 60 cents in Russia, and you get it in 10 minutes.

"But are our American divorce laws so faultless? A man went to a divorce lawyer the other day and said:

"'I wish to find out if I have legal grounds for divorce.'

"'Are you married?' said the lawyer.

"'I am.'

"'You have.'"

* * *

Rather Common

"Did you ever see a $30 bill?"

"No."

"Well, here's one from my dentist."

* * *

Efficient

Jim—"You say your landlady is a gossip?"

Jack—"Yes, she not only keeps roomers, but she also spreads rumors."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

* * *

The reason our dreams do not come true is that we just keep on dreaming.—Albany News.

* * *

Even As You and I

When Noah sailed the ocean blue,
He had his troubles, same as you.
For days and days he drove the ark
Before he found a place to park.

* * *

Poetic Justice

News Headliner: "Bandits hold up and rob three taxi drivers."

The Poor Rich Man

There was once a very rich man, and he had a dream. He thought that he had gone to another world, that seemed heaven to him, and he started to search for his house. There were beautiful homes on the street down which he walked, but there was one more radiant than the rest.

"That must be my house," he thought. "I had the finest one in town, when I was down on earth, and surely up here I shall have one equally wonderful."

He admired the lawns and the flowers as he walked to the door and hoped that his neighbors on earth would know what a wonderful house he had found in heaven. Some of them had thought that he was selfish and hoped that he would be a little poorer in heaven.

When he reached the door, the man stopped in amazement. His name was not written on the door-plate, but, instead, he saw the name of his laundress.

"But there must be a mistake. She lived in a bare, little shack down in the world. She wouldn't know how to act in that palace! I'll see that it is changed," the former rich man said.

He walked down the street, thinking that perhaps the next house might be his future home, but the name of a man who lived in a little house near him—a man who wore shabby clothes, but who had laughing eyes and always had time to help people—was on that house.

So the former rich man walked down the street. The houses became poorer after while, and still his name did not appear. Finally, at the far end of the street, his name was written on the door of a very poor, little cabin.

The man hurried to find an angel. "There has been a mistake," he shouted so loudly that his words echoed through the street. "My laundress' name is written on that beautiful mansion, and my name appears on that mean, little cottage. She is used to a poor cabin and I am used to a luxurious home. Someone has mixed the cards. She should have my cabin and I must have her palace."

Then the angel smiled, and in his eyes there shone wisdom that is older than the oldest dreams. "Ah! no, there has been no mistake," he said. "We in heaven must build your future home with the material you send us. Your laundress sent kind deeds and unselfish acts every day, so we had enough to make that mansion. But you didn't send us anything but a stray kindness once in a very great while. We did the best that we could with the material that you sent us."—From The Arab.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner

2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Customer—"Where is the Corset Department?"
Floorman—"Straight back."
Customer—"No, straight front."—Sparks of Laughter.

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

"Say It With Flowers"

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753

MAX SMITH

Dealer in

Boots, Shoes & Rubbers

S. E. Corner Third and McKean Streets

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

The Holy Communion

Why Should I Go?

There are many men who claim Christian fellowship, and who do not hesitate to call themselves Christians, to whom the reason for the Holy Communion, and its right use, are almost unknown. Other Christian duties are better understood. Men know, more or less perfectly, what Bible study is good for and how it will help them. They see the use of sermons, and something of the value of prayer. But, for many reasons, the Holy Comunion is not understood. It is the purpose of this brief paper to answer some questions in regard to it.

I. What is the Service of the Holy Communion?

1. It is a Service instituted by Christ Himself. "And as they were eating Jesus took bread and blessed it, and brake it and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is My Body. And He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is My Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins." St. Matthew 26: 26-28. See also St. Mark 14: 22-25, St. Luke 22: 15-20, I Corinthians 11: 23-26.

2. It is a Service in which certain words, and certain material elements, i. e., bread and wine, are always used. In other words, spiritual acts of prayer and praise and faith are expressed outwardly by the use of appointed words and symbols. The necessity for the use of some outward means in public worship is now generally acknowledged by all Christians.

3. It is a Service in and through which a certain definite spiritual gift is given by Christ to His people. "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?" I Corinthians 10:16. This gift, according to our Lord's own words, is His Body and Blood: "The spiritual principle and life of Christ's manhood, inseparable from His whole living Self."

4. It is a Sacramental Service. By this is meant that in some way, which we need not try to define, the spiritual gift, i. e., His Body and Blood, is given in and through the material elements, after they have been consecrated by the priest. This is plainly taught in the solemn words of our Lord Himself—"This is My Body, This is My Blood."

5. It is a Sacrificial Service. The Cross of Christ is, of course, the "one sacrifice for sins forever," Hebrews 10:12. Yet the Holy Communion is the showing forth of that sacrifice until He comes again. I Corinthians 11:26. It is, therefore, the Christian sacrifice, once offered on the Cross, yet at the altar, commemorated and represented, day by day. By devoutly offering it Christians may learn their dependence upon the redemptive work of our Lord.

ISSUED BY THE BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW
RT. REV. C. P. ANDERSON, D.D.,
Honorary President.
H. LAWRENCE CHOATE, President
LEON C. PALMER, General Secretary
Church House
202 South Nineteenth Street
Philadelphia, Penna.

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

Ed. Pennington
GARAGE
306-10 REED STREET

Dates to Remember - - December 4th, 5th, 6th

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 4, No. 12 PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER, 1930 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
Joseph Colvey

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Margaret Rutter

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

Margaret Rutter and John Nelson, Councellors
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Lord, George
Long, Howard William
Meinhardt, Sarah Ann
Rutter, Charles Henry

MARRIAGES

Edward Rassman
and Elizabeth Kalesse

Leo J. Whelan
and
Mary Bruce

BURIALS

David Grubb
Edward Mink

WEEKLY CALENDAR

	A. M.	P. M.
Sunday
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

Christmas Is Coming

A Few More Weeks and It Will Be All Over

Christmas is coming! How those three words are affecting different people differently this year. It has been a hard year for all of us. So many have been idle and so many more have been forced to work for such a small wage; while rents, clothing, food, fuel, everything stay high in price. Many a family will have a lean Christmas, we fear. We must think of them this year. We must not think entirely of ourselves and our personal pleasures,—we must try to do something to make it a MERRY CHRISTMAS for some boy or girl, man or woman. If it is only a little candy or a toy or a pair of stockings or a pair of gloves—we certainly must do something,—even if it is only posting a Christmas card.

Why not get a list of poor children of the Parish from Miss Nuttall or Miss Fisher and do a little Santa Clausing on our own account? Lots of folk go carol singing. Why not some of us go Christmas giving? It will mean much to them but more to us. It is the only way to have

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

A Christmas Carol

Swing, Bells; ring Bells;
Sound from loft and steeple:
Sing a happy Yuletide song
For the listening people.
All the birds have flown away
With the summer time;
Ring your music on the air,
Chime, Bells, chime!

Dear Star, clear Star,
Rise on hill and valley,
Silver with your lovely light
Lane and street and alley.
All the flowers have blown away
Blossom, leaf and vine;
Shed your beauty on the world;
Shine, Star, shine!

—Nancy Byrd Turner.

Our Fellowship

We have every reason to be proud of our Fellowship. Certain of its members spent the whole of last summer preparing for a play called "The Littlest Bridesmaid." Even while away on their vacations they took their scores with them and studied their parts. In October they gave the sketch and were most successful. The Fellowship realized $76.50 on the sale of the tickets, all of which they turned into the Building Fund of the Parish House. A few weeks ago they gave a Hallowe'en Party and, after paying their expenses, they gave the receipts to the Building Fund again. The Sunday previous to Coal Sunday the Rector asked the Fellowship to make a donation to the Coal Fund. Instantly one of the young men made the motion that $15.00 be donated to the Coal Fund. As the treasurer reported she had only $18.00 on deposit, we said it would be unfair to expect the Fellowship to give so much but the maker of the motion insisted. At last we compromised on a $10.00 basis.

As it now stands the Fellowship has given almost $100.00 to the Parish this year already. The part we liked the best is the fine spirit they showed in the giving—there was no boasting about it, they just gave and were tickled to death to know they had it to give. If you want your Rector's opinion of the Fellowship he says there is not another such group of young people between the Atlantic and the Pacific.

Another great thing about them is—they are NOT clannish. They are growing every week; they are bringing in new members. The first Sunday we met this fall we were comfortable in the front room of the Parish House with the doors shut. Then we grew so that we were crowded to an uncomfortable degree. Finally, we were forced to open the big folding doors into the Gymnasium and put rows of chairs outside to accommodate them. We are more pleased than we can express at the good fellowship and cheerful cooperation each member of the Fellowship is showing. Evidently their motto for this season is

Giving and Growing

Our Sunday School

Every Sunday this season thus far we have entered the names of new scholars upon our rolls. For illustration on Sunday, October 11th, the day upon which we held our Rally we received twenty-six new members and added scholars to every department from the Kindergarten to the Men's and Women's Bible Classes. We are rapidly becoming the largest Sunday School in Southeast Philadelphia.

A GREAT NEED

If we had three auto busses, one for the section north and two for the south section of the Parish, we would have a school four times larger than it is now. The distances are too long for the real young, and if they come they must use the trolley cars, and that is too expensive for them. When we think of the hundreds of children we ought to have in our Sunday School but who cannot get there because we have no means of transportation, we are almost in a frenzy. Here is a big job to be done and we are not doing it.

We wonder how our members who own automobiles would like to get out on Sunday afternoon and do a real job for our Sunday School? What a fine piece of work they could do if they offered to meet Sunday School scholars at certain spots in the Parish from 2 to 2.30 P. M. Sundays and bring them to Sunday School. Suppose Mr. Doe would volunteer to have his car at Lee and Snyder avenue and Mr. Roe have his at Lee and Washington avenue, and Mr. Smith have his at Second and Mifflin streets, and Mr. Brown have his at Third and Oregon avenue and Mr. Jones have his at Seventh and Mifflin streets each Sunday during the half hour mentioned and would bring as many scholars as each machine would hold, and if any were left over to come back the second time, and if any others remained, to come back the third time, we would have a school full to overflowing and all the work could be done in half an hour. Certainly the proposition is worth thinking over. Here is a real chance to do a big service for St. John's Sunday School. Who will be the first to volunteer?

OUR TEACHING STAFF

A word ought to be said about the faithfulness of our officers and teachers. Almost every Sunday we have 100 per cent. present of our teaching staff. That is the real secret of our size and growth. Some of the classes are enormous but we believe in big classes. What we may lose in teaching effectiveness we gain in good fellowship and establish bonds impossible to break. After all this is the SPIRIT OF RELIGION and that is really what we want. Also, we find it is a help to a teacher to have large classes. There is something very deadening in a class of three or four. It's almost as hard to arouse enthusiasm in such small classes as it is to start a fire in an asbestos plant.

But what we need just now to handle our Sunday School problem effectively is

AN AUTOMOBILE BRIGADE

Our Basketball Teams

We Will Tell You How Good We Are at the End of the Season

Just a reminder that the Cresson Club is still running on all eight cylinders under the direction of our live wire officers.

James Adgate, President.
J. F. Preole, Vice President.
Samuel McDowell, Secretary.
John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

We have engaged as coach for our Basketball teams (of which we have two) Bob Boyer, of the Renaissance Club, Champions of New York City. Before you get this issue we will have had the honor of opening the Mid-City Church League, with the St. James' Club, of Twenty-second and Walnut streets, at our Parish House.

Our teams have been equipped with new uniforms, burnt orange and black. On Tuesday, November 25, 1930, we will play the strong Atlas team, all profits from this game to go to the Coal Fund—two games of Basketball and a Dance for 25 cents. Come out and spend an enjoyable evening and help keep things warm this winter. While on the subject of Basketball the members wish to thank our three good friends, Mrs. Herman Jaeschke and the Misses Margaret Rutter and Kathryn Hasson, for their help in outfitting our teams.

Basketball Schedule.

November 17—St. James', at Cresson.
November 24—Atlas, at Cresson.
December 1—Prince of Peace, at Cresson.
December 8—Berkley, at Cresson.
December 22—Bethany, at Cresson.
Dancing after Games. Admission, 25 cents.

On Wednesday, November 26, 1930, we have our Thanksgiving Dance in the Parish House. DON'T MISS THIS. Those who stayed away from the last one missed something, so don't make the same mistake twice. Tickets are for sale by all the Club members and our three girl friends are in back of this, too. Admission, 25 cents. Keep your eye on this column for further doings in the Parish House.

William Hasson.

IF—YOU ARE

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think you dare not, you don't;
If you like to win but you think you can't,
It is almost certain you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you've lost;
For out of the world we find
Success begins with a fellow's will;
It's all in the state of the mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are;
You've got to think high to rise;
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.
Life's battles don't always go
To the strongest or fastest man;
But soon or late the man who wins
Is the man who thinks he can.

NEVER RUNS DRY

The tongue of a seventy-five foot whale has been known to yield over a ton of oil. That's nothing. The human tongue produces every day enough applesauce to feed an army, sufficient banana oil to supply the gilders of truth for a long time, and that darn thing never runs dry.

The Standing Army

Contributors to the Coal Fund

Beck, Robert
Beck, Edith
Beisser, Mrs. Charles
Beisser, Miss Mamie
Beisser, Charles
Bender, Mrs. Caroline
Blech, Charles
Bricker, Mrs. Jennie
Brinckman, Mrs. Rebecca

Capie, William
Clark, Katherine
Clark, Harry B.
Colvey, Miss Maria
Colvey, Joseph
Connelly, Marie A.
Corson, Mrs. Mary

Daughters of the King
Deitrich, Marie A.
Dingler, Mrs. A.
Dunbar, Mrs. A.
Dunbar, Elizabeth
Dysert, John
Dysert, Mrs. John

Emberschied, Mrs. Annie
Evans, Thomas

Feinauer, Amy B.
Fisher, M. Beatrice

Greenfield, Robert
Greenfield, Mrs. Lydia

Hasson, Kathryne
Henkle, Mrs. Rebecca

Jackson, Miss Elsie

Kelly, Mrs. Ruth
King, William
Knowlton, Frank, Jr.

Lawrence, James
Little, Mrs. Charles
Little, Charles

McHenry, John E.
McKeown, Mrs. Rebecca
McKeown, James, Sr.
MacVaugh, Mrs. Annie
MacVaugh, Miss Sylvania

MacVaugh, William
Major, William
Matthews, Vernon
Matthews, Mrs. Vernon
Mitchell, Mrs. Madeline

Nelson, Mrs. John, Sr.
Nelson, John J., Sr.
Nelson, John J., Jr.
Nuttall, Miss Hannah H.

O'Donnell, Mrs. Kate
Oliver, Mrs.
Olsen, Miss Genevive

Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, James G.
Pearo, Mrs. Mary A.
Preole, John C.
Preole, James

Read, Mrs. Hannah H.
Reed, Mrs. Lottie
Robins, Mrs. Anna
Robinson, Mrs. Annie
Rutter, Robert
Rutter, Catherine
Rutter, Ruth
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Miss Margaret

Scarinci, Arthur
Scarinci, Mrs. Arthur
Schabacker, Miss Anna
Schmidt, Frank G.
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank G.
Seher, Harry P.
Springer, Mrs. Anna
Stone, William
Strang, Edward
Substal, Mrs. Florence
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Sutterlin, Thelma
Sutterlin, Ethel

Taylor, Ethel E.
Taylor, Benjamin F.
Taylor, Mrs. Sarah

Watts, Miss Sarah
Weber, John
Weber, Mrs. John
Woerner, Rudolph Sr.
Woerner, Mrs. R. Sr.
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Eleanor
Woessner, Charles
Woessner, Mrs. Charles
Woessner, Miss Clara
Woman's Auxiliary
Woodruff, Mrs. Mary
Woodruff, Joseph
Woodruff, Walter
Woodruff, Howard

Young, Mrs. Laura
Young Peoples' Fellowship
Young Women's Christian League

Letters of Appreciation

November 1, 1930.

To the ladies of the Y. W. C. L.

Dear Ladies:

We want you to know how much we appreciate what you did for us on Saturday night. You had 100 per cent. attendance, financial support and co-operation. Will back you in any undertaking, too. Again thank you.

Margaret Rutter,
Elizabeth Jaeschke,
Kathryn Hasson.

November 1, 1930.

Dear Parishioners and Friends:

We would like to take this opportunity of thanking you for your hearty co-operation at our Card Party and Dance. We had a thoroughly splendid time. We feel our undertaking was a success financially and socially. All those who attended expressed a desire to attend another soon.

How about it? Want another? Again thank you.

Margaret Rutter,
Elizabeth Jaeschke,
Kathryn Hasson.

Church Vocabulary

As noted in previous issues, the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany, Philadelphia, has published what we think is one of the most helpful pamphlets ever issued to churchmen, under the title of CHURCH VOCABULARY. It is so important that we have been publishing a portion of its contents in the BROADCASTER and will continue to do so until we have published the whole of it. This number contains the sixth installment. We advise the BROADCASTER readers to keep each issue ever handy.

Diocesan Matters

Chancellor.—An officer of the Diocese, learned in the law, whose duty it is to act as the legal counselor of the Bishop and of the Standing Committee in matters affecting the interest of the Church, as his professional counsel may be asked or required. He presides also at Ecclesiastical Trials, when such are held.

Convention.—An assemblage of Clergy and Laity of the Church met together for the purpose of considering matters of moment and of legislating upon them. These range from a Council, which may be ecumenical, i. e., general, to those merely of local membership. As such, they may be National, Provincial or Diocesan. The Diocesan Conventions meet once a year; the General Convention of the whole Church meets only once in three years.

Deacon.—One who has been ordained to the lowest of three orders of the Ministry. The account of the institution of the Order of Deacons is found in the Book of Acts, Chapter 6, Verses 1 to 7. The record here is that the first Deacons were ordained to attend especially to the benevolent work of the Church, such as caring for the poor. They later became also preachers of the Word. The office of Deacon is still retained in the Church as one of three orders in the Ministry.

Deaconess.—In the Apostles' time there were holy women set apart for the work of the Church. Such for example was Phoebe, who was commended by St. Paul. This Order of Deaconesses continued until about the seventh century, when the changed condition in the Church interfered with its usefulness. In many places the order has of late years been revived and is demonstrating its original usefulness.

Archdeacon.—A Term introduced from the Church of England and applied to a Priest who presides over an Archdeaconry or Convocation. Sometimes he is the General Missionary of a Diocese; sometimes of a prescribed district in a Diocese. In our own Diocese, these divisions are called Convocations and the term preferably employed for the Priest mentioned above is Dean.

Assistant Minister.—A Priest or Deacon who assists or helps the Rector of a Parish in his work is thus called. Sometimes the term "Curate" is employed to designate the Assistant Minister. In this Parish he has no relation to the Vestry. He is not elected but only appointed. The Rector chooses and appoints him; the Vestry merely fix his salary.

Candidate.—The name commonly given to one who is preparing for Holy Baptism or Confirmation. The name is also applied to one who seeks admission to the Sacred Ministry. When thus enrolled he is called a "Candidate for Holy Orders." The more common use in a Parish is that which applies to Candidates for Confirmation.

Dean.—An ecclesiastical title derived from the Latin word decanus, meaning one presiding over ten. In England, a Dean is an important Church dignitary and ranks next to a Bishop. The word is used in the American Church with a considerable modification of its original meaning. Sometimes he is a functionary of a Cathedral, with a recognized office slightly above that of a Priest of a local parish; sometimes he is the presiding officer of a Convocation.

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

A Merry Christmas to All

* * *

Our fall Sunday School Rally was wonderfully well attended.

* * *

Sunday evening services are holding their own. The young people of the Parish deserve most of the credit for our large congregations. They are coming themselves and are bringing others. THIS IS THE KIND OF CO-OPERATION THAT LIGHTENS THE RECTOR'S BURDENS.

* * *

Unemployment is affecting our church attendance to a slight degree.

* * *

Remember That Christmas Envelope

* * *

Do not forget your Christmas Communion.

* * *

Our Parish House is quickly becoming one of the most popular buildings in South Philadelphia. It is open every night in the week.

* * *

Let us make our Bazaar a big success. We need the money for current expenses.

* * *

Remember the dates of the Bazaar—December 4th, 5th and 6th. Admission tickets, 10 cents, three for 25 cents. Every ticket has a coupon for a 10-cent purchase. If you buy three tickets you are five cents ahead.

* * *

"The Littlest Bridesmaid" was a big success. The Fellowship raised almost $80 by means of the play. Congratulations to the Fellowship.

* * *

Our first dance in the Parish House was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. The young women of the Parish deserve lots of credit for so successfully putting it over. Hope they will do it again and again.

* * *

Another three-act Comedy is on the way. It is called "Looking for Mary Jane." Soon will be ready.

* * *

Patronize Our Basketball Teams—Root for Them

* * *

AGAIN! REMEMBER YOUR CHRISTMAS ENVELOPE AND YOUR CHRISTMAS COMMUNION.

And I Being In the Way The Lord Led Me

A TRUE STORY

In the providence of God I was living for a time at Framingham, not very far from Boston. One day when in Boston on business I met a man, who we will call Mr. X. Hearing I was from Framingham, he said he lived there, and would drive me home, which he did. On the way, in conversation, I learned that while his children went to the Baptist Sunday School he did not go to church. I urged him to go for the sake of the children. He said he would. He also said he did not have a Bible. A friend had sent me some copies of St. Luke's Gospel to distribute, and one was in my pocket. Offering it to him I asked him to read it daily, and he promised to do so.

In the next two weeks we went to Boston together several times, when I contributed the trolley fare toward the cost of gasoline. Each time I endeavored to sow the seed as opportunity offered. One day at his home he introduced me to his wife as the man who gave him the Bible and made him promise to read it. She said he was reading it every day. I know the pastor of the Baptist Church, and told him of the man, whom it seemed he had married. I also introduced him to several business men who were officers in the Baptist church, who promised to look after him. At that time special services were being held in that church, and at one of them the pastor saw Mr. X and his wife.

At the end of the two weeks Mr. X stopped going to Boston, and I did not see him again. Who will say that the Lord did not make my path cross his for that short time for the express purpose of influencing him for good? Surely, it was no chance. Our God does not work that way.

THE STORKE

(Written in the Sixteenth Century)

The storke shee rose on Christmas Eve
And said unto her broode,
"I nowe must fare to Bethlehem,
To view the sonne of God."
Shee gave to eche his dole of mete,
Shee stowed them fayrlie in,
And far shee flew, and faste shee flew,
And came to Bethlehem.
"Nowe where is Hee of David's lynne?"
Shee asked at house and halle.
"Hee is not here," they spake hardlye,
"But in the Maungier stalle."
"Shee found Hym in the Maungier stalle
With that most Holye Mayde.
The gentyle storke shee wept to see
The Lord so rudely layed.
Then from her pauntynge brest shee pluckd
The fethers whyte and warm;
Shee strawed them in the Maungier bed
To kepe the Lord from harm.
"Now blessed be the gentil storke
For evermore," quothe Hee.
"For that shee saw my sadde estate
And showed such pytye.
Full welkum shal shee ever bee
In hamlet and in halle,
And called hence-forthe the Blessed Byrd
And friend of babyes all."

Where the Commandments Occur—Genesis

1. Gen. xxv, 2.
2. Gen. xxxi, 34.
3. Gen. xxiv, 3.
4. Gen. ii, 3.
5. Gen. xxvii, 41.
6. Gen. iv, 9.
7. Gen. xxxviii, 24, Gen. xxxiv, 31.
8. Gen. xliv, 7.
9. Gen. xxxviii, 20.
10. Gen. xii, 7, Gen. xx, 3.

Broadcasting from Laughland

THE GREAT AMERICAN TRAGEDY

"Mother," said the twelve-year-old boy, "have I got a daddy?"

"Yes, son," replied the mother.

"Then where is he? I don't remember ever seeing him."

"You haven't seen him since you were a little baby," replied the mother, with a sob in her voice, "but I hope and pray you will see him soon. I expect him home in the next year or two."

"But where is he?" persisted the boy.

"He's waiting his turn to get on the public golf links," explained the mother.—Exchange.

* * *

The following has application nearer home than some care to confess: The old church bell had long been cracked; its call was but a groan. It seemed to sound a funeral knell with every broken tone. "We need a bell," the brethren said, "but taxes must be paid. We have no money we can spare. Just ask the ladies' aid." The shingles on the roof were old; the rain came down in rills. The brethren slowly shook their heads and read the monthly bills. The chairman of the board arose and said, "I am afraid that we shall have to lay the case before the ladies' aid." The preacher's salary was behind; the poor man blushed to meet the grocer and the butcher as they passed him on the street. But nobly spoke the brethren then: "Pastor, you shall be paid. We'll call upon the treasurer of our good ladies' aid." "Oh," said the men, "the way to heaven is long and hard and steep. With slopes of ease on either side, the path is hard to keep. We cannot climb the heights alone; our hearts are sore dismayed! We ne'er shall get to heaven at all without the ladies' aid."—The Baptist.

* * *

Love is like eating mushrooms. You don't know whether it's the real thing until it's too late.

* * *

A Hebrew storekeeper, much to the surprise of his brethren, suddenly decorated his window with a gorgeous new blind.

"Nice blind of yours, Isaac," remarked one of them.

"Yes, Aaron."

"What did it cost you?"

"It didn't cost me nothing. My customers paid for it."

"What! Your customers paid for it?"

"Sure. I put a leedle box on my counter, 'For the Blind,' and they put in the money."

* * *

PA KEPT COUNT

Whether or not the girls of today are more demure, reserved and circumspect than their grandmothers when they were young is a matter still to be decided. And just how long a young woman should be in dis-

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets
SPECIAL PRICES FOR Fresh Killed Turkeys and Chickens
For Christmas and New Year

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

CHRISTMAS CANDIES
Fine Mixtures and Chocolates
Hard and Filled Candy
Fancy Packages in 1, 2 and 5-lb. Boxes
Large Variety of Old-Fashion Candies
Geilfus Candy Store
(ELIZABETH JAISER)
1444 South Second Street
(Corner Dickinson Street)

BEAUTIFUL GIFTS
For All the Family
Store Orders Accepted

S. GROSS
1614 South Second Street

Thomas Magee
Printer—Stationer—Engraver
A Stock of Well-Selected
CHRISTMAS CARDS
44 South Second Street

missing a beau at the front steps is another matter. Recently a Brookline mother told her daughter she wished she wouldn't stand on the steps with her beau quite so long.

"Why, mother, I stood only for a second when we returned last night."

"That may be, but your father, who was listening, thought he heard a third and fourth and fifth."—Boston Globe.

* * *

INCOGNITO

Social Worker—"And what is your name, my good man?"

The Convict—"999."

S. W.—"O, but that's not your real name."

Con.—"Naw, that's only me pen name."—Bucknell Bell Hop.

* * *

REAL ECONOMY

The Scotch grocery salesman hailed a cab.

"How much to take me to the Majestic Hotel?" he asked.

"One dollar and seventy-five cents."

"And how much for my suitcases?"

"Oh," said the cabman, "I'll take those for nothing."

"Fine! Take the suitcases, I'll walk."—Haysco Spigo.

* * *

The train halted for a moment at the station and the traveler reached out, called a small boy, and said: "Son, here's 50 cents. Get me a 25-cent sandwich and get one for yourself. Hurry up."

Just as the train pulled out, the boy ran up to the window. "Here's your quarter, Mister," he shouted. "They only had one sandwich."

* * *

SALESMANSHIP

"Shine your shoes, mister?"

"No time, sonny."

"Well, to start the day right I'll do one for nothing."

"All right, go ahead."

"There, how does she look, boss?"

"Fine."

"Well, for 15 cents I'll do the other one."—Blue Fish.

* * *

City Parson (to sexton at the country church)—"How are your evening congregations up here?"

Sexton—"There ain't nobody comes to church Sunday nights. They all stays home and listens to the radiators."

* * *

Waiter (to newly-married couple)—"Is there anything else, sir?"

Groom—"Yes, a honeymoon salad, sir?"

Waiter—"And what is a honeymoon salad, sir?"

Groom—"Lettuce alone."

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

"Say It With Flowers"

FRANK C. QUINN

Florist

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753

MAX SMITH

Dealer in

Boots, Shoes & Rubbers

S. E. Corner Third and McKean Streets

CHAIR CANING

UPHOLSTERING SEWING

PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER

and

EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

Helpful Waiter—"What about some tongue, sir?"

Mr. N. Peck—"Had that this morning."

Helpful Waiter—"Well, then, how about some cold shoulder, sir?"

Mr. N. Peck—"Shall get that tonight!"—Montreal Family Herald.

* * *

A STRANGER AT THE GATE

"What's the price of this coat?" asked the lady customer of the proprietor of a clothing store.

"That one is $50.00," was the reply.

"Too cheap," sighed the lady, "I want a coat of quality."

The clothier shuffled up the coats and produced the same coat. He offered it for $100.00 this time, and the lady bought it.

After she had done, a minister who had been standing nearby came over and said: "Can you account for the right of that in the Scriptures?"

"Certainly," replied the clothier, and he referred to that part which says, "She was a stranger, and I took her in."—Haysco Spigot.

* * *

To Tom, who had been cutting up, his mother exclaimed, wearily: "Why can't you be a good boy?"

"Well, mother, I'll be good for a nickel."

Mother—"For shame, you ought to be like your father, good for nothing."—The Open Road.

* * *

ALL SORTS

"Is this a drug store?"

"Yes."

"Do you keep books?"

"We do."

"I wish a novel."

"Sleepy, weepy or creepy?"—Grins and Groans.

* * *

"When did you first become acquainted with your husband?"

"The first time I asked him for money after we were married."—Gaiety.

* * *

PERSISTENT

Two little urchins were watching a barber singe a customer's hair.

"Gee!" said one, "he's hunting 'em with a light."—Material Facts.

Auerback's Baby Shop

Christening Set a Specialty

Lombard 9385 317 SOUTH STREET

Residence, 105 Pierce St. Phone, Jackson 7428

Full Line of Christmas Wreaths

James T. Vile
FLORIST
1727 So. 2d Street
Cemetery Designs for Christmas
Fresh Cut Flowers Daily Flowers for All Occasions

BOYS WANTED

Boys Between the Ages of 12 and 15 Years Wanted to Organize a—

Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew

First Meeting in the Parish House
Tuesday, December 9th, 1930
8 P. M.

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes
315 South Street
Formerly of S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

AL. KUBEL
Ice Cream Parlor
1401 E. Moyamensing Ave.

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055

OYEN'S BAKERY
1713 South Second Street
Formerly of 120 Porter Street
Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M.
WEDDING and BIRTHDAY CAKES a Specialty

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 5, No. 1 PHILADELPHIA, JANUARY, 1931 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
Joseph Colvey

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Margaret Rutter

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Rutter
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Rutter, Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

Margaret Rutter and John Nelson, Councellors
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Hatty, Catharine Estella
Rutter, Helen Evelyn
Stockman, Florence Ellen

BURIALS

Boyle, James G.
Forster, William
Stone, Lauretta E.
Hessington, Benjamin

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

To the New Year

Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
The flying cloud, the frosty night:
The year is dying in the night;
Ring out wild bells, and let him die.

Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring happy bells, across the snow.
The year is going, let him go;
Ring out the false, ring in the true.

Ring out the grief that saps the mind,
For those that here we see no more;
Ring out the feud of rich and poor,
Ring in redress to all mankind.

Ring out false pride in place and blood,
The civic slander and the spite;
Ring in the love of truth and right,
Ring in the common love of good.

Ring out old shapes of foul disease,
Ring out the narrowing lust of gold;
Ring out the thousand wars of old,
Ring in the thousand years of peace.

Ring in the valiant man and free,
The larger heart, the kindlier hand;
Ring out the darkness of the land,
Ring in the Christ that is to be.

—Alfred Tennyson, 1850.

WILLIAM FORSTER

It is very fitting that the translation of WILLIAM FORSTER from his life of service here to his entrance into eternal life, Wednesday, December 17th, be recorded upon the annals of St. John's Parish. For nearly eighteen years he has been an active and leading member and has contributed much to the success of the Parish. For many years he was delegate to the Diocesan Convention and represented the Parish upon many important occasions. Having a peculiar aptitude for finances he soon became an important and reliable member of the Committee on Finances. His special work was the building up of the EIGHTY-FIVE CLUB. For several years he gave all his attention to it and relinquished his duties only when infirmities of age made it impossible to continue. During the world war he was of great value to the Rector in giving advice as to how the church funds should be invested to help along the cause of the nation. It was largely due to his wise judgment that the Sunday School Lenten Offering grew to such large proportions that it startled the churches of the Diocese into recognizing the importance of this parish as a missionary factor.

Personally, WILLIAM FORSTER was a man of strong character. The Rector has known him intimately for nearly a generation and he cannot recall one dishonorable act or one word of gossip uttered by him. If he could not say anything good of a person, he said nothing at all. He was a man who hated hypocrisy and a lie. He was always straight and square in all his dealings. He never criticized nor censured, but he was ever ready to advise where he thought advice would be understood and appreciated. He knew that the church, like all other institutions, required money to conduct its affairs and his hand was ever on his purse. He gave liberally to every church need. He was a man who never turned a deaf ear to the cry of need but nobody, not even his Rector, will ever know the number or the extent of his gifts. He never let his left hand know what his right hand gave.

Naturally, he had a host of friends and, although he was advanced in years, he had as many warm and loving friends among the young as he had among those nearer his age.

He was a man who left an indelible impression upon all who knew him. Naturally we are sad to have him leave us but we are glad that it was our privilege to know and love him.

May He Ever Rest in Peace

OUR ANNUAL BAZAAR

Its Success Was Far Beyond Our Expectations

Well, it is over!

Our hopes are more than realized. Our fears are dissipated. As every St. Johnite knows, the prosperity of the Parish rests largely upon our Bazaar. It is, therefore, with a sigh of relief that we realize we have come through with a very respectable balance to our credit. We could not help but feel that the unemployment situation cut deeply into our receipts, and that every employed person made every effort to help. If employment had been normal and the same splendid efforts made our 1930 Bazaar would have gone away over the top.

We must express our appreciation to the men and women who had charge of the many booths. They were prompt to report for duty and they were on the job every night.

Our receipts will run well over $1000. This is just a little less than $100 for last year. This deficit is entirely overcome by the cut in our expenses this year. Knowing it was going to be a hard year to sell goods we bought carefully where it was necessary to buy.

We still have some articles on hand. Things that would make good and inexpensive Christmas presents. For men we have a line of splendid socks at 35 cents a pair, three pairs for $1.00. Also finest linen handkerchiefs, packed three in a box, for 75 cents per box. There are a few very beautiful dolls left that will just suit sister for Christmas. Rather than carry them over for a year, we will sell them at 15 per cent. discount, as we say there are only a few left. We would like to call mother's attention to the big assortment of all-wool finely woven stockings. They are good and warm. Many of them are marked $2 per pair. None is less than $1.50. We are selling out at 20 cents per pair while they last.

In about the middle of January we will have our usual supper and little Bazaar, when what is left of these goods will be sold, BUT NOT FOR LESS THAN WE ARE ASKING NOW.

Our New Parish House

God Surely Meant That We Should Have It

The most wonderful experience with miraculous occurrences of our ministry was the building of our new Parish House. For years and years we had dreamed and talked of it. To many it was just a dream —one never to be realized. All of a sudden, however, things began to happen. First Bishop Garland pledged $25,000, and told us to go ahead and have it built. Then the architect presented plans for a building to cost $38,000. At this point the unemployment situation became very acute and many of our members were thrown out of work and could not help us financially. We were in favor of holding up the operation until times were better. The Bishop insisted that we go ahead. Fortunately we had about $3000 in our building fund. If we went ahead and built it meant placing a debt of $10,000 on the church. We struggled frantically not to take the plunge, but with the Bishop pushing and the architect pushing and the Building Committee pushing at last we went overboard with a splash and a shiver. We did not drown as we expected. On Easter Monday, 1930, we broke ground, and on September 26 we formally opened it. By rare good fortune we were able to negotiate a mortgage for $10,000 at a rate of interest that could be allowed only by a friend. Our MEMORIALS and our CENT-A-DAY system assured us of the interest money. On Saturday, December 6, we received a check for $1150.72 from Mr. Edward H. Bonsall, which was our share of a house on McClellan street that had been sold. Our Parish had one-half interest in the property and the check represented that interest. We applied the money to reducing our mortgage, WHICH NOW IS ONLY $8849.18.

Now, O ye St. Johnites, it is up to each of you to smother this mortgage to death with pennies from our CENT-A-DAY Envelopes.

Forget Your Troubles

When you forget your troubles
And help give others joy,
Life's sorrows soon will leave you
And cease to e'er annoy
Your soul, that is uplifted
By happiness you give
To other souls around you;
Then joyously, you'll live.

You'll cease to worry over
Or, troubles, e'er invent;
But you will count the blessings
That God to you has sent;
Then joyous love will fill you
With happiness divine,
And how your eyes will sparkle
And, with sweet love-light, shine.

But if you fret and worry
And do not do your best,
You then will soon be finding
You'll not with joy be blest.
So look to God and ask him
To help you every day
To always just be living
Life's cheerful, joyous way.

Then many friends will love you
And happiness you'll find,
Because you're always trying
To be so good and kind.
You'll be like magnet drawing
Good people's love to you;
So they'll delight in finding
Nice things for you to do.

Martha Shepard Lippincott.

668 N. Yewdell St., West Philadelphia, Pa.

Each year we should build a step upon which those that follow can climb a little higher, and more safely.

Our Coal Account

New Recruits to the Standing Army

The Following List of Names Is a Continuation of That Published in Last Issue

Anonymous
Adgate, Mrs. Margaret
Adgate, James
Amerman, Mrs. Frank Jr.,
Archer, Mrs. Sallie
Armstrong, Florence M.
Ashman, Dorothy
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Mrs. Margaret

Barnes, Mary
Barnes, William Sr.,
Bedlow, Mrs. Louisa
Blech, Mrs. Jennie
Bunting, Mrs. Walter
Bunting, Walter

Carbarnes, Harry
Carbarnes, Meta
Carbarnes, Elizabeth
Carbarnes, Anna
Chamberlain, Mrs. J. Jr.,
Clerico, Mrs. Mattie
Coyle, John
Cressee, George Jr.,
Cressee, Mrs. George
Cressee, George Sr.,
Cressee, Raymond
Crystal, Joseph R.
Crystal, Harry F.

Davis, Mrs. Margaret
Davis, John W.
Dean, Harry
Clerico, Ferdy
Dean, Mrs. Mary
DeYoung, Mrs. Irene
Drumm, Robert
Dunbar, Irma L.

Erickson, Mrs. Margaret
Fangar, Anna M.
Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Cath.
Fulton, Winthrop

Green, William
Green, Mrs. Emma
Gregory, Mrs. Grace
Gregory, George
Grubb, William
Grubb, Mrs. Pauline
Grubb, Marie C.
Grubb, Rufus

Hartman, Earl Sr.,
Hasson, Mrs. William
Hasson, William
Henderson, Mr. and Mrs.
Hill, William
Hill, George
Hill, Robert
Hill, Mrs. Florence
Holton, Alice P.
Holton, Mrs. Marg.
Holton, Edna
Holton, Joseph

Jaeschke, Gus
Jaeschke, Elizabeth
Jones, Mrs. Fannie
Jones, George C.

Kaiser, Mrs. Emma
Kaiser, Emma M.
Karstein, Elizabeth
Karstein, Lillian
Knowlton, Frank Sr.,
Knowlton, Mrs. Anna
Kraft, Edward
Kraft, Mrs. Ornet
Krause, Mrs. Sarah

Lafferty, Martha
Lenhardt, Mrs. Margaret
Little, William
Little, Mrs. Mary
Ludwig, Mrs. Anna

McCall, James
McCall, William
McDowell, Mrs. Mary
McKeown, Matthew
McKeown, Mrs. Matthew

Maguire, Lydia
Maguire, Mrs. E.
Meyers, Mrs. Mary
Meyers, Charles
Munion, Mrs. Henrietta
Munion, Mary S.
Munion, Harry J.
Murphy, Mrs. Sarah
Murphy, Mrs. Margaret
Nilsson, Hilma

Outen, Elizabeth J.

Patterson, Mrs. A.
Patterson, Mrs. Carrie
Patterson, John Jr.,
Pine, Mrs. Lillian

Rand, Mrs. Mary
Rand, Andrew
Reed, Mrs. Adaline
Reed, Frank
Robinson, James
Rutter, Edward
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Jennie

Schaab, Frederick
Seher, Catherine
Seher, Mrs. Margaret
Shields, Mrs. Bella
Smith, Mrs. Rebecca
Spratt, John
Spratt, Catherine
Spratt, Finley
Spratt, John
Spratt, Thomas
Spratt, Margaret
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, Mrs. Laura
Stone, David
Stone, Elizabeth
Stone, Emily
Stone, Thomas
Strang, Miss Carrie
Strang, Mrs. Elizabeth
Stryker, Mrs. Emma
Sweeney, James

Tittermary, Harry Sr.,
Tittermary, Johanna
Tittermary, Hazel
Tittermary, Mr. & Mrs. E.

Winters, William
Woods, Mrs. Margaret

Young, Miss Viola
Young, George
Young, William Jr.,

Feeling at Home at Home

Observations by One Who Has Studied How Folks Feel at Home at Church

We have often wondered why our young folks leave home so very young. The light has burst upon us at last. The reason is they do not feel at home at home. If we parents will just spend a little thought and ingenuity we are sure to hold our offspring's homing instinct and develop in them a feeling of contentment under the parental roof. Most of our observations have been made in church where our young folk (not all of them) have solved the problem of feeling at home at church.

It appears that it is not necessary to make an expensive task of the venture. A few pieces of chewing gum, a lot of waste paper, a bag of peanuts and a piece of lead pencil are all that one needs to have a perfectly enjoyable time. The chewing gum has several useful properties and is bound to add joy and happiness to the chewer. First, there is the succulence one gets from chewing. Then one can place the soft gum on a chair so that somebody can sit on it and ruin a dress or a suit of clothing. Also, you can stick it under the chair seat or under the table leaf so that somebody can get their fingers in it. Or one can simply drop it on the floor, where it will squish under the tread and get ground in the floor and stuck all over one's shoes. Or one can throw it down the radiator and the stench of burning gum will make everybody in the house sick and drive them out into the open. We can recommend any of these stunts for home use because after years of study of their practice in church they have rendered unfailing satisfaction and pleasure to the young.

Peanuts are a fair substitute for gum. Give the young folks a few bags of peanuts and let them eat them in the parlor, in the living room, in the kitchen, in the bedroom—anywhere in the house and encourage them to throw the hulls on the floor. They will enjoy the past-time as a diversion from the gum games and will revel in the litter the hulls will make.

A penknife is a useful toy to make the young feel at home at home. It is indispensible in carving initials on chairs, tables, doors, piano or any other article of furniture. It will fill your heart full to overflowing with emotion to witness the concentration and contentment of the dear boy as he quietly goes about hacking this and that all over the house. It is amazing to see how much he can do with one knife. Why already he is making himself at home at the Parish House and is carving initials on the door jambs.

Waste paper will keep the dear boys and girls contented at home for hours. They can tear it up in small pieces and scatter it all over the house. They can make spit balls of it and soak you behind the ear most unexpectedly. There are scores of ways they can use waste paper for entertainment and make them feel at home at home. You need not worry as to the source of the waste paper. It will not cost you one cent to provide it. Just leave the dear little ones alone and they will contrive ways of supplying it. In church they get it by tearing leaves out of the hymn books and the Prayer Books—even the Holy Bible is a source of supply. It is wonderful how ingenious the boys and girls can be when it comes to the matter of supplying themselves with means to entertain. We are sure if you have any books or magazines or family albums or rare prints or pictures you can supply sufficient waste paper to make them feel at home at home.

Then as to a lead pencil. It isn't necessary to spend a nickel or a dime for a new pencil. A stump will do —and how. It can be used to write on the walls, on the doors, on the furniture or anything in fact that has any kind of a surface. We know because we have observed how it can be done in church. Then, too, it can be used in writing side-splitting squibs and verse over everything—especially on the fly leaves of books. If you want to know what an original literary genius and artist your boy or girl is, just give him or her a lead pencil stump and turn them loose among your books. We have found all sorts of ridiculous writings and drawings in the church books and Bibles and know.

Of course, there are many other ways of making the dear young feel at home at home. One is to encourage them to jump up on the furniture with their shoes on and scratch it all up. You want to show them how to pick up a chair and throw it with a crash the length of the room every time they want to move it. You want to show them how four or five can sit down at the piano at the same time and knock out a jazz and, incidentally, several keys.

There are lots and lots of other ways you can devise to make folks feel at home at home just as they feel at home at church. But we feel that the few suggestions we have made will open up new vistas and suggest many original things that will keep them contented and help them appreciate their home—maybe.

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

A Happy New Year

* * *

Our annual Bazaar was a most unexpected success.

* * *

SOME GOOD NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS: To attend every means of grace, especially the Holy Communion; to invite my friends and neighbors to accompany me to Divine service; to support my church with my means, both cheerfully and generously; to offer my services to the Rector; to do promptly and gladly any duty he asks of me; to visit the sick of the Parish; to help any brother parishioner who is worse off than we; to encourage our neighbors to bring their babies to the church for christening, and their boys and girls to St. John's Sunday School. Do these things and you will be wild with excitement and enthusiasm at the startling growth of our beloved Parish.

* * *

Just paid off $1150.72 of our mortgage, which reduces it from $10,000 to $8849.18. Now let's keep nicking away at that mortgage with our CENT-A-DAY.

* * *

The names of members giving their CHRISTMAS OFFERING will be published in our next issue. This is to enable those who cannot afford to give until after Christmas to get their names printed in the first list.

Every day is the beginning of a new year.

We hope you had a Merry Christmas. We are sure you did if you tried to make others happy.

Church Vocabulary

As noted in previous issues, the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany, Philadelphia, has published what we think is one of the most helpful pamphlets ever issued to Churchmen, under the title of CHURCH VOCABULARY. It is so important that we have been publishing a portion of its contents in the BROADCASTER and will continue to do so until we have published the whole of it. This number contains the seventh installment. We advise the BROADCASTER readers to keep each issue ever handy.

Diocesan Matters

Deposition.—The word is used in the General Canons descriptive of the act formally of removing a man from the office of the Ministry, as the penalty for offenses enumerated in specific Canons. Deposition can be performed by a Bishop only after sufficient evidence. Sometimes this is furnished merely by confession of guilt on the part of the person so to be deposed; sometimes it awaits the decision of Triers, i. e. of the "jury" in an Ecclesiastical Trial. The words Excommunicate and Unfrock are the one inaccurate and the other obsolete.

Notice of Deposition.—When a Bishop thus deposes a man from the Ministry, he is required to "send notice of such deposition to the Ecclesiastical Authority, i. e., to the Bishop or Standing Committee of every Diocese and Missionary Jurisdiction of this Church, in the form in which the same is recorded." The object of this is to prevent anyone thus deposed in one Diocese from officiating anywhere else in the entire Episcopal Church.

Dismissory Letter.—A letter given by his Bishop to a Clergyman removing from one Diocese to another. The General Canons provide that "before a clergyman shall be permitted to settle in any Parish, or be received into union with any Diocese of this Church as a Minister therein, he shall produce to the Bishop, or if there be no Bishop, to the Standing Committee thereof, a Letter of Dismission from under the hand and seal of the Bishop with whose Diocese he has been connected."

Diocese.—The territorial limits of a Bishop's Jurisdiction. Some consider the Diocese as the real unit of Church life. Originally the Bishop went first in the establishing of the Church in any nation or country. Out of this Diocesan Jurisdiction grew the Parishes or local Congregation, being ministered to by the Priests under the Bishop. In the American Church, through force of circumstances, the reverse of this has been the case.

Diocesan Convention.—The annual gathering of the Bishop, Clergy and Delegates from among the Laity of a Diocese. The Bishop and Clergy represent their own Order, and the people are represented by Delegates selected by the Vestries of the various parishes. The purpose of the Convention is to review the work of the year past, plan for the following, and by legislative acts provide such laws as may further the purpose for which the Diocese exists.

Dispensation.—A formal license, granted by ecclesiastical authority, to do something which is not ordinarily permitted by the Canons, or to leave undone something which may be prescribed. In the American Canons, "dispensation" has special reference to an official act by the Bishop whereby he may excuse candidates for Holy Orders from pursuing certain studies required by a canon, as for example the Study of Hebrew in a Students' Course of preparing for his Ordination.

Broadcasting from Laughland

A good many of the young men who wear wrist watches ought to own alarm clocks.

* * *

MRS. SANTA CLAUS

Rapid fire questions was the order of the morning class hour just before Christmas. "Who is the greatest man in America?" asked the teacher.

"Santa Claus," yelled out a youngster without hesitation.

"The very idea! Why, sonny, you can't even tell me who his mother was."

"Yes, I can; Mary Christmas."

A certain Kansas City clergyman, who had often warned his wife against the danger of carrying her pocketbook carelessly, one day in a bank saw her standing in the embrasure of a large window busily making some calculations on a bit of paper, the end of her pocketbook as usual peeping out of her coat pocket. Thinking to give her a lesson, he slipped quietly through the door, abstracted the pocketbook from the pocket, and departed.

At the dinner table he asked his wife where she had been all day, and what she had been doing. She answered that she had been at home all day mending the children's clothes.

"And you weren't down town?" asked he, growing suspicious.

"No; I have not been down town; why?" she answered.

Taking the pocketbook out of his pocket and laying it beside his plate, he asked if that was not hers.

"By no means!" she said. "I have never seen that pocketbook before!"

The minister did not finish his dinner. He had lost his appetite.

* * *

Ol' Man (to John)—"How far is it from Minneapolis to St. Paul?"

John—"About twelve miles."

Ol' Man (to Jim)—"I say, how far is it from Minneapolis to St. Paul?"

Jim—"Why, about twelve miles."

Ol' Man (to Tom)—"How far is it from St. Paul to Minneapolis?"

Tom—"John and Jim have just told you that it is about twelve miles from Minneapolis to St. Paul. Now, it stands to reason that it would be just as far from St. Paul to Minneapolis."

Ol' Man—"Not necessarily; it is only one week from Christmas to New Year's, but it is nearly a year from New Year's to Christmas."

* * *

Teacher—"Do you think you're the teacher?"

Pupil—"No."

Teacher—"Then why act like an idot?"

* * *

CAUGHT!

Professor (speaking on phone)—"You say that Billy Smith has a bad cold and will not be able to attend school today. Who is this speaking?"

Voice (hoarsely)—"My father."

* * *

GRAMMATICAL TRIANGLE

Teacher (in grammar class)—"Willie, please tell me what it is, when I say, 'I love, you love, he loves—'"

Willie—"That's one of them triangles where somebody gets shot."

* * *

ALL THE SAME TO HIM

Teacher—"This is the worst composition in the class, so I'm going to write a note telling your father about it."

Pupil—"I don't care if you do, because he wrote it."

* * *

AS WE WERE SAYING

A local newspaper recently said that scientists

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 South Street

Formerly of S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Auerback's Baby Shop

Christening Set a Specialty

Lombard 9385 317 SOUTH STREET

have invented an earthquake detector that goes off like an alarm clock. What most of us need is an alarm clock that goes off like an earthquake!—Lehigh Burr.

* * *

"Willie," asked the teacher, "can you tell me why Thomas Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence?"

"Cause he couldn't afford to hire a stenographer, I guess."

* * *

IMPOSSIBLE

Teacher (to boy who is misbehaving)—"James, sit down in front."

James—"I can't. I'm not made that way."

* * *

An angry customer on one occasion came into a grocery store and tossed a package on the counter in great anger. "Makes washing a pleasure, does it?" she blurted out. "Does the washing while you wait, does it? It's the little flakes of soap that—"

"One moment, please, madam," said the clerk. "This is not soap."

"Not soap—not soap?"

"No. Your daughter asked for half a pound of grated cheese and a half pound of soap flakes. This is the cheese."

"My stars, and last night I made a pudding."

* * *

THE POPULAR RED INK

North (commercially inclined)—"How do you spend your income?"

West—"About 30 per cent. for shelter, 30 per cent. for clothing, 40 per cent. for food, and 20 per cent. for amusement."

North—"But that adds up 120 per cent."

West—"That's right!"—The Wilsey Outlook.

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

AL. KUBEL
Ice Cream Parlor
1401 E. Moyamensing Ave.

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055
OYEN'S BAKERY
1713 South Second Street
Formerly of 120 Porter Street
Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M.
WEDDING and BIRTHDAY CAKES a Specialty

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
M. A. Bair, President
1820 Chestnut St., Phila.
Rit. 1581 Race 1110
SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118
"Say It With Flowers"
FRANK C. QUINN
Florist
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753
MAX SMITH
Dealer in
Boots, Shoes & Rubbers
S. E. Corner Third and McKean Streets

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648
Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER
230-232 Queen Street

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 5, No. 2 PHILADELPHIA, FEBRUARY, 1931 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
Joseph Colvey

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nelson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
John Preole, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson, Jr., Councillors
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Dingler, Leslie Sterling.
Dinsmore, Robert Alexander.
Sayres, Elizabeth.
Weissinger, Harry Belmont.
Woerner, Dorothy Hannah.

MARRIAGES

John J. Nelson, Jr., and Margaret A. Rutter.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

Suggested Prayer

For the Unemployed

O Lord our Father, we commend to Thy protecting care and compassion the men and women suffering distress and anxiety through lack of work: Support and strengthen them, we beseech Thee, and so prosper the counsels of those engaged in the ordering of industrial life that Thy people may be set free from want and fear, and may be enabled to labor in security for the relief of their necessities and for the well-being of our people, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Annual Investment

Notes from Our New Year Sermon

The time has come for us to balance our 1930 accounts with God.

On January 1st He capitalized us to the amount of 365 days to invest as we chose. It reminds us of the Parable of the Talents. We are closing out the accounts for the year and we would like to know how have we invested our days—wisely or unwisely. How many did we spend for moral and spiritual improvement? How many in doing good to our neighbor? How many were used in visiting the sick and ministering to the needy? Did we spend any of the days in helping to bear another's burdens? Was any of our time spent comforting those in trouble or in wiping away the tears of the bereaved? How many of the fifty-two golden Sundays—God's special gifts—did we use to His glory and our spiritual profit? How many did we misspend, waste, on sin and selfishness? In short, do our days of good investment overbalance our wasted days of evil? WHAT DOES THE AUDIT SHOW?

Dare we feel proud of the account we are about to render to God? Does it show a safe margin of profit or must we confess ourselves moral and spiritual bankrupt? It is most important that we know where we stand as to our 365 days investment for we are about to close the Record and place it in the archives of time, along with our other years' records, there to remain until the Great Day when all accounts shall be settled between God and ourselves.

The thought of so many days wasted and misspent fill us with uneasiness. Our past Records are not so good that we can afford to show a deficit for the year. Too many bad investments are charged against our account as it is.

However, there is one thought to comfort us. On January 1st of this year God, in His love and mercy showed He was evidently disposed to advance us 365 new crisp days as another loan to us. Are we wise enough to accept this new trust with the determination to profit by our past losses and help redeem some of our bad investments by increasing our future profits in buying up all the gilt edge securities time has for sale. We still have a chance to save ourselves from bankruptcy.

Our Sunday School

Its Activity and Enthusiasm Continues

The after-Christmas slump was surprisingly small this year. What gains we made during the fall and winter seasons seem to be permanent. Our lowest attendance so far is 220 scholars. This figure is not an estimate but is the result of a careful counting of scholars by the Rector himself.

One reason for this fine attendance is the splendid co-operation of our officers and teachers. It is very unusual for us to have less than 100 per cent. attendance of both officers and teachers.

Sunday, January 4, 1931, we had our regular Christmas Season Promotions, which resulted as follows: From the Primary to the Intermediate Department:

CHRISTMAS PROMOTIONS

Girls	Boys
Beck, Catherine	Bennett, Frank
Dean, Margaret	Christiansen, Bernard
Henderson, Viola	Peramo, Tony
Hill, Florence	Stilling, William
Munion, Eleanor
Myers, Mary
Proud, Josephine

Scholars promoted from the Intermediate Department to the Senior Department were:

Robins, Miss Anna, Teacher	McDowell, Mr. Samuel, Teacher
Grier, Marjory	Cucknell, Preston
Harper, Elizabeth	Dinsmore, Thomas
Miller, Eleanor	Henderson, Harry
Pearce, Evelyn	McCall, William
	Seher, Thomas
	Slavey, Joseph
	Spratt, James

There are several girls in the Intermediate Department who will be promoted later in the month if they show improvement in their work.

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

The Parish made a good start in the right direction this year. On the 1st Sunday in January we had the largest regular communion in the history of the Parish.

* * *

Our Sunday School continues to grow. The Kindergarten and the Intermediate Department are especially active.

* * *

On Sunday, January 4, several boys and girls were promoted from the Kindergarten to the Intermediate Class, and two classes, one of girls and one of boys, were formed of advanced scholars of the Intermediate Department to the Senior Department. Miss Anna Robins was appointed teacher for the girls' class and Mr. Samuel McDowell was appointed for the boys' class.

* * *

REMEMBER YOUR CENT-A-DAY OBLIGATION.

* * *

We congratulate the Parish on the increased number of coal contributors this year.

* * *

A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION PRICE FOR THE BROADCASTER IS $1.00. IF IT IS WORTH THAT MUCH TO YOU HOW ABOUT SENDING US $1.00 TO HELP US PAY OUR EXPENSES?

* * *

Now is the time to begin working up our next Confirmation Class. Who is your candidate?

* * *

It would be great if every Parishioner would try for a 100 per cent. record in Church attendance this year. How about it? We need all the spiritual help we can get.

* * *

SOON WE WILL ISSUE THE LAST CALL FOR MEMORIALS, SO YOU HAD BETTER GET BUSY. WHEN ONCE THE TABLET IS MADE NO NAMES CAN BE ADDED.

* * *

Are your Church envelopes paid up to date?

* * *

Have you spent a Sunday evening in the old Church lately? We are having wonderful meetings.

* * *

Smother that Parish House mortgage with a flood of pennies from our Cent-a-Day Pledge.

What Follows Confirmation?

The Duties and Responsibilities of the Confirmed

Confirmation is not the end but the beginning of our spiritual adventure. When the Bishop lays his hands upon us in that most solemn service he places new responsibilities and duties upon our shoulders which we must accept with humility and grace.

In a recent meeting of the FELLOWSHIP the matter of confirmed members contributing to the expenses of the Parish came under discussion. One of our members made the observation that he thought it the duty of every confirmed member of the Church to give what he is able for the support of the Parish. It is one of the many obligations of Confirmation. The speaker is one who shows by his contributions that he personally recognizes this obligation assumed in Confirmation, and he gives generously of his means to every need of the Parish. If this ideal were accepted by all our confirmed members we would have no financial problems; on the contrary, we would be planning new and greater work with the balance of funds we would have on hand.

Other Obligations of Confirmation

We would not have our readers think, however, that the only obligation of Confirmation is to give your money for the support of God's work. There are other—yes, higher, duties than even this necessary sacrifice.

The Obligation to the Family

Confirmation should mean a readjustment of our family relations. It should make such a difference in our acts and words at home that every member of the family circle would see and rejoice in the change.

The Obligation to Work

Confirmed members of the Parish should mean improved members in our daily tasks and in our school work. Confirmation ought to be a challenge to us to show the world how honest and conscientious one becomes when once he put on the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Obligation to Society

We do not think it is at all necessary for a newly confirmed to "shun evil companions" altogether. Many an "evil companion" may be a dear friend—worthy of the name of friend. If he had anything worth while he would take special delight in sharing it with us. It seems to us, therefore, that if we accept the Lord Jesus as our Saviour and then turn the cold shoulder upon our old friend and well-wisher just because he was an "evil companion" that we are not playing the game. He always shared with us why not share Jesus Christ with him. That's the only way to treat a pal. That's the way Jesus Christ treats HIS evil companions—you and me.

Obligations to Every Means of Grace

A person must be singularly stupid who does not realize that after Confirmation come the obligations of Holy Communion; of loyalty to the Church, of regular attendance to Sunday morning and evening prayer; of response to every call to duty such as ushering in the church, singing in the choir, teaching in Sunday School, visiting the homes of the poor and the sick, joining and actively supporting the Parochial organizations, boosting the church among strangers, inviting folks to come to church with you, making every stranger feel that he is most welcome and urge him not only to come again but bring a friend with him and get tangled up in the work of the Church and become one of us; boosting your Rector to outsiders. Even if he is human and makes lots of mistakes after all said and done he is the one who marries you, who christens your babies, who often helps in time of need, who teaches you the way of life, who advises you in trouble, who visits your sick, who brings you to the Bishop for Confirmation, who is among the last to stand by you and pray for the repose of your soul as you go to your final abode in the bosom of Mother Earth.

Yes, there are many obligations attending Confirmation; but with each obligation comes a compensation which is infinitely sweeter and more beautiful than any duty. Then, too, there is the blessed consciousness of the approbation of God. A faithful servant has no difficulty to hear Him say, "Well done."

The Lenten Season

Scarcely is Christmas over when we find ourselves face to face with the Lenten season—a season, the importance of which is becoming stressed more and more by the Church. The hustle and bustle of modern life tends to distract us so completely that we would give little if any thought to our spirit needs were it not for the imperative intrusion of these forty days. We are brought to a stop to consider many things needful for our soul's health.

We need to spend more time in prayer and in reading God's Holy Word.

We need to practice more the Christian acts of charity and service.

We need to give more thought to regularity in attending every means of Grace the Church offers.

We need to give special and serious attention to the Holy Communion.

We need to give some of our time to soul hunting for God.

And we need every hour and every minute of the Lenten season to put over this program. Ash Wednesday is February 18. If we begin NOW to prepare for the Lenten season we will not start too soon.

During Lenten Season we will have special Litany service and address every Wednesday evening. We hope to have now and then a visiting clergyman to speak for us. Every Sunday evening we will have special evening services which we hope will be beneficial to all of us. We need the loyal support of every member of the Parish to make these meetings interesting. We are asking the men's and women's Bible classes, the Woman's Auxiliary, the Young Women's Christian League, the Girls' Scouts, the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Senior Brotherhood, the Daughters of the King, our basketball teams, and especially our choir, to co-operate with us to make our Lenten services a success and a benefit to all.

$1,000.00

FOR THE

Parish House Mortgage

MUST BE RAISED

THIS LENTEN SEASON

YOU are responsible for YOUR share

Broadcasting from Laughland

GAPING CAVITY

Null—"I started out on the theory that the world had an opening for me."

Void—"And you found it?"

Null—"Well, rather. I'm in the hole now.

NEITHER WAS CUSTOMER

Irate Customer—"I opened this bottle of milk as soon as I got home, and it was sour; how do you explain that?"

Clerk—"Well, madam, the cow wasn't contented."—Boston Beanpot.

DISCRETION

"Rastus, I'll give you five dollars to have your picture took inside the cage with the lion."

"No, suh, boss, not me."

"You needn't be afraid. He hasn't any teeth," replied the circus owner.

"He doan need none. Jess his reputation's nuff."

PURE REASONING

Teacher—"Which is farther away, Mary, England or the moon?"

Mary—"England, teacher."

Teacher—"What makes you think that?"

Mary—"Well, teacher, I can see the moon but I can't see England."

LEARNING

An old Southern planter met one of his former negroes whom he had not seen for a long time.

"Well, well," said the planter. "What are you doing now, Uncle Amos?"

"I'se preachin' of de gospel."

"What! You preaching?"

"Yassah, marster, I'se a preachin'."

"Well, well! Do you use notes?"

"Nossuh. At the fust I use notes, but now I demands de cash."

He—"Your lipstick is coming off."

She—"No, it isn't."

He—"It is."

She—"I'm sure it isn't."

He—"Listen! Anytime I get as close as this to a girl her lipstick is coming off."

Mother (teaching son arithmetic)—"Now take the Spinks family. There is mother, daddy and the baby. How many does that make?"

Son—"Two and one to carry."

"Has your husband given up golf?"

"Yes, but he still uses the language when he has to change tires."

We have a dandy school yell now—we give the names of four Russian battleships, then a sis-boom-bah and the names of two Chinese generals.

Teacher—"Johnny, where was the Declaration of Independence signed?"

Johnny (thoughtfully)—"Um-m-m-er, at the bottom, wasn't it?"

Teacher—"Johnny, I'm only punishing you because I love you."

Johnny—"I wish I was big enough to return the love."

TOO MUCH IS ENOUGH

Harold's mother was giving a party. She told the little fellow that whenever he passed in front of anyone he must say "Excuse me." Harold made many trips back and forth, and got tired of repeating the same phrase over and over, so he finally said: "Ladies and gentlemen, please excuse me for the whole evening."

NOT SO DUMB!

Teacher—"Why, Jimmy, have you forgotten your pencils again? What would you think of a soldier going to war without a gun?"

Jimmy—"I'd think he was an officer."

"Let me kiss those tears away," he begged tenderly.

She fell into his arms and he was busy for the next few minutes. And yet the tears flowed on.

"Can nothing stop them?" he asked breathlessly.

"No," she murmured, "it is hay fever, you know. But go on with the treatment."

A rookie received a severe lecture one day from his sergeant. The next day he passed the sergeant without saluting. "Hey, youse, why don't you salute me?" yelled the sergeant. "Aw," said the rookie, "I thought you was still mad at me."

Single Noble—"What is the best month to get married in?"

Married Noble—"Octemburary."

Single Noble—"There isn't such a month."

Married Noble—"Quite right, my boy."

The Judge (sternly)—"Well, what's your alibi for speeding sixty miles an hour through the residence section?"

The Victim—"I had just heard, your honor, that the ladies of my wife's chapter were giving a rummage sale and I was hurrying home to save my other pair of pants."

The Judge—"Case dismissed."

St. John's Christmas Party

Following Are the Names of Those Who Joined the Party by Bringing in Their Christmas Envelopes

Adams, Mrs. Helen
Adgate, James
Adgate, Mrs. Margaret
Alloway, Earl
Alloway, Catharine
Amerman, Jr., Mrs. Frank
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Armstrong, Florence M.
Ashman, Mrs. Margaret
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Dorothy

Barnes, Miss Ethlyn
Barnes, Mrs. Cecelia
Baus, Mrs. Annie
Bedlow, Mrs. Louisa
Bedlow, Mrs. Anna
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Mrs. Charles
Beisser, Miss Mamie
Bender, Mrs. Caroline
Blech, Mrs. Jennie
Blech, Charles
Bricker, Mrs. Jennie
Bunting, Mrs. Walter
Bunting, Walter
Burns, George

Carbarnes, Anna
Carbarnes, Elizabeth
Carbarnes, Harry
Carbarnes, Meta
Chamberlain, Jr.,
Mrs. James
Chestnut, Reba
Chestnut, Jr., Robert
Chestnut, Miss Jennie
Clark, Mrs. Kathleen
Clark, Harry B.
Clendenning, Charles
Clendenning, William
Clendenning, Jennie
Clerico, Mrs. Mattie
Clerico, Ferdy
Colvey, Joseph
Colvey, Miss Maria
Connelly, Mrs. C.
Connelly, Marie A.
Cooper, Mrs. Helen
Coyle, John
Cressee, Sr., George
Cressee, Sr., Mrs. George
Cressee, Jr., George
Cressee, Raymond
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Crystal, Harry F.
Crystal, Joseph R.
Cunningham, Walter

Darr, Walter
Daughters of the King
Davis, John W.
Davis, Mrs. Margaret
Dean, Harry
Dean, Ruth
Dean, Mrs. Mary
Decosta, Mrs. M. M.
DeYoung, Mrs. I.
Dingler, Mrs. Annie
Drumm, Robert
Dunbar, Irma
Dunbar, Elizabeth
Dupon, Miss A.

Emberschied, Mrs. A.
Erickson, Margaret
Erickson, Mrs. M.
Ewell, Thelma
Evans, Thomas

Forster, William,
In Memory of
Fanger, Mrs. Anna
Felder, Heywood
Fienauer, Amy B.
Fischer, John
Fischer, Mrs. John
Fisher, Miss M. Beatrice
Fitzpatrick, Edward
Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Cath.
Friend, Florence
Gallagher, Isaac
Gallagher, Kate
Gallagher, Joseph
Gallagher, Robert
Gorman, Mrs. Martha
Gorman, William
Green, Mrs. Emma
Green, Joseph
Green, William
Greenfield, Robert
Greenfield, Lydia
Gregory, George
Gregory, George Fox
Gregory, Mrs. George
Gresh, Mrs. Harry
Griggs, Anna L.
Griggs, Mrs. Elizabeth
Grubb, Rufus
Grubb, Pauline
Grubb, Marie C.
Grubb, William

Harris, Marie
Hamilton, Mrs. F.
Hartman, Jr., Earl
Hartman, Jack
Hartman, Sr., W. E.
Hasson, William
Hasson, Kathryne
Hasson, Mrs. William
Haury, Mary
Heinemann, Mrs. Harry
Henderson, Catherine
Henderson, Harry H.
Henderson, Josephine T.
Henkel, Mrs. Rebecca
Hill, Mrs. Florence
Hill, Robert
Hogg, Margaret L.
Holton, Margaret
Holton, Elizabeth
Holton, Edna
Holton, Alice P.
Holton, Joseph
Holton, Mrs. Margaret
Hudak, Mrs. Frank
Jackson, Elsie
Jaeschke, Gus
Jaeschke, Herman
Jaeschke, Mrs. Herman

Kaiser, Emma
Kaiser, Mrs. Emma
Kelly, Mrs. Mary
Kelly, Mrs. Mary
Kelly, Ruth
Kelly, Raymond
Kensil, John
King, William
Knowlton, Sr., Mrs. F.
Knowlton, Sr., Frank
Knowlton, Jr., Frank
Kraft, Ornet
Kraft, Edward
Krause, Mrs. Sarah

Lafferty, Martha
Lawrence, Sr., George
Lawrence, James
Lawrence, Jr., George
Lawrence, Catherine
Lawrence, Mrs. Mary
Leach, May
Lenhardt, Margaret
Lenhardt, Eleanor L.
Lenhardt, Jr., David
Lenhardt, David
Lenhardt, Mrs. Margaret
Little, Andrew, Sr.
Little, Andrew, Jr.
Little, Charles
Little, Mrs. Mary
Little, Pauline
Logue, Mrs. Margaret
Logue, Robert
Ludwig, Mrs. Anna M.

McCall, Ella
McCall, Harry
McHenry, John E.
McKeown, James
McKeown, Mrs. Rebecca

McCall, James
McCall, William
MacFarland, Elizabeth
MacFarland, John
MacVaugh, Mrs. Anna
MacVaugh, Miss Sylvania
MacVaugh, William

Maguire, Mrs. Eliza
Maguire, George
Maguire, Lydia
Major, William
Marley, Mrs. Emma
Marnie, Thomas
Matthews, Vernon
Matthews, Mrs. Vernon
Mehring, Mrs. Anna
Meyers, Charles
Meyers, Mrs. Mary
Miller, Dorothy
Miller, Robert
Miller, Anna M.
Miller, Walter
Miller, Mrs. Dorothy
Mitchell, Mrs. Madeline
Munion, Mary S.
Munion, Harry J.
Munion, Mrs. Henrietta
Murphy, Mrs. Margaret
Murphy, Mrs. Sarah

Nelson, Jr., John J.
Nelson, Jr., Mrs. John J.
Nelson, Sr., John J.
Nelson, Sr., Mrs. John J.
Nelson, Mrs. Harry
Newman, Mrs. Lena
Nilsson, Ida
Nilsson, Catharine
Nilsson, Miss Hilma
Nugent, Eleanor
Nugent, William
Nuttall, Miss Hannah H.

Oliver, Mrs. Phoebe
O'Donnell, Mrs. Kath.

Patterson, Mrs. Anna
Patterson, Jr., John C.
Patterson, Jr., Mrs. J. C.
Payne, Mrs. Emma
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, James
Pearo, Mrs. Mary
Pierce, Mrs. Eva
Pierce, Evelyn S.
Pine, Mrs. Frank
Pine, Frank
Preole, John C.
Preole, John F.
Preole, James
Prettyman, Caroline

Quaile, Mrs. Clara
Quaile, Dorothy

Rand, Andrew
Rand, Mrs. Mary
Raymond, George J.
Read, Mrs. Hannah H.
Redding, Dorothy
Redding, Louisa
Reynolds, Dorothy
Reynolds, Walter
Reynolds, Leona
Reynolds, Mrs. Cath. M.
Reynolds, Jennie
Righter, Bertha
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Jr., Jeremiah K.
Rutter, Jr., Mrs. J. K.
Rutter, Robert
Rutter, Ruth
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Jennie
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Catharine
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth
Roberts, James Townsend
Roberts, Mrs. James A.
Robinson, Mrs. Annie
Rudderow, Bertha
Rudderow, Godfrey

Scarinci, Arthur
Scarinci, Mrs. Arthur
Schaab, Frederick
Seher, Margaret
Schabacker, Mrs. Anna
Shields, Mrs. Bella
Schlembac, Mrs. Cath.
Schmidt, Frank G.
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank G.
Scott, Mrs. George
Seher, Catharine
Seher, May
Seher, Mrs. Margaret
Seher, Harry P.
Shoch, Mrs. Minnie
Smith, Lewis
Smith, Anna May
Smith, Edward
Smith, Sr., Lewis
Smith, Mrs. Corbett
Smith, William
Snell, Richard
Snell, Mrs. Richard
Snell, Richard
Snell, Mrs. Richard
Snell, Jr., Samuel
Snell, Jr., Mrs. Samuel
Spratt, Catharine
Spratt, Finley
Spratt, Thomas
Spratt, Margaret
Spratt, Jr., John
Spratt, John
Springer, Mrs. Annie
Sprogel, Mrs. Bertha
Sprogel, Mr.
St. John's Fellowship
Stenger, Mrs. Laura
Stenger, Dorothy M.
Stenger, Ethel
Stone, David
Stone, Elizabeth A.
Stone, Emily
Stone, Thomas
Stone, William
Stone, Miss Emily
Strang, Miss Carrie
Strang, Mrs. Elizabeth
Strang, Edward
Stryker, Mrs. Emma
Sutterlin, Thelma
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Sutterlin, Ethel
Sweeney, James

Taylor, Benjamin F.
Taylor, Ethel E.
Taylor, Mrs. Sarah
Tittermary, Harry
Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Johanna

Volpe, Peter

Ward, Abraham
Ward, Mrs. Carrie
Watts, Miss Sarah
Weber, John
Weber, Mrs. John
Webster, Mrs. Margaret
Weist, Florence
Wharton, Arthur
Wharton, Mrs. Arthur
Wilson, Miss Dorothy
Wilson, George A.
Woerner, Mrs. Alberta V.
Woerner, Sr., Rudolph
Woerner, Eleanor
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Jr., Rudolph
Woerner, Mrs. Hannah
Woessner, Mrs. Charles
Woessner, Charles
Woessner, Miss Clara
Women's Auxiliary
Woodruff, Mrs. Mary
Woodruff, Howard
Woodruff, Joseph
Woodruff, Walter

Young, Mrs. Laura
Young, Viola
Young Women's Christian League

Zizelmann, Christian E.

Our Sunday School Lenten Offering

Dear Officer, Teacher and Scholar:

We are rapidly approaching the most important season of our Church year, the Lenten Season. Always in the past this has meant a mighty stirring in our Sunday School and a hard drive to raise a Lenten offering worthy of the great Sunday School of St. John's Parish. This year we need to get an early start because of many things. First of all money is going to be harder to get on account of unemployment and we must plan carefully to overcome this handicap. Every member of our School must work and work hard and constantly. Mrs. Amerman, teacher of the Primary Department, is setting an example by starting a sale of wash cloths now. Miss Fisher's Class are at it hard and no doubt will be ready with their quota on Easter. But how about the rest of us? What are we doing? Have we made our plans?

In order that we may set a goal to help us raise our S. S. Lenten Offering we have made out the following class apportionments which we hope every class will strain every effort to reach or if possible exceed. Remember, you have several sources of income—the S. S. barrel, the sale of candies, soup, soap, washcloths, entertainments, mite chests and any other legitimate way of making money.

CLASS APPORTIONMENTS

Primary Class	100.00
Intermediate Class	200.00
Miss Nuttall's Class	50.00
Miss Fisher's Class	250.00
George Cressee's Class	300.00
Dorothy Stenger's Class	35.00
Miss Watts' Class	35.00
Samuel McDowell's Class	25.00
John Preole's Class	25.00
Herbert Meinhart's Class	25.00
Ethel Stenger's Class	25.00
Elizabeth Jaeschler's Class	50.00
Helen Ashman's Class	35.00
Anna Robins' Class	15.00
Adelia Pearo's Class	35.00
Marie Colvy's Class	50.00
Mrs. Read's Class	20.00
Sunday School	100.00
	$1400.00

Of course it is understood that any number of classes can combine for the purpose of raising their quota. This practice has often helped the weaker classes to go over the top. And, remember, every class has the glad co-operation of the Rector. $1000.00 OF OUR LENTEN OFFERING WILL GO TOWARDS REDUCING OUR PARISH HOUSE MORTGAGE.

The Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

On Thursday evening, January 8, the Senior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew held its annual meeting for the election of officers to serve for the ensuing year. The election resulted as follows:

William Grubb, Vice Director.
Samuel Snell, Jr., Treasurer.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Robert Beck, Corresponding Secretary.

It was proposed that the new Director be appointed by the Rector, who appointed MR. CHARLES LITTLE to that position. The Rector could not refrain from expressing his appreciation for the fine work Mr. Little accomplished in the past years of service in this position and expressed his personal confidence and the confidence of all the Brotherhood in his wise and consecrated service.

The Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew

They tell us that if we want anything real bad all we need do is to wish and wish and wish and we will get it. Mr. Charles Little, our popular Director of the Senior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has wished and wished and wished for a Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood until he wished one right into existence. On Wednesday, December 10, 1930, he organized the Chapter and it has been holding regular by-monthly meetings since. On Friday, January 9, the boys met for organization and election of officers. The election resulted as follows:

Mr. Charles Little, Counsellor.
John Preole, Director.
Thomas Cunningham, Vice Director.
Robert Drumm, Treasurer.
Joseph Barnes, Secretary.
Edward Pine, Corresponding Secretary.

CHARTER MEMBERS

John Preole, Thomas Cunningham, Robert Drumm, Joseph Barnes, Edward Pine, William Barnes, Michael Rutter, Edward Rutter, George Lawrence, Robert Robbins, William Green, George Murphy, William Boden, Charles Boden.

We congratulate the members upon such a fine start and hope this time next year the Chapter will show a healthy growth with lots of new members.

Broadcasting from the Kitchen

* * *

LIVER LOAF

Remove the skin from one pound of beef liver, cut into slices, and cook in boiling salt water for 15 minutes. Drain, put through the food chopper, and add the following mixture: One cupful of bread crumbs, juice of half lemon, two tablespoonfuls of tomato catsup, one-half cupful of ground fresh pork, one small onion, finely chopped, one egg well beaten, one scant teaspoonful of salt, one-fourth teaspoonful of pepper, one-fourth teaspoonful of paprika. Mix the ingredients well together, adding one-fourth to one-half cupful of water or milk if the mixture seems too dry. Turn into a greased loaf pan lined with slices of bacon. Press the mixture firmly into the pan and lay strips of bacon over the top. Bake in a moderate oven (350 to 375 degrees) for one hour.

WHOLE WHEAT GRIDDLE CAKES

One-half cupful of wheat flour, one cupful white flour, three teaspoonfuls of baking powder, three tablespoonfuls of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one and one-half cupfuls of milk, one well-beaten egg, one tablespoonful of shortening. Mix and sift the dry ingredients. Add the milk and well-beaten egg slowly. Last, add the melted shortening. Beat all with a rotary egg beater for two minutes, and bake on a hot griddle. The use of entire wheat flour in this recipe gives a delicious nutlike flavor.

To prevent milk or custard boiling over, slightly grease the top inch of the pan with butter.

GLOSSY WHITE ICING FOR CAKES

Two cups confectioners' sugar, pinch cream of tartar, whites of three eggs. Beat white of eggs, adding sugar slowly, to a stiff meringue. Then add cream of tartar and flavoring. Vanilla, lemon or almond extract may be used if a white icing is desired, and for special coloring effects, vegetable coloring may be added—green for St. Patrick's Day, red for St. Valentine's, etc. Spread icing on the cake with a broad-bladed knife. Dip the knife in cold water every few minutes to give icing a gloss.

CODFISH BALLS

Six medium-sized potatoes, two cups shredded salt codfish, two eggs, one-eighth tablespoonful pepper, one-half cup milk. Pare potatoes and boil in unsalted water. Drain and mash. Add codfish and unbeaten eggs, one at a time, and mix well. Add pepper and milk and beat until mixture is light and fluffy. Drop by tablespoons in deep hot fat and cook 10 to 12 minutes or until brown. Drain on unglazed paper. Serve hot.

SHIRRED EGGS

Grease individual custard cups. Cover bottom and sides with dried bread crumbs. Break eggs into saucer, one at a time, and carefully slip into the custard cups. Sprinkle with a little salt and pepper. Cover top with well-seasoned crumbs. Bake in a slow oven 15 to 20 minutes or until the egg white is firm and the crumbs a delicate brown.

CORN PIE

Line deep pie pan with rich pastry, cut corn from cob, enough to fill pan nicely. Dot generously with butter, pepper, salt and about two or three tablespoons sugar. Add enough milk that it will come up on sides. Cover with a top crust. Bake one-half hour in slow oven. Serve very hot.

Every SATURDAY Morning

WE SELL

SOUP

at our Church for our Sunday School Lenten Offering

COME AND BUY!

Church Vocabulary

As noted in previous issues, the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Philadelphia, has published what we think is one of the most helpful pamphlets ever issued to Churchmen, under the title of CHURCH VOCABULARY. It is so important that we have been publishing a portion of its contents in the BROADCASTER and will continue to do so until we have published the whole of it. This number contains the eighth installment. We advise the BROADCASTER readers to keep each issue ever handy.

DIOCESAN MATTERS

Eastern Church.—The collective term by which is designated the Churches which formerly made part of the ancient Eastern Empire. The Greek, Russian, Coptic, Armenian, Syrian and other Eastern churches are those usually included in this Communion. In strictness, the term "Eastern" or Oriental Church should be applied only to the Graeco-Russian Church in communion with the Patriarch of Constantinople.

Episcopacy.—The name given to that form of Church government in which Bishops, Episcopoi, are the chief Pastors, with Priests and Deacons under them. The word is derived from the Greek word meaning overseer, Bishop being the Anglicized form of the Greek word. The term Episcopate is variously used. It means not only the office of Bishop, but it may also mean the period of time during which any particular Bishop has exercised his office in a Diocese. Again, Episcopate is the collective name for the whole body of Bishops, from Bishop Seabury, the first Bishop consecrated for this country, down to the Bishop who was last consecrated.

General Convention, The.—The legislative body of the American Church which meets triennially and is composed of the Bishops and Representatives from all the Dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions. The Convention is composed of two houses: (1) the House of Bishops, and (2) the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies. This latter consists of four Clerical and four Lay representatives from each Diocese, and one delegate of each Order from every Missionary Jurisdiction. Both Houses together constitute one Convention.

Episcopal Jurisdiction.—By this term is meant the sphere of a Bishop's ministration. This is defined in Article 4 of the Constitution, adopted by the General Convention, which provides: "and every Bishop of this Church shall confine the exercise of his Episcopal Office to his proper Diocese, unless requested to Ordain or Confirm or perform any other act of the Episcopal Office in another Diocese by the Ecclesiastical Authority thereof."

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 South Street

Formerly of S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Auerbach's Baby Shop

Christening Set a Specialty

Lombard 9385 317 SOUTH STREET

A Man Like You

How would you feel if you knew that some boy were hoping and trying to make himself a man like you? Would you be entirely comfortable? Or would you wish that you were setting a different example for him to follow? The chances are that you face just that situation, and it does not depend upon whether or not you have a boy of your own.

A boy is the most imitative animal in the world. He is a natural hero worshipper. And he creates his own heroes, not always wisely, and quite frequently out of those who are wholly unconscious of the emulative admiration they have inspired.

Quite early in life the boy begins to dream of the man he is to become. It is inevitable that he will select some adult as a pattern and, for a time at least, will seek to mould himself accordingly. That selection may not depend upon family relationship or intimate association. It may result from the most casual contacts so far as the adult may regard them. But the influence of the example, however unconsciously exerted, will be reflected upon the impressionable young mind.

The man who is not thus regarded by some boy, as in some way a model for him to copy, is perhaps an exception. It is, therefore, a rather serious responsibility that every man faces. Every man should so conduct himself at all times that he could feel only pride in the knowledge that some boy is striving to make himself just such a man as he is.

The best example is to attend all church services regularly.

After Dinner Reading for the Family Circle

This particular article will not fit any member of your family, but read it just the same. It is written for your neighbor—maybe.

Stubbornness, or always insisting on our individual rights, or demanding that we always have our own way, is a personal plan that often has its embarrassing features. Let me illustrate my point.

Two motorists met on a small or narrow bridge where it was necessary for one car to back up to let the other car pass. In the big car there was a big man and he shouted: "I never back up for any d—n fool!"

"That's all right," replied the small man in the small car, "I always do." And without shouting, the small man shifted into reverse and smiled at the demanding and commanding man as he drove on.

Now who had the pleasanter afternoon?

The half-horse and the human jackass are always stubborn.

If stubbornnness in some men (not women) were in proportion as they are right, such stubbornness would be a virtue, but the stubborn man is always that way just in proportion as he is ignorant or wrong.—Silent Partner.

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

"Say It With Flowers"

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753

MAX SMITH

Dealer in

Boots, Shoes & Rubbers

S. E. Corner Third and McKean Streets

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

"Sez I to Myself—"

By Amy C. Haight, Church Secretary,
Northside Baptist Church, Richmond, Va.

Sez I to myself, as I grumbled and growled,
"I'm sick of my church," and then, how I scowled!
"The members unfriendly, the sermons too long—
In fact, it seems that everything's wrong.
I don't like the singing; the church—a disgrace,
For signs of neglect are all over the place.
I'll quit going there, I won't give a dime;
I can make better use of my money and time."
Then sez my conscience to me, sez he,
"The trouble with you is, you're too blind to see
That your church reflects you, whatever it be.
Now, come, pray and pay and serve cheerfully;
Stop all your fault-finding and boost it up strong.
You'll find you'll be happy and proud to 'belong.'
Be friendly and willing and sing as you work,
For churches aren't built by members who shirk."

Advice Not Acceptable—Rules Are Resented

* * *

By Van Amburgh (The Silent Partner)

We are all working with the wrong psychology. Just let me prove it.

The average advice is not acceptable. Rules and regulations are often resented. Warnings have little appeal.

Offering a sincere or friendly suggestion is seldom welcome.

We pay a physician to prescribe for us, then set the medicine bottle on the shelf and do as we darn please.

Stand on a railroad grade-crossing at your own expense of time and money, in order that you may warn the careless drivers that the trains are fast and frequent, and somebody will take the time to report you to the insane authorities.

My suggestion is that we change the psychology of our warning signs at grade-crossings to read like this:

"Come Ahead—Nobody Will Miss You."

Here's another sign that will prove more successful than the old-style warning:

"Try Our Locomotives—
You Need Only One Bump."

Human nature resents restrictions, so, instead of the "Stop! Look!! Listen!!!" sign, why not introduce this one?

"Don't Stop—You're Unimportant."

Or here's a sign that will make a man so "mad," or rather so angry, that he will mentally fight back and refuse to try it:

"Nobody Will Miss You;
Be as Careless as You Like."

LINCOLN DAY SUPPER : : : :

for Men and Boys of the Parish

THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 12th, 1931

Church of St. John the Evangelist
Third and Reed Streets
6.30 O'Clock

Admission by Complimentary Ticket Only, Supplied by Members of the Senior and Junior Brotherhood

---

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055
OYEN'S BAKERY
1713 South Second Street
Formerly of 120 Porter Street
Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M.
WEDDING and BIRTHDAY CAKES a Specialty

"SECOND FIDDLE"

Given By
Young People's Fellowship
Of Calvary Church, Germantown
ST. JOHN'S PARISH HOUSE
Third and Reed Streets
Saturday Eve'n., February 7th, 1931
TICKET - - - - - - Twenty-five Cents

Phone Orders Delivered Call Oregon 3953-W
"Brown Bobby" Greaseless Doughnuts
Made by
Mrs. Meta Carbarns
2546 So. Front Street

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 5. No. 3 PHILADELPHIA, MARCH, 1931 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
Joseph Colvey

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Charles Little, Assistant Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nilsson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.
Heber Rutter
Jeremiah K. Rutter

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
John Preole, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson, Jr., Councillors
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Capie, Catherine Eleanor
Dick, Gertrude Sally
Robinson, Henry Milton

BURIALS

Anderson, Vivian
Cox, William A.
Elliott, Caroline
Kerbaugh, Harry C.
McMullen, John R.
Strafford, Caroline Agusta

WEEKLY CALENDAR

	A. M.	P. M.
Sunday
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

How Did You Die?

Did you tackle that trouble that came your way
With a resolute heart and cheerful?
Or hide your face from the light of day
With a craven soul and fearful?
Oh, a trouble's a ton, or a trouble's an ounce,
Or a trouble is what you make it.
And it isn't the fact that you're hurt that counts,
But only how did you take it?

You are beaten to earth? Well, well, what's that?
Come up with a smiling face.
It's nothing against you to fall down flat,
But to lie there—that's disgrace.
The harder you're thrown, why the higher you bounce:
Be proud of your blackened eye!
It isn't the fact that you're licked that counts:
It's how did you fight and why?

And though you be done to death, what then?
If you battled the best you could;
If you played your part in the world of men,
Why, the Critic will call it good.
Death comes with a crawl, or comes with a pounce,
And whether he's slow or spry,
It isn't the fact that you're dead that counts,
But only, how did you die?

-Edmund Vance Cooke.

A Word to the Indifferent Christian

"Awake thou that sleepeth and arise from the dead." It is amazing how many of our parishioners are the victims of sleeping sickness. About seven-eighths of our membership need heroic treatment for this dread disease. All the week they are in such a somnolent spiritual condition that they have neither the strength nor the ambition to resist temptation and are constantly falling into sin. On Sunday—all day—they are so dead that they could not be aroused to attend church service or be on hand for Holy Communion, even if we were to rig a siren instead of a church bell in the tower of the church and keep it blowing all day.

A Dead Christian Is the Deadest Thing There Is!

Such a one does not realize how far away from the ideals of Christ he has drifted. Oh, but you say, I do not have the same blind faith in the teachings of the Christian Church as I used to have. I'm older and wiser now and take a lot of this Christian superstition with a grain of salt. Please do not lie like that, dear friend. What really has happened is you found you either had to give up work or pleasure or sleep on Sunday for your religion or else you had to give up your religion and drop the other. And you were so absolutely dead spiritually that you simply did not have the strength to hold on to your faith. Here is a little parable for you. Suppose you had $700 and you had a friend you liked a lot and you knew he was in need and you gave him $600 of your money and told him to use it as he wished. Then suppose you caught him trying to snatch the other $100 when your back was turned. What would you think of that man's honesty? Suppose upon questioning him he said that the reason he tried to steal your last $100 was because he needed the $600 to pay his debts and he simply had to have your last $100 to spend on pleasure and recreation. What would be your feelings towards your ungrateful friend for whom you did so much? Now just change the dollars for days and God for you and yourself for the man you aided in the parable and you will get a pretty clear idea of your own sneak thief and untruthful methods towards God. To tell you the truth I'd rather take my chances as an out-and-out sinner than as a stealing and untruthful Christian when the time comes for us to stand up to be judged. To my way of thinking you are taking some most awful chances and I warn you now you cannot get away with it. You had better use this Lenten season in thinking this thing out for yourself and consider how far the excuses you are passing out now will get you when you will need real excuses to get you through. This Lent ought to be a most solemn season for you.

Are You a Plain Spoken Person?

Many Boast That They Always Say What They Think

Are you a plain spoken person?

If so, would you mind telling a questioning world just why you are?

Do you get pleasure out of being plain spoken? Do you ever stop to think that plain speaking is plain cruelty?

Have you ever known plain speaking to increase the happiness of either an individual or a community?

Do you think you are so far above reproach that you have license to sit in judgment upon your fellow men and indulge in plain speaking at their expense? Did you ever make a friend by plain speaking? Have you not frequently, on the contrary, created a feeling or resentment and antagonism?

Are you always plain spoken and do you speak plainly to those who are in a position to punish you for plain speaking; or are you plain spoken only to those who are not in a position to defend themselves?

Is plain spokenness really a sign of courage or cowardice?

Do you think plain speaking is a virtue or is it a sign of a crude, cruel, curdling nature that loves to hurt?

Is plain speaking a social asset or a social liability?

Does plain speaking spring from a kindly, loving disposition or is it just a nasty indulgence of a mean temper?

Do you think it would be pleasant to live with a plain spoken person?

Do you not think that every plain spoken person should read Proverbs 15: 1?

Can you be a plain spoken person and a Christian at the same time?

And finally, whoever appointed you or me or anybody the moral censor of our brother man?

To speak plainly we would say a plain spoken person is an insufferable egoist. What is your plain spoken opinion of plain spoken people?

A Lenten Program for the Parish

Things Each Parochial Organization Can Do

The Woman's Auxiliary

This is the society to which all the women of the Parish from 18 years of age belong. The Auxiliary is the largest missionary society of the Church and has its branches wherever our Church is found. It supports scores of missions at home and in foreign lands. We would suggest that our branch of the Auxiliary can do a great service for the Church if during Lent our members put forth extra efforts to get more women interested in its activities. Why not hold weekly afternoon meetings in the Parish House from 2 to 4 P. M. for prayer, Bible reading, sewing for the choir and the poor of the parish and spending part of the time in social enjoyment? We are sure that a missionary could be persuaded now and then to come and give a talk about his work. If every woman tried to bring another woman with her it would not be long before the Auxiliary would be twice as large as it is now. We think it would be wrong to charge dues but it would be right and proper to take up an offering and give it to the Easter Offering. Perhaps somebody could suggest a method by which the Auxiliary could raise money for the Lenten Offering. You know we are trying to raise enough to give $1000 towards paying the Parish House mortgage. There are scores of other helpful things the Auxiliary can do during Lent if they will meet and discuss what ought to be done.

The Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Members of this group have a special mission among men which they ought to develop during Lent. Each member ought to attend every Sunday and Wednesday services. He should do this both as a personal responsibility and for an example to others. No Brotherhood man should be content to come to Church alone. He ought to feel that every non-Church-going man in the community is his special charge, in whose welfare God expects him to be interested. Also each member ought to invite and urge all the men and boys of the Parish to come to Holy Communion. Furthermore it is the duty of every member to go after the delinquent male members of the Church so persistently that they will come back to the Church and their duties as Churchmen. As we say in another part, every Brotherhood man ought to make this Lent a good hunting season for the souls of men. They ought to "bag" quite a few big fellows for Confirmation. You can do it, too, if you are a "straight shooter."

The Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

This is the newest Society of the Parish and we are hoping for big things from it this Lenten season. The Brotherhood has a dandy bunch of real he-boys. In Lent they will have many chances to do things for the boys of the Parish. A membership drive would be just the thing to start the ball rolling. Don't be too strict but let down the bars and take in everybody. Get them playing all your games. Show what a fine Parish House you have. Invite them to your Sunday School class. Bring them with you on Sunday and Wednesday evenings to hear the speaking and join in the singing. If they are members of Church tell them how the men and boys of St. John's Church go to Communion and invite them to come to a Communion service with the rest of the men and boys. If they are not confirmed members just keep jollying them along until it is time for Confirmation and see how many candidates you can bring in the next class. Remember, money does not always count. We want a Junior Brotherhood of real sports who know how to play the game and be a pal—fellows who are ready to give as well as take.

THE CHOIR

In the early Church the Choir was a part of what was known as the lesser ministry. That is, it was closely related to the Priesthood and the members of the Choir were really officers of the Church and above the congregation. It was an honor to be a member and wear the Choir vestments. In many modern Churches this idea of the ministry of the Choir still holds. The Choir is responsible for the spiritual tone and atmosphere of Christian worship. A dignified and reverent Choir that feels its importance to the service and renders its functions in a churchly and worshipful manner is of inestimable value and aid to the higher ministry or the Priest of the Church. Every Choir member ought to accept his duty as a sacred trust not to be treated slightingly or ignored. In Lenten season the Choir is especially important. If the singing is dull and uninspiring the effect on the congregation is deadly. If the singing is vigorous and inspiring the congregation is aroused and on its toes and realizes the great beauty and pleasure of worship. A man or a woman with a singing voice is chosen of God, otherwise God would not have given the voice. Such a gifted one can do more for the winning of immortal souls than can the preacher win however eloquent he may be. Every member of the Choir should use his gift to the glory of God and the salvation of souls.

To make our music effective our Choir members must be regular at Choir rehearsal and at the Sunday and Wednesday Lenten services. Each member must learn to respect his high office and realize that he and she are a part of the great ministry of the Christian Church, and their position is ever near the Altar.

The success of our Lenten services is sure to depend upon the willing service of our Choir members. We hope each will grasp the importance of their ministry and give of their best in service.

The Daughters of the King

As one of our Lenten services will be held every meeting night of the Daughters of the King this group will have an exceptional opportunity to render active service in their own way to the whole Parish. Many women of all ages will attend these services and a word of invitation dropped by a member of the Order to one who is not a member will often result in winning a recruit to the cause. And what more worthy cause can any do than bring some one to her Father's home? It is a service that is most pleasing to God. He delights to know that a child of His so truly loves Him that she is anxious to bring others to know and love Him. Then, too, He wants others to love Him and He wants to love them. What a splendid chance the Daughters of the King will have this Lent to serve God fully. Besides the friend or neighbor each Daughter will bring, many others will come of their own volition.

As most of the Daughters are active in other branches of Parochial life—the Woman's Auxiliary, the Sunday School, etc., etc., the Lenten services will serve to break the ice and give them a fine chance to invite women and girls to join our Sunday School and come to some of our Parish meetings. The pledge of the Daughters of the King is to bring a sister to the Father's house. These Lenten services afford each of you a means of Grace. Add to your prayers the work of leading others to Jesus Christ and you will indeed fulfill your pledge of service.

The Young Women's Christian League

How many things there are to do IF we are willing and ready to do them. Only women can call on and minister to other women and girls. We need women to read the Bible to them, to pray with them, and to bring them to Church service. We need volunteers to visit the sick and the shut-in, to visit mothers and their new-born babes, to arrange for the christening of the babies, to take altar flowers to the sick, to report all the poor and sick of the Parish to the Priest, to leave behind them wherever they go a Bible and a Prayer Book, to encourage mothers to send their children to Sunday School, to look up all delinquent Church members and Sunday School scholars and encourage them to renew their allegiance to God and the Church. To impress on the neglectful the importance of receiving the Holy Communion regularly, to use every means and persuasion to get women and girls for Confirmation.

To carry out this program of service we must have the co-operation of every woman's organization of the Parish. The work is too big for any one society. We must have the strength and power of them all if we would put over this program for God.

The Young People's Fellowship

Young folks can be better approached by young folks. The average young man or woman will shy away from anything that savors of religion because of their pre-conceived idea that to be an active Christian one must cut out all play and become sad and subdued. Of course it is a mistaken conception of Christianity. On the contrary, whoever goes through life with a long face and will not laugh and play is libeling God. God meant all nature to be glad and full of sunshine. If He did not mean for us to smile and sing and dance and shout and play He would have created us in a different mold. The only person who has no right to laugh is a sinner. He forfeited his right to happiness when he broke God's laws of harmony. What the Fellowship must do this Lenten season is to go out and bring in some of these young folks who have forfeited their God-given right to happiness and show them how to win back what they have lost.

The Fellowship has a better chance of getting recruits for Confirmation than any other Parish organization. For instance, if a young person gets sick or meets with an accident or loses a job or has any kind of trouble or is lonely and without frineds it takes the impetuosity of youth to restore his balance and clear his system of the poison of gloom. Youth responds to youth and because youth is so young it is closer to God and can feel His presence though unconscious that it is He.

The Fellowship ought to be the joy bunch of our Lenten work and help us all find a real pleasure in working for God and adding souls to His Church.

The Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

A sure sign of a healthy Parish is the number of young people in its many organizations. One of the strongest organizations of the Parish is the Girl Scout Troop, No. 50, under the direction of Miss Helen W. McHenry. The Troop is composed of girls of many faiths, therefore the Troop is not strictly speaking a Parochial organization. However, the majority of its membership is St. John's girls. As such they reflect the spirit of our faith by their acts and words. If they are mean and selfish and lacking in loyalty to Scout laws, the other girls see it and judge the Church and its teachings accordingly. If our girls are good Scouts and keep the laws of their order; if they are conscientious and regular in attending the Sunday and Wednesday Services, and try to keep the Spirit of Lent, their sincerity and loyalty will leave a favorable impression on their fellow Scouts and inspire them to emulate the Christian example of our girls in their own Churches. Every Girl Scout who is a communicant ought always attend Church Services, Sunday School sessions and never neglect the Holy Communion. Every girl can make more converts by LIVING Jesus Christ than by TALKING Jesus Christ.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The greatest branch of the Christian Church is the Sunday or Church School. The really sucessful Parish is the one that trains its children and seriously takes to heart the admonition of Solomon—"Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." In our Sunday School we try to impress upon the child to "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth." Every teacher and officer feels the enormous responsibility resting on him in impressing the plastic minds of the scholars with the Eternal truths of the Kingdom of God. One feature of our Sunday School work deserving special comment is the regularity of our officers and scholars. It is seldom we do not have 100 per cent. of our teachers present. The result is the scholars come regularly too.

Today St. John's Parish can boast of one of the largest Sunday Schools in South Philadelphia. We have an enrollment of 132 officers, teachers and scholars with an average attendance of 250. What a wonderful field for aggressive missionary work for Jesus Christ! I urge our officers and teachers to make special use of this Lenten season for the training of this splendid army of youth for the kingdom of God. Try to make the Bible the most interesting book in the world to them. Talk to them about how the Church goes into every part of the world making converts to Christ and planting the Cross where only heathen idols had heretofore been known. Take them out in the neighborhood and show them how to do practical missionary work by getting boys and girls to come and join our Sunday School and our Young People's Societies. Get them interested in raising money by some means or other for the Sunday School Lenten offering. Help make the Church and the Parish House the most interesting in the Parish where they can go weekday as well as Sunday. Set them the example of loyalty to the Cross by attending regularly and on time the services of the Church. Ask them why they are absent from Holy Communion if they are. Ask them to help get candidates for Confirmation. In short keep them busy all the time doing something for the Church and the boys and girls of the Parish. A good Sunday School teacher is the world's greatest factor for everlasting good.

A Letter of Appreciation

The Cresson Club wishes to thank its many friends for their hearty co-operation in the benefit Basketball Game and Dance that was given to furnish funds to replace the clothing stolen from our Basketball team while playing away from home.

We want to thank personally Mr. Jerry Rutter, Mr. Al. Schoct and Mrs. John Nelson, Jr., for contributing their orchestra; Mr. Dean, of Southwark Men's Club for refereeing free, the members of the Y. W. C. L. for running the refreshment stand, and last, but not least, our Rector, who donated the use of the Parish House.

Thanking you in advance, I remain,

Yours truly,

WILLIAM HASSON.

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

BE SURE YOU ATTEND THE LENTEN SERVICES.

* * *

Helps for making a good Lent: (a) "Search the Scriptures;" (b) "Pray without ceasing;" (c) "Do unto others as ye would that they should do unto you;" (d) "Be Merciful;" (e) "Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, soul, strength, mind;" (f) "Love thy neighbor as thyself;" (g) "Eat His flesh, drink His blood."

* * *

Lent is the open season for Soul hunting. It is great sport. You may be lucky enough to "bag" some big game for Confirmation if you are a straight shooter.

* * *

One easy way to raise your EASTER OFFERING—SAVE THREE CENTS A DAY FOR 40 DAYS.

* * *

Be sure you patronize our boys and girls who are selling candy, etc., for the Sunday School Lenten Offering.

* * *

Every person who has a steady job can show his or her gratitude by contributing one day's wage to the Easter Offering.

* * *

The most important event on Easter Day is the Holy Communion.

* * *

There are two ways of observing Lent: 1. Honestly. 2. Hypocritically.

* * *

Everybody get busy with the Cent-a-Day. The first interest on our mortgage is due. Be sure your Cent-a-Day is in before the end of the month.

* * *

Easter Services will be as follows: Early Communion, 6.30 A. M. (Church). Second Communion, 9 A. M. (Chapel). Third Communion, 11 A. M. (Church). Sunday School Easter Service, 2.30 P. M. At this service the Sunday School Lenten Offering will be received.

* * *

Parents, Relatives, Friends help our Sunday School boys and girls fill their Lenten Mite Chests.

* * *

A CHOCOLATE EGG FOR EVERY DOLLAR YOU HAVE IN YOUR MITE CHESTS. THEY ARE FINE, FRESH EGGS, TOO.

* * *

The Women's Bible Class want to thank all those who attended or helped in any way at our Valentine Party, February 14, for their hearty co-operation. We feel the party was a huge success and may we once again say "Thank you"?

What Ought I to Do During Lent?

The most important duty for me to perform is to pray earnestly to God and ask Him to help me get into a frame of mind to really WANT to do what I ought to do.

It has always seemed to me that whenever Lent comes we try to force ourselves to do what we DO NOT WANT to do. Some of us think it is meritorious and self-sacrificing to be rebellious in spirit and yet force ourselves to pray, to attend Church services, to read the Scriptures, to give liberally to missions and other extra Church interest, to deny ourselves certain pleasures and luxuries we are used to indulging.

The method of whipping an unwilling spirit into doing tasks unpleasant just for discipline's sake is just a little illogical. The thing to do is to try to bring our spirits into such an attitude of willingness to do God's will that performing such tasks will not seem to be an unpleasant duty but a real pleasure.

There are folk who dread the approach of LENTEN season because it means so much self-restraint and sacrifice. They have a great sigh of relief on Easter day, for Lent is over and conditions are normal and they can once again plunge in and flirt with the world, the flesh and the devil.

Such an attitude towards Lent presages not only an unhappy 40 days, but also a useless and profitless season of repentance.

Our spiritual experiences and adventures in Lent ought to permanently and profoundly influence our lives for good and they will do that very thing if we enter into the Lenten season with a desire and a determination that the 40 days shall be enthusiastically employed in an honest determination to come triumphantly through; bringing with us higher spiritual aspirations, clearer spiritual vision, a real determination to do the will of God.

Why not try to observe Lent sanely and get out of it all the permanent good we can possibly obtain?

Phone Orders Delivered Call Oregon 3953-W

"Brown Bobby" Greaseless Doughnuts

Made by

Mrs. Meta Carbarns

2546 So. Front Street

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother

(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055

OYEN'S BAKERY

1713 South Second Street

Formerly of 120 Porter Street

Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M.

WEDDING and BIRTHDAY CAKES a Specialty

PRIZE WINNERS

Why Not Try Your Ability as a Winner?

St. Paul wrote a letter to the Philippians in which he used this sentence: "I press toward the mark for the prize." Evidently St. Paul was an admirer of sports and believed in awarding prizes for ability. He drew his best pictures from the sporting world and did not hesitate to use them to illustrate his Christian doctrine.

Without meaning to be the least facetious, we, too, believe in giving prizes for good effort. This is our reason for offering a prize to all those who attend regularly Sunday and Wednesday evening service during Lent.

What the prize will be you will know on Easter day.

Rules for Holy Communion

1. When you come forward to receive Holy Communion be careful not to crowd other people. Try also to let members of families kneel side by side. It often means much to them. Remember that consideration for others is nowhere so fitting as at the Lord's Table.

2. When you come to the rail try to kneel as near as possible, so that your feet will not obstruct the way of those behind you.

It is a most thoughtful custom to kneel in the proper place and thus not inconvenience those who follow.

3. Receive the Elements into ungloved hands. The rubric directs that they are to be received into the hands of the people. It is well to place the palm of one hand on top of the other and receive the bread from the hand of the Priest in the upper hand.

4. Pray while you are kneeling at the rail. Strive fully to realize what the service means. Pray especially for greater love to God and for your neighbors. Be sure, too, to offer a prayer of thanksgiving at this time.

5. When you return to your seat continue your prayers and thanksgiving. You should learn to use your Prayer Book to this end.

6. Never leave the Church till the Benediction has been pronounced, unless absolutely compelled to do so. You would not leave the house of a friend before the meal was finished except for serious cause. The Lord's Supper is far more important.

7. Be sure to come to Holy Communion regularly; at least once a month, and also on Christmas Day and Easter Day. These days have long been recognized in the Church as great days of obligation. No religious habit can be of greater spiritual value than that of regular attendance at Holy Communion. As this service best expresses the idea of self-consecration to God, it is bound to bring a peculiar blessing.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner

2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 South Street

Formerly of S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Auerbach's Baby Shop

Christening Set a Specialty

Lombard 9385 317 SOUTH STREET

A Meditation

We have read of the house by the side of the road
Along the great highway of life,
We have read of the ones who pass on with hope
And those who are faint with the strife
Wherever we go the critic is there
Equipped with a cynical ban,
Oft drifting away from the subject in view,
Apart from the original plan.

For whether we live in the house by the road
Or serve in the ranks by the way,
There are those who condemn and scoff and scorn
Distorting each word that we say;
With critical eye they censor each move
We make as we journey each day.
Forgetting that they'll not be the judge
When we get to the end of the way.

For though we may serve in an obscure place
Or join in the ranks as they pass,
Let us live in our house by the side of the road
As though it were builded in glass.
And if we would serve in the house by the way
Or join the ranks of the road,
We'd want this old earth as a permanent place
Instead of a transient abode.

If we would enlist in the army of life
With the throngs who struggle and moan,
Remember our own frail dwelling of glass
Resolving to throw not a stone;
But if we will serve each in his own way
As a part of the Infinite plan,
We shall try to bring joy to all whom we meet
As part of the mission of man.

Then let us remember each step of the way
As along this great highway we pass,
That most of us spend our pilgrimage here
In houses as brittle as glass.
Then go bravely on with ardor of hope—
With all we may never atone,
But be like the One who walked by the way—
Condemn not and cast not a stone.

—Selected.

The Merchants whose advertisements are found here are leaders in their line of business. They want your trade and solicit your patronage through your own paper. Patronize them, they are worthy of your co-operation.

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 - Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

"Say It With Flowers"

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753

MAX SMITH

Dealer in

Boots, Shoes & Rubbers

S. E. Corner Third and McKean Streets

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 5, No. 4 PHILADELPHIA, APRIL, 1931 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
Joseph Colvey

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Charles Little, Assistant Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Catherine Nilsson
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.
Heber Rutter
Jeremiah K. Rutter

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
John Preole, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson, Jr., Councillors
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Cancellarich, Frank
Lord, Edward
Moffett, Dorothy Veronica
Penrose, Harry Raymond
Tittermary, Henry Hammell
Klingler, Samuel Simon

BURIALS

Glading, Annie V.
Hickmott, Herbert, Sr.
Rhoades, George W.

MARRIAGE

John T. Sague to Catherine Flynn.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

EASTER DAY

All of us are looking forward to the holy joys of Easter day. The forty days of Lent are almost past. We are sure that most of us feel they have been profitably spent. The Lenten services have been well attended and the special preachers and speakers have brought us most inspiring messages. Somehow there has not been the usual cast of somberness and gloom over the season. Yet, we are conscious of having received greater spiritual benefit than in previous Lenten seasons. We believe we are approaching Easter with a deeper sense of its significance. Our spiritual vision is clear and we see in the teachings of the day the joyous promise of the Resurrection with Christ.

Lenten season has been really the training season of our spirits. Through self-denial, more frequent prayers and other exercises of the spirit we approach Easter day in a vigorous frame of mind determined to make the best of its promises and move on from it to many conquests through the year. Easter is a great point from which to start a real fight against self and sin. We can hardly wait for the inspiration of the day. We will awake with the thought today is the day of the Resurrection. We will go to our church to receive the Blessed Sacrament of His sacrifice of love. We will be inspired with a greater love for Him. No matter what the weather will be there will be only warmth and sunshine in our hearts. It is too bad we have dropped the custom of Easter greeting like that of old, when if you met a friend on the street, instead of saying good morning, you said, "He is risen," and your friend answered, "He is risen, indeed."

May this Easter day be the best day in the year for you.

CONFIRMATION

Word has just been received that Bishop Taitt will visit St. John's Sunday, June 7, to administer Confirmation upon all those who present themselves at that time. Consequently, the time has arrived for every man, woman and child to turn missionary and help build up a representative class. We have no time to waste. We must begin now—both as individuals and as groups. The Daughters of the King, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Young Women's Christian League, the Woman's Auxiliary, the Sunday School classes, the Young People's Fellowship, the choir, the basketball teams and everybody not attached to any of these organizations but is a member of St. John's is responsible for the success of the great missionary drive we are hereby inaugurating. This will be the first class confirmed at St. John's since Bishop Taitt became the supreme spiritual head of the Diocese. Let us put forth extra efforts to build up a class that will be our pledge to him of our cooperation with him to fix more firmly the Cross of Christ in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Unemployment and the Church

It Is the Parish That Feels the Result of Unemployment First

We have real cause to congratulate ourselves for building up a system of support with little things. In these days of unemployment the church is necessarily the first institution to feel the pinch. Both individuals and families must have food, shelter, clothing, fuel, insurance and necessary medical treatment. If the bread-earner is out of a job it means strict retrenchment of all resources and the lopping off of extra family expenses such as church and fraternity dues. When the family exchequer reaches the point where this must happen it is up to the church to look out for itself. With our system of encouraging each to contribute a little instead of a few contributing all we can in most cases encourage the family to keep a little corner of the budget open for the church expenses long after unemployment happens along.

But to make our system of small contributions effective we must urge every member to do his and her share. If one-quarter or one-half of our membership defaults it lets down the whole financial scheme of the parish.

Of course, when the pinch becomes unendurable, then even the little contributed to the church support must be absorbed in the family budget. But such absorption ought to be met by a slight increase in the offerings of all who are working. This increase ought to be in the nature of a thanksgiving to God for being spared the rigors of poverty and unemployment. There are a number of parishioners who are most irritatingly careless or indifferent as to their financial responsibilities to the church. And, although they have regular jobs and few expenses, they will not keep up their obligations to the church budget let alone increasing their offerings to help over this period of unemployment. All such deserve to experience a period of leanness to make them realize the cruelty of their neglect. We hope that even though they have hardened their hearts against the suffering of their brethren in Christ and richly deserve such a drastic lesson, at least their families will be spared the terrors of unemployment.

BISHOP GARLAND

The Friend of Missions

St. John's Parish has lost a friend. From the day your rector assumed the pastorate of St. John's Church our staunchest friend and backer was Bishop Garland. His interest and sympathy never ceased from that day until the day he fell asleep. Our Parish House is really a monument to his love for St. John's work. It would never have been built had he not so generously provided $25,000 towards its building. Yet, the good he accomplished in this parish is only a reflection of the astounding number of such works he completed in many other parts of the Diocese. In the words of Rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles "The accomplishments of his Episcopate were astounding, in view of its comparative shortness and the battle he had to wage against the frailties of a physical strength, never adequate to the demands made upon it. He raised a great sum of money for the upbuilding of the Philadelphia Divinity School; through the Diocesan Campaign Fund he put the institutions of the Diocese upon a sure foundation, strengthened old missions, and built new ones. He bought the land for the proposed Cathedral, so that our Diocesan activities experienced a reinvigorated life."

BISHOP FRANCIS M. TAITT, D. D.

Ninth Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

How fortunate, rather providential, for the Diocese that upon the passing of our beloved Bishop Garland we had such a spiritual leader as Bishop Taitt to move up and fill the vacancy. He has always been most popular with the clergy and, because of his long years' experience as priest of a downtown parish, Dean of the Convocation of Chester and a member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese to say nothing of his leadership in other great institutions, he is eminently fitted to wear the cloak cast on his shoulders.

As in the case of Bishop Garland your rector has the honor of claiming friendship of many years' standing with Bishop Taitt. A friendship that has and always will be valued to the utmost.

It is your rector's hope that the parishoners of St. John's will give the same loyalty and love to Bishop Taitt as they always did to our late Bishop. I am sure that he cannot help but have a warm glow in his heart for every downtown parish because he was a downtowner himself for many years and is still remembered by hundreds who knew and loved him when he was rector of Trinity Church, Southwark.

AS AN ILLUSTRATION

The Force of Many an Appeal Is Weakened Because of the Lack of an Illustration

For many, many years we have been arguing the point that a cent a day is the most potent way of paying your debts. Either we do not speak the English language or our audience is deaf or folks don't believe us. Now we have an illustration. It is a clear picture of what a cent will do if you give it half a chance.

Everybody in the parish knows we have a mortgage on our parish house. The first six months' interest on that mortgage ($254.19) was due on March 1. We paid that bill on the spot.

How did we pay it?

Where did we get the money?

Why, all we had to do was to write out an order on the cent-a-day fund, where we had money on deposit, and the debt was paid and nobody felt it. The parish was not asked to contribute, nor was a special offering necessary. Our cent-a-day fund took care of it.

Now, if everybody in the parish was as clear sighted as the loyal few of the cent-a-day brand we would soon be able to do much more than just pay the interest on the mortgage; we would soon be paying off the principal of the mortgage.

A cent a day from every member of the parish would give us an income of $3100. Such a splendid income would not only pay the interest on the mortgage, but would enable you to pay $2500 on the principal. The mortgage now is $8349.28. Subtract $2500 from that and your mortgage is reduced to $5849.28, and the half year interest is reduced to $160.86 instead of being $254.49.

In less than three years the mortgage will be paid in full.

But it all depends upon you giving your cent a day.

LENT AT ST. JOHN'S

There has been a remarkable outpouring of the people of the parish to the special Lenten services on Sunday and Wednesday evenings. The sermons of our special speakers have been most inspiring and helpful. What has impressed our visiting speakers more than anything else was the predominance of young people in the congregation and the heavy percentage of men and boys.

We are sure the special services have been most beneficial, spiritually speaking, to the whole parish. It has been a pleasure and an education to meet the visiting speakers and we are sure that they have aroused a great spiritual enthusiasm which will produce real results for the church in our little corner of the city.

The gentlemen who so kindly helped us in our mission services were: Rev. Joseph R. Baird, Rev. Sidney M. Hopson, Rev. Robin T. S. Chen, Rev. Alfred M. Smith, Rev. Geo. Herbert Toop, D. D., Rev. Victor Loope, Rev. John R. Hart, Ph. D., Mr. Walter C. Mabie, Prof. H. Scott McHenry, Rev. Harry St. Clair Hathaway, Rev. Royden K. Yerkes, D. D. and Mr. Stanley Welsh.

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

HAPPY EASTERTIDE!!!

The Right Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, entered into rest Sunday, March 1. He shall ever live in our hearts as one of our dearest and best friends.

Remember your Easter Communion. Make no excuse for neglecting this most important Christian duty. Starving the spirit is worse than starving the body.

We welcome the Right Rev. Francis M. Taitt, D. D., as our Father in God. He is a worthy successor of Bishop Garland and a personal friend of many years' standing of your rector. We congratulate the Diocese upon his succession to the spiritual leadership of the Diocese.

May we remind our Sunday School scholars of the importance of returning their mite chests on Easter day with the minimum of one dollar in each. Remember, those mite chests are the property of the Sunday School and must be returned.

Be sure to return your Easter envelope on Easter day with your Easter contribution inclosed. Our Easter offering is for parish expenses only. You must help pay the bills of the church. It is your responsibility as well as ours.

Our Sunday School Continues to Grow

Confirmation service Sunday, June 7, 8 P. M. Be sure you have a candidate in the class.

Do not forget, we are trying to raise $1000 by Easter to pay on our parish house mortgage. We can do it, too, if each will do his little part. A cent a day from each communicant is enough to pay the debt. What are you doing with your cent?

We thank each and every one of our Lenten speakers for the inspiring messages they brought. Our Sunday and Wednesday evening services were very successful in every way. We pray the good influence will be lasting.

The rector appoints the following committees to get out and get candidates for Confirmation:

The Woman's Auxiliary.
The Daughters of the King.
The Young Women's Christian League.
The Girl Scouts.
The Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Sr.
The Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Jr.
The Choir.
The Sunday School classes.

And every individual member of the parish who may not be affiliated with any of these organizations. If you have a friend, a member of your family, an acquaintance, a neighbor or a business acquaintance who is not a confirmed member of the church, please send us their name and address. We will help do the rest.

CHURCH VOCABULARY

As noted in previous issues, the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Philadelphia, has published what we think is one of the most helpful pamphlets ever issued to Churchman, under the title of Church Vocabulary. It is so important that we have been publishing a portion of its contents in the Broadcaster and will continue to do so until we have published the whole of it. This number contains the ninth installment. We advise the Broadcaster readers to keep each issue ever handy.

DIOCESAN MATTERS

LAITY—Derived from the Latin Laicus, Greek Laikos, from Laos, meaning "people." The word means of or pertaining to the people as distinguished from the clergy. The term was first used in the Second century. It ought to be noticed that the term Laity, or Layman, does not mean the mere absence of rank, but denotes a positive order in the church.

LAY READER—A layman who reads the church service, that is, in part, when licensed to do so by the Bishop of the Diocese. There is a Canon on this subject, setting forth the method of appointment and regulating his work. The lay reader is limited to the use only of those portions of the service which do not belong properly to the ministry. When the priest is present any layman for that matter may read the lessons in Daily Morning and Evening Prayer, also the Litany, as far as the Lord's Prayer.

PREACHING MISSION—The word "Mission" is sometimes applied to a special effort made in a parish or Diocese to arouse and quicken the people; to lead them to a deeper realization and appreciation of the privileges and blessings of religion, to make Christ's system to bear on their hearts and lives and to lead them to ask: "Can we not all do more than we are doing and do all with a better spirit."

PARISH—The term used to signify a local congregation, having a church building, a charter from the State and duly organized under the corporate title of "Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen." In its articles of association the Parish acknowledges and accedes to the Constitution, Canons, Doctrines, Discipline and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and to the Canons of the Diocese in which it is located. One Parish may have any number of separate buildings, a church and one or many chapels, for instance; but all these are parts only of one Parish.

PARISH HOUSE—By means of the growing activities of the church it is sometimes found necessary and desirable—sometimes not—to have some building other than the church proper where the secular work of a Parish can be carried on; a place where societies, clubs, schools, etc., can have their "workshop." Such a building is called the Parish House. It is not a part of a church building proper and is not a consecrated building.

PARISHIONER—One who belongs to a Parish. The Parish partakes of the character of the people who compose it. It is customary to use crude definitive terms and speak of High-Church Parishes, Low-Church Parishes, etc. It is improper to speak of Parishioners of a chapel, since a chapel is not a Parish; it is but part of a larger inclusive Parish and attendants there at services are enrolled in the Parish as a whole. They are so received and so transferred.

EDW. K. TRYON CO.

"Sporting Goods Since 1811"

Fishing Tackle
Athletic Goods
Guns, Rifles
Ammunition
Toys & Games

912 CHESTNUT ST.
PHILADELPHIA

The Mission of the Transfiguration

Some Interesting News of Its Latest Activities

After several years of hoping and waiting the little congregation of the Mission of the Transfiguration, located on the southwest corner of Seventh and Bigler streets, are realizing their dream of a proper and decent place in which to worship. On the evening of Friday, March 6, the cornerstone of the new chapel was laid by the Right Rev. Francis M. Taitt, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

It was a romantic and an inspiring sight. There was strung a line of incandescent lights around the front and corner, where the cornerstone was to be laid. There were present, besides the Bishop, the Dean of the Convocation of South Philadelphia; Rev. George Herbert Toop, D. D., Rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles; the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary-in-charge of the mission; Mr. Edward Proffitt, lay missionary of the mission; Mr. Christopher Hepworth, assistant lay missionary; Miss Virginia Pelter, organist; Mr. Robert Gill, architect and the contractor, and congregation of the mission. The evening being very cold, Bishop Taitt was kind enough to shorten the service by reading a few associate prayers. After which Dr. Toop read a short chapter of the Scriptures. Mr. McHenry deposited in the stone a copy of the Holy Bible, a copy of the latest edition of the Book of Common Prayer and a parchment upon which were inscribed the names of the Bishop of the Diocese, the Dean of the Convocation of South Philadelphia, the Missionary-in-charge, the Lay Missionary, the Assistant Lay Missionary, the architect, the contractor and builder, the names of the candidates to be confirmed immediately after the laying of the cornerstone, the names of the Sunday school scholars, teachers and officers, and the names of all the communicants of the mission. Beside the names of the communicants who were present at the service a checking mark was placed signifying that fact. After the articles were deposited in the stone the Bishop proceeded with the service. At the end of the ceremony the whole assembly of about 200 persons joined in singing "America." This was the first cornerstone laid by Bishop Taitt since he assumed the office of the Ninth Bishop of the Diocese.

The clergy and the people proceeded immediately to the old chapel, where it was arranged to hold our annual Confirmation service. The little chapel was crowded to the doors and folks were standing in the aisles and the vestibule. After the processional and a brief form of prayer, Bishop Taitt preached a most inspiring sermon full of encouragement and hope. After the sermon Mr. McHenry suggested that since it was but a day since the burial of Bishop Garland it would be most appropriate for the members of the chapel to put up some sort of a memorial for him in the new chapel, especially because of his deep and

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 South Street

Formerly of S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055

OYEN'S BAKERY

1713 South Second Street

Formerly of 120 Porter Street

Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M.

WEDDING and BIRTHDAY CAKES a Specialty

sympathetic interest in the mission. It was he who bought the land upon which it is erected, and he was the one who indorsed the plans of the building. After the singing of another hymn the following roll was called by Mr. Proffitt. As each name was called the person came forward to be presented.

Bauer, Carl	Klingler, Mrs. Samuel S.
Bauer, Harry	Meyers, George
Bauer, Leo Stephen	Meyers, Mrs. George
Bauer, Richard H.	Meyers, Margaret L.
Bauer, Walter	McConnell, Thomas
Gerry, Charles, Sr.	Sherwood, Clifford
Gerry, Charles, Jr.	Sherwood, Earl
Gorman, John Joseph	Sherwood, George
Hetzel, Emma M.	Sherwood, Howard
Hetzel, Mary E.	Sherwood, Robert
Hope, Howard	Wade, Howard
Jones, Benjamin H.	Young, Charles B.
Kinkler, Ada M.	Young, Harry

Besides the candidates for Confirmation three persons were received. They were:

Cancellaricce, Ella
Cancellaricce, Mary
Cancellaricce, Mattio

The Missionary-in-charge announced that he appointed Easter day, Sunday, April 5, at 9 A. M., the time for the new class to receive their first Communion. As this is a day of obligation it is expected that all other communicants will receive at the same time.

Phone Orders Delivered Call Oregon 3953-W

"Brown Bobby" Greaseless Doughnuts

Made by

Mrs. Meta Carbarns

2546 So. Front Street

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother

(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

The Merchants whose advertisements are found here are leaders in their line of business. They want your trade and solicit your patronage through your own paper. Patronize them, they are worthy of your co-operation.

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN

Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753

MAX SMITH

Dealer in

Boots, Shoes & Rubbers

S. E. Corner Third and McKean Streets

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

EASTER

Large Assortment of Artistically Decorated

Fresh Cocoanut Cream Eggs

Shell Eggs, Jelly Eggs, Lady Cocoanut Eggs, Princess and Butter Eggs; Also Novelties

General Line of Fine Chocolates and Candies

G. H. GEILFUS

(Elizabeth Jaiser, Prop.)

1444 South Second Street Cor. Dickinson St.

AN UNUSUAL BURIAL

By Rev. J. F. Weinmann

City missionaries have many unusual out-of-the-way experiences, more so perhaps than do clergymen in regular lines of their calling. I think the experience I had today, however, was about the last word in the unusual, the weird and the gruesome. I have often been to the city morgue and seen sights there and had services there and experiences, but this experience of today was a thing apart. In a real way, too, it was a rather impressive commentary on life. It is perhaps not commonly realized that even among those in the thick of the dread and dire in the life of a big city there is a sense of responsibility, a sense of the sacred and the decent, that would not at once be looked for or expected, and that would do credit to less somber and austere depths of the curve of life in populated centers. Policemen do not carelessly treat the body, and are silent and reverent, almost hushed, in the presence of the shame and nakedness of poverty, distress and crime. And doctors seem that way, too, hardened as they are and inured to the depths, and where it would not be strange if they became hard-boiled, and almost lost to hush and reverence and decent defense and responsibility and protection. But not at all. They face facts and do what needs to be done and what they hope will advance general human welfare, but they are not rough about it, or without respect and innate conceptions of the sacredness of life and the body that for our human span houses it. Nurses, too, are carefully taught how to prepare a body for burial and there is a respect and a reverence about it that would surprise you perhaps and that is certainly impressive.

I was called (a little mysteriously) to conduct a burial, but it was the strangest and the most weird and solemn burial service (and one has been present at many through the years) that I have ever been called upon to conduct. A young man, a medical student, called for me and drove me to a side or back entrance to what turned out to be the dissecting rooms of a big city hospital, and there in the basement, through a long corridor, past dimly-burning jets, and on through a room of dissecting tables, and out to the far back room, I was brought face to face with—the subject or subjects of my, what in familar phrase is called "the last service the living can render the dead." There in a quiet reverent respectful and appreciative presence of a head doctor, a student and two attendants, I read the burial service over the remains of dissected bodies —remains ready for shipment in 22 boxes to a cemetery somewhere in the nearby county, all in 22 boxes. Though almost touching my feet, as I stood vested in these spooky surroundings, lay covered a headless body, or what seemed such, and not quite covered, two protruding feet. May the unfortunate poor whose souls housed these bodies, used for humanity's enlightenment, whoever they were, whatever they were, and whatever their unfortunate circumstances—may they rest in peace and in the mercy of God may light eventually, as upon us all, shine upon them. I thought it rather fine that those in authority, medical men and their assistants, should be thus concerned that these unknown dead who had given this last measure of service should be thus finally sacredly considered and given some kind of last rights and rites of religion.

The Mighty Sunday School Scholar and the Mighty Mite Chest

"Mighty Oaks From Little Acorns Grow"

We are not quite sure of our quotation, but it is our sentiment as it stands nevertheless. Our Sunday School Scholar and his little Mite Chest strongly reminds us of a certain little boy who had five little buns and a few little fiishes who helped our Lord to perform the greatest miracle of his ministry by feeding 5000 people and having several baskets full of food left over.

We are sure that our Sunday School Scholar, with his little pasteboard Mite Chest, can help Jesus Christ perform just such another and an even more important miracle today.

Suppose, for instance, every boy and girl of our Sunday School, including the Bible Classes, of course, has put just 3 cents a day in that little Mite Chest and then returns it on Easter Day for the Sunday School Lenten Offering, what would it mean? Well, we have 470 Scholars, Teachers and Officers in our Sunday School, so here is how it would work out:

470 Scholars @ 3 cents equals $14.10 per day.
47 days @ $14.10 (including Sundays) equals $662.70

Now who would ever have guessed it! Certainly that is a miracle and one which we know can be performed by Jesus Christ if we will help Him with our MIGHTY MITE CHEST.

Now, I tell you what we will do. Suppose we form a little society and call ourselves the MIRACLE WORKERS' UNION. Let us watch the Mite Chest closely. Let us give all our friends and relations a chance to help raise our 3 cents a day. Then on Easter Day I'm sure we will have not $662.70, but we will have twice, perhaps thrice, that much.

Perhaps we had better keep a permanent record of all the members of the MIRACLE WORKERS' UNION by PRINTING IN THE BROADCASTER THE NAMES OF EVERYBODY HAVING A DOLLAR AND OVER IN THEIR MITE CHEST EASTER DAY.

We will print all the names under the title of the MIRACLE WORKERS' UNION. Of course, it must be understood that only he who has a dollar or more in his Lenten box can belong to the UNION.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 5, No. 5 PHILADELPHIA, MAY, 1931 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Charles Little, Assistant Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.
Heber Rutter
Jeremiah K. Rutter

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
John Preole, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Branton, Eva
Brown, Marguerite Sally
Downs, John Percival
Hetzel, Ida May Elizabeth
Moseley, John Scherer
Robinson, Robert Donald
Smith, Elizabeth Rebecca
Westenberger, Margarite May
Westenberger, Theodosia Sarah

MARRIAGES

Rocco Pierro and Gertrude Murphy
William A. Hubbard and Catherine A. Kull
James White and Susie O'Connell

BURIALS

Colvey, Joseph M.
Horn, Laura E.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

JOSEPH COLVEY

On Saturday, March 21, Joseph Colvey, prominent communicant of St. John's Church, entered into eternal rest. His decease was unexpected and deprives the Parish of the advice and services of a man well trained along lines which were of real value to the Church. Mr. Colvey was ill not more than a week. Although very quiet of disposition and not a man to thrust himself forward on any occasion the influence of his personality was felt for good. Mr. Colvey was an active member of the Parish Committee, where he served the Parish faithfully and well.

The Parish and the Rector have lost a true friend in his passing. We join the loving members of his bereaved family in mourning his departure.

OUR AMAZING EASTER

An Outstanding Day for Even This Most Remarkable Parish

We scarcely know how to tell of all the wonderful and happy happenings on Easter day. Events of big and startling import followed each other so fast that we have little more than a jumbled idea of what really did happen.

First, the weather man put us all in a good humor by making the weather just right—neither too hot nor too cold. It's true the sun was not much in evidence, but the day was bright and clear just the same.

THE SUNRISE SERVICE

It was not really a Sun Rise Service in the sense that we held it at the rising of the sun, rather it was an early service scheduled for 6.30 o'clock.

When we arrived at the Church we were astonished at the lovely floral display. Easter lilies and potted plants were everywhere—on the altar, in the chancel, in the choir, in the font, at the foot of the lectern, on the organ, on the pulpit, on the steps outside the choir—two score and more of beautiful blooms. The chancel was particularly beautiful. Leading down the chancel steps was a path bordered with pots of tall lilies, which gave the illusion of a veritable lily garden around the altar. The women who arranged the flowers so fascinatingly deserve high praise.

At this early service a steady stream of people flowed into the Church until it was filled. Promptly at 6.30 o'clock the choir began to sing the one and only Easter procession, "WELCOME, HAPPY MORNING."

THE CHOIR

This is a good place to say something about our choir. St. John's Parish is blessed with folk who can sing. Our choir of twenty-seven male and female voices revealed a power, precision and beauty of tone and harmony seldom equaled by a volunteer choir. Every member, including the organist, deserves praise for the masterly rendition of our Easter music, including the hymns, the three special anthems and the beautiful Communion service. We congratulate the choir members, and take real pleasure in telling them that we heard favorable comments from many of the congregation. The choir has reason to be proud of their work.

THE EASTER COMMUNION

We will always remember that early Communion. How the crowds pressed forward, and line after line of worshipers knelt at the chancel to receive the Body and Blood of our Blessed Lord. Women and girls, men and boys, kept moving forward in double file to the altar until it seemed the end of the line never would be reached. It was a wonderful outpouring of the faithful, and we were profoundly happy because of it.

THE EASTER OFFERING

We had no reason to expect a large Easter offering this year because of the unemployment condtions. IT MUST ALWAYS BE REMEMBERED THAT ST. JOHN'S IS A WORKINGMAN'S PARISH. When jobs are scarce our men and women are idle and money vanishes from circulation. These observations are made so that you will be unprepared for what we are about to say. SIXTY PER CENT. OF OUR MEMBERS ARE EITHER IDLE OR ON PART TIME. Consequently no financial support could be expected of them. Those of us who had steady jobs or a regular income felt that such a state placed an added responsibility on us and that it was our duty to assume a greater financial burden. We determined to rise to the occasion and convert our Easter offering into a Thanksgiving offering and give as much as we could possibly give in return for the blessings that God had given us. The result was beyond our wildest expectations. Instead of falling behind, our Easter offering was larger than ever before. The actual amount received at the two services was $575.52. Since then belated offerings have brought the totals up to $594.52, which is greatly in excess of our best year.

THE 11 O'CLOCK SERVICE

The second or 11.00 o'clock service was a duplicate of the early service, except it was an entirely different congregation of worshipers. There were the same beautiful flowers, the same glorious music, the same fervent enthusiasm, the same crowds pressing forward to receive their Easter Communion, the same overflowing alms basons laden with Easter offerings. Everything the same and we doubly joyful because the second was as big and as wonderful as the first service. We naturally expected a considerable falling off of this service because of the size of the first congregation. To show how nearly of a size were the two services the number of communicants who received at the first was 255 and the number at the second was 210; making a total of 465 communicants who made their Easter Communion at old St. John's.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL EASTER SERVICE

The happy events of the morning presaged a happy Sunday School Easter service. But the most optimistic was unprepared for the big surprise awaiting us at the end of the day. The program for the afternoon was: 1. Easter Carol, Senior Department. 2. Reception and Counting of the Lenten Offering. 3. Easter Carol, Kindergarten Department. 4. Distribution of 125 silver Gothic crosses for perfect church attendance during Lent; the distribution of 300 chocolate eggs, 340 Easter cards, one silver Crusader pin for half a year perfect Sunday School attendance, one gold pin for a whole year perfect attendance and 25 solid gold and enameled second year Crusader pins to 25 scholars having a clear record for two years' attendance. 5. Easter Carol, Intermediate Department. 6. Distribution of Easter flowers and plants among the sick, shut-in and aged of the Parish. 7. Easter Carol, Combined School. 8. The crashing surprise of the day which brought the service to a stunning end of happy confusion. The committee appointed to count the Lenten Offering announced they were ready to make their report. We felt little shivers of apprehension up and down our spine when they filed in. We wanted to hear the report and we didn't want to hear it. We were certain of a big slump and we dreaded to learn how big a slump it was. We held our breath all the time John Nelson, Treasurer of our Sunday School, read the offering by classes. Then he raised us from the cellar of gloom and hurled us to the sun and moon and stars of joy when he announced that THE GRAND TOTAL OF THE OFFERING WAS $1660.35, WITH SEVERAL SOURCES NOT YET HEARD FROM. Since writing the above the offering has been raised to $1718.35.

Right then and there the most amazing Easter day in the history of old St. John's came to a sudden end, the whole Sunday School of 340 voices shouting the Doxology with more noise than tune. Folks fairly ran out of the Church, down the street, into their homes, telling the wonderful news to the home folks.

Why? Because we had broken a Parish Record and that in the hardest year of unemployment and suffering we ever experienced. Our courage and fighting ability had won, we had turned defeat into victory—we had done the impossible thing. We will never forget the thrill of triumph we had that day.

WHAT A GLORIOUS THING IT IS TO BE A REAL RED BLOODED FIGHTING ST. JOHNITE. TO BE A MEMBER OF A BAND WHO DO NOT KNOW WHEN THEY ARE "LICKED."

What Men and Women of International Prominence Think of the Sunday School

DO YOU LINE UP WITH THEM?

Opinion of Herbert Hoover, President of the United States (June 9, 1930)

"The Sabbath School, therefore, is at the very root of the religious life, with all its benefits to the individual and the nation, and for this reason I cordially commend all efforts to enlarge its field of usefulness."

Opinion of Calvin Coolidge (April 26, 1930)

"The Sunday Schools furnish a great agency by which spiritual ideals are made a part of the life of the younger generation of the people of the United States and the growth of such schools is of inestimable benefit in providing a higher type of citizenship."

Opinion of Mrs. Gertrude Atherton, Author (June 7, 1930)

"When I was a young girl I was obliged to attend the Sunday School of St. John's Church in San Francisco, of which my grandfather, Stephen Franklin, was superintendent, as well as an elder of the church. I say 'obliged,' for I should have been marched to Sunday School every Sunday morning whether I wanted to go or not, but I look back upon that interval in my life as a pleasant memory. I not only enjoyed meeting the other young people, but got a sound knowledge of Biblical history."

Opinion of Claude G. Bowers, Editor, The Evening World (April 24, 1930)

"The Sunday School is as essential in the moulding of character for useful citizenship as the public schools. It gives a needed emphasis to ethical standards, creates ideals of personal conduct, and raises one's ideas of values above the merely material things of life. The Sunday School prevents that exaltation of money over morals which constitutes the more

(Continued on Page 8)

Our Bunny Party

This list of names are those who by contributing their EASTER OFFERING are entitled to be rated as SUPPORTING MEMBERS of St. John's Church.

Adams, Mrs. Helen
Adgate, Mrs. Margaret
Adgate, James
Alloway, Catharine
Amerman, Mrs. Frank, Jr.
Anonymous
Armstrong, Florence M.
Ashman, Mrs. Margaret
Ashman, Helen

Barnes, Mrs. Cecelia
Barnes, Miss Ethlyn
Bauer, Mrs.
Beck, John E.
Bedlow, Mrs. Anna
Bedlow, Mrs. Louisa
Bedlow, William
Beisser, Mrs. Annie
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Miss Mamie
Bender, Mrs. Caroline
Blech, Charles
Blech, Mrs. Charles
Boehner, Mr. and Mrs.
Bricker, Mrs. Jennie
Briggs, S. S.
Brinckman, Mrs. Rebecca
Brotherh'd of St. Andrew
Bunting, Walter
Bunting, Mrs. Walter
Burkhardt, Florence
Burkhardt, Katherine
Burns, George
Burns, Katharine
Butler, Emma I.
Butler, Anna K.

Capie, Mrs. Jennie
Capie, Richard
Carbarnes, Anna
Carbarnes, Elizabeth
Carbarnes, Mrs. Meta
Carbarnes, Henry
Chamberlain, Mrs. James L., Jr.
Chestnut, Miss Jennie
Chestnut, Reba
Chestnut, Robert, Jr.
Clark, Harry B.
Clark, Mrs. Kathleen
Clendenning, Charles
Clendenning, Jennie
Clendenning, William
Clerico, Ferdy
Clerico, Mrs. Ferdy
Colvey, Miss Maria
Connelly, Marie A.
Connelly, Mrs. C.
Connor, Mrs. Laura M.
Connor, Mrs. Rae
Cooper, Mrs. Joseph
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Coyle, John
Crawford, Gladys
Cressee, Mrs. George
Cressee, George, Sr.
Cressee, George, Jr.
Cressee, Raymond
Cunningham, Thomas
Cunningham, Mrs. Sarah
Cunningham, Walter

Dart, Edward J.
Daughters of the King
Davis, Mrs. Margaret
Dean, Ruth V.
DeCosta, Mrs. Margt. M.
Deitrich, Marie Augusta
Dingler, Mrs. Annie
Dickhart, William W.
Dougherty, William
Dougherty, Mary Emma Downes, Mrs. Laura
Downes, George W.
Dunbar, Elizabeth
Dunbar, Irma L.
Dupon, Miss Anna
Dysert, John

Emberschied, Mrs. Annie
Erickson, Mrs. Margaret
Erickson, Mrs. Marion
Evans, Thomas
Ewell, Thelma V.

Falck, Mrs. Annie
Falck, Arnold
Falck, Edward Amil
Fanger, Mrs. Anna M.
Fanger, Harry
Feinauer, Mrs. Amy B.
Felder, Heywood
Ferguson, Albert
Fisher, Miss M. Beatrice
Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Cath.
Fitzpatrick, Edward
Flomerfelt, Miss Emma
Fogarty, Andrew
Fogarty, Joseph
In memory of
Forster, William
Fowler, Dorothy M.
Frederickson, Clara
Friend, Thomas
Friend, Florence

Gallagher, Isaac
Gallagher, Mrs. Kate
Gallagher, Joseph
Giles, E. W.
Green, Mrs. Emma
Green, William
Green, Joseph
Greenfield, Mrs. Lydai
Greenfield, Robert
Gregory, Mrs. Grace
Gregory, George
Gregory, George Fox
Gresh, Mrs. Harry
Griggs, Anna L.
Griggs, Mrs. Elizabeth
Grubb, Marie
Grubb, Mrs. Pauline
Grubb, Rufus
Grubb, William

Hilbert, Mrs. Mabel
Hamilton, Mrs. Florence
Hartman, Earl, Sr.
Hartman, John
Hartman, Earl, Jr.,
Harris, Marie
Hasson, William
Hasson, Mrs. William
Hasson, Kathryne
Haury, Mary
Henkle, Mrs. Rebecca
Henderson, Josephine T.
Henderson, Harry H.
Hill, George
Holton, Miss Edna
Holton, Alice P.
Holton, Mrs. Margaret
Holton, Joseph
Holton, Margaret
Holton, Elizabeth
Hopkins, Mrs. Harry
Howard, Mrs. Hannah
Hudak, Mr. and Mrs.
Jackson, Miss Elsie
Jaeschke, Mrs. Herman
Jaeschke, Gus
Jaeschke, Herman
Johnson, Mrs.
Jones, Mrs. F. Fassitt
Jones, George C., Sr.
Jorett, Mrs. Catharine

Karstein, Lillian K.
Kensil, John
King, Mrs. Clara
King, William
Kleinz, Anna
Knowlton, Mrs. Frank, Sr.
Knowlton, Frank, Sr.
Knowlton, Frank, Jr.
Kraft, Edward
Kraft, Mrs. Edward
Krause, James T.
Krause, William

Lafferty, Miss Martha
Lawrence, George, Jr.
Lawrence, Catherine
Lawrence, George, Sr.
Lawrence, James
Lawrence, Mrs. George
Leach, Joseph
Leach, May
Leach, S. Bowman
Lenhart, David, Sr.
Lenhart, David, Jr.
Lenhart, Eleanor L.
Lenhart, Mrs. Margaret
Lenhart, Margaret
In memory of
Little, Andrew, Sr.
In memory of
Little, Andrew, Jr.
Little, Charles
Little, W. E.
Little, Mrs. Mary
Little, Mrs. Charles
Logue, Mrs. Margaret
Logue, Robert
Lord, Mrs. Rebecca
Ludwig, Mrs. Anna M.
Lumbeck, Mrs. Jennie M.
Lumbeck, Lillie W.

McCall, Ella
McCall, Harry
McCall, William
McCloskey, Mrs. Carrie

OUR BUNNY PARTY [Continued]

McDowell, Mrs. Mary
McHenry, Rev. H. C.
McKeown, James
McKeown, Mrs. Martha
McKeown, Mrs. Lillian
McKeown, Matthew
McKeown, Mrs. Rebecca
McLaughlin, Anna
McLaughlin, Michael
McLaughlin, Mrs. Matilda
McLaughlin, Rosella

MacFarland, Elizabeth
MacFarland, John
MacVaugh, Mrs. Anna
MacVaugh, Miss Sylvania
MacVaugh, William
Maguire, Mrs. Eliza
Maguire, George
Maguire, Lydia
Major, William
Marley, Mrs. Emma
Marnie, Thomas
Martin, Miss Suanna
Matthews, Vernon
Matthews, Mrs. Vernon
Mehring, Mrs. Anna
Meinhart, Herbert A.
Meyers, Charles
Meyers, Mrs. Mary
Miller, Anna May
Miller, Mrs. Dorothy
Miller, Dorothy
Miller, Eleanor M.
Miller, Robert
Miller, Walter
Miller, Warren J.
Mitchell, Mrs. Madeline
Murphy, Mrs. Mary

Nelson, John, Jr.
Nelson, Mrs. John, Jr.
Nilsson, Frederick
Nuttall, Miss Hannah

O'Donnell, Mrs. Kath.
Oliver, Mrs.
Olsen, Genevieve
Olson, Mrs. Genevieve
Olsen, Grace

Patterson, Mrs. Anna
Patterson, Mrs. Carrie
Patterson, John, Jr.
Pearo, Mrs. Mary A.
Personna, Mrs.
Pierce, Evelyn
Pierce, Mrs. Eva
Pine, Edward
Pine, Mrs. Lillian
Poynter, Elizabeth R.
Preole, John F.
Preole, Ruth
Preole, James
Preole, John C.

Quaile, Dorothy

Rand, Mrs. Mary
Rand, Andrew
Rassman, Mrs. Edward
Rassman, Edward
Read, Mrs. Hannah H.
Redding, Mrs. Frances
Reed, Mrs. Adeline
Reynolds, Mrs. Catherine
Reynolds, Jennie
Reynolds, Leona
Reynolds, Walter
Rhodes, John
Rhodes, Francis
Rhodes, William
Righter, Bertha
Robins, Robert
Robins, Mrs. A.
Robins, Anna
Robins, Mabel
Robinson, Mrs. Annie
Roddy, Mrs. Dora C.
Rowand, James Thomas
Rudderow, Mrs. Bertha
Rudderow, Godfrey
Rutter, Catherine
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Edward
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, James
Rutter, Jennie I.
Rutter, Jeremiah King, Jr.
Rutter, Mrs. Jer. King, Jr.
Rutter, Michael
Rutter, Robert
Rutter, Ruth

Scarinci, John
Scarinci, Mrs. John
Schaab, Frederick
Schabacker, Miss Anna
Schlembac, Mrs. Cath.
Schlembac, Charles
Schlembac, Julius
Schmidt, Frank G.
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank G.
Scott, Mrs. George
Seher, Catherine
Seher, May
Seher, Mrs. Margaret
Seher, Harry P.
Shields, Mrs. Bella
Shoch, Mrs. Minnie
Silbert, Miss Ella
Silbert, Mrs. Ella
Simpson, Mrs. Emma
Simpson, Jennie
Smith, Edward
Smith, Mrs. Rebecca
Smith, Anna May
Smith, Lewis, Sr.
Smith, Lewis, Jr.
Snell, Samuel, Sr.
Snell, Mrs. Samuel, Sr.
Snell, Richard
Snell, Mrs. Richard
Snell, Samuel, Jr.
Snell, Mrs. Samuel, Jr.
Spratt, Catherine
Spratt, Finley
Spratt, John
Spratt, Thomas
Spratt, John, Jr.
Spratt, Margaret
Springer, Mrs. Anna
Sprogell, Mrs. Bertha
Sprogell, Mr.
Stenger, Mr. and Mrs. W.
Stenger, Mrs. Laura
Stenger, Webster
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, Dorothy
St. John's Fellowship
Stockman, Mrs. Elizabeth
Stockman, James
Stockman, Harry
Stockman, Samuel
Stone, David
Stone, William
Strang, Carrie
Strang, Elizabeth
Strang, Edward
Stryker, Mrs. Emma
Stryker, Harry
Stryker, Valentine
Substal, Mrs. Florence
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Sutterlin, Ethel
Sutterlin, Thelma

Taylor, Mrs. Sarah
Taylor, Benjamin F.
Taylor, Ethel E.
Tesche, Cecelia
Tittermary, Harry, Sr.
Tomlin, Mrs. Mary

Valentine, Mrs. Margaret
Van Arsdale, Mrs. Lillian Venezialle, Mrs. A.
Venezialle, Frances
Venezialle, Dominick
Volpe, Peter
Von Franke, Mrs. Flor.

Ward, Carrie
Ward, Abraham
Ward, Mrs. Carrie
Ward, William
Ward, Abraham L.
Warren, Samuel
Watts, Sarah T.
Weber, John
Weber, Mrs. John
Webster, Mrs. Margaret
Weist, Charles W.
Weist, Mrs. Charles
Weller, Mrs. C.
Wharton, Mrs. Martha
Wilhelm, Mrs. Katharine
Woerner, Mrs. R., Sr.
Woerner, Rudolph, Sr.
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Alberta Veron.
Woerner, Rudolph, Jr.
Woerner, Eleanor
Woessner, Charles
Woessner, Mrs. Clara
Woessner, Miss Clara
Woman's Auxiliary
Woodruff, Mrs. Mary
Woodruff, Howard
Woodruff, Walter
Woodruff, Joseph
Woods, Mrs. Margaret

Young, Mrs. Laura
Young, William, Jr.
Young, George
Young Viola
Young Women's Christian League.

EASTER AT THE TRANSFIGURATION

All the Day's Services Held in the New Chapel

If anybody ever was in doubt as to the need of a new Chapel for the Mission of the Transfiguration, located on the southwest corner of Seventh and Bigler streets, he would have had them swept away had he attended that 9 o'clock Communion Service on Easter day. Remember, the service was the first celebrated in the unfinished Chapel. Every chair was occuped, worshipers were standing in the aisle all the way to the front door, clear out to the steps. In a space built to accommodate less than 100 souls there were crowded 205 persons, all residents of that particular section of Philadelphia which proves the contention we have held ever since the Chapel has been located here, i. e., there is a large group of people living in the vicinity of the Chapel to whom it can and ought to minister. Of this number 119 regular members made their Easter Communion. The Easter offering amounted to $46.50, a fact which shows that with little encouragement NOW the Mission could easily be made self-supporting in a few years.

The altar was beautifully adorned with Calla lilies, Easter Lilies, and many other blooms and plants. And although the interior of the Chapel is in an unfinished condition, with rafters and raw edges sticking out everywhere, the women of the Chapel had succeeded in making the little Chapel very attractive. It is a pity the Chapel is so small. Its size is proving a handicap to us already.

In the afternoon the Sunday School held its Easter service. There were seventy-eight present. The program was appropriate for the occasion. Each scholar received a chocolate egg. The Sunday School Lenten Offering to date amounts to over $100.00. There are certain outstanding sums which when received may bring the total to near $150.00.

DISTINGUISHED ROLL

Of St. John's Sunday School Scholars, Teachers and Officers

The following are the names of the Scholars, Teachers and Officers of our Sunday School who gave one dollar or more to the SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING and helped us put over the most amazing piece of finance ever done in the Parish. They deserve this special recognition:

Amerman, Mrs. Frank, Jr.
Armstrong, Florence
Armstrong, Marian
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Dorothy
Baus, Mrs. Anna
Bender, Mrs. Caroline
Blech, Mrs. Jennie
Bruch, Richard
Busch, Lillian
Busch, Charlotte
Butler, Emma
Carbarnes, Elizabeth
Clendenning, Jennie
Clendenning, Charles
Clendenning, William
Colvey, Maria
Connelly, Alma
Connelly, Marie A.
Cooper, Joseph, Sr.
Cooper, Joseph, Jr.
Cooper, Helen
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Cressee, Raymond
Cressee, Sr., George
Cressee, Jr., George
Dean, Thomas
Dean, Virginia
Dietrich, Marie
Dinsmore, Thomas
Dinsmore, Walter
Fisher, Miss M. B.
Gallagher, Robert
Gallagher, Hanna
Gallagher, William
Grubb, Marie
Grubb, Herman
Hagan, Charles
Hagan, Michael
Hamilton, Mrs. Irene
Harvey, Violet
Haury, Miss Mary
Heinemann, Charles
Heinemann, Harry
Heinemann, Edna
Holton, Margaret
Jaeschke, Mrs. Herman
Johnson, Edwin
Kaiser, Emma
Karstein, Lillian
Karstein, Elizabeth
Keough, Jane
King, Anna J.
Knowlton, Frank, Jr.
Konowal, Mrs. Barbara
Kraff, Harry
Kraff, Joseph
Lafferty, Martha
Last, Jeanette
Lawrence, Catharine
Lawrence, George
Little, Charles
Logue, Marie
McCall, Joseph
McCall, William
McDowell, Samuel
McHenry, Rev. H. C.
McHenry, John
McKane, Beatrice
McKeown, Mrs. Rebecca
Madden, Mrs. Emma
Matthews, Vernon
Matthews, Mrs. Vernon
Meinhart, Herbert
Miller, Dorothy
Nelson, John
Nelson, Mrs. John
Nuttall, Miss Hannah
Panto, Mrs. Viola
Patterson, Carrie May
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, James
Pine, Catharine
Pine, Edward
Pine, Mrs. Lillian
Preole, John F.
Quaile, Marion
Quaile, Dorothy
Read, Mrs. Hannah
Reynolds, Dorothy
Robbins, Anna
Robbins, Robert
Romano, Mrs. Ida
Ross, Patricia
Rutter, Rose
Rutter, Ruth
Rutter, Robert
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Jennie
Rutter, Edward
Rutter, Violet
Seher, Catherine
Seher, Thomas
Shields, Mrs. Bella
Spratt, John
Spratt, James
Spratt, Thomas
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, Ethel
Strang, Miss Carrie
Stryker, Ornet
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Tittermary, Heber,
Tittermary, John
Tittermary, Anna
Watts, Miss Sarah
Weber, Mrs. John
Weist, Dorothy
Weist, Charles
Welsh, Albert
Welsh, William
Wilhelm, Catharine
Woerner, Rudolph, Sr.
Woerner, Mrs. Rudloph
Woerner, Eleanor
Woerner, Beatrice
Young, Viola

Our Sunday School Department

TAKE YOUR CHILD TO SUNDAY SCHOOL

A NEW YORK CITY Judge recently gave his opinion regarding the youthful criminal of today. There are a variety of views upon this subject, all with the same end in mind, namely, the best way to prevent crime. The Judge is quoted as follows:

"My experience during twenty-three years on the bench, in which time over four thousand boys under the age of 21 years were convicted of crime before me, of whom but three were members of a Sabbath school, has satisfied me of the value of Sabbath schools to the community, in helping safeguard it, to the extent to which Sabbath schools exist, from the growth of criminals.

"My experience also satisfies me of their value to the individual. In nineteen hundred and two cases of suspended criminal sentences, in each of which a minister, priest or rabbi became interested at my request, only sixty-two of the boys were brought back for violation of the conditions of parole. I believe the reform in the remaining cases was prompt and permanent.

"In fact, I regard our Sabbath schools, including those of all faiths, as the only effective means to stem the rising tide of vice and crime among our youth. Society carries the heavy burden of criminality, chiefly because of the lack of religious training of the youth.

"If all the children could be kept under the influence of the Sabbath school, and the grown-ups were active in some church, we could close our prisons and jails, instead of being compelled to enlarge and increase their number.

"The problem of youth is the problem of humanity. There are over seventeen million boys and girls in this country growing up without moral training from any source."

A LIST OF THE SECOND YEAR CRUSADERS

We take pleasure in publishing the names of those who received the beautiful solid gold two-year Christian Crusader pin for perfect Sunday School attendance for two years. They are as follows:

Ashman, Helen
Chestnut, Reba
Dean, Thomas
Doyle, Francis
Drumm, Robert
Gallagher, Robert
Haury, Mary
Johnson, Francis
Knowlton, Frank, Jr.
Lafferty, Martha
Nuttall, Miss Hannah
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, James
Quaile, Clara
Quaile, Dorothy
Quaile, Marion
Read, Mrs. Hannah H.
Robbins, Mabel
Spratt, Margaret
Spratt, Thomas
Stenger, Ethel
Watts, Miss Sarah
Woerner, Beatrice

Opinions of the Sunday School

(Continued from Page 3)

serious menace to our country and our civilization today. It stands for things that are elemental and abide."

Opinion of C. Douglass Buck, Governor of Delaware (May 14, 1930)

"I believe Sunday Schools are one of the fundamentals of good citizenship."

Opinion of Josephus Daniels, Editor, The News and Observer (Raleigh, N. C.) (April 17, 1930)

"In the old days the Sunday School was regarded as the nursery of the church and was attended almost exclusively by children. In these latter days it has become an integral part of the church, and there are not a few communities whose Sunday School enrollment is larger than the membership of the church. The business of the church is to reach people, and when they are reached, to teach them. In respect to teaching, the Sunday School holds a position second only to the pulpit. The preacher of our generation finds the Sunday School not only a right arm, but the very foundation for effective church work. 'Every church member in the Sunday School' should be the goal 'and every member of Sunday School in the church.'"

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER
230-232 Queen Street

EDW. K. TRYON CO.
"Sporting Goods Since 1811"
Fishing Tackle
Athletic Goods
Guns, Rifles
Ammunition
Toys & Games
912 CHESTNUT ST.
PHILADELPHIA

ENTERTAINMENT BUREAU

Owing to the growing demands upon the capacity of our Parish House and the confusion of dates and misunderstandings arising therefrom it has been deemed necessary to establish a BUREAU OF ENTERTAINMENTS, whose functions will be such as to overcome much of the dissatisfaction that has arisen in the past. The Rector will be President of the Bureau. It will hold monthly meetings and will pass on all applications for permits to hold entertainments, etc., whether free or otherwise. In making applications to the Bureau there are certain necessary regulations we must ask you to observe so as to enable the Bureau to conduct its affairs with system and satisfaction to all. We hope that every organization and person will co-operate with the Bureau and help make it a success. After it has functioned for a while we are confident that it will be a great asset to our Parochial social life. We ask each and every one to observe the following suggestions:

1. In making application for permit to hold any sort of social function, please state the nature, the purpose for which the money is being raised and the date you desire to give the affair. It would be well to choose a second date in case the first is not available.
2. A sample of proposed tickets and other advertising should be submitted to the Bureau who will attend to all printing matters.

3. A calendar of engagements will be kept by the Bureau and the dates of applicants will be placed upon it in the order they are received. When once a date is given it will not be changed unless the affair is cancelled or the applicants are satisfied to take a date at the end of the line of applicants. "Swapping of dates" will not be acceptable to the Bureau as it would confuse the whole calendar.

4. The sale of tickets will be managed by the organization giving the function. The organization will be asked for a list of persons selling tickets and no person will be allowed to sell tickets without the knowledge of the Bureau. This is to avoid the sale of tickets by irresponsible persons who fail to turn back the proceeds of sales. Such persons will receive the direct attention of the Bureau and will be blacklisted against selling any other tickets.

5. All money received from the sale of tickets, door receipts, cloak room or sale of refreshments, must be turned over to the ENTERTAINMENT BUREAU.

6. All bills for music, refreshments, prizes, etc., must receive the O. K. of the organization giving the affair and turned over to the Bureau to be paid. The Bureau will give a receipt for funds received less the expenses and require that credit for the full amount be given to the organization by the Financial Committee of the Parish.

7. Only recognized heads of Parish groups will have the right to receive permits for use of the Parish House.

8. No Parochial organization or group giving an entertainment will be charged for the use of the Parish House.

9. NO ORGANIZATION OR GROUP will be allowed to give entertainments, etc., for the purpose of raising funds for anything outside the Parish.

10. The Parish House will not be let or rented to any organization or group not connected with St. John's Parish.

11. All money must be deposited with the Parish Authorities within a month after the function is given.

13. The Rector is President of the Bureau and all applications for permits must be submitted to the Bureau through him. NO ENTERTAINMENT WILL BE ALLOWED WITHOUT A PERMIT. THE ABOVE RULES AND REGULATIONS APPLY TO EVERY ORGANIZATION OR GROUP OF INDIVIDUALS WISHING TO GIVE AN ENTERTAINMENT.

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 South Street

Formerly of S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055

OYEN'S BAKERY

1713 South Second Street
Formerly of 120 Porter Street
Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M.
WEDDING and BIRTHDAY CAKES a Specialty

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

AND NOW COMES CONFIRMATION

* * *

It was the most amazing Easter of our experience.

Number making their Communion at the 6.30 Service 255

Number making their Communion at the 9.00 Service 119

Number making their Communion at the 11.00 Service 210

Total number making their Communion at all Services 584

* * *

Easter day, the peak of Sunday School attendance for the year was reached. There were 347 scholars, teachers, officers and visitors present.

* * *

On Easter day, the Sunday School presented $1661.35, with the prospects of more receipts. $1000.00 of this we hope to apply to our mortgage.

* * *

Our Parochial offering for Easter day bids fair to be larger than for several years.

* * *

The secret of our large Sunday School offering lies in our system of working on it all the year.

* * *

The new Chapel of the Transfiguration could not accommodate the Easter crowd. 205 persons were present and 119 received their Easter Communion. Also four infants were Christened. The morning offering was over $46.00.

* * *

The Sunday School Lenten Offering for the Mission of the Transfiguration will be over $100.00.

* * *

Pre-Confirmation talks will be given EVERY SUNDAY EVENING at St. John's Church until Sunday, June 7, the date of our Confirmation service.

* * *

Every man, woman and child of the Parish are expected to do missionary work in getting candidates for Confirmation.

* * *

The Seventy-seventh Anniversary of St. John's Church will be celebrated all day Sunday, June 7. We hope old members living out of town will spend the day with us. The program of the day will be' Holy Communion, 11 A. M.; Parish Dinner, 12.30 P. M.; Sunday School Mass Meeting, 2.30 P. M.; Parish Supper, 5.00 P. M.; CONFIRMATION SERVICE, 8 P. M.

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN

Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753

MAX SMITH

Dealer in

Boots, Shoes & Rubbers

S. E. Corner Third and McKean Streets

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 5, No. 6 PHILADELPHIA, JUNE, 1931 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Charles Little, Assistant Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos	Altos
Miss Helen Ashman	Mrs. James Chamberlain
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke	Miss Kathryne Hasson
Miss Margaret Kensil	Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Miss Lydia Maguire	Miss Eleanor Woerner
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Tenors	Basses
Mr. James Adgate	Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Walter Cunningham	Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John F. Preole	Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Frank Knowlton, Jr.	Mr. Harry Seher
Heber Rutter	Mr. Samuel McDowell
Jeremiah K. Rutter

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
John Preole, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Baxter, Edith Viola
Brabazon, Thomas Sylvester
Crecelius, Lloyd James
Hamilton, Robert Wayne
Peltz, Harry Thomas
Sherwood, Edna Mae
Sherwood, Catherine Ann
Sherwood, Harry Culver
Strauman, Edith May
Wehrwein, Ellwood Joseph

MARRIAGES

William A. Canavan and Virginia E. Pelter
Gustav A. Jaeschke and Ethel A. Sutterlin

BURIALS

Pickering, Nellie
Read, Hannah H.
Shannon, Hugh

WEEKLY CALENDAR

	A. M.	P. M.
Sunday
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

OUR 77th ANNIVERSARY

We Are 77 Years Old and Fuller of "Pep" Than Ever

We are 77 years old. We say it with pride. The older we get the younger we get. When we were in our 50's we were so very dead everybody tried to bury us. Today we are enjoying the full vigor of youth. Every year we are doing something bigger and better than anything we ever did. Just glance back over the last twenty years of our history as a parish and you will shout for joy. In that time we have hung up a record for church work. It is as follows:

Families added to the church	498
Individuals involved	1992
Individuals BAPTIZED	1026
Individuals CONFIRMED	1479
Couples MARRIED	237
Persons BURIED	523

Let any other parish stand up and show a better record! What's more, we paid every cent of debt the parish owed twenty years ago. We have never been in debt since. We have given thousands of dollars to missions. We have the finest group of young people in South Philadelphia and we have one of the largest Sunday Schools of any denomination south of Market and between the two rivers.

Yes, we are 77 years old but we are NOT on the pension list. We still have our coats off and our sleeves rolled up. We have two mighty big jobs to do yet.

The first is the renovation of the Choir and Sanctuary. The carpet is too "holey" for the church. We are getting estimates for replacing it with a fine quality of inlaid linoleum in tile pattern. Then the Choir Stalls are a disgrace and a menace to the Choir singers. We are evolving a new choir seating system enclosed with an iron grill and an ornamental gate way. The job will cost about $1000.

Then we MUST paint the interior of the church. Its condition is too awful to contemplate. That will cost us about $3000. So you see we must stay young and active if we are to accomplish what is before us.

I HAVE AN IDEA!

How about everybody giving one cent for every year the parish is old then on the parish birthday let's all come and put 77 cents in the offering as a parish birthday present. Just think if all of us did that we would give $693.00. We could use that to pay off some more of our Parish House mortgage.

I HAVE ANOTHER IDEA!

Let's all try to get 77 candidates for Confirmation this year. One candidate for each year of the Parish's age. It would be great if we could start our 78th year like that.

LET'S DO IT—WHAT SAY?

77th ANNIVERSARY

We publish below a list of the Rectors, past and present, of St. John's Parish that their names may ever be connected with the wonderful progress of this church:

REV. GEORGE A. LATIMER
REV. WASHINGTON B. ERBEN
REV. CHARLES L. FISCHER
REV. W. F. B. JACKSON
REV. JOHN G. BAWN
REV. JOHN EDGAR JOHNSON
REV. GEORGE D. E. MORTIMORE
REV. JOHN MONCURE
REV. G. ALBERT HANNA
REV. ROYDEN KEITH YERKES
REV. EDWARD H. EARLE
REV. G. ALBERT REDLES
REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY

CONFIRMATION

The Meaning and Need of the Order

Rubric: Then the Bishop shall say:

"Do ye here, in the presence of God and this congregation

1. Renew the solemn promise and vow that ye made, or that was made in your name at Baptism:"
2. "RATIFYING (approving) and CONFIRMING (endorsing) the same."
3. "Acknowledging yourselves BOUND TO BELIEVE AND DO all those things which ye then undertook, or your sponsors undertook for you?"

Rubric: And everyone shall audibly answer

"I do."

In the Office of HOLY BAPTISM we learn just what is this "solemn promise and vow" we are here approving and endorsing. Following is an analysis of the questions and answers in the Service of Baptism.

Rubric: The Minister shall speak unto the Godfathers and Godmothers on this wise—

Dost thou, therefore, in the name of this child

1. Renounce the DEVIL and all his works.
2. Renounce the vain pomps and glory of the WORLD.
3. Renounce the sinful desires of the FLESH.

The answer is:

1. I renounce them all—(This is the promise).
2. By God's help I will endeavor not to follow nor be led by them—(This is the vow or oath).

In the Confirmation Service it is this "promise and vow" we are required to "ratify and confirm." Many ignorant persons object to CONFIRMATION as being insufficient and insist that a person must be CONVERTED (turned from his evil ways) before he can be admitted into full membership of the Christian Church. Just a glance at the "promise and vow" which the candidate is required to publicly approve and endorse will show that CONFIRMATION implies true and determined CONVERSION. Because the candidate declares before the whole Congregation in an audible voice that-he renounces:

1. The devil
2. The world
3. The flesh.

He further declares "he will endeavor not to follow nor be led by them." And he MUST make this renunciation before he can receive the laying on of the hands of the Bishop and be accepted into fellowship with Christ.

Perhaps some one will say why cannot I exercise my own judgment in the matter of being confirmed and refuse to approve and confirm this promise and vow that was made in my name in Baptism and refuse to become a member of church? You can. There is nothing to prevent you. Not even God can compel you to do what you do not wish to do. You can repudiate and throw into the discard every vow and promise made by your Sponsors. God can only offer you the opportunity to become His adopted son and bestow upon you the honor and dignity of a Prince of the Eternal Kingdom and help you attain your soul's desire. It is His way of showing His love for you. If you accept you enter into a state of supreme and eternal happiness; if you refuse you throw away the great opportunity of your career. Common sense, therefore, compels you to seriously consider any act of repudiation before you make it and it is too late to rectify your error.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Evidences That the Church Is Realizing the Necessity of This Department of Religious Education

For nearly a generation the church has assumed an attitude of indifference towards the Sunday School. Many priests of the Church today cannot see the need of it and are very skeptical as to the results for good it produces. Personally we have never wavered in our opinion that the SUNDAY SCHOOL is of the FIRST IMPORTANCE in the building up a strong, spiritual appreciation in the hearts of the boy and girl for religious things. The child who breathes the atmosphere of the Sunday School from his kindergarten time of life to adolescence is, generally speaking, a different being than he who spends that same period in an unspiritual and an irreligious atmosphere. He has a poise and a sense of others' rights and privileges the other lacks. He is conscious that there is another side than the play side to his nature. He is conscious of moral responsibilities. He is sensitive to the differences between right and wrong, good and bad, which the Sunday School truant lacks. He is more considerate of the feeling and property of others. According to statistics, which cannot be contradicted, he is found less in the criminal class than his brother who has never been taught to respect the rights of society but who has been encouraged to consider himself a law unto himself. Some parents would beat their offspring unmercifully were he to make a habit of playing truant from public school, and then turn about and shrug away the suggestions that same child was failing persistently in his Sunday School attendance.

The result of the lack of Sunday School training upon church attendance, church growth and church neighborhood influence, is startling to the extreme. When Sunday School went in the discard, the social club began to flourish. So that now, the time the boy and girl used to spend in the Sunday School is wasted in dens of iniquity and vice where the youth of our nation is initiated into the dreadful mysteries of immorality, gambling, drunkenness, dope habit, theft and general hellishness which eventually lands them behind prison walls, in insane asylums, in hospitals for frightful diseases or in the cemetery. The most dreadful thing that ever happened to our boys and girls was the lazy and criminal indifference of our clergy towards the spiritual education of youth. Thank God, we can see a revival of interest in the Sunday School. Spiritual leaders are strenuously striving to undo the awful mischief of their mistake and are making every effort to bring back the Sunday School to the Church and set it functioning as of old.

The parent's responsibility in the restoration of the Sunday School is vital. The children will attend only under the exercise of parental authority, the same that they exert over the child in helping him acquire a mental education. Personal example of the parent is most important. A child is inclined to be a little more logical than the parent. If the parent flares up and thunders at the child that he must go to Sunday School, then picks up his tackle and nets and goes fishing, or goes to his club, takes off his coat and vest, calls for a deck of cards and spends Sunday afternoon with a bunch of cronies smoking black cigars and gambling, he cannot expect the child to place any great amount of importance to Sunday School going. It appears to him that Dad is taking advantage of his size and position in the family and is placing upon the child a task he himself ignores.

What every priest and parent needs to study is the crime record of his nation and get "hep" to what's going on—especially on Sundays—among our boys and girls.

The criminal court judges, our police, our prisons and penitentiaries, our Homes for Incurables, our hospitals, our mad houses, are fully conscious of the devastating effects of destroying the Sunday School. It would seem that the only institutions who are not aware of this social havoc are the Church and the home.

PARENT WHERE IS HE ON SUNDAY?
PASTOR WHERE IS HE ON SUNDAY?
THE LAMBS OF THE FLOCK ARE MISSING!

GREAT MEN'S OPINIONS

What Great Men Think of the Sunday School. Do You Agree?

Frank G. Allen, Governor of Massachusetts
(May 2, 1930)

The Sunday School as an institution has an opportunity and power for good that cannot be overestimated. The future welfare of our nation depends upon the training of our youth today, and I am convinced that the religious and moral education afforded by the Sunday School is a potent agency for the production of good citizens and honest public servants.

A. F. Allen, Editor, Sioux City, Iowa, Journal
(June 5, 1930)

The Sunday School is vital to the life of the church and to religion. The Sunday School is the recruiting office of the church and of Christianity. The boy and the girl, the man and the woman, can find no better place for the culture of the highest qualities of mind and soul than the Sunday School. It is there that the great fundamental truths of human experience are studied. The Sunday School is not only an agency for promoting Christian belief and practice, but is also one of the most effective agencies for the perfecting of good citizenship.

H. C. Baldridge, Governor of Idaho
(May 9, 1930)

An institution or organization that implants Christian ideals, builds character, and inspires to better service is a decided asset in a community. This I believe of the Sunday School and feel that its teachings will help us to maintain the deeply religious strain that is evidenced throughout the history of our country. People are made great by living up to spiritual ideals.

Theodore G. Bilbo, Governor of Mississippi
(May 10, 1930)

To be given an opportunity to endorse Sunday School is like being offered a reward for doing our duty and I am afraid my vocabulary is inadequate when I try to express how much I value that institution or what it has meant to our people. Of course, we all realize in a small way what the churches mean to our civilization but I BELIEVE IN SUNDAY SCHOOL INFINITELY MORE THAN THE CHURCH BECAUSE IT IS THERE THAT THE CHILD IS FIRST INSTRUCTED IN THE BIBLE AND TAUGHT TO VALUE THE EXAMPLE LAID DOWN IN THE BOOK OF BOOKS.

Karl A. Bicknell, President United Press Association
(May 23, 1930)

The Sunday School, from the beginning of American history, has constituted perhaps the strongest strand in the fibre of child training next to family environment. And, as in all teaching service, the effectiveness of the Sunday School is increasing with the broadening of the mental range of the instructors.

(Continued on Page 5)

HANNAH H. READ

Entered Into Rest May 11, 1931

Prayers of the Parish are asked for the repose of our dear co-worker and friend, HANNAH H. READ. She was the most faithful of us all. Her every interest was centered in St. John's Church and Parish. She was most regular in her church attendance. She was always present in her Sunday School class, which she taught for many years. On Easter Day she received the gold pin for two years' regular attendance. She has served the Church and Parish longer than any other member. Her husband was a vestryman of St. John's Church. Her popularity was as great among the young as with the old. She was known to almost everybody in South Philadelphia where, in her younger days, she taught in Public School. She was most cheerful and witty. Seldom is one privileged to meet such consecration, humility, self-sacrifice and cheeriness in one person.

Now she lies in her last long sleep. God has received her back to Himself. We bow our heads in submission to His Highest Will knowing she richly deserves her furlough from earthly affairs and eternal rest with Him.

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

We made the grade and raised the $1000 for the mortgage this Lent.

* * *

In seven months we have reduced the mortgage from $10,000.00 to $7349.28.

* * *

A CENT-A-DAY from now till September from all our communicants will reduce it to $7000.00.

* * *

S. S. Excursion to Riverview Beach, Saturday, June 27. Children, 25 cents. Adults, 50 cents. ALL REGULAR ATTENDANTS TO SUNDAY SCHOOL GO FREE. NO TRANSFER OF TICKETS.

* * *

CONFIRMATION SERVICE SUNDAY, JUNE 7TH AT 8.00 P. M. WHO IS YOUR CANDIDATE?

* * *

Sunday Evening, Pre-Confirmation Services, are well attended. Three quarters of the congregation are young people. Needless to say we are pleased.

* * *

Our 77th Anniversary is June 7th, ALL DAY. We extend a cordial invitation to all—especially our out-of-town members—to stay for dinner and supper, too!

* * *

MRS. GEORGE WOODWARD, President of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary, has accepted our invitation to talk to our all Women's Conference on Monday evening, June 1. Mrs. Woodward is one of the leading churchwomen of the Episcopal Church in the United States. We are most fortunate in getting her for our speaker. Every woman and girl over 17 years in the Parish is asked to act as hostess for the occasion and be on hand to welcome her to St. John's Church. Refreshments will be served after the Conference.

* * *

MRS. JOHN MARKOE gave our women a delightfully witty and instructive talk on the American Indian and what the Church is doing for him. She promised to return sometime in the near future and tell us something about an interesting subject which she mentioned but which we are withholding for the present. We are very sorry to learn of her painful accident and pray for her speedy restoration to her normal health.

HABITS

A Habit Is Easy to Form, But Hard to Break

A habit is a method we acquire by the constant repetition of an act or word or thought. In commenting on the ways of other persons we often say, "He is in the habit of doing or saying this or that." We mean the person under discussion seems to be controlled by a peculiar psychological force which makes him act invariably the same way on all occasions.

Habits are indexed as good or bad. There does not seem to be such a thing as a neutral habit. The only modifications we know of are in the use of "pretty" or "very." Like this: A man's habits are pretty good or very good; or pretty bad or very bad. In every case they are good or bad.

There are many bad habits; such as the opium habit, the drinking habit, the gambling habit, swearing habit, the habit of immorality, the habit of cruelty, the habit of lying, the habit of stealing, the habit of cheating, the habit of evil associations, etc., etc., etc.

There are many good habits; such as the habit of smiling, the habit of singing or whistling merry tunes, the habit of helping another fellow, the habit of comforting and sympathizing, the habit of praying, the habit of reading the Holy Bible, the habit of giving, the habit of patience and forbearance, the habit of always being just where you can do the most good, etc., etc., etc.

The curious part of the matter is we are all creatures of habits. Not one of us escapes their influence. Some of us have both good and bad habits. Some have more bad habits than good habits; some have more good than bad habits. Some's habits are pretty bad, others are very bad, others are pretty good, whilst others are very good.

Now so long as habits are habits, and we are more or less under their control, it seems to me that we ought to use a little discrimination and choose only those that will give us the MOST REAL pleasure and cause those who must live with us the LEAST unhappiness.

I am rather inclined to believe that if we were to master our habits and resist their tendency to master us we might convert our habits into happy mediums for good. At least it seems to me to be worth trying after.

GREAT MEN'S OPINIONS

(Continued from Page 4)

Bruce Barton, Publicist and Writer
(June 23, 1930)

Of course, I am glad to send a message about the importance of Sunday School. Its importance cannot be overstated. If the church did nothing else but conduct this great character-forming school its existence would be fully justified. Secular schools and colleges take pride in their famous alumni. What a list of alumni the Sunday School has! IT INCLUDES ALMOST EVERY LEADER IN OUR NATIONAL LIFE.

W. F. Bigelow, Editor, Good Housekeeping
(June 4, 1930)

One of the dearest recollections of my childhood is of a little church at a crossroads in Ohio, where I attended Sunday School for fifteen years. I can say without hesitation that the stabilizing influence of the lessons that were taught me there has been perhaps greater than anything else that I have ever known. I feel that my experience was not peculiar, but that any child who has the opportunity to go to Sunday School and is properly taught there will graduate into life with a finer, stronger character than it would otherwise be possible for him to have. Whatever the churches may decide to do with other organizations for young folks in their late teens and early twenties, I hope that the Sunday School as an institution will remain and be developed. We need it now more than ever.

CHURCH VOCABULARY

As noted in previous issues, the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Philadelphia, has published what we think is one of the most helpful pamphlets ever issued to Churchmen, under the title of Church Vocabulary. It is so important that we have been publishing a portion of its contents in the Broadcaster, and will continue to do so until we have published the whole of it. This number contains the tenth installment. We advise the Broadcaster readers to keep each issue ever handy.

DIOCESAN MATTERS

Parson.—The old name used in England for the incumbent of a parish. Parson and person are the same word, being derived from the Latin Persona. The Parson is so called, says Blackstone, "because by his person the Church, which is an invisible body, is represented."

Pastor.—A Latin word meaning Shepherd, which has also been assumed for Ministers. The Pastor bears this relation to the Flock over which he is placed. He deals with individuals. His intercourse is personal. His offices are for all and for each.

Clergyman.—The word includes many and varied offices—Minister, Rector, Preacher, Priest. All these offices and labors have reference to the people's spiritual interests. A Pastor is one having the cure, i. e., the care or charge of souls. A clergyman is not a Pastor simply because he is ordained; there is also necessary the call from a definite number of people over whom the charge is to be exercised. That is what is meant by a Priest's being without a Cure, a Clergyman being with a Charge.

Priest.—The shortened form of the word Presbyter. The title is that of the second Order of the Ministry. His duties are to celebrate the Holy Communion, to administer Baptism, in short to exercise every sacred function which is not properly or exclusively Episcopal—that is, belonging to the Bishop. All this of course as well as to preach, in which capacity the other title, Preacher.

Rector.—The official title of the Priest who has charge of a Parish, and who as such is its ruler, guide and director. The word means "one who rules." By the canons of the Church, the Rector is head of the Parish, as he is ex-officio head of all its organizations. He is the presiding officer at Vestry Meetings, Superintendent of the Sunday School, and President per se of all parochial societies. These offices he may delegate to others; but ex-officio the Rector is head of all. All work that may be done in the Parish is done with reference to his consent and approval.

EDW. K. TRYON CO.

"Sporting Goods Since 1811"

Fishing Tackle
Athletic Goods
Guns, Rifles
Ammunition
Toys & Games

912 CHESTNUT ST.
PHILADELPHIA

THE PARISH HOUSE MORTGAGE

What Has Been Accomplished in Reducing It in Nine Months

Last September we negotiated a mortgage of Ten Thousand Dollars to pay for the completion of the Parish House. When we did it we were determined to reduce it with all possible speed. It was our ambition to pay off at least $3000.00 each year until the mortgage was cancelled. We have worked earnestly to this end with the result that in nine months of the hardest times we ever experienced, we have reduced the mortgage to $7349.28. If we raise $349.28 by September, the first $3000.00 will have been paid off and the mortage will be reduced to $7000.00 or exactly what we hoped to accomplish the first year. If we succeed in paying off the $3000.00 we will also succeed in reducing the interest on the mortgage $165.00, which will make it much easier to raise the next $3000.00. Our Sunday School Lenten Offering helped us wonderfully to realize our goal. WE FINALLY RAISED $1900.00 FOR OUR LENTEN OFFERING AND UNDER THE ADVICE OF THE LATE BISHOP GARLAND WE APPLIED $1000.00 OF THAT SUM TO THE MORTGAGE.

THAT CENT-A-DAY

That CENT-A-DAY of ours has been the means of helping us pay off hundreds of dollars also. Not only so; but it has enabled us to meet the interest on the mortgage as it fell due. If we could only get folks to realize the importance of that CENT-A-DAY fund so that they would all join up and pay regularly, we would pay off the remainder of the mortgage before next Christmas. Some folks are frankly skeptical and honestly do not believe it can be done; consequently, they will not help. Others PRETEND they DOUBT THE POWER OF THE PENNY just because they are too stingy to help even that much and they try to cover up that stinginess with criticism. Yet these same persons use the Parish House more than anybody else and demand more recognition and consideration than any others.

Let's all get together and follow the lead of the Rector. Let's put our CENT-A-DAY in the fund and get rid of our mortgage without further delay. Why have it hanging over us when we can smother it now with

A CENT-A-DAY

A LITTLE ADJUSTMENT NEEDED

A Year's Experience in Our New Parish House Has Taught Us Some Lessons of Its Need and Use

Easter Monday, 1930, we broke ground for our new Parish House and have occupied it since September. We know now that it is fine to have a Parish House and we wonder how we ever got along without it. Through it we have made many important contacts—especially with the young people of the community. Yet, curiously enough, it seems to have been the means of breaking up the church connections of some of our members. To them the Parish House is apparently the PRIMARY and the church the SECONDARY factor in our parochial life. They are most enthusiastic over the SOCIAL and have become quite indifferent to the SPIRITUAL aspects of church work. They are neglecting the parochial organizations of which they were, a short time ago, active and enthusiastic members. They are SELDOM in their place in Church but are ALWAYS present at our

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 South Street

Formerly of S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055

OYEN'S BAKERY

1713 South Second Street

Formerly of 120 Porter Street

Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M.

WEDDING and BIRTHDAY CAKES a Specialty

basketball games and dances. There MUST be a little adjustment here. The church cannot surrender to the Parish House and degenerate into a mere place of amusement. Our members must guard against that by giving as much time, support and thought to the services of the church as ever before.

There is another matter that needs adjusting. It has to do with the expense of maintaining the Parish House. Our electric, gas and coal bills have increased enormously since we have used the Parish House. The income of the church is not sufficient to carry this extra load. We agreed to finance the Parish House on one-third the GROSS receipts from the different games, dances, etc. But this has not worked out as it should. Instead we are receiving one-third of the NET receipts which often amounts to less than $2.00 per evening. It makes no difference whether the crowd is small or big the expense of heating and lighting the building is just as great; consequently we must arrange in the future to finance the Parish House on one-third of the GROSS receipts with a minimum of $3.50 per night. The balance of the expenses will be met by the church. Let's get this straight once and for all. If an entertainment raises $100.00 for any object, the Parish House gets one-third of the $100.00. The EXPENSES are paid out of the remaining two-thirds. If the receipts from a game or entertainment are $12.00 or less the minimum cost will be $3.50 per night. NO PARISH ORGANIZATION SUCH AS THE FELLOWSHIP, WOMAN'S AUXILIARY, CHOIR, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW, SENIOR OR JUNIOR, THE DAUGHTERS OF THE KING, YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION, GIRL SCOUTS OR CRESSON CLUB WILL BE CHARGED FOR THE USE OF THE PARISH HOUSE ON NIGHTS THAT ARE GIVEN OVER SOLELY TO THEIR OWN AFFAIRS, WHETHER SOCIAL OR OTHERWISE, PROVIDED, THERE IS NO CHARGE OF ADMISSION OR ANY EXPENSE INCURRED WHERE MONEY MUST BE PAID BY THE AUDIENCE FOR ANY FORM OF ENTERTAINMENT. As soon as those present are taxed any sum, it must be arranged to add $3.50 to the expenses to pay for heat and light.

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN

Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753

MAX SMITH

Dealer in

Boots, Shoes & Rubbers

S. E. Corner Third and McKean Streets

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother

(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 5, No. 7 PHILADELPHIA, JULY, 1931 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
George Cressee, Jr.
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Charles Little, Assistant Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.
Heber Rutter
Jeremiah K. Rutter

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Harry Seher
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
John Preole, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Leavey, Joseph Richard
Morrison, William Patrick
Piccione, Elizabeth Anna
Marker, Frances Emma Zeller, Helen Marie

MARRIAGES

Abner W. Dowdell, Jr., and Dorothy L. Von Tagen

BURIALS

Haynes, Walter E.
McKee, William H.
Robinson, Henry M.
Stryker, Emma C.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

THE ROAD TO YESTERDAY

If I could only find
The road to Yesterday,
I'd ease my heart of many a load
That burdens me today.
Recall the words so harsh, unkind;
Kiss clean the stabs I made when blind;
Plant love for hate, if I could find
The road to Yesterday.

I'd write the page with cleaner pen
And wipe out "Yesterday;"
Repentant turn and walk again
The road to Yesterday
The wiser heart I would retrace;
The stains of sin and wrong efface;
My tortured soul seeks means of grace
To relive Yesterday.

"Oh, Angelet, show me," I pled,
"The road to Yesterday."
"Thou'st found the way," the Angel said;
"The road to Yesterday
With precious blood and toil was brought;
Thou'st found the blessed boon thou sought—
Today, if you hast happier wrought,
Will be thy Yesterday."

——Revised from W. N. Hull.

NOTES ON THE 77th ANNIVERSARY

11.00 O'CLOCK

The weather conditions of Sunday morning, June 7th, the date of our 77th Anniversary, were not very promising. It had rained hard the night before and the clouds were still low and threatening. Before 11 o'clock, however, they cleared away and the sun came out bright and hot. It was a typical June day.

The Parish turned out in crowds and almost filled the big church. The Chancel and Altar were beautifully adorned with palms and big bouquets of white carnations. Promptly at 11 o'clock the service began with the Processional, No. 240, "There's a Wideness in God's Mercy." The Communion Service followed immediately. Owing to the many pressing events that were to follow, the Rector reduced his Anniversary Sermon to an informal address which he made at the time he gave out the notices. He spoke of the Parish House as the big undertaking of the year and how the mortgage had been reduced from $10,000 last September to $7,349 at the present time and how he hoped to clear off at least $400 more before September. He said the Parish is steadily growing in numbers and the Sunday School had perhaps become the largest of any of the Protestant denominations in South Philadelphia. Speaking of the financial condition of the Parish he said that though the Parish was made up entirely of working men and women and that nearly 65 per cent. of these were unemployed or working only on part time; nevertheless our Sunday School Lenten Offering had reached the amazing figure of $1900 and our Easter Offering was over $600. As proof of the growth of the Parish he reminded us that over 600 persons made their Easter Communion.

But, said he, we must not rest upon our laurels. There is too much to do before our task is done. For instance, the red carpet of the Choir and Chancel is too "holey" for the Church and must be replaced with other floor covering, tile flooring preferred. Also the old wooden choir benches are in very bad condition and are really too dangerous to be used. He proposes to rip out all that woodwork, run an iron grill at right angles, enclosing the Choir on both sides, add two iron gates leading into the Choir and use specially-made chairs instead of benches for the members of the Choir. The cost of the renovation to be about $2000.

After the Choir and Chancel have been renovated the next big task is the painting of the interior of the Church. One wonders why the changes are to be made in the Choir and Chancel BEFORE instead of AFTER the Church is painted. The object is very simple—when we have a new chancel it will emphasize the necessity of painting the church and nobody will be satisfied until the job is done. The cost will be about $3000.

After these remarks the offering was received as the Choir sang "Break Forth Into Joy." The musical portion of the service was beautifully rendered by St. John's Choir, who invariably rise to the occasion.

The number of communicants received was specially large and gratifying. As they came forward one could not help contrasting these hundreds with the seven souls who came to church just 19 years ago and formed the whole congregation at that time.

After the service we had a christening, which added another touch of interest to the day. Incidentally in this connection we recall that IN THESE 19 YEARS WE BAPTIZED ALMOST 1100 INFANTS AND ADULTS AT THIS FONT.

12.30 O'CLOCK

The order of business for this hour was the PARISH DINNER. There were four long tables set in the large Sunday School room. The dinner served was not only abundant but also delicious. It consisted of Roast Beef so tender you did not need teeth to chew it, peas, potatoes, carrots, beets, bread, butter, tea, coffee and ice cream. We must, out of gratitude, say right here how much we thank the ladies who worked so hard and served so daintily the dinner. The names of the dinner and supper committee are: Mrs. Lillian Pine, Mrs. Annie Beisser, Mrs. Florence Weist, Mrs. May Hopkins, Mrs. Laura Young, Mrs. Ruth Kinsley, Mrs. Margaret Nelson, Mrs. Elizabeth Jaeschke, Mrs. Annie Robinson, Miss Kathryne Hasson, Miss Lydia Maguire, Miss Mamie Beisser.

2.45 O'CLOCK

The Parish Mass Meeting was held at the above hour in the church. Not only were the members of the Sunday School present but we had many visitors, too. The order of service was 1. Hymn. 2. Recital of Catechism by every Department, including the Kindergarten, the Intermediate, the Senior Department and the Adult Bible Classes. 3. Hymn by the Intermediate Department. 4. Reading of the Collect, Epistle and Gospel for St. John, Evangelist Day by the entire School. This was a most inspiring number for the school always reads well in concert. 5. Hymn by the Kindergarten. 6. Notices and introduction of the special speaker, Mr. Wendell Phillips, who is a communicant of the Parish of St. John the Evangelist and is studying for the ministry in New York.

Mr. Phillips took for his subject "Buildings." We wish we had space to tell what he said. We must be content to say that he was absorbingly interesting and had the kids on their toes. One boy was heard to say after the service "That guy Phillips is good." Incidentally we will say "that guy Phillips" will never receive a higher compliment.

After the address the service was brought to a close with the usual salute to the Cross.

5.00 O'CLOCK

We were slightly delayed in getting down to supper. About 15 minutes before the hour the Rector was called out to give the Sacraments to a sick parishioner whose physical condition alarmed the members of her family. When the Rector returned supper was served. And what a supper it was! There was delicious potato salad, cold ham, cold vegetables, bread, butter, tea, coffee, cake, cheese and ice cream. There were lots of everything and we are sure we caught the Rector sneaking a second helping of ice cream. The supper crowd was even larger than the dinner crowd. But Mrs. Pine and her staff were equal to the occasion.

7.30 O'CLOCK

THIS IS THE HOUR BISHOP TAITT WAS TAKEN FOR A RIDE. He did not come direct to the Church but met us at the home of Fred Busch, 127 Wolf street. Fred is a pretty sick boy, and could not come to church to be confirmed with the class. When we reached Fred's home we found that his father and mother were prepared to be confirmed with him. So in the bedroom of that beautiful little home, surrounded by friends and loved ones, father, mother and son were solemnly received into Christ's Church. WE WANT TO SAY RIGHT HERE THAT BISHOP TAITT IS ALWAYS AT HIS BEST AT THE BEDSIDE OF THE AFFLICTED.

We left the Busch home and motored to the home of Mrs. Rebecca G. Hoffman, 211 Morris street. Mrs. Hoffman is an elderly woman who has been very sick. She was recovering from pneumonia and had a relapse. In spite of all her sickness and misfortune we received a happy greeting from her. After the service she turned to the visiting members from St. John's and said, "That was a pretty service, wasn't it?" Ruth Hoffman was confirmed at the same time as was her grandmother. She could not be confirmed with the class because she was her grandmother's little nurse. There was one curious fact attached to these two confirmations. Mrs. Hoffman's age is 71 years and the age of Miss Hoffman is 17 years.

Again we climbed aboard our cars and went spinning up to the church. There we were met by a delegation who said Mrs. Henderson, another shut-in and living at 110 Sears street, had been preparing for Confirmation since January and was expecting the Bishop to stop at her home to confirm her. We did not get out of our cars but spun up Moyamensing avenue to Tasker, down Tasker to Front, down Front to Sears. Here we found Mrs. Henderson, a very sick but a very happy woman because the Bishop had come to confirm her. After the service we motored back to the church in a whirl of wind and dust for it was just beginning to storm.

Here the Bishop met St. John's 1931 Confirmation Class in the Gymnasium of the Parish House and it was some class! After the Roll Call and last minute instructions we got under way just a half-hour late. The arrangement of the service was as follows:

1. Processional No. 86, tune by Dr. Geibel
2. Creed, Versicals, Collects
3. Notices and Instructions
4. Hymn No. 492
5. Sermon, Bishop Francis M. Taitt
6. Offertory, "Break Forth Into Joy"
7. Hymn No. 379
8. Confirmation Service
9. Recessional No. 535

THE 1931 CONFIRMATION CLASS

WOMEN

Busch, Mrs. Susanna
Busch, Mrs. Lillian
Bianco, Miss Philomina
Hagan, Mrs. Virginia
Hoffman, Mrs. R. G.
Hoffman, Miss Ruth

Friend, Mrs. Mary
Henderson, Mrs. Laura
Heinemann, Mrs. Chris.
Heinemann, Mrs. Mary
Johnson, Mrs. Nancy
Kerr, Mrs. Catherine
Konowal, Mrs. Barbara
Panto, Mrs. Viola
Staines, Miss Ethel

GIRLS

Bauer, Catharine Marie
Celestino, Rose Marie
Dick, Dorothy Gertrude
Henderson, Viola Rachel
Kooyman, Stella
Leach, Ella Elizabeth
Rutter, Rose Elizabeth
Rutter, Ruth Catherine
Sparks, Edith Grace
Schultz, Doris May
Tomlin, Evelyn
Tupper, Martha
Tittermary, Matilda May
Vongalast, Jeanette
Vaughan, Myrtle Helen
Vaughan, Ethel Jeanette
Wilhelm, Cath. Eliz.
Ward, Mildred Dorothy
Zeigler, Mary Frances
Zeigler, Eliz. Catherine

TOTAL THIRTY-FIVE

MEN

Bianco, Pasquale
Busch, John Henry
Busch, Frederick, Sr.
Busch, Frederick, Jr.
Drumm, Ben. Franklin
Heinemann, Harry
Heinemann, William
Jensen, Carl
Konowal, Michael
Rutter, James
Weiland, John
Ziegler, John

BOYS

Dinsmore, Thomas
Dinsmore, Walter
Hagen, Charles
Henderson, Irvin
Henderson, James.
Henderson, William
Heinemann, Harry
Konowal, Joseph
Konowal, Lewis
Konowal, Peter
Later, Albert
Morris, John
Mathieu, Frederick
Panto, Joseph
Panto, Germano
Quaile, William
Spratt, James
Sayers, Eugene
Sayers, Elmer
Tomlin, Joseph
Tittermary, William
Welsh, Albert
Welsh, William
Ziegler, John

TOTAL THIRTY-SIX

SEVENTY-ONE WOMEN AND GIRLS, MEN AND BOYS WERE MEMBERS OF THE 1931 CLASS.

10.00 O'CLOCK

Home and to bed.

THAT CENT-A-DAY

What It Did for Another Parish

Three years ago your Rector mailed a copy of The Broadcaster to a friend who is a member of a Parish outside of Philadelphia. In that issue there was a description of our Cent-a-Day Club, what we had accomplished and what we hoped to accomplish through it. Our friend read the article and was so impressed with the system that she determined to tell certain members of her parish and propose that they form a PENNY-A-DAY CLUB for the purpose of raising funds to help pay off an $8500 debt which encumbered the Parish. After three years' activity St. Ursula's Guild, the parish organization having charge of the PENNY-A-DAY CLUB issued the following highly interesting report. I think you will agree with me that the results are astonishing and are another proof of the real value of a cent. Read the Report carefully and be convinced that we can do more with one cent-a-day than a millionaire can do with his dollars in a life time, if we give every day altogether. WE NEED MORE CENT-A-DAY MEMBERS to help smother that Parish House mortgage. The more members we get the sooner we will finish off that mortgage.

WE WANT 500 NEW MEMBERS!

HOW ABOUT YOU?

THIS IS THE REPORT OF ST. URSULA'S GUILD:

The Penny-A-Day Club, organized by Mrs. Achelis and placed under the supervision of St. Ursula's Guild, has now been in existence three years. At the time of its organization the church was in debt to the amount of $8500. The first year The Penny-A-Day Club paid the interest, $500, and reduced the debt $500. The second year the Club paid a portion of the interest, $124 and reduced the debt $1000. At this time the Vestry also further reduced the debt $500, leaving an indebtedness of $6500. During this, the third year, contributions to the Penny-A-Day Club have amounted to $1278.05. Of this sum the Club paid the Vestry $1200, thus reducing the debt to $5300, leaving a balance of $78.05 with which to begin the fourth year.

While the progress of accomplishment seems slow there is much room for encouragement, for the sum of $3324, which represents the result of three years' unceasing efforts on the part of the Club does invite to "press on." If each and every member of the church would realize the importance of this feature of his and her church duty the progress would be greatly accelerated, for it is most obvious that the sooner the church is relieved of this prolonged burden the more readily can the current expenses be met. In this connection, mention must be made of the very generous and commendable spirit of co-operation on the part of our associate organizations. The St. Ursula's Guild, the Mothers' Guild and the Girls' Friendly. To the Penn-A-Day Club, financially and otherwise, have they loyally manifested this wonderful spirit.

The workers of the Club do also most gratefully appreciate the interest and faithfulness of all those who have contributed to this cause for three successive years and earnestly hope for a continuance of their valued assistance during the coming year which began October 1. It is likewise hoped that those who have not helped in this direction will now extend their aid in the renewed efforts of the Club. May a united endeavor be abundantly blessed throughout the new year.

THE TREASURER.

THE CODE OF THE KING

King George of England has a private code of conduct which he has framed and hanging in his bedroom. at first flash the code appears to be easy to follow, but upon second thought, it becomes rather difficult of achievement. It runs as follows:

Teach me to be obedient to the rules of the game.

Teach me to distinguish between sentiment and sentimentality, admiring the one and despising the other.

Teach me neither to proffer nor to receive cheap praise.

If I am called upon to suffer, let me be like a well-bred beast that goes away to suffer in silence.

Teach me to win, if I may; if I may not, teach me to be a good loser.

Teach me neither to cry for the moon nor to cry over spilt milk.

—Rays of Sunshine.

TWO YOUTHS

One said: "Youth comes but once to me,
So I shall play and laugh and sing.
I own no chains; I will be free—
None shall deny me anything!"
He had his fling. Then, worn and gray,
With weary soul and eyelid wet,
He tried to wash the stains away,
And stem the tide of vain regret.

One said: "My youth comes not again;
I must not spoil it as it goes.
I must not live a day in vain,
Nor stain a page, nor mar a rose."
The future found him glad and strong,
Unbound by weariness and fears,
Treading his journey with a song,
Heir to the gladness of the years.

—Clarence E. Flynn in "Young People."

OUR 19th ANNIVERSARY

Was an Occasion of Fun and Frolic

Owing to the condition of unemployment in the Parish we had no thought of celebrating our nineteenth year of service. We felt the burden of living was too heavy to even hint at a celebration. However, we reckoned without our host—of friends. We noticed for several days an air of mystery about the church—secret meetings in the Parish House, behind closed doors; sudden appearance of persons who constituted themselves traffic cops and forced us to detour in other directions than that in which we wanted to go; whisperings and hushings in the church hall when we had a christening to perform; mysterious nods and winks and smiles and much letter writing, until one almost thought the Parish had gone Bolshevik and was making a lot of bombs to arouse enthusiasm. We were tearing our hair and gnawing our nails in perturbation over these signs of unrest and wondered when would happen the uprising.

It happened Tuesday evening, June 9th. We were invited by our daughter to pay a visit to the Girl Scout Troop of the Church for some reason or other that was not very clear. We were not to arrive before 8.30 o'clock, as our presence would not be required before that. Promptly at 8.30 we entered the Parish House and up went a mighty cheer from hundreds of throats. Instantly we knew what all the mystery was about. We were gathered here in the presence of each other to congratulate ourselves for being 19 years older than we were 19 years ago. The event presented its problems. For instance, how old was the boy or girl of nine years of age 19 years ago? Yes, it is a perplexing question, because there were infants in arms celebrating. How old could they possibly have been in 1912 if they are only six months old now?

Well, we will drop speculation and get behind the deafening applause. (That word "applause" closely resembles "applesauce" when it is written.) But there was no applesauce in that greeting tendered us that night.

Vernon Matthews, the Master of Ceremonies, got off on a poor start, for somebody had launched the rumor that the Rector had gone to Frankford to make a speech. V. M. wanted to know if that's the case then why these fireworks, and who was going to take home the cakes and flowers and that check and things that were supposed to be loaded on the Rector and his wife? The news was enough to throw our flaxen-haired Adonis off his poise. However, he recovered the reins of government and drove the occasion to a triumphant end.

First came a Pantomime by the Girl Scout Troop, which was finely rendered and thoroughly enjoyed. The curtain was drawn and everybody thought the act was over. V. M. thought so, too, when of a sudden the curtains were drawn apart again and there stood the whole troop led by their captain. In the center of the group, holding a big birthday cake, stood Eleanor Nugent, a member of the troop. The cake was the gift of the troop to the Rector. In accepting the gift he made some incoherent remarks about the best wine came later with the dessert and this was only the beginning of the feast.

This was followed by a solo by Clara Quaile, who did so well that she had to come back and do part of it over again.

Then came the "Ancient and Modern" Rainbow Girls. They looked ancient enough in their costumes of old-fashioned dress and wearing grandmom's funny hats; but their bobbed hair and dancing toes were right up to date and so were their songs. It gave one the weird sensation of catching his grandmother in a night club, having the most up-to-date time of her life. The girls were good and every number they put over was a sensation. Their "Whistling in the Dark," accompanied with the whirling spotlights, was mighty clever.

The curtain was finally drawn and V. M. started a folk song stunt. Everybody in the audience sang and enjoyed the relaxation. This was followed by a solo by little Ruth Rutter. Again the lights went out, and on the stage stood the Rainbow Girls all dressed up in their Sunday best and clothed and in their right minds. In the center of the group stood an empty armchair. The Rector was called up from the audience, where he was having the time of his life, and told to sit in that chair. Then the Rainbow burst into song like a lot of canaries. He was so stirred up inside that he wanted to pull out his biggest hay fever handkerchief and bawl. Not that he felt sorry, but just because he felt happy and funny like. After the girls had sung a lot of nice things, the master of ceremonies came on the stage to join the party. He made a speech. He told the audience a lot of things about the parson and wound up with a Chesterfieldian bow and handed the parson an envelope with $200 as the contribution from the parish for the Rector's trip to Denver, Colorado. After he presented the check he held out his hand to shake with the parson who, after he had carefully shifted the check to his other hand and out of reach, shook his hand most heartily.

The Rector made another speech, but it didn't amount to much, and we will not waste space to report any of it.

Then the Parish took its first aim at the Rector's wife and presented her with a box of beautiful handkerchiefs. The Rector feels a little dubious over that gift. Why handkerchiefs. What was going to make her cry? Were they handing her a delicate, little hint that any woman possessing such a husband had their sympathies and needed a good stock of hankies to mop up the tears when occasion demanded? Then Jerry Rutter sang. He did not know he was on the program and was more surprised than the audience when he heard his name announced. Under such a handicap he acquitted himself with honors.

After a brief interlude curtains were drawn and there was a group of Fellowship girls, all dressed up and sitting around on park benches, singing away to beat everything. And they did it well, too. They were staging a minstrel. First this one would get up and sing, then all would join in the chorus. Then one girl would ask another a question she couldn't answer and the first one would spring the joke. Adelia Pearo read something about the Rector which he did not recognize as at all appropriate, and is stilll wondering if she was just jollying the preacher. After another burst of song they withdrew, only to reappear almost at once, bringing with them an immense basket of lovely flowers, which they presented to Mrs. McHenry in the name of the parish. On the table stood another big birthday cake full of lighted tapers. The Rector was again invited to the stage and presented a beautiful bouquet of pink carnations and baby's breath and told to sit in the chair beside the table and blow out the candles on the cake. He filled his lungs, distended his cheeks and let go. That was some blow—every light was extinguished and even the arc lights in the street were made to flicker from the gale.

Then the girls sang a lot more nice things and the program was brought to a happy end.

After the program the Rector and Mrs. McHenry were tendered a reception and were congratulated by everybody in the audience as they passed from the Parish House to the Sunday School room for refreshments, which were served as usual by Mrs. Pine and her competent aides. It was a glorious night, and, after an hour's dance, we all got out our umbrellas and slopped our way home.

There is just one more paragraph to write. Did any of you think who was doing all that piano playing for all that singing all night? Well, we did; and we feel that this final paragraph ought to be added to thank Mrs. Vernon Matthews for the share she had in making it a most enjoyable evening. It was the largest crowd ever assembled on such an occasion and everybody enjoyed every minute of it.

THE TOWN OF DON'T-YOU-WORRY

There's a town called Don't-You-Worry,
On the banks of River Smile,
Where the Cheer-up and Be-happy
Blossom sweetly all the while;
Where the Never-grumble flower
Blooms beside the fragrant try.
And the Ne'er-give-up and patience
Point their faces to the sky.

In the valley of contentment,
In the province of I-will,
You will find this lovely city
At the foot of No-fret hill.
There are thoroughfares delightful
In this very charming town
And on every hand are shade trees
Named the very-seldom-frown.

Rustic benches, quite enticing,
You'll find scattered here and there;
And to each a vine is clinging
Called the Frequent-earnest-prayer.
Everybody there is happy,
And is singing all the while,
In the town of Don't-you-worry,
On the banks of River Smile.

OUR ALL WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

Once a Month the Rector Calls Together All the Women and Girls of the Parish for Consultation.

Two months ago we organized what we call our All Women's Conference, under the auspices of the WOMAN'S AUXILIARY. The purpose of the Conference is to bring together all the women and girls of the parish for informal discussions, to listen to guest speakers, for entertainment and refreshment.

The first two meetings have been most successful, due largely to the way the young women and the girls entered into the spirit of the occasion. The evenings have been so well attended and the good times we had make us want to continue the Conference indefinitely.

At the May meeting Mrs. John Markoe paid us a visit and gave us a most instructive talk on the American Indian and the debt the whites of America, especially of the Christian Church, owe to him. Her address was one calculated to stir up a sympathy for the Indian in his present environment and a desire to do our full duty to him in every way to make amends for our cruelty and neglect.

At the June meeting we were equally fortunate in having for our speaker Mrs. George Woodward, who told us about what was the United Thank Offering, how it was made up and to what enormous proportions it attained before the United Thank Offering was presented at the Triennial Convention. She took for her illustration the "Presentation of the Thank Offering at the Convention in Washington, D. C." How well the Rector remembers that event. It was a most awe inspiring sight. Women came in every kind of vehicle, trolley cars, busses, taxis, private cars and hundreds walked. The big cathedral was crowded to the doors and hundreds of women were on the cathedral grounds outside who could not even look in. The evening mass meeting was just as bad. Those who did not start for the hall an hour ahead of time were simply out of luck and had to return to their hotel. We had no idea there were so many women in the world. Their offering was over $1,000,000, every cent of which was used to help along the missionary cause of the church.

Mrs. Woodward gave us other information of real value about the Woman's Auxiliary. Below is a quotation from a very interesting pamphlet she used in her talk. Our women and girls were charmed by the gracious personality of the speaker. She received many an honest and well-intended invitation to "come again."

We are arranging a special program for the ALL WOMEN'S CONFERENCE for the Fall. We hope to have an entertainment as well as a discussion and a special speaker and refreshments. We want to have a night devoted ENTIRELY to our women and girls, where they can do what they please and say what they please. The social features will be entirely in the hands of the young women and girls. We hope to hold the Conferences at least once a month.

STANDARD FOR THE 100% PARISH BRANCH of the WOMAN'S AUXILIARY IN THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

1. At least eight meetings a year, opened with prayer, at which some definite missionary information must be given. 10 points.
2. Delegates to all five Standing Committees (Indians' Hope, Foreign, Domestic, Diocesan and Colored). Attendance of City and Suburban Parishes at at least 50 per cent. of the meetings (20 meetings in all). All Parishes at a distance of 25 miles from Philadelphia to attend one Committee meeting a month, with eight reports taken back to the Parish branch a year. 20 points.
3. Representation from every Parish branch at the three annual services—Devotional Day, Educational Day and Annual Meeting and Annual Missionary Day. 10 points
4. Corporate Communion of every Parish branch at least once a year. (This may be at a regular Sunday Celebration of the Holy Communion.) A definite prayer plan in every Parish branch. 10 points.
5. Some work taken by every branch from the Diocesan Supply Bureau. 10 points.
6. An Educational Secretary in every Parish branch and a plan for Mission Study and Religious Education. 10 points.
7. The United Thank Offering collected twice annually in every Parish branch, with a United Thank Offering Treasurer in every branch. 5 points.
8. Some contribution to Missions from every Parish branch through the Church Budget and the Advance Work Program. 10 points.
9. The younger women participating in definite Auxiliary work of the existing Parish Auxiliary, or organized separately in the Junior Woman's Auxiliary. 10 points.
10. Some work done in every Parish branch through the Church Periodical Club or work done through the Committe for Work Among the Isolated. 5 points.

EDW. K. TRYON CO.

"Sporting Goods Since 1811"

Fishing Tackle
Athletic Goods
Guns, Rifles
Ammunition
Toys & Games

912 CHESTNUT ST.
PHILADELPHIA

LAUGH IT OFF

Laughter, like an air cushion, eases you over the jolts and the hard places on life's highway. Laughter is always healthy. It tends to bring every abnormal condition back to the normal. It is a panacea for heartaches, for life's bruises. It is a life prolonger. People who keep themselves in physical and mental harmony through hearty laughter are likely to live longer than those who take life too seriously. Instead of nursing your troubles and making them bigger, laugh them out of existence.—Anon.

IT'S ALL IN THE GAME

I can't expect Luck to be coming my way,
In all of the games that I happen to play.
So if, now and then, I must forfeit a trick,
Though badly I need it, I oughtn't to kick—
For that is just part of the game!

And whoever played in a game that was fun,
That called for small effort, that it might be won?
My victory can never—no, never—be sweet,
Unless I have snatched it away from defeat!
The fight's the best part of the game!

And who is it wants to be always in luck,
Relying on Fortune instead of on pluck?
And who is it wants to go smiling thru life,
Unable to say he has weathered the strife—
Unable to prove he was game?

And though I may win, or be last in the race,
May I never cringe at the troubles I face!
And when I have finished, may honest men write:
"In winning or losing, he fought a good fight,
From the start to the end of the game!"

—Charles S. Kinnison.

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

WILL WE EVER FORGET THE SEVENTY-SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY?

* * *

Special thanks are tendered to the ladies who provided and prepared such a delicious parish dinner and supper.

* * *

I often think that anyone can face
A crisis or a crushing tragedy
With calm, exalted courage, but the place
That needs the greatest strength and energy
Is daily grind: to manage just to laugh
At all the petty hazards of each day
To smile, whilst sifting life's wheat from its chaff,
And strive to see just good along the way.

—Halba Baker.

* * *

Wendell Phillips came all the way from New York to speak before the Sunday School on the afternoon of the anniversary. And a very helpful speech it was, too.

* * *

We took Bishop Taitt "for a ride" before the Confirmation service on anniversary. Our itinerary started at 127 Wolf street, then to 211 Morris street, then to 110 Sears street. At each stopping place the Bishop confirmed a candidate too sick to be at the service.

* * *

ARE YOU EDUCATED?

A professor in a Western university is quoted as having told his students that he would consider them educated in the best sense of the word, when they could truthfully answer "Yes" to each of the following questions: Has your education given you a sympathy with all good causes? Has it made you protecting brother to the weak? Have you learned how to make friends and keep them? Do you see anything to love in a little child? Can you be happy alone, with only your thoughts for company? Can you look into a mud puddle by the wayside and see anything in the puddle but mud?

* * *

The church was crowded on Anniversary night, which was the occasion for the Bishop confirming 36 men and boys and 35 women and girls, making a total of 71 souls in our 1931 Confirmation class.

* * *

The Rector and Mrs. McHenry were tendered a delightful reception on the occasion of the Rector's nineteenth anniversary. The parish presented him a gift of $200.00 towards his contemplated trip to Denver, two bouquets and two birthday cakes. Mrs. McHenry received a large basket of lovely flowers and a box of exquisite handkerchiefs.

WHAT OTHERS SAY OF US

A donkey saw a zebra strut, and laughed and flapped his tail. "My land!" he said, "look there, a mule's escaped from jail."

The zebra, strutting lazily, espied a tall giraffe. "A rubberneck!" he cried; "that makes me want to laugh!"

The old giraffe a camel saw amid a field of rye; made fun of his old ugly hump and laughed as if he'd die.

The camel saw an elephant, and this I heard him say. "I'd hate to have a nose so long, and wobbling in that way!".

The elephant met a porcupine. "Alack!" he said, "alack! I'd hate to wear such hoary horns, much less upon my back!"

And so each different animal made fun of those he saw, and never really realized he, too, might have a flaw.

And so it is with many folk who think they've made a hit. But others laughingly remark: "Not so you'd notice it!"—Adapted from J. W. Bare in "Boyland."

* * *

A friend said once: "Oh, I'm tired of hearing 'don't.' I wish somebody would tell us to 'do' just for a change." O. K. Here goes:

1. When on your summer vacation DO your duty to your church and pay your dues regularly while away. The church expenses must be met in summer as well as winter.

2. Do go to church at least once every Sunday while you are on your vacation.

3. DO your best to make others happy and do not expect others to work overtime for your personal pleasure and comfort.

4. DO pay your rent, gas, grocer, etc., before you spend the money you owe them on a vacation. Of course, it's none of our business what you do with your money, but it is dishonest to spend money for pleasure that belongs to your butcher or your milkman.

5. Remember when you are away you ought always to be a Christian in thought, word and deed. You ought to DO everything you can to "Let your light so shine before men that they, seeing your good works, will glorify your Father who is in Heaven."

IT TAKES SO LITTLE

(By Request)

It takes so little to make us sad,
Just a slighting word or a doubting sneer,
Just a scornful smile on some lips held dear;
And our footsteps lag, though the goal seemed near,
And we lose the courage, and the hope we had—
So little it takes to make us sad.

It takes so little to make us glad,
Just the cheering clasp of a friendly hand,
Just a word from one who can understand;
And we finish the task we long had planned,
And lose the doubt and the fear we had—
So little it takes to make us glad.

—Ida Goldsmith Morris.

The Merchants whose advertisements are found here are leaders in their line of business. They want your trade and solicit your patronage through your own paper. Patronize them, they are worthy of your co-operation.

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER
230-232 Queen Street

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

Wm. A. Penton & Bro.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes
315 South Street
Formerly of S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055
OYEN'S BAKERY
1713 South Second Street
Formerly of 120 Porter Street
Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M.
WEDDING and BIRTHDAY CAKES a Specialty

Thoughts on Life

The only difference between stumbling blocks and stepping-stones is in the way we use them.

A certain amount of opposition is a great help to a man; it is what he wants and must have to be good for anything. Hardship and opposition are the native soil of manhood and self-reliance.—John Neal.

For one word a man is often deemed to be wise, and for one word he is often deemed to be foolish. We ought to be careful indeed what we say.—Confucius.

It has been my observation that he who is ready to talk about all things and all persons soon finds himself in such a labyrinth of contradictions that he cannot discover a way out.—Lord Bacon.

Live today as if it were the whole of life; make today a model of career. You cannot control the course of 1931. You cannot fathom even the things that may open for you tomorrow. But if you will, you can live today's brief hours prayerfully and honorably. And living one day is life.—Anon.

When we see ourselves in a situation which must be endured and gone through, it is best to make up our minds to it, meet it with firmness and accommodate everything to it in the best way practicable. This lessens the evil; while fretting and fuming only serves to increase your own torments.—Thomas Jefferson.

Never, throughout our history, has a man who lived a life of ease left a name worth remembering.—Theodore Roosevelt.

Don't Forget the

Sunday School Excursion

To

Riverview Beach

Saturday, June 27th

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

SUBJECT TO CALL AT ANY HOUR FROM ANYWHERE

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN

Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets Cut Flowers Palms Funeral Designs

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753

MAX SMITH

Dealer in

Boots, Shoes & Rubbers

S. E. Corner Third and McKean Streets

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother

(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 5, No. 9 PHILADELPHIA, SEPTEMBER, 1931 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little
George Cressee, Jr.

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Charles Little, Assistant Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Chamberlain
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. John F. Preole
Frank Knowlton, Jr.
Heber Rutter
Jeremiah K. Rutter

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
John Preole, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Keller, Doris May Rita.
Myers, Ellen June.
Munion, Margaret Jane.
Woodworth, Robert Cuthbert.

MARRIAGES

Thomas H. Buckley and Sara M. Sague.

BURIALS

Busch, Frederick W.
Ludwig, Johanna.
Schabacker, John, Jr.
Wharton, Martha.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

	A. M.	P. M.
Sunday
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

If Jesus Christ is a man—
And only a man—I say
That of all mankind I cleave to Him
And to Him will I cleave alway.

If Jesus Christ is God—
And the only God—I swear
I will follow Him through heaven and hell.
The earth, the sea, and the air.

Richard Watson Gilder.

Your Missing Church Envelope

It Is More Than Just Only an Envelope

What have you done with your missing church envelopes? No, you cannot pass it off with a shrug of your shoulders and a wise remark. This is mighty serious and important business. These missing envelopes caused the church an unpleasant financial predicament in the month of July. YOUR envelopes were missing from the Alms Bason. The envelopes of many other members were missing, too. The cumulative result of these missing envelopes was such a shrinkage in the month's receipts that after we had paid the monthly wages we had just $1.00 left to liquidate all other expenses.

We glanced over our Parish List to see if we could account for this extraordinary state of affairs. Our analysis of our membership deepened our perplexity. Most of the missing envelopes could be traced to members who are in more or less easy circumstances and are working. YOUR envelope, Mr. Workingman, was among those missing.

WHY?

Suppose your pay envelope were missing on Friday night? Would it be a matter of indifference to you and your family? How would you meet your obligations and pay your bills? Would you sit down and say, Oh well; perhaps my poor employer did not have the money handy; or he was too busy; or he wanted to buy a new automobile or take a summer trip to the seashore or the mountains and could not afford to hand me my regular weekly envelope?

No, you would not! You would walk right into the office of the boss and you would say, "How come?" If he should shrug his shoulders and say, "Oh, I must have mislaid your envelope and don't know where it is;" or "I haven't got the money now, but I will pay you when I can afford it," your temperature would rise several degrees above blood heat and if you didn't knock his cranium down on his desk it would only be because he is a bigger and stronger man than you. As it is you would just stand there and ask him how he expected you to pay Tom, Dick and Harry or the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker without that pay envelope? If he should give you an indifferent "I don't know," you would be first on the list for the electric chair.

Well, do you mean to tell us you are meaner than your boss and you would do things to your Church, that you would commit mayhem, incendiarism and murder if HE were to do the like to you?

Of course, you cannot pay your bills and run your house without money. Neither can WE run your Church and pay your bills if you do not give us that missing envelope.

You say, "now don't get excited, I'm going to pay up before long." Yes, then we go to our coal man, our electric light office, our parish visitor, our organist, our sexton, our printer, etc., etc., etc., and say like you, "Now don't get excited, we're going to pay up before long." What's HIS answer and HIS answer, and HER answer, and HER answer, and HIS answer and HIS answer? Not hard to guess, is it?

We need your missing envelope, we must have it, you MUST get it to us at once. Your bills are due and you MUST NOT default in your payments. If you do, you need religion more than ever for you are not converted enough to practice common honesty.

These pleasant remarks are not meant for those who are honestly too poor to meet their Church obligations. ALL OTHERS ARE INCLUDED, NO MATTER WHO YOU ARE.

OUR SUMMER PROGRAM

The Season Demonstrated the Importance of the Parish House

It has been a very hot and a very busy summer in St. John's Parish. Seven days every week we were working at high pressure and accomplishing more real neighborhood and social service work than ever before in the history of the church.

SUNDAY SERVICES

As usual, we put into effect a summer program of Sunday Services. We omitted the Sunday School service in the afternoon and held our Summer Bible

St. John's Summer Vacation School in Action

School at 10.00 A. M. instead. Our program was the study of the Catechism, the Collect, Epistle and Gospel for the Sunday, the study of the Books of the Bible and an analysis of the church year calendar with an idea of studying the Movable and Immovable Feasts, their significance, their Collects, Epistles and Gospels, their Bible authority, the Color of the Vestments used and why. The regular Sunday Morning Service and Sermon was from 11.00 A. M. until noon.

During June and July the Fellowship service was from 7.30 to 8.00 P. M. The Evening Service was from 8.00 to 9.00 P. M. The Evening Service was very informal and conducted in the Sunday School room. It consisted of 15 minutes of favorite hymn singing, a short form of Evening Prayer and an illustrated talk on the lands and the people in which the Church is doing missionary work. Owing to the intense heat we thought it best to abandon all services during August except the Bible School and the Sunday Morning Service.

Junior St. Johnites at Little Pine Lake

Our Summer Vacation Center

We were so busy during the weekday in our vacation work that we felt sure no one would really

Ready for a Hike

appreciate the size and importance of it all unless we printed photographs of what we did. Yet, even the pictures do not tell the whole story. You see in them a crowd of boys and girls who attended one day's session. You do not see what they did. Under the

St. John's Summer Vacation School at Rest

fine direction of our Vacation Director, Mrs. John Nelson, Jr., they learned Bible verses every day, had community singing, folk dancing, vase decorating, weaving, games, crayon work, dramas, manual labor work such as making aeroplanes, book racks, toys and ornaments. The new sliding board, glider and gymnasium set were worked overtime. At noon every child received a pint bottle of milk and something to eat. Once a week they were given an ice cream treat. Once every two weeks they were taken on a picnic and all expenses paid. Every week a group of children were taken on a picnic and all expenses paid. Every week a group of children were chosen from those attending the sessions of the Vacation Center and sent to the SHACK-IN-THE-PINES, Browns Mills, New Jersey, for one week. Other years we gave each group two weeks in camp. This year we could give them but one week because of the greater number of children who needed the outing.

Rustic Summer House on Shore of Little Pine Lake

Rear of the Shack-in-the-Pines

The Shack-in-the-Pines

It has been a glorious season in the camp. Up early in the morning for a quick dip in the lake, a two-mile hike through virgin pine forest in sunshine and shadow to the tune of a bird choir of a thousand voices, loafing along the road home again with every step bringing one to new interests, a canoe trip on beautiful Little Pine Lake, a big mid-day meal, the clean up and a rest until time to swim, the rest of the afternoon in and out of the water, supper, the evening radio program or a moonlight on the lake, story telling, singing, dancing,—just one pleasant thing after another for seven long days and under the direction of trained hostesses. It was interesting to see how pale, thin and emaciated our guests came to camp and how brown, plump and full of "pep" they returned to their homes. Personally, we feel that this ministry to the bodies of our boys and girls is of first importance. Strong spirits can be found only in strong bodies.

We want to take this opportunity to express our thanks to our many friends who through their generosity have made it possible to put over such a big summer program. It is too bad that they could not have the fun of seeing how much health and happiness their money bought for the kids who needed it most.

The Need of the Sunday School

This Subject Is Being Emphasized by Other Than Purely Religious Interests

The need of the Sunday School as an economical, as well as a social and moral force, is being more and more emphasized by social agencies, physicians, criminologists, educators, newspapers and business men.

It has risen to stupendous social and economical importance so that it can no longer be neglected or ignored.

Mr. C. W. Wood, of the advertising department of the Philadelphia Inquirer Company, in preparing a letter for stimulating business for his paper, wrote these two paragraphs:

"The United States Government spends annually approximately $2,000,000,000 for the maintenance of its various departments. It costs approximately $1,000,000,000 to maintain our churches; approximately $1,000,000,000 to maintain our public schools and educational institutions, and it costs the citizens of the United States $6,000,000,000 for its crime.

"No young man or woman inmate of a Pennsylvania penal institution in 1930 had been in a church for over a year. If the Sunday School is brought to the child at an early age it prevents crime; most all criminals, men and women, are under 26 years of age, and 22,000,000 CHILDREN IN THE UNITED STATES HAVE NEVER BEEN IN A SUNDAY SCHOOL."

Just suppose you read that last line again and ask yourself the question whether there is not a close relation between crime and the lack of Christian training.

Every parent is facing a grave responsibility in the matter of the religious training of his child. Here is how matters stand with him. According to Mr. Woods' estimate, the U. S. crime budget is over two billion dollars more than the combined expense of running all the Government departments, all the churches in the country and all the educational institutions in the land.

This budget of six billion dollars for crime must be raised by taxing every man and woman, whether parent or single, in the country.

YOU, Mr. and Mrs. Parent, are actually making yourselves pay the Government six billion dollars for your neglect of your child's moral and spiritual education.

YOU, Mr. and Mrs. Parent, are recruiting your boy and your girl in that mighty army of young men and young women who are filing through the prison gates and overcrowding our penal institutions.

YOU, Mr. and Mrs. Parent, no doubt belong to that wicked class of parents who allow their children to join the 22,000,000 who have never been to Sunday School.

When the crash comes and you have the shame of viewing your offspring behind prison bars do not let your heart be wrung with anguish. Do not blame the boy or the girl. Just look and say to yourself, didn't I raise the kid to be a criminal and don't I foot the bill of six billion dollars to keep him or her behind prison bars?

Whether or not you are able to bear up under the load of disgrace and social ostracism it will be too late then to wring your hands in anguish and confess yourself a fool—more guilty than the offspring for the state in which you find yourself and him.

And think of it! You just keep on paying six billion dollars for the privilege of chucking the kid to the criminal class.

The Sunday School is still open. Take our advice and make your child come even if you have to come with him.

The child had better shed a few tears of temper now than you should shed tears of shame for the rest of your life.

And remember this: The child is not really to blame. YOU ARE THE CRIMINAL AND HE IS SERVING YOUR TERM BEHIND PRISON BARS.

WHAT GREAT MEN THINK OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

MYERS Y. COOPER,
Governor of State of Ohio.

"In our constant effort to increase for our children the facilities of public education we must not forget the benefits of the school of the church—the Sunday School. If the child of America is to be well educated his preparation must include both the material and spiritual. Our public common schools and universities care amply for the business and cultural phases of education and the spiritual is best obtained in the Sunday School, where pictures, painted and in words, give the child the story of the guiding light of civilization, the story of Christianity. Our Sunday Schools lost their force in the maelstrom of a mechanized age but rather have increased and extended their influence in the moulding of the plastic character of the child."

WM. H. DANFORTH,
President. Ralston Purina Co.

"We love our children. It's our responsibility to give them a foundation of physical strength. We plan an educational program that they may have alert minds. We are ambitious, that they may have social advantages. But when emphasis is laid on spiritual development, up go our hands. We are at sea. We turn to the Sunday School and shift our responsibility there. The Sunday School has brought inspiration to most of us. We remember our consecrated teachers. They lived and taught an ideal which made an impress on our characters. What of our Sunday Schools of today in this strenuous changing world? It's an arm of the church which must challenge leadership. With a deep desire for our own children's spiritual growth, the Sunday School of today demands our time and mind and means to make it a vital power in bringing in the Kingdom."

GEORGE H. DERN,
Governor of Utah.

"There is no doubt that the Sunday School has proved itself a potent factor in the spiritual development of the American nation. Training received there has moulded the lives and characters of many of our most outstanding public men."

ROBERT DOLLAR,
President Dollar Steamship Lines.

"I have kept an American Sunday School missionary in the field for a period of 43 years. I do not believe I can emphasize what I think of the results of this better than to just make that statement. By this I mean, had I not believed the benefits to be derived from Sunday School work very much worth while, I should perhaps never continued with this as I have. The multitude of children that have been taught in those schools and the results accomplished thereby, are ample evidence for me."

CHARLES CURTIS,
Vice President of the United States.

"I doubt if anyone can tell the great good the Sunday Schools do in our national life. Every young man and woman and every boy and girl should be encouraged to attend Sunday School and to help build up the Sunday Schools in their neighborhood because there is no other field in which as much good can be accomplished."

W. W. CANFIELD,
Editor, The Utica, (N. Y.) Observor-Dispatch.

"I am certainly a believer in the Sunday Schools of our land. As a former city editor of a daily newspaper in a growing city, and later as editor of the same paper, I have come into association with many phases of life, and it has been my experience that youth of both sexes, men and women, in adult life are almost in every instance better citizens because of the influences they have been under in Sunday Schools. For ten years as superintendent of Sunday Schools I naturally took interest in and watched my boys and girls, and it is a satisfaction to say that those pupils who were most regular in their attendance and gave best attention to their lessons made the best uses of life in their later years."

NORMAN S. CASE,
Governor of Rhode Island.

"I believe that the opportunity of the Sunday School which is the child of the church has never been greater than at the present time. We need in America an awakening of the spiritual sense and a strengthening of the moral fibre of our citizens. The Sunday School is one of our institutions which builds character and on that building depends the welfare and progress of our country in its moral, commercial, industrial and political life. It is the duty of those in charge of the Sunday Schools to see that they are conducted by trained teachers, in accordance with efficient methods so that they may best accomplish their purpose."

ROYAL S. COPELAND,
U. S. Senator from New York.

"There never was a time in the history of American civilization when the work of the Sunday School was more necessary than it is at this moment. I shall never forget the good I received from the Sunday School. Not only are its memories very precious, but the knowledge of the Bible and religious instruction received there can never be forgotten. For 25 years I was a Sunday School teacher. I know I received a blessing myself from contact with young Christians. In this age when law observance is one of our chief problems, the teaching and preaching in the church is a matter of vital importance. If I had my way, I should have every child in America come under the influence of the Sunday School and similar institutions."

CHURCH VOCABULARY

As noted in previous issues, the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany, Philadelphia, has published what we think is one of the most helpful pamphlets ever issued to Churchmen, under the title of Church Vocabulary. It is so important that we have been publishing a portion of its contents in The Broadcaster, and will continue to do so until we have published the whole of it. This Broadcaster contains the eleventh installment. We advise The Broadcaster readers to keep each issue ever handy.

DIOCESAN MATTERS

Standing Committee.—The General Canons of the Episcopal Church provide that, in every Diocese, there shall be a Standing Committee (usually composed of not less than three Clergymen and two laymen, who shall be communicants) to be appointed by the Convention thereof, whose duties, except so far as provided for by the Canons of the General Convention, may be prescribed by the Canons of the respective Dioceses. The Standing Committee acts as the Bishops' Council of Advice, while having some specific duties of its own.

THE GENERAL CHURCH

Canon.—A Greek word meaning rule. In the usage of the Church, it has various applications, as follows. The Canon of Scripture means those books—the books of the Bible—which the Church has received or accepted as inspired. It therefore declares them to be canonical, to distinguish them from profane, apocryphal or disputed books. Canon Law means the body of ecclesiastical laws enacted by the Church for the rule and discipline of its clergy and people. There are General Canons of the Church and Diocesan Canons, enacted by the various Dioceses.

Cathedral.—The word is derived from the Greek cathedra, meaning a seat. It is the name given to the Church where the Bishop's seat is. As such, it is the chief Church in the Diocese and the center of the Bishop's work. Around it are often gathered the educational and charitable institutions of the Diocese. Where there is no cathedral, a church is sometimes selected to serve this purpose and is called a Pro-Cathedral.

LEST WE FORGET!

A Reprint from the June Issue of "The Broadcaster"

A Year's Experience in Our New Parish House Has Taught Us Some Lessons of Its Need and Use.

Easter Monday, 1930, we broke ground for our new Parish House and have occupied it since September. We know now that it is fine to have a Parish House and we wonder how we ever got along without it. Through it we have made many important contacts—especially with the young people of the community. Yet, curiously enough, it seems to have been the means of breaking up the church connections of some of our members. To them the Parish House is apparently the PRIMARY and the church the SECONDARY factor in our parochial life. They are most enthusiastic over the SOCIAL and have become quite indifferent to the SPIRITUAL aspects of church work. They are neglecting the parochial organizations of which they were, a short time ago, active and enthusiastic members. They are SELDOM in their place in Church, but are ALWAYS present at our basket-ball games and dances. There MUST be a little adjustment here. The Church cannot surrender to the Parish House and degenerate into a mere place of amusement. Our members must guard against that by giving as much time, support and thought to the services of the Church as ever before.

There is another matter that needs adjusting. It has to do with the expense of maintaining the Parish House. Our electric, gas and coal bills have increased enormously since we have used the Parish House. The income of the Church is not sufficient to carry this extra load. We agreed to finance the Parish House on one-third the GROSS receipts from the different games, dances, etc. But this has not worked out as it should. Instead we are receiving one-third of the NET receipts, which often amounts to less than $2.00 per evening. It makes no difference whether the crowd is small or big the expense of heating and lighting the building is just as great; consequently we must arrange in the future to finance the Parish House on one-third of the GROSS receipts with a minimum of $3.50 per night. The balance of the expenses will be met by the Church. Let's get this straight once and for all. If an entertainment raises $100.00 for any object, the Parish House gets one-third of the $100.00. The EXPENSES are paid out of the remaining two-thirds. If the receipts from a game or entertainment are $12.00 or less the minimum cost will be $3.50 per night. NO PARISH ORGANIZATION, SUCH AS THE FELLOWSHIP, WOMAN'S AUXILIARY, CHOIR, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW, SENIOR OR JUNIOR, THE DAUGHTERS OF THE KING, YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION, GIRL SCOUTS OR CRESSON CLUB WILL BE CHARGED FOR THE USE OF THE PARISH HOUSE ON NIGHTS THAT ARE GIVEN OVER SOLELY TO THEIR OWN AFFAIRS, WHETHER SOCIAL OR OTHERWISE, PROVIDED, THERE IS NO CHARGE OF ADMISSION OR ANY EXPENSE INCURRED WHERE MONEY MUST BE PAID BY THE AUDIENCE FOR ANY FORM OF ENTERTAINMENT. As soon as those present are taxed any sum, it must be arranged to add $3.50 to the expenses to pay for heat and light.

EDW. K. TRYON CO.

"Sporting Goods Since 1811"

Fishing Tackle
Athletic Goods
Guns, Rifles
Ammunition
Toys & Games

912 CHESTNUT ST.

PHILADELPHIA

"THE TRANSFIGURATION"

A Remarkable Oil Painting by the Rev. G. A. Scarinci

There has been hung in the Chancel of the Mission of the Transfiguration, Seventh and Bigler streets, a beautiful copy of Raphael's "TRANSFIGURATION." The picture is seven feet by six feet. It is a personal gift from the Rev. G. A. Scarinci to the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, who is loaning it to the Mission. It is to remain in the Chancel of the Mission so long as the Mission is used by the Church for religious services. In the event of the Mission ceasing to be an active religious center under the authority and direction of the Protestant Episcopal Church it is agreed that it be turned back to the Estate of the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry. In the event of the sale of the Mission the picture must be returned to Mr. McHenry or his heirs.

It is an amazingly true copy of the original. The coloration is rich. The pose of the figures is perfect and contrasts are as natural as in the great original itself. Mr. Scarinci must have been inspired to execute such a marvelous piece of work. The value of the painting is estimated to be $1,500,00. Mr. McHenry is having it insured for $1,000.00.

In a short time the painting will be on exhibition at the Mission Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons and on Sundays. The public is cordially invited to these exhibitions.

CHURCH BURIAL SERVICES

Not Observed as in Olden Times

Modern changes seem to pursue us even to the grave. Take, for instance, the matter of holding funeral services. Except in remote places or in the event of a plague the deceased were invariably brought to the church and after a solemn service for the repose of the departed and the comfort of the living, the funeral procession, in quiet pomp, would file out the church and bear the remains of the beloved to his last resting place in God's acre. Many a village chapel with its adjacent graveyard, many an old city church with its adjoining burial ground, testify to the truth of our picture.

In these days of incorporated cemeteries and ornate funeral parlors this beautiful pastoral picture is fast fading from view. It is becoming the unpleasant practice to have a sort of an abridged and mechanical ritual for the dead either at the mortician's or in the late home of the deceased. For some unexplained reason the church service seems to be distasteful.

We know we are on a delicate subject, surrounded by a great deal of sentimentalism. For this reason we do not want to appear inconsiderate. Nevertheless, we do want to present our views and reasons why we ought to revert to the old Christian practice of burying our dead from the church.

First, there is the atmosphere of silence and peace which is so soothing to the sorrowing hearts of the mourning friends and relatives. Again, one is more conscious of the importance and realness of one's belief in the doctrine of the resurrection and life everlasting. In the church atmosphere these seem a part of the completeness of life. There, too, are the soothing notes of the organ which fall with refreshing power of early morning dew upon our drooping hearts. There is the Altar, and upon it the emblem of the resurrection, the Cross. There are the vestments of priest and choir which turn our thoughts of other worldly expectations. In this sacred setting the assuring words, "I am the resurrection and the life" are clothed with a truth and a majesty that can be understood. There, too, is the conclusion of the service. The choir, the priest, the family, the friends file solemnly forth to the deep minor tones of the organ to lay our dead to rest in its appointed place as though we were approaching the swinging gates of Heaven which were opening to admit our beloved into the Kingdom of God.

What a beautiful end to earth experience! How different from the crush, the crowd, the heat, the excitement, the levity of a house funeral around which is gathered a crowd of neighbors and morbid curiosity seekers whose only interest is to glut a ghoulish desire.

We are strong advocates of the old beautiful way of burying our dead, and we hope the time will come when our love for their memory will inspire us to give this last scene of their earthly careers the rich and colorful ritual of the Church.

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

WELCOME HOME FROM YOUR VACATION

* * *

Wonder if the summer heat burnt up all the church envelopes. Perhaps summer church envelopes ought to be printed on asbestos. About 80 per cent. of the summer envelopes are overdue. HOW ABOUT YOURS?

* * *

Can you run a locomotive without power? Can you build a house without material? Can you paint a picture without brushes? Can you run an auto without gas? If you can then you are the one we are looking for to tell us how to run a church without money.

* * *

It was the most active summer St. John's ever experienced. When school closed the VACATION CENTER opened with an elaborate program. OVER 2000 CHILDREN were entertained, and a steady stream of youngsters flowed from the Center to the SHACK-IN-THE-PINES, Brown's Mills, for a week's outing all summer long.

* * *

The semi-annual interest of $210.50 on the Parish House mortgage falls due this month. How about your CENT-A-DAY DUES? WE NEED THEM NOW to pay this debt. Put all your back Cent-a-day dues in an envelope, with your name on it, and DROP IT IN THE ALMS BASON NEXT SUNDAY.
THE INTEREST ON THE MORTGAGE MUST BE PAID

* * **

The Summer Bible School and the Sunday Church Services were remarkably well attended during June, July and August.

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

WM. A. PENTON & BRO.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 SOUTH STREET
Formerly S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055

OYEN'S BAKERY

1713 South Second Street
Formerly of 120 Porter Street
Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M. Wedding and Birthday Cakes a Specialty

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

Funeral Directors

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

Subject to Call at Any Hour From Anywhere

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN

Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother

(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753.

MAX SMITH

Dealer in

Boots, Shoes and Rubbers

S. E. Cor. Third and McKean Streets

As to You

"Did you give him a lift? He's a brother of man,

And bearing about all the burden he can.

Did you give him a smile? He was downcast and blue,

And the smile would have helped him to battle it through.

Did you give him your hand? He was slipping down hill

And the world, so I fancied, was using him ill.

Did you give him a word? Did you show him the road?

Or did you just let him go on with his load?

Did you help him along? He's a sinner like you,

But the clasp of your hand might have carried him through.

Did you give him good cheer? Just a word and a smile

Were what he most needed that last weary mile.

Did you know what he bore in that burden of care

That is every man's load and that sympathy shares?

Did you try to find out what he needed from you?

Or did you just leave him to battle it through?

Do you know what it means to be losing the fight?

When a lift just in time might set everything right?

Do you know what it means, just the clasp of the hand,

When a man has been bearing just all he can stand?

Did you stop when he asked you to give him a lift?

Or were you so busy you left him to drift?

O, I know what you mean! What you say may be true,

But the test of your manhood is: What did you do?

Did you reach out a hand? Did you find him the road?

Or did you just let him go by with his load?"

—Anonymous.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 5, No. 10 PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER, 1931 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little
George Cressee, Jr.

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Charles Little, Assistant Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young
Mrs. Jeremiah Rutter, Jr.

Altos

Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Mr. John F. Preole

Basses

Mr. Joseph Cooper
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
John Preole, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Frances Marion Ward
Cyrus Cleaver Hackett
Charles Irvin O'Donald
Margaret Anna Alberta Miller
Catherine Margaret Dunne
Eleanor Frances Wagner

MARRIAGES

Valentine G. Stryker and Gertrude K. Kloss

BURIALS

Elizabeth Wallace
William J. Lewis
Agnes Karb
Joseph A. McCauley
Edward K. Seeds

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

THE MOTHER'S CLINIC OF ST. JOHN'S PARISH

An Institution That Is 12 Years Old, But Very Little Is Known of It

In the last month's issue of the BROADCASTER we gave an illustrated account of our Summer Vacation work at both the PARISH HOUSE and the SHACK-IN-THE-PINES CAMP. We said the attendance for the summer was well over 3000 and that the Camp was crowded beyond capacity every day including Sundays. On Friday, August 29th, we held the closing session of the Vacation School with 145 children attending. The daily average since August 10th jumped to such a high figure that we found on the last day WE HAD AN ACTUAL SEASON'S ATTENDANCE OF 3326 CHILDREN.

The Mother's Clinic

In this issue we want to tell you about a big work that has been going on in the Parish for over 12 years. WE REFER TO THE MOTHER'S CLINIC. The pictures accompanying this article are photographs taken while the Clinic was in active operation Wednesday, August 26th. They tell the story more graphically and vividly than words can tell.

The Clinic is under the supervision of the Bureau of Health and Charities. The officers during the summer were, Physician, Dr. Scarano and Nurses, Miss Sandel and Miss Tromborn. We are not exaggerating when we say that THE ASTOUNDING NUMBER OF 30,000 TREATMENTS OF INFANTS, PRE-SCHOOL CHILDREN AND PRE-NATAL MOTHERS have been given in ST. JOHN'S CLINIC during the 12 years of its existence. Try to picture what an enormous and profound influences this immense Social Service and Medical activity must have had upon this district. Yet the work was done so quietly that only a few of our church members had the least knowledge of its existence.

What the Clinic Is Doing

The area covered by the Clinic activities is not very large, but IT IS TEEMING WITH HUMAN LIFE. The district extends from the south side of Wharton Street to the north side of Mifflin Street and from the Delaware River to the east side of Passyunk Avenue THE PHILADELPHIA DAIRY COUNCIL visits the CLINIC once a month for the purpose of instructing mothers how to prepare diet for the infants and how to use milk as a food.

The treatment at the CLINIC has to do principally with pre-natal conditions, babies and pre-school children. This involves tests of all kinds such as blood pressure, Urinalysis, physical changes during pregnancy, instructions as to diet and personal care during pre-natal period, weighing of infant, vaccinations, diatetics and training on how to raise infants and small children. Cases requiring other and more prolonged treatment than the CLINIC can give are referred to the family or private physician if the family is able to pay. If they are unable to pay then they are referred to a hospital or a District Physician.

The Clinic nurses do not trust altogether to their own judgment in the matter of setting up a plan of treatment for the mother and child. If a family is truly in need — so much so that the health of the mother or child or both are menaced, the nurses refer the case to CHILD HYGIENE NURSES who visit the home. They supplement or re-inforce what is being done in the CLINIC. If the family is in extreme need it is referred to a relief organization such as the City Welfare, the Family Society, the St. Vincent de

Our Patrons Come in Coaches

Paul Society, the Hebrew Charities or the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission. In case there are very young children or infants in needy families, the City will supply the necessary quantities of milk.

The Nationality of the Mothers

The nationality of the mothers and babies treated at the CLINIC is varied. The church is surrounded with over thirty different foreign people. Predominant among them are Polish, Italian, Jewish, Lithuanian, German, Irish and Colored.

A Small Group of Mothers and Babies Awaiting Treatment

No Family Is Refused Treatment

No mother or child is refused treatment. If the disease is such the CLINIC cannot handle, it is followed up until satisfactorily placed in enviroments where it will get the required care.

It is a joy to visit the CLINIC. We hope the pictures we use to illustrate this article will arouse in you a desire to become better acquainted with this branch of our parochial co-operation with the city for better mothers and babies and that they will stir in you an irresistable desire to pay us a visit and see the CLINIC at work.

St. John's the Great Social Centre of Southeast Philadelphia

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH IS BECOMING MORE AND MORE A SOCIAL SERVICE NECESSITY TO SOUTHEAST PHILADELPHIA. If the organization should ever collapse it would be a real calamity to the community and would affect hundreds of families and thousand of individuals. Every year this Parish is becoming a mighty social, physical and spiritual force right down here where it is most needed and in a locality teeming with anti-christian, anti-social and anti-American influences. Influences that cannot be overcome by force or brutality, but will yield to the reasonable application of the laws of love and service.

St. John's Parish Is the Best Church Investment in Philadelphia

Though only a Parish of laborers and working men, nevertheless we have the WILL TO DO a big Social Service job. We have the ideal location, our equipment is becoming more and more efficient, all our contacts with the foreigner and stranger are friendly and co-operative. We are giving something worth while to all who live within the boundaries of our Parish and we rejoice in the giving.

Our Big Necessity

OUR BIG EMBARRASSMENT IS THE LACK OF MONEY TO SUCCESSFULLY PROSECUTE THE TASK. Were it not for several interested and big hearted friends we would fall woefully short of our needs. What ST. JOHN'S PARISH NEEDS IS AN ANNUAL INCOME OF NOT LESS THAN $15,000.00 TO PUT OVER THE JOB WE HAVE BEFORE US. This Parish offers the opportunity to every Christian man and woman in the Diocese to realize 100% on any investment they care to make—either in Service or in Dollars.

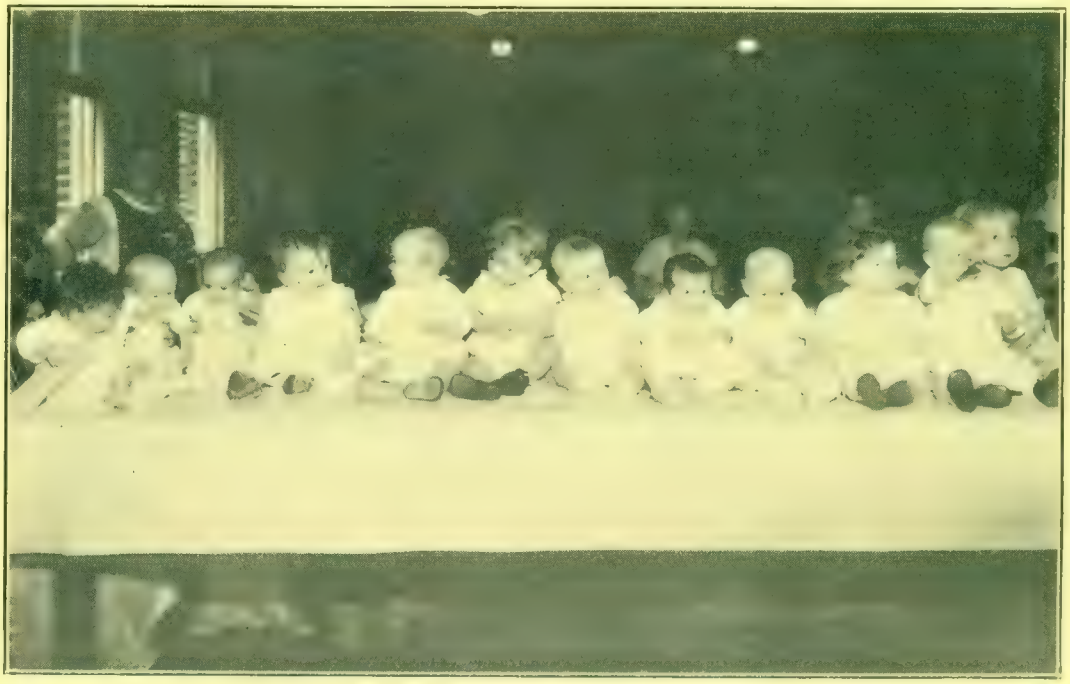
What might have happened to the thousands of mothers and children we have treated if the CLINIC had not existed, is of course difficult to say. But we are reasonably safe in saying that it had a profoundly beneficial effect upon the health and future of many a local family. STRONG SPIRITS ARE GENERALLY FOUND IN STRONG BODIES. We cannot expect much moral or spiritual force to eminate from a weak, puny, nervous, half starved and neglected human body. That is why we feel that our treatment and physical care of this mighty army of mothers and children is beyond our ability to say how much good it has done for them and for the community in which we live.

Stop in some Wednesday afternoon and get a big eyeful of our MOTHER'S CLINIC. And remember as you see what is going on that this is only one of many big things your Church is doing in your community.

WHAT AN OPPORTUNITY FOR SERVICE THIS PARISH OFFERS YOU!

WHAT OF CHRISTMAS? WILL OUR FUNDS BE EQUAL TO OUR DEMANDS?

THIS QUESTION CAN BE ANSWERED BY GIVERS ONLY!



Photograph of Twelve Reasons Why St. John's Parish Must Raise Funds

How Much Does the Baby Weigh?

How Much Do I Owe the Coal Fund?

Perhaps some of us do not contribute to the COAL FUND because we feel we cannot give very much and yet we feel ashamed to give what we feel we can afford.

Our one purpose is to educate every member of the Parish to support the Church and her interests intelligently. We do not expect you to give more than you can afford to any Church object; whether it is the COAL FUND, CHRISTMAS FUND, EASTER OFFERING, SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING or the CENT-A-DAY FUND. But we are trying to stimulate the spirit of sacrifice and offering in the hearts of all so that each will recognize that 'though they can give little it is their duty to make that small offering to God to indicate our gratitude to Him for the thousands of gifts He bestows on us who are conscious of our unworthiness to receive His favors.

We wonder if we can help you to a definite decision in the matter of making your offering to the COAL FUND.

How Is This for a Schedule for the Coal Fund?

Confirmed boys and girls, 8 to 12 years old, NOT LESS THAN 10 cents

Confirmed boys and girls 13 to 16 years old, NOT LESS THAN 25 cents

Confirmed boys and girls, 17 to 19 years old, NOT LESS THAN 50 cents

Men and Women over 20 years of age, NOT LESS THAN $1.00.

In this table we suggest the VERY LEAST a person should give at a certain age. The Schedule fixes a sum so reasonable that it ought to be easy for most of us to make our offering. THERE ARE MANY WHO CAN GIVE MUCH MORE THAN THE AMOUNT SUGGESTED IN THE TABLE. In such cases IT IS THEIR DUTY TO GIVE MORE. In fact it is the duty of all to make the MAXIMUM OFFERING instead of clinging to these minimums. For instance, if any boy or girl from 13 to 16 years can afford to give $1.00 instead of 25 cents, it is THEIR DUTY to give it. You must ever keep before you that this Table suggests THE LEAST OFFERING you should make. Your duty is to always make THE BIGGEST OFFERING you know you can afford. If you offer lean offerings to God, do not be surprised if your blessings are as your offerings.

ONE FINAL SENTENCE:—What we have written on this page has no meaning for those who are unemployed or are earning so little that they need relief. They cannot make an offering of money to God. BUT EVERYONE OF THEM, EVEN THE VERY POOREST, CAN RENDER TO GOD AN OFFERING OF PRAYER AND SERVICE. No matter how poor you are you can come to church and render God worship and service—even though your clothes are shabby. And be sure of one thing, a ragged shirt can cover a loyal heart; whereas a silk shirt can cover a heart black with ingratitude and selfishness.

THE NAME OF EVERY PERSON MAKING AN OFFERING TO THE COAL FUND WILL BE PUBLISHED IN THE NEXT ISSUE OF THE BROADCASTER

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

* * * * *

WELCOME HOME FROM YOUR VACATION!

* * * * *

Did you attend church service at least once every Sunday while you were away or did you take a vacation from worshiping God also?

* * * * *

Did you make your Communion at least once every month while you were away?

* * * * *

Did God go with you on your vacation or was Satan your traveling companion and regular pal?

* * * * *

Did you practice economy on your vacation or did you return owing bills for groceries, rent, ice, milk and CHURCH ENVELOPES?

* * * * *

Did you gain as much weight spiritually as you did physically or did you grow spiritually anaemic?

* * * * *

Are you now full of "Pep" and "rearin' to go" to the Glory of God and His Church?

* * * * *

ARE ALL YOUR CHURCH ENVELOPES PAID UP TO DATE? Or were you mean enough to use that money to pay your vacation expenses?

* * * * *

The interest on the Parish House mortgage is due. It is $210.50. Is your CENT-A-DAY obligation paid up to date? We need it NOW to meet this bill.

* * * * *

The Rector made the startling statement from the Choir that IF everybody in the Parish would pay his Cent-A-Day obligation in full for the past six months

he would guarantee to pay the interest on the mortgage and also pay the Coal bill for the whole year.

* * * * *

YOUR coal bill will be $400.00. Be sure to bring your COAL FUND ENVELOPE WITH YOU ON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 18TH.

* * * * *

REMEMBER ALSO THAT MANY OF YOUR BROTHERS ARE OUT OF EMPLOYMENT THIS YEAR AND IT IS UP TO US LUCKY JOB HOLDERS TO SHOW OUR GRATITUDE FOR OUR GOOD FORTUNE BY ASSUMING A PORTION OF THEIR SHARE OF THE COAL FUND.

* * * * *

Sunday, October 18th, is the day when everything opens up in the Parish. We expect to see 100 per cent. attendance of scholars, teachers and officers at 2.30 P. M.

* * * * *

The Evening Service will be a short period of hymn singing, a continuance of our "journey through foreign lands" by lantern and special selections by members of the Choir.

* * * * *

There will be a special meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, Monday evening, October 19th, to hear about the Triennial held in Denver, Colorado, during the General Convention. We hope to have special speakers who were present at that wonderful meeting.

* * * * *

CONSIDER THE VALUE OF A CENT

Number of members of St. John's—980

980 members x 1 cent=$9.80 per day.

$9.80 per day x 7 days=$68.60 per week.

$68.50 per week x 52 weeks=$3.567.20 per year.

DO THESE FIGURES CONVEY TO YOU THE VALUE OF A CENT?

* * * * *

Suppose ½ of our members are out of work and cannot pay even a A CENT-A-DAY, we still ought to receive an income of $1,783.50 if the other ½ of our members are doing their duty. But, we are NOT getting that amount. SOMEBODY IS EVADING THEIR RIGHTEOUS DEBT.

IS IT YOU?

WE HOPE THE PARISH ORGANIZATIONS EXPECTING TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENTS, SUPPERS, DANCES OR CARD PARTIES IN THE PARISH HOUSE THIS WINTER WILL MAKE APPLICATION TO THE RECTOR AT ONCE SO THAT THERE WILL BE NO CONFUSION OF DATES OR MISUNDERSTANDINGS BY DELAY IN MAKING YOUR SELECTION.

* * * * *

THE MEMORIAL TABLET LIST IS STILL OPEN IF YOU WANT TO HAVE INSCRIBED THE NAME OF YOUR "BELOVED AT REST" UPON IT YOU STILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY BY PAYING THE $10.00.

AFTER 500 NAMES HAVE BEEN ENROLLED WE WILL CLOSE THE MEMORIAL LIST.

PLEASE BE ADVISED TO ATTEND TO THIS MATTER WITHOUT DELAY.

EDW. K. TRYON CO.

"Sporting Goods Since 1811"

Fishing Tackle

Athletic Goods

Guns, Rifles

Ammunition

Toys & Games

912 CHESTNUT ST.

PHILADELPHIA

Coal Sunday, October 18th

HERE IS GOOD NEWS FOR OUR PARISHIONERS!

A year ago we were apprehensive over our bill for coal because of the addition of our Parish House. Naturally we feared our coal consumption would be increased at least 25 tons. We are happy to tell you, however, that instead of an increase in tonnage consumption we had an actual decrease of 3 tons over the previous year. This difference was due to the new heating system we installed when the Parish House was built.

ALL THIS IS MOST IMPORTANT TO YOU!

It means that if you raise $400.00 this year, as you did last year, your coal bill will be paid in full. This is over $100 less than the previous year when you were under the necessity of raising $525.00 to heat just the Church.

Be sure you pay your COAL FUND ASSESSMENT promptly on SUNDAY, OCTOBER 18TH. Especially those of you who have jobs and are able to support your families. MANY OF OUR BROTHERS ARE OUT OF WORK AND WILL BE UNABLE TO PAY THEIR ASSESSMENT. Why not make our COAL FUND ASSESSMENT A THANKSGIVING OFFERING TO GOD for the jobs we hold and the comforts we and our families have because of those jobs. Let us help make up the COAL FUND for our unemployed brother by assuming a part of his burden of the Coal Bill. Who knows but that God will bless us with even greater prosperity.

REMEMBER!
THE COAL BILL THIS YEAR WILL BE $400.00

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Regular Afternoon Sessions Will Be Resumed Sunday, October 18th, at 2.30 P. M.

For many months we have been publishing the observations of the greatest and most successful business men, lawyers, statesmen, artists and thinkers of the world on the value of the Sunday School to Society. Not one among them was a theologian or a clergyman of any order. Therefore, we have a right to suppose that their opinion is without bias. In every case we saw that these BIG MEN OF THE WORLD stood a solid phalanx behind the Sunday School. Their attitude cannot and must not be ignored. Either these persons of wide experience and accepted ability are mistaken or else we of lesser brain power and personality who deny their views are mistaken.

It is well, for every parent at least, to be sure whether or not Sunday School training is necessary for the moral and spiritual development of the child. The future career of a child of God depends upon our point of view.

In an article published two months ago on this subject we quoted a certain newspaperman of Philadelphia who made the astounding statement taken from statistics that the United States paid annually $6,000,000,000.00 of the people's taxes for crime. He further showed that over 2,000,000 of the children of America never saw Sunday School and that 95 per cent. of convicts and criminals are young people under 25 years of age. The conclusion reached from these figures is irresistible. Our foolish indifference to the character forming of the Sunday School is making jail birds of our offspring and it is costing us six billions of dollars in taxes to keep them in prison or to electrocute them.

Our Old Fashioned Ideas

But someone says, we are not at all concerned with this kind of statistics. They are just bug-a-boo created by you preachers to scare the boys and girls into going to Sunday Schol instead of seeing them use the golden moments of Sunday in God's open to drink in health and recreation from the bosom of Mother nature. All of which is very poetic of course, but is a very thin veil behind which lurks the Devil. We know a lot about week-end parties to the shore, the country, the mountains. We know a lot about the house boats upon the rivers. We know a lot about the shacks in the backwoods. We know a lot about the road houses supposed to be closed on Sunday. We know a lot about the night clubs. We know a lot about the Social Clubs. We know a lot about the boys and girls who are debauched and sent straight to jail and hell every Sunday through their horrible influence.

The trouble is these conditions are not brought close enough to us until it is too late. A few years ago we went to the parents of certain S. S. scholars and told them their boys, not yet 14 years old, were cutting out Sunday School and going into a house that was harboring girls from 12 to 15 years of age for immoral purposes. We were given to distinctly understand that we should mind our own business and if the boys did not care to go to Sunday School they did not have to go. One Sunday evening a whisper started the rounds of the Church that a former Sunday School girl of our Parish had just been arrested that Sunday afternoon as an inmate of a certain Social Club and was being held by the magistrate for a further hearing. We can mention a dozen boys who broke the habit of going to Sunday School and went to the Social Club instead and though only kids, they spent every Sunday afternoon playing cards and drinking bootleg.

Say what you please; make every excuse you can invent, the fact remains that when a lad or a lass vacates his chair in the Sunday School Class, he or she is going to sit down with Satan in the places of sin. Is that old fashioned? Why sure it is and it is as true as the age old mountains, the hills of a thousand years, the eternal ocean, the infinite heavens and everything else that is old fashioned. Why such moralizing is even as old fashioned as God Himself.

EXPERIENCE vs. CHARACTER

Some parents have the odd notion that the important thing the child must have is an education. They insist that he attends school regularly and attains the highest marks. When he graduates and he gets his certificate or diploma, they are inordinately proud of him. "He is a credit to his parents," they say. In the meantime they have excused him from attending Sunday School because the poor boy had to have some recreation.

Yes? Alright! Now what happens when he applies for a job? Which weighs the most with his prospective employer—education or character? Suppose a boy should apply for a job what would the boss want to know? His first question is can you give reference as to character? If the boy is to fill a position of trust he must get a bond. Have you ever read the questions on a bonding application? It's great reading. IT READS LIKE A SUNDAY SCHOOL EXAMINATION. Why do boys and girls come to their Pastor for a character? Because they know if they have no character they get no job.

Yes, by all means get an education; but while you are getting it get character, too. Spend five days in weekday school, but be sure to spend one day in Church and Sunday School. You will be sure to need it in your business.

THE WORD THAT SAVED THE DAY

For the Little Folks of the Sunshine Family

One day a little girl came home from school and entered the house just in time to overhear her mother say to a caller, "Louise is the most conscientious child!"

The little girl had never heard that word, and did not know what it meant. When she had a chance she asked her mother about it. "It means, her mother said, "doing your work without excuse and without waiting, and as well as you possibly can."

Years after, when the little girl had become the famous singer Madame Louise Homer, she faced a difficult situation from which she felt like running away. Just then she remembered her mother's words about being conscientious, and she faced the hard task and completed it.

There are a number of definitions to this word. The best one is given in the Good Book itself: "Whatever your hands find to do, do it with your might." Make this your rule and see how it will help you over the hard places.

—Albert A. Rand

"We are not here to play, to dream, to drift,
We have hard work to do and loads to lift,
Shun not the struggle, face it—'tis God's gift."

TODAY

All that counts for each of us
Is today—today;
Never mind the years that were
Or others far away.
Twenty-one or fifty-three,
Eighty-four or seven—
Where you find yourself today
That's the age to be!

Childhood, youth and sober age,
Each is good and best;
Tasks sufficient for content
And the night of rest.
Thirty-five or sixty-three,
Ninety-one or more—
Where you find yourself today
That's the age to be!

HOWARD V. SUTHERLAND.

A PRAYER

O God, Almighty and merciful, who healest those that are broken in heart, and turnest the sadness of the sorrowful to joy; Let thy fatherly goodness be upon all that thou hast made. Remember in pity such as are this day destitute, homeless, or forgotten of their fellowmen. Bless the congregation of thy poor. Uplift those who are cast down. Mightily befriend innocent sufferers, and sanctify to them the endurance of their wrongs. Cheer with hope all discouraged and unhappy people, and by thy heavenly grace preserve from falling those whose penury temp-teth them to sin; though they be troubled on every

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

Buy at Pete's to Save Money, Worry and Carfare

Groceries at Special Prices

WM. A. PENTON & BRO.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 SOUTH STREET
Formerly S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055

OYEN'S BAKERY

1713 South Second Street
Formerly of 120 Porter Street
Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M. Wedding and Birthday Cakes a Specialty

side, suffer them not to be distressed; though they be perplexed, save them from despair. Grant this, O Lord, for the love of him, who for our sakes became poor, thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE BOW OF PROMISE

The rainbow is caused by the bending and reflecting of the sun's rays as they pass through the falling drops of water. By a law of optics the colored light beams that come from a breaking up of the sunlight are arranged according to their wave lengths, and thus appear to the eye of the observer in the form of bow upon the rain. When the rain ceases, or is too far away for the necessary angle to be formed between sun, rain and the eye, the bow vanishes.

In a perfect rainbow the seven primary colors of the spectrum are plainly distinguishable. These, according to their positions, are violet, indigo, blue, green, yellow, orange and red. When there is but one bow visible the red color is at the top and the violet below. If there is a secondary bow the colors in it are reversed. Rarely, a third, or even other bows, is visible.

The arch is always seen away from the sun, and usually late in the afternoon, though it is occasionally observed in the morning against a precipitating thunder-cloud massed in the west. It is not seen at or near midday, nor until the sun is within 42 degrees of the horizon. The nearer the sun is to the horizon, the larger appears the arch.

The phenomenon is connected with the summer thunderstorm because the conditions of rain and sunlight necessary for its appearance are rarely met with in connection with other clouds.

HOME

Not long ago a young man in college went home for the week-end. It was unexpected and rather perplexing to the parents, for it was an expensive trip and money was scarce.

But they quietly welcomed him and enjoyed his visit, unquestioning. A day or so after his return to college, they received a letter from him. "I knew you wondered at my coming," he wrote, "but I felt I must.

"Many things have been disturbing me lately, unsettling my faith, overturning my philosophy, bringing doubt and darkness to my soul. I just had to come home to get within its atmosphere and feel that sureness of everything again. And I found it."

What a tribute to home!

—John E. Price

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

Funeral Directors

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

Subject to Call at Any Hour From Anywhere

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN

Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother

(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753.

MAX SMITH

Dealer in

Boots, Shoes and Rubbers

S. E. Cor. Third and McKean Streets

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 5, No. 11 PHILADELPHIA, NOVEMBER, 1931 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little
George Cressee, Jr.

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Charles Little, Assistant Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Laffert
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young
Mrs. Jeremiah Rutter, Jr.

Altos

Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Mr. John F. Preole

Basses

Mr. Joseph Cooper
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
John Preole, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Clark, Harry William
McLaughlin, Mary Helen

WEEKLY CALENDAR

	A. M.	P. M.
Sunday
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

The Jobless and His Worries

What They Are and How Best We Can Help Him

When one sees his neighbor and his children hungry, gaunt, shoeless and cold he does not need to be a Scientific Social Expert to know that he is out of a job and has worries worth worrying about. That is the reason why the working man is so charitable to his jobless neighbor in thought and act. The contact between neighbor and neighbor is close and sensitive. Non-essentials are swept aside and practical things are done regardless of the question of worthiness or unworthiness. Life is the issue and the preservation of life is the instinct of the working man and his class. There are many sides to the problem of the jobless. We of the working class need to get a clear picture of the situation to know how best to help the jobless in his need.

The Bread and Butter Side

The first worry of the man out of work is how is he and his family going to eat?. This is a problem that must be met, not at the end of the month, like the rent, but it must be met now—today. The human body is like any other machine, it must be regularly stoked in order to run. When feeding stops, vitality runs low and starvation becomes the instant menace. Bread and butter must be provided. If the man is idle and his wages have stopped, then other means of feeding himself and family must be substituted until he gets a steady job again.

Of course, there is Charity and the Dole. Neither, however, solve the problem of living for the jobless. Charity is the one way out, of course, but charity is not a very satisfactory solution of the problem. First, because it is only temporary. Second, because it is dynamite; it may react unpleasantly upon both the jobless and society. Charity brings a flush of shame to the cheeks of a strong, self-reliant man. Rather than accept it he will suffer silently until something drives him to solve his problem by violence. On the other hand, to a man inclined to follow the line of least resistance, charity is fatal; through it his lack of stamina may cause him to drift into habits of idleness and professional beggary. In both cases the reaction on both Society and the jobless is bad.

The Only True Solution of The Bread and Butter Problem is Work and Wages

The Self-Respect Side

Then pops up the question of rent. His wages are stopped. He can no longer maintain the little home in a neighborhood among his fellow workmen, neighbors who are self-respecting, honorable, congenial. He must move in a neighborhood where the rents are cheaper and the social and moral tone is lower, a locality degrading and demoralizing to his children as well as to himself. He becomes conscious that he has slipped down in the social scale. He feels himself a failure. This sense of slipping, combined with the surrounding evil conditions, form a sinister combination which too often tempts him to let go his self-respect and become submerged.

The True Solution of the Self-Respect Problem Is Work and Wages

The Mental Side

When a family man loses his job and his savings are exhausted, his wife and children are hungry. His home is gone. Sickness comes as a result of worry, undernourishment and exposure. He knows his helplessness and must stand by and see his loved ones suffer. It gets him thinking—thinking. Is there nothing he can do? Something must be done. This condition of suffering can't go on. He is dizzy. The more he worries, the more desperate seems his condition. He cannot bear it. He must do something to release his loved ones from their misery and win peace of mind for himself. Too much thinking drives him crazy. He takes the one way out. He first kills those he loves, then kills himself. The tragedy ends, the curtains drops. His worries are ended. The world goes on.

If you think this a picture too overdrawn to be true you surely have not been following events as they have happened in these days of idleness. Every newspaper, every radio, every magazine, every neighborhood reports deeds of violence, suicide, murder by maniacs driven crazy by want.

Of course, they ought not to do it. But before we censure too severely, let us try to imagine ourselves in like circumstances. Here we set in our comfortable homes with the wife and our children. We have coal in the cellar. We have food in abundance. We have warm clothing. We have luxuries, such as books and music and radio. We have a little nest egg in the bank. We have a steady job which pays us a regular wage. In fact, we are in the lap of contentment. Tomorrow we go to our work and are told our job is gone. Later in the day we learn the bank has failed and we have lost our savings. Days, weeks, months go by, but our affairs do not improve. Every day brings us nearer and nearer to poverty and hunger. In the near distance looms starvation. How are YOU going to meet the inevitable? What will be YOUR way out?

The True Solution of the Mental Problem Is Work and Wages

The Moral Side

Of course, it's wrong to rob and steal. No sane man denies it. The man-out-of-work knows it as well as we. He is by preference and instinct a law-abiding citizen. But he is jobless. Therefore, if he is not hopeless and helpless and quits the struggle by removing himself and his family from the world and its dreary problems, he boldly asserts his right to live and makes himself the arbiter of his destiny. Why must he suffer starvation when there is money to take? He would work if they would let him. But he cannot get a job. His children are crying for bread. His wife is patient and suffering. He sees the happiness and prosperity of his neighbors who have jobs. He sees the contrast between him and them. The injustice of his situation overwhelms him. He sees red. If he cannot earn his living, he will take it from others. His point of view swerves from the sane to the criminal. He has only one instinct left—the animal urge to protect his family. He robs, he kills, if needs be, that he may snatch sustenance for them. Honor and reputation are cheap prices to pay for life—especially for the life of his wife and his children. SELF PRESERVATION IS THE FIRST LAW OF NATURE. Like the wild beasts, he is thrown back upon this first law by sinister economical conditions which he could neither evade nor overcome.

The True Solution of the Moral Problem Is Work and Wages

But What Can We Do?

There's not much we can do. THE ONLY THING I CAN SUGGEST IS TO BE NEIGHBORLY. A little word of encouragement now and then might help. If we have a little extra we might loan him some to meet his most pressing needs. We might tell the children to stay for dinner and supper now and then. Maybe there are a few old clothes we can give for the boys and girls. We can keep our eyes open for a job where we are working. WE MIGHT RAISE A CAMP TOWN AND GET TOGETHER A LITTLE FUND TO BE USED IN AN EMERGENCY. We can tell some family welfare agency of his need. We could give a bucket of coal now and then. We ought to report every jobless family man to the rector and work under his direction in giving whatever relief we can afford. IF ALL OF US WORK TOGETHER UNDER THE RECTOR WE CAN DO LOTS TOWARDS HELPING THE JOBLESS GET RID OF HIS WORRIES.

H. C. McH.

One way we can help is to give one-tenth of a week's wages once every month. It would make most of us practice sharp economy, yet it would mean health and life to the jobless and his family.

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

"Good times are coming, so cheer-r-r-up!"

* * * *

WANTED IN THE U. S. OF A.

120,000,000 optimists for time and half time (Saturdays and Sundays included). How about qualifying for the job?

* * * *

This unemployment period is a God-given opportunity to show the practical side of our Christian consciousness for our brother's need. HOW DO YOU FIND IT AFFECTING YOU?

* * * *

REMEMBER OUR BAZAAR

The date is Friday and Saturday, December fourth and fifth.

* * * *

THE RULE TO CLOSE THE PARISH HOUSE EVERY NIGHT AT 10 O'CLOCK SHARP (EXCEPT ON NIGHTS OF SPECIAL ENTERTAINMENTS) WILL BE RIGIDLY ENFORCED THIS SEASON. PLEASE DO NOT ASK FOR CONCESSIONS.

* * * *

The cause of the above item is the poor response to our COAL FUND this year. We MUST shorten the recreation hours in order to reduce our heat and light bills.

* * * *

The Sunday School got away to a fine start on Sunday, October 18th. There were 237 scholars present.

* * * *

The rector is offering a beautiful picture of the "Rock of Ages" to every scholar who brings a new scholar to our Sunday School.

* * * *

The same picture will be given to any scholar bringing two former scholars back to the Sunday School.

* * * *

FIVE DOLLARS IN GOLD

will be awarded to the person writing the best paper on the VALUE AND NEED OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. The paper must contain not less than 500 words and must be written on one side of the paper. Neatness and good spelling will count in making the decision. Judges, who are strangers to the members of our S. S. will be selected. Their choice will be final. There will be only one prize given.

* * * *

The Rector wants the names and adddresses of all our parishioners who are out of jobs.

* * * *

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will give a supper and a dance in the near future. Admission is by invitation from one of the members only. No tickets will be sold. And no admission without invitation.

* * * *

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1ST, IS ALL SAINTS DAY.

* * * *

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1ST, IS HARVEST HOME.

* * * *

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1ST, IS COMMUNION SERVICE.

* * * *

Be sure you are found in your pew on SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1ST, AT 11.00 A. M., 2.30 P. M., 7.30 P. M. and 8.00 P. M.

* * * *

The United Thank Offering of the Woman's Auxiliary, at Denver, Colorado, was one of the most impressive meetings of the whole convention.

* * * *

We hope the young folk of our Parish will take the time and trouble to study our NOTES ON CANON 43 in this issue of the Broadcaster. It is the law of the Church which governs our acts in matrimony, whether we are priests or laymen.

* * * *

We need wash cloths, aprons, pot holders, towels, fancy pieces, groceries, candy, etc., etc., etc., for our Bazaar. Please help us get them. The same committee—Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Hopkins and Miss Fisher—will be ready to receive and credit all gifts.

* * * *

WANTED

New ideas on how to run the Church, a Sunday School and a Young People's Fellowship. No reasonable suggestion refused. Send all answers to the Rector.

* * * *

WANTED—100 men and women to send $1.00 subscription for one year's issue of the BROADCASTER.

* * * *

WANTED—Fresh, spicy, interesting articles on Church or Parish matters to be printed in the BROADCASTER. Newspaper clippings, poems, etc., will be gladly accepted. Send to the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, 225 S. 3rd street.

* * * *

Depend upon some folks to seek and find comfort. While the members of the Parish were almost perishing last September on account of the unseasonable hot weather, the Rector was wading through a snowstorm muffled in his heavy clothing and wearing gloves, on the summit of Mt. Evans out Colorado way.

* * * *

Now that his vacation is over, the Rector feels doubly appreciative for that $200.00 Anniversary Gift. We assure the donors that we spent every cent of it.

NOTES ON CANON 43

Of the Solemnization of Holy Matrimony

I. Ministers must instruct the people on the nature of Holy Matrimony, its responsibilities and the mutual love and forbearance which it requires.

II. Ministers must conform to the laws of the State and Church which affect Holy Matrimony.

III. (i) No minister can solemnize any marriage until

(a) He shall ascertain the right of the parties to marry.

(b) He shall instruct the contracting parties as per paragraph I.

(ii) Two witnesses must be present at every marriage.

(iii) Every Minister must immediately register the marriage which must be signed by him, by the married parties and by the witnesses.

(iv) NO MINISTER CAN MARRY A COUPLE UNLESS NOTICE IS GIVEN THREE DAYS BEFORE THE CEREMONY.

IV. If serious trouble arises after marriage between husband and wife they are admonished to come to the minister and let him try to adjust their troubles.

V. It is not lawful for a minister of this Church to marry a person who is the husband or wife of any other person then living. It is unlawful for a member of this church to contract a marriage with a person who is the wife or husband of any other person then living. The innocent party in a divorce for adultery can make application for remarriage after a period of one year has elapsed, after the granting of the divorce. The satisfactory evidence touching the facts of the case, including a copy of the Court's decree and record, if practicable, with proof that the defendant was personally served or appeared in action, to be laid before the Ecclesiastical Authority, who, after getting legal advice thereon, shall declare in writing that in his judgment the case of the applicant conforms to the requirements of this Canon. Provided, that it shall be within the discretion of any minister to decline to solmenize any marriage.

VI. (i) Any person whose former marriage has been annulled or dissolved by a civil court may apply to the Bishop to have said marriage declared void by reason of any of the following impediments to marriage:

1. Consanguinity, within the following degrees:

(a) One may not marry one's ascendant or descendant.

(b) One may not marry one's sister.

(c) One may not marry the sister or brother of one's ascendant or the descendant of our brother or sister.

2. Lack of free consent of either party.

3. Mistake as to the identity of either party.

4. Mental deficiency of either party sufficient to prevent the exercise of either party.

5. Insanity of either party.

6. Failure of either party to have reached the age of puberty.

7. Impotence of either party undisclosed to the other.

8. The existence of venereal disease in either party.

9. Facts which would make a proposed marriage bigamous.

VII. (i) A minister shall refer to the Bishop any person who has been married otherwise than as God's Word and the Church allows, who desires to receive Baptism, Confirmation or the Holy Communion. The Bishop after careful examination shall give his judgment in writing. Provided, however, that a dying person shall not be denied these benefits.

(ii) Any person married by civil authority or otherwise than as this Church provides, may apply to the Bishop for the recognition of Communicant status or for the right to apply for Baptism or Confirmation. The Bishop, after carefully examining the facts, shall give his judgment in the matter. In case of a favorable decision, a minister may, at his discretion, bless the parties of the union.

OUR ANNUAL BAZAAR

Just a few more weeks and the annual bazaar, the season of fun and frolic will arrive. Friday and Saturday, December 4th and 5th, are the dates. It will be noticed that we are dropping one night this year. The reason for so doing is because of the very unsatisfactory state of employment. We feel the members of the parish will be unable to support a three-night bazaar, and the parish had better save the heat and light that would be consumed on a profitless night. For the same reason, we mean to reduce the number of our booths. It has been our habit to spend two or three hundred dollars on new and attractive goods to add to the interest and value of the bazaar. This year we will not risk investing this sum because in all probability we would not get it back. In place of spending our money we are asking YOU to contribute a new article to the bazaar and to get your friends and acquaintances to do the same. Please do not get the impression that our Annual Bazaar is going to be a poor affair this year. It cannot be that. We are just showing a spirit of common sense and economy in the face of the present unsatisfactory industrial conditions. We are sure to have the following tables: The Fancy Goods, Candy, Larkins, Domestic Goods, Fish Pond, Grocery, Radio, Dining Room, Dolls and a limited supply of men's furnishings. What we want are donations to all these different tables. We need especially homemade cakes, candy, candied apples, aprons, pot holders, wash cloths, towels, etc, etc.

The rector is confidently expecting all persons who served on the tables in past years will be in their several places on December 4th and 5th. Let's all try extra hard this year to make our ANNAUL BAZAAR a big social as well as a financial success.

The Twelve Apostles

Of all the Twelve Apostles,
The Gospels give the names;
First, Andrew, John, and Peter,
Bartholomew and James,
Matthew and Simon, Thomas,
Were friends both tried and true.
Then Philip, James and Thaddeus,
The traitor Judas, too.
They followed Christ the Master
O'er mountain, shore and sea,
Samaria, Judea, Perea, Galilee.

—Unknown.

The Woman's Auxiliary

The demonstration of the woman power of the church at the Triennial Convention in Denver, Colorado, this year was amazing. One scarcely knows how to describe the outpouring of church women to the Thanks Offering service. Long before the appointed hour hundreds and hundreds of both men and women were pouring into the enormous Auditorium, which has a capacity of about 8000. It was interesting to sit and see familiar faces from all over the country in that immense congregation. It was as though a gigantic magnet had drawn the best of the church's womanhood to that particular spot at that particular hour on that particular day to unite in that particular function of offering a Thank offering of over a million dollars to God for the support and the spread of God's kingdom among men in all parts of the world.

The Character of the Thank Offering

That Thank Offering was unique in itself. It was an offering of the women of the church. It was made up of small contributions from women in grateful return for blessings God had bestowed on each during the past three years. It was dedicated to the missionary work of the church, especially for the support of the many women engaged in the mission fields, both domestic and foreign. It comprized thank offerings from the lowly working girl, the woman of wealth, the woman of the crowded city, the woman of the prairie, the woman from distant lands of China, Japan, Cuba, Philippine Islands, Haiti, Hawaii, Liberia, Africa and Mexico. On that big gold alms bason were placed the offerings from these wide-flung sources. And, big as it is, the bason overflowed with the gifts as our hearts overflowed with unrestrained emotions as we witnessed this demonstration for God by the women of the Church.

The Corporate Communion

Immediately after the offering the presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. James De Wolf Perry, assisted by sixteen bishops, celebrated the Triennial Corporate Communion of the Woman's Auxiliary. Wave after wave of women swept to the chancel for over a half hour to partake of the Holy Sacrament, until over two thousand had bowed the knee to the Cross in renewed allegience to its authority.

The Roll of Honor

The impressive ceremony of reading the roll of the names of the officers of the Woman's Auxiliary and the missionaries supported by the thank offering who have died during the past three years, gave a most solemn touch to this service, so full of spiritual uplift. It seemed almost as though Bishop Perry were reading the Roll of those who had graduated from earth's school of experience into the higher grade of living with God. It was a solemn but not a sad touch to this greatest of all convention services.

The Evening Mass Meeting

In the evening the auditorium was packed by one of the largest audiences of the convention to learn the total of the U. T. O. A most intereseting program had been arranged. Bishop Creighton presided. About seventy-five women missionaries were seated on the stage. After a short address, Bishop Creighton presented to the meeting the women workers in the United States. Five general field missionaries were presented by Miss Grace Lindley. Workers among college students were introduced by the Rev. John W. Suter, Jr., and Dr. John Wood presented a group of women missionaries from the foreign fields. Each group received a rousing ovation from that vast audience, which showed how deeply stirred was everyone as these soldiers from the front were presented. It was something wonderful to meet so many who had seen practical service in the missionary field.

The Announcement of the U. T. O.

The big moment of the meeting was reached when Dr. Franklin, treasurer of the National Council, announced that the U. T. O. of 1931 was $1,030,-105.09. The announcement was greeted with a roar of applause from the big audience. For though the offering was smaller than that of the preceding Trienium, it was far beyond the expectations of the most optimistic. A few days later it was announced that a recount showed that a check for $29,466.18 had been overlooked, which brought the final total up to $1,059,575.27. Some of the women thought it would be a good idea for Dr. Franklin to count it again. He might find another big check hanging around waiting to be counted.

The Ten Commandments

1. Have no other gods but Me.
2. Before no idols bow the knee.
3. Take not the name of God in vain.
4. Dare not the Sabbath day profane.
5. Give both thy parents honor due.
6. Take heed that thou no murder do.
7. Abstain from words and deeds unclean.
8. Steal not, though thou be poor and mean;
9. Make not a wilful lie and love it.
10. What is thy neighbor's, do not covet.

—Unknown.

The Young People's Fellowship

How the Modern Young Man and Woman Are Taking Hold of Church Affairs

We have heard so much about the "rebellion of youth" that many of us think the young folk of today are rushing pell mell to hell in a reckless revolt against the traditional restraint of the social apron strings which rob them of the power to express their exuberance as they feel they are entitled to do. Many parents and grandparents, as well as bachelor uncles and spinster aunts, gasp and gulp and register horror at some of the crazy antics of our boys and girls. Of course, this tickles the youngsters and they step on the gas a little harder and whoop a little louder just for the fun of seeing the "old folks" jump. But to tell you the truth, we have suspected these many years that the kids are only kidding and at heart they are just as normal as grandpop was in his coltish days.

The Past and the Present

We seem to remember something about the horse and buggy days, when the young sports wore side whiskers and the feminine of the species decked their beauty with bustles, hoop skirts and mutton chop sleeves. And what we remember is not all to the sanctity of youth by a mile. The boys and girls were not unanimous in singing hymns and reading their Bibles by a long shot. In those days the girls went to church to flirt with the boys and the boys sat on the back benches engaged in the most unprayerful occupation of doing sly stunts and saying sly things for the entertainment of their sinful sisters, who would giggle and snigger at every fool thing the imps of the back row did. Yes, and they drove fast horses, drank, gambled, kept loose company, turned night into day and vice versa, with the same abandon as our modern youth.

Well, good gracious! were grandpop and grandmom all bad, too? No siree, they were not. The land was full of boys and girls in those days who were all good through and through and tried to "walk the straight and narrow" and were a credit to their generation. Moral standards, the teaching of Jesus Christ, prayer, sacraments, the Holy Scriptures, clean living were the vogue. Young People's Christian Societies were prosperous and well attended, and the boys and girls had a wholesome respect for spiritual things. But we cannot ignore the fact that colts kicked over the traces and took the bit between their teeth in the days of our parents, just as they are doing today.

Youths' Attitude Towards the Church

The point we are rambling towards is—young folks of today have as proper a regard for the church and its teachings as did the boys and girls of yesterday. This was impressively demonstrated at the Triennial convention in Denver. Much time was given over to the church interests of the young folk. The children's missionary offering brought out the whole church representation in a big and spectacular demonstration in honor of the big offering THE YOUTH OF THE CHURCH turned over to the presiding bishop. One of the biggest mass meetings was held for the discussion of the college student, his peculiar temptations and his spiritual needs. About the largest banquet given by any church organization was that of THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP, which the presiding bishop thought was so important that he gave of his valuable time to drop in and make a speech. The supper was engineered by the young people of the church, and they performed their task with an efficiency and a dispatch which were impressive. Over 750 young folk, bishops and clergy were present. The speeches were snappy and intelligent. The whole program was electric with youth. The occasion was one big, powerful, dynamic demonstration that youth still had a firm grasp upon the eternal truths of God.

AS A MATTER OF FACT, THE YOUNG FOLK HAVE CAPTURED THE CHURCH and are showing an exceptional capacity in conducting its affairs. The time is here and now for the "old folk" to retire to the background and let the boys and girls run things. We can trust them with the machinery. All we need to do is to drop a word of advice now and then so as to steady their inexperience. The one thing we are praying for most fervently is that ALL the young people of ST. JOHN'S PARISH will some day get together and form one big, strong Fellowship who back the rector and push him into new activities for the Glory of God and the growth of the church. You know he, too, is getting ancient and he needs a lot of young ones back of him to keep his tottering steps in the narrow path of progress.

Yes, as yesterday so today we have youth rampant. But today as yesterday, we, too, have youth valiant. Today the Young People's Christian Societies are just as popular as ever and are just as consecrated. All we need do is to encourage youths to be youthful and grab off big responsibilities—especially in God's Kingdom, and push the church up another peg in the estimation of the world.

THE HANKOW FLOOD AND THE CHURCH'S MISSIONS

What Our Friend, the Rev. Edmund L. Souder, Saw and Experienced in the Recent Floods in China

Our friend, the Rev. Edmund L. Souder, now Priest-in-charge of St. John's Church, Hankow, China, in a most vivid article in the Living Church, gives first hand information about the recent floods in China and the suffering caused thereby.

A Chinese scholar told Bishop Roots, Bishop of Hankow, that it was necessary to go back 270 years to find any rise of the Yangtse comparable to that of the past summer. Thousands have been drowned, hundreds of thousands rendered homeless and penniless, and millions of dollars have been lost. At the time of writing, the great city of Hankow was entirely under water, varying from two to twenty feet in depth.

Miss Margaret Tetley, R. N., visited the Parish of St. John the Baptist, Hankow, to inoculate our Christian people and others against cholera. She and the Chinese trained nurse covered the two miles to St. John Baptist's in a tiny makeshift rowboat, handled by the catechist, who is a candidate for holy orders, and a school servant. In order to escape the congestion on the main street, with craft of all varieties, from large junks to tubs, plying their way to and fro, they followed a somewhat longer course, which took them over low-lying ground now under twenty or twenty-five feet of water. What is normally a thickly populated district with hundreds of houses is now a wide lake, with here and there a higher building showing above the flood. In many cases the roofs above the water were being occupied by men, women and children, who were in momentary danger of being engulfed in the deep waters should the house collapse. Many houses had disappeared into the water with heavy loss of life, for few Chinese know how to swim.

At the Union Hospital, a Christian mission institution, the water is over twenty feet deep around the hospital, and the doctors and nurses carried their patients from the first floor to the second, and, when that became flooded, on to the third. Dr. Kundel, the Superintendent, said the Chinese nurses amuse themselves by fishing in the downstairs hall of the hospital, lowering their lines from the second or third floor into the water below!

Around St. John Baptist's, which is under four to six feet of water, the conditions Miss Tetley found were really terrible. Some bodies of human beings still floated about, as well as those of animals, the filth of a great city was everywhere, and the stench was nauseating. After inoculating many people who had gathered at the Church in boats, Miss Tetley went with the Rev. Mr. Ling, the priest-in-charge, through narrow streets to the homes of some marooned communicants, where also she gave anti-toxin injections to whole families.

Across the river in Wuchang the great problem is that of caring for thousands of refugees. Whereas, all of Hankow is submerged, much of Wuchang is comparatively high ground, so that the city is congested with crowds of wretched people who have flocked there for safety.

On the beautiful Boone Compound, Mr. Kemp is in charge of the work of caring for 2000 refugees, who are living in the gymnasium, school buildings, chapel and out-of-doors on the grass.

The most thrilling mission story relates to St. Hilda's School, about half a mile outside Wuchang. Deaconess Clark, the vice-principal, and Miss Cox had been there a few days, although it was realized that the place would remain dry only as long as a great dike below the city kept back the waters of the Yangtse. Some kind of a premonition prompted Mr. Kemp on the night of August 19th to walk out there from Boone at about 9 o'clock to be there with the ladies in case anything did happen. It did! The dike broke, and the waters poured in with a mighty rush over miles of territory in back of Wuchang. At St. Hilda's, as a precaution, pianos and some other things had already been moved to the second floor of the school building, but most people had believed that the dike would hold, so that many things of value in the chapel, the library, the principal's office, to say nothing of personal possessions of the foreign staff, were at once exposed to the water. In the darkness, Mr. Kemp, Deaconess Clark, Miss Cox, and the faithful school servants worked feverishly to carry what they could above the rapidly rising waters. Mr. Kemp and Deaconess Clark swam out through the night, and brought safely back a servant who could not swim and who had taken refuge in a tree. They made the rescue by means of a large bookcase, they themselves propelling it forward from either side.

The night of the excitement at St. Hilda's, many in low-lying parts of Wuchang were drowned by the waters from the broken dikes. One was an old servant of the Mission. A young man of the office staff in Hankow, whose home is in Wuchang, stood from midnight until daylight in water that rose steadily to his waist, his chest, his shoulders, his neck, when he was rescued by a relative who went over in a boat from Hankow to look him up.

The National Government of China has invited Bishop Roots to be one of a committee of seven which is to have charge of all the Flood Relief work in this part of China. Two Cabinet ministers sent him telegrams, urging him to accept the important post, and he is the only foreigner out of the whole seven on the committee. The Governor of the province, the mayor of the city, the prominent Chinese business men are the others appointed.

The above were conditions as described in late August. Notwithstanding the conditions, Mr. Souder has continued celebrating the Holy Communion on the second floor of his house with the first floor three feet under water, and at the English Church of St. John the Evangelist, when the nave was well under water and the sanctuary the only dry spot for both priest and people.

Bible Arithmetic

ADDITION

Add to your faith courage, and to courage knowledge; and to knowledge self-control, and to self-control patience; and to patience Godliness; and to Godliness brotherly-kindness; and to brotherly-kindness love. II Peter 1:5-7.

SUBTRACTION

Putting away therefor all wickedness, and all guile, and hypocracies, and envies and evil-speaking . . . long for the spiritual milk . . . that ye may grow thereby unto salvation. I Peter 2:1-2.

MULTIPLICATION

Grace and Peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus Christ our Lord. II Pet. 1-2.

DIVISION

Come out from among them and be ye separate. II Cor. 6:17.

RULE OF THREE

Now abideth faith, hope, love, these three, and the greater of these is love: I Cor. 13:13.

EDW. K. TRYON CO.

"Sporting Goods Since 1811"

Fishing Tackle
Athletic Goods
Guns, Rifles
Ammunition
Toys & Games

912 CHESTNUT ST.
PHILADELPHIA

SINCE YOU ARE WISE

Give little place to grief,
  Since you are wise,
And know life all too brief
  To mar with sighs.

The time is ripe to win
  Your dreamed delight;
This fabric which you spin,
  Let it be bright!

Not for your joy alone
  Seek joyous things,
For every gladness known
  Has eager wings.

On eager wings joy goes
  From soul to soul,
And on each one bestows
  Its golden dole.

This fabric which you weave,
  Let it be gay;
Since you are wise, believe
  In joy today!

CHURCH VOCABULARY

As noted in previous numbers of the Broadcaster, we are reprinting in sections from pamphlet under, above title issued by the Church of St. Luke and the

To Save Time, Trouble and Worry Buy at

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

At Pete's the Customers Are Always Right

WM. A. PENTON & BRO.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 SOUTH STREET
Formerly S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055

OYEN'S BAKERY

1713 South Second Street
Formerly of 120 Porter Street
Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M. Wedding and Birthday Cakes a Specialty

Epiphany. This number contains the twelfth installment.

The General Church

Catholic—The word "Catholic" was very early adopted as descriptive of the Church founded by our Lord and His Apostles. It means universal, or all-embracing. It is a geographical rather than a theological term. The Church is Catholic in this sense, that it is for all Christian people. The term distinguishes the Christian Church from the old Jewish Church, which was but temporary, local, national.

Protestant—A name given to certain people who protested against a law made by the Emperor Charles V and his Diet in 1529. The name is commonly applied to what are known as "Evangelical Denominations," as opposed to Romanism. But as so many Heretics, Atheists, Freethinkers and Nothingarians are included under the name Protestant, the word has lost much of its original and proper meaning and has taken on some other worse ones.

Church Wardens—Two officers of a parish usually distinguished by the titles, Senior and Junior, and differing in functions slightly from other Vestrymen. In some Dioceses they are elected by the people of the Parish at the same time the Vestrymen are elected; in others they are appointed by the Vestry, who alone are elected. In most Parishes, the Senior Warden is appointed by the Rector and the Junior Warden is elected by the Vestry.

Convocations—This term as used in the American Church has reference to certain territorial divisions in a Diocese, or to the grouping together of the Clergy and Laity of certain districts of a Diocese, for the more efficient and systematic carrying on of local mission work. Usually each such division of a district or grouping of portions is presided over by a Priest, either elected by the Clergy of that Convocation or appointed by the Bishop, and commonly called the Dean of such and such a Convocation.

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

The Merchants whose advertisements are found here are leaders in their line of business. They want your trade and solicit your patronage through your own paper. Patronize them, they are worthy of your co-operation.

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

Funeral Directors

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

Subject to Call at Any Hour From Anywhere

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN

Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother

(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753.

MAX SMITH

Dealer in

Boots, Shoes and Rubbers

S. E. Cor. Third and McKean Streets

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 5, No. 12 PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER, 1931 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little
Joseph Leach

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mr. Charles Little, Assistant Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young
Mrs. Jeremiah Rutter, Jr.

Altos

Miss Kathryne Hasson
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Mr. John F. Preole

Basses

Mr. Joseph Cooper
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
John Preole, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Beck, Georgeanna Butler
Brodie, Elizabeth Agnes
Connor, Edward Joseph
Dallett, Charlotte
Farrare, Charles Dominick
Marquart, John Joseph
Penrose, Helen Dolores

BURIALS

William W. Easterday
Thomas Marple

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.00
Evening Service and Address		7.45
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

OUR ANNUAL BAZAAR

The Event of the Season Is Here!

We did not intend to do it, but everybody seemed so disappointed when we said we could not have our ANNUAL BAZAAR this year, that we determined to go ahead and put it over even if we ran it at a financial loss. Probably our pre-sale at the City Mission will help us make up and enable us to go over the top by a small margin. So here we are going at full blast with a better line of goods than ever before at prices that cannot be duplicated in New York, Paris, Berlin or Philadelphia.

The Men's Booth this year is the best ever. New goods of honest values are offered to men who are of discriminating taste and like to be up to the last minute in styles. WE do not have one piece of merchandise of last year's style. Look for yourselves and be convinced. Here are some of our prices:

Socks—All latest styles and best qualities, 35 cents, 3 pairs for $1.00.

Ties—All latest styles and best qualities, 65 cents and 90 cents.

Scarfs—All latest styles and best qualities, $1.25 to $2.00.

Handkerchiefs—Good size soft cotton, 2 for 25 cents; 5 for 50 cents.

Handkerchiefs—Three fancy in neat box, 50 cents.

We are perfectly willing to have both the quality and price of our goods compared with those of any store in Philadelphia.

The Fancy Goods Booth, under Mrs. Schmidt, will be loaded with all sorts of embroidered pieces for bed room, dining room, living room and kitchen. Also, there will be put on sale an exceptionally fine line of women's and girls' embroidered handkerchiefs from 35 cents to 65 cents per box of three handkerchiefs. Also, bath towel sets, full size for $1.00. All these goods are new and first quality. There are no seconds on the table.

Nothing need be said of the Larkins Goods, presided over by Mrs. Anna MacVaugh. They are standard goods and can be sold at one price only.

The Household Goods Booth, under Mrs. Springer and Mrs. Busch, will have a big stock of all sorts of useful kitchen articles, aprons, pot holders, etc., etc.

The Candy Booth will be in charge of the Fellowship, as usual. The only way you can tell the quality of our candy is to taste it. There will be lots of one-cent and two-cent candy on sale. Also, lots of the best quality candy.

Our Grocery Booth, under Miss Nuttall, will be just as big and varied as ever, having on sale vegetables, fruit, canned goods, coffee, sugar, preserves, relishes, soaps, etc. DO YOUR MARKETING EARLY

The Fish Pond, under Mrs. Woodruff, is the kiddies Mecca. They make their annual pilgrimage to the northeast corner of the big Sunday School room with an enthusiasm that does them proud. All set, boys and girls. Get in line and go fishing.

Of course, the Kitchen is presided over by Mrs. Frank Pine, of international fame as a provider for the inner man. We do not need to say a word of praise for her soup, pepper pot, oysters, sour krout, roasts, coffee, tea, pies, ice cream and everything else—they speak for themselves and we speak out loud for them.

The Doll Booth, under Mrs. Annie Beisser and her well trained Ballyhoo Chorus, will have a lot of new and handsome babies on display. Be sure you come early and get the choice babies.

The Men's Club are running the RADIO GAME this year. Mr. Joseph Leach is the cheer leader.

Then remember, too, you do not need to go out the back door to get a drink. Just look around. You will see Mrs. Young somewhere in the Bazaar. Give her the high sign when nobody is looking. She will lead you to the Refreshment Booth, where you can be irrigated 'till you are satiated without becoming inebriated.

She serves high-grade lemonade, snappy root beer, sparkling soda pop, and what have you.

She is Prepared to feed you out of a glass or out of a bottle.

Her drinks are so good you will not stop 'till you have dried up all the wet goods.

Remember the date of the great event and bring the family and friends. Paste it in your hat, it is

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY,

DECEMBER

FOURTH AND FIFTH

P. S: SAVE MONEY AND EAT YOUR MEALS IN OUR KITCHEN!

THANKSGIVING DAY

How Enthusiastically Will You Observe It This Year?

Thanksgiving Day is strictly an American holiday. It has been observed annually since the birth of the Nation. The day is set apart by proclamation of the President exhorting all people of every faith to gather in their temples of worship to thank Almighty God for the gifts and blessings He has bestowed upon us as a Nation and as individuals.

We are a little disappointed at the tone of the President's proclamation. It reads as though he was a little uncertain that we have much for which to be thankful. Probably we misinterpreted his words. We sincerely hope we have, for as we look back upon the year we are astounded at the many and the kind of blessings God has sent us.

It is very true that there has been a great social and industrial unrest. Hundreds of thousands of our brother Americans have been unemployed and have suffered acutely. They have been hungry, naked, homeless, sick and cold. But how truly this peculiar state of human suffering has proved that "MAN'S EXTREMITY IS GOD'S OPPORTUNITY." Conditions have gotten so bad that at last God has shaken us out of our lethargy and made us realize that WE ARE OUR BROTHER'S KEEPER and we must not try to evade our social and moral responsibilities. We needed this shake-up because the best of us have grown more and more materialistic, callous and selfish. Our exclusiveness was becoming alarming. Each of us has been living as though this grand old world belonged exclusively to God and me. God did with us these few years past as He has done over and over again with nations of every period in history. He took cognizance of our sin of worshipping the twin gods—Greed and Mammon—and has disciplined us—gently we would say—for betraying His love and protection. We have sinned against God in forsaking Him and serving other gods to the hurt of our own souls and the injury of our brothers. For this reason we ought to render special praise and thanks to God for loving us so deeply that He has forced us to witness our brother's need and making us realize He is our brother and we must stand by and help now. Every man of us has needed this social and spirtual consciousness to jerk us out of our complacent selfishness. It makes one shudder when we realize how close we came to losing God.

Then, too, we have many material blessings for which to render heartfelt thanks. Crops have never been better than they were this year. We have garnered an abundance for our needs. God has provided lavishly. It is now up to man to distribute justly. If we thwart God and waste what he has given just to enrich ourselves at the expense and suffering of our weaker brothers, He will continue His visitations, even as He sent His plagues upon Egpt, until we capitulate and do His will. He is determined we shall realize our brother's claims; that we shall acknowledge the supremacy of the spiritual over the material; that we shall love God with all our being and our neighbors as ourselves and that the canker of selfishness shall be cut out with the knife of adversity until we are cured of our sin.

Therefore, my brothers, let us meet together in our place of worship on Thanksgiving Day and give God praise and thanksgiving in unlimited measure for His mightly manifestation of His love for us even though we have been wayward and self centered.

We were led to hold our HARVEST HOME because of our aroused concern for our neighbor. Over 60 families—involving nearly 275 individuals, were fed by what we gave in the way of food—vegetables, fruit, canned goods, coffee, tea, sugar, salt, etc., etc. Then our neighbor's need touched that peculiar nerve which runs from our heart to our pocketbook and many of us gave a generous offering of money as well as material, which is being used for fuel and shoes. It is only $250, but it certainly will help St. John's poor to be thankful to God for such neighbors. Yes, many a member of St. John's Church has won the right to admission into the

The Tribe of the Good Samaritan

THE CRESSON CLUB

The Cresson Club is really the Men's Club of the Parish of St. John the Evangelist. It is composed of young men who are particularly interested in sports—baseball and basketball. Last month we printed a photograph of the Cresson Baseball Club. We hope in the near future to give you a picture of the Cresson basketball teams. We hope in time this Men's Club will become big and important enough to admit other men than those interested in athletics. We would like to get some men interested who would give the Club a musical night or a smoker or a ladies' night, or a card party, or a dance, or a speaker's night, or a supper, or a parish night and keep the kettle boiling all the time and wake up the parish so that it would get chronic insomnia and could never go to sleep again. Just to show the parish what a fine lot of men we have as members now we publish their names. The first is a list of the first basketball team. The second is a list of the second team. Can they play basketball? And how! Come out any Monday night and see for yourself.

MEMBERS OF THE CRESSON CLUB

First Team

Gus Jaeschke, Chick Reid, Jim Rutter, Charles Rutter, William Yeager, Bowen Leach and Harry McCall.

Second Team

Heber Rutter, Robert Rutter, John J. Nelson, Herman Jaeschke, Frank Knowlton, Samuel McDowell, Edward Dart, Joseph Slemback, Joseph Patton, Joseph Leach and Jerry Rutter.

Our Coal Contributors

The following is the list of names of our parishioners who contributed to our 1931-32 Coal Fund. Though our receipts are less than last year, we are greatly pleased to note that our list of givers is much longer than usual. That indicates a wider interest in the affairs of the parish. We are sure that if business were normal and our members working full time our coal receipts would have been large enough to take care of our $400 coal bill. Possibly late contributors may make up the deficit. If your have not yet sent in your coal envelope do so at once and have your name enrolled on the list for 1931-32. All envelopes received from now 'till next issue will be acknowledged in the Broadcaster.

Adgate, James
Adgate, Mrs. Margaret
Amerman, Mrs. Frank,Jr.
Armstrong, Florence
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Mrs. Margaret

Barnes, Mrs. Cecelia
Beck, John E.
Beisser, Mrs. Annie
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Mamie
Blech, Charles
Blech, Mrs. Jennie
Boehner, Mr. and Mrs.
Bricker, Jennie
Busch, Frederick, Sr.
Busch, John Henry
Busch, Mrs. Lillian
Busch, Mrs. Susanna

Chamberlain, Mrs. James L.
Clendening, Charles
Clendenning, Jennie
Clendenning, William
Colvey, Maria
Cooper, Helen
Cooper, Mrs. Annie
Cooper, Joseph E.
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Coyle, John
Cressee, Mrs. Abbie
Cressee, George, Sr.
Cressee, George, Jr.
Cressee, Raymond
Cunningham, Walter
Cunningham, Mrs. Sarah

Dart, Edward J.
Daughters of the King
Davis, Mrs. Margaret
Deitrich, Marie A.
Dickhart, Wm. W.
Dingler, Mrs. Annie
Dinsmore, Thomas
Dinsmore, Walter
Dunbar, Elizabeth
Dunbar, Mrs. Annie
Dunbar, Irma Lorraine

Evans, Thomas
Ewell, Thelma

Fanger, Mrs. Anna May
Fanger, Harry
Feinauer, Mrs. Amy
Fitzpatrick, Catherine
Fitzpatrick, Edward
Fisher, M. Beatrice
Friend, Mrs. Mary

Gallagher, Joseph
Gallagher, Mrs. Kate
Green, Mrs. Emma
Greenfield, Mrs. Lydia
Greenfield, Robert
Gregory, George
Gregory, Mrs. Grace

Hagan, Mrs. Ida V.
Hagan, Charles, Jr.
Hall, Louisa
Hamilton, Mrs. Irene J.
Hartman, Earl, Sr.
Hasson, Kathryn
Hasson, Mrs. Kate
Hasson, William
Haury, Mary
Heiniman, Harry George, Jr.
Henckle, Mrs. Rebecca
Henderson, Josephine
Henderson, Mrs. Laura
Henderson, Theresa
Henderson, Laura
Hopkins, Mrs. May
Holton, Edna
Holton, Elizabeth
Holton, Joseph
Holton, Mrs. Margaret
Holton, Margaret
Holton, Alice

Jackson, Elsie
Jaeschke, Mrs. Ethel
Jaeschke, Gus
Jaeschke, Elizabeth
Jaeschke, Herman
Jones, George Carlisle
Jones, Mrs. Fannie

Karstein, Lillian
Karstein, Elizabeth
Kelly, Mrs. Mary
Kelly, Charles
King, William
Knowlton, Frank, Sr.
Knowlton, Mrs. Anna
Konowal, Mrs. Barbara
Konowal, Joseph
Konowal, Louis
Konowal, Michael
Konowal, Peter
Kraft, Mrs. Ornet
Kraft, Edward

Lafferty, Martha
Lawrence, James
Leach, Ella Elizabeth
Leach, S. Bowman
Leach, Joseph
Leach, May
Lenhart, David, Jr.
Lenhart, Eleanor Louise
Lenhart, David, Sr.
Lenhart, Mrs. Margaret
Little, Charles
Little, Mrs. Mary
Little, Mrs. Pauline
Little, William
Logue, Mrs. Margaret
Logue, Robert
Major, William
Maguire, George
Maguire, Lydia
Maguire, Mrs. Eliza
Marley, Mrs. Emma
Martin, Susan
Matthews, Mrs. Martha
Matthews, Vernon
MacVaugh, Mrs. Anna
MacVaugh, William
MacVaugh, Sylvania
McCall, Elmina
McCall, William
McCall, James
McCall, Harry H.
McDowell, Mrs. Mary
McDowell, Samuel
McHenry, John
Meinhart, Herbert A.
Meyers, Charles
Meyers, Mrs. Mary
Mitchell, Mrs. Madeline
Murphy, Mrs. Sarah

Nelson, John J., Jr.
Nelson, Mrs. Margaret
Nugent, Eleanor
Nugent, William, Jr.
Nuttall, Hannah

O'Donnell, Mrs. Katharine
Oliver, Mrs.
Orr, Mrs. Mary
Outen, Elizabeth
Outen, Dr. and Mrs.

Patterson, John E.
Patterson, Mrs. Anna
Patterson, Mrs. Carrie
Pearo, Adelia C.
Pearo, James G.
Pearo, Mrs. Mary A.
Piccione, Mrs. Elizabeth

OUR COAL CONTRIBUTORS, Continued

Pine, Catherine
Pine, Mrs. Lillian
Pine, Edward
Pine, Frank
Preole, James
Preole, John C.
Preole, John F.

Quaile, Clara V.
Quaile, Dorothy
Quaile, Marion
Quaile, William

Rand, Andrew
Rassman, Mrs. Edward
Rassman, Edward
Reed, Frank
Reed, Mrs. Lottie
Reynolds, Mrs. Catherine M.
Reynolds, Jennie
Righter, Bertha
Robinson, Annie
Robins, Mrs. Anna
Robins, Anna
Robins, Mabel
Rutter, Catherine
Rutter, Michael
Rutter, James
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Edward
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Jennie
Rutter, Jeremiah K.
Rutter, Robert
Rutter, Rose E.
Rutter, Ruth

Scarinci, Mrs. Dorothy
Scarinci, John A.
Schaab, Fred
Schabacker, Anna
Schlembac, Mrs. Catherine
Seher, Thomas
Seher, Mrs. Margaret
Seher, Catherine
Seher, May
Shield, Mrs. Bella
Schmidt, Frank G.
Schmidt, Mrs. Theresa
Snell, Samuel, Sr.
Snell, Mrs. Samuel
Spratt, Catherine
Spratt, Finley
Spratt, James
Spratt, John
Spratt, John, Jr.
Spratt, John, Jr.
Springer, Mrs. Anna
Sprogell, Mrs. Bertha
Sprogell, Mr.
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, Mrs. Laura
Stenger, Webster
Stone, Emily
Stone, David S.
Stone, William
Strang, Carrie
Strang, Edward
Stryker, Harry
Stryker, Valentine
Substal, Mrs. Florence
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Sutterlin, Thelma

Taylor, Benjamin Franklin
Taylor, Ethel E.
Taylor, Mrs. Sarah
Tittermary, Matilda M.
Tittermary, Mrs. Matilda
Tittermary, Hazel M.

Watkins, Mrs. Mary
Watkins, Richard
Watts, Sarah
Weber, John
Weber, Lettie
Webster, Mrs. Margaret
Weller, Mrs. Mary
Weist, Mr. and Mrs. C.
Welsh, Albert
Welsh, William
Wilhelm, Catherine
Wilhelm, Mrs. Kate
Wilson, Dorothy
Wilson, George A., Jr.
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Eleanor
Woerner, Hannah
Woerner, Rudolph
Woessner, Mrs. Clara
Woodruff, Joseph
Woodruff, Howard
Woodruff, Mrs. Mary
Woodruff, Walter
Woods, Mrs. Margaret

Young, Mrs. Laura
Young, Viola

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

* * * *

REMEMBER THE BAZAAR!

* * * *

Admission to the Bazaar 10 cents; three tickets for 25 cents. Admission tickets are good for a 10-cent purchase in the Bazaar.

* * * *

THANKSGIVING DAY IS HERE

* * * *

Our HARVEST HOME was a mighty success. Our parishioners brought over $350 worth of vegetables and food of all kinds and contributed nearly $300 to the Unemployment Fund. Over 60 families—involving 275 individuals—received big carry-all bags of food to appease their hunger. The money will be used for fuel and shoes for children.

* * * *

Anybody who feels so inclined may leave packages of clothing and food with the sexton to be distributed by the Parish Visitor or leave money with the Rector to be used in buying coal and shoes.

We want every street in the Parish to get out a 100 per cent. membership to the Bazaar.

* * * *

Admission into the Tribe can be attained by giving one-tenth of one week's wage for the unemployed and observing the dual meaning of the initial letter of the word SAMARITAN. This DUAL MEANING will be given on receipt of the one-tenth donation.

* * * *

Do You Belong to the Tribe of the Good Samaritan?

* * * *

THE ANNUAL BAZAAR—FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4TH AND 5TH. ADMISSION TICKETS, 10 CENTS—3 FOR 25 CENTS. ADMISSION TICKETS ARE GOOD FOR 10 CENTS IN MAKING PURCHASES IN THE BAZAAR.

* * * *

MARK THIS DATE

Saturday, JANUARY 9, 1932, The Fellowship of Calvary Church, Germantown, will give the Comedy, "MARY MADE SOME MARMALADE," in St. John's Parish House. Admission, 50 cents.

Tribe of the Good Samaritan

Many hundreds of years ago there lived in an ancient city beyond the shores of the Mediterranean, a great and good man who was a worker of miracles and a teller of tales. Men heard of him far beyond the borders of his own country. So great was his fame that hundreds and thousands would journey long distances to hear him speak, and profit by his wisdom. One day a lawyer came to him, sent by secret enemies of the good man to get evidence against him in order to justify themselves in putting him to death. The lawyer was learned, shrewd and keen. He reasoned thus with himself. If I can but tempt this man to say something against the religion of our people, I can twist and turn and distort it 'till his most innocent statement will seem to be the most hideous blasphemy and my purpose will be served, for he will be slain by his own countrymen.

The good man silently observed the crafty one's approach. For a space they faced one another, seeming to measure each other's strength of will. At last the lawyer addressed the Holy One with the question, "Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" Then did the Holy One reveal his knowledge of all things. He replied, "You are a lawyer, what is written in the law of your country?" The crafty one was covered with confusion when he found he was known to the Holy One. So confused was he that he answered truthfully without thought, "Thou shalt love God and thou shalt love thy neighbor." "True," said the Holy Man, "obey the law and thou shalt live." Recovering from his confusion he said, "Yes, but who is my neighbor?" The Teller of Tales said to him: "Not long ago a man was traveling to Jericho. He fell among thieves who assaulted and robbed him. Soon a Priest from Jerusalem came by and when he saw the wounded man he fled in terror for he well knew what had happened. Later a Levite came to the wounded man; he too fled the spot, fearing he would fall the second victim of the brigands. Last of all came a man who was a Samaritan, a traditional enemy of the wounded Jew. But seeing the sad plight of the man he pushed aside all hatred and prejudice, all fear of violence and robbery, and ministered to the victim of the thieves. He rendered first aid service. Next he carried him to an inn where he personally cared for him all night. Next morning, upon leaving to continue his journey he paid the tavern keeper in advance for the care of the wounded man and contracted to pay any extra debt that might be incurred when he returned. "Who," said the Teller of Tales, "was neighbor to him who fell among thieves?" The lawyer, having an innate sense of justice, answered without hesitation, "Why, he who ministered to him, of course,"

Thus far is the story of the Good Samaritan told in the Holy Book. But the tale was not ended.

It seems that the Good Samaritan was blessed above his fellow men for his acts of mercy. Though his name was never known he has ever been the "Good Samaritan" to all succeeding generations. But his reward has been great. For God, whom he served, has multiplied the kin of the Good Samaritan until his Tribe is found in every country, town and village. In Africa, in China, in America, the Sons of the Samaritan are found mingling with and doing good for their neighbors. In our own city. In our own Parish, we meet the Tribe of the Good Samaritan. This year new recruits have entered the tents of the Tribe and have given the sign of the blood brother and neighbor by ministering to the unemployed and the needy. Each one gave one-tenth of his income to relieve their neighbor and help restore him and his to a normal state of living.

The names of those who have been adopted into the Tribe of the Good Samaritan are:

Adgate, James
Adgate, Mrs. Margaret
Amerman, Mrs. F., Jr.
Anonymous (nameless)
Anonymous (nameless)
Anonymous (nameless)
Armstrong, Florence
Ashman, Dorothy
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Mrs. Margaret

Bleck, John E.
Beisser, Mrs. Charles
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Miss Mamie
Blech, Charles
Branton, John
Busch, John
Busch, Frederick

Carbarnes, Henry
Clark, Harry
Clark, Mrs. Harry
Clerico, Ferdy
Colvey, Marie
Connelly, Mrs. C.
Cooper, Mrs. Annie
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Coyle, John
Cressee, George, Sr.
Cressee, George, Jr.
Cunningham, Walter

Dart, Edward
Dean, Sister of Mary
Dickhart, William
Daughters of the King
Dingler, Mrs. Annie
Dupon, Anna

Feinauer, Amy
Fisher, M. Beatrice
Fitzpatrick, Catherine
Friend, Mary

Green, Mrs. Emma
Greenfield, Lydia

Hall, Louise
Hartman, William, Jr.
Hartman, William, Sr.
Hasson, William
Hasson, Mrs. Wiliam
Hasson, Kathryne
Holton, Margaret
Hopkins, Mrs. Harry

Jaeschke, Gustavus
Jaeschke,Elizabeth
Jaeschke, Herman

Karstein, Lillian
Kelly, Mary
Kelly, Vera
King, William
Knowlton, Frank, Sr.
Knowlton, Frank, Jr.
Kraft, Edward
Kraft, Ornet

Lafferty, Martha
Lawrence, James
Leach, Joseph
Leach, Ella
Leach, May
Leach, S. Bowman
Little, Charles
Little, Mary
Little, William

MacVaugh, William
MacVaugh, Sylvania
Maguire, Lydia
Maguire, George

Maguire, Eliza
Major, William E.
Mann, M. A.
Marley, Emma
Martin, Susanna
Matthews, Mrs. Vernon
Matthews, Vernon
McCall, William
McCall, Harry H.
McCall, Elmina
McDowell, Samuel, Jr.
McDowell, Mary
McHenry, H. Cresson
McHenry, John

Nelson, John
Nelson, Mrs. John
Nuttall, Miss Hannah
O'Donnell, Mrs. Kate
Oliver, Mrs.
Outen, Charles W.

Patterson, John, Jr.
Pearo, James G.
Pearo, Mara A.
Piccione, Elizabeth
Pine, Mrs. Lillian
Preole, John F.
Prickett, Walter
Prickett, Mrs. Walter

Roddy, Dora
Rutter, James
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Jeremiah K.
Rutter, Mrs. J. K.
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Robert
Rutter, Charles

Scarinci, Arthur
Scarinci, Mrs. Arthur
Schaab, Fred H.
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank
Seher, Mrs. Margaret
Shields, Bella
Sprogell, Mr. and Mrs. B.
Spratt, John, Jr.
Springer, Mrs. Annie
Stenger, Laura
Stenger, Webster
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, Ethel
Stone, William
Strang, Carrie
Substalae, Florence
Sutterlin, Ethel
Sutterlin, Thelma
Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Matilda

Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. John

Watkins, Mrs. Mary
Watts, Sarah
Weber, John
Weber, Mrs. John
Webster, Mrs. M.
Weist, Florence
Weist, Charles
Woerner, Hannah
Woerner, Rudolph, Sr.
Woerner, Eleanor

Young, Laura

These are the names of the recruits into the TRIBE OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN. They proved themselves worthy of His great name because they saw the suffering of their neighbor and in pity they ministered to him and gave of their substance to relieve him. There is a special blessing for the members of the TRIBE OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN. They are the Chosen of God to teach the lesson of service and sacrifice to all the sons of God. The symbol of the tribe is a heart of flame upon which is impressed the mystic "S", which stands for all that the Samaritan needed to win the love of God. He who wears the heart of flame with the impress of the mystic "S" can pass unchallenged into the Holy of Holies for he is a high priest in the Temple of Jehovah.

DON'T QUIT

By ELVIN H. MacKAY

Member of Master Plumbers Association of Philadelphia

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're traveling seems all up hill,
When the funds are low, and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about,
When he might have won, had he stuck it out,
Don't give up though the pace seems slow—
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to the faint and faltering man;
Often the struggle he's given up,
When he might have captured the victor's cup;
And he learned too late, when the night slipped down
How close he was to the Golden Crown.

Success is failure turned inside out,
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt;
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar,
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit,
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

Taking the "IF" Out of Life

The average man, and I might add, the thousands of self-supporting women of this day and age, have an eye for the future—the financial future. They look forward with hopeful, yet sometimes fearful eyes, to the period of their declining years. That time of their lives, say around fifty-five or sixty, when after a life-time of labor and thrift, they hope to take things easy, away from the strife and turmoil and worry of their earlier years of struggle.

To this end you and I and the man next door develop a plan. Usually it is something like this: I will work and from the wages thereof I will save $2 or $3 a week, regularly, and put it in bank or B. and L. Then when I am sixty I will have secured myself an estate on which I can enjoy leisure or perhaps travel, or indulge in my favorite hobby. At least I will be able to keep the wolf from the door.

Such a plan is splendid, but we have not taken the elements of chance and misfortune into consideration. The plan will work out "IF" I don't die before its completion, and "IF" I don't become incapacitated through illness or injury, and "IF" my bank doesn't go up and "IF" my B. and L. doesn't sustain too many losses.

Apparently these things do happen, and more than occasionally. If they don't, why are 60 per cent. of us dependent on the state for our bread and butter after sixty, or the unwelcome charges of our friends and relatives. Look around you, those of you who

EDW. K. TRYON CO.

"Sporting Goods Since 1811"

Fishing Tackle
Athletic Goods
Guns, Rifles
Ammunition
Toys & Games

912 CHESTNUT ST.
PHILADELPHIA

doubt it, and you will no doubt see some of your friends in just such a situation.

What is the answer? How can you and I and our neighbors eliminate these uncertainties—these "IF's," that cause us unceasing worry and turn our heads prematurely gray. Through what medium can we assure ourselves and our wives and dependents a happy and secure old age? To make these sunset years of our lives blissful and free from care.

The answer is through the institution of life insurance, the investment without a hazard—the plan without an "IF," as testified to by the fact that our people, the U. S. citizens, bought so many million of life insurance last year. Why? To remove the "IF" from their lives.

MY SYMPHONY

To live content with small means; to seek elegance rather than luxury; and refinement rather than fashion; to be worthy, not respectable; and wealthy, not rich; to study hard, think quietly, talk gently, act frankly; to listen to stars and birds, to babes and sages, with open heart; to bear all cheerfully, do all bravely; await occasion, hurry never; in a word to let the spiritual, unbidden and unconscious, grow up through the common—this is to be my symphony.

—William Henry Channing.

To Save Time, Trouble and Worry Buy at

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

At Pete's the Customers Are Always Right

WM. A. PENTON & BRO.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 SOUTH STREET
Formerly S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055

OYEN'S BAKERY

1713 South Second Street
Formerly of 120 Porter Street
Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M. Wedding and Birthday Cakes a Specialty

A B C OF THE CHURCH

A is for ADVENT, our Happy New Year, when we think how Christ came and again will appear.
B is for BETHLEHEM, the place of His birth, where He Who is God was a Baby on earth.
C is for CHRIST, for the CROSS where He died, upon CALVARY, and the CHURCH He will guide.
D is for Devil, who tempts us to sin; Though we fall we must fight and at last we shall win.
E for EPIPHANY, where Jesus was shown; at EASTER He rose, and was Lord of His own.
F is for FONT where we children were brought, and the FAITH we must hold, by Apostles once taught.
G is for GOD, for His GOODNESS and GRACE, which we in our lives can continually trace.
H is for HOLY GHOST, mighty and strong, Who came out of heaven to keep us from wrong.
I is just I, who am loved and am prized by God as His child, and to that I was baptized.
J is for JESUS, Who died on the cross, by which you and I may have life and not loss.
K is to KNEEL when to Jesus we pray, and He puts in our hearts the right thing to say.
L is for LENT, when we fast forty days, and pray for more strength in mending our ways.
M is for MARTYRS who died for the Lord, by jaws of wild beasts, by fire and by sword.
N is the NAME, at which we must bend, of Jesus, from Whom all our blessings descend.
O is for ORDERS in Christ's Church we see, the Bishop, the Priest and the Deacon make three.
P is for PRIEST who is chosen to stand for us in God's House and to work His command.
Q is for QUESTIONS and answers we say, to teach us to think and to act in God's way.
R RESURRECTION or RISING again, to live in God's heaven set free from earth's pain.
S is for SACRAMENTS, graces divine; chief reckon we that of the Bread and the Wine.
T for the Name of the blest TRINITY, the THREE who are One, and the One Who is THREE.
U is for UNITY Jesus will give to His Church when in love we His followers will live.
V is for VIRGIN, Christ's Mother who heard the Angel's "Hail, Mary," announcing God's Word.
W for WHITSUNDAY, when the Holy Ghost came, with a WIND out of heaven in tongues of bright flame.
X is for XMAS, a short way to write "Christmas," when shepherds saw angels so bright.
Y is the whole YEAR, when praises we bring, from Advent to Advent, to Jesus our King.
Z is for ZION, the home of the blest, where we, by God's grace, may at last find our rest.

Be what your friends think you are; avoid what your enemies say you are; go right ahead and be happy.—Marcus Mills Pomeroy.

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
Funeral Directors
M. A. Bair, President
1820 Chestnut St., Phila.
Rit. 1581 Race 1110
Subject to Call at Any Hour From Anywhere

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118
We Telegraph Flowers
FRANK C. QUINN
Florist
Member F. T. D.
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452
Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753.
MAX SMITH
Dealer in
Boots, Shoes and Rubbers
S. E. Cor. Third and McKean Streets

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

The Merchants whose advertisements are found here are leaders in their line of business. They want your trade and solicit your patronage through your own paper. Patronize them, they are worthy of your co-operation.

I WILL

I will start anew this morning with a higher, fairer creed;
I will cease to stand complaining of my ruthless neighbor's greed;
I will cease to sit repining while my duty's call is clear.
I will waste no moment whining and my heart shall know no fear.
I will look sometimes about me for the things that merit praise;
I will search for hidden beauties that elude the grumbler's gaze;
I will try and find contentment in the paths that I must tread,
I will cease to have resentment when another moves ahead.
I will not be swayed by envy when my rival's strength is shown;
I will not deny his merit, but I'll strive to prove my own;
I will try to see the beauty spread before me, rain or shine—
I will cease to preach your duty and be more concerned with mine.
—S. E. Kiser in "Success."

A FEW BEST THINGS

The best law—the Golden Rule.

The best education—self-knowledge.

The best philosophy—a contented mind.

The best war—to war against one's weakness.

The best medicine—cheerfulness and temperance.

The best music — the laughter of an innocent child.

The best science — extracting sunshine from a cloudy day.

The best art—painting a smile on the brow of a ch

The best telegraphing—flashing a ray of sunshine into a gloomy heart.

The best biography—that life which writes charity in largest letters.

The best mathematics—that which doubles the joys and divides the most sorrows.

The best diplomacy—effecting a treaty of peace one's own conscience.

The best engineering—building a bridge of faith over the river of death.—Contributed by Leon T. Wahl.

RELIEF

If all the world were sunshine,
Our faces would be fain
To feel once more upon them
The cooling splash of rain.
If all the world were music,
Our hearts would often long
For one sweet strain of silence
To break the endless song.
If life were always merry,
Our souls would seek relief
And rest from weary laughter
In the quiet arms of grief.
—Henry van Dyke.

* * * *

If all the students who sleep in class were laid end for end, they'd be much more comfortable.—College Humor.

* * * *

The man who knows how will always find a place in life, but the man who knows why will be his boss.

* * * *

The best way to test a man's friendship is to ask him to go on your note. If he refuses, he is your friend.

* * * *

If you can't be thankful for what you receive, be thankful for what you escape.

* * * *

"As you grow in your art," said Gounod to a young poet, "you will judge the great masters of the past as I now judge the great musicians of former times. At your age, I used to say 'I'; at twenty-five I said 'I and Mozart'; at forty, 'Mozart and I'. Now I say 'Mozart'."

* * * *

It is said that sound travels 400 yards per second, scandal travels 1000 yards per second, and truth 2½ yards per second.

* * * *

Adversity tries great men; prosperity the small ones.

* * * *

If your business is all run down, you can wind it up, can't you?

* * * *

THAT IS STRENGTH

Did you ever see a man receive a flagrant insult, and only grow a little pale, and then repl quietly? Or, did you ever see a man in anguish stand as if carved out of solid rock, mastering himself? Or, one bearing a hopeless daily trial remain silent, and never tell the world what cankered in his heart? That i strength.—Anon.

* *

THE MEN AND TH

One day a man, who had al tation for truth and honesty, asked of a company of four friends: "How can we five men divid five eggs so that each one of us will r l still one remain on the dish?"

The answer to the above will be given to anybody who will promise to pay one cent a day towards our mortgage.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 5, No. 12 PHILADELPHIA, CHRISTMAS, 1931 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson, Secretary
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little
Joseph Leach

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young
Mrs. Jeremiah Rutter, Jr.

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Mr. John F. Preole

Basses

Mr. Joseph Cooper
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Donovan, Anna Jane.

MARRIAGES

James Adgate and Kathryne W. Hasson.

BURIALS

Sheer, Henry.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

	A. M.	P. M.
Sunday
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.30
Evening Service and Address		8.00
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew		7.30
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

Christmas Chimes

The bells are ringing, ringing, ringing,—
What do they say? What do they say?
Angels are singing, singing, singing,—
"Jesus is born today!
Glory to God in the highest! Glory!
Peace on the Earth! Goodwill to Men!"
Children and bells, take up the story,
Ring it,—sing it again!

See where He lies, the babe celestial;—
Lies in her arms as in some pure shrine;
Fairest of all the maids terrestrial,
Pale from her pangs divine.
Shepherds and kings come humbly kneeling;
Shepherds and kings are alike before Thee;
Son of the Highest, yet Son of David,
Shepherd and king was he.

Shepherd Thou art, and Thy sheep all know Thee,
King, Thou shalt reign on Thy Father's Throne.
Not yet we see Thee enthroned in glory,
Not yet Thou claimst Thine own.
But Thou shalt come in the clouds of heaven,
Thou who wast nailed to the shameful wood;
Then shall the face of the sun be darkened,
The moon be turned to blood.

But unto us who love Thine appearing,
Thou shalt come glorious, mighty to save;
Leader of all Heaven's sunbright armies,
Conqueror o'er Death and the Grave.
Glory to God in the highest! Glory!
Peace on the Earth! Goodwill to Men!
Angels and Men repeat the story!
Jesus returns to reign!

"Bettina Jefferys."

MY CHRISTMAS ENVELOPE

What Should I Give?

Many do not contribute to the CHRISTMAS FUND because they feel they cannot give very much and yet they feel ashamed to give what they feel they can afford.

Our one purpose is to educate every member of the Parish to support the Church and her interests intelligently. We do not expect you to give more than you can afford to any Church object; whether it is the COAL FUND, CHRISTMAS FUND, EASTER OFFERING, SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING or the CENT-A-DAY FUND. But we are trying to stimulate the spirit of sacrifice and offering in the hearts of all so that each will recognize that 'though he can give little it is his duty to make that small offering to God to indicate his gratitude to Him for the thousands of gifts He bestows on those who are conscious of their unworthiness to receive His favors.

We wonder if we can help you to a definite decision in the matter of making your offering to the CHRISTMAS FUND.

How Is This for a Schedule for the Christmas Fund?

Boys and Girls, 8 to 12 Years Old, Not Less Than 10 Cents

Boys and Girls, 13 to 16 Years Old, Not Less Than 25 Cents

Boys and Girls, 17 to 19 Years Old, Not Less Than 50 Cents

Men and Women Over 20 Years of Age, Not Less Than $1.00

In this table we suggest the VERY LEAST a person should give at a certain age. The Schedule fixes a sum so reasonable that it ought to be easy for most of us to make our offering. THERE ARE MANY WHO CAN GIVE MUCH MORE THAN THE AMOUNT SUGGESTED IN THE TABLE. In such cases IT IS THEIR DUTY TO GIVE MORE. In fact, it is the duty of all to make the MAXIMUM OFFERING instead of clinging to these minimums. For instance, if any boy or girl from 13 to 16 years can afford to give $1.00 instead of 25 cents, it is THEIR DUTY to give it. You must ever keep before you that this Table suggests THE LEAST OFFERING you should make. Your duty is to always make THE BIGGEST OFFERING you know you can afford. If you offer lean offerings to God, do not be surprised if your blessings are as your offerings.

ONE FINAL SENTENCE: What we have written on this page has no meaning for those who are unemployed or are earning so little that they need relief. They cannot make an offering of money to God. BUT EVERYONE OF THEM, EVEN THE VERY POOREST CAN RENDER TO GOD AN OFFERING OF PRAYER AND SERVICE. No matter how poor you are you can come to Church and render God worship and service—even though your clothes are shabby. And be sure of one thing, a ragged shirt can cover a loyal heart; whereas a silk shirt can cover a heart black with ingratitude and selfishness.

THE NAME OF EVERY PERSON MAKING AN OFFERING TO THE CHRISTMAS FUND WILL BE PUBLISHED IN THE NEXT ISSUE OF THE BROADCASTER.

One Great Gift

Christmas, the season of good-will and good cheer, the season of gift-giving is here.

Christmas, the time that forcefully reminds us of our obligations to our fellows, the time above all times when we strive to love our neighbor as ourselves and to lend a helping hand—Christmas is here.

What we may have to give from the material standpoint may seem small and unimportant, but when we give our meager portion with good-will and good cheer, we may be sure that the gift is doubled in value, and more—for love enhances, beyond human comprehension, all that is touched even so lightly by its unfailing influence for good.

One great gift we can all give is Kindliness. Surely we will give this abundantly.

Scriptural Alphabet

Look up these references and write them down on a sheet of paper. Each one under the other. Underscore the first letter of the first word and see what you get:

1. Psalm 66:4.
2. I John 4:7.
3. Psalm 51:10.
4. James 4:8.
5. St. Matt. 7:13.
6. Isaiah 43:5.
7. Psalm 46:1.
8. S. John 6:37.
9. Job 19:25.
10. S. John 11:25.
11. Psalm 34:13.
12. Isaiah 45:22.
13. Proverbs 23:26.
14. S. John 8:11.
15. Psalm 118:1.
16. S. James 5:16.
17. I Thess. 5:19.
18. Ecclesiastes 12:1.
19. S. Matt. 7:14.
20. Isaiah 1:18.
21. Psalm 25:1.
22. S. John 6:47.
23. I John 4:19.
24. S. Luke 13:3.
25. Ephesians 2:13.
26. Titus 2:14.

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

* * * *

WE WISH YOU A JOYFUL CHRISTMASTIDE.

Do your Christmas duties early and reverently.

CHRISTMAS DAY SERVICES

Holy Communion (Church), 6.30 A. M.
Holy Communion (Chapel), 9.00 A. M.
Holy Communion (Church), 11.00 A. M.

Sunday School Christmas Service will be held on ST. JOHN'S DAY, Sunday, December 27, at 3 P. M.

Sunday School Christmas Festival will be given on HOLY INNOCENT'S DAY, Monday, December 28, at 7.30 P. M.

Don't forget to put your CHRISTMAS OFFERING in your CHRISTMAS ENVELOPE and bring it with you to Church on CHRISTMAS DAY. It is JESUS CHRIST'S BIRTHDAY PRESENT from you.

YOUR MOST IMPORTANT DUTY ON CHRISTMAS IS TO MAKE YOUR CHRISTMAS COMMUNION.

Anybody who buys Christmas presents on credit is a fool.

The girl who expects her boy friend to buy her an expensive Christmas present this year IS MORE IN LOVE WITH HERSELF THAN SHE IS WITH HIM. Our advice to him is to drop her and GET A REAL GIRL WHO HAS SOME SENSE OF DECENCY AND ECONOMY. That's the kind of wife for you.

Of course your BEST FRIEND will receive the MOST EXPENSIVE Christmas present. I wonder how far down your list will appear the name of JESUS CHRIST, whose BIRTHDAY it is. HE ought to be your BEST friend.

BE SYSTEMATIC; begin NOW to put your Church dues in your Church envelope EVERY WEEK. DON'T LET THEM ACCUMULATE. Remember YOUR OFFERINGS ARE THE MAIN PART OF YOUR WORSHIP. If you are not willing to OFFER SACRIFICES to God YOU ARE NOT VERY SINCERE IN YOUR WORSHIP.

Whom do you love most—GOD OR YOURSELF?

Remember your CENT-A-DAY offering. It is simply ruining that mortgage of ours, which is now only $6,349.00. Last year this time it was $10,000.00. Let's keep throwing pennies at it until we smother it and extinguish it and wipe it out altogether.

EVERY CENT BREAKS A DOLLAR. Let's go to it!

A SCHEDULE FOR CHRISTMAS GIVING

Boys and girls, 8 to 12 years, NOT LESS THAN 10 cents.

Boys and girls, 13 to 16 years, NOT LESS THAN 25 cents.

Boys and girls, 17 to 19 years, NOT LESS THAN 50 cents.

Men and women, 20 years and over, NOT LESS THAN $1.00.

This shows THE LEAST you should give. YOUR CONSCIENCE ought to tell you to give THE MOST you can afford. If your read ACTS 5:1-11 you will see what contempt the HOLY SPIRIT has for those WHO HOLD OUT THEIR JUST OFFERINGS.

If you are unemployed and can give no Christmas offering to Jesus Christ, God will know it, and WILL BLESS YOU ACCORDING TO YOUR DESIRE TO DO.

The names of those who RETURN THEIR CHRISTMAS ENVELOPES will appear in the next issue of the BROADCASTER. The names of those who DO NOT RETURN THEIR CHRISTMAS ENVELOPES WILL NOT APPEAR.

Look and see who DID give. Also look and see who didn't give. YOUR name might be missing.

IDLE HOURS

Much of Your Enjoyment of the Day Depends Upon the Way You Spend Them

Have you ever thought that spending time is very much like spending money. Both have great intrinsic value in the way of purchasing power. Both can be spent wisely or unwisely, whichever its possessor chooses. If you give $100.00 each to two men and tell them to go out and spend it as they see fit, you will be surprised to learn how differently they will use the money. One will astonish you with the marvelous purchasing power of $100.00; the other will disgust you with the wretched inefficiency of his power to spend. So is it with men and their time. To one man there are no such things as IDLE HOURS; to another man he has so much time on his hands he does not know what to do with it; so he wastes it. The busy man is generally the happy man. The idle man is most unhappy and generally vicious in his thoughts and habits.

How do YOU spend your IDLE HOURS? Most of us have a little left over from our daily tasks. These IDLE HOURS are like so many idle dollars. You can spend them with profit or you can waste them. If you should have a few IDLE HOURS at your disposal, would you not like to divide them between pleasure and service. We have quite a number of opportunities for you to INVEST YOUR TIME AT GREAT PROFIT right here in our Parish. There are a number of SHUT-INS whom you can visit and bring cheer and sunshine in their sorry lives. Why don't you invest a few of your IDLE HOURS in visiting them. Suppose you were confined in one small room in one chair or bed year after year, through hot summer and cold winter? Don't you think you would joyously welcome a visit from someone outside who could bring all the latest news and gossip. It is that way with our sick and helpless. Have you a few IDLE HOURS you can invest in their happiness and comfort. Do you know if you use some of your SPARE TIME vising our shut-in parishioners they will dream and dream for days and days over how you looked and what you said. They will recall every little smile you gave and they will treasure in their hearts every kindly thought you uttered. When you have a chance to spend a few more IDLE HOURS on them you will find that the few you spent before have lasted all the way up to your second visit.

Then, too, you could invest with profit a few IDLE HOURS in looking up the delinquent Sunday School scholar or Communicant. I asked a Church member why he had not been to church lately. He looked at me in surprise and said, "Why, I didn't know I was missed. NOBODY EVER CAME TO SEE WHAT WAS THE MATTER WITH ME." He told me WHY he did not come to Church and why his children were out of Sunday School, and I was ashamed to learn that it was due entirely to unemployment and he was too proud to report his case to anybody and just because nobody thought to spend a few IDLE HOURS on looking up the family he had almost drifted from the Church.

If you would invest IDLE HOURS in searching for new material for our Confirmation Classes I'm sure your investment would bring big returns to the Church of Jesus Christ, and scores would be brought into the Kingdom of God who today are strangers and aliens to Him.

Then I can just imagine what a GREAT AND GLORIOUS CHRISTMAS this will be for some families in our Parish if you invest a few IDLE HOURS in visits to their homes. How you will bring sunshine to them. How every word and act of yours will make it the best and brightest Christmas they ever had.

Yes, we want you to use your IDLE HOURS; keep them working the same as a banker keeps his idle dollars busy and your hours, like his money, will yield a rate of interest that will add much to your wealth of living.

Some New Recruits for the Tribe of the Good Samaritan

Adgate, James.
Anonymous.
Beisser, Miss Mamie
Dean, Mrs. Catherine
Martin, Susanna
Schaab, Frederick
Schabacker, Miss Anna
Seher, Mrs. Margaret
Springer, Mrs. Anna
Sprogell, Mr. and Mrs. B.
Stenger, Mr. and Mrs. W. E.
Stenger, Dorothy
Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. John
Watkins, Mrs. Mary

A Suggestion Worth Adopting

We Would Appreciate Other Like Suggestions From Our Parishioners—They Stimulate the Work

After the HARVEST HOME was over and the big carryall bags of vegetables and groceries were distributed to the unemployed families in the Parish, one of our parishioners asked us why we did not continue the idea of helping the unemployed through the year. He suggested it would be a good thing if we formed the habit of bringing a package of groceries, vegetables, or clothing with us when we came to Communion on the first Sunday of each month. Also, when God had sent us a blessing of any sort that we contribute one-tenth of a week's wages to the Parish Unemployment Fund to help buy coal and shoes for the jobless who need them.

The suggestion met with my instant approval. Coming from a parishioner instead of from your Rector it certainly ought to have added force, because it shows an anxious interest on the part of one working man in the welfare of his neighbor. That is the real thing in Christian Service. It is exactly the idea your Rector has been trying to "get across" for many years. Real Christian character is shown by the man who can think as Jesus Christ thought. His thoughts were always for the relief of others. It is a lot better and surer way to find the way that leadeth to everlasting life than the way so many folks are traveling, i. e., the path of selfish salvation that leads through the bogs of pharasaical respectability and smug denominational nonsense.

Such a program as our fellow parishioner has outlined is bound to arouse the Divine enthusiasm of Jesus Christ. It is in line with everything he taught about feeding the hungry, giving drink to the famishing, clothing the naked, providing shelter for the homeless, visiting the sick and imprisoned.

Why not start to make this BRINING THINGS TO THE CHURCH FOR THE POOR ONCE A MONTH A HABIT?

Remember, the idea is not your Rector's. It springs from the heart of one of our parishioners who is himself a working man. But it DOES receive the hearty indorsement of your Rector, who thinks it comes near being one of the best demonstrations of a knowledge of the principles of Jesus that has been offered in the Parish for many years. The Spirit of Jesus Christ is abroad in the Parish. Let's try to make contact and see if there are not other helpful things we can do for Him. It would be wonderful if old St. John's should become a DOING as well as a PROFESSING Parish.

WHO WILL OFFER THE NEXT IDEA FOR SERVICE TO JESUS CHRIST?

THE COAL FUND

Names recorded here are those who were unable for various reasons to contribute their Coal Envelopes on COAL SUNDAY:

Barnes, Edward
Barnes, Mrs. Mary
Barnes, Jr., William
Barnes, Sr., William
Davis, John W.
Dean, Mrs. Mary
Hudak, Mr. and Mrs. F.
Rudderow, Mrs. Bertha
Rudderow, Godfrey
Shoch, Mrs. Minnie
Vongalast, Miss Jeanette
Watkins, Richard H.
Weller, Mrs. C.
Woessner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles
Woessner, Miss Clara

Woman's Auxiliary

HE CA N

"He . . . Hangeth the Earth Upon Nothing" Job 26:7

It is so human to look and crave for something in sight that will help the Lord out. In time of need, if we can only find a little something for God to begin on we seem so much better satisfied. To need a sum of money and be unable to think of a friend or institution from which it might be obtained, gives a dark background to the scene.

To need work, and to find others as needy as yourself are idle too, makes the human outlook very dark. To be in bed for days and not improving in health, with the doctor's bill increasing, business suffering and patience giving out, makes a situation in which relief seems improbable. We do not see a single human prospect to begin on. The outlook is all liabilities and no assets. HOW CAN EVEN GOD CREATE SOMETHING OUT OF NOTHING?

But, to God's child, what is the answer? Any visible means of relief is not at all necessary. God needs nothing to start from. In the beginning God CREATED the heavens and the earth, and He, himself, is the source of all things and all power. When the earth was made what did He hang it on? Nothing. A PRETTY SATISFACTORY EARTH TO BE MADE OUT OF NOTHING, EH? Remember, not a scrap of anything did He use to make it. "He hangeth the earth on nothing."

IT HANGS ALL RIGHT, DOESN'T IT? Very well, then. A God who can make an earth, a sun, a moon and stars out of nothing, and keep them hanging on nothing, can surely supply all your needs, whether he has anything to begin with or not.

Wonderful, isn't it?

Trust Him and He will see you through, though he must make your supplies out of nothing.

—Adapted from tract No. 207 from the Joakim Tract Society, Topeka, Kan.

STATIC IN THE AIR

* * * *

DECEMBER

Dear God: Let me be cheerful and resigned;
Make me remember always to be kind.
Give me sufficient wisdom to be just,
That I may worthy be of all your trust.
Teach me the lesson, difficult to learn,
Of loving those whom I would spurn.
Let me return for evil, greatest good;
If I receive a stone, let me give food.
Let pity fill my heart, and soul and mind;
Whatever I may be, God make me kind.

—ANITA OWEN.

BREAK a bad promise at once.

CARRYING a chip on your shoulder is sure to bring you a black eye.

WITHOUT happiness we may still exist, but have ceased to live.

THE WISE INDIVIDUAL

THERE is a certain hour at night when nature says sleep, and a wise individual works with nature.

A JOY RIDE

TURN the corners of your mouth up and give your countenance a joy ride.

SPEAK not of your friendliness. Let it be found out by accident.

MY MOTHER

MY MOTHER was a wonderful woman and I hope you can say: My Mother is a wonderful woman.

If you are compelled to use the word "was," here is something that will set you thinking.

Whenever I do a mean thing, I am grateful that My Mother is so far from here, for, if she should look down and be ashamed of my action, I would be ashamed to meet her again.

A COURAGEOUS state of mind puts dull days behind.

THE REAL REASON

THE real reason for my not being a man of more importance is that I lack the necessary brains.

LOSING interest in life lessens interest in immortality.

TALK less, think more and what you say will weigh more.

It never does a smile any harm
To crack.

Grow old along with me,
The best is yet to be,
The last of life for
Which the first was made;
Our times are in His hand
Who saith, "A whole I planned,
Youth shows but half;
Trust God; see all,
Nor be afraid."

SUCCESSFUL SQUANDERING

If you would successfully squander your opportunities, wisely waste your time, and intelligently idle away your life, just help the helpless, boost the handicapped, and encourage the discouraged.

A postage stamp in the Aztec language
Is Anfatiozuilolitquitcatlazlahuila.
When with Aztecs,
"Don't write—telegraph."

A healthy kid on one roller skate
Finds more joy in life
Than a dyspeptic millionaire in a limousine.

The Insufficiency of Money

This is an old, old story, reprinted to insure a more frequent reading.

Five successful men were seated at a luncheon table discussing the purchasing power of money.

"There is nothing that money will not buy," declared one of the men. The others pondered this remark in silence, then one voiced an exception.

"Money will not buy health," he asserted.

"You are wrong," ventured the champion of wealth; "there are many invalids who could regain their health if they had the means of employing specialists, or taking treatment at expensive sanitariums, or living in more salutary surroundings. In many in-

EDW. K. TRYON CO.

"Sporting Goods Since 1811"

Fishing Tackle
Athletic Goods
Guns, Rifles
Ammunition
Toys & Games

912 CHESTNUT ST.
PHILADELPHIA

stances money will buy health."

"Money will not buy happiness," contended another.

"That is wrong also," promptly answered the first. "Ask the average person what he needs to make him happy. He will tell you that all he wants is to be wealthy enough to work or rest when he pleases, to partake of the amusements that give him pleasure, and perhaps to travel or study. Money will buy happiness for millions of men and women."

"But money will not buy contentment," suggested a third.

"Contentment is what most people expect money to bring them," was the answer. "And money does afford peace and contentmen to many, temporarily at least."

So elated was the first man at the ease with which he had disposed of his opponents' exception that he leaned across the table and said, triumphantly:

"I'll tell you what I'll do. Each one of you write down one thing really worth having that money cannot buy, and for each one I'll give you my check for a hundred dollars!"

The next day the same group met at the luncheon table. Each of the men who had been challenged handed the challenger a slip of paper. He read the first slip in silence. This is what he read:

"A baby's smile: You cannot buy a baby's smile

To Save Time, Trouble and Worry Buy at

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

At Pete's the Customers Are Always Right

WM. A. PENTON & BRO.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 SOUTH STREET
Formerly S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055

OYEN'S BAKERY

1713 South Second Street
Formerly of 120 Porter Street
Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M. Wedding and Birthday Cakes a Specialty

with coin or currency, stocks or bonds. To the soul that has so recently come from paradise, the most coveted things in this world have no appeal. A mother's kiss, a father's caress, a flower, a pretty trinket, may win a baby's smile, but you cannot bargain for it with gold."

Slowly and thoughtfully the man laid down the slip and turned to the second:

"Youth, when it is gone: The mill will never grind again with water that has passed. All the wealth in the world cannot buy back the zest and joyousness of youth or the carefree happiness of maidenhood when maturity has blotted them out."

Without uttering a word, the challenger laid down this slip by the side of the first. He picked up the third:

"The love of a good woman: Her love, like a baby's smile, cannot be bought with money. Men may barter silver and gold and precious stones for a base counterfeit, but true love that lasts eternally is the most precious gift a woman can bestow. No man is rich enough to buy it; no man is too poor to possess it.

The man was meditative. For a moment it seemed as though he would not read the fourth slip. But his silent fingers finally grasped it eagerly, and he read:

"Entrance into heaven: Money will buy every material thing there is to be found in this world, but not a penny of it can be taken into the next, or used to gain admission into a state of immortal bliss. The keeper of the gates of heaven is not susceptible to bribes. There, at least, money has no value."

When the man finally laid down the last slip by the side of the rest, he drew from his pocket four vouchers, affixed his name to them, and laid one upon each slip of paper before him.

"Thank you, men," and he was away.—Adapted from "Church Pointers."

Human Nature Changes Little

After Michelangelo had completed his wonderful statue "The David,'" a pompous Florentine came to appraise it. So compelling was the beauty of the colossal statue that he was forced to express his admiration of it even though he did so a bit condescendingly. After a few moments of apparently critical study of this work of art, which ranks among the world's greatest, he turned to Michelangelo and criticized the nose as being a bit too large.

Michelangelo vouchsafed no reply but gravely ascended a ladder and pretended to work at the offending nose, deftly dropping some marble dust which he happened to have in his pocket. After a time he turned to the pompous Florentine gentlemen questioningly. The latter's approval knew no bounds. "Bravo, bravo," he exclaimed, "you have given it life." And, of course, the wonderful statue had in no wise been changed. All of which goes to show that human nature changes little in the passing of the centuries.

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
Funeral Directors
M. A. Bair, President
1820 Chestnut St., Phila.
Rit. 1581 Race 1110
Subject to Call at Any Hour From Anywhere

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118
We Telegraph Flowers
FRANK C. QUINN
Florist
Member F. T. D.
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452
Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Oregon 8753.
MAX SMITH
Dealer in
Boots, Shoes and Rubbers
S. E. Cor. Third and McKean Streets

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

GEILFUS CANDY STORE
1444 South Second Street (Cor. Dickinson St.)
Christmas Mixtures
And FINE CHOCOLATES
ELIZABETH JAISER, Proprietor

BEAUTIFUL GIFTS
For All the Family
STORE ORDERS ACCEPTED
S.GROSS - - - 1614 S. 2d St.

The Christmas Tree's Parable

What a parable we see
In the shining Christmas tree!
Not alone the stars that glimmer,
Nor the tinsel strands ashimmer;
Even more than taper's glory
Is its message and its story;
Listen, for the fir tree brings
News of yet more wondrous things.

God a tiny seed did sow
On the mountain side to grow,
Set it deep that it might be,
In the after years, a tree—
Tall and stately it should rise
Till it towered to the skies.
God the Father placed it there
In His work to have a share.

Then when years had sped away
There drew near one Christmas Day,
And the tree so tall and straight
Felt it could no longer wait.
'Twas the time it knew full well,
That its story it must tell—
Be a symbol and a sign
Of the Father's Love Divine.

John Mills Gilbert.

Would You Be Thrilled?

Are you seeking a new amusement? Do you wish for an intriguing means of entertainment? Is change of recreation a heart-felt desire? Will you welcome a fascinating pastime?

Foolish questions, for of course you can and do answer "Yes." Who should not welcome delightful change, refreshing diversion, a new and intriguing entertainment?

Well then, go adventuring with words. "What's that," you say—"go adventuring with words! "Where's the thrill?"

Ah, but there is a thrill; in fact, there are many thrills to be enjoyed. For example, let us take the word Pursue.

Pursue is to follow, to chase, to hunt, to hound, to court, to undertake, to endeavor.

Now let your imagination get into action.

To follow a good leader is an excellent pursuit; to chase butterflies pleasurable perhaps, but unprofitable; to hunt, exciting and often dangerous; to hound, unkind and worse; to court, delightful, dangerous, despicable, according to the object or the aim; to undertake, commendable or unpraiseworthy depending on the objective; to endeavor, laudable or lamentable in accord with the motive and the goal.

The dictionary is full of words—take your choice, according to your mood, or make a selection at variance with it—play this game as faithfully as you work out a crossword puzzle, and I believe you will agree that adventuring with words is a thrilling experience.

The "Can't" Man

There is a smart little catch in that short little rhyme about: "It Couldn't Be Done."

You recall how the rhyme runs along about somebody who said "It Couldn't Be Done," and how a certain individual chuckled inside and with a broad grin buckled right in, and how he would sing as he tackled the thing, and how he finished the thing that "couldn't be done" and all that.

That rhymester reasoned that it "couldn't be done." He did not say: It can't be done.

The telegraph, telephone, talkies and television "couldn"t be done" until the thing was done. You see the difference?

No sane, sensible writers dare say: "It can't be done." No man with reason will repeat so silly a statement, for as soon as there is a pressing demand for something, genius, which is hard work, gives us that something.

"It can't be done!" The point is: Who will be the one to do it? Will it be you, or will it be the man with a broad grin who buckles right in and does it? Today we can the "can't" man.

One thing comes to the man who waits, and that's whiskers.

If we could find other things as easily as we find fault, we'd all be rich.

It's just a spring from winter to summer.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 6, No.1 PHILADELPHIA, JANUARY, 1932 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Choirleader
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist.

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young
Mrs. Jeremiah Rutter, Jr.

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Mr. John F. Preole

Basses

Mr. Joseph Cooper
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Lord, James Edward
Quaile, Alice Eleanor
Ward, Barbara Catharine
Hager, Elizabeth Ann
Hager, Marjorie Lena
Keinz, Lorraine Josephine
Okerman, Louise Hannah
Rasman, Edward Wesley
Rice, Thelma Etta
Yuknalis, Bertha Viola
Llewellyn, Catherine Theresa

BURIALS

Dill, Peter E.
Kraft, Jeremiah B.
Prettyman, George W.
Lau, Elmer
Loudenslager, Charles B.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.30
Evening Service and Address		8.00
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew		7.30
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

OUR 78th ANNIVERSARY

St. John's Parish Is 78 Years Old This Month and Fuller of "Pep" Than Ever

Well, here we are about to celebrate our 78th BIRTHDAY and feeling more youthful than we did seventy-eight years ago. It's only the Irish can understand us when we observe that EVERY YEAR WE ADD TO OUR AGE WE ARE ONE YEAR YOUNGER. We mean that very thing, too. Never in the life of our Parish have we been so active as we are today. It isn't because times are good, either; for unemployment conditions have been more upsetting to us than to most parishes, because we are a group of wage earners and depend upon our "job" for our daily bread. No, we are not a rich parish; but perhaps that is the reason we are so active. There are not many parishes where the spirit of co-operation is quite so strong. We may have our family squabbles, like all well-regulated families do, but whenever it comes to putting over a big thing we all heave together until the job is done.

Think of the things we have done! Suppose we make a list of them and the average cost of each from the time we took the helm in hand. An itemized list of things accomplished since 1912:

1. Whitsunday, 1912; we assumed the task of reconstructing the parish. Church had been closed two weeks.
   Attendance at first morning service.. 7
   Attendance at first evening service... 15
   Attendance at first Sunday School Session 10
2. Cleared off all bad debts contracted previous to our taking hold. Such as sexton's and organist's salaries; coal and gas bills, amounting to .....$ 700.00
3. Paid off Mortgage 3,333.33
4. New Piano for Sunday School 350.00
5. New Chairs for Sunday School 250.00
6. New Electric Sign 150.00
7. New Iron Fence 300.00
8. Church Painted 500.00
9. Electric Lighting Sunday School..... 200.00
10. Electric Lighting Church 1,500.00
11. Church Floor Covering 500.00
12. Sunday School Floor 1,200.00
13. New Church Roof 1,300.00
14. New Heating System 1,000.00
15. New Church Windows 500.00
16. New Rose Window 800.00
17. New Church Organ and Motor..... 4,200.00
18. New Pavement 1,100.00
19. Parish has been self-supporting since 1922.
20. Electric Church Sign and Illuminated Cross 550.00
21. New Parish House 48,000.00
22. Parish has contributed generously to all missonary and extraordinary drives in the Diocese, such as S. S. Lenten Offering, Women's Auxiliary, Philadelphia Divinity School Campaign, Japan Reconstruction Fund, Special Diocesan Fund to meet deficit of year, etc., etc.
23. Number of Confirmations since 1912..... 1,464
24. Number of Christenings since 1912..... 1,016
25. Number of Weddings since 1912..... 205
26. Number of Burials since 1912..... 607

We are so grateful and happy over the progress the Parish has made that we want every member of old St. John's—from the oldest living member to the youngest baptized infant—to join us in celebrating our 78TH ANNIVERSARY, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 7TH.

The program of the day will be as follows:

Celebration of the Holy Communion.....10.30 A. M.
Parish Dinner .....12.30 P. M.
Sunday School Mass Meeting ..... 2.30 P. M.
Parish Visiting—Calling on Shut-Ins and Distributing Flowers ..... 4.30 P. M.
Parish Supper ..... 5.45 P. M.
Combination Fellowship and EveningService ..... 8.00 P. M.

Special Speakers for Afternoon and Evening Services.

OUR OLDEST MEMBERS, WHEREVER THEY ARE, ARE SPECIALLY INVITED.

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

JANUARY, 1932

* * * *

"Good times are coming, so cheer up."

* * * *

Featuring Jeremiah K. Rutter, the world-famous

Fog Hornist, and his twin brother, Herman Jaeschke, the man who kept the doll babies awake and made 'em wail m-a-a-a-m-a-a-a with his megaphone.

* * * *

What a Bazaar! What a Bazaar!!

* * * *

Congratulations are due Joseph Leach. For a newcomer he shows lots of "pep" and joy.

* * * *

We know you had a Merry Christmas because you started right. Nearly 500 communicants at St. John's and the Mission of the Transfiguration made their communion on Christmas Day. We are proud of the record.

* * * *

And did you play Santa Claus with your Christmas envelopes. Look at the long list of names of those who gave and see for yourself how generous was the parish on Christmas. We are proud of the splendid spirit of giving our people showed this year. Unemployment did not seem to materially affect our Christmas Offerings.

* * * *

Now let's all get busy with that CENT-A-DAY FUND. We want the Parish House Mortgage wiped out before 1933. We can do it if you will just give A-CENT-A-DAY every day, and before the end of the year that mortgage will grow smaller and smaller 'til it shrinks to nothing. It will vanish and never come back.

* * * *

When that mortgage is paid in full we are going to write the funniest story for the Broadcaster you ever read. It will make you laugh and shout and dance with joy.

* * * *

Thus far we have been able to keep the Parish out of debt in spite of unemployment conditions. You want to watch your step, however, and be sure you pay in your church envelope regularly. It's up to you and your church envelope whether we continue free from debt.

* * * *

Where did all those children come from the night we had our Christmas festival? No, they didn't come for Christmas gifts, for only those who had cards got presents. The Parish House was packed from stage to door. We didn't have sufficient seating capacity and everybody was happy. We want to congratulate Mrs. John Nelson, Jr., and HER Santa Claus for their aid in the program; also the splendid group of girls who entertained us so interestingly.

The Rev. Dallas E. Buzby, of St. Laurence University, Canton, New York, was with us Christmas Day. He officiated as Deacon at the 6.30 service and as Celebrant at the 11.00 o'clock service. His assistance was greatly appreciated by the Rector. Maybe he will come on Easter Day, too. We hope so at least.

* * * *

Our Christmas Music Festival was a success. The Church Choir repeated the program for Christmas Day and the congregation joined the Choir in singing the old Christmas Carols.

ASH WEDNESDAY, FEB. 10th

EASTER DAY, MARCH 27th

Don't forget the Entertainment and Dance by the Women's Bible Class No. 1 on Saturday evening, February 6th, in the Parish House. Ticket, twenty-five cents.

Transfiguration Athletic Association

Seventh and Bigler Sts.
Philadelphia

Dec. 18th, 1931.

Rev. Cresson H. McHenry.

Dear Sir: Following is the information as to the progress of our association, and aims: Organized November 20th, 1931, with twenty-six members, present membership seventy-two, with a complete football squad, having just finished a successful season, coached by A. W. Gardener, coach in the U. S. Navy for twelve years, and there is also a basketball five, with an almost complete track team in the making. We are now equipping our parish house, providing we may secure your permission, with a gymnasium. At the present time we have purchased a football, set of boxing gloves, medicine ball, three wall exercisers, five chest exercisers, one pair of hand grippers, and we have ordered a midget radio. All this is for the members only. Next week we will have another set of boxing gloves, making two sets that will be in use at all times. We are also interested in relief work, such as can be seen by the picture herein, taken from the Thanksgiving Day issues of the daily news. At present we are busy preparing for the Christmas baskets, and taking into consideration that we canvassed the community for Thanksgiving, it did not seem good policy to do the same for Christmas, so due to this we now have a raffle in the form of chance books, which we now have out among our members, and who are doing as well as can be expected with them, as this form of raising money is overdone. We are a self-supporting association, asking help from no one, but we would consider it favoring us if we could depend upon the support of the church officials. As you know, since organizing we have tried to contribute as much as possible to support the church, and as may be seen, each week the donation becomes more generous, and we hope in the near future that we may be able to give twice as much as the past. This all depends on the attendance of our social night, of which you will hear about.

In reference to the parish house, we have made such additions as a new seven-foot Alleghany metal sink, donated by one of the members and also of the business committee (Victor Scoleri), also a new cupboard, half of which was paid by the women of the Church Club that meets on Tuesday night, the other half paid by us. There are two dart boards with darts to amuse the members. We are also about to get a metal closet for the kitchen to store any groceries that we may have on hand.

Monday night we have set aside for gymnasium night, when we have an efficient instructor to take the young boys through the paces of setting-up exercises, so they may develop themselves. Then there is rope jumping, shadow boxing. Then we pair the boys and have a little boxing tournament in order to acquaint them with the manly art of self-defense. Each day we try to get the boys to take long walks, also short runs to strengthen their lungs and keep them fit bodily.

Wednesday night is meeting night, a time set aside for our deliberations, also any debates, and dues are collected, the sum of which is, unemployed, ten cents a week, and employed, fifteen cents per week. No initiation fee is charged at this time.

Friday night is our social night. There are pinochle tournaments, cootie games, which is very amusing, also radio games. There are prizes for each game, sometimes amounting to ten dollars or more, according to the amount of attendance. After the games we have music, furnished by an amplifier, which makes it possible for us to have a short period of dancing. We also furnish cake and coffee during the intermission. For all the above-mentioned on Friday nights we charge but fifteen cents.

Thanking you for taking the time, and asking your pardon if we have taken advantage of your generosity in giving same, also the interest which you have shown in the letter to the Association, which has been read at the weekly meeting Wednesday evening, December 16th, 1931. Wishing you a Merry and a Happy Christmas, we remain,

Respectfully yours,

Transfiguration Athletic Association,
Members and Officials,
Joseph A. Cuneo.

Per, Joseph A. Cuneo, Business manager.

"Ring Out the Old; Ring In the New"

Why Be Rid of the Old; Why Welcome the New?

Is the old so undesirable? Is the new an improvement on the old? How about our old friends? Those faithful, comfortable, understanding, sympathetic, helpful old comrades and pals who stood by through "thick and thin," in storm and sunshine? Do we really wish to be rid of them and the fragrant memories that like incense envelop them? In time of sickness is it the soothing touch of the old friend that comforts like ministering angels from Heaven? Can new friends be quite like that? Very true, new friends can be as sincere as old friends, but they lack that all-important element, the personal touch of years. New friends may love us, but old friends understand us.

Shall we ring out the old and ring in the new? Are old memories so undesirable? Are new experiences of greater importance? How about those sweet lavender scented experiences and things of long ago? Do you ever catch yourself stopping now and then in the light and shadows of new things and looking back on life's trail to spots where we parted from a dear one who had been our faithful and encouraging comrade on the way? No matter what new experiences lie ahead, no matter how promising the future, we miss the old, the new cannot entirely recompense for their passing. Dear memories of the past are too poignantly sweet to the spirit to ever be altogether replaced by new experiences. The old home, with its snug and familiar furniture where we lived out childhood days. The old orchard with gnarled and twisted old trees, in whose branches we played many a game of hide-and-seek and where we plucked and ate their luscious fruit which tasted to our eager appetites like nectar of the gods. The old winding stream through wood and meadow where, bare-footed, we waded and angled for the elusive fish. The old brick schoolhouse with its two-score pupils and one fussy teacher who was neighbor to us all and whom we called Miss Sallie. The old white church where as giggling boys and girls we sat on the back pews and could not understand the solemn mystery of worship. The old snowy-haired Saint of God who labored lovingly to guide our wayward feet into paths of righteousness. The old winter nights before the old fireplace in a lamp-lighted room, singing those beautiful old-fashioned melodies to the music of the old parlor organ. The old-fashioned country salute of "how'dy" to friend or stranger we met on the dusty country road. The old country store with its nightly gatherings of neighbors for gossip and joking and rough horse-play. The lowing of the cows at eventide as they lazily ambled from pasture to barn. The nearness to God one felt amid those beautiful old things are too precious, too sacred, to ever forget. We cannot ring out the old 'tho we welcome the new with friendly grip and hope that some day the new will become old, too, and find it within the treasure house of our memory.

Our Sunday School Lenten Offering

Dear Officer, Teacher and Scholar:

We are rapidly approaching the most important season of our Church year, the Lenten Season. Always in the past this has meant a mighty stirring in our Sunday School and a hard drive to raise a Lenten offering worthy of the great Sunday School of St. John's Parish. This year we need to get an early start because of many things. First of all money is going to be harder to get on account of unemployment and we must plan carefully to overcome this handicap. Every member of our School must work and work hard and constantly. Mrs. Amerman, teacher of the Primary Department, is setting an example by starting a sale of wash cloths now. Miss Fisher's Class are at it hard and no doubt will be ready with their quota on Easter. But how about the rest of us? What are we doing? Have we made our plans?

In order that we may set a goal to help us raise our S. S. Lenten Offering we have made out the following class apportionments which we hope every class will strain every effort to reach or if possible exceed. Remember, you have several sources of income—the S. S. barrel, the sale of candies, soup, soap, washcloths, entertainments, mite chests and any other legitimate way of making money.

CLASS APPORTIONMENTS

Primary Class	$ 100.00
Intermediate Class	200.00
Miss Nuttall's Class	50.00
Miss Fisher's Class	250.00
George Cressee's Class	300.00
Dorothy Stenger's Class	70.00
Miss Watt's Class	35.00
John Preole's Class	25.00
Herbert Meinhart's Class	25.00
Ethel Steger's Class	40.00
Elizabeth Jaeschler's Class	50.00
Helen Ashman's Class	35.00
Anna Robins' Class	25.00
Adelia Pearo's Class	35.00
Marie Colvy's Class	50.00
Sunday School	150.00
	$1,440.00

Of course it is understood that any number of classes can combine for the purpose of raising their quota. This practice has often helped the weaker classes to go over the top. And, remember, every class has the glad co-operation of the Rector. $1000.00 OF OUR LENTEN OFFERING WILL GO TOWARDS REDUCING OUR PARISH HOUSE MORTGAGE.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

He's Either an Incurable Optimist or a Cheerful Idiot. In Either Case He's Good for the Blues

A friend of ours met a friend of his on the street not so long ago. His friend said, "Well, how are things" Our friend replied, "Awful! Business is getting worse and worse. I'm poorer today than I've ever been." "You don't say!" answered his friend. "Why everything is just the opposite with me. I'm wealthy now and am enjoying every penny of my fortune, too." "Why, I hadn't heard of your good luck," replied our friend, "How much are you worth?" "Well," said he, "I've $60,000.00 worth of eyesight, $70,000.00 worth of hearing, $100,000.00 worth of digestion, $100,000.00 worth of healthy heart, lungs, liver and kidneys and a $200,000.00 appetite. Taking it all in all I'm worth close on $600,000.00, what more can a man want?" "HAPPY NEW YEAR TO YOU."

SOMETHING YOU CAN'T BORROW

I know a boy who has a watch,
But never thinks to wind it;
And when he ought to be on time
He's always just behind it.
And when he has a task to do,
He says, "Wait till tomorrow";
And when he cannot find his things,
He simply says, "I'll borrow."

That boy may make a business man—
I know he wants to do it—
But he must mend his careless ways,
Or he will live to rue it.
That boy must do his work today
And plan work for tomorrow;
Good habits, everybody knows,
Are something boys can't borrow.

—The Record.

Dorothy had heard a missionary relate over the radio some of his experiences in Africa. Telling her father about it afterwards, she said: "He told us that the poor heathen were often hungry and when they beat on their tumtums it could be heard for miles."—Boston Transcript.

"Mama," said little Elsie, "do men ever go to heaven?"

"Why, of course, my dear. What makes you ask?"

"Because I never see any pictures of angels with whiskers."

"Well," said the mother, thoughtfully, "some men do go to heaven, but they get there by a close shave."—Exchange.

St. John's Christmas Party

Following Are the Names of Those Who Joined the Party by Bringing in Their Christmas Envelopes

Adgate, James
Adgate, Mrs. James
Adgate, Mrs. Margaret
Adams, Mrs. Helen
Alloway, Earl
Alloway, Catherine
Amerman, Jr., Mrs. F.
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Armstrong, Miss F. M.
Ashman, Mrs. Margaret
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Dorothy

Barnes, Joseph
Barnes, Sr., William
Barnes, Jr., William
Barnes, Mrs. Mary
Barnes, Edward
Beck, John E.
Beisser, Mrs. Charles
Beisser, Miss Mary
Beisser, Charles
Bender, Mrs. Caroline
Blech, Charles
Blech, Mrs. Charles
Boehner, William
Boehner, Mrs. William
Bradley, William
Bradley, Mrs. William
Branton, John
Bricker, Jennie
Brown, Edward
Burkhardt, Mrs. Amanda
Busch, John Henry
Busch, Sr., Frederick
Busch, Mrs. Susanna
Busch, Lillian

Carbarnes, Henry
Carbarnes, Mrs. Henry
Carbarnes, Anna
Carbarnes, Elizabeth
Chamberlain, Mrs. J. L.
Chestnut, Miss Jennie
Chestnut, Miss Reba
Clark, Mrs. Harry
Clark, Harry
Clendenning, William
Clendenning, Jennie
Clendenning, Charles
Clerico, Mrs. Ferdy
Clerico, Ferdy
Colvey, Miss Maria
Colvey, George W. S.
Connelly, Mrs. C.
Connelly, Marie A.
Cooper, Joseph
Cooper, Mrs. Joseph
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Coyle, John
Cressee, Sr., George
Cressee, Sr., Mrs. George
Cressee, Jr., George
Cressee, Raymond
Cunningham, Walter
Darr, Mrs. Margaret
Darr, Walter
Dart, Edward J.
Daughters of the King
Davis, Mrs. Margaret
Davis, John W.
Dean, Harry
Dean, Mrs. Harry
Dean, Ruth
DeCosta, Mrs. Marg. M.
Deitrich, Miss Marie A.
DeYoung, Mrs. Irene
Dickhart, William W.
Dingler, Mrs. Annie
Dougherty, William
Dougherty, Mrs. Frances
Dougherty, Joseph
Drumm, Benjamin F.
Drumm, Robert
Dunbar, Elizabeth
Dunbar, Mrs. Annie
Dunbar, Irma
Dupon, Miss A.
Emberschied, Mrs. Annie
Erickson, Mrs. Joseph
Erickson, Mrs. James
Evans, Thomas
Evans, Thomas
In Memory of William Forster
Fanger, Mrs. Anna M.
Fanger, Harry
Felder, Heywood
Fisher, Miss M. Beatrice
Fitzpatrick, Edward
Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Cath.
Fowler, Miss Myrtle
Friend, Florence
Friend, Mrs. Mary

Gallagher, Joseph
Gallagher, Mrs. Kate
Gallagher, Robert
Gallagher, John F.
Gibson, Mrs. Laura
Green, William
Green, Mrs. Emma
Greenfield, Robert
Greenfield, Mrs. Lydia
Gregory, George F.
Gregory, George
Gregory, Mrs. George
Gresh, Mrs. Harry
Griggs, Mrs. Elizabeth
Griggs, Anna L.
Grubb, Marie C.
Grubb, Pauline
Grubb, Rufus

Hagan, Mrs. Ida V.
Hagan, Jr., Charles
Hamilton, Mrs. Irene J.
Hamilton, Mrs. Florence
Harris, Marie
Hartman, Sr., Wm. Earl
Hartman, Jr., Wm. Earl
Hartman, John
Hasson, William
Hasson, Mrs. William
Haury, Mary
Heinemann, Mrs. Cath.
Heinemann, Jr., Harry
Heinemann, Mrs. Mary
Heinemann, Edna
Heinemann, Harry
Heinemann, Charles
Henderson, Laura M.
Henderson, Mrs. L. E.
Henderson, William
Henderson, James
Henderson, Irvin
Henderson, Theresa
Holton, Edna
Holton, Elizabeth
Holton, Mrs. Margaret
Holton, Alice
Holton, Margaret
Holton, Joseph
Hopkins, Mrs. Harry
Hudak, Mrs. A.

Jackson, Miss Elsie
Jaeschke, Ethel
Jaeschke, Gus
Jaeschke, Herman
Jaeschke, Mrs. Herman
Jeffers, Richard
Jeffers, Arthur
Jensen, Carl Edward

Kaiser, Mrs. Emma
Kaiser, Emma M.
Karstein, Miss Elizabeth
Karstein, Miss Lillian
Keenan, Elmer
Kelly, Raymond
Kelly, Mrs. Mary
Kelly, Sarah
King, William
Kleinz, Mrs. George
Konowal, Mrs. Barbara
Konowal, Michael
Konowal, Joseph
Konowal, Peter
Konowal, Louis
Knowlton, Mrs. Frank
Knowlton, Sr., Frank
Knowlton, Jr., Frank
Kraft, Edward
Krafft, Harry
Krafft, Joseph
Kraft, Ornet
Krause, Mrs. Sarah

Lafferty, Martha
Lawrence, Sr., George
Lawrence, Catharine
Lawrence, George
Lawrence, Mrs. George

Lawrence, James
Leach, Mr. Joseph
Leach, Miss May
Leach, S. Bowman
Leach, Miss Ella
Lenhart, Margaret
Lenhart, Eleanor
Lenhart, Mrs. David
Lenhart, Sr., David
Lenhart, Jr., David
Little, Mrs. Charles
Little, Joseph
Little, Mrs. Mary
Little, William
Little, Charles
Logue, Robert
Logue, Mrs. Robert
Logue, Jean

MacVaugh, William
MacVaugh, Mrs. Anna
MacVaugh, Miss Sylv.
Maguire, George
Maguire, Mrs. Eliza
Maguire, Lydia
Major, William
Marley, Mrs. Emma
Marnie, Thomas
Martin, Susanna
Matthews, Mrs. Vernon
Matthews, Vernon
McCall, Elmina
McCall, Harry H.
McCloskey, Mrs. Carrie
McDowell, Jr., Samuel
McDowell, Mrs. Mary
McHenry, H. Cresson
McHenry, John Edward
McKeown, Mrs. James
Mehring, Mrs. William
Meyers, Mrs. Charles
Meyers, Charles
Miller, Mrs. Dorothy
Miller, Anna M.
Miller, Dorothy
Miller, Eleanor
Miller, Warren
Miller, Robert
Miller, Walter
Mitchell, Madeline
Morse, Mrs. Annie J.
Munion, Winthrope
Munion, Harry
Munion, Benjamin
Murphy, Mrs. Margaret
Murphy, Mrs. Sarah
Nehlig, Mr. and Mrs. Ida M.
Nelson, Jr., John J.
Nelson, Jr., Mrs. John J.
Nugent, Eleanor
Nugent, Sr., William
Nugent, Jr., William
Nuttall, Miss Hannah H.

O'Donnell, Mrs. Kath.
Oliver, Mrs.
Orr, Jr., Richard
Outen, Elizabeth

Patterson, Jr., John
Patterson, Jr., Mrs. John
Patterson, Mrs. Anna
Payne, Mrs. Emma
Pearo, Mrs. Mary A.
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, James
Piccione, Mrs. Elizabeth
Pierce, Mrs. Eva
Pierce, Evelyn St. C.
Pine, Mrs. Lillian
Poynter, Elizabeth
Poynter, Mrs.
Preole, John F.
Preole, James
Preole, John C.

Quaile, Dorothy

Rand, Mary
Rand, Andrew
Rassman, Edward
Rassman, Mrs. Edward
Redding, Frances
Redding, Dorothy
Reed, Lottie
Reed, Frank
Reynolds, Mrs. Cath. M.
Reynolds, Jennie
Reynolds, Leona
Robins, Mrs. Anna
Robins, Anna
Robins, Mabel
Robinson, Mrs. Annie
Roddy, Mrs. Dora
Rudderow, Godfrey
Rudderow, Bertha
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Catharine
Rutter, Jennie
Rutter, Jeremiah K.
Rutter, Mrs. Jeremiah K.
Rutter, Michael
Rutter, James
Rutter, Rose
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Edward
Rutter, Robert
Rutter, Ruth
Rutter, Charles

Sayres, Eugene
Sayres, Elmer
Schaab, Frederick H.
Schabacker, Miss Anna
Schlemback, Joseph
Schlemback Mrs. Cath.
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank G.
Schmidt, Frank G.
Schultz, Miss Doris M.
Schweppenheiser, Mrs. M.
Schweppenheiser, Chas.
Seher, Catharine
Seher, Harry P.
Seher, May
Seher, Mrs. Margaret
Seher, Thomas
Shields, Mrs. Bella
Silbert, Mrs. Ella
Silbert, George
Silbert, Miss Ella
Simpson, Jennie
Simpson, Mrs. Emma
Smith, Sr., Lewis
Smith, Mrs. Corbit
Smith, Jr., Lewis
Smith, Edward
Snell, Sr., Samuel
Snell, Sr., Mrs. Samuel
Snell, Jr., Samuel
Snell, Jr., Mrs. Samuel
Snell, Richard
Snell, Mrs. Richard
Spratt, John
Spratt, James
Spratt, Thomas
Spratt, Jr., John
Spratt, Catherine
Spratt, Finley
Spratt, Jr., John
Spratt, Margaret
Sprogell, Wesley
Sprogell, Mrs. Wesley
Stenger, Webster
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, Dorothy
Stenger, Mrs. Webster
Stockman, James
Stockman, Mrs. Elizabeth
Stockman, Samuel
Stockman, Harry
Stone, William
Stone, David S.
Stone, Jr., Thomas H.
Stryker, Harry
Stryker, Valentine
Substalae, Mrs. Florence
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Sutterlin, Thelma

Taylor, Benjamin F.
Taylor, Mrs. Sarah
Taylor, Ethel E.
Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Matilda
Tittermary, Mrs. Matilda
Tittermary, Hazel
Tucker, Benjamin

Vaughan, Annie
Vaughan, Ethel
Volkman, Mrs.
Volpe, Peter

Walker, Mrs. Ada
Walker, Miss Mabel
Walker, Ada
Walker, Margaret
Walto, Miss Bertha
Watts, Miss Sarah
Weber, John
Weber, Mrs. John
Webster, Margaret
Woerner, Sr., Rudolph
Woerner, Sr., Mrs. Rud.
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Eleanor
Woessner, Miss Clara
Woessner, Mrs. Charles
Woessner, Charles
Woodruff, Walter
Woodruff, Joseph
Woodruff, Howard
Woodruff, Mrs. Mary
Woods, Mrs. Margaret

Young, Mrs. Laura
Young, George
Young, Jr., William
Young, Viola
Young Women's Christian League

Ziegler, Mrs. Martha
Ziegler, Elizabeth
Ziegler, Frances
Ziegler, Jr., John
Ziegler, Anna
Ziegler, Sr., John
Ziegler, Mary

EDW. K. TRYON CO.

"Sporting Goods Since 1811"

Fishing Tackle
Athletic Goods
Guns, Rifles
Ammunition
Toys & Games

912 CHESTNUT ST.
PHILADELPHIA

THE BIG EVENT IS OVER

Everybody Had a Wonderful Time at the Bazaar

It is always the unexpected that happens at old St. John's. Last summer, on a very hot Sunday afternoon, the rector said to a parishioner: "Times are so hard that I do not believe we will have a Bazaar this year." His companion was silent for a while, then quietly remarked: "Many people will be disappointed."

That sentence stuck in the rector's mind. He thought and thought about it. At last, on his return from his vacation, he reached the decision to have the Bazaar for two, instead of the usual three nights, just for the purpose of satisfying the parishioners who looked forward to the event. There was little if any idea of making the Bazaar a financial success. It was to be more like a social event, where and when everybody came together to meet everybody. Our Bazaar is always an important meeting place of friends, relatives and acquaintances who have not been in touch with each other for weeks and months.

The first night of the Bazaar arrived in due course of time. It was a typical St. John's night. Every St. Johnnie knows what that signifies. It rained all day and it rained harder that night. We were not worried, however, for we had reached the conclusion

To Save Time, Trouble and Worry Buy at

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

At Pete's the Customers Are Always Right

WM. A. PENTON & BRO.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 SOUTH STREET
Formerly S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055

OYEN'S BAKERY

1713 South Second Street
Formerly of 120 Porter Street
Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M. Wedding and Birthday Cakes a Specialty

already that as a financial venture we could expect nothing. At 6 P. M. the Bazaar supper was ready to serve. Here we got our first surprise. At once every table in the supper corner was filled. From then until closing time there was a constant coming and going of parishioners and friends. The big Sunday School room was crowded all evening and whenever the rector made a tour of inspection of the booths he found to his astonishment that the sales were very spry and every chief was too busy selling to even take notice of his snooping. The first report of being sold out came from the kitchen. A group of women friends from St. Martha's House paid the Bazaar a visit and ordered their supper there. They just about swamped the culinary department and put us out of business for the night. Were we glad they came? I'll say so, and hope they will keep on visiting our Bazaar every year.

At the close of the first night our treasurer reported the receipts as $502.00. Every booth had done a remarkable business. The doll table was unusually well patronized. We were stunned at the financial success of the evening and wondered how it happened. We think that probably it was largely due to the fact that folks have learned that honest goods are sold at honest prices at St. John's Bazaar. The buyer has every advantage as to price and quality. Nothing is sold over any counter that is not worth much more than it is priced. All new goods firsts, not seconds, and are of the best material. We have demonstrated the truth of this statement so many years that we have won the confidence of the parish. We mean to retain that confidence by always "playing square" with our patrons.

Saturday night was clear and cold. We got an early start because, judging from Friday night's results, we felt sure it would be a big night in every way. We were a little disappointed because, 'though the night was clear, we did not have so many patrons as the night before and some folks we expected to visit us and make large purchases did not turn up. However, when the night was ended we found we had taken in almost exactly the same amount as on Friday night. The actual cash sales for both evenings were $1025.00, which was three times more than the most optimistic had dared to expect. The only explanation we have to offer is—the members of the Parish took advantage of the prices and quality of our goods and bought of us instead of the regular dealer. Of course we could sell better goods at much lower prices than the stores because we had no overhead and also we were in business only two nights.

OUR THANKS ARE DUE

To the splendid corps of men and women workers to whom goes all the credit of our success. In the kitchen were Mrs. Frank Pine and her staff. At the Doll booth were Mrs. Annie Beisser and her staff.

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
Funeral Directors
M. A. Bair, President
1820 Chestnut St., Phila.
Rit. 1581 Race 1110
Subject to Call at Any Hour From Anywhere

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118
We Telegraph Flowers
FRANK C. QUINN
Florist
Member F. T. D.
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452
Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648
Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER
230-232 Queen Street

At the Grocery table were Miss Hannah Nuttle and her staff. At the Fancy Goods table were Mrs. Frank Schmidt and her staff. At the Soft Drinks and Candy table were Mrs. Young and the Fellowship Girls. At the Household Goods table were Mrs. Springer and Mrs. Busch. At the Larkins Goods table was Mrs. MacVaugh. At the Men's Furnishing Goods table were Charles Little and his staff. At the Radio Game were Joseph Leach and his string of Bucking Bronchos. The Buckingest Broncho of the herd was that man Jerry Rutter. As a Ballyhoo artist he has every professional pushed off the track. If folks couldn't make up their minds to play he made up for them by kidnapping the victims and dragging them bodily into the room. It was an awful sight to see his caveman tactics.

Yes, the Bazaar was a real success both socially and financially. And how we needed that success! There are few parishes in the Diocese that unemployment conditions have so completely affected as the Parish of St. John the Evangelist. Receipts from the church envelopes have dwindled to a very low ebb because so many are out of employment. Then, too, we suspect that some are using the hard times as an excuse to cut, if not eliminate altogether, their offerings to the church. For all such we would recommend Acts 5:1-11 for their daily reading 'til they catch the idea and understand why things so happened.

January is the Month to Start

Then Keep Going All the Way Through the Calendar

We are referring to our CENT-A-DAY FUND.

At the December meeting of the Parish Committee the Rector said a few very interesting things on the subject of the PARISH HOUSE BUILDING FUND, of which the CENT-A-DAY FUND is a very important part. He announced that in face of the hard times and unemployment conditions the CENT-A-DAY policy had made it possible for the Parish to meet on the dot the interest due on the mortgage and keep it paid up in full. He further stated that the principal of the mortgage had been reduced almost $4,000.00 since September, 1930, which means, of course, that we are paying $220.00 less interest now than we were then. This $220.00 saved in interest can now be applied to the principal also, which means even a quicker reduction of the mortgage.

All this news was very interesting to the COMMITTEE. But what he said after these observations was even more interesting. He proposed to the COMMITTEE that an attempt be made to increase the membership of the CENT-A-DAY FUND by making an aggressive drive through the Parish to interest those who have not yet taken advantage of the CENT-A-DAY way of helping us raise our mortgage.

What he proposed is somewhat as follows:

The Parish Record will be before the Parish Committee in its January meeting. The names of those who are contributing already to the CENT-A-DAY FUND will be checked off. The names that are left will be carefully discussed as to their possible ability to join the FUND. Those we feel reasonably sure are unable to give a cent a day will be checked off also. The remaining members of the Church who we feel can and ought to join the FUND will be grouped into districts and sooner or later a member of the PARISH COMMITTEE will call and try to persuade such members to assume their responsibility of helping to wipe out the mortgage.

In many instances, we are sure, members are not contributing because they have never formed the habit of supporting the CENT-A-DAY FUND and not because they deliberately refuse to give a cent towards the payment of the mortgage. It is in order to reach these members that the Committee men are about to make a survey of the Parish and show them the importance of each of us contributing to the CENT-A-DAY FUND. It means that in less than two years we will be rid of the mortgage altogether if the non-paying members become paying members. If the non-paying members persist in being non-paying members they condemn the paying members to pay the interest on the mortgage for years to come, which is hardly fair because the non-paying have as much use of the Parish House as the paying members and are paying nothing for the privilege.

Now Nobody Likes to Be a Deadhead

They Knew That He Knew

"The man who cannot save cannot succeed." That was the judgment of one of our country's greatly successful men—James J. Hill—a man who was one of the king-builders of the great Northwest. When "Jim" Hill spoke, men listened with both ears, for they knew that he "knew." We supplement his sentence thus: "A man's saving can be assured, and his success therefore made certain."

Life insurance is a guaranteed savings plan, the completion of which cannot be thwarted by one of fate's cruel thrusts—if you become disabled through injury or illness so that you cannot work, under the ordinary savings plan your plan has failed because if you cannot work, naturally you cannot save. Under the insurance plan, your program goes on uninterrupted, because the company will make your deposits for you, and in addition pay you an income as long as you are disabled—Ideal—outgo ceases, income begins—privation avoided.

If God should see fit to take you away from the cares of this world before your financial program is completed and your family provided for, life insurance again steps into the breach and saves the day—because not what you saved is paid to your family, but what you had hoped to save, had you lived. Furthermore, you do not have to die to win, contrary to common belief. If none of these misfortunes befall you, the completed savings are paid to you when retirement time comes and laboring days are over.

Why not save a few dollars while you are still in health, and guarantee yourself that some day your laboring days will be over.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 6, No. 2 PHILADELPHIA, FEBRUARY, 1932 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Director
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate
Mrs John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. Harry McCall
Mr. John F. Preole
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. James Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Joseph Cooper
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Samuel Snell, Sr., Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Bradley, Mary Irene
Dingler, Katherine Elizabeth
Hall, Burndetta
Renshard, Edward Thomas

BURIALS

Young, William J.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.30
Evening Service and Address		8.00
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew		7.30
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

GEORGE WASHINGTON

George Washington, born Friday, February 22nd, 1732; died December 14, 1799, was the great grandson of Colonel John Washington (1634-1677), who came from Yorkshire, England, and settled in 1658 in Westmoreland County, Virginia, near the mouth of the Potomac River. The Washingtons emigrated to America after Charles 1st of England was beheaded. The family had been loyal supporters of the House of the Stuarts.

The names of the parents of George Washington were Augustine Washington and Mary Ball. She was the second wife of Augustine and the mother of George. He was born at Wakefield on Pope's Creek, about fifty miles below Mount Vernon. The house in which George was born was burned down on Christmas Eve, 1780. Its site is marked by a shaft erected by Congress. It is proposed to build a new brick house on the site.

About 1735 George's parents moved to Mount Vernon, then known as Hunting Creek. Again their home was destroyed by fire in 1739. The present one was erected on the site. Here George studied mathematics and became a surveyor employed by William Fairfax, cousin of Lord Fairfax. George spent sometime in Barbados, West Indies, where he had a severe attack of Smallpox. Returning to the Colonies, after his recovery, he entered the military service of Virginia and served under General Braddock in the French and English War. As Civil Engineer he did many memorable things which will ever be accounted of great importance to his country. Such, for instance, as reclaiming the Dismal Swamp; as advisor and engineer of the Potomac and James River Canal; as the first advocate of the combined highway and waterway from the Atlantic Coast to the Ohio River; as one of the first Americans to recognize the possibilities of power transportation by water. And the first to suggest that air navigation might be very useful to the people of the United States.

George Washington was made Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Army by act of Congress on June 17, 1775. On July 3, 1775, he took over the command at Cambridge, Massachusetts. After winning the Revolutionary War he resigned his commission as General and Commander-in-Chief, December 20, 1783.

In 1787 he was President of the Convention which drafted the Constitution of the United States.

Washington was one of the wealthiest men in the country, owning 70,000 acres of land in Virginia and 40,000 acres in the middle west, which Congress gave to him for his service to his country. At his death his estate was estimated to be nearly six millions of dollars. He owned 317 slaves. He was a man of powerful physique, 6 feet 2 inches in height, sandy hair, blue eyes and big hands and feet. He was a horseback rider of astonishing endurance. Probably the best in his day. Also, he was an expert hunter, fisherman and trapper.

George Washington was an Episcopalian and attended services in the Episcopal Churches in Alexandria, Virginia; St. Paul's Church, New York City, and Christ Church, Philadelphia.

Washington's death was due to exposure on December 12, 1799, in a storm while riding over his estate with his managers. After two days illness he died December 14th, 1799. His remains were interred along with those of his wife.

The year 1932 marks the 200th Anniversary of his birth. All over the country the event is being celebrated. Two centuries mark a long period of time, but instead of his memory growing dim with the years it is ever growing brighter. We of today have a greater respect and a higher regard for him and his mighty deeds than did his closest friends. It was by his wisdom and patience and service and courage that the foundations of this great nation were laid. It is upon his idealism it is sustained.

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

Lenten Services every Sunday and Wednesday evenings—special speakers. BE SURE YOU DO NOT COME ALONE.

* * * * *

Get ready to win a prize for regular attendance at the Lenten Services. Punch Cards will be distributed Ash Wednesday.

* * * * *

Mrs. M. Birchkead, Vice President of the Colored Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary, will address St. John's Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, Monday, February 29th. All the young, middle-aged and old women of the Parish are cordially invited to come and bring a neighbor.

Miss Charlotte L. Temple, recently attached to the Indian educational work at Mission, South Dakota, will give a picture talk of her life among the Indians before St. John's branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, Monday, March 21st. Miss Temple is a young woman and a most interesting speaker. The young women of the Auxiliary are going to receive her with enthusiasm because she appears to be about the age of our bevy of newlyweds, and has a pleasing personality. We hope the girls and young women will make a special effort to come and hear the story of her life among the Indians.

* * * * *

We hope you are using every day of Lent for all it is worth. You are going to be either better or worse, according to your use of it, after Lent is over.

* * * * *

Remember, we have two very big objects to attain this Lent. One is to raise $1,000.00 for our Sunday School Lenten Offering. The other is to raise $1,000.000 through our Lenten Offering to pay on the principle of our Parish House Mortgage.

* * * * *

If a member of the Parish Committee should get you in a corner and point his finger right at your chest and fix you with a glassy stare, don't get scared. He is just going to say to you with ponderous impressiveness—"Are you or aren't you a Cent-a-Dayer and AND WHY?"

* * * * *

St. John's Sunday School is growing bigger and bigger. We have reached an attendance of 302 officers, teachers and scholars. BELIEVE IT OR NOT, we have just purchased 100 more chairs to meet the growing demand.

THE KINDERGARTEN

The Kindergarten is overflowing with kiddies, all the chairs are occupied and many Sundays the little ones must sit along the edge of the platform. How Mary Haury and Eleanor Woerner manage to handle such a mob of babies is one of the mysteries of St. John's Parish.

THE INTERMEDIATE DEPARTMENT

The Intermediate Department is the same. If it did not hold its sessions in the Parish House, where there are lots of room for expansion, we would be in a dilemma, for it is growing bigger every Sunday. Though we have three competent teachers and one boy assistant, they have their work cut out for them. Our teaching staff is Mrs. John Nelson, Jr., Mr. Vernon Matthews, Miss Jennie Clendenning and Robert Gallagher.

THE MAIN DEPARTMENT

The main Department of the Sunday School is filling up, too. Some of the classes are almost too large to be properly taught. If it were not for the splendid staff of teachers, we would be at a loss to cope with the situation. The teachers for the girls classes are Mrs. Herman Jaeschke, Miss Helen Ashman, Miss Anna Robbins, Miss Adelia Pearo, Miss Marie Colvey and Miss Ethel Stenger. The teachers in the boys department are Miss Sarah Watts, Miss Dorothy Stenger, Mr. John Preole and Mr. John Nelson, Jr.

THE BIBLE CLASSES

Many new faces are seen in all three Bible Classes. Interest in Sunday School work is spreading among the adults of the Parish. Miss Hannah Nuttall has charge of Number 1 Bible Class. Miss Beatrice Fisher is teacher of Number 2 Bible Class, and our genial and popular superintendent, Mr. George Cressee, Sr., is the head of our Men's Bible Class.

We are not quite sure but we think we are now the largest Sunday School in southeast Philadelphia. Naturally we are proud of our growth and hope we will keep right on growing. We would like to reach every boy and girl, young man and young woman, every married man and matron, within our parochial bounds. One secret of our phenomenal growth is the loyalty of our teachers. It is a common thing to register 100 per cent. attendance for our teaching staff.

A Letter from the Parish Committee

Dear Parishioner:

At a recent meeting of the PARISH COMMITTEE the Rector suggested that we canvass the Parish and make a list of the Communicants who do not seem to be sold on the idea of our CENT-A-DAY Club. After the survey is made he intends to assign each member of the Committee to a district of the Parish to call upon the Communicants, not paying the CENT-A-DAY, for the purpose of getting them interested in the system which has so effectively financed all of our greatest ventures in reconstruction. We are sure that if we can obtain 100 per cent. response to our drive, in less than two years time we will have a paid up mortgage and will be free to undertake another big job if one should come along—such for instance, as painting the interior of the church, which, as all of us know, is sorely needed.

Some of the points our Committeemen will stress are: Every loyal St. Johnite will consider it a pleasure to be given this opportunity to do a real and practical service, such as reducing the mortgage, for the dear old church that has done so much for our families and for us individually. SCARCELY A COMMUNICANT OF THE PARISH IS NOT UNDER OBLIGATIONS BEYOND HIS POWER TO PAY TO OLD ST. JOHN'S. Here is her chance to rally to her call and [illegible] sons and daughters "do our bit" [illegible] the mortgage now resting on the Parish House.

This mortgage is the only debt upon the Parish today. When it is cancelled the parish will be entirely free from debt and will have one of the most valuable pieces of real estate in South Philadelphia. The dues of the club that is accomplishing this extinguishment of the mortgage are A-CENT-A-DAY. Less than that it is impossible to give, for a cent is the smallest coin of the nation. Yet insignificant, as it seems, it is mighty enough to wipe out our Parish House mortgage in less than two years if we can obtain 100 per cent. co-operation from our parishioners.

Every parishioner who can but won't give A-CENT-A-DAY, not only increases the burden of the willing givers, but puts off the day of settlement of the mortgage to a later date and forces us to pay more than we ought in interest on the mortgage, because it must be paid so much longer. Of course, it is a self-evident fact that when the mortgage is paid in full we stop paying interest.

Our loyalty and love for old St. John's Church ought to knit us together in such a close bond of brotherhood as to inspire us to help each other to so strengthen the Church that in time it will become the greatest of all Christian forces in South Philadelphia.

After all, the big thing back of our efforts to build up St. John's Church is not one of self-indulgence in pleasure and social pastime, but rather to influence and attract the unchurched into the Kingdom of God. EMPHASIS MUST BE PLACED RIGHT THERE, ELSE a mis-conception will arise and some of us will begin to think that the paramount object of St. John's Parish is Pleasure and not Worship.

Right here let us add a little warning. There are certain evidences that some of our young folk are indulging in this very error. THEY ARE REGULARLY PRESENT AT ALL SOCIAL GATHERINGS BUT THEY ARE SELDOM IN EVIDENCE AT WORSHIP. If anything should happen to put them out of the social part of the parish life, they will know that it is solely the result of their neglect of their spiritual obligations. St. John's Church must not cater to pleasure at the expense of worship. Our Rector has spent twenty years building up a church; not a play house. YET, HE IS BROAD ENOUGH TO ENCOURAGE EVERY OPPORTUNITY FOR PLEASURE JUST AS HE IS ALWAYS ALERT TO DEEPEN THE SPIRITUAL TONE OF THE PARISH.

Our purpose in addressing this open letter to the Parish is to prepare you for this coming drive of the Parish Committee. Remember, whoever approaches you is not doing so because he enjoys soliciting your support of the CENT-A-DAY CLUB, but because he hopes you will join the other communicants of the Parish in this big endeavor to cancel the Parish House mortgage in less than two years and set the Parish free of all debt. Let's follow the lead of the Rector, who has not only given more than any other member of the Parish, but has also used his personal influence in raising thousands of dollars besides.

Are we not in duty bound to back him up and help him make the grade with at least A-CENT-A-DAY?

Sincerely yours,
The Parish Committee.

Our Basket Ball Teams

Now what do you think of St. John's Basket Ball Teams? We have every reason to be proud of them and it is a mighty poor sport and an all-round grouch who can refrain a cheer for the fine work they do. They are not only manly looking boys in their togs, but they are gentlemanly in their conduct while playing. It is pretty good evidence of good quality when a member of an opposing team will voluntarily say St. John's boys are clean sports. Mr. Joseph Leach has every reason to be proud of his teams. Incidentally the members of the teams have every reason to be proud of Joe Leach. What they are as teams they owe largely to his magnetic personality. He knows how to be one of them without losing his dignity. We are rooting for them to head the list. But if they fail in that we are rooting for them anyhow, for they are "good sports" and worthy of our admiration.

Some of them need to score a little better average attendance for church attendance than they have done of late. Their average is weak in this particular and we must not have any but 100 per cent. St. Johnites represent our Parish on our Basket Ball teams. So look out, or Joe will be taking you aside and will whisper in your ear—"How come, boy?"

FIRST TEAM

Charles Rutter	Harry McCall
James Rutter	Gus Jaeschke
Bowman Leach	William Yeager

Chick Reed

SECOND TEAM

Herman Jaeschke	Robert Rutter
John Nelson, Jr.	Joseph Patton
Joseph Schlembac	Frank Knowlton
Heber Rutter	Edward Rutter

Michael Rutter

May we add just a little paragraph. The teams deserve a lot better support than they are getting from members of the Parish. They are playing gilt-edge basket ball. If you don't think so just come out Monday nights and see for yourself.

The 78th Anniversary of St. John's Parish

The Most Amazing All Day Celebration Ever Held in St. John's Parish

Whoever would have thought we were celebrating our 78th Birthday, Sunday, February 7th! There was nothing in or out of the Church to indicate any such venerable age. Both the Church and the Parish House were literally swarming with young men, young women and children. The scene was more in keeping with the inauguration of a brand new venture in church work.

The morning congregation was undoubtedly the largest ever assembled within the four walls of old St. John's Church. It literally packed the Church. The Rector never before administered the Sacraments to so many communicants at one service since his ordination. The big Christmas and Easter Communions shrink into insignificance by comparison.

The wonderful feature of the gathering was the big percentage of men and boys who formed nearly half of the congregation.

We were told that two gentlemen, visitors from one of our largest city churches, were present at the morning service. Just before the Communion service proper they left. One of the men of our parish saw them going and hurried to intercept them and invite them to remain to the end. They excused themselves and said it was impossible. "But," they said, "this is the most wonderful sight we have ever witnessed." We mention the incident to show how two strangers were impressed by that morning congregation.

We simply must mention the Choir and the splendid way they rendered the music of the service. The size of the congregation seemed to inspire them to extraordinary effort. Their singing was superb and gave both color and tone to the delightful service. Our Choir has been undergoing a slow evolution for a long time until now we have, without doubt, the best volunteer choir in South Philadelphia. Every member seems to feel a personal responsibility for its work and is giving the best possible service. This individual sense of responsibility and splendid team work was apparent on our Anniversary Sunday.

Mrs. Pine gave the Parish a delightful surprise at dinner. She and her beautiful waitresses served the most delicious Chicken Salad, garnished with Potato Chips and Peas, that was ever tasted in South Philadelphia. This, with all sorts of side dishes, coffee, tea and ice cream, made up a most appetizing meal.

Supper was another worthy effort of our expert cook and her busy staff. Things tasted so good that you ate whether you were hungry or not. Mrs. Pine said something about having a Parish Supper during Lent to raise funds for the Lenten Offering. We hope she will do it. Folks must eat; and, so long as they must, they ought to eat the best they can get. We know it will be the best IF Mrs. Pine cooks it. So save your pennies and buy a ticket so soon as she gets down to business and cooks that supper.

We scarcely know how to describe the Sunday School Service. Frank Knowlton counted noses and reported there were 294 in the room. A little later we saw five more noses come. Then later six more noses were stuck into our Sunday School, which made 302 noses present. The service was so arranged that every department of the big school had a part to do. Our special speaker was Mr. Harrison A. Matsinger, formerly lay missionary to the Philippine Islands and China. He was most interesting. The ghost story he told us made the hair on even the baldheaded stand on end.

One of the most beautiful features of the day was the Parish visiting by the women of the Parish to the aged, sick and shut-ins. Each group took with them a beautiful bouquet of red carnations, which we are confident brought joy and sunshine into the lives of those who received them.

We were rejoiced to have the Rev. Sidney M. Hopson with us in the evening. We can think of nobody we would rather have to preach our Anniversary night sermon. He seems so much like one of our big family that his familiar cheery voice was just the one thing needed to bring to an end a perfect day.

Our only regret is a few of our parishioners were absent and missed this most wonderful of all experiences. Only those who were present can realize WHAT they missed.

The Child, The Sponsor, The Sunday School

Some Observations on An Important Subject

THE CHILD

We are firmly of the opinion that if the Church hopes to hold its spiritual authority over the hearts of men, She must begin with the child at the font and keep unremittingly at it until he has reached man's estate. It is the business of the Church to carefully guide him through these formative years, for what the child learns the man seldom forgets. If good habits are formed in his youth he will instinctively be influenced by them in his manhood. If, on the other hand, the child is indifferently trained in moral and spiritual things, his whole perspective of life may be distorted. He may become the victim of spiritual anemia and too weak to resist in time of temptation and fall into sin.

THE SPONSOR

The Church, ever knowing and recognizing this danger, starts the work of spiritual development of the child at the font. Before the child is even conscious of its existence, the Church demands that godparents be appointed to take the infant in charge and prepare him for his career in Christian learning. If they take their office seriously and are conscientious in keeping the vows they assume in behalf of the child, the task is not impossible, but interesting and highly satisfactory; for most children respond to wise and careful training. It is unfortunate, however, that sponsors are generally chosen because of sentimental reasons. It is not so much the child's welfare that is considered when sponsors are chosen as it is a matter of not hurting somebody's feelings if they are not asked to "stand" for the child in Baptism. Then, too, sponsorship is taken lightly by those who are asked to act in that responsible position. They are flattered by the choice and accept "with pleasure" a task that is most serious and full of problems. The best and most conscientious godparents are seldom systematic or thorough in their training. They depend upon admonitions and leave the bulk of the training to the Church. Few of them have the remotest conception of child psychology and cannot guide the child either mentally or spiritually. To many sponsors their office means nothing whatever and after the Sacrament of Baptism is performed, they promptly forget the vows they made and the child is left to sink or swim.

Not infrequently the sponsors and the child are separated by a distance which makes it impossible to give the child proper training and the child grows up abandoned by his godparents and left to pick up his spiritual training as best he can. Sometimes the godparents die and the child becomes a spiritual orphan with no one responsible for his spiritual training.

What about the parents of the child? If you have ever been a parent you would understand why the Church tried to throw around the child other influences for his development. Of course, the parent is vitally interested in the child, but many a child's career has been totally wrecked by parental love. The parent is prejudiced in favor of the child from the start; hence, is unconsciously blind to his faults or weaknesses. The godparent is supposed to approach the spiritual training of the child without the handicap of parental love.

We remember several years ago we took a survey of the admissions to the Eastern State Penitentiary. The Survey covered a period of one year. The main question we put to the convict was: "What do you think was the underlying cause of your falling into crime?" In an overwhelming majority of cases the reply was the same, "MY MOTHER WAS TOO EASY ON ME." Of course, we know why our mothers are too easy on us and we are brutal enough to take advantage of that wonderful thing—Mother Love.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

But, even good and wise godparents are limited in their ability, opportunity or inclination. Consequently, other means for juvenile religious education must be used to augment their efforts. This other necessary means is the Church Sunday School with its regular weekly sessions and carefully prepared curriculm of studies in the Bible, Church History, Doctrine, Ritual, etc. No child's education or culture is complete who lacks education in higher things in life. If we are careful to give our children the best in the way of mental education, we ought to be twice as careful to give them the best in the way of spiritual education. Mental development minus spiritual development is a dangerous thing. An educated person without a spiritual background is by far a greater menace to good order and peace than is an illiterate or stupid crook. The one is equipped with the finely tempered weapons of intellect to ply the trade of crime and cover up his iniquity, while the other is just a common thug without either imagination or finesse and therefore an easy problem to solve.

In previous articles on the value of the SUNDAY SCHOOL we have made statements that crime finds very few volunteers from the ranks of our Sunday School scholars. This is not a matter of irresponsible propaganda without proof; but it is based upon a survey of criminologists; judges and social service experts. All of whom are interested in spiritual forces in simply an academic way. However, their studies have brought them to the irresistible conclusion that the Sunday School is the most important moral and spiritual influence in child life.

This being the case we come to the point of inquiry of the parents in our parish. What are YOU doing about the religious education of your child? Understand, you are not only responsible for his social, industrial and physical culture. These, of course, are important and cannot be neglected. BUT THEIR IMPORTANCE IS AS NOTHING COMPARED TO THE ALL IMPORTANT ATTAINMENT—OF SPIRITUAL CULTURE, WITHOUT WHICH YOUR CHILD IS JUST A HUMAN ANIMAL WITH HIS GOD NATURE ATROPHIED. He is a spiritual imbecile and YOU, his parent, are to blame for his wretched condition. If you intended to neglect your child and abandon him to all the evil about him without spiritual strength to oppose them, then you committed a crime against God and your child in wedding and giving him life. His futile gestures against temptation are the result of your cruel parental neglect in nourishing and building up his spiritual resistance.

However, it is not too late to rectify your almost inexcusable neglect. THE SUNDAY SCHOOL is still at his disposal. You compel him to attend Public School which is important. Suppose you attend to the MORE important duty and insist he attends regularly the Sunday School. IF HE DOES NOT COME WILLINGLY, ASSERT YOUR PARENTAL AUTHORITY AND FETCH HIM.

The Books of the Bible

Try to Commit to Memory

In GENESIS the world was made by God's creative hand;
In EXODUS the Hebrews marched to gain the Promised Land;
LEVITICUS contains the law, holy, and just and good.
NUMBERS records the tribes enrolled—all sons of Abraham's blood.
Moses, in DEUTERONOMY, records God's mighty deeds;
Brave JOSHUA into Canaan's land the host of Israel leads.
In JUDGES their rebellion oft provokes the Lord to smite,
But RUTH records the faith of one well pleasing in his sight.
In FIRST AND SECOND SAMUEL of Jesse's son we read.
Ten Tribes in FIRST AND SECOND KINGS revolted from his seed.
The FIRST AND SECOND CHRONICLES see Judah captive made:
But EZRA leads a remnant back by princely Cyrus' aid.
The city wall of Zion, NEHEMIAH builds again,
While ESTHER saves her people from the plots of wicked men.
In JOB we read how faith will live beneath affliction's rod,
And David's PSALMS are precious songs to every child of God.
The PROVERBS like a goodly string of choicest pearls appear.
ECCLESIASTES teaches man how vain are all things here.
The mystic SONG OF SOLOMON exalts sweet Sharon's Rose;
Whilst Christ the Saviour and the King, the "rapt ISAIAH" shows.
The warning JEREMIAH apostate Israel scorns;
His plaintive LAMENTATIONS their awful downfall mourns.
EZEKIEL tells in wondrous words of dazzling mysteries;
While kings and empires yet to come, DANIEL in vision sees.
Of Judgment and of mercy, HOSEA loves to tell:
JOEL describes the blessed days when God with man shall dwell.
Among Tekoa's herdsmen AMOS received his call;
While OBADIAH prophesies of Edom's final fall.
JONAH enshrines a wondrous type of Christ, our risen Lord.
MICAH pronounces Judah lost—lost, but again restored.
NAHUM declares on Nineveh just judgment shall be poured,
A view of Chaldea's coming doom HABAKKUK'S visions give;
Next ZEPHANIAH warns the Jews to turn, to repent and live;
HAGGAI wrote to those who saw the Temple built again,
And ZECHARIAH prophesied of Christ's triumphant reign.
MALACHI was the last who touched the high prophetic chord;

Its Final Notes Sublimely Show
The Coming of the Lord

MATTHEW and MARK and LUKE and JOHN the Holy Gospel wrote,
Describing how the Saviour died—his life, and all he taught;
ACTS proves how God the Apostles owned with signs in every place.
St. Paul, in ROMANS, teaches us how man is saved by grace.
The Apostle, in CORINTHIANS, instructs, exhorts, reproves,
GALATIANS shows that faith in Christ alone the Father loves.
EPHESIANS and PHILLIPPIANS tell what Christians ought to be:
COLOSSIANS bids us live to God and for eternity.
In THESSALONIANS we are taught the Lord will come from Heaven.
In TIMOTHY and TITUS, a Bishop's rule is given.
PHILEMON marks a Christian's love, which only Christians know.
HEBREWS reveals the Gospel prefigured by the Law.
JAMES teaches without holiness faith is but vain and dead.
ST. PETER points the narrow way in which the Saints are led.
JOHN IN HIS THREE EPISTLES on love delights to dwell.
ST. JUDE gives awful warning of judgment, wrath and hell;
THE REVELATION prophesies of that tremendous day
When Christ—and Christ alone—shall be the trembling sinner's stay.

WANT TO WIN A PRIZE?

We Will Give One to All Who Answer 85 Per Cent Of the Following Questions Correctly:

(The only conditions for the prize contest are: Every person entering the lists must be a member of St. John's Church. Answers must be written on one side of the paper. Your name and address must be printed clearly. Neither misspelling nor grammatical errors will count against you so long as your answers are correct. All answers must be addressed to the REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, 225 S. 3rd Street. No answers will be accepted after Monday in Holy Week.)

QUESTIONS TO BE ANSWERED

1. What does the word Lent mean?
2. For what two purposes is the Lenten Season set

EDW. K. TRYON CO.

"Sporting Goods Since 1811"

Fishing Tackle
Athletic Goods
Guns, Rifles
Ammunition
Toys & Games

912 CHESTNUT ST.
PHILADELPHIA

apart?

3. What is the first day in Lent?
4. Why was it so called?
5. How long does Lent last?
6. How many Sundays in Lent?
7. What are the last two Sundays in Lent called? Why?
8. When does Lent end?
9. What is Abstinence?
10. How would you explain to a stranger the Church's idea of Lent?
11. What else, besides fasting, must we do during Lent?
12. What collect is most frequently used during Lent?
13. Whom do we address in this collect? What two Divine attributes do we mention in the collect? What do we ask Him to do to us? Why do we want Him to do this particular thing? What do we hope to receive from Him if He does what we ask? In whose name do we ask it? What does AMEN mean?
14. Was Jesus Christ ever tempted?
15. If so, where was he tempted?
16. Who is Satan?
17. How many times was Jesus Christ tempted? Describe each temptation.
18. Where are the following found in the Bible?
    "Christ shall give thee light."
    "Lord help me."
    "I am innocent of the blood of this just per-

To Save Time, Trouble and Worry Buy at

PETE'S MEAT MARKE

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

At Pete's the Customers Are Always Rig

WM. A. PENTON & BRO.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patr age and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second a Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will app ciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 SOUTH STREET
Formerly S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Bell Phone, Oregon 7055

OYEN'S BAKERY

1713 South Second Street
Formerly of 120 Porter Street
Hot Cakes at 5.30 A. M. and P. M. Wedding and Birthday Cakes a Specialty son.'

"Let no man deceive you with vain words."
"Get thee hence, Satan."
"This is the will of God, even your sanctification."
"When ye fast be not as the hypocrites."
"Rend your hearts and not your garments."
"What saith the Scriptures?"
"I will stain all mine raiment."
"He began to curse and swear."
"He saved others, himself he cannot save."
"I have found no cause of death in him."
"Then said Jesus, Father forgive them."

19. What is the last week in Lent called? Why?
20. What is Thursday in Holy Week called? Why?
21. What is Friday in Holy Week called? Why?
22. Can you outline the events of the last week in Lent day by day? For instance:—
    1. Sunday—He entered Jerusalem. See S. John 12:13.
    2. Monday—S. Mark 11:1-11.
    3. Tuesday.
    4. Wednesday.
    5. Thursday.
    6. Friday.
    7. Saturday.
23. Who was punished for our sins?
24. What were Jesus' last words?
25. Where was Jesus buried?

THE PASTOR AND THE DOCTOR

A poetic picture of a certain type of church-goer appears in the current issue of the calendar of the Ninth Presbyterian Church, 57th Street and Washington Avenue.

The poem follows:

Mrs. Huff is up the Miff Tree
On a seat fixed good and firm;
And she'd like to tell the Pastor
A few things and make him squirm

Mrs. Huff was sick abed, sir,
Yes, sir, sick abed a week!
And the Pastor didn't call, sir,
Never even took a peek.

When I asked her if the Doctor
Called to see her, she said "Sure,"
And she looked as if she thought I
Needed some good strong mind cure.

Then I asked her how the Doctor
Knew that sickness laid her low,
And she said that she had called him
On the phone and told him so.

Now the Doctor gets his bill paid
With a nicely written check,
But the Pastor, for not knowing,
Simply gets it "in the neck."

A young married curate found the women in the parish too helpful. At last it became so embarrassing that he left. Not long afterward he met the curate who had succeeded him, and asked: "Well, how do you get along with the women?"

"Oh, very well,' said the other; "there is safety in numbers, you know."

"Ah, safety in numbers! I found it only in Exodus,' was the reply.

—The Christian Register

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
Funeral Directors
M. A. Bair, President
1820 Chestnut St., Phila.
Rit. 1581 Race 1110
Subject to Call at Any Hour From Anywhere

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118
We Telegraph Flowers
FRANK C. QUINN
Florist
Member F. T. D.
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452
Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648
Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER
230-232 Queen Street

WASHINGTON PARTY

To Be Held in

THE PARISH HOUSE

Church of St. John the Evangelist

THIRD AND REED STREETS

Saturday, February 27, 1932

2:30 P. M.

ADMISSION - - - - - - - - - - - - - Fifteen Cents

KATHRYN'S
Candies and Chocolates
1735 South Second Street
FRESH COCOANUT EGGS AND NOVELTIES

THE KINGDOM OF GOD

I say to thee, do thou repeat
To the first man thou mayest meet
In lane, highway, or open street—

That he and we and all man move
Under a canopy of love,
As broad as the blue sky above;

That doubt and trouble, fear and pain,
And anguish, all are shadows vain,
That death itself shall not remain;

That weary deserts we may tread,
A dreary labyrinth may thread,
Thro' dark ways underground be led;

Yet, if we will one Guide obey,
The dreariest path, the darkest way
Shall issue out in heavenly day;

And we, on divers shores now cast,
Shall meet, our perilous voyage past,
All in our Father's house at last,

And ere thou leave him, say thou this,
Yet one word more—they only miss
The winning of that final bliss,

Who will not count it true, that Love,
Blessing, not cursing, rules above,
And that in it we live and move.

And one thing further make him know,
That to believe these things are so,
This firm faith never to forego,

Despite of all which seems at strife
With blessing, all with curses rife,
That this is blessing, this is life.

—Archbishop Trench.

Licensed in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania

CHARLES W. NAULTY

George C. Toppitzer

Successor

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

Drexel Hill, Pa.

N. E. Cor. Third and Pine Sts.

Philadelphia, Pa.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 6, No. 3 PHILADELPHIA, MARCH, 1932 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Director
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. Harry McCall
Mr. John F. Preole
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. James Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Joseph Cooper
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Vernon Matthews, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Frank Drumm, Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Charles Little, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King
Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50
Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League
Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Fowler, Charles Augustus
MacAdams, Horace Joseph
Peak, Christine Elizabeth
Van Sciver, Richard Rockwood

BURIALS

Bouening, Louis
Fowler, Jennie S.
Grubb, Rufus W.
Heck, Edith H
Johnson, Frank J.
Welsh, Helen M.

BAPTISMS

Chapel of The Transfiguration

Isabelle L. Williams
Victor Williams
Charlotte Elizabeth Jordan
Doris Wilhelmina Jordan
Mary Jane Jordan
Patricia Joan Jordan
Evelyn Ruth Jordan (received)
William Charles Jordan
Joan Edna Baur
Helen Marie Myers
Richard Edward Ibbetson

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.30
Evening Service and Address		8.00
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew		7.30
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

EASTER DAY

The Queen Feast of the Christian Year

A few days more and we shall realize the joys of that most glorious feast of the Christian year—Easter Day.

It is the day which marks Christ's triumph over sin

It is the day of astounding refutation of the power of death over life.

It is the day of absolute assurance of the redemptive power of Christ's sacrifice.

It is the day of hope of eternal life with Jesus Christ.

The more we contemplate these facts and realize their magnitude and significance to us, the more we wonder at a love so strong that would do such mighty things for us.

How can any child of the Church be insensible to that love? How can any child of the Church refrain from expressing the joy and hope that must be his on Easter Day? How can any child of the Church be so dead to the meaning of Easter Day that he fails to be inspired through gratitude and wonder to strive through sacrifice and praise to show God his deep gratitude for HIS mighty sacrifice?

Easter Day should find us "early in the morning" eager to gaze upon the empty tomb; to meet Him in the Garden of the Resurrection; to receive from His still wounded hands the blessed Sacrament of His Body, His Blood—symbols of His Love and Sacrifice for me.

How can any child of the Church be so callous, so inhuman as to treat with indifference the sacred food He offers us on Easter Day? How can our feelings be so dead that we do not want to show our gratitude for His sacrifice by an offering of love to Him in return? An offering from our worldly possessions—our worldly possessions we owe to Him?

Why Not Rouse Ourselves This Easter Day?

Why not do all in our power to celebrate it in a fitting way?

Why not make our EASTER OFFERINGS REAL to express our REAL GRATITUDE?

Why not make a REAL EFFORT to make our EASTER COMMUNION?

As Easter Day is the Christian day of the Resurrection, why not add to its beauty by bringing potted plants or cut flowers to adorn our new Chancel and Choir?

Why not begin the training of our boys and girls in the proper observance of EASTER DAY by reminding them constantly of the EASTER OFFERING they ought to make through their Mite Chests?

The Services for EASTER DAY are:

Holy Communion (the Church)..... 6.30 A. M.
Holy Communion (the Chapel)..... 9.00 A. M.
Holy Communion (the Church)..... 11.00 A. M.
Sunday School Lenten Offering (Church).. 2.30 P. M.
Sunday School Lenten Offering (Chapel).. 2.30 P. M.

EVERY BOY AND GIRL BRINGING MORE THAN ONE DOLLAR IN THE MITE BOX WILL GET A BIG CHOCOLATE EGG.

REMEMBER! Your EASTER OFFERING ENVELOPE is important because its contents are used to advance God's work in our Parish.

Be Sure You Bring It!

That Mighty Mite Chest

Dear Dad:

The might of your child's Mite Chest depends on your generosity.

Dear Mom:

The might of your child's Mite Chest depends on your generosity.

Dear Grand Daddy:

The might of your grandchild's Mite Chest depends on your generosity.

Dear Grand Mom:

The might of your grandchild's Mite Chest depends on your generosity.

Dear Aunt:

The might of your nephew's (niece's) Mite Chest depends on your generosity.

Dear Uncle:

The might of your nephew's (niece's) Mite Chest depends on your generosity.

Dear Brother:

The might of your brother's (sister's) Mite Chest depends on your generosity.

Dear Sister:

The might of your brother's (sister's) Mite Chest depends on your generosity.

Dear Friend:

The might of your little friend's Mite Chest depends on your generosity.

Dear Little Mite Chest Holder:

The might of your Mite Chest depends upon YOU most of all. YOU must learn to make a sacrifice now and then. Instead of spending ALL your pennies for candy or going to the movies, or something else YOU want, YOU must walk right up to that Mite Chest of yours and drop YOUR money in it and keep it there 'til Easter comes. YOU might get as much as $5.00 in YOUR Mite Chest if YOU did. And if every boy and girl of our Sunday School could raise $5.00 during the forty days of Lent do YOU know how much money we would get for our LENTEN OFFERING?

We Would Get $1,500.00!!

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

February Meeting One of Deep Interest

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held Monday, February 29th, at 8.00 P. M. Besides a fine representation of our own members we had as our guests sixteen members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Mission of the Transfiguration, led by their Directress, Mrs. E. Edgerton Proffitt, who is also the Parish Visitor of the Mission.

The meeting was opened with the Consecration Hymn, "Take My Life and Let It Be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee." This was followed by the Creed and Prayers for Missions by the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Mrs. James Adgate read the Scripture Lesson from St. Matthew 6 1-15. Mrs. John Nelson, Jr., read the Minutes of the previous meeing. Mrs. Frank Schmidt presented the report of the Treasurer, which showed a balance of a little over $27.00. Miss Nuttall reported for the Committee on Foreign Missions; also gave a report of the Family Relief Work St. John's Parish did among the poor and unemployed of the Parish during the Winter. This included paying of rent, giving of one-half tons of coal, supplying clothing and big carryall bags full of groceries and provisions and getting a few jobs. Mrs. Annie Beisser reported for the Indian Hope Committee. Her report reminded us that we are to entertain as our guest speaker Monday evening of Holy Week Miss Charlotte Temple, a young woman of charming personality, who has spent much time among the American Indians. Probably she will bring a number of original pictures to illustrate her talk. Mrs. Frank Schmidt made a report on the Auxiliary work among the Colored Race. Owing to the absence of the other two chairladies we had no more reports.

Most interesting reports were made by Miss Nuttall, Miss Schabacker and Mrs. Mary Corson on visiting the sick of the Parish. The Rector made an ernest appeal to the women of the Auxiliary to make more visits among the aged, sick and shut-ins. He explained how almost impossible it is for him to visit as frequently as he ought because of his duties at the City Mission, which demand all his time during the day, along with the necessary work he must do for St. John's Church and the Mission of the Transfiguration. If the Woman's Auxiliary does not help out on visiting the sick, the parish will suffer greatly, because the sick do not understand the situation and will become resentful.

Under new business, Mr. McHenry called upon Mrs. Proffit, Directress of the Transfiguration Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. She was most interesting and told how, after reorganizing the branch, the women of the Mission took hold and are displaying real energy and enthusiasm in the affairs of the Mission. Evidently Mrs. Proffitt is just what the Mission needed all these years. Now that the women of the Mission have a real leader, we know things are going to happen in South Philadelphia, because the residents of that section are among the best people in the world and will respond quickly to any call of the Church to service. We thank God for this solution of our problem at the Mission.

The Rector asked the ladies of the Auxiliary to get busy and make coverings for the Lectern and the Chancel Rails, so that when they are set up again in the Church they will be properly protected. Also, the Committee on Choir Vestments was asked to meet March 7th to go over and repair all vestments before Easter Day.

Mrs. M. Birckhead, Second Vice President of the Woman's Auxiliary work among the Colored people, gave a most interesting and instructive talk upon what the American Church is doing for the Negro, not only in a spiritual way but as to education in all branches of art, trade, literature and the professions. Her description of the negro educational work in the South was most vivid. Mrs. Birckhead revealed to us that her address of the evening was her maiden speech on the work. We enjoyed it so much that we hope she will return and rehearse all her speeches before us.

At the couclusion of the meeting the young women of St. John's Auxiliary served ice cream and pretzels to those present. The pretzels came on after the ice cream was consumed.

We were delighted at the way the young women of the Mission let go and had the time of their life at the piano.

Be sure to come to the next Auxiliary meeting. It is going to be even better than the last.

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

How Are You Keeping Lent?

* * * * *

Be sure to make your Easter Communion.

* * * * *

Don't forget your Easter Offering Envelope.

* * * * *

Are you helping the kiddies fill their Mite Chests?

* * * * *

Every unemployed person might use some of his idle hours in going 'round boosting the Church.

* * * * *

Confirmation Service, Trinity Sunday, May 22nd at 8.00P. M.

* * * *

Rector celebrates his Twentieth Anniversary on the same date.

* * * * *

Unemployed persons might spend some of their idle hours in doing missionary work in the Parish by looking up Confirmation prospects and reporting them to the rector.

* * * * *

EVERY BOY AND GIRL GETS AN EXTRA EGG FOR EVERY EXTRA DOLLAR IN THEIR MITE CHEST

* * * * *

Our Objective for Our Lenten Offering $1,900.00

* * * * *

Easter is a day of obligation. You MUST make your Easter Communion.

* * * * *

Satan is not the only one who can find things for idle hands to do. Come to us and we will show you more work than Satan ever dreamed of. We want idle hands to visit the aged, sick and shut-ins. We want idle hands to hunt up men and women who don't go to church, and children who have no Sunday School contacts. We want idle hands to help us work up a Confirmation Class worthy of the traditions of St. John's Parish. We want idle hands to help build up morning and evening service attendance. We want idle hands to help in the Woman's Auxiliary, the Young Women's Christian League, the Daughters of the King, the Choir, the Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Men's Club of St. John's Church, the Sunday School and the Girl Scouts. In fact, no St. Johnite has idle hands unless he or she is a slacker. The Church member who does not attend Sunday worship is the meanest kind of a cheat. First, he robs God, then he lies about it by saying he works so hard during the week that he must take Sunday off to rest. The queer part is—the feeling of exhaustion never comes until after he has married the girl he accompanied every Sunday morning, afternoon and evening to church. It's a real pity wives make their poor husbands so tired by marrying them.

Have You Earned Tomorrow?

Is anybody happier because you passed his way? Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today? This day is almost over and its toiling time is through. Is there anyone to offer a kindly word of you?

Did you give a friendly greeting to the friend who came along or a churlish sort of "Howdy" and then vanish in the throng? Were you selfish, pure and simple, as you rushed along your way, or is someone mighty grateful for a deed you did today?

Can you say tonight in parting with the day that's slipping fast, that you helped a single brother of the many that you passed? Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said? Does a man whose hopes were fading now with courage look ahead?

Did you waste the day or lose it, was it well or poorly spent? Did you leave a trail of kindness or a scar of discontent?

As you close your eyes in slumber do you think that God would say, you have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today?

—Author Unknown.

MINCED PROVERBS

Un-mince Them and Give Chapter and Verse Where They Are Found

1. "A..... revealeth secrets."
2. "If thou be..... thou shalt be.... for thyself."
3. "A wise.....maketh a glad.....but a foolish .....is the.....to his....."
4. "I will also.....at your.....; I will..... when you.....cometh."
5. "There is no.....nor....., nor..... against the Lord."
6. "The.....is wiser in his own.....than seven .....that can render a....."
7. "If thou..... in the day of....., thy.....is ....."
8. "A word.....spoken is like.....of gold in pictures of....."
9. "If thine.....be hungry give him..... to eat; if he be.....give him water....."
10. "An.....stirreth up strife, and a.....abounded eth in transgression."
11. "She opened her.....with.....; and in her .....is the law of....."
12. ".....and.....are never full; ;so the..... of man are never satisfied."

13. "He that giveth unto.....shall not....."
14. "A.....tongue hateth those that are.....and a flattering.....worketh....."
15. "The wicked.....when no man.....: but the righteous are bold as a....."

Mission of The Transfiguration

E. Edgerton Proffitt — Lay Missionary
Mrs. E. Edgerton Proffitt — Parish Visitor
H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary-in-Charge

On February 7th, 1932, a meeting of the women of the Mission of the Transfiguration was held in the Parish House at 8.00 P. M. From this group there was organized the Woman's Auxiliary, with a membership of twenty-six.

It is my belief that the organization of this Auxiliary was of paramount importance, because it is indeed the very foundation of parish life! The truth of this statement is manifested in the progress that has already been made after only three meetings.

District Captains have been appointed as follows: Mrs. L. Rolenfeld, Mrs. Bertha Scott, Mrs. Sadie Harvey and Mrs. John Elliott, Jr. The parish extends from east of Twelfth Street to Front and from Shunk Street to Bigler Street. The duty of the District Captain is to visit all members in his district and to report illness, need, children to be baptized and confirmed and other conditions requiring the attention of the Parish Visitor or the Missionary in charge.

We have been seriously handicapped in our Sunday School work by lack of adult teachers. This constituted a common complaint of mothers who were visited because of their children's failure to attend Sunday School. This difficulty has been removed by the appointment of two members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the teaching staff and our Sunday School membership has already increased. The progress made in the past two weeks with the infant class is remarkable and four new members were added on Sunday, February 21st. The Auxiliary is keenly interested in the development and growth of our future congregation, the Sunday School!

We have now plunged whole-heartedly into our Lenten work and our objective is, an offering to be long remembered. Every member is an ardent worker. Aprons are being sold and weekly socials on Friday evening are being held to swell this offering. On March 12, 1932, we will give a Concert and Entertainment in the Parish House. This is made possible by the kind assistance offered by the Choir girls of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Third and Reed Streets, and we trust that this is the beginning of a pleasant relationship! Tickets are 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

The attendance at the church services has increased at least seventy-five per cent. in the past three weeks! Fifty-five persons received Communion on February 7th at 9.00 A. M., an increase of over one hundred per cent. on January 3rd at the Communion Service. These figures are indeed significant and indicate clearly the need in the past for an ardent woman worker. The Wednesday Evening Lenten Services are also being very well attended.

Applications for membership in a Junior Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary are being received and we hope to have it organized and working in the near future. We have added a Junior Choir to our Sunday School and from this we will select girls for membership in the regular Church Choir as soon as they are qualified.

I have been most cordially received in the homes of all parishioners and the response to my visits has been most encouraging. From my observation I am convinced that the absence of a woman Parish Visitor on the Mission Staff has seriously hampered our development in the past.

With the kind co-operation of our Missionary-in-charge, the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, I hope that the result of our effort will be gratifying beyond our fondest hopes!

I am grateful to have the privilege of serving God in this capacity.

Esther M. Proffitt,
Parish Visitor.

MY EASTER OFFERING

How Much Ought I Give? Why Ought I Give It?

It would be most interesting to get the views of our Communicants on the matter of EASTER OFFERINGS. We may be mistaken, we hope we are, in thinking that many have the idea that it just another way to raise money for the support of the Church. The real thought back of the EASTER OFFERING is that IT IS AN OFFERING. Were you familiar with your Old Testament you would know at once what that means. AN OFFERING IS AN ACT OF WORSHIP. The devotee offers that which he VALUES MOST to God, in order to show his depth of his love to his God. That the offering is used to support the Temple and the Priesthood is in no way upsetting to the worshipper for the simple reason it means the spread of the worshipper's religion and the converting of the unbeliever to God.

Too much emphasis is laid upon the church support part of the OFFERING these days. More emphasis must be laid upon OFFERINGS as acts of worship. In other words, we must get back to the original intent of OFFERINGS. Then we will worship God as He would be worshipped. In a way and from a heart that loves Him so much that the wor-shipper gladly gives of his substance to prove his worship.

It is perfectly immaterial to God whether you give Him anything. All things come from Him and of His own do we give Him. We cannot possibly give God anything that is not already and always His. All we can do is to return a portion to him to show we recognize whence it came.

In your EASTER OFFERING you ought to give as much as you can possibly give. You have often heard it said by some folk that THEY GIVE AS MUCH AS THEY CAN AFFORD TO GIVE. We wonder if that is strictly true with most of us? Can any of us honestly say on EASTER DAY that OUR OFFERING represents all we can afford? HOW DOES YOUR EASTER OFFERING MEASURE UP TO THE SIZE OF THE WIDOW'S MITE?

What She Gave Represented All She Owned!

Does your EASTER OFFERING represent even one small iota of what you call your own?

SUPPOSE GOD SHOULD RETALIATE AND TAKE FROM YOU ALL THAT IS HIS? WHAT IN THE WORLD WOULD YOU DO? He owns all you have, not even the shirt on your back is yours. AREN'T YOU JUST A LITTLE ABSURD WHEN YOU PUFF OUT YOUR CHEST AND TRY TO PATRONIZE GOD?

Would not the spirit of humility towards God be much more in keeping with the facts of the matter, and at the same time be in much better taste? We cannot tell how much you ought to give in your EASTER OFFERING because we do not know how much GOD has given YOU, but we are sure IT OUGHT TO BE IN PROPORTION TO WHAT YOU ARE DAILY RECEIVING FROM HIM.

We published a schedule of offerings for our Christmas offerings. It seemed to help some to reach a decision, for our Christmas Offering was much larger and much better distributed among our Parishioners.

Until we have developed the true spirit of OFFERINGS perhaps it would be well to continue publishing that echedule. Here it is:

Boys and Girls, 8 to 12 Years, Not Less Than 10c
Boys and Girls, 13 to 16 Years, Not Less Than 25c
Boys and Girls, 17 to 19 Years, Not Less Than 50c
Men and Women, Over 20 Years, Not Less Than $1

"NOT LESS THAN"

Please take particular notice in this schedule we use the expression of "NOT LESS THAN" in every case. We want to emphasize these three words, for they are important. They limit the minimum of any person's offering, NOT THE MAXIMUM. It means that IF IT IS POSSIBLE TO make a greater offering, IT IS YOUR DUTY to make it. If you can afford to make A LARGER OFFERING and you hold it back YOU ARE A CHEAT and THE SON OR DAUGHTER OF ANANIAS; because you, too, are "tempting the Spirit of the Lord."

YOUR WORSHIP WITHOUT AN HONEST OFFERING IS A FARCE. Either make an honest offering or drop your mask of hyprocrisy and let the world see that YOU ARE FOR YOURSELF AND YOUR OWN INTERESTS FIRST, LAST AND ALL THE TIME and God is simply incidental in your affairs.

WHAT IF YOU HAVE NOTHING TO OFFER? That is all right, for God knows what and how much you have. If you can square your accounts with Him you have nothing to fear, and in spite of poverty you can look every man squarely in the eye and not be ashamed. For you know God knows.

A Page Out of St. John's History

(From a letter written to the Rector by Jennie Hackett, February 15, 1932.)

Dear Rector:

Received your kind invitation to the 78th Anniversary of St. John the Evangelist Church. Was sorry I did not receive it until it was too late. Was not at home. I always think of our Anniversary, as it was always celebrated the nearest Sunday in January to the 28th, as that was the date of going into the little red brick mission, Reed Street above Second. In 1857 my father came to Philadelphia from Utica, New York, to work in the Southwark Iron Foundry, then on the corner of 3rd and Mifflin. He had a house somewhere in the neighborhood. On Sunday he walked up Second Street. When he reached Second and Reed Streets some firemen, then voluntary, members of the Shifler Hose Company, he asked them if they could direct them to an Episcopal Sunday School, as he had my sister Emily, also my brother Herbert, deceased. They told him the nearest one was on Catharine Street. Also told him there was a Sunday School being held in the back of the Hose House. Sure enough, he went around to Boone Street, received such a welcome from Rev. Mr. Durboro and the different ones taking part he became one of the members—became Sunday School Superintendent for over twenty years, Rector's Warden for thirty-four years.

When they went into the church it was the 28th of January, my father's birthday. So you know how dissatisfied I was when I received the invitation too late. I was christened and confirmed at St. John's Church and feel it is my home. I have never taken my letter from St. John the Evangelist. Sorry I could not send you any canned goods or other articles mentioned. Enclosed please find ——. It may help a little."

What About Confirmation?

Still a Few Months Off, But Near Enough to Prepare for It

Immediately after Easter it is our intention to deliver a series of Confirmation lectures for the benefit of those of adult years who are looking forward to being confirmed. We hope that communicants as well will avail themselves of this opportunity to get better acquainted with their church and her doctrines and history. The most intolerant man in the world is the ignorant Christian. On the other hand, the most gracious and delightful individual you can meet is the intelligent and well-informed Christian.

May we suggest it would be good policy for every confirmed member of the parish to play missionary, go after their unconfirmed friends and neighbors and bring them to these Sunday evening Confirmation talks. We have repeatedly declared that scores of unconfirmed men and women, living with us, are just waiting for somebody to invite them to go to church. But we are either too diffident or too exclusive to show that much interest in their spiritual welfare. We do not make them feel that they are wanted. Why not try to shake off this aloofness and be a little more thoughtful of our neighbor. Everybody likes to be invited to go places and we are sure our friends will be glad to come with us to church.

THE TITLES OF OUR CONFIRMATION TALKS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1. Jesus Christ, the Chief Cornerstone.
2. The Bible—Our Rule of Faith.
3. The Book of Common Prayer—Its History and Use.
4. The Creeds of the Church.
5. The Holy Sacraments.
6. Bishops, Priests and Deacons.
7. Christian Symbols.
8. Christian Fundamentals—Faith, Hope, Love.
9. The Mission of the Church—The Salvation of the World.
10. The World's Need of Christianity.
11. The Great Question—"Who shall I send?"
12. The Christian's Answer—"Send Me."
13. Testifying for Christ.
14. Final Confirmation Instructions.

The 1932 Class for Confirmation will be presented Sunday, May 22nd (Trinity Sunday), at 8 o'clock. Incidentally, this is the date of our Rector's twentieth Anniversary. As usual, we will celebrate the Anniversary on that day. The programe will be:

Celebration of the Holy Communion	10.30 A. M.
Parish Dinner	12.30 P. M.
Special Sunday School Exercises	2.30 P. M.
Parish Visiting (to the aged sick and shut-ins)	4.30 P. M.
Parish Supper	5.30 P. M.
Confirmation Service (Bishop Tait Officiating)	8.00 P. M.

We are drafting every St. Johnite into the Army

To Save Time, Trouble and Worry Buy at

PETE'S MEAT MARKET

Northwest Corner
2d and Reed Streets

At Pete's the Customers Are Always Right

WM. A. PENTON & BRO.

PRINTERS

704 Chestnut Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 SOUTH STREET
Formerly S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Nan's Beauty Shoppe
129 Dudley Street
South Phila.

Manicuring	35c		Eye Brow Arch 35c
Shampoo	35c	3 Specials
Fingerwave	35c	$1.00	Hot Oil Treatment 35c
Marcel	35c

of Missionaries to make the 1932 Confirmation Class the best ever presented in St. John's Church. Every parish organization is expected to put forth special efforts to bring in the non-church friend and neighbor. Every Sunday School Class led by its teacher, the Brotherhod of St. Andrew; the Junior Brotherhood; the Girl Scouts; the Choir; the Daughters of the King; the Woman's Auxiliary; the Men's Club of St. John's Parish; the Young Women's Christian League and all members of the Parish who are not attached to any of these Societies are expected to combine in THE BIG PUSH FOR CONVERTS. THIS IS NO TIME FOR OBSTRUCTIONISTS OR SLACKERS. Every man, woman and young folk has his work cut out for him in this campaign and we expect him to do his best for Christ's sake.

DEAR READER: THIS MEANS YOU

CONFIRMATION

Mission of The Transfiguration

The occasion of Bishop Taitt's annual visit to the Mission of the Transfiguration on January 10, 1932, for the purpose of administering Confirmation will long be remembered by those who attended this service.

The Altar was beautifully decorated with white carnations donated by members of the congregation. Our class of fourteen candidates, ranging in age from 9 to 80 years, was presented by our Missionary-in-charge, the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry. The Church was filled to its capacity, there being 106 persons present.

The Mission Choir was augmented by several guest singers from the Philadelphia Men's Choir, which is affiliated with St. Clement's Church, 20th and Cherry Streets, and also a member of the Brahms Chorus and others from West Philadelphia. The anthem, "Oh, For a Closer Walk With God," by Myles B. Foster, was especially suitable for the occasion, and the singing added greately to the service.

The congregation was pleasantly surprised at the close of the service with an announcement by Mr. McHenry that our Bishop wished to have the Altar brass relacquered and burnished as his personal gift to the people of the Mission. The Bishop's wish has been complied with, to the delight of the congregation. We extend to him our sincere appreciation of his kindness to us.

His beautiful and inspiring message on the Epiphany still lingers in our hearts.

E. Edgerton Proffitt,
Lay Missionary.

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
Funeral Directors
M. A. Bair, President
1820 Chestnut St., Phila.
Rit. 1581 Race 1110
Subject to Call at Any Hour From Anywhere

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118
We Telegraph Flowers
FRANK C. QUINN
Florist
Member F. T. D.
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452
Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING
Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648
Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers
UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER
230-232 Queen Street

Licensed in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania

CHARLES W. NAULTY

George C. Toppitzer

Successor

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

N. E. Cor. Third and Pine Sts.

Philadelphia, Pa.

Drexel Hill, Pa.

It Can't Be Done—

WHO SAYS SO?

The man who never tries.

The man who is afraid to work.

The man who watches the clock.

The man who lives on Easy Street.

The man who thinks money will buy success.

The man who says the world owes him a living.

The man who doesn't know an opportunity when he sees it.

The man who never uses his own head, and refuses to use other people's.

The man who carries a rabbit's foot instead of using horse sense.

The man who thinks clothes make the man, when in reality they only fake the man.

The man who fears to take a chance; to whom courage looks like recklessnes.

The crepe hanger and the sound artist who always is "agin" the Government.

The man who turns night into day and finds out too late that the key to success is not a night latchkey.

The man who tried to get to the top of the ladder without starting at the bottom. He thinks the successful man is a fake and a fraud.

KATHRYN'S
Candies and Chocolates
1735 South Second Street
FRESH COCOANUT EGGS AND NOVELTIES

A FEW OTHER LITTLE THINGS

A woman, who happens to be the wife of a minister, received the following requests in one week and responded to them: To give a devotional talk at a missionary convention; to act as judge in a temperance contest; to entertain the Epworth League; to write up a fiftieth wedding anniversary; to bake a cake for a supper; to examine papers in a high school contest; to write a toast for a high school banquet; to be chairman of a decorating committee; to play for the evening prayer meeting; to be chairman of a committee for a special program; to drill a missionary pageant; to call at the hospital on some sick folk —and she had time for a few other little things, such as her housekeeping.

—From the Christian Register

GOOD Luck means the duties you may have done well, the handicaps you have suffered manfully, the disappointments you have faced with a grin. Any opposite plan is sure to mean bad luck.

—Silent Partner

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 6, No. 4 PHILADELPHIA, APRIL, 1932 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Director
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. Harry McCall
Mr. John F. Preole
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. James Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Joseph Cooper
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Vernon Matthews, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Frank Drumm, Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Charles Little, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King
Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50
Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League
Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Bryan, Geraldine Amelia
Haverty, Harry Newman
Jaeschke, Ethel Amanda
Murray, Joseph Aloysius
Stilling, Betty Lorraine
Stilling, Louis Jonas
Stilling, William Harry
Westenberger, Henry

BURIALS

Dillon, Minnie L.
Derr, Joseph W.
Fisher, Margaret W.
Weddell, Thomas E.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.30
Evening Service and Address		8.00
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew		7.30
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

EASTER AT ST. JOHN'S

The Crowds Were Big and the Enthusiasm Was High

Easter at St. John's is always the leading event in the Parish. Every service is crowded with worshippers. The chancel is fragrant with a profusion of blooms. The music is rendered with exceptional beauty and grace by a choir of young men and women who love to sing. The number of communicants making their Easter Communion is large and indicates the healthy spiritual condition of the Parish.

Owing to a painful accident to the Rector, who a week before Easter slipped on the front steps of his home and injured his back, the Rev. Dallas E. Buzby, of St. Lawrence University, Canton, New York, officiated at the 6.30 celebration and also took charge of the service at the Mission of the Transfiguration at 7th and Bigler streets. The Rector was able to celebrate at the 11 A. M. service and officiate at the Sunday School Easter Service at the church.

THE EARLY CELEBRATION

The 6.30 celebration, as usual, was the most beautiful service of the day. The rays of the rising sun shone through the great rose window and flooded the chancel with a thousand beams of colored light. The beauty of the new chancel was beyond description. The church was crowded with worshippers. The number receiving their communion was much larger than usual.

EASTER AT THE MISSION

After the first celebration Dr. Buzby administered the Sacraments to sixty communicants in the beautiful chapel of the Mission of the Transfiguration.

RECTOR CELEBRATES AT THE CHURCH

Before the second celebration at the church the Rector bestowed the collar of merit upon a number of choir members who had made an absolutely perfect record of attendance at choir rehearsal and services during the Lenten season. Those who received the collar were: Elizabeth Rutter, Thelma Sutterlin, Margaret Kensil, Jeremiah K. Rutter, Harry McCall, James Rutter, Heber Rutter, Martha Lafferty.

Special mention is made of Martha Lafferty, who won a collar last year and was perfect in attendance this year.

The second church service was as largely attended as the early service. The Rector celebrated and Mr. Buzby administered the sacraments. One remarkable feature of both services was the big percentage of men and boys who made their Communion. The number receiving were as follows: Women and girls, 255; men and boys, 171; total, 426. Adding to this the sixty communicants of the chapel, 486 persons of the parish made their Easter Communion.

Another remarkable feature was the size of the Easter Offering received, which amounted to $450.12 for the two services. It must be borne in mind that St. John's Parish is a working man's parish. In these days of distress our parishioners are having a strenuous time making ends meet, yet they find a mite to spare as their offering to the Lord. We are sure the Lord will bless these gestures of true worship by our people and will not let such efforts go unrewarded.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EASTER SERVICE AND LENTEN OFFERING

The Sunday School Easter Service was a success in every way. The church was crowded with children who were full of the Easter spirit. The programs of the Kindergarten, Intermediate and Senior departments were well rendered. The singing of the children of the Intermediate department was worthy of special mention. About 200 of those present received the gold cross for attendance to all the services in Lent, including the Wednesday evening services. Every scholar was given a large chocolate egg, the usual Easter gift from the Sunday School. Also every boy and girl received a beautiful Easter card. While all these things were happening in the Sunday School the auditing committee was counting the Sunday School Lenten offering. Just as we concluded our program the committee submitted their report. We were astounded to learn that the offering amounted to nearly $1300.00. When all the receipts from entertainments, etc., are in the total will be well over that figure.

EASTER FLOWERS FOR THE SHUT-INS AND THE AGED

The last feature was the distribution of Easter flowers among the aged, shut-ins of the Parish and patients in Mount Sinai Hospital.

It was a wonderful Easter day. One we shall remember for many years. The greatest blessing of the day was the spirit of giving exhibited by all the children of God. Worship and offerings go hand in hand in St. John's Parish.

"Now We Must Paint The Church!"

Since the Renovation of the Chancel Everybody Agrees We Must

THE title of this article is a quotation from the lips of scores of St. Johnites. Since the renovation of our chancel the shabbiness of the church interior is emphasized to a startling degree. There is nothing for us to do but to raise the money and paint the church without delay. Your Rector engaged Mr. Gill to get estimates and samples for the job. He reports that the cost will be $1500.00. After the big things we have done this does not seem to be an impossible sum to raise. We asked Mr. Gill how much wall space there is to cover. He told us there is exactly 1500 square yards. That gives us something definite to work on. If it costs $1500.00 to cover 1500 square yards with paint, why then it costs just $1.00 to paint 1 square yard.

We have divided the church interior into:

1500 spaces of 1 square yard each.

"We are selling each square yard for $1.00.

"We are putting the proceeds from the sale into the Paint Pot.

"We have sold 10 square yards already, which leaves only 1490 to sell.

"How many square yards will you buy?

"How many square yards will you sell?"

If you and I get busy we can do this job before summer is over.

Our Bunny Party

This list of names are those who by contributing their EASTER OFFERING are eutitled to be rated as SUPPORTING MEMBERS of St. John's Church.

Ashman, Dorothy
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Mrs. Margaret
Adams, Mrs. Helen
Adgate, Kathryn
Adgate, James
Amerman, Mrs. Frank Jr.
Anonymous

Barnes, Mrs. Cecelia
Barnes, Mrs. Mary
Barnes, William
Barnes, Edward
Bauer, Catherine M.
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Mrs. Annie
Beisser, Mamie
Blech, Mrs. Jennie
Blech, Charles
Beck, John E.
Branton, Eva
Branton, John
Bricker, Mrs. Jennie
Brown, Edward, Jr.
Bunting, Walter
Bunting, Mrs. Agnes
Burkhardt, H.
Burkhardt, Mrs. Amanda
Burns, Katharine
Burns, George
Busch, Frederick, Sr.
Busch, Mrs. Susanna
Busch, Mrs. Lillian
Busch, John Henry

Clark, Mrs. Harry
Cunningham, Walter
Cunningham, Thomas
Cooper, Mrs. Annie
Cooper, Mrs. Helen
Carll, Mrs. Clara V.
Carbarnes, Elizabeth
Carbarnes, Anna
Carbarnes, Henry
Carbarnes, Mrs. Meta
Clark, Harry
Clendenning, Charles
Clendenning, William
Clendenning, Jennie
Clerico, Ferdy
Clerico, Mrs. Mattie
Colvey, George
Colvey, Maria
Connelly, Mrs. C.
Coyle, John
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Cressee, George, Jr.
Cressee, George, Sr.
Cressee, Mrs. Abbie
Cressee, Raymond
Crystal, Joseph
Crystal, Harry

Daughters of the King
Dart, Edward
Davis, Mrs. Margaret
Dean, Mrs. Mary
Dean, Ruth
De Costa, Mrs. Margaret
Deitrich, Marie
Dickhart, William
Dingler, Mrs. Annie
Downs, George
Dunbar, Irma Lorrine
Dunbar, Elizabeth
Dunbar, Mrs. Annie
Dupon, Annie
Dysert, John

Emberschied, Mrs. Annie
Evans, Thomas
Ewell, Thelma

Falck, Edward
Fanger, Harry
Fanger, Mrs. Anna M.
Feinauer, Mrs. Amy
Felder, Heywood
Fisher, M. Beatrice
Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Cath.
Fogarty, Andrew
Fogarty, Joseph
Fowler, Dolly
Friend, Mrs. Mary

Gallagher, Francis
Green, Mrs. Emma
Gresh, Mrs. Margaret
Green, William
Green, Joseph
Grubb, Mrs. Pauline
Grubb, Mrs. Wm.
Grubb, Marie
Gregory, Mrs. George
Gregory, George F.
Gregory, George
Greenfield, Mrs. Lydia
Greenfield, Robert
Griggs, Anna L.
Griggs, Mrs. Elizabeth

Hagan, Ida
Hagan, Charles
Hamilton, Mrs. Florence
Harper, Raymond
Hartman, Wm. Earl
Hartman, Wm. Earl, Sr.
Hartman, Rose
Hartman, John
Harris, Marie
Hasson, Wm.
Hasson, Mrs. Kate
Haury, Amelia
Haury, Mary
Henderson, James
Henderson, Irvin
Henderson, Theresa
Henderson, Mrs. Laura E.
Henderson, Laura
Hill, Mrs. Florence
Hill, William
Hill, Robert
Hill, George
Holton, Mrs. Margaret
Holton, Elizabeth
Holton, Margaret
Holton, Edna
Holton, Alice
Holton, Joseph
Hudak, Mrs. A.

Jackson, Elsie
Jaeschke, Gus.
Jaeschke, Mrs. Gus.
Jaeschke, Herman
Jaeschke, Elizabeth
Jeffers, Arthur
Jeffers, Richard
Johnson, Mrs. Nancy

Kelly, Anna
Kelly, Frank
Kelly, Sarah
Kelly, Mrs. Mary
Kelly, Raymond
Kelly, Mrs. Mary
Kensil, William
Kensil, John
Kensil, Margaret
Knowlton, Frank
Knowlton, Mrs. Anna
Knowlton, Frank, Sr.
Kohler, James
Kohler, Mrs. Ida
Knowal, Louis
Knowal, Joseph
Knowal, Mrs. Barbara
Knowal, Peter
Knowal, Michael
Korbal, Mrs. Frances
Kraft, Edward
Kraft, Mrs. Ornet
Krause, Mrs. Sarah

Lafferty, Martha
Lawrence, George, Sr.
Lawrence, Catharine
Lawrence, George
Lawrence, James
Lawrence, Mrs. Mary
Leach, Joseph
Leach, Bowman
Leach, May
Lenhardt, David
Lenhardt, Margaret
Lenhardt, Eleanor
Lenhardt, Mrs. Margaret
Lenhardt, David, Jr.
Little, Charles
Little, W. E.
Little, Joseph
Little, Mrs. Mary
Logue, Mrs. Margaret

MacVaugh, Mrs. Annie
MacVaugh, Sylvania
MacVaugh, William
Maguire, George
Maguire, Lydia
Maguire, Mrs. Eliza.
Marley, Mrs. Emma
Marnie, Thomas
Martin, Susanna
Matthews, Mrs. Martha
Matthews, Vernon
Major, William
McCall, William
McCall, Ella
McCall, Elmina
McCall, Harry
McDowell, Samuel
McDowell, Mrs. Mary
McHenry, Rev. H. Cresson

OUR BUNNY PARTY, Continued

McHenry, John E.
Meyers, Mrs. Mary
Meyers, Charles
Miller, Anna M.
Miller, Mrs. Dorothy
Miller, Robert
Miller, Eleanor
Miller, Warren
Miller, Walter
Miller, Dorothy
Morrison, Mrs. Frances
Morse, Mrs. Annie
Murphy, Mrs. Sarah
Murphy, Mrs. Margaret

Nelson, John
Nelson, Margaret
Nugent, Wm.
Nugent, Eleanor
Nuttal, Miss Hannah

O'Donnell, Mrs. Katharine
Oliver, Mrs.
Olson, Mrs. Genevive

Patterson, John
Patterson, Mrs. Carrie
Patterson, Mrs. Anna
Pearo, Mrs. Mary
Pearo, James
Pearo, Adelia
Pierce, Mrs. Eva
Pierce, Evelyn
Pine, Lillian
Preole, John C.
Preole, John F.
Preole, James
Preole, Ruth

Quaile, Clara
Quaile, William

Rand, Mrs. Mary
Rand, Andrew
Redding, Dorothy
Redding, Louise
Redding, Mrs. Frances
Reynolds, Leone
Reynolds, Mrs. Catherine
Reynolds, Jennie
Rhodes, John
Rhodes, William
Rhodes, Francis
Robins, Mabel
Robins, Mrs. Anna
Robins, Anna
Robinson, Mrs. Annie
Roddy, Mrs. Dora
Rudderow, Godfrey
Rudderow, Mrs. Bertha
Rutter, Catherine
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, James
Rutter, Jennie
Rutter, Michael
Rutter, Rose
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth
Rutter, Elizabeth M.
Rutter, Robert
Rutter, Jeremiah
Rutter, Ruth
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth

Sayres, Elmer
Sayres, Eugene
Schaab, Frederick
Schabacker, Anna
Schmidt, Mrs. Theresa
Schmidt, Frank
Schultz, Doris
Seher, Harry
Seher, Catharine
Seher, May
Seher, Thomas
Seher, Margaret
Shield, Mrs. Bella
Shoch, Mrs. Minnie
Silbert, Ella
Silbert, Philip
Silbert, Mrs. Ella
Silbert, George
Slimbach, Joseph
Snell, Hazel
Snell, Samuel, Sr.
Snell, Mrs. Katherine
Snell, Richard
Spratt, James
Spratt, Margaret V.
Spratt, Thomas
Spratt, John
Spratt, Finley
Spratt, Catherine
Spratt, John, Jr.
Spratt, John
Springer, Mrs. Annie
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, Webster
Stenger, Mrs. Laura
Stenger, Dorothy
Stockman, Robert
Stockman, Florence
Stockman, Harry
Stockman, Samuel
Stockman, James
Stone, William
Stone, David
Stone, Emily
Strang, Edward
Strang, Mrs. Elizabeth
Strang, Miss Carrie
Stryker, Harry
Substalae, Mrs. Florence
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Sutterlin, Thelma

Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Harry, Sr.
Tittermary, Johanna

Volpe, Peter
Vongalast, Jeanette

Ward, Carrie
Ward, Wm. H.
Ward, Abraham
Ward, Abraham, Jr.
Ward, Mrs. Carrie
Warren, Samuel
Watts, Sarah
Weber, Mrs. Lettie
Weber, John
Webster, Mrs. Margaret
Weist, Mrs. Florence
Weist, Charles Wm.
Weller, Mrs. Emma
Wilhelm, Catherine
Wilhelm, Mrs. Kate
Woerner, Eleanor
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Mrs. Hannah
Woerner, Rudolph, Sr.
Woessner, Mrs. Clara
Woessner, Miss
Woessner, Charles
Woman's Auxiliary
Woodruff, Joseph
Woodruff, Mrs. Mary
Woodruff, Howard
Woodruff, Walter
Woods, Mrs. Margaret

Young, Viola
Young, Mrs. Laura
Young, George
Young Women Christian League
Young People's Fellowship

THE RE-CONSECRATION OF THE CHANCEL

The Service Was Both Beautiful and Impressive

Wednesday evening, April 6th, Bishop Francis M. Taitt visited St. John's Church for the purpose of re-consecrating the new Chancel. The service will long be remembered by those who were present. As usual, the choir rendered the musical part of the program with power and ability. The Chancel was beautifully adorned with palms and the Altar was loaded with flowers. The church was well filled with members of the parish. Mr. William Dickhart, the generous donor of the new Chancel, was present at the service, accompanied by Mrs. Dickhart, their son and his wife.

The Order of Service was:

Processional—No. 86—Tune by Adam Geibel

Sentences, Lord's Prayer, Versicles

Psalter—Psalms 132 and 134

Lesson—1 Kings 8:26-53

Hymn—No. 202

Creed and Prayers of Consecration—Bishop Taitt

Notices and announcement that as all bills for the renovation of Chancel were paid and receipts in hand, we could proceed with its re-consecration in due form.

Hymn—No. 305
Consecration Sermon—Bishop Francis M. Taitt
Offering
Anthem—"The King of Kings"
Closing Prayer and Benediction by the Bishop
Recessional—No. 266

Bishop Taitt's sermon was a delightful mixture of reminiscence, wholesome advice, encouragement and humor. We were delighted with his address. One man said to the Rector, after the service, that he did not know a Bishop was so much of a human being and such a regular fellow.

Following the service, the Parish gave an informal reception to the Bishop in the Sunday School room. In the receiving line with the Bishop were the Rev. Walter Ware and the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry. Refreshments of coffee, crullers and cakes were served by Mrs. Pine and the young women of the choir.

We were glad to have Bishop Taitt endorse so heartily our wish to paint the interior of the church. Indeed he seemed to understand and applaud everything we are trying to do, and exhorted the members of the parish to follow the leadership of the Rector and co-operate with him in the big program of reconstruction he has in mind. He spoke of the need of cheerful team work in order to be successful in what we aim to accomplish.

Why Ought I Be Confirmed?

A Fair Question Which Should Be Fairly Answered

The primary reason why I ought to be confirmed is because without it I am in a spiritual state of incompleteness. In infancy, in Baptism I was made a member of Christ, a child of God and an inheritor of the Kingdom of Heaven. This honor was bestowed upon me because my sponsors promised and vowed in my name that I would renounce the devil and all his works, the pomps and vanities of this wicked world and all the sinful lusts of the flesh; that I would believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith; that I would keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of my life. In childhood I was taught to acknowledge the validity of my sponsor's vows and say that I was bound to do and believe as they had promised for me and that by God's help I would so do and believe. I was taught to heartily thank our Heavenly Father for calling me to this state of salvation through Jesus Christ our Saviour. And I prayed God to give me His grace, that I may continue in the same unto my life's end. In order that I might understand perfectly what my aquiesence to this program of Faith involved I was carefully taught what were the eight articles of Christian belief as contained in the Apostles Creed; what duties to God and my neighbor were set forth in the Ten Commandments; how to pray, by learning the Lord's prayer and what its petitions mean; what were the sacraments of the Church and how necessary they were to Salvation.

No stone was left unturned to train me up to a true knowledge of my standing and responsibilities. Nothing was hidden from me; nothing was misrepresented to me. My sponsors and the Church spent years in preparing me to accept and confirm these spiritual responsibilities when I had reached the age of knowledge of right and wrong.

Now that I've reached that age I must do one of two things. I must either go on and relieve my sponsors of their obligations by assuming them and confirming them or else I must repudiate their act in my behalf, deny my spiritual vows and obligations and renounce my standing as a member of Christ, a child of God and an inheritor of the Kingdom of Heaven. In other words, spiritually speaking, I am a man without a country because I refuse to swear allegiance to my King and take up my responsibilities of citizenship. Of course, I am at liberty to be an alien and an outcast if I so choose. But what advantage to me is such a state? Even if I do repudiate my King, my country and my country's laws, I am still responsible to them and will be judged and sentenced by them because, even though I repudiate them, I am still under their power and force. What a fool I am not to avail myself of my heritage and be a Prince in the House of God, instead of being a spiritual wanderer and a vagabond. SURELY I OUGHT TO BE CONFIRMED.

Come, See Our New Chancel

It Is an Improvement That Was Totally Unexpected

This is the way it started:

Several months ago, of a Sunday morning, our Rector was standing in the chancel while the choir was singing the Te Deum. His glance happened upon the carpet that covered the chancel. It looked shabbier than ever to him. He noticed, too, that the holes where the choir stood, especially on the men's side, were growing bigger and bigger. He wondered what we were going to do about it. Over sixty per cent. of our members were out of jobs and our Parish House mortgage had to be paid off. As usual, when in a tight place, he told the congregation there and then when he made his announcements that we MUST get a new floor covering for the chancel; that the carpet had become too hol(e)y even for the church.

Then He Dreamed on His Feet

He has a queer sense of humor. The incongruity of his request for a new floor covering at a time when everybody was having a hard time to make ends meet, and had to shave their church offerings in order to do it, set him jeering at himself. Under the influence of this humor he told the congregation what he wanted and watched their faces with sardonic humor as he developed his impossible plan. He said we ought to have the chancel tiled instead of carpeted. We ought to have the chancel rail relacquered. We ought to remove the broken choir benches and replace them with new cathedral chairs. We ought to enclose the choir and chancel with an iron grill work to remind the irreverend of the sanctity of the chancel, and we ought to have the lectern relacquered. Everybody in the congregation was smiling at him and knew he was dreaming on his feet. Such a plan, they knew, would cost about $1500.00. It was a nice dream.

Then His Dream Came True

There was a man sitting in the congregation who listened attentively to what the Rector said. After service he went home and thought it over. He was taken ill and asked the Rector to come and visit him. The Rector went that afternoon. After talking over various matters concerning the parish he stunned the Rector by saying that he had some money he thought he could spend on renovating the chancel He would get an architect friend of his to go into the matter and have the work done by Easter. The Rector isn't much good in manifesting his emotions, but you can wager that he was in a turmoil of gratitude inside.

The quiet man, who did this big thing for us, is Mr. William Dickhart. He was well acquainted with the story of the resurrection of St. John's Parish. He had built and lived at one time in the house that stood on the site of the Parish House. On many other occasions he had shown his interest in St. John's Church work and done many things to help and encourage us. We asked him to let us make this public announcement of the name of our benefactor. He was not at all enthusiastic for us to do so and reluctantly consented in order that it might be made a part of the record of the development of the work. We are glad he yielded, because his big act of generosity may inspire others of us to make gifts of money for the painting of the interior of the church. After Easter, and when times become normal, we are going to get a BIG PAINT POT that will hold about $2,000.00 in coin and we are going 'round the parish and get everybody to put in the price of a brushful of paint.

The Memorials We Uncovered

One interesting incident attending the renovating of the chancel was the number of memorials we found. We give a list of them here because there may be some surviving members who will remember the occasion of their being presented to the church. They are: THE ALTAR CROSS: A memorial to the Rev. Franklin Emerson Smith of the Diocese of Western New York. He was a personal friend of the Rev. George Albert Hanna, former Rector of St. John's Parish. It was presented by Miss Nuttall's Sunday School Class.

THE LECTERN: A memorial to Miss Susan McClain, who was the Sunday School organist, and died when she was about twenty years of age. The memorial was given by her mother, Mrs. Penrose A. McClain.

THE CHANCEL RAIL: A memorial to Mrs. Annie Frances Meyers, mother of Charles Meyers, now living at 522 Ritner street. The chancel rail was given by St. John's Infant class, where she taught for many years.

THE ALTAR DESK: Memorial to John A. Weber, Jr., son of John and Lettie Weber. He was about 7 years old when he died. The memorial was given by his parents.

THE CREDENCE TABLE: A memorial to Mrs. Annie Taylor Rawlings. Mrs. Rawlings was a shut-in. The Rev. George A. Hannah and several other of her friends gave the memorial. They made it a habit of holding religious services in her home. She lived on Moore street, between 7th and 8th streets.

THE REREDOS: A memorial to the Rev. George A. Latimer, first Rector of the Parish. It was designed by Mr. Walter Evans and made by Mr. Charles Woessner. The memorial was presented to the church by the members of the Parish.

THE ALTAR VASES: A Thank Offering by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Furniss for the recovery from illness of Mrs. Benjamin Furniss.

THE LITANY DESK: A memorial to James E. Murdock—a Shakesperian scholar and actor. It was presented by Mrs. Lewis Carey, neice of Mr. Murdock.

THE ALTAR BOOKS: Memorials to Mrs. M. M. E. McHenry, mother of the present Rector.

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

* * * * * *

It was a glorious Easter day.

The Sunday School Lenten Offering will be well over $1300.00.

Four hundred and eighty-six communicants made their Easter Communion.

St. John's choir deserve special mention for the splendid rendition of P. A. Schnecker's "The Story of Calvary" Good Friday night. Also for the fine Easter program they presented at both services on that day.

We were glad to have the renovation of the chancel finished for the Easter celebration. It added greatly to our Easter joy.

Now comes the painting of the church. Mr. Gill tells us it will cost $1500.00. Let's get busy and fill the PAINT POT with pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters, half-dollars, dollars and anything over we can afford. After doing so many big things we ought to put over this job with little or no trouble. Goodness knows the old church needs a new coat of paint after wearing the one it has for nearly eighty years.

We Want This Job Done This Summer

Confirmation service and the Rector's Twentieth Anniversary on Trinity Sunday, May 22d. Let's open the PAINT POT on that day.

Every Offering of the Day We Will Dump Into the Pot

SPECIAL OVER STATION S. T. J. C.: Mr. Gill reports there are 1500 square yards of wall space to paint. According to his estimate of $1500.00 for the job, this means that each square yard of wall space will cost $1.00 to paint.

How Many Square Yards of Space Will You Buy?
How Many Square Yards of Space Will You Sell?

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 SOUTH STREET
Formerly S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Nan's Beauty Shoppe
129 Dudley Street
South Phila.

Manicuring	35c		Eye Brow Arch 35c
Shampoo	35c	3 Specials
Fingerwave	35c	$1.00	Hot Oil Treatment 35c
Marcel	35c

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.

Funeral Directors

M. A. Bair, President

1820 Chestnut St., Phila.

Rit. 1581 Race 1110

Subject to Call at Any Hour From Anywhere

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN

Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother

(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel

305 EARP STREET

Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

THE MINSTREL TROUPE OF ST. JOHN'S MEN'S CLUB

THE CAST: James Rutter, Frank Knowlton, Heber Rutter, Samuel McDowell, Harry McCall, Harry Nelson, Charles Rutter, Joseph Cooper, "Chick" Reed, John Nelson, Bowman Leach, Richard Strohm, Nathaniel Oswald and Jeremiah K. Rutter.

KATHRYN'S
Candies and Chocolates
1735 South Second Street

What the Visitors Saw and Heard

They Came Doubting; They Left Convinced

An incident of interest took place on the morning of our Seventy-eighth Anniversary which we feel is worthy of record. At the Morning Service we noticed two gentlemen in the congregation who were strangers to us. Just before the Celebration they left the Church, but were met by two members of the Parish in the lower hall. They were invited to remain to the Celebration of the Holy Communion, but they declined, stating they were communicants of another parish and they were on their way to attend service in their own Church. They gave their reason for visiting St. John's that having heard a great deal about the activity of our parish, they determined to come and see for themselves whether it were possible for a downtown parish to accomplish what we are reputed to have accomplished. They frankly admitted they did not believe what they heard and thought the story of our development was colored with rosy tints which would not stand up under the searchlight of investigation.

Our two St. Johnites are loyal fellows and inquired proudly of the vistors as to their reaction, now they had paid us a visit.

They showed by their manner that they were greatly impressed by what they saw and heard. They honestly admitted they were surprised to find such an active parish in what they had always thought was a hopeless and an abandoned district. We suspect they imagined the bulk of our congregation came from distant points in the city. Our men soon convinced them that ninety-eight per cent. of our membership lived within easy walking distance of the Church. Our visitors avowed their intention to return to their home parish and tell what they saw at St. John's.

One of the men from St. John's told them they ought to pay a visit to our Sunday school that afternoon and see what a crowd of young people we had in the Parish. This remark seemed to increase their

Licensed in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania

CHARLES W. NAULTY

George C. Toppitzer

Successor

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

Drexel Hill, Pa.

N. E. Cor. Third and Pine Sts.

Philadelphia, Pa.

amazement. "How was it possible to successfully build up a live Sunday School in Southeast Philadelphia?" one of them remarked.

"Well," replied our loyal St. Johnite, "seeing is believing. So come this afternoon and look us over."

The visitors wanted to know how many were present at the Sunday School session on the previous Sunday. Our representative said "there were just two over three hundred." Again the light of doubt appeared in the eyes of our visitors. Our men realized the men thought they were "spoofing" them, so they threw down the challenge that they drop in unexpectedly some Sunday afternoon and see for themselves what our Sunday School was like. The visitors took up the suggestion and said they were going back and get two of their women members to pay our School an unexpected visit sometime in the near future. Needless to say we are looking forward with pleasure to their visit.

We are always glad to welcome strangers to our church, no matter what the object of their visits may be. We want everybody to know all about us and how we manage our church affairs. We have nothing to hide and we will get real pleasure in explaining the methods which have enabled us to succeed so well in our chosen field of labor. What we are doing any parish can do. Some of them can do it even better than we if they only have faith in God and confidence in themselves.

No place is too hopeless for the growth of the kingdom of God. IT SEEMS THAT GOD DELIGHTS IN PERFORMING MIRACLES. Paradoxical as it may seem, it is still true that THE MORE BARREN THE FIELD THE RICHER THE YIELD if the laborers work with faith in the Vineyard of the Master.

HOPE

"Tribulation worketh hope."

Watts, in his symbolic picture of Hope, shows us a young woman sitting upon a globe, blindfolded, and holding a harp in her hand. Every string of the harp is broken, like the shattered expectations of life; every string save one. Trembling, yet triumphantly, she strikes the last string of the harp of life, and it fills the night-sky with stars. If I were painting such a picture, I would select an old person—the face engraved with experience, the hands blue-veined and strong—like Simeon and Anna who waited in the Temple. Grown gray in hope, wise with a wisdom that grows not old, they waited, with a patience taught by time and tragedy, ready to receive the Gift of God in His own good time; hoping against the cynical facts of the actual, unwilling to believe that God would allow the human soul to be betrayed and mocked in its purest and highest insights. Youth is for Faith; old age is for Trust.

—Joseph Fort Newton

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 6, No. 5 PHILADELPHIA, MAY, 1932 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
Frederick H. Schaab
William Hasson
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Director
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate
Mrs John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Eleanor Woerner

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Walter Cunningham
Mr. Harry McCall
Mr. John F. Preole
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. James Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Joseph Cooper
Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Vernon Matthews, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Frank Drumm, Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Charles Little, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King
Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50
Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League
Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Hackett, Frank Franklin
Rogers, Raymond Harold
Rogers, Gustav Leroy
Rogers, Allen Russell
Rogers, Norman Leonard
Rogers, Lorene Margaret
Stein, Richard

BURIALS

Wylie, Caroline
Michaels, George
Dougherty, George
Scott, Mary

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.30
Evening Service and Address		8.00
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew		7.30
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

more enthusiastically. In order to do this we must feed, clothe, shelter and warm about 65 per cent. of the idle families in the parish. This means we must have a PERMANENT income of BIG proportions. WE NEED LEGACIES to found a fund to provide this income.

OUR CHILD CLINIC

It is not generally known; but the Mother's Dispensary and Child Clinic of St. John's is the largest in the City of Philadelphia. Every clinic day the Parish House is a bee hive of mothers, babies, doctors and nurses. Outside the building is a long line of baby coaches—three abreast. In the gymnasium are parked several more. In the front room all sorts of things are being done to and for a bevy of naked kiddies. They are being weighed, tested and generally inspected from their tiny feet to their hairless heads. The mothers, as well as the babies, are examined and advised as to what they must do for themselves and their infants—what diet, sunshine, soap and water and air must be administered in each and every case. In many cases it means milk, eggs, medicine, warm clothing and a multitude of other material things which cost money. And WE NEED LEGACIES to provide this money.

Twelve Reasons Why St. John's Parish Must Raise Funds

WE NEED LEGACIES

St. John's Community Activities Make It Imperative to Provide a Permanent Income to "Carry On"

The Church of St. John the Evangelist is more than a place of worship. It has grown into an important community center whose social influence and activities cover a big area of Southeast Philadelphia and touch the lives of thousands of families of the working class. Just now the message of material necessities is occupying a big share of our attention, for the Gospel of Jesus Christ is going to receive scant attention from a starving people. Praising God on an empty stomach takes a great deal more faith and devotion than most of us have. But, we must not think of not praising God; rather, we must think of ways and means by which we can praise God

Family Relief and Equipment

St. John's Church is the hub of a circle of more and varied nationalities than can possibly be found in any other parish of Philadelphia. Also, it is surrounded by hundreds of American working families who are destitute through idleness. Last November we tried to cope with the situation and called for a Harvest Home. We asked all communicant members of the Parish, who were fortunate enough to have jobs, to give one day's wage into a fund for the relief of our idle brethren and to bring a gift of provisions, fruit or groceries to church to be distributed among our poor. We did our best and gave all we could afford to give only to find we had not so much as relieved one per cent. of the distress about us. Our experience convinced us that WE NEED LEGACIES to provide us with a permanent income to help our worthy brethren.

Summer Outing Work

Last summer emphasized our need of a steady and a big income to do a real job. From the closing of the public schools until after Labor Day the Parish House swarmed with children daily. Seldom were there less than one hundred and fifty boys and girls present and many days there were more. Here the little ones found sanctuary from hot and dirty streets and from little houses packed with steaming and smothering heat. In a big, cool, airy room filled with all sorts of paraphernalia for games and exercise, they were so happy that they forgot all about the scorching heat of the streets. Then after a morning filled with fun, wholesome exercises and interesting occupations, they were called into the big Sunday School room where lunch was served to all. In many cases this lunch was the ONLY REAL MEAL OF THE DAY FOR THEM—at home the cupboard was VERY bare.

A Small Group of Mothers and Babies Awaiting Treatment

Daily Vacation School in Action

Once a week we could afford to give the kiddies an extra treat of ice cream and cake and to take them on an all-day picnic to the park, or in the country or on the river, where poverty was forgotten and the scorching, dusty, unhappy city was miles away.

Going on a Hike

The Original Shack-in-the-Pines

Then troops of these kiddies were sent to THE SHACK-IN-THE-PINES, Browns Mills, New Jersey, for a two weeks' vacation in the pine forests by Little Pine Lake, where hiking, canoeing, swimming, fishing and playing, along with stuffing one's self with great gobs of food, just about rounded out a glorious summer for all. Children who had looked ready to die of starvation when school closed returned brown as berries, active as fleas and so healthy they itched. What money we spent on them—AND IT WAS A LOT—was well invested. This summer we must begin all over again for it has been a dreadful winter and its effects upon the child member of the family have been pitiful. Had it been a cold and stormy winter the suffering would have been indescribable.

Last year we were fortunate in having the backing of certain wealthy and interested friends or we could not have done what we did. What of this year? Are they ready to do as generously by the Child of the

In the Forest by the Lake at Sundown

Unemployed? If they are, then we can repeat our summer relief for Southwark's thousands of children.

Yet, there is an element of uncertainty about an income which depends upon the continued interest and prosperity of sympathetic friends. WE NEED LEGACIES for a permanent fund from which we may derive an income to pay for this summer relief work for the Children of Southwark.

Paying the Rent and Buying the Coal

For a parish of working people we did pretty well in providing half and quarter tons of coal for our more unfortunate brothers. The big family welfare organizations professed that they were so overloaded with appeals for coal and rent, that they were forced to confine their charities to the most distressing cases of poverty. Of course, there was sense in that, but it did not make it easier or more comfortable for our needy neighbors. They needed fuel and shelter. We did not have much ourselves; but we gave gladly of what we had and were acutely distressed to find what very little good our efforts did. It seemed our poor little gesture of aid was about like a drop of water in the ocean. Miserably we confessed our inability to cope with the situation; we did not have the funds to properly relieve the suffering. Many died of Pneumonia, bad housing, insanitary condition, improper food and insufficient clothing, while we stood helplessly by and could not afford to get a doctor and buy them medicine. Yes, there were the hospitals and scores of them were admitted for treatment. Families were broken up and individual members scattered among public institutions and private homes. Many fathers and older brothers left home to tramp from city to city seeking a job so that they might send some money back to home. Many were tempted to bootleg bad whiskey to raise a few dollars to keep body and soul together. But the suffering of unemployment was too strong for us. Our resources were exhausted and the future anything but rosy. WE NEED LEGACIES to establish a permanent fund, the income from which will enable us to relieve this undeserved poverty and suffering.

Return to Port

A Pyramid of Fun

WE ARE ASHAMED TO STAND IN THE PULPIT OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH SUNDAY MORNING AND EVENING PREACHING THAT GOD WILL PROVIDE WHEN WHOLE FAMILIES AND LITTLE CHILDREN HAVE NOT ENOUGH BREAD TO SATISFY THEIR HUNGER.

WE NEED LEGACIES

In the meantime, we must receive contributions to "carry on."

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, situated at the Northwest Corner of Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, the sum of.....Dollars ($.....) to be added to a Permanent Fund, the INCOME of which to be used for the relief of poor families, especially children of the Parish.

$1367.27

Less Than Last Year, But More Than We Expected

Everybody knew we could not raise as large a Lenten Offering this year as we did in previous years. The reason was perfectly obvious. St. John's Parish is a working man's parish. The job is the thing. If he loses it he stops paying rent, buying coal, eating and lots of other things. Over eighty-five per cent. of the Parish are either permanently idle or working on part time only. How to support a family on nothing a week becomes the working man's problem. He naturally tries to adjust himself and family to such a budget by a process of strict elimination. What expenses are not necessary for the actual support of his family are cut out. In the majority of cases the first item of expense to be expunged is his church dues and obligations. We do not criticize him for that, because self preservation is the first law of nature and, if the issue is either feeding one's hungry children or converting the heathen, we are naturally and enthusiastically in favor of trusting in the Lord for the welfare of the heathen while we fill the tummies of the kiddies with grub.

These conditions of stress are the cause of our Lenten Offering shrinking this year. The money that previously went into the Lenten Box was diverted to the family budget.

Please do not think we are apologizing for giving only $1367.27 to missions. On the contrary we are boasting. If we are able to raise such a sum under such depressing conditions what would it have been if it had been a year of prosperity? We congratulate the Parish for such a splendid gift to the Missions of the Church. From reports we received of other Parishes we have no reason to be ashamed of our efforts. They did not do so well themselves.

ALREADY WE HAVE BEGUN TO RAISE OUR LENTEN OFFERING FOR 1932.

Have You Earned Tomorrow?

Is anybody happier because you passed his way? Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today? This day is almost over and its toiling time is through. Is there anyone to offer a kindly word of you?

Did you give a friendly greeting to the friend who came along or a churlish sort of "Howdy" and then vanish in the throng? Were you selfish, pure and simple, as you rushed along your way, or is someone mighty grateful for a deed you did today?

Can you say tonight in parting with the day that's slipping fast, that you helped a single brother of the many that you passed? Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said? Does a man whose hopes were fading now with courage look ahead?

Did you waste the day or lose it, was it well or poorly spent? Did you leave a trail of kindness or a scar of discontent?

As you close your eyes in slumber do you think that God would say, you have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today?

—Author Unknown.

CHARLES LITTLE

High in the lists of active folks of St. John's Parish bears the name of CHARLES LITTLE. For more years than we can recall Charlie has been coming to the Church and has occupied many important positions. First, he was a member of the Church Choir, then he was prominent in the old St. John's Club and very active in its athletic sports. He has been the Director of the Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew for several years. He is a Layreader of the Church. He is an active member of the Parish Committee. He was Assistant Superintendent of the Sunday School. He was Councillor of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew. He is Chairman of the Visiting Committee of the Brotherhood and he is the newly appointed Truant Officer of the Sunday School, a position which is as important as it is unique. His work is to go over the attendance cards of each Sunday School Class, take off the names and addresses of the absentees and then, during the week, visit the home of the delinquent and learn the cause of his absence. In many cases he learns that it is sickness or lack of clothing or some other cause just as serious that is keeping the scholar away. Sometimes he finds that there seems to be no excuse except indifference and lack of interest. Sometimes he finds the boy or girl has been playing "hookey" without the knowledge or consent of the parents. When Charlie comes snooping around such a boy or girl's home, it's just too bad for him or her when the parent hears the news.

We gave Charlie the title of Sunday School Truant Officer, not because he is a fearful creature to be dreaded really. But just because we wanted to be different and give him a name that everybody would know the meaning thereof. Of course, we know that a real truant officer is not constantly chasing truants. He is more or less of a friendly visitor and does lots of good in families where there is sickness or poverty or sorrow. That's the kind of Truant Officer is Charlie Little. He is popular with St. John's folks just because he is always trying to do somebody a good turn.

It is sometime since we gave a character sketch of a St. Johnite and it is with real pleasure we acknowledge the work Charles Little is doing for the parish. May he give many more years of service to his beloved Church.

Friendly Obstacles

For every hill I've had to climb,
  For every stone that bruised my feet,
For all the blood and sweat and grime,
  For blinding storms and burning heat,
My heart sings but a grateful song—
These were the things that made me strong!

For all the heartaches and the tears,
  For all the anguish and the pain,
For gloomy days and fruitless years,
  And for the hopes that lived in vain,
I do give thanks, for now I know
These were the things that helped me grow!

'Tis not the softer things of life
  Which stimulate man's will to strive;
But bleak adversity and strife
  Do most to keep man's will alive.
O'er rose-strewn paths the weaklings creep,
But brave hearts dare to climb the steep.

—L. E. Thayer in "Our Church."

Some day people will learn that material things do not bring happiness, and are of little use in making men and women creative and powerful. Then the scientists of the world will turn their laboratories over to the study of God and the spiritual forces, which as yet have hardly been touched. When that day comes the world will see more advancement in one decade that it has in the past four hundred years.

—Dr. John R. MacKay.

The Deacon and the Frog

A Deacon was on his way to church one Sunday morning, dressed in his best and with his shoes nicely polished, when he heard his name called from a mudhole near the roadside. Down in the hole was a big bullfrog.

"I have been in here three days," said the frog, "without anything to eat, and I wish you would help me out."

The deacon looked at the mud and looked at his shiny shoes, and remembered that he had to pass the collection plate in church, so he replied:

"I'm sorry, old man, I cannot help you now, but on my way back from church I'll give you a lift out of the hole."

As he came back from church he was surprised to find the frog sitting in the middle of the road.

"I thought you said you couldn't get out of that hole," said the deacon.

"I thought I couldn't either, until a snake came along and I just had to get out," replied the frog.

It was my first sermon at my new charge. At the close of the discourse I announced Hymn 560, from the list given me by the chorister. To my great chagrin the audience sang: "And are we yet alive, And see each other's face?"

GEORGE WASHINGTON

When I grow up to be a man—
You know, when I get big—
I'll be just like George Washington,
An' wear a long white wig.

Low shoes with silver buckles on,
Silk stockings an' red vest.
I'll have white lace sewn in my sleeves,
A cane an' all the rest.

I'll try to be as good as he,
An' keep my thinking high,
An' get to be a president,
An' never tell a lie!

—From Grace Porter Polk.

OUR FELLOWSHIP

What It Has Done. What It Is Doing

St. John's Young Peoples Fellowship has been in existence for several years. Every Sunday evening its members meet for a short devotional and business service and for the purpose of taking up exceptional studies of the Holy Bible. The course is what might be termed a post graduate course of the Sunday School work. We have covered many important subjects, such as the missionary journeys of St. Paul, the geography of the Holy Land, the journeys of Jesus Christ and a study of His miracles and Parables. Also, we have studied the Epistles of the New Testament, learning when they were written, by whom they were written and their contents. Also, we gave much time in the study of the new Book of Common Prayer. Each service was taken in turn and the difference, noted between the new and the old Prayer Books. This year we have spent much time on a study of the Psalter. We have learned how many books of Psalms there are in the Psalter, how many Psalms in each book, who wrote the Psalms, the special days on which the Church uses special Psalms. The special selections of Psalms, what are impractory psalms, what are Messianic psalms, and many other interesting questions concerning the Psalter.

Since February we have taken up a study of the Pentateuch as a whole and are now devoting our attention to the Book of Genesis. We have studied it in the light of its probable authorship and the part Moses might have played in its compilation, using chosen passages from the book itself to help us. Of course, we could not touch the Elohistic controversies in our work because our members are not sufficiently trained in the Hebrew significance of the ancient names of God to permit it.

In order to get an intelligent idea of the construction and contents of Genesis we have broken down the book into fourteen sections. It is our purpose to select portions of each section for reading so as to give us a general idea of its contents. The method we have used is as follows:

1.—The first Creation, Chapters 1 and 2 to V 3.
2.—The second Creation, Chapter 2:4-25.
3.—The Story of the Fall of Man, Chapter 3.
4.—The Birth of Seth, Chapter 4.
5.—The Generations of Adam, Chapters 5 to 6:8.
6.—The Generation of Noah, Chapters 6:9 to 9.
7.—The Generations of Sons of Noah, Chapter 10 to 11:9.
8.—The Generations of Shem, Chapter 11:10-26.
9.—The Generations of Terah, Chapters 11:27 to 25:11.
10.—The Generations of Ishmael, Chapter 25:12-18.
11.—The Generations of Isaac, Chapter 25:19 to Ch. 35.
12.—The Generations of Esau, Chapter 36:1-8.
13.—The Generations of Esau in Mt. Seir, Chapters 36:9 to Ch. 37:1.
14.—The Generations of Jacob, Chapter 37:2 to Ch. 50.

Our studies involve quite a considerable memory work which help us to hold the main facts of events ever in mind.

The work we are doing is served out in such small doses, owing to our limited amount of time, that we are scarcely conscious of the mass of material we have acquired. We can scarcely believe we have covered such a wide area in Bible and Prayer Book study.

However, we would not have you believe that we have done nothing but meet every Sunday evening for such exercises. The members of the Fellowship have helped the Parish in many of its financial adventures. From the beginning the Fellowship has made its donations to the Christmas, Easter and Coal Funds. Also, the Fellowship has ever been among those present in raising funds for special occasions and for special purposes. Such, for instance, as Anniversary donations, curtain for Parish House Stage, refreshments for entertainments, books for plays, donations to the Harvest Home for the poor and other objects too numerous to mention. On a conservative estimate we would say that the Fellowship has contributed $350.00 to parochial and extra parochial purposes. We are not relying on estimates altogether in making up this figure. We have an itemized account which covers only a part of the gifts the parish has received from this particular society.

WE MEET AT 7.30 P. M., EVERY SUNDAY EVENING AND WILL GLADLY WELCOME VISTORS OR ANY PERSON WHO WOULD LIKE TO BECOME A MEMBER.

Our purpose in writing this article is to give credit for study and service to a band of young folks who are not always recognized when we are thinking of the builders of our Parish. The Rector takes a strong personal interest in the Fellowship and hopes the day is not distant when all the young people of the Parish will be united in the Fellowship and using their full strength for the growth and betterment of St. John's Church.

Unseen Beauty

In the wildness of the forest waits full many a lovely thing
Which shall some day be discovered by a wanderer in spring.
And in every heart, I fancy, like a forest violet,
Lies some hidden bit of beauty that is undiscovered yet.
—Edgar A. Guest.

The Better Way

If you should not like your preacher,
Do not advertise your view;
Ask the Lord to make him better—
And to make you better, too!

Reverend Mose Johnson arose one Sunday morning and made the following announcement, "Now, brudders an' sistern, we done tried in ever' honest way to raise money fo' dis yeah chu'ch, but you all don't come across, so we's done decided dat owin' to de fack dat you won't carry out our honest proposals, we gonna have a bazaar!"

Folks

Folks are you and me—that's all. As seen through other eyes;
Some seem good, some seem bad and some seem wondrous wise,
And some seem stupid, dumb and dull, and some seem fine to see:
But good or bad, blithe or dull—folks are you and me.
—Jos. R. Cushing.

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 SOUTH STREET

Formerly S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

Nan's Beauty Shoppe
129 Dudley Street
South Phila.

Manicuring	35c		Eye Brow Arch 35c
Shampoo	35c	3 Specials
Fingerwave	35c	$1.00	Hot Oil Treatment 35c
Marcel	35c

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
1820 CHESTNUT STREET
NO CHARGE FOR USE OF FUNERAL PARLORS
RIT. 1581 M. A. BAIR President RACE 1110

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

Bell Phones, Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

Joseph J. Roberts & Brother
(James A. Roberts' Estate)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

AUTOS TO HIRE 1430 South Third Street

CHAIR CANING
UPHOLSTERING SEWING
PLAIN SEWING

Mrs. R. Henkel
305 EARP STREET
Slip Covers and Cushions a Specialty

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

BROADCASTING FROM STATION S. T. J. C.

* * * * * *

The Sunday School Lenten Offering was nearly $1400.00.

Some folk waste a lot of energy climbing mountains before they reach 'em.

Our S .S. Truant Officer is doing wonderful work and is getting real results.

Men wonder why the moth insists on flying in the flame and then go out and try to beat a locomotive to the R. R. Crossing.

Rumor has it that the Brotherhood of St. Andrew Chapter of St. John's Parish is growing rapidly.

Some people actually believe their troubles interest other people.

When a man gets his salary "docked" is that when his ship comes in?

The price of painting the interior of the church is $1500.00. The number of square yards to be painted is 1500. In other words every $1.00 you put in the paint pot means another square yard of paint paid for.

Why were vitamins put in spinach and cod liver oil and not in candy and cakes?

We want more Ads for the "Broadcaster."

Remember the Strawberry Festival, JUNE 10TH. Admission and strawberries and ice cream all for 25 cents. Wanamaker charges more than that for just ice cream.

Why use anti-knock on your auto when you need a dose yourself?

We want more $1.00 subscriptions for the "Broadcaster."

We'll have to find something besides old shoes to throw at the bridal couple. We need 'em now to walk in.

"Some of our young people are so versatile in conversation that they are able to say 'Oh Yeah' in four or five different ways." Bunting's Quill.

We have 370 muscles in our bodies while a caterpillar has more than 4000. Which would you rather be if you were a victim of muscular rheumatism?

SATAN AND THE GOSPEL

"Again, when, at sometimes, I have been about to preach upon some smart and searching portion of the Word," said John Bunyan, "I have found the tempter suggest and say—What! will you preach this? This, of which you are yourself guilty? Do not preach upon that subject today. Or if you do, mince it down so as to escape the condemnation yourself. But I thank the Lord I have never consented to these satanic suggestions. Let me die, said I, rather than water down the Word of God."

SUNSHINE AND RAIN

If you should see a fellow-man
  With trouble's flag unfurled,
An' lookin' like he didn't have
  A friend in all the world,
Go up an' slap him on the back,
  An' holler, "How d'do?"
An' grasp his hand so warm he'll know
  He has a friend in you.
Then ask him what's a-hurtin' him,
  An' laugh his cares away,
An' tell him that the darkest night
  Is just afore the day.

This world at best is but a hash
  Of pleasure an' of pain.
Some days are bright and sunny,
  An' some all sloshed with rain.
An' that's just how it ought to be,
  For when the clouds roll by
We'll know just how to 'preciate
  The bright an' smilin' sky.
But always keep rememberin',
  When cares your path enshroud,
That there is lots of sunshine
  Hidin' just behind the cloud.

RULES FOR READING THE BIBLE

The Bible is a weapon and like all weapons, it has to be mastered. The principles of Bible mastery may be given in these five short but big words:

1. READ. The Bible, like any other book, must be read for its story and message. Therefore, read sensibly, seriously and steadily.

2. THINK. The Bible is meant to be understood. It is not a puzzle or a conundrum or a charm. Its message is meant for us. Give your mind to it.

3. PRAY. While the Bible is like any other book, it is also unlike other books. Its message is spiritual and only the Spirit of God can make it plain. Therefore pray as you read.

4. SPEAK. Books are meant to be talked about. We appreciate more the books we enjoy when we compare notes with others who have read them. Talking to others about the message of the Bible gives the approach to spiritual fellowship and religious opportunity.

5. ACT. The appeal of the Bible is to the will as well as to the understanding and the heart. The Word of God is not merely to be heard; it is to be obeyed. Translating the Word of God into life will make its language beautiful and powerful.

Licensed in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania

CHARLES W. NAULTY

George C. Toppitzer

Successor

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

N. E. Cor. Third and Pine Sts.

Philadelphia, Pa.

Drexel Hill, Pa.

The Measure of a Man

Not—
"How did he die?"
But—
"How did he live?"
Not—
"What did he gain?"
But—
"What did he give?
These are the units
To measure the worth
Of a man, as a man
Regardless of birth.
Not—
"What was his church?"
Nor—
"What was his creed?"
But—
"Had he befriended
Those really in need?"
Not—
"What did the sketch
In the newspaper say?"
But—
"How many were sorry
When he passed away?"

BIBLE KNOWLEDGE

We feel sure that the following incident could be duplicated many times and places:

"It was Sunday morning in a men's class in a famous Presbyterian church school. 'Will you please tell me,' said a member to the teacher, 'how far in actual miles Dan is from Beersheba? All my life I have heard the familiar phrase "from Dan to Beersheba," but I have never known the distance.' Before the answer could be given, another member arose in the back of the room, and inquired, 'Do I understand that Dan and Beersheba are the names of places?' 'Yes.' 'That is one on me. I always thought they were husband and wife, like Sodom and Gomorrah.'"

A student in a theological seminary spent a long time looking for the Epistle to the Egyptians.

TWO SEEDS

Two little seeds, quite long ago,
Were planted where they both could grow.
God planted them, and watched them through
The days to see what they would do.
Two little shoots came up one day,
And grew beside a woodland way.
They were so like, however well
One looked, no difference could He tell.

One said: "I'll live upon this tree,
And sting whatever touches me,
Caring alone for me and mine."
It grew to be a poison vine
The other said: "Ill live to bless
Each passer-by with loveliness;
I'll perfume every wind that blows
My way." It grew to be a rose.

—Clarence E. Flynn.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 6, No. 6 PHILADELPHIA, JUNE, 1932 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
B. Frank Drumm.
William Hasson
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Director
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Miss Dorothy Stenger

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Harry McCall
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. James Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Vernon Matthews, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Frank Drumm, Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Charles Little, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King
Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50
Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League
Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Milligan, Lillian Gertrude
Milligan, Clara Paulina
Milligan, Walter Leon, Jr.
Milligan, Frederick
Knight, Andrew Eugene
West, Eunice Frances

BURIALS

Strang, Edward
English, John H.
Grubb, Marie Catherine
Dans, Caroline

SUMMER CALENDAR

Summer Bible School	10.00 A. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	11.00 A. M.
Evening Song Service	8.00 P. M.
Holy Communion (1st Sunday in month)	11.00 A. M.

Christenings after morning service by appointment.

THE FLAG

By JOHN D. LONG

Like the grass swayed to and fro,
Over which the breezes go,
Like long tresses tumbling down
Rippling up from foot to crown,
Like billows rolling on the ocean,
Our glorious flag floats full and free.
Its matchless hues now interfuse
And now swell wide against the tide
That bloats its straining canopy.
Like smoke it wreaths in rills, and breathes
Its fainting blaze into the haze,
And slowly palpitates until
It lures the eye, as if it still Went rippling further through the sky—
The very poetry of motion!

Stars and stripes! Red, white and blue
Old thirteen, new thirty-two!
Afloat aloft on land or ocean,
There's not an eye with tears untraced
That sees thy glory in the sky.
There's no true heart that would not die
To keep thy scroll, no stripe erased,
No star obscured, still floating high,
There's no man, worthy to be free
Who doth not look and cling to thee
With all a patriot's devotion.

OUR 20th ANNIVERSARY

Like Its Predecessors, It Was a Time of Rejoicing and Thanksgiving to Almighty God for His Many Manifestations of His Love and Help

ANNIVERSARY COMMUNION

It was Trinity Sunday. We started the day with the Celebration of the Holy Communion. What an inspiring sight it was to see the pews of the big church filled with the faithful who had come to rejoice with us over the wonderful progress of the dear old Church these twenty years. Pews, which twenty years ago, were vacant. Pews, which all Southwark thought, would remain empty because there seemed to be none to take the place of those who had once worshiped there but had long since departed. How like a miracle it seemed to have such a crowd of enthusiastic worshipers gathered in the old church to celebrate an occasion which twenty years ago would have caused hoots of derision at what would then have seemed to be a mad dream of an incurable optimist.

But there we were! All coming to the Altar in long double rows of humans reaching from the Chancel to the Church door in several loops. Literally hundreds who had sprung up to take the place of the scores of former days.

The new Chancel was beautiful beyond description; scattered from the Choir to the Altar were big potted palms which gave the effect of a corner in a Southern garden. On the Altar were four big, beautiful bouquets of Baby Breath and shell-tinted Carnations. The beauty of it made one catch his breath. Again we are indebted to the Choir for their almost perfect rendition of the beautiful Communion Service and the Anthems. It was delicious to listen to the comments of the old-timers tell how superior our music is to what it used to be. When one recalls what wonderful organists and choir leaders old St. John's had in the days when the Church was young, we have good reason to be proud of our Choir, every member of which gives his or her best for the love of it. How fortunate we are in having so many who are so loyal to the dear old Church as to render such important service voluntarily. A great deal of our success can be credited to the loyal members of our Church Choir.

STATISTICS

We were merciful to the big congregation and did not preach a long, dry sermon about the multitudinous things we did in past years. We could have done so with pardonable pride, at that. But we had a feeling we would be liked a lot better if we refrained from presenting ourselves with bouquets of oratory and boil the details down to a few unromantic figures, which we did with this result: For the year just brought to a close we reported the number of BAPTISMS, 82; CONFIRMATIONS, 72; WEDDINGS, 14; BURIALS, 45.

THE PARISH DINNER

Do you know how to tell whether a dinner is good and the diners are enjoying it. This is the sure test: Just listen for the first twenty minutes after the dinner is served. If you hear a great chattering of tongues the dinner is nothing to brag about. If you hear a great clattering of dishes, knives, forks and spoons and very little talk, then you can bet your limit that the meal is good. Well, there was little conversation, but a mighty noise of dinner tools, at our Parish Dinner. Which meant the dinner was so good the diners had no time to talk about it. The meal was perfect and was perfectly served. Even the pretty waitresses who served Mrs. Pine's delicious cooking added zest to our appetites. Every time we glanced at one of them we involuntarily took an extra gulp, and there were so many of them that their comings and goings kept us gulping all the time until we were too full for utterance.

THE PARISH MASS MEETING

It was great baseball weather. Also, it was just the kind of day to tempt the weak to go to the shore; yet there was a big remnant of THE STURDY FAITHFUL who resisted temptation and came to our PARISH MASS MEETING in the afternoon. The program was a lively one. There was scarcely a minute wasted and everybody was occupied in doing something. First we sang the St. John Evangelist Hymn—tune by Adam Geibel—specially written by him for St. John's Church, where once he was Organist and Choir Master. Then, in quick succession, number after number of the program was presented in which the whole School was required to take part. At last we reached the place where BISHOP HIRAM HULSE of CUBA took over the service. First he presented Diplomas to teachers and scholars for Bible Work and Attendance. After which he gave a vivid and instructive description of his work as Missionary Bishop of Cuba. After the service several of the parishioners volunteered to do Parish visiting work among the aged, shut-ins and sick of the Parish.

SUPPER SERVED

At 5.30 P. M. supper was announced. The rumor of that dinner must have gone the length and breadth of the Parish. There were more than twice the number of guests for supper than were at dinner. And DID we enjoy it! All we had left were some potato chips, and they were being munched off and on after supper. So we suppose they, too, went the way of all good things finally.

CONFIRMATION

The greatest and pleasantest surprise of the day came at the Evening Service. Bishop Francis M. Taitt was present to confirm St. John's 1932 Class. Owing to so many being unemployed, we did not expect to have as large a class as usual to present. Imagine our amazement when we called the roll of Candidates before the service and learned we had SEVENTY-FIVE CANDIDATES present and prepared to be presented. We never thought to bring our 20th Anniversary to such a close. How good God has been to us and how grateful should the Parish be to Him for the great things He has done for us.

1932 CONFIRMATION CLASS

WOMEN

Carr, Elizabeth
Benson, Madaline
Brown, Lillian May
Edger, Amanda
Gallagher, Hannah
Hackett, Elmina Clark
Iseminger, Katherine Elizabeth
Jensen, Elizabeth Marie
Later, Margaret
Milligan, Clara Paulina
Moran, Mary Cornelia
Meneely, Lillian
McAvoy, Lillian Irene
Olsen, Anna
Vaughan, Ethel Martha

GIRLS

Anderson, Olive Anna
Beck, Mary Anna
Dean, Myrtle Ida
Dick, Gertrude Sally
Fanger, Anna May
Ferrell, Florence Josephine
Gallagher, Hannah May
Hager, Frances Lauretta
Hager, Verna Marcellus
Hallowell, Elizabeth Marie
Heisler, Frances Margaret
Kulacouch, Anna Marie
McKane, Beatrice Marie
Miller, Jean
Milligan, Clara Paulina
Mount, Anna May
Munion, Eleanor
Olsen, Blanche Marie
Raymond, Emma Jane
Rodebaugh, Dorothy Jane
Ross, Catherine P.
Stockman, Elizabeth C.
Seivert, Dorothy M.
Young, Mary
Zeigler, Frances A.
Zeigler, Anna F.

Total Forty-one

BOYS

Brown, Edward
Brown, William
Celestino, John
Garson, Robert
Griffith, Joseph
Hagen, Michael
Hackett, John
Kinsley, James
Lafferty, Alfred
Miller, Charles
Milligan, Walter
Nugent, William Joseph
Olsen, John
Outen, Charles
Robbins, Joseph
Rogers, Norman
Rogers, Raymond
Rodebaugh, Howard
Stilling, William
Stilling, Louis

MEN

Collins, Washington
Collins, William E.
Dolhnzyk, Michael
Endicott, Harry
Friend, W. Grant
Gallagher, John F.
Hagen, Charles
Later, Albert
Pentino, James
Pentino, Daniel
Stein, Richard
Vaughan, Thomas
Yeager, William
Zerichak, Thomas

Total Thirty-four

Seventy-five Women and Girls, Men and Boys, Were Members of the 1932 Class

RULES FOR THE NEWLY CONFIRMED

By the Rt. Rev. Francis M. Taitt, D. D.

Baptism is administered to infants. Christ is glad to receive them and has declared "of such is the kingdom of heaven."

Confirmation is an act of adult life. We know good from evil and we want to choose the good and reject the evil. Yet we know how hard it is to do this; and we need three distinct forces of help:

1. We want the ideals of good constantly held before us.
2. We want companionship of those of like ideals.
3. We want the impartation of grace or help from God to enable us to attain.

In Confirmation we stand before God and acknowledge ourselves bound

(a) to renounce what is evil.
(b) to believe what is true.
(c) to do what is right.

Yet we know how impossible it would be to do these three things unless we have God's special grace. The Bishop therefore immediately declares: "Our help is in the name of the Lord." It is in His name that we go forth. We expect Him to give us grace and strength and that expectation will never be disappointed.

Let me give you a few rules for Christian living. These rules as they become habits give to us an added help and pass into character:

1. In Confirmation you are admitted to the sacrament of the Holy Communion. That is the highest service of the Church. It is the one service commanded by Christ who said: "Do this in remembrance of me."

In the words of our Catechism, the benefit of this sacrament is "The strengthening and refreshing of our souls by the body and blood of Christ." We want to have our regular Sunday for the receiving of so divine a blessing. Select your Sunday and let nothing interfere with it.

2. Let no Lord's Day pass without attendance at church. It is a Divine command and like all such commands full of blessing. The preaching of Jesus Christ holds up the highest ideals of life and the love of Christ constrains us in the most winsome way to lead that life. Not to be at church is to cast contempt upon Christ.

3. Try to realize the companionship and fellowship of church membership. We are all banded together for devotion to Jesus Christ and the living of the Christian life. We can greatly help each other. Join in the activities of the church and become members of its organizations, for the purpose of everyone of which is the fuller realization of Christlike living.

4. Feel that the effectiveness of the church depends upon YOU and that in all that it does you want to have a part. Do not think that the church will "get along" without your help. Impart a feeling of welcome to all who come to your church.

5. Lay aside a definite portion of your income for deeds of charity; for the support of your Parish Church; and for the great work of the church through the world. A part of what you earn should rightfully be given to God; and when you actually have the portion laid aside you will be glad of the good causes to which you can give it.

6. Let your Bible be your companion and prayer the constant attitude of your mind. Have a definite time for Bible reading and a definite time for prayer. By so doing you will be able at any time to raise your heart to God.

7. Try each day to do something for God. Try to overcome some evil in your own life and to do some good to one of God's children.

Our Sunday School Excursion

Our annual Sunday School Excursion will be given on Saturday, July 16, to Riverview Beach. The price of the tickets is, children under 12 years of age, 25 cents; adults, 50 cents.

If, however, you are a member of either the Sunday School or the Church, you are entitled to reduced rates: Children's tickets, 15 cents; adults, 35 cents.

Do not wait till the last day before buying your ticket. Buy it when you have the money. See Mr. Joseph Leach or Miss Hannah Nuttall and get your ticket reserved by paying the price and giving your name. Your name will be written on the back of a ticket, which will be held for you when you want it. If you wait until the day of the excursion you may not have the money and will be forced to stay at home.

20th ANNIVERSARY ADDRESS

By Mr. Vernon Matthews

"We are here this evening to honor the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, who celebrated his 20th Anniversary as Rector of this Parish on Trinity Sunday.

Trinity Sunday, 1912, when our Rector held his first service in this church, with but only seven people in the congregation, who would have had faith enough and been optimistic enough to foretell the wonderful growth and development of this parish? And yet, from that humble beginning he has had the courage and fortitude to go steadily forward, improving the church materially and spiritually.

Everyone connected with St. John's Church knows of the condition of the buildings and grounds at that time. The many improvements are too numerous to mention in detail. Among the larger have been the laying of the cement pavement and the general improving of the outside of the church. Also a new roof and electric lighting system; the installation of a new organ; the paying of the mortgage on the church building; and his crowning achievement in the erection of our new Parish House, which cost very nearly $50,000.00. Also the reduction by a considerable amount of the mortage of $10,000 placed upon it. In the past year, through his efforts, Mr. William Dickhart made it possible to remodel and tile our Chancel.

Personally, I have had the privilege of working with him for the last ten years. Many of you here have been connected with this parish and have been of service to it for a far greater length of time. There are a few here whose services date back to that Trinity Sunday twenty years ago and beyond. I have no doubt that this 20th Anniversary recalls many memories, not only to the Rector, but to all of you. Many of those who were very prominent in the past years have passed beyond. Such names as William Forster, Mrs. Hannah Read, Mrs. Adelia Carr and Mrs. Annie Morozzi and many others whom I cannot recall, but are well known to you and the Rector.

We of St. John's are very fortunate that a man of the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry's genius was able and willing to dedicate his life to the service of God in this community. He has been a remarkable priest. We hear people on all sides remark about the beautiful and inspiring way he reads our services, especially the Order of the Holy Communion. As a preacher we of St. John's consider him second to no one. Practically everyone here this evening, myself included, has called upon him at some time in case of sickness, death or when in need of help and advice. Many of you have had to call upon him at times when perhaps it was not convenient for him to respond; and yet he has always been quick and willing to be of service in the hour of sickness, death, need or adversity.

I could not permit a time like this to go by without making some remark about our parish paper, "The Broadcaster." In it he has been able to find an outlet for that remarkable gift of writing which he possesses to such an outstanding degree. It is not only instructive, but interesting.

All these qualities combined with that natural leadership which he possesses have made it possible for him to make such great progress in his chosen work. And, above all, that great and constant faith which he has maintained at all times.

St. John's as a whole is very proud of the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, but the men of this parish admire him, not only as a priest, but also as a man. The men of this parish have always felt at ease with him and there is a true spirit of comradeship and brotherly love among them.

We can look to the past with a knowledge of his achievements, but now we are going to look forward into the future with a steadfast and firm determination that, with our co-operation and assistance, he will be able to lead us on to still greater achievements for the glory of God!

MR. McHENRY:—I wish it were possible for me to adequately express the love and affection that everyone feels for you. It would take an orator of far greater ability than I to do so. I feel deeply the honor and privilege in being permitted to try to express to you the feelings of this parish. You have worked for the past twenty years without a salary. You have given of your private means to aid the work. At a time like this, even though there are so many out of employment, we feel that we must show some material expression of our appreciation.

Therefore, I present to you, with love and affection, this token of our esteem, and congratulate you on your Twentieth year of service as Rector of this Parish and say to you that the Church of St. John the Evangelist is back of you in whatsoever you undertake, and may we all work together to the Glory of God for many more years to come."

VACATION DAYS

Days of Recreation or Days of Regret?

Vacation Days are dangerous days to those who are not wise and lack self-restraint. Ninety-nine and nine-tenths per cent. of us cannot possibly imagine vacation days being spent at home quietly and temperately. Weeks before vacation days most of us get rates from the seashore, the country or the mountains. Most of us are thinking of buying clothes and making dresses and having them "charged." Most of us are deep in the study of railroad time-tables and transportation rates. What we are aiming to do is to enjoy our vacation days to the limit of our purse—and beyond. When vacation days arrive and we are where we finally determined we would come, some of us act as though we left sanity behind and are trying to prove how crazy we can be. We do not relax, but we go tearing around from early morning till late at night, using up fifty per cent. more energy and nerve force than we would had we remained on the job. Then, too, we take the contents of the little old purse—every cent of which we need to pay our debts—and we scatter it with a prodigality and abandonment of a drunken sailor.

IT IS QUEER THAT WE NEVER STOP TO THINK THAT MONEY WASTED IN USELESS LUXURY AND FOOLISH EXTRAVAGANCE IS A SIGN OF INSANITY. Only the person who is mentally unbalanced would throw away such a valuable commodity as money. Wasteful spenders are the fools who make sharpers rich. Do not think you are proving yourself a devilish fine fellow and a real play boy and are making everybody gasp with wonder at your lavish extravagance, which you know you cannot afford. Were we betting we would give odds of a thousand to one that everybody is laughing in his sleeve at you and playing you for the fool you are. Always remember one thing: You cannot buy anybody's good opinion of you. The more money you spend in buying a reputation for being a jolly good fellow the more do you convince a bored public that you are crazy. In these days of no jobs and short wages every one ought to spend vacation days where the cost is modest and well within the capacity of the pocketbook. Nights at home and days in the open spaces about town within easy reach by trolley ought to be about the extent of our recreation. There are thousands of beautiful and cool nooks within easy distances of our homes where we can spend delightful days with a few friends and a box lunch. There are inexpensive river trips to interesting nearby places of amusement. There are scores of interesting spots within the city limits you have never seen, nor of which you have ever heard; places you ought to know all about. Every year thousands of visitors and tourists make Philadelphia their Mecca because of its beautiful location and rich historical setting. It would be great fun and a real education to plan a week's tour of the old home town this vacation to see the wonders and beauty spots that attract such multitudes from far and near. It may be a novel suggestion, but really it is a sensible one, i. e., for all Philadelphians to see Philadelphia during vacation days and save your money for your grocer, coal man, landlord and all who contribute to our wellbeing and who are trusting us to pay our just debts even in Vacation Days.

WHEN WINTER COMES THE WISE VACATIONIST WILL REJOICE, WHILST THE PRODIGAL VACATIONIST WILL BE BEGGING HIS BREAD.

Don't forget the Sunday School Excursion to Riverview Beach, Saturday, July 16. Tickets on sale now. Children under 12 years, 25 cents; all others, 50 cents. Members of Sunday School and Parish at reduced rates: Children, 15 cents; adults, 35 cents.

Do's For Your Vacation

DO try to remember you are a Christian and must so conduct yourself towards others, even while on your vacation.

DO remember your soul as well as your body needs refreshment and strength.

DO be sure to attend every means of Grace afforded you. Remember you cannot say you are too busy for such things—you are on a vacation from all business; therefore, you MUST have time for spiritual experiences.

DO be careful in spending your money. You have SO MUCH. And you must pay your CURRENT EXPENSES and your CHURCH EXPENSES. You MUST NOT run in debt.

DO be temperate in your pleasures. If you return to your job in a state of exhaustion you are cheating your employer who sent you away to give you a chance to rest up and become fit.

DO be careful not to make of your stomach a garbage pail and fill it every day with a mixture that would disgust a — —.

DO be considerate of others' feelings and be a gentleman (lady) if it kills you.

DO everything you can to make other folk happy, so that they will be glad to see you coming and sorry to see you going.

DO be yourself and don't pretend to be some fictitious nobody just for a pose.

DO your best in everything you undertake to do.

SUMMER SUNDAY EVENING SERVICES

Hours Which Are Well and Comfortably Spent

WHAT DO YOU DO ON SUNDAY EVENINGS IN THE SUMMER?

There are a score of replies to that question which, when boiled down to one concrete and honest answer, is: "WE ENJOY OURSELVES."

But what do you MEAN by enjoying yourself? Are you talking of a physical or of a spiritual enjoyment?

About a year ago we took time out to do a little snooping to see how folks really did "enjoy themselves" on Sunday evenings. The shock we got for our trouble was paralyzing. We saw things and we heard things we never knew entered into a Christian's life at any time, let alone Sunday evenings. From the screams of wild laughter, the yells of hilarity, the shriek of the radio and the noise of the Sunday evening dance we wondered whether the modern way of enjoying one's self did not have wicked old Sodom and abandoned old Gomorrah backed off the map. And these were SUNDAY demonstrations of mirth at that. We have studied church history more or less carefully, and we confess our failure to remember the time in the early Christian Church when Christians so far forgot themselves as to turn their Sundays into Bacchanalian feasts. In certain decadent periods men were pretty slack morally and spiritually, but they did not quite reach the low level that many of our non-Sunday evening service attenders seem to have attained in these days.

When we wrote the above paragraph we had in mind the most flagrant breaches of the Holy Sabbath Day. We did not mean to imply that all who stay away from Sunday evening service were abandoned wretches. No, not everybody is guilty of such vulgar desecration. Many members of the Christian Church are rather refined in their deafness to the call of the evening chimes to prayer. They have a car and take a quiet ride away from the church into the evening peace and beauty of the country. There in the coolness and the quiet they relax for a season and then come home.

Well, is there anything wrong with that picture?

No, no, of course not! They have enjoyed themselves in a perfectly innocent way. The most exacting moralist cannot criticise them for what they did. God made the country beautiful and cool for our enjoyment, and folks have a perfect right to indulge in these delights to their capacity.

BUT WHY PICK SUNDAY EVENING FOR THESE PLEASANT EXCURSIONS? You have six week-nights for such pastime. What is that you say? "You work hard all week and have a right to rest on Sunday"! Then why DON'T you rest instead of gadding?

You have been given an extra hour each day in which to play by daylight-saving time. You get a half-holiday every Saturday during the summer for golf, or tennis, or baseball, or boating, or fishing, or swimming, or hiking, or any other sport you wish to indulge. Sixty-five per cent. of you are out of jobs and HAVE ALL DAY EVERY DAY at your disposal, yet you must STEAL TIME FROM GOD to rest your lazy bones.

Once we drew attention to the way a certain party ignored the call to Sunday evening prayer. The smart answer we got was: "Well, Sunday begins with sunset Saturday and ends with sunset Sunday; therefore, we are not under moral obligations to attend Sunday evening service, which is always after sunset." "Very well," we replied, "then suppose you give up your Saturday night dance, or theatre party, or card party, and come to church on SATURDAY evening." Did THAT proposition meet with enthusiasm? IT DID NOT.

Do you know what really IS the trouble?

Why, it is in your answer to our question: "What do you do on Sunday evening?" To say that "you enjoy yourselves" is not the right answer at all. The right answer is "to refresh and strengthen our spirit by prayer, praise and thanksgiving to God, in His Holy Temple, for the wonderful gifts and graces He has given to each of us."

There is something more to life than just "enjoying" one's self. The greatest thing of all is to grow more and more into the image and stature of God.

Would one hour with God on Sunday evening help us thus to grow? Yes, dear friend, the Sunday evening service is precious time well spent. God seems nearer then than at any other time, and we go back to our homes and another week's work with a heart that is content.

LET US KEEP HOLY THE SABBATH DAY ALL DAY.

Silly Propaganda

It does not matter how much of a partisan you are, you must be consistent in order to be impressive. You need to avoid silly propaganda and extravagant statements which may sooner or later prove a boomerang.

Have you noticed the extra plates on private automobiles proclaiming that NATIONAL PROSPERITY DEPENDS UPON THE REPEAL OF THE 18TH AMENDMENT?

Whether you are a "wet" or whether you are a "dry," you cannot help but see how utterly foolish is such propaganda.

If selling intoxicants will make a nation prosperous, then all the European nations must be rolling in wealth and poor old bankrupt Germany must be the most prosperous nation on earth.

Which It "Ain't"

THIS IS STATION S. T. J. C.

* * * * * *

OUR 20TH ANNIVERSARY WAS A SUCCESS.

Bishop Hiram Hulse of Cuba made a most interesting address on his missionary work before our Sunday School on Anniversary Sunday afternoon.

The more one hears of the hardships and sacrifices of our Missionary Bishops and their heroic staff of clerical and lay helpers, the more one is filled with disgust over that 10 per cent. cut in the Missionary budget. Every churchman and churchwoman ought to be ashamed to permit it. It is inexcusable. It cannot be blamed on the depression. IT IS DUE SOLELY TO ASTIGMATIC SPIRITUAL VISION INDUCED BY INGROWING SELFISHNESS. THE ONLY CURE FOR IT IS REPENTANCE, PRAYER AND SACRIFICE.

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 SOUTH STREET

Formerly S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
1820 CHESTNUT STREET
NO CHARGE FOR USE OF FUNERAL PARLORS
RIT. 1581 W. A. BAIR President RACE 1110

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

JAMES T. ROBERTS Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

THE ROBERTS ESTATE

Estates of James A. and Mary W. Roberts

Funeral Directors

1430 South Third Street

Bell Phone, Lombard 4648

Mrs. Arthur J. Rogers

UNDERTAKER
and
EMBALMER

230-232 Queen Street

The names of those receiving DIPLOMAS for perfect attendance and meritorious work in the Sunday School are: Hannah Nuttall, Bella Schields, Hannah Woerner, Jennie Bricker, Laura Henderson, Dorothy Ashman, Helen Ashman, Dorothy Quaile, Beatrice Woerner, Florence Armstrong, Jennie Rutter, Mabel Robbins, Emma Kaiser, Martha Lafferty, Theresa Henderson, Robert Drumm, Thomas Dean, Thomas Spratt, John Dean, James Spratt, Charles Clendenning, William Clendenning, Mary Haney, May Rudderow, Ruth Rudderow, Emma Rudderow and Catherine Heisler.

We want to thank our BAND OF PAINTERS for the fine job they made of the Kindergarten room. It never looked so bright and cheerful. The combination of colors make a beautiful effect.

How about the big S. S. room? The ceiling and walls need a few new coats.

Bishop Francis M. Taitt was in a particularly happy frame of mind on Anniversary night. We were glad there was such a big congregation to welcome him.

Seventy-five candidates were presented for Confirmation on Anniversary night. This is one of the largest and best-trained classes we ever presented.

Tuesday, May 24, this Parish tendered a surprise reception to the Rector and Mrs. McHenry. They presented Mr. McHenry with a big birthday cake with 20 burning candles. The Parish presented Mrs. McHenry with a basket of beautiful flowers and a lovely pendant of floating opals. They also made up a purse of $400.00 and presented it to the Rector.

The Rainbow Girls, as usual, were unique on Anniversary night and gave a sketch called "Souvenirs," which was a combination of original verses set to music telling about the many repairs and improvements that have been accomplished in the past 20 years. It was one of the cleverest stunts of the evening and was appreciated and loudly applauded by all.

Among other welcome guests at the reception were the Worshipful Master of Apollo Lodge, No. 386, F. and A. M., Le Roy Schollenberger, the architect of the Parish House; Mr. Robert Gill and Mrs. Gill, the Rev. John William Irwin, the Rev. J. Frederick Weinemann, the Rev. J. Da Costa Harewood and the Rev. Charles S. Kitchin.

We were delighted to have Miss Anna Mullen and Mrs. Harry Briggs at our Anniversary Service.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 6, No. 7 PHILADELPHIA, JULY, 1932 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
B. Frank Drumm.
William Hasson
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Director
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Miss Dorothy Stenger

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Harry McCall
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. James Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Vernon Matthews, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Frank Drumm, Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Charles Little, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King
Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50
Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League
Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Fernandez, William Henry
Hall, Anna Marie
MacAdams, Aaron Joseph

MARRIAGES

Edward Jacobus and Ida Nilsson
Walter R. Carson, Jr., and Anna H. Barger

BURIALS

Hall, Bernadette
Murphy, Sarah S.
Shetzline, Mary J.
Boyd, William B.
Marquart, John Joseph
Fryer, Charles Douglas

SUMMER CALENDAR

Summer Bible School	10.00 A. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	11.00 A. M.
Evening Song Service	8.00 P. M.
Holy Communion (1st Sunday in month)	11.00 A. M.

Christenings after morning service by appointment.

Soldiers of the Everyday

* * *

The soldiers of the everyday
Who stand for honor and fair play—
Who never whine and never shirk,
Who do not grumble as they work,
Who seldom talk of recompense,
Are patriots in every sense.
Though times be hard, though hours be gray,
These soldiers of the everyday
Still dare to smile and dream and sing,
Accepting what the hours may bring
With gratitude instead of tears,
With words of hope instead of fears.
Their battlefields are homes and streets.
Their victories and their defeats
Are seldom recognized or known
And yet they do not fight alone.
Ask God to bless them when you pray,
These soldiers of the everyday.

—Christian Herald

IMPORTANT NOTICE!!!

After the July issue of the BROADCASTER the magazine will be mailed only to those who pay the subscription price of One Dollar a Year. In order to put the subscription within easy reach of our Parishioners we are making a rate of 25 CENTS A QUARTER to all who are members of the church; those who are not members will be charged the One Dollar in advance for a full year's subscription. The increased rates of mailing is the cause of our change of policy. At the original cost of two cents we were just coming through on our expense budget. The jump in postal rates to three cents was the extra cent that broke the bank account.

We regret the necessity of our elimination of the free mailing list, but we have no other alternative. Every first Sunday of the month after the morning service the Broadcaster will be distributed free at the church.

OUR CHURCH FINANCES

Our system of financing the Parish has been so nearly perfect that, although we never carried a big margin in cash we were never in debt. It is a little different now. So many of our communicants are unemployed and so many more are receiving such thin pay envelopes that our system is shot to pieces and hard times are ahead. Now is the time for us to plan our campaign for funds. There is no need to get panicky over the situation. What we must do is to cut off every unnecessary expense, then we must drop our most unimportant needs. Then we must make everything wear as long as possible, and throw nothing away as long as it will last. We must always remember that "A CENT SAVED IS FAR BETTER THAN A CENT GAINED."

After we have economized to the limit the next move we must make is to plan a way to raise what revenue we can to help float our necessary debts. We do not mean to budgetize every dime we can squeeze out of you. That is unnecessary; our suggestion is much simpler and more productive than that.

FIRST: Let all those who have jobs, and those whose wages have not been seriously cut, pay their just dues to the church and add ten per cent. to help make up the loss to the church, occasioned by the dropping out of the member who has lost his job.

SECOND: Estimating that about 60 per cent. of our membership is idle; we have in round numbers 300 who are still going strong. If this 300 would go on a penny EVERY OTHER DAY PLAN—over and above their regular dues we would have a grand total at the end of the year of $544.00 plus to work with. It would mean only $1.82 plus per person per year. THIS WOULD BE AN INCREASE OF ABOUT A HALF A CENT A DAY. Surely such a small increase would not inconvenience the humblest of our parishioners and it would keep us out of debt.

ONE THING IS SURE: We must not and we will not run in debt for anything, even if it is a necessity. We will do without the necessity until such time as our resources warrant our resuming them. This goes for all debts of every kind, coal, gas, electric lights, compensations, wages, stationery, flowers, etc. If our policy creates resentment it will be just too bad; because we will not go in debt even if we have to close our church. This is not an idle gesture or a threat. We mean it; because we know that for a poor parish like ours it would be fatal. We cannot hope to have others support our church. WE MUST BE SELF-SUPPORTING OR SINK.

This policy of "Do or Die" is a challenge to every member of St. John's Church. If you love the old church, now is the time to prove that love and "do your bit."

Do not get the impression that we are in a state of bankruptcy and are about to be sold out by the sheriff; we are not. We are planning for the future; we are planning what we will do and what we will not do. But we will not go in debt though the Heavens fall.

Summer in St. John's Parish

LACK OF FUNDS EMBARRASS THE WORK

For the first time in many years the summer work in the PARISH OF ST. JOHN'S is slowed up for LACK OF FUNDS. Our host of friends who have given so generously to this welfare work are embarrassed themselves this year and cannot give as much as in previous summers. Some have been forced to stop giving to the Vacation Activities altogether, yet all have expressed regret that they cannot continue on the same old lines. One dear lady of over eighty years, and a much valued friend of the Rector, expressed this sentiment most admirably in a note accompanying her check for a reduced amount; she said, "Give till it hurts" must be changed to "It hurts not to Give." Here is a sample of what sacrifices many are making to help along our summer work.

We opened the SUMMER VACATION SCHOOL in ST. JOHN'S PARISH HOUSE on schedule time in July under the leadership of Mrs. John Nelson, Jr., who did such splendid work for the children last summer. We mean to keep open as long as our funds last. Later if other friends find they can finance the work we will take up some of the things we have been forced to eliminate. We refer to our weekly picnics and excursions, our ice cream parties and the use of materials for group work. Fortunately, most of our Gym apparatus is in good condition. What is not fit for use we can do without this summer. However, we must give our daily noon day lunches and milk. Were we to eliminate that part of our summer work it would be a hardship indeed to the kiddies. In many cases the lunch is the only thing between them and actual hunger.

We are doing our utmost to help the jobless in the Parish by thus caring for the children. We are confident that our efforts are helpful. Many a parent will suffer hunger and privation patiently so long as he suffers alone. But he is driven to a frenzy and becomes desperate if hunger attacks his children and he must listen to their pitiful cry for bread. Therefore if we care for his children he is not altogether discouraged and will fight on with hope.

We know how dreadful are work conditions in our Parish, yet, there may be a few who are fortunate enough to have a little to spare. We appeal to all such in the name of Christian Love to share their little surplus with their poor brothers. God will bless such charity and the giver will be rewarded abundantly. Give what you can afford to your Rector and he will use it to the relief of the most desperate cases.

If any member of the Parish has knowledge of a vacancy of any kind or of a chance for a man, woman, boy, or girl, getting a job, get the Rector on the wire at once and let him know about it. Nearly 70 per cent. of our Parish are either idle or working part-time only. Among our unemployed are chauffeurs, railroad clerks, carpenters, painters, printers, nurses, bond salesmen, machinists, office cleaners, errand and office boys and girls, laborers, and many others, all of them clamoring for work. Every morning from 9 to 10 o'clock Miss Nuttall will be in her office at the Parish House to register applicants for jobs and she will welcome joyously all applications for men or women workers.

THE SHACK-IN-THE-PINES

It is necessary to pare to the bone the expenses of the summer camp. Our camp income has shrunken alarmingly. We are determined to keep going as long as we can squeeze a cent out of the old sock. After all is spent it is back to the hard hot city streets for everybody. We are cutting the time limit in camp to one week so that everybody will get a little bit of cool nights for sleeping, a whiff of pine-ladened air and a cool wallow in Little Pine Lake.

Perhaps some generous soul may learn of our great need for summer vacation funds and will send us an extra check to help us extend our camp activities.

Broadcasting from Station S.T.J.C.

Our SUMMER BIBLE SCHOOL is attracting a goodly number of young folk. There are lots of seats for more and a glad hand of welcome for all. Come and be glad you came.

Satan harvests his crops in summer.

Every Sunday evening we have A FEAST OF HYMNS. For fifteen minutes we do nothing but sing the hymns we like. Some are old and some are new; and all are the favorites of the group who come to enjoy the singing. It is a wonderful way to close God's "Holy Day." We want you to come and enjoy it with us. Surely you have many old favorite hymns you would like to sing. Come out and let us sing them with you in our FEAST OF HYMNS.

Little Milton came home from church school with a mite box.

"Why do they call it a mite box, mother," asked Milton.

"Because," chirped in his brother, "you might put something in it and you might not."

Do all you can to help the unemployed. You can never tell when you will want "a friend in your need."

THE SUMMER VACATION SCHOOL is unusually well attended. We are most grateful for the aid of those friends who made it possible to "carry on" this great child welfare work again.

THE SHACK-IN-THE-PINES opened unusually early this year and is more popular than ever before. Besides the regular kid's summer camp it was loaned to several groups of College and Church Young People. Those groups were no expense to us as they paid their own way. We mention them to show how everybody loves the old Shack and its big roomy tents nestling at the head of Little Pine Lake.

Some memoranda about St. John's Employment Bureau:

Place: 1334 So. 3rd. Street.
Phone: Lombard 4024.
Time: 9 to 10.30 o'clock daily.

There are Christians that draw and Christians that drive. The Church has too many of the latter, but not enough of the former.

We hope and pray that you will return from your vacation with a clear conscience.

The finances of the church are not quite on the rocks, but they are getting "rocky." Our only way to keep out of debt is to pay our church dues regularly and ADD A LITTLE EXTRA to make up for what our unemployed brother is unable to give.

We are so glad that we have a job and enough to provide for our needs that we are giving lots more to the poor than we ever gave before; just to show God how grateful we feel.

"To do good and to distribute, forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased." Heb. 13:16.

Success operates on the self-service plan.

If there is somebody next to us who is worse off than ourselves, what an awful mess the man at the end of the line must be in.

Another thing to remember: Don't forget that CENT-A-DAY for the mortgage.

Miserliness is not economy any more than economy is miserliness.

"Whoso hath this world's goods, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how dwelleth the Love of God in him." I John III:17.

Imitation, the Sincerest Flattery

Eighteen years ago we developed an idea which practically solved the financial problems of the Parish and helped to put ST. JOHN'S CHURCH on the map of the Diocese. It was such a good idea that it has been repeated by several churches and large welfare bodies with great success. We refer to our "CENT-A-DAY" way of raising money. Again, just a week ago we learned of a group of women who adopted the thought in their endeavor to raise funds for an institution in which they were interested.

The "CENT-A-DAY" idea catches on immediately because it is so easy to meet the demand. Everybody can afford it be he ever so poor. It is a wonderful system of raising money in these days of depression. To most a CENT-A-DAY in any venture in a sort of sporting proposition which has its own appeal. Consequently anybody will invest A-CENT-A-DAY and get astonishing results. For instance, 100 persons giving A-CENT-A-DAY for one year will raise the impressive sum of $365.00 by the end of the year. No wonder so many institutions and churches have adopted our idea of A-CENT-A-DAY. It is a winner every time.

The time has come when our parish needs the aid of THE-CENT-A-DAY. Hundreds of our people are out of work and cannot pay their church dues. Of course this creates a financial embarrassment for us. Just here is where THAT CENT-A-DAY does its best work.

What we mean is this: Those whom God has blessed with a steady job and a weekly pay envelope ought to be so grateful for His provision and care that every night, before falling to sleep, they ought to offer up a real prayer of Thanksgiving and prove their thankfulness by dropping a cent on a convenient bank to turn over to the church at the end of the month as their Thank Offering for their steady job.

ANY OLD JOBS TODAY?

REAL FOLKS WANT JOBS, NOT DOLES

No self-respecting person wants a dole. He wants a job. Something that will aid him to support his family independent of all charity. He would rather you give him something to do at $15.00 a week than to pay his rent or give him a grocery or a coal order once ever so often. The name of this person is Legion. He will welcome any kind of self-supporting work with Tumultuous joy.

Our object in brinking this subject before our readers is to appeal to all to help us uncover work for those willing workers. Perhaps this issue of the BROADCASTER may fall into the hands of somebody who knows where there is a vacant job. If it does, please, grab pen and paper or dash for the telephone and call up ST. JOHN'S EMPLOYMENT BUREAU, 1334 South 3rd Street, and tell the good news. Our phone number is LOM. 4024; the office hours for the person in charge are 9 to 10:30 every morning; or any time on Sunday such information can be given to the Rector who will gladly pass it on to the person in charge. We can supply men and women, boys and girls for almost any kind of a job. We need positions FOR WOMEN to do the following:

Childnursing	Dressmaking	Days Work
Companion	Housekeeping	Nursing
Bookkeeping	Office Cleaning	Washing and Ironing
Clerking	Cashier Work

We need positions FOR MEN who are:

Auto Mechanics	Grass and Hedge Trimmers	Painters
		Milkmen
Bakers	Handymen	Plasterers
Cabinetmakers	Iron Workers	Roofers
Candymakers	Ice men	Salesmen
Carpenters	Ice cream-makers	Sextons
Cellar-cleaners	Janitors	Tailors
Chauffeurs	Laborers	Truckmen
Clerks	Laundrymen	Weavers
Coal Drivers	Longshoremen	White Washers
Electricians	Machinists	Window Cleaner
Floor Polishers	Messengers

Whoever we send to a job will have back of him th endorsement of St. John's Church for honesty, sobriety, and willingness to work.

REMEMBER

THE PLACE: St. John's Parish House, 1334 South 3rd Street.

THE PHONE: Lombard 4024.

THE HOUR: 9 to 10:30 o'clock.

If you are out of work stop in and get registered.

Something New About Painting the Church

* * *

The Rector Had a Brain Storm, But the Architect Thinks It's Good

* * *

Everybody in South Philadelphia knows we are going to have our church painted—sometime. The lowest estimate for the job is $1500.00. There are 1500 square yards of surface to cover. In other words we must pay $1.00 per square yard for the work. That is a lot of money. And there are so many out of work in the Parish that the raising of $1500.00 is a pretty heavy task.

This set the Rector to thinking: If only some plan could be evolved by which the Parish itself could do the job and give the work to the painters in the Parish who are unemployed; then we could absorb most of that $1500 right in the Parish. It would be a big help to the church and to the idle painters.

He called up his friend Mr. Gill and told him what was in his mind. Mr. Gill was startled at first, but after the idea soaked in he said it might work. But he said in a tone of voice that said, "You're crazy."

Well one morning he dropped in our office with an estimate and plan which showed the Rector was not so crazy after all. The job can be done and we can employ our own idle painters under the supervision of Mr. Gill—provided we get busy right now to raise the $1500.00.

Certainly it is something worth working for if our own people will get the money for the job instead of giving it to a contractor who would employ strangers and give them the money. We must get busy at once—especially our idle painters. We must raise that $1500.00 without a delay. We must sell everyone of those 1500 yards as fast as we can. We need the money; our painter members need the money. EVERYONE MUST BE A SOLICITOR.

LET'S GO

We are enclosing a Pledge form in this issue of the BROADCASTER. We ask you to use it and let us know how many square yards of painting you will pay for. Either mail it to Rev. H. Cresson Mc-

Henry, 225 South 3rd Street, or put it upon the alms bason any Sunday. The sooner we get the money the sooner our painters will begin to get wages.

HURRY!!!

Let's Start An Ancestry

When we speak of our ancestry we always "mention with pride" the names of prominent historical persons from whom we claim to be descended. In other words our forefathers started this ancestry business and we are failing to keep the ball rolling though apparently it is a great boon to generations that follow. There is no doubt that most of us need an ancestry to keep us from total oblivion. If we did not tell folks we were descended from Richard-the-Lion Hearted, or an Irish king, or a Scottish Laird, or a German baron they would never think we were anything but ordinary people. Somehow we do not impress the world at large that we have conquering and adventuresome blood coursing through our veins. Taking us as we are, we seem to lack the "it" that makes men the sons of kings. That is the reason why most of us must let it be known far and wide that our great-great-grandparents were the pioneers in Ancestry and all came over to America from some foreign land crowded aboard the Mayflower. Even the writer has been afflicted with Ancestoritis. He has frequently stated in public that one of his progenerators was a French Hugonot nobleman who was the custodian of the Golden Key to Something-or-other. Also, on the paternal side, he is a direct descendant of the doctor after whom somebody named a fort before which somebody became famous by writing the National Hymn. It is all rather vague, but it is also very romantic. However, the thrill we used to get out of talking about our ancestry is getting a little weak and we begin to suspect that we have used our poor old ancestors so much that they have become a bit worn and threadbare.

Therefore it seemed to us that we ought to do something for our descendants so that when they begin to develop aenemic characters and run out of "it" they will have an almost brand new ancestry to which they can "point with pride."

For this reason we repeat the title of this dissertation—"Let's Start an Ancestry." And let's see if we can improve upon the old brand so that we will not make the same mistake our ancient ancestors made. Most of them were great, of course; else they could not have been ancestors. Among them were too many murderers, thieves, pirates, drunkards, gluttons, misers, sports, gamblers, and philanderers. They spoil the portrait of ancestry. It is up to us modern ancestors to try to eliminate as much as possible romantic rogues from our new Ancestral Gallery. Somebody living in this year of Grace ought to start an ancestral line by being a man of great moral courage who will die rather than become corrupt politically, socially or financially. What an ancestor he would be for his comers after.

We need an ancestor who will honestly champion the cause of the weak and the poor against greed and oppression; whose mighty deeds of valorous warfare against cowardly and wicked powers, inimical to the helpless, will ring with no uncertain tones down the years to come so that men will look with awe upon the proud descendants of such a famous ancestor, who will sacrifice himself and his prospects in the Cause of God that He, and He only, shall be the great governing power of the country.

Somebody ought to consent to be an ancestor in deeds of mercy, in relieving the sick, risking one's life to rescue others, sharing the last crust with the less fortunate and bringing a brother and companion to the sorrowing. Some of us have ancestors like that and we are still proud of them. But for fear such grand old forefathers should run out on us let us start a modern lot. It's a good line, and will be greatly appreciated by our coming crowd of descendants.

And remember. Anybody can start an ancestry. You can do it if you choose. All you need is a little moral courage, a little of the Grace of God, a little of the Love of Christ, a little of the Enthusiasm of St. Paul and an alert watchout for opportunities to exercise your ancestrial qualities upon all and sundry occasions.

Yes, let's start an ancestry and let's make such a fine job of it that our descendants will be still pointing to our record unto the hundredth generation. That they will be so enthused by the tale of our great deeds, they, too, will be inspired to do heroic things and become ancestors in their turn.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew

The Splendid Plans They Have Adopted for Future Work

At the regular meeting of the Senior Branch of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew held Thursday evening, June 16, a program for future work was put through which promises to be perhaps one of the best drives for members that has been undertaken by any parish organization up to the present. The plan is for each of the members of suggest the names and addresses of five men who are known to be non-church goers. As there were 21 men present at the June meeting this would mean the making up of a list of 105 non-church going men.

The idea caught on so quickly that the Director suggested to start now and see how many new names those present could propose. After canvassing the meeting we had 12 new names on the list already. Every man present promised he would have his full quota of names for the next meeting, Thursday, July 14. The idea behind the movement is to begin now to work up a big class of men for our 1933 Confirmation Class as well as to build up the membership of the Senior Brotherhood.

Charles Little started a big discussion among the members by suggesting that each man bring a package of groceries or canned goods at each meeting of the Brotherhood to be distributed among the poor of the Parish. There was a storm of disapproval and the motion did not receive a second. However, Charlie's idea was not entirely wasted. The final outcome of the discussion was decidedly worth-while. It amounted to this: Early in the fall of the year we hold a Harvest Home with startling variations. First off, we will not hold it in the Church, but in the Parish House. Second, we will not hold it on a Sunday but on a weekday. Third, we will make it a Community Harvest Home and start a house-to-house canvass of all the families in the Parish regardless of creed or nationality. Fourth, we will prepare a musical and comic program to be given on that night. Fifth, we will give tickets of admission for the evening's fun in exchange for donations of food, clothing, or money. Sixth, we will send cars to any address in the Parish for goods if a postal is sent to the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, 225 South 3rd street. Seventh, we will have an auction sale of cakes at the end of the evening. The proceeds will go to the Community Fund for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish regardless of race or creed.

This is, in short, a community stunt to help our next-door neighbor. We might add an eighth idea to the list and have time out on Harvest Home Evening for anybody in the audience to report any vacant jobs that might be filled. In this regard the Brotherhood suggested that Miss Nuttall keep regular office hours from 9 o'clock to 10 o'clock every morning to receive applications for jobs and applications for help. In case you need a man or a woman in a hurry for work call, Phone No. Lom. 4024 and ask for Miss Nuttall.

Men of the 1932 Class

Getting back to the June meeting of the Senior Brotherhood, we want to express our pleasure at the activity of its members in connecting up with the men of the 1932 Confirmation Class. Each member is given a man to look after and see that he gets in the habit of coming to Church Services, especially to his Communion. Every meeting night the members are quizzed as to how well they are doing this follow-up work. If a man shows a disposition to neglect his charge he is most unmercifully razzed by the members for neglect of duty. The result is eminently satisfactory. Not one of us likes to be razzed by that bunch of experts; they are too good in their line.

Some Refreshments—Some Fun

After the meeting adjourned the men had a little layout of ice cream, cakes, grapeade, and White Owls. It was the last regular meeting of the year, hence the reason for a little refreshment and a little fun.

As a matter of fact the Senior Brotherhood has not really gone out of business for the summer. They have just dropped one meeting night a month until September, when they will go back to their regular schedule of meetings.

The Opening—The Closing

The opening and the closing of the Brotherhood sessions are most impressive. Every man feels deeply the ceremony in which he is taking part. Each member takes it as a matter of course when he is called upon by the Director to offer a prayer or read the Scripture Lesson. His every motion is devotional, the tone of his voice is charged with reverence, he acts and talks, and looks as though he is conscious that he stands in the presence of God.

THE CALMER LIFE

By Edgar A. Guest

What more from life does man require
Than raiment, bed and food and fire?
With these, though humble they may be,
The spring flowers blooming he can see.
The joy of laughter he can know,
Can watch his little garden grow,
Find friendships and in countless ways
Make interesting all his days.

How many years shall man in vain
Seek peace from luxury and gain?
Though well it is high goals to reach,
This truth alone success can teach,
That no estate from care is free,
And only he can happy be
Who, rich or poor, has faith in grace
With tenderness the common place.

The happiness man hopes to find
Is truly of the heart and mind;
A gift that lies himself within,
Not something he must fight to win.
Though rich or poor who plays the man
And does the little that he can
Time's ordinary tasks to share
Can fill life's purpose anywhere.

Copyright, 1932, by Edgar A. Guest

Bell Phone, Lombard 2427

Plotnick's Shoe Shop

I take this opportunity to thank all my customers for their patronage and beg to announce I have moved from S. W. Cor. Second and Moore Streets to my new store at 315 South Street. I will appreciate this same patronage at my new store.

For a Good Fit and Best Quality Shoes

315 SOUTH STREET

Formerly S. W. Cor. 2d and Moore Sts.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
1820 CHESTNUT STREET
NO CHARGE FOR USE OF FUNERAL PARLORS
RIT. 1581 W. A. BAIR President RACE 1110

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

JAMES T. ROBERTS Oregon 1584
Jackson 1452

THE ROBERTS ESTATE

Estates of James A. and Mary W. Roberts

Funeral Directors

1430 South Third Street

The White House and the Parsonage

During one-fourth the period of our nationhood there have been parsonage children presiding over the White House.

Abagail Adams, wife of John Adams, was the daughter of a Congregational minister.

The wives of both Millard Fillmore and Franklin Pierce were parsonage born.

James A. Garfield was an ordained minister.

Grover Cleveland was the descendant of a long line of ministerial forebears. His sister, Rose, was the Mistress of the White House during part of his administrations.

Mrs. Benjamin Harrison was the daughter of Rev. John W. Scott, D. D.

Both Woodrow Wilson and his first wife were parsonage children.

James Madison studied for the ministry in his youth.

Chester A. Arthur was the son of a Baptist Minister.

Hulda Minthorn Hoover was a Quaker preacher.

Lou Henry Hoover is the granddaughter of a Methodist Minister.

From "Religious Background of the White House."

BUY

A Square Yard of

PAINTING

and so HELP the

Unemployed

of St. John's Parish

at the same time

Beautify St. John's Church

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 6, No. 9 PHILADELPHIA, SEPTEMBER, 1932 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
William Grubb
Samuel Snell, Sr.
B. Frank Drumm.
William Hasson
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Director
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Miss Dorothy Stenger

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Harry McCall
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. James Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell
Mr. Robert Rutter

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Vernon Matthews, Director.
William Grubb, Vice-Director.
Frank Drumm, Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew
Charles Little, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King
Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50
Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League
Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship
H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Bennett, Ida May
Rutter, Richard James

BURIALS

Alford, Sallie H.
Stinger, Louisa
Lutz, Louis
Reynolds, Katherine M.
Neissen, Charles H.
Peruso, Martha K.
Adams, George Franklin
Walto, John M.
Ward, Barbara

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.30
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.30
Evening Service and Address		8.00
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
Thursday
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew		7.30
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

PROGRAM FOR THE YEAR

What the Rector Hopes to Accomplish With the Help of the Parishioners

Now is the time to lay our plans for the year's work. Business conditions and lack of employment are so unsatisfactory that we may fail to make the grade. But if we have an objective and we ever keep in mind the possible obstacles in the way of completing our program, we can face our problems with intelligence and probably get unexpected results.

PAINTING THE CHURCH

First of all, it is your Rector's hope that the necessary funds for painting the interior of the church be raised at once so as to get the idle men of the parish employed that they may earn a livelihood for their families. This sum, which is under $500.00, could be in the Rector's hands before the end of the month if those members who are so fortunate to have steady jobs would give a THANK OFFERING of a few dollars to the PAINT POT. We mailed 800 Paint Envelopes to our Parishioners and have received only 100 in return. WHERE ARE THE OTHER 700?

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL

St. John's Sunday School has always been one of the most satisfactory departments of our work. The Infantile Paralysis Epidemic got us off on a bad start this year, but we are hoping when the quarantine is lifted, we will soon strike our stride and have all our teachers, officers and scholars reporting present and ready for the year's work. This year the SENIOR DEPARTMENT WILL TAKE UP THE STUDY OF THE MISSIONARY JOURNEYS OF JESUS CHRIST. THE BIBLE WILL BE OUR TEXT BOOK. A MAP OF PALESTINE WILL BE USED TO TRACE HIS JOURNEYS and certain questions framed by the Rector will stimulate the thought and imagination of the student. Furthermore, the Rector is hopeful that the teachers will make contacts with the scholars' family life and keep him informed as to their family welfare.

There are thousands of boys and girls running wild in South Philadelphia who have no Sunday School or parochial connections. Here is a rich opportunity for the scholars of St. John's Sunday School to do effective missionary work in bringing new blood into the classes. Our scholars have always been pretty active in this particular in the past.

In our Sunday School we must ever keep before our classes the SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING. For the past two years we have used a portion of it to reduce the principal of the mortgage on the Parish House. We now have reduced that mortgage to $2,000.00. We are anxious to wipe out that debt this year and be able to burn the mortgage before the end of 1933.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

We are ambitious to reach that point in our parochial development when every member of St. John's Church will be a communicant—in the sense of making his Communion every time opportunity offers. As every one knows this is the most important duty we have to perform. We are shocked to meet A MEMBER OF THE PARISH, not long ago, who had been CONFIRMED FOUR YEARS AGO AND HAD NEVER MADE HIS FIRST COMMUNION and he lives within a stone's throw of the Church. WE WANT COMMUNING MEMBERS and we hope this year our average in this respect will reach 100%.

WORKING MEMBERS

A Church is like a bee hive. In it are two distinct groups. One is the group of workers. The other is the group of drones. The drones far outnumber the workers in every parish. The same condition prevails in St. John's Parish. About one-seventh of our membership are workers and supporters. About six-sevenths are non-workers and critics. We do not mind the criticism much, for it acts as a lash to whip us to greater efforts and better results. But we think it would be wonderful if some means could be discovered by which we could convert the idle six-sevenths into enthusiastic and energetic workers and supporters. In the hive THE DRONES ARE KILLED PERIODICALLY. Sometimes the drones in the Church almost provoke us to murder, but we are restrained by the law which forbids us, on pain of death, to execute what a bee wouldn't tolerate. HOWEVER, SINCE WE DARE NOT STAB OR POISON, OR SHOOT OR DRAW AND QUARTER THE OFFENDER, WE MUST FIND SOME MEANS OF SHOOTING HIM FULL OF SPIRITUAL "PEP" AND MAKE HIM ACT LIKE A NORMAL CHRISTIAN IN SPITE OF HIMSELF. If we could only herd all our drones and then pray that Jesus Christ perform another miracle and cast out their devils and fill them full of the Spirit of God, we are sure the results would make both the workers and the drones rejoice with exceeding great joy.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

We refer to the Woman's Auxiliary, the Daughters of the King, the Young Women's Christian League, the Girl Scouts, the Choir, the Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew and the Junior Chapter of the same organization. These organizations have their own work to do. The Rector is hoping they will be most aggressive in their several fields of activity this year and spread their propaganda far and wide, increase their membership 100 per cent., and encourage him by even greater efforts of service than they rendered in past years.

THE CHURCH ENVELOPE

Our letter to the Parish would be incomplete were we to fail to mention this all-important subject. THE CHURCH ENVELOPE IS THE POCKETBOOK OF THE PARISH. If it is full and comes in regularly every week we are prosperous. If it is empty and NEVER COMES TO CHURCH we are paupers. At present about 75% of our membership are unable to keep up their envelopes. It is up to the other 25% to do its utmost under the circumstances and not only give regularly BUT ALSO TO ADD A LITTLE OVER THEIR PLEDGE to help make up the deficit caused by the loss of the envelopes of the unemployed.

THE CONFIRMATION CLASS

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH IS A MISSIONARY CHURCH, LOCATED IN THE GREATEST MISSIONARY DISTRICT IN THE DIOCESE; consequently, it ought to present large Confirmation classes every year. This year, however, we are working against the handicap of unemployment. HOWEVER, IF WE WORK AND PRAY in this field of endeavor we are sure GOD WILL BLESS OUR EFFORTS and help us get results. Every parish organization, as well as individual church member, ought to put forth its greatest strength to bring the stranger into the fold. We must not wait until Confirmation is almost due and then begin to hustle. WE MUST START NOW AND DIG OUT PROSPECTS—men and women as well as boys and girls. Send the names, ages and addresses of all non-church going persons you meet with; also those of new neighbors to your Rector. He will file them on the card index of prospects and will begin a campaign of persuasion with them.

THE NEIGHBORHOOD WORK

Aside from its spiritual and material development St. John's Church has become a strong community center and social service headquarters. Under this neighborhood work it includes a Child's and Mothers' Clinic, an Employment Bureau, a garment and food distributing department and when in funds, it pays rent and buys coal for the poor of the parish. It supplies school children with shoes. In the summer it conducts a Summer Vacation School which is patronized by hundreds of Protestant children of Southwark. It provides milk and diet for all who attend the sessions. It organizes river trips, excursions in the country, week-ends in camp, two weeks sojourn in the Shack-in-the-Pines Camp at Browns Mills.

This year we are organizing a HARVEST HOME FETE for the Community. We hope to raise enough food and money to help materially in relieving the suffering of our own poor and unemployed.

The reason why St. John's has become such an active social center is because it is surrounded by scores of foreign socialistic and "red" organizations which carry on a ceaseless propaganda both in private conversations and in public meetings, in halls and public squares, against Christianity and American civilization.

Were the church authorities and members half so active and intense as our Red propagandists, we would sweep the city with religious enthusiasm. As it is, the enemy of our Americanism is making dangerous inroads upon the minds and feelings of our young men and women.

There is danger ahead if the Church does not soon assert its power to backfire the Red menace of Southwark. We need help now to stem the rising tide and we are not crying "wolf, wolf."

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH MUST INCREASE ITS COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES AND KEEP THE LIVES OF OUR YOUNG PEOPLE FILLED WITH WHOLESOME OCCUPATIONS.

OUR 21ST ANNIVERSARY

NEXT JUNE WE CELEBRATE OUR 21ST ANNIVERSARY. We will have come of age in our years of experience in St. John's Parish. What marvelous events have taken place in our Parish in those years. Twenty-one years ago the Rector would have been the first to deride the thought of such miraculous developments as have happened. From a church that was a ruin, a congregation that did not exist, debts that were overdue, prospects that were nil, expectations that were dead, has sprung an institution full of life and vigor with a record for spiritual and social and family welfare accomplishments far exceeding that of any downtown church. The social center of the greatest young people's group in the southeast and with a communicant list of over 1,000 members. More than this:—IT IS THE BIGGEST AND MOST POWERFUL WORKING MAN'S CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE—a Church with its hand always in its pocket to help every Christian and missionary venture of the great Episcopal Body to the limit of its ability—a Church whose spirit of optimism is the inspiration of other parishes.

But Let Us Go On; Greater Things Are Ahead

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?

What the Parish Committee Discovered at Its Special Meeting in September

The first thing the Rector did when he returned from his vacation was to call a special meeting of the Parish Committee. The purpose of this special meeting was to get a line on the financial standing of the Parish. The cause of his concern was the increasing number of men and women in the parish who were losing their jobs. This condition of unemployment would naturally reflect upon the revenues of the parish.

Mr. Weber presented a detailed report of Receipts and Expenditures from January 1st to date. Each month showed a shrinkage in Receipts with Expenditures remaining stationary. The result being a deficit in Mr. Weber's account. The question your Parish Committee was forced to face was:

What Are You Going to Do About It?

That question was discussed from all sides until very late in the evening. It was after 11.00 P. M., when the Rector reached his home. We reached the conclusion that the deficit was caused by two things: The first was due, as we stated above, to the loss of jobs by many parishioners who had been steady contributors to the Church when they had employment. Many of this class have been out of work for two years and longer and are in desperate condition. They and their families are suffering for the necessities. It would be folly to expect them to continue their church obligations. Consequently, the Committee was forced to eliminate the unemployed from their consideration of ways and means to increase our income.

The second cause of the deficit was thought to be due to the class who, though they have jobs, have never recognized their church obligations and have contributed little or nothing to its support—those who always drop a cent on the Alms Bason with a regretful feeling that the United States Government does not mint a coin of lesser value which they might give to the Lord.

We are not critical, really. The Committee gave a great deal of thought to this class of parishioners and reached the conclusion that perhaps the reason why such church members do not give towards the support of the parish is because they have never acquired the habit of giving or because they do not realize what a great influence for good the Church of Jesus Christ is to them in every way.

The Committee reasoned that if we could get all such members together in a friendly conference, where we could explain our desperate need of funds and how a little aid from them would materially lighten our burden, we would catch their sympathy and sincere co-operation. We are sure they would realize we must have money to pay for our electricity, gas, coal, repairs, salaries and supplies. We are sure also that they appreciate how we must depend on the church dues for that money. Furthermore, we feel quite sure that, when they reason this out to its ultimate conclusion, they will realize THEIR responsibility and will contribute their share towards our parochial expenses.

If Every Man and Woman Who Has a Job

will make a sacrifice of money as a part of their worship—there is no real worship without an offering—the parish will steer clear of the shoals and reefs of debt and, though the water may be shallow, we will have sufficient to float the ship; provided we steer with care.

Are You a Non-Contributing Member?

If you are, will you not try to get a true estimate of the real value of the Christian Church to our Community—how it stands the one strong tower of Americanism in an anti-American community—the biggest and strongest Protestant Christian institution in Southeast Philadelphia. How it is raising the Cross and the flag side by side and rallying round those standards of the church and nation in a locality where sons and daughters of twenty-seven foreign nations live who have little or nothing in common with our American civilization.

In supporting your church you are supporting the ideals of the nation and incidentally your homes and your happiness and the happiness of all you love.

Again, there is the spiritual—the most important—side of the church to be considered. We American churchmen have grown accustomed to the idea of being born into the church through Baptism in infancy; of entering into the church and accepting our moral and spiritual responsibilities in Confirmation; of receiving the blessing of the church in matrimony; of having the Church minister by our bedsides in sickness; of teaching us the better way of living all through our lives; of inspiring us to attain a higher life than just a sordid material career; of at last preparing us for our final exit from the material and the entrance into the spiritual and eternal—by smoothing our pillow and closing our eyes in our last earthly sleep. Surely these are things too priceless to value in the scales of silver and gold. Surely an institution of such precious things deserves our sacrificial support for we are the richer for its existence.

If you, my non-supporting brother, can see this vision of spiritual service surely you too will give of your means and help keep the beacon of Christ burning brightly that all men may glorify your Father which is in Heaven.

THE PAINT POT

The PAINT POT is by no means full yet and we are unable to go on with the job. Several church members are idle and waiting for us to begin. We print a list of those who have contributed towards this fund. We sent out 800 paint envelopes and according to this list we received 100 back. Where are the 700 missing envelopes? A portion, no doubt, went into the homes of the unemployed and could not be returned; yet, glancing over the list of those who did contribute we are impressed to find certain names conspicuous for their absence. Names of individuals who have had steady jobs all through the depression; who have an equity in their homes; who enjoyed a good vacation; who spent weekends at the shore, in the country, among friends; who eat three meals a day every day, who can afford the movies, ice cream, cigars, candy, nice clothes, but who have, as yet, given nothing towards the PAINT FUND which is to create employment for their unfortunate brethren who are out of work, who are desperately hungry; who are all but naked, who are sheriff ridden; who are afraid to face the morning; whose music is the wail of their hungry children; whose desperation is driving them to panic.

Oh, my fortunate brother, cannot you see the picture of your despairing brother and his suffering family?

Can you still refuse to give of your means towards the support of him who has nothing?

Are you not afraid to withhold your hand now?

Is it nothing to you that you are surrounded by suffering which YOU can help to alleviate if you will?

Don't you recognize among the unfortunates, the faces of those who once you knew?

Can you see a brother sink and withhold a helping hand?

CAN YOU?

THE COLOUR CLUB

The following is the ROLL of HONOR on which is inscribed the names of those who dropped their contribution into the PAINT POT.

Next month we will add to the ROLL of HONOR, those who contribute in the meantime.

Adams, Helen
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Margaret
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Benson, Madeline
Blech, Charles
Blech, Jennie
Boehner, William
Boehner, Mrs. William
Bricker, Jennie
Brown, Edward, Jr.
Burt, Anna M.
Busch, Frederick
Busch, John H.
Clerico, Ferdy
Clerico, Mattie
Coyle, John
Cressee, Abbie
Cressee, George
Cressee, George, Jr.
Cressee, Raymond
Dingler, Annie
Edger, Amanda
Embescheid, Mrs.
Evans, Thomas
Ewell, Thelma
Fisher, M. Beatrice
Fitzpatrick, Catherine
Friend, Mary
Greenfield, Lydia
Greenfield, Robert
Hazlett, Mrs.
Hogan, Ida
Iseminger, Katherine
Jackson, Elsie
Jaeschke, Mr. & Mrs. Herman
Jones, George, C., Sr.
Jones, Fannie F.
King, William
Konowal, Michael
Last, Jeanette
Later, Mr. & Mrs.
Laurence, James
Leon, Mrs.
Leach, Ella
Leach, Joseph
Leach, May
Leach, S. Bowman
Little, Charles
Little, Mary
Major, William
Matthews, Martha
Matthews, Vernon
MacAvoy, Lillian
MacVaugh, Anna
MacVaugh, Sylvania
MacVaugh, William
McCall, Elmina
McDowell, Mrs. Mary
McDowell, Mrs.
McDowell, Samuel
McHenry, John E.
McHenry, H. Cresson
Meneely, Mrs. Lillian
Murphy, Mrs. S.
Nelson, Mr. & Mrs. John, Jr.
Nuttal, Hannah
Oliver, Mrs.
Olsen, Mrs. Anna
Patterson, Anna
Preole, James C.
Preole, John E.
Preole, Ruth
Pearo, Adelia
Pearo, Mary
Rutter, Mrs. J. K.
Rutter, Jeremiah K.
Robbins, Anna
Robbins, Mrs. Anna
Rodebough, Samuel
Schabacker, Anna
Schmidt, Frank G.
Schmidt, Theresa
Seher, Catherine
Snell, Samuel, Sr.
Snell, Mrs. Katherine
Snell, Samuel, Jr.,
Snell, Mrs. Margaret
Snell, Richard
Snell, Mrs. Hazel
Snell, Richard
Snell, Mrs. Richard
Spratt, John
Springer, Mrs. Anna
Stenger, Dorothy M.
Stenger, Ethel May
Sutterline, Mrs. Thelma
Tatum, Mr.
Weber, John
Weber, Lettie
Watts, Sarah
Young, Mrs. Laura

WHERE IS YOUR PAINT ENVELOPE?

TEXT SEARCHING FOR SEPTEMBER

Subject: "BELIEVE"

	Bk.	Ch.	Ver.
1. "Only Believe."	S. Luke
2. "Believe in the light."	S. John
3. All men through him might believe."	S. John
4. "How long will it be ere they believe me?"	Num.
5. "That he might be the father of all them that believe."	Rom.
6. "We also believe, and therefore speak."	II Cor.
7. "The devils believe and tremble."	S. Jas.
8. "He that believeth on him shall not be confounded."	I Pet.
9. "Why then do ye not believe?"	S. Mark
10. "Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief."	S. Mark
11. "Believe in the Lord your God."	II Chron.
12. "How long will it be ere they believe me?"	Num.
13. "They believed not in God and trusted not in his Salvation."	Ps.
14. "By him all that believe are justified."	Acts
15. "As thou hast believed so be it unto thee."	S. Matt.
16. "Believe ye that I am able to do this?"	S. Matt.
17. "All things are possible to him that believeth."	S. Mark
18. "Believe that ye receive them and ye shall have them."	S. Mark
19. "They believed the Scriptures, and the word which Jesus had said."	S. John
20. "How shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things?"	S. John
21. "How can ye believe?"	S. John
22. "If ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?"	S. John
23. "He that believeth on me shall never thirst."	S. John
24. "Ye also have seen me, and believe not."	S. John
25. "Neither did his brethren believe in him."	S. John
26. "Have any of the rulers of the Pharisees believed on him?"	S. John
27. "Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed."	Rom.
28. How shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard	Rom.
29. "That ye may know and believe me."	Isa.
30. "All things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing ye shall receive."	S. Matt.
31. "If I do not the works of my father, believe me not."	S. John

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

VACATION DAYS ARE OVER

$500.00 more in the Paint Pot and we will be giving jobs to a lot of unemployed members of our parish.

There are quite a large number of parishioners who have not turned in their paint envelope. We refer to those who have steady jobs. WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?

John Weber reports THE TREASURY OF THE CHURCH IS EMPTY. Scores of parishoners have failed to turn in their church envelopes since the First Sunday in Advent. ARE YOU A DELINQUENT?

After being closed the whole month of August the church opened Sunday, September 4th with a surprisingly large congregation.

The Board of Health delayed the opening of our Sunday School until Sunday, 25th because of the epidemic of infantile paralysis.

St. John's Employment Bureau reopened Monday, September 12th, at 9.30 A. M. If you know of any open jobs report them at once to the Bureau. WE NEED JOBS FOR BOTH MEN AND WOMEN.

The Church Choir rendered a beautiful musical service at the Masonic Home Sunday, September 11th. Mr. Jeremiah Rutter was the Soloist. Bro. Vernon Matthews read the lesson and the Rector preached the sermon. The service was under the auspices of Apollo Lodge No. 386, F. and A. M. of which both Bro. Matthews and the Rector are members.

Get Ready for That Community Harvest Home

Wanted—At Once!

The sum of $500.00 to meet our parish expenses. Paying up YOUR delinquent envelopes will MORE THAN MEET THE DEMAND.

If you are out of a job ask God to help you find one, then get out and hunt.

Are you out of a job? Are you worried? Is the rent overdue? Are the grocer and the butcher showing a reluctance to sell you any more on credit? Are the baker and the milk man pressing you for money? Do things look desperate? THEN READ I PETER 5:7.

Poverty Teaches the Golden Lesson of Economy

The Lesson Plan for the Sunday School for the year is the study of THE MISSIONARY JOURNEYS OF JESUS CHRIST. The Bible will be the only text book.

WHILE YOU ARE UNEMPLOYED WHY NOT VISIT THE SICK, THE AGED AND THE SHUT-INS OF THE PARISH? They would be delighted to see you.

May we suggest that the Sunday School teachers visit their scholars between this and the time Sunday School opens.

A Challenge to Sunday School Workers

By Rev. W. B. Forney

In letters dated February 21st and November 1st 1929, Justice Lewis L. Fawcett, of the Supreme Court of New York, stated some facts that should interest every Sunday School worker. These facts are all the more important because of the long experience and intimate connection of the writer with the conditions he so ably discussed.

Justice Fawcett said:

"Crime is costing these United States upwards of $10,000,000,000 a year in money and a value in ruined lives far beyond all possible computation."

"My experience during 22 years on the bench, in which time over 4,000 boys under twenty-one years of age were convicted of crime before me, of whom but three were members of a Sunday School, has satisfied me of the value of Sunday Schools to the community, in helping safeguard it from the growth of criminals."

"In 1,092 cases of suspended criminal sentences, in each of which a minister, priest or rabbi became interested at my request, only 62 boys were brought back for violation of the conditions of the parole. I believe the reform in the remaining cases (over 1,000) was prompt and permanent."

"There are over 17,000,000 boys and girls in this country growing up without moral training from any source, Protestant, Catholic or Jewish."

"Society carries the heavy burden of criminality chiefly because of the lack of religious training of the youth."

"The religious forces are the only ones that can deal effectively with this great and most important problem at its source."

From the above facts we draw the following conclusions:

1. Crime is costing our nation heavily in money and ruined lives.

2. The Sunday School has proven its two-fold worth in preventing crime and transforming youthful criminals into useful citizens.

3. Over 17,000,000 boys and girls are growing into manhood and womanhood without religious training.

4. The present wave of crime is due to the lack of religious training.

A few years ago some comparisons were made between the States of New York and Pennsylvania, relative to Sunday School enrollment and attendance, from which we take the following figures:

New York, with a population of over 10,000,000, had 6391 Sunday Schools with an enrollment of 1,217,871 and an average attendance of 45.3 per cent. of this enrollment or 5.3 per cent. of the total population of the State.

Pennsylvania, with a population of about 9,000,000 had 10,640 Sunday Schools with an enrollment of 2,133,446 and an average attendance of 84.3 per cent. of this enrollment or 20.6 per cent. of the population of the State.

New York and Pennsylvania are neighboring States and naturally have very similar conditions and problems. There is one outstanding difference, however, between these States. New York, due to the passage of anti-Sabbath bills, has materially lowered its standard of Sabbath observance while Pennsylvania has maintained its standard by retaining its Sunday law.

It is interesting to note that in the State where the Sunday law is retained and reasonably well enforced, the enrollment and attendance of the Sunday School is noticeably high.

From the above facts we conclude:

1. When Sunday School attendance increases,

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
1820 CHESTNUT STREET
NO CHARGE FOR USE OF FUNERAL PARLORS
RIT. 1581 M. A. BAIR President RACE 1110

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

BUY

A Square Yard of

PAINTING

and so HELP the

Unemployed

of St. John's Parish

at the same time

Beautify St. John's Church

crime decreases.

2. Where the Sunday law is maintained and properly enforced, Sunday School attendance increases.

3. A Sunday law properly enforced is essential if the Sunday Schools are to have sufficient time to supply religious training.

Static From Many Stations

Minister: Do you say your prayers every night, Oswald?

Oswald: No, some nights I don't want anything.
—From the Christian Intelligencer.

Teacher to boy who had his feet in the aisle and was chewing gum.

"Willie, take that gum out of your mouth and put your feet in."

A great command of language enables one to keep still.

Many a fellow who howls loudest for justice doesn't want it.

The think tank is like the gas tank—it won't take you anywhere if it's empty.

We know that some men have a head because we see them wear a hat on it.

Throwing rice at wedding originated in India, where rice is one the staple foods, thus wishing the young people plenty to eat.

PLEASANT WORDS

SOME Pleasant little Words one day
Set out upon their travels,
And what befell them you may learn
As this, my tale, unravels.

The tumble of a tiny tot
Appeared to him most tragic,
But Pleasant Words soon picked him up
And dried his tears like magic.

They chanced upon some children who
Were quarreling together,
But Pleasant Words chased off the clouds,
And brought back sunny weather.

They coaxed smiles from a lonely child,
Gave courage to one fearful;
And everywhere they went was heard
The sound of laughter cheerful.

There are so many Pleasant Words!
Here's hoping folks will choose them,
For this will be a better world
When all the people use them.

—Written for "Sunshine" by Pauline Frances Camp.

Sylvester S. Garrett

Headquarters for
PAPER and CORDAGE
For Every Purpose

259 South Third Street

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 6, No. 10 PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER, 1932 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
Samuel Snell, Sr.
B. Frank Drumm.
William Hasson
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Director
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Mary Leach,

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Harry McCall
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell
Mr. Robert Rutter

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Vernon Matthews, Director.
Vice-Director.
Frank Drumm, Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Hannah Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Olsen, Ingrid Marlene
Shoch, Albert Cornelius
Corbett, Thomas
Heinemann, Raymond George
Strauman, Doris Margarite

BURIALS

Alahazy, Eugene T.
Rosenthal, Florence

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.45
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.30
Evening Service and Address		8.00
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
2nd and 4th Thursdays
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew		7.30
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

THE UNREACHED MILLIONS

For those to whom Thy living word
Of light and love is never given;
For those whose ears have never heard
The promise and the hope of Heaven!

For broken heart, and clouded mind,
Whereon no human mercies fall,
Oh, by Thy gracious love inclined,
Who, as a Father, pitiest all!

Grant, gracious Father, that the time
Of earth's deliverance may be near,
When every land and tongue and clime
The message of Thy love shall hear—

When, smitten as with fire from Heaven,
The captive's chain shall sink in dust,
And to his fettered soul be given
The glorious freedom of the just!

—Whittier.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The first meeting of St. John's Chapter of the Woman's Auxiliary was held Monday, September 19th, in the Sunday School room of the Church. A fair number of members were present. The enthusiasm ran high and everybody seemed to be in the spirit to work.

After the usual devotional service there was the Reading of the Minutes of the previous meeting in June, the Report of the Treasurer and the reading of correspondence. As it was too early in the season for the various diocesan branches to meet in the Church House, the Standing Committees had no reports to present.

The Auxiliary then proceeded to reorganize for the coming year. The Secretary, Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., and the Treasurer, Mrs. Frank G. Schmidt, were reappointed to their respective positions.

The Rector appointed the following to serve on the Standing Commmittees of the Auxiliary for 1932-33.

Domestic Committee
Mrs. Harry Carbarnes
Mrs. Sarah Cunningham
Mrs. Augustus Pearo

Indian Hope Committee
Mrs. Charles Beiseer
Miss Dolly Fowler
Miss May Leach

Committee on Colored Work
Mrs. Frank Schmidt
Mrs. Mary Corson
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh

Diocesan Committee
Mrs. Rudolph Woerner, Sr.
Mrs. Harry Fanger
Miss M. B. Fisher

Foreign Committee
Miss Hannah Nuttall
Miss Anna Schabacker
Mrs. M. Armstrong

Choir Vestment Committee
Mrs. Frank Schmidt
Mrs. Charles Beisser
Mrs. Sara Cunningham
Miss Anna Schabacker
Mrs. Laura Young
Mrs. Emma Madden

Membership Committee
Miss Anna Schabacker
Mrs. Laura Young
Mrs. Harry Fanger
Mrs. Frank Schmidt

Visiting Committee to Sick and Shut-ins
Miss Dolly Fowler
Miss Hannah Nuttall
Mrs. Harry Fanger
Mrs. Mary Corson
Miss Anna Schabacker
Mrs. Annie MacVaugh
Mrs. Bella Shields

In explanation of the three extra Standing Committees, the Rector stated the MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE was a real necessity to arouse the women of the Parish to their sense of responsibility regarding the progress of the Auxiliary. It is for the members of the Committee to GIVE EVERY WOMAN, OVER THE AGE OF 18 YEARS, TO UNDERSTAND THAT SHE IS A MEMBER OF THE AUXILIARY AND THAT IT IS HER DUTY AND PRIVILEGE TO ATTEND AND PARTICIPATE IN EVERY MEETING OF THE ORGANIZATION.

As to the COMMITTEE ON VISTING THE SICK AND SHUT-INS, he has planned to establish a closer contact between the sick and shut-in and parochial activities so that they will feel they are not neglected or forgotten. Miss Fowler, who is acting as a Parish Visitor, is a member of this Committee, and as she is constantly moving among the families of the Parish, thus coming in personal touch with all such unfortunate sufferers, the Rector has appointed her Chairman of the Committee in order that the Committee may know without delay who are sick and who ought to receive the attention of the Committee.

Everybody knows the need of a Committee to look after the Choir Vestments. We owe it to the members of our Choir that each member should be decently vested. They are a group of young men and women who take pleasure in volunteering their Friday evenings and Sundays in service for the Church. The Rector has always recognized the value of this service and he feels he owes it to them to create the COMMITTEE ON CHOIR

VESTMENTS whose duty it is to meet every third Friday of the month to examine the Choir vestments, repair what needs repairing and replacing such as are worn out. The Committee is instructed to report the condition of the vestments at every meeting of the Auxiliary.

THE FAMILY WELFARE DEPARTMENT

The Rector notified the Auxiliary of the expanding of the Parochial Welfare Service. Every day the Parish House is opened from 9.00 to 11.30 A. M., to receive applications for relief and work. Miss Nuttall is in the office during those hours to receive such applicants. Miss Fowler, who has volunteered to do Parish Visiting, is spending all day visiting the homes of the Parishioners to learn all she can of their life and their needs. Her idea is to get a line on all the unemployed men and women and juniors of work age and refer them to our Employment Bureau; to learn if there are any sick in the family, any children unbaptized, any children of Sunday School age who are being neglected, any members unconfirmed, whether confirmed members are regularly receiving the Sacraments and whether they are availing themselves of every means of Grace, whether there are Bibles and Prayer Books in the homes and whether every member has Church envelopes.

THE EMPLOYMENT BUREAU

In the meantime, the corporations, business houses and stores of South Philadelphia are being circularized and given the information that St. John's Church is maintaining a FREE EMPLOYMENT BUREAU which is open daily for their patronage. We will guarantee to supply men and women and juniors of work age for almost any sort of a position FREE OF CHARGE to either the prospective employer or employee and we will furnish a satisfactory recommendation with any applicant we send on a job.

In connection with the work problem we have acquired the temporary services of B. Frank Drumm to visit the various business houses and firms of Southwark and solicit their patronage of our EMPLOYMENT BUREAU. Also, we are raising a fund to employ the painters and carpenters to paint the interior of the church. Before the job can be completed we must raise $500.00 more; and, when the sum IS raised, we will be able to give employment to a dozen men for over six weeks.

The Rector is hoping that the EMPLOYMENT BUREAU will become an active part of our Welfare work. Employment is the only way of keeping men and women contented and happy. No red blooded man likes to feel he is a charity case. Shame and resentment, over his enforced idleness and the consequent dependence on others for food and clothing, drive him almost to desperation. Every unemployed person having a spark of independence resents the position in which he is placed. He is no beggar, he is a worker and he demands a chance to earn his daily bread.

It is in the hearts and minds of just such desperate men and women that foreign representatives of the SOVIET find fertile soil to sow their deadly seed of false social conceptions. "If the present order of civilization is unable to maintain the worker in comfort and peace, then the order must be changed," is the centre thought of those iconaclasts. THEY ARE CAREFUL TO HIDE THE TRUTH THAT IN PULLING DOWN THE PRESENT ORDER OF THINGS, THEY ARE BUILDING UP A FRANKENSTEIN WHICH WILL UTTERLY DESTROY THEIR INDEPENDENCE AND MAKE THEM SLAVES TO A RUTHLESS AND PITILESS INSTITUTION WHICH KNOWS NEITHER JUSTICE NOR HUMAN RIGHTS, EXCEPT FOR THOSE WHO ARE ITS SELF APPOINTED ARBITRARY HEADS.

The matters of the Paint Fund, Coal Fund, the Bazaar and the Christmas Fund were discussed at length. The Rector notified the members that NOW is the time to redeem all pledges of gifts for the Bazaar.

At the end of the address the Rector made a special plea to the women to help build up a strong Sunday evening service. It is inconceivable to him how so many of his parishioners can, with such easy conscience, renounce their spiritual obligations in favor of Sunday evening dancing and bridge parties. WERE WE A CONGREGATION OF JEWS THE RECTOR COULD UNDERSTAND AND APPRECIATE SUCH A SLIP FROM GRACE FOR NEITHER DO THEY "REMEMBER THE SABBATH DAY TO KEEP IT HOLY."

After the Roll Call and payment of dues the Rector treated the members to refreshments.

THE NEXT MEETING OF THE AUXILIARY WILL BE A RECEPTION TO THE WOMEN OF THE PARISH, WITH A SPECIAL SPEAKER AND REFRESHMENTS. DATE, MONDAY, OCTOBER 10TH, 8.00 P. M.

WHY A PRIEST?

Either He Is or He Is Not a Man of Authority in the Community

No reader will accuse the writer of being anything but a low churchman. Yet, even low churchmen have high principles and expect his people to co-operate with him in maintaining them. Because certain of the flock are beginning to ignore the authority of the Shepherd, your Rector feels it his duty to reason out this matter with you.

The communicant is fast acquiring the idea that the position of the priest is limited to certain ecclesiastical acts, beyond which he has no province. He, as Rector of the Parish, has the Sacraments to consecrate and minister; it is his duty to visit the sick; to prepare men and women for death; to christen infants; to present persons for Confirmation; to bless the wedding of couples; to preach sermons; to read the service; to teach the young. Beyond these duties he is not expected to go. His authority ceases with his performance of these several functions.

If your Rector thought his authority over his people ended here he would resign his job and seek an occupation worth while. One can scarcely imagine such a colorless and mechanical business as such a monotonous round of occupations.

Understand us rightly. We do not mean to state that all the duties we have mentioned are unimportant. They are most essential to the last detail. What we mean to say is these priestly functions compose only a part of his office. HE IS A MAN OF AUTHORITY IN HIS COMMUNITY and it is his duty to ever exercise his authority in moral and spiritual matters. He is not supposed to interfere with a man's politics or with any other matter that does not touch upon morals or spiritual things. But it is his duty, as the Father-in-God of his people to warn them in matters touching their moral and spiritual lives. He has not only the right but it is his peculiar duty to admonish a young man or young woman against a course of action which is wrong and, if indulged, will bring sin and shame upon them and upon the Church. It is his duty to insist that his people observe the simple laws of God and it is not necessary for him to deliver his admonitions in the general and promiscuous way of sermonizing. He has a right and it is his duty to enter the home and remonstrate with any or all the members of that family circle, if any or all of that family circle are living in defiance of the laws of God.

MANY PARISHIONERS HAVE IN THIS GENERATION ASSUMED THE RIGHT OF INTERPRETING THE LAWS OF GOD TO SUIT THEIR PERSONAL INCLINATIONS AND THEN LIVE ACCORDING TO THE SPURIOUS MORAL PHILOSOPHY THEY HAVE CONCOCTED. They are usurping the authority of the Priest to their own hurt. If the Priest is the Moral Instructor of his people, it is their duty to respect his authority and to follow his instructions. If every parishioner is a law unto himself and does not need the guidance of the Priest of God, then the thing to do is not to rob him of his authority but rather to banish him along with the Church of God out of their life entirely.

If your Rector reminds you that you are lax in Church attendance or any other means of Grace, he does so for your own spiritual benefit. If he warns you against a course he knows will lead to evil results he is fulfilling his oath to God and the Church that he "may teach the people committed to his cure and charge with all diligence to keep and observe the same," and "to use both public and private monitions and exhortations, as well to the sick as to the whole, within his cures, as need shall be required, and occasion shall be given."

The above sentences in quotations are taken from the Office Ordering Priests, Prayer Book, Page 539-40. CONSEQUENTLY, THE AUTHORITY OF HIS MINISTRY IS GIVEN HIM AT HIS ORDINATION AND THAT AUTHORITY IS EXTENDED OVER THOSE WHO COME UNDER HIS PASTORAL CARE AND IT MUST BE RESPECTED TO BE OF ANY PRACTICAL USE TO THE COMMUNICANT. He must have the authority of "must" and "must not" over his flock. Of course, it is to be generally understood that this authority is not of the austere type; nevertheless, it must never be forgotten that it is potent and must be respected.

Some will say, no doubt, times have changed; and the authority of the Priest of God is on the wane. Then the CHURCH must be on the wane; SALVATION must be on the wane; HEAVEN must be on the wane; GOD must be on the wane; HOPE must be on the wane and we are abandoned to the cruelty of a Godless world!

Your Pastor may not and very likely will not always please you with his advice. His views may cut squarely across your desires. You may grow sullen and resentful. Like a wilful child you may determine you will have your own way and scorn the authority of your Father-in-God. But always remember, dear parishioner, you are taking a lawless course which sooner or later will bring its own punishment. YOU CANNOT ESCAPE THE CONSEQUENCES OF YOUR OWN ACTS OF DISOBEDIENCE. Therefore, the sum of the matter is this: Either your Pastor is a man of authority in all matters vital to your moral and spiritual growth or he has no authority whatever. In which case he is useless to the community, a drone to Society, a man self-deluded.

WHO STARTED IT?

Customs Don't Just Happen.
Somebody Originates—Then Humanity Follows

For instance, who started wearing trousers? What was his name? Before he got the bright idea men were wearing loin cloths and tiger skins. Then HE came along with his pair of trousers and permanently changes the style of "gents" clothing. This is only an instance of somebody starting something and failing to take out a patent right IN HIS OWN NAME so as to get credit for the invention.

We were led into this peculiar line of speculation by trying to fix the identity of the person or persons who started the modern methods of financing the church. We know the ancient Jews or the early Christians did not originate the system in vogue today. The Old Testament is very explicit on the subject of how to raise funds for the building and maintenance of the Temple and Divine worship. It tells of how men and women set aside a goodly portion of their possessions to pay into the Treasury of the Temple and how they always accompanied their worship with all sorts of worthy offerings. Thus were the expenses of the Temple liquidated. We search vainly the pages of Holy Writ for an incident that shows the authorities of the Temple being forced to stand before the Altar of Jehovah and make the announcement to the congregation that on such a day of the month Zif, the young Hebrews Association, will give a card party, admission a half shekel. Proceeds to go towards the salaries of the priests of the Temple. Sounds rather ridiculous, doesn't it?

Also, it is explicitly stated in the New Testament the funds of the early Christian Church were raised entirely by voluntary offerings of money and real estate. See Acts 4:31-37.

We do not wish to appear lacking in dignity or in the proper respect for sacred subjects but we simply cannot refrain from observing how absurd it is to even imagine St. Peter announcing to the Church-at-large that a Bazaar, under the auspices of the Dorcas Society, will be given on such a date, the proceeds to be turned over to the newly appointed deacons for the relief and support of the widows of the Church. See Acts 6:1-6.

Even the heathen whom we accuse of "bowing down to wood and stone" seemed to have more respect for their wooden headed and stony hearted idols than to set up lotteries and other gambling games to raise money to maintain their temples and finance their religion. They invariably brought an offering with them to their worship. At least we do not hear of them holding a dutch supper in the basement of the Temple to defray the expenses for repairs.

No; it remained for the Christian Church of comparatively modern times to produce a money-raising freak who taught us how to cancel the mortgage, raise the rector's salary, buy the winter's coal, meet the gas and electric bills and pay the organist's and sexton's salaries from the receipts of a supper, a dance, a banquet, an entertainment, a bridge party, a bazaar, a beauty contest, a gambling scheme or an excursion.

We do not know the name of this freak of perverted church finances. We wish we did. We would like to get his photograph, too. We would like to hang it beside that of the other Judas who betrayed his Master for money. We wonder if he was a throw back from that man Simon, who tried to do business in sacred things on a cash basis with the Apostle Peter. Or was he the son of one of the Jews whom Jesus scurged from the Court of the Temple for commercializing the sacrifices and attempting to convert his Father's house into a den of thieves?

Whoever was the originator of the modern method of financing the Church of God, he struck a blow at the very roots of worship and destroyed the beautiful and sacred conception of offerings and oblations. For that one sin he deserves the lasting condemnation of every right-thinking Christian.

If the Church must slow down on its spiritual program and go into business and sell you something before you will contribute to its support the Church can never be the instrument for righteousness which Jesus Christ meant it to be. If she must stuff her children with chicken salad and give them two hours' entertainment before she can get the purse strings loose, there is little hope for her reaching their inner consciousness with the precious secrets of the Kingdom of God.

Are We Against Church Socials? NO!!

Not one word of our long harangue against the fellow "who started it" must be taken to mean we don't like church suppers, church entertainments, etc. On the contrary we do like 'em a lot. We like 'em so much we feel we ought to give them frequently and FREE, so that everybody—the poor as well as the better conditioned of the parish—might enjoy all of them. WE LIKE THE IDEA OF CHRISTIANS PLAYING AROUND WITH CHRISTIANS AND GETTING ALL THE FUN POSSIBLE OUT OF LIFE WITHOUT MONEY AND WITHOUT PRICE.

But we pray for the return of the Ancient Custom of giving offerings and making sacrifices in order that we may praise God with our substance as well as with our lips so that the Church of God be no longer an object of scorn in the hearts of the scoffers; but that the world may see and know what we believe in our hearts we practice in our lives and gladly "render unto God the things that are God's."

Broadcasting from Station S. T. J. C.

You have WORRIED over the depression but have you PRAYED over it yet?

COAL COAL COAL

* * * *

We hate to buy coal. Every time we throw a shovel of coal on the furnace fire we have the horrible sensation of burning up perfectly good dollars. The greatest benefactor to mankind is going to be the inventor of a fireless heater. However, as he has not yet made his discovery it is up to us to raise the necessary funds to pay our winter's fuel bill. That being the case suppose we agree on SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6TH, AS COAL SUNDAY. Be sure to bring your coal envelopes that day and get your names in the next issue of the Broadcaster.

* * * *

The Community Harvest Home

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew proposed some months ago that the Parish give a HARVEST HOME to collect food, fruit, vegetables, clothing, money, etc., to be distributed among the families of the unemployed, in Southwark. They are asking the co-operation of all the parish organizations and church members. Donations of canned goods, dry groceries or anything that is not perishable like vegetables and fruit will be received now. THE DATE OF THE HARVEST HOME IS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 27TH AT 8.00 P. M. in the Parish House—Entertainment and Community singing will constitute the evening's program. PRICE OF ADMISSION, ONE PACKAGE OF GROCERIES.

* * * *

You have WORRIED over the depression; have you PRAYED over it?

* * * *

OUR ANNUAL BAZAAR

It is our intention to have our Bazaar, December 1st, 2nd and 3rd, the depression to the contrary notwithstanding. ADMISSION, 10 CENTS.

* * * *

St. John's Sunday School held its first session of the season, Sunday, October 2nd, at 2.30 P. M.

* * * *

REMEMBER

St. John's Parish has entered aggressively into the Family Welfare game. The move was forced on us. The Church is in the center of one of the most congested districts of working families in the city. The distress due to lack of employment is beyond description. Families who have always been self-supporting are actually starving. Agents of foreign SOVIET propaganda are active in sowing the seed of class hatred and social discontent in this soil prepared for anything that promises relief from the present intolerable conditions. The sufferers are asking who is to blame? Unscrupulous and lying propagandists are pointing the accusing finger at our American civilization and our Christian institutions and shouting there are the culprits. Destroy them and ye shall be free. It is an attempt to help our brothers to think clearly and to act sanely that we have opened our Family Welfare Department. The office hours are from 9 to 11.30 A. M., every day. Make your applications for jobs and relief during these hours and we will do what we can to render aid and supply relief.

St. John's Church Not An Auxiliary To Any Organization

The Following Letter and Reply Do Much to Clear the Atmosphere on a Much Misunderstood Matter of Long Standing

THE LETTER

Dear Sir:

A few lines to let you know that I was up to get help and the lady that took Miss————place told me she could not do a thing. I think it is funny having children coming to Sunday School and when a body wants a little help can't help the only thing she told me she could me a lofe of bread but what is a lofe of bread for 6 children, so I could not waite till the bread come as I had to get back home to the baby, so if I can't get help for your's why I am not going to send my children to Sunday School are church I'll have them took in another and I'll go there myself, as everybody says why don't your church help you, all I can tell them is they don't help. After Mr.———— is working I don't care for help if he makes enough.

Yours truly,

Mrs.————

THE ANSWER

My Dear Mrs. ————:

I am in receipt of your letter. In reply would state that at this time when there are so many thousands of folk out of work and hungry, it is natural that there should be delays in relieving the distress. Also, when there are so many families to feed the supply will not always reach every person. We are doing the best we can under the circumstances.

Now as to your threat that you will take your children away from St. John's Sunday School and send them elsewhere if the City Mission does not help you. Evidently you do not know St. John's Church is in no way connected with the City Mission. It is a separate institution and receives no money nor support of any kind from the City Mission; consequently, for you to take your children from St. John's Sunday School because the City Mission did not give you relief, would be like whipping a boy for what his brother did. You must certainly see how unjust that would be.

On the other hand, if you are sending your children to St. John's Sunday School just for what you can get out of the church in the shape of grocery orders, etc., your motives are not very high and your reasons for sending them are not founded upon a very secure spiritual foundation. Your letter reads as though you were driving a bargain i. e., if the City Mission gives you grocery orders you will send your children to St. John's Sunday School. If the City Mission does not give you grocery orders you will send your children to some other Sunday School. Very well, if that is your bargain you may make the change any time you desire. I am glad to have your children come to St. John's Sunday School, but I REFUSE FLATLY TO BE COERCED INTO USING THE CITY MISSION AS AN INSTRUMENT IN BUYING YOU TO SEND THEM. We do not want them to come to our Sunday School under such conditions.

In the meantime, if the City Mission can do anything to relieve your distress we will be happy to be of assistance.

Very truly yours,
H. Cresson McHenry.

Text Searching for October

Subject: "GRACE"

	Bk.	Ch.	Ver.
1. "Grace be unto you and peace."	I Cor.
2. "The Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all."	Rev.
3. "Grow in Grace."	II Pet.
4. "The God of all grace."	I Pet.
5. "Ye all are partakers of my grace."	Phil.
6. "Since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth."	Col.
7. "Singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord."	Col.
8. "Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt."	Col.
9. "Good hope through grace."	II Thess.
10. "The grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love."	I Tim.
11. "The grace of God———hath appeared to all men."	Titus
12. "Being justified by His grace we should be made heirs."	Titus
13. "He through the grace of God should taste death for everymore."	Heb.
14. "Come boldly unto the throne of grace."	Heb.
15. "Find grace to help in time of need."	Heb.
16. "Lest any man fail of the grace of God."	Heb.
17. "It is a good thing that the heart be established with grace."	Heb.
18. "By the grace of God I am what I am."	I Cor.
19. "His grace was bestowed upon me."	I Cor.
20. "The grace of God.	I Cor.
21. "Ye receive not the grace of God in vain."	II Cor.
22. "See that ye abound in this grace also.	II Cor.
23. "God is able to make all grace abound toward you."	II Cor.
24. "Called me by his grace.	Gal.
25. "I do not frustrate the grace of God."	Gal.
26. "Ye are fallen from grace."	Gal.
27. "By grace ye are saved."	Eph.
28. "By grace ye are saved through faith."	Eph.
29. "Unto me———is this grace given."	Eph.
30. Unto every one is grace given."	Eph.
31. "An ornament of grace unto thine head."	Prov.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
1820 CHESTNUT STREET
NO CHARGE FOR USE OF FUNERAL PARLORS
RIT. 1581 M. A. BAIR President RACE 1110

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

BUY

A Square Yard of

PAINTING

and so HELP the

Unemployed

of St. John's Parish

at the same time

Beautify St. John's Church

DOES CRIME PAY?

Crime does not pay, but we pay for crime. In a recent report, one thousand million dollars, or three million dollars a day, was the cost of crime in the United States during 1929 and 1930. This included racketeering, fraud, swindling, extortion, bootlegging, and blackmail. Many of the frauds perpetrated are never discovered, so it is possible that even this estimate does not entirely cover the cost. According to the Wickersham commission, it cost every man, woman and child five dollars and forty-seven cents to enforce the law. The criminal cost to the country is tabulated as follows:

Federal criminal law administration	$52,786,000
State police	2,660,000
State penal and correctional institutions	51,720,000
Criminal law administration in three hundreds cities	247,700,000
Private industrial police in Pennsylvania	1,260,000
Private protective service in large cities	10,000,000
Private watchman	159,000,000
Armored-car service	3,900,000
Private correctional treatment of criminals	850,000
Insured losses due to crime	47,000,000
Mail frauds	68,000,000
Insurance against crime	106,000,000
Safes, chests, vaults	4,227,000
Bullet-proof glass	311,000
Known incendiarism	2,000,000
Burglary of banks	1,800,000
Thefts from jewelers	2,000,000
Railroad freight thefts	1,100,000
Forgeries	40,000,000
Indirect cost through loss of productive labor	322,000,000
Total	$1,124,314,000

Profanity

The trouble with profanity is not so much that it is wicked, as that it is plain dirty.

We can overlook an honest swear word once in a while but no one can overlook a dirt word. Even the person who says it is not proud of it.

Decent people are disgusted by the swearer and religious people are shocked.

Swearing has never been known to help a fellow get a better job but it has lost jobs for some people.

Swearing is the sign of a limited vocabulary. It means that you don't know how to talk. It is a sign of ignorance and weakness. It never helped anything. Swearing keeps bad company. It is the companion of ignorance, brutality and anger. You are judged by your company.

Don't swear.

Sylvester S. Garrett

Headquarters for
PAPER and CORDAGE
For Every Purpose

259 South Third Street

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 6, No. 11 PHILADELPHIA, NOVEMBER, 1932 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Mr. Charles Little, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Charles Little
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
Samuel Snell, Sr.
B. Frank Drumm.
William Hasson
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Director

Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss Mary Leach,

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Harry McCall
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell
Mr. Robert Rutter

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Vernon Matthews, Director.
Vice-Director.
Frank Drumm, Secretary.
Charles Little, Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Charles Little, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Rudolph Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Whipple, Shirley May

BURIALS

Alloway, Sarah
French, Margaret A.

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.45
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.30
Evening Service and Address		8.00
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
2nd and 4th Thursdays
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew		7.30
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

RAYS OF SUNSHINE

When you see a way of helping
Make somebody glad,
Brighten up the lives of others
Who are often sad.
Just a little word of kindness,
Or a joyous smile
Help to drive away life's sorrows
For a little while.

Every act and thought of kindness
Add sunshine to life,
And will lessen cares and troubles
And much earthly strife
Then be little rays of sunshine,
Full of loving deeds,
For that is the kind of comfort
Everybody needs.

Martha Shepard Lippincott.
5204 Jefferson Street, W. Philadelphia, Pa.

LET US BE THANKFUL

We Have Every Reason to Be Thankful to Almighty God For What He Has Done

Are you wondering to yourself what has God done for me that I should be thankful? Has this year been a particularly trying one? Have you been a victim of unemployment and all its attendant miseries? Have you learned what it is to be hungry and see your loved ones hungry? Have you for the first time in your life been forced to depend on the charity of others? Does it seem absurd under the circumstances to "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow?"

We have no doubt resentment follows suffering in most such instances. Often we are prone to blame God for our evil circumstances and feel we are being unjustly treated.

There is no doubt in our mind that God is responsible for our unhappy state in the sense that He has permitted it to happen. That it has happened, however, cannot be attributed to God. We, ourselves, are the culpable folk. For a generation we have been guilty of living in outrageous luxury; we have spent money like drunken sailors. Whatever took our fancy we bought and paid the price which was ridiculously high. We went to our jobs wearing silk shirts. Many of us bought automobiles and drove to work like millionaires. We bought high-priced radios. We spent our money on all sorts of folly. Everybody was riding the crest of the wave in an insane frenzy of hilarity. For long years God patiently waited for us to reap what we had sown. Sorrow followed folly; poverty followed plenty; starvation followed waste. And so all the way down the ladder into the very depth of misery and suffering. Yes, God allowed you and me to go clear to the insane limit that when we had suffered as much as we could endure we would at last come to our senses and return and walk in the paths of righteousness and peace and be at-one with Him again.

That He so loved us as to save us from our self-imposed suffering so that we did not perish in our sin ought to inspire us to praise and thank Him for His patience with us. This Thanksgiving Day ought to find us turning our faces to the Temple a penitent people pleading for forgiveness for our sins of luxury, extravagance and sinful waste.

This is God's way of bringing us back to Him. Because He is good; for His mercy endureth forever.

Clean Words From Clean Minds

Every boy has seen streams that were clear and others that were muddy. If he stopped to think, he knew that the muddy water was coming from a muddy source. He does not want to swim or wade in that kind of a stream, but in one where the water looks clean and inviting.

When a boy sees streams of human beings with whom he comes in contact, in school, in play, in gatherings of various kinds, and hears smutty conversation, he naturally reaches the conclusion that the source of such language is unclean—that there must be something "muddy" inside a person's mind who uses such a language. The clean-minded boy does not want to "wade in" such a foul stream.

The best way to keep from becoming a foul-mouthed man is to resolve to be a clean-minded and clean-living boy, refusing to tell a smutty story, and as far as possible, to keep from hearing such a story. An incident related of General Grant is a good one for every boy to remember: One day a man in a group of men that included General Grant said, "I see there are no ladies here, so I will tell a little story." When a man talks that way, everyone knows what kind of a story he has in mind. General Grant spoke up: "But remember, Sir, that there are gentlemen here." The man didn't tell his story to that group.

Sometimes boys find themselves in situations where they cannot avoid hearing an unclean story, but they can do as many a clean-living youth has done before: refuse to laugh at the story, and resolve that it shall never be repeated. Someone has said, on this point:

"We cannot keep the birds from flying over our heads, but we can keep them from building nests in our hair."—Will H. Brown.

A Little Story From Our Neighborhood

We hear so much about the improvidence of the poor that we get to thinking the poor are to blame for their poverty. Here is an interesting little story of a true incident which happened in the Parish a few days ago. In June we opened our Summer Vacation School for the boys and girls of the Parish. We announced at the opening that we would give prizes to those who excelled in the different departments of the school. At the end of the vacation school term the boys and girls of this school would give an entertainment, the program to be arranged so that the parents and friends of the children could see what had been taught them during the summer. Then the Infantile Paralysis Epidemic struck the city and the children could not give their entertainment until weeks after the school was closed. A few nights ago the entertainment was given and the prizes awarded. The Rector had some money given him by interested friends to be used for the children in any way he saw fit. He determined to use it as prizes for the winners. Instead of buying prizes he gave each winner a dollar note in an envelope and told them they were to spend the dollar as they chose. In that way, he said, each would be satisfied with what she got. If they wanted to buy dolls, candy, ice cream or go to the movies it was all the same to them. He did not mention spending the money for anything useful, 'though he knew most of the girls are desperately poor. You can imagine his surprise and delight when he learned a few days after the entertainment that nearly all the prize-winners spent their prize money on useful things such as shoes, stockings, petticoats, etc., etc. He has not heard of one of the prize-winners—21 in all—who spent their money foolishly.

We congratulate the girls for their wonderful exhibition of common sense and self-restraint. It makes us feel so good that we would love to buy and distribute big boxes of candy among them. Think of having the money to spend on a good time and buying shoes and petticoats with it!

The next person you hear talking about the improvidence of the poor, please tell 'em of the 21 prize-winning girls of St. John's Parish.

STATIC IN THE AIR

There is a legend that Hercules was once going along a narrow road when a strange-looking animal appeared threateningly before him. Hercules struck him with his club and passed on, but was greatly surprised soon afterward to see the same animal approach yet more threateningly, now three times as large as before. Hercules struck it fast and furiously, but the harder and oftener he struck it, the larger and more frightful it grew, until the monster completely blocked the road. Then Pallas, the goddess, appeared to Hercules and warned him not to strike the monster again. "His name is Strife," she said. "Let him alone, and he will soon become smaller even than he was at first and will eventually disappear." All strife and quarreling will cease if one of the quarrelers is let alone.—Cheeriodical.

This is a true story. Mrs. Helen Hunt Jackson was a celebrated writer of fiction and poetry. She lies buried in a lonely grave in a canyon of the Rocky Mountains, a spot that is much visited by literary people.

Before her marriage to Mr. Jackson, her name was plain Helen Hunt. One Sunday morning as she was on her way to church she found a purse. Thinking that it might have been dropped by some churchgoer, she requested the rector to announce that she had found a purse and would cheerfully return it to the owner. And the good man made the announcement in this way:

"I am requested to announce that a purse has been found. If anyone present has lost one, he is requested to go to Helen Hunt for it."

When you meet disappointment, an yer feelin' kind o' blue; when yer plans have all got sidetracked, or some friend has proved untrue; when yer toilin', prayin', strugglin' at the bottom of the stairs—it's like a panacea just to know that someone cares.

Someone who can appreciate one's efforts when he tries; someone who seems to understand—an' so can sympathize; someone who, when far away, still wonders how he fares; someone who never can forget—someone who really cares.

It sends a thrill of rapture through the framework of one's heart; it stirs the inner being till the teardrops want to start; for life is worth the livin' when someone yer sorrows share—it's joy compared to heaven when you know that someone cares.

This world is not all sunshine, for some dark days interpose; there's a cross for every joybell an' a thorn for every rose; but the cross is not so grievous, nor the thorn the rosebud wears, an' the clouds have silver linin's—when there's someone really cares.—Adapted from James E. Hilkey in Canton Christian.

Life's Test

There's only one method of meetin' life's test:
Jes' keep on a-strivin' an' hope for the best;
Don't give up the ship an' quit in dismay;
'Cause hammers are thrown when you'd like a bouquet.
This world would be tiresome, we'd all get the blues
If all the folks in it held jest the same views;
So finish your work, show the best of your skill,
Some folks won't like it, but other folks will.

Magnolius: "You says anything to me, big boy, an' I'll make you eat yo' words!"

Florian: "Chicken dumplin's, hot biscuits, an' watermelon!"

The teacher asked the class to write an account of a ball game. One bright but backward girl could think of nothing to write, so finally put down on her paper, "Rain—no game."

Sculpture is very easy, isn't it?" asked a sweet young lady at an exhibition of statuary.

"Very, very easy," said the sculptor, "and very, very simple. You just take a block of marble and a chisel and knock off all the marble you don't want."—Outlook.

SOUTHWARK WORK FOR SOUTHWARK WORKERS

All things being equal there is no valid reason why the man in the community should not be allowed to work in a community shop.

In Southwark there are hundreds of big industrial institutions and corporations that must employ thousands of professional and working men when they are busy. In Southwark there are also hundreds of thousands of men and women, the best and the most capable in the land, who are competent to fill any or all vacancies in any or all of the hundreds of industrial plants.

Just now, because of the depression, these business places are turning off their employees and are refusing to take on new. This is to be expected just now. But nobody is so pessimistic as to think for one instant that the present unfavorable conditions will become permanent. Probably in the near future sluggish business may turn into a rushing torrent—who knows? If and when the change comes we folk of Southwark ought to be on our toes ready to meet the demand for workers. Also we ought to try to get our Southwark Employer in the frame of mind where he will look around home for a man or woman when a vacancy occurs in his business. The church has founded an Employment Bureau with this idea in view. Every day from 9:30 to 11:30 A. M. the Employment Bureau is open to register the names and addresses of the men and women who are idle and are looking for work. We have the names of professional people, mechanics, laboring men and clerks on our lists. We need jobs for them.

Soon the Southwark business men will want workers. What we are endeavoring to do is to make him conscious of what Southwark has to offer him in the matter of employees. In order to bring this more clearly before him we are offering the services of our Employment Bureau free of charge. We guarantee to supply any class of employees in the briefest possible time in any numbers required. We agree to supply a recommendation with every prospective employee. We supply employees regardless of race, creed or color. Our object is to get a job for the man who wants a job. We would rather give a man a job than to give him a $1,000.00. He would be more of a man if we gave him the former. He would be less a man if we gave him the latter.

We are paying a man now to make a complete survey of Southwark business houses to learn the true industrial conditions and persuade the employers to co-operate with our Employment Bureau when business begins to get the breaks.

In the meantime, if you know where a man or a woman can get a job, 'phone at once to

LOMBARD 4024

The Employment Bureau is located in St. John's Parish House, N. W. Cor. 3d and Reed streets.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

At last the Infantile Paralysis epidemic died down and we were able to open our Sunday School. Old St. John's was a forlorn old building with the children away. It did not seem like itself at all. We are a church that likes to have our children cluttered all around us at every service, whether in the morning or evening or at special Parochial Celebrations. When anything happens to exclude them from our worship we are unhappy.

We had our Rally Day Sunday, October 9, with a fine turnout of officers, teachers and scholars. The weather was not particularly pleasant, nevertheless the church was filled from choir to the doors with scholars. It was one of the busiest Sunday School periods we ever held. First of all we combined Miss Watt's and John Preole's classes under the care of John. We promoted 14 boys from the Intermediate Department and placed them in the care of Miss Watts. We created a new girls' class by promoting 12 girls from the Intermediate Department and placed them in the care of Dorothy Quaile. Several boys and girls were of the right age and properly instructed to be advanced from the Kindergarten to the Intermediate Department. All of this shifting of scholars took lots of time and caused lots of excitement. The best feature of the day, however, was the surprising number of new scholars who were enrolled in the several departments. For the first time in the history of our Sunday School we are embarrassed for an adequate teaching staff. What teachers we have are most efficient, but the increase of classes has caused a lack of teaching force. We would be very glad to have some of the young women apply for classes in the Sunday School.

The names of Scholars promoted from the Kindergarten to the Intermediate are:

MRS. JOHN J. NELSON, Teacher

Beck, Mary
Connelly, Alma
Davis, Marion
Hartnett, Rose
Levy, Marjorie
Rudderow, May
Ward, Anna
West, Mary
Woodworth, Minerva
Ziegler, Frances

MR. VERNON MATTHEWS, Teacher

Fanger, Harry
Robbins, William
Substalae, James
Ward, James
Woodworth, George

The names of those promoted from the Intermediate Department to the Main School are:

MISS DOROTHY QUAILE, Teacher

Carbarnes, Anna
Davis, Naomi
Fanger, Anna
Heisler, Jacqueline
Jordon, Laura
Last, Jeanette
Orr, Mary
Parks, Birdie Mae
Rutter, Rose
Stockman, Elizabeth
Walker, Mabel

MISS SARAH WATTS, Teacher

Griffith, Joseph
Munion, Winthrop
Nugent, William
Olsen, John
Orr, Charles
Rodebaugh, Howard
Schweppenheiser, Chas.
Stilling, William
Ward, William
Wilson, George

The names of the new Scholars are:

Barnett, John
Barnett, Robert
Bennett, Mrs. Carrie
Blythe, William
Cucknell, Margaret
Deles, Mary
Dillmore, George
Dolmar, Emma
Frelor, Anna
Gallagher, Hanna
Gazawski, Vincent
Gerszewska, Sophie
Hasson, Marie
Hackett, Mrs. Elmina
Holdofsky, Rose
Hurley, Margaret
Johnson, Lillian
Johnson, Charles
Johnson, Mrs. Catherine
Johnston, Charles
Keelan, Leona
Kelly, Gerald
Kelly, Bert
Kelly, Wesley
Kerr, Catherine
King, Josephine
King, Mary
Kinsley, Mary
Konus, Mary
Lafferty, Mrs. Kate
Lafferty, Theresa
Lanskey, Eva
Later, Albert
Lusher, Robert
Lusher, Helen
Lusher, Mrs. Blanche
Lusher, Thelma
Manson, Dorothy
Matthew, Richard
Meredith, Samuel
Meredith, Eleanor
Meredith, Amanda
Meredith, Florence
Meckling, Philip
Meckling, Marian
Messick, Vera
Miller, Catherine
Miller, Eleanor
Moffett, Margaret
Morrow, Dorothy
Morrow, Thelma
McCloskey, Mary
McKillep, Edna
Orant, Dorothy
Orr, Richard
Orr, John
Prontk, John
Roach, Elizabeth
Rodebaugh, Samuel
Rosewitski, Josephine
Rogers, Gustave
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Joseph
Rutter, Edith
Rutter, Dorothy
Smith, William
Smith, Frank
Smith, Helen
Stilling, Jennie
Tucker, Laura
Wagner, Marie
Wagner, Gertrude
Ward, Joseph
Ward, Carrie
West, Joseph
West, Howard
West, Michael
Weise, Mrs. Georgia
Weiss, Albert
Weiss, William
Westfield, Mrs. Dorothy
Woodworth, Mrs. Minerva
Woerner, Rudolph, Jr.
Wilhelm, Josephine
Wilhelm, Dorothy
Yeager, Joan
Zamnsky, Paul

There are two other groups, one of boys and one of girls, in the Intermediate Department who ought to be promoted and will be so soon as we can get the proper teachers.

Once upon a time Henry Ford, Thomas A. Edison and Harvey Firestone were touring in the West when an argument arose as to whether Ford or Firestone was the better salesman. Edison bet that neither of them could sell his product in the small town where they had stopped.

A rich Indian lived there.

Go and sell him a car, Henry," urged Edison. "Then Harvey can sell him some tires."

Ford found the Indian, talked long and hard, but couldn't make a sale. Edison insisted that Firestone must try to sell to the Indian even though he had scant excuse for a market.

After a number of persistent arguments and inordinate demonstrations, Firestone sold the Indian one tire to be used as a hoop by Indian Junior.

Edison paid his bet.—Printer's Ink.

"Papa, vat is science?"

"My, how could you be so stupid. Science is dose things vat says 'no smoking.' "—Capper's Weekly.

Text Searching for November

Subject: "LOVE"

	Book	Chap.	Ver.
1. "Showing mercy unto thousands of them that LOVE me"	Exo.
2. "Thou shalt LOVE thy neighbor as thyself"	Lev.
3. "Thou shalt LOVE the Lord thy God"	Deu.
4. "The Lord did not set his LOVE upon you"	Deu.
5. "He will LOVE thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee"	Deu.
6. "The Lord had a delight in thy fathers to LOVE them"	Deu.
7. "LOVE ye therefore the stranger"	Deu.
8. "Thou shalt LOVE the Lord thy God"	Deu.
9. "Thou mayest LOVE the Lord thy God"	Deu.
10. "Let them that LOVE him be as the sun"	Judges
11. "How canst thou say 'I LOVE thee'"	Judges
12. "Thy LOVE to me was wonderful passing the LOVE of women."	II Sam.
13. "Hate the evil and LOVE the good"	Amos
14. "He will rest in his LOVE"	Zeph.
15. "LOVE your enemies"	S. Matt.
16. "The LOVE of many shall wane cold"	S. Matt.
17. "The scribes LOVE to go in long clothing"	S. Mark
18. "If ye LOVE them that LOVE you what thanks have ye"	S. Luke
19. "Which of them will LOVE him most?"	S. Luke
20. "LOVE one another"	S. John
21. "If ye LOVE me keep my Commandments"	S. John
22. "My father will LOVE him"	S. John
23. "I LOVE you"	S. John
24. "Ye shall abide in my LOVE"	S. John
25. "The LOVE of God is shed abroad."	Rom.
26. "Let LOVE be without dissimulation"	Rom.
27. "LOVE worketh no ill to his neighbor"	Rom.
28. "LOVE is the fulfilling of the law."	Rom.
29. "My LOVE be with you all in Christ Jesus"	I. Cor.
30. "The LOVE of Christ constraineth us"	II. Cor.

A K. O. That's O. K.

Two Chinese coolies on a street in Shanghai were shouting at each other, their noses but two inches apart. They were surrounded by a great crowd of spectators.

"What is the matter?" asked an American bystander of a Chinaman next to him.

"There's a Chinese fight on," answered the Chinaman.

"But I've been standing here five minutes," continued the American, "and nobody has hit anybody yet."

"You don't understand," explained the Chinaman. "In a Chinese fight, the man who strikes first shows he has run out of ideas."

"I bought a new car and traded in my player-piano as first payment."

"I didn't know they accepted player-pianos as payment on new cars."

"They don't usually, but the salesman is a neighbor of mine."

At a baseball game there was a young lady with her escort. She had never been to a game before.

"Isn't that pitcher grand?" she said: "He hits their bats no matter how they hold them!"

THE VILLAGE MOTORSMITH

Under a spreading chestnut tree
  A stubborn auto stands;
The smith an angry man is he
  With trouble on his hands.
The carburetor seems to be
  The cause of all his woe;
He tightens half a dozen bolts,
  But still it doesn't go.
He sits beside the road to give
  His brain a chance to cool,
And ponders on his training at
  The correspondence school.
And then he starts his job once more
  And just by chance 'tis seen
The cause of all his trouble is
  He's out of gasoline.

—Anon.

Wamby: "And what parable do you like best, my friend?"

Issler: "The one about the multitude that loafs and fishes."—Capper's

---

"I've been trying to think of a word for two weeks."

"How about fortnight?"

A Tale of Two Brothers

Abram and Zimri owned a field together—
A level field hid in a happy vale.
They plowed it with one plow, and in the spring
Sowed, walking side by side, the fruitful seed.
In harvest, when the glad earth smiled with grain,
Each carried to his home one-half the sheaves,
And stored them with much labor in his barns.
Now, Abram had a wife and seven sons;
But Zimri dwelt alone within his house.

One night before the sheaves were gathered in,
As Zimri lay upon his lonely bed,
And counted in his mind his ample gains,
He thought upon his brother Abram's lot,
And said: "I dwell alone within my house,
But Abram hath a wife and seven sons;
And yet we share the harvest sheaves alike.
He surely needeth more than I:
I will arise, and gird myself, and go
Down to the field and add to his from mine."

So he arose, and girded up his loins,
And went out softly to the level field.
The moon shone out from dusky bars of clouds,
The trees stood black against the deep-blue sky,
The branches waved and whispered in the wind.
So, Zimri, guided by the shifting light,
Went down the mountain path and found the field,
Took from his store of sheaves a generous third,
And bore them gladly to his brother's heap;
And then went back to sleep and happy dreams.

Now, that same night, as Abram lay in bed,
Thinking upon his blissful state in life,
He thought upon his brother Zimri's lot,
And said: "He dwells within his house alone;
He goeth forth to toil with few to help;
He goeth home at night to a cold house,
And hath few other friends but me and mine
(For these two tilled the happy vale alone).

"While I, whom heaven hath very greatly blessed,
Dwell happy with my wife and seven sons,
Who aid me in my toil and make it light;
And yet we share the harvest sheaves alike.
This surely is not pleasing unto God;
I will arise and gird myself, and go
Out to the field, and borrow from my store,
And add unto my brother Zimri's pile."

So he arose, and girded up his loins,
And went down softly to the level field.
The moon shone out from silver bars of clouds,
The trees stood black against the starry sky,
And dark leaves waved and whispered in the breeze;
So Abram, guided by the doubtful light,
Passed down the mountain path and found the field,
Took from his store of sheaves a generous third,
And added them unto his brother's heap;
Then he went back to sleep and happy dreams.
So, the next morning, with the early sun,
The brothers rose and went out to their toil.
And when they came to see the heavy sheaves,
Each wondered in his heart to find his heap,
Though he had given a third, was still the same.

Now, the next night went Zimri to the field,
Took from his store of sheaves a generous share,
And placed them on his brother Abram's heap,
And then lay down behind his pile to watch.
The moon looked out from bars of silvery cloud,
The cedars stood up black against the sky,
The olive branches whispered in the wind.

Then Abram came down softly from his home,
And, looking to the right and left,
Took from his ample store a generous third,
And laid it on his brother Zimri's pile.
Then Zimri rose and caught him in his arms,
And wept upon his neck and kissed his cheek;
And Abram saw the whole and could not speak,
Neither could Zimri. So they walked along
Back to their homes and thanked their God in prayer
That He had bound them in such loving bonds.

—From an Old Reader.

Struck by the notice, "Iron Sinks," in a shop window, a wag went inside and said that he was perfectly aware of the fact that "iron sinks."

Alive to the occasion, the smart shopkeeper retaliated: "Yes, and time flies, but wine vaults, sulphur springs, jam rolls, grass slopes, music stands, Niagara Falls, moonlight walks, sheep run, Kent hops and holiday trips, scandal spreads, standard weighs, India rubber tires, the organ stops, the world goes round, trade returns, and—"

But the visitor had bolted. After collecting his thoughts he returned and, showing his head in the doorway, shouted: "Yes, I agree with all of that perfectly—and marble busts."—The Boy's Comrade.

WITH A ROSE

A Persian fable says: One day
A wanderer found a piece of clay
So redolent of sweet perfume
Its odor scented all the room.
"What art thou?" was the quick demand,
"Art thou some gem from Samarcand?
Or spikenard rare in rich disguise?
Or other costly merchandise?"
"Nay, I am but a piece of clay!"
"Then whence this wondrous sweetness, pray?"
"Friend, if the secret I disclose,
I have been dwelling with a rose!"

—Anon.

The after-dinner speaker had talked for fifteen minutes.

"After partaking of such an excellent meal," he continued, "I feel that if I had eaten any more I would be unable to talk."

From the far end of the table came an order to a waiter: "Bring him a sandwich."—Time.

Waitress: "I have stewed kidneys, stuffed heart, boiled tongue, fried liver, frog legs and pig's feet."

Diner: "Well, sister, never mind telling me your troubles, just bring me some chicken pie."—Lookout.

Ed. Pennington

GARAGE

306-10 REED STREET

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
1820 CHESTNUT STREET
NO CHARGE FOR USE OF FUNERAL PARLORS
RIT. 1581 W. A. BAIR President RACE 1110

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118

We Telegraph Flowers

FRANK C. QUINN
Florist

Member F. T. D.

2008 South Third Street

Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

BUY

A Square Yard of

PAINTING

and so HELP the

Unemployed

of St. John's Parish

at the same time

Beautify St. John's Church

A police court interpreter, who has helped many an applicant from Russia and the Slavic countries of Europe to obtain naturalization papers, was laughing heartily over the experience of a fellow-countryman of his, who went to get his ciitzenship papers in the United States. This is what happened:

Born?

Yes, sir.

Where?

Russia.

Why did you leave Russia?

Because I could not take it along.

Where were your forefathers born?

I had only one father.

Your business?

Rotten.

Where is Washington?

He is dead.

Do you promise to support U. S. A.?

How could I with a wife and three children.

What State are you in now?

Terrible.

Where was the Declaration of Independence signed?

At the bottom.

Were you ever convicted of a crime?

No, I always had a good lawyer.

If the President and Vice President died, who would take charge?

The undertakers.

Who discovered America?

Columbus.

Where is he now?

Ohio.

Do you know why the hand of the Statue of Liberty is 11 inches long?

Yeh, because if it were 12 it would be a foot.—Contributed.

A Valuable Recipe

Someone has adroitly formulated a recipe for courtesy and good manners. Here it is:

Of Unselfishness, 3 drams.

Of the Tincture of Good Cheer, 1 ounce.

Of the Essence of Heart's-Ease, 3 drams.

Of the Extract of the Rose of Shannon, 4 ounces.

Of the Oil of Charity, 3 drams and no scruples.

Of the Infusion of Common Sense and Tact, 1 ounce.

Of the Spirit of Love, 2 ounces.

Mix well and take whenever there is the slightest symptom of selfishness, exclusiveness, meanness, or I-am-better-than-thou-ness.—Selection from Marden.

Sylvester S. Garrett

Headquarters for
PAPER and CORDAGE
For Every Purpose
259 South Third Street

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 6, No. 12 PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER, 1932 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
Samuel Snell, Sr.
B. Frank Drumm.
William Hasson
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Director

Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss May Leach

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Harry McCall
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell
Mr. Robert Rutter

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Vernon Matthews, Director.
Carl Jensen Vice-Director.
Frank Drumm, Secretary.
Philip Meckling Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Rudolph Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Brabazon, Mary Helena
Johnson, Edna Ida Violet
Johnson, William Frank
Johnson, Charles Wilbur Alexander
Mitchell, Richard Edward
McAleer, Dorothy Catherine
Seas, Dorothy
Watkins, Barbara Geneva

MARRIAGE

Samuel S. Reynolds and Catherine F. Webster

BURIALS

Price, Mary
Stinger, Jacob
Little, Charles R. H.

CHARLES LITTLE

Not since the translation of William Forster has the Parish sustained a loss so great as it has in the decease of CHARLES LITTLE.

GOD called Charles in the Octave of All Saints', Friday, November 4, 1932: an eminently fitting time for the translation of one so truly akin to the great souls in Paradise.

We who knew him will always have his memory enshrined in our hearts as among the most treasured friends of our life. We will recall him as a true and loyal friend; a sympathetic and helpful companion; a courageous and fearless man of God.

His loves were few but all-embracing. He loved his God and served Him faithfully, not only with his lips, but in his life by bringing into His kingdom the man who knew not God. He was a true Brother of St. Andrew. He loved his Church and all it stood for. It was a source of real pleasure and deep satisfaction to him to be called upon to do some service for old St. John's. He loved every stone in the blessed old building.

He loved his family with a tender and understanding love, and we are sure that his place by the side of his dear wife and lovely children will be an aching void for many years. Our prayers for the comfort and peace that passeth understanding ascend ever to the Throne of Grace for his little family, his good mother and his brothers . May the Holy Spirit of God soften the memory of our beloved, that all who knew him will wish him well in his new abode.

He loved his fellow man with a great-hearted love. No man was so abandoned to sin; no man was so vile, so devoid of self-respect, so utterly false to all moral and spiritual ideals, but that Charles could see a gleam of gold in him. Scores of men are better men today because of his interest in, and sympathy for, them. To them he was a sustaining arm. How greatly they will miss his moral support only they can know.

In a former issue of the Broadcaster we mentioned his many-sided service: He was Assistant Superintendent of the Sunday School. He was formerly President of Old St. John's Men's Club, which antedated all other men's clubs in St. John's Parish. For many seasons he was Captain of the Cresson Baseball Club. He was Director of St. Andrew's Brotherhood for several terms. He was Director of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew. He was a valued member of the Executive Committee of the Parish. He was Lay Reader for several years. He was Treasurer of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew until the time of his death.

From the shores of Time we salute him as he voyages towards Eternity and God!

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.45
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.30
Evening Service and Address		8.00
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
2nd and 4th Thursdays
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew		7.30
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

Installation Service

"Whose I am, and Whom I Serve." Acts 27:23. This was the text of a sermon preached by the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry on Sunday evening, October 30th, at the Installation Service of the Daughters of the King. We are not going to try to make a re-write of the sermon, but we do feel it is a verse upon which each and every one of us should seriously meditate.

The beautiful Admission Service of the Daughters of the King was the service for the evening. There were five members presented for Admission, and we are hoping that they will all be loyal daughters, faithfully remembering their Pledge to pray daily for the spread of Christ's Kingdom, especially amongst women, and the rule of service always being ready to offer such aid to the Rector as we are able and as he may deem advisable for the advancement of the Parish.

The service was in the Church and the music was rendered by the Young Peoples Fellowship to whom the Daughters of the King wish to publicly extend their appreciation for this kindness.

There are yet to be admitted several members who are still serving their period of probation and whom we hope to have the pleasure of admitting in the near future. M. B. F.

Jones: "How do you spend your income?"

Smith: "About 30 per cent. for shelter, 30 per cent. for clothing, 40 per cent. for food and 20 per cent for amusement."

Jones: "But that adds up to 120 per cent!"

Smith: "Don't I know it!"

CAN YOU DO IT?

We Confess Our Inability to Do It

Can you pay your rent without money?

Can you buy a ton of coal for nothing?

Can you use gas and electricity and not pay the bill?

Can you get food free of cost?

Can you buy furniture with promises?

Can you persuade the clothing dealer to GIVE you clothing?

Can you possibly get along without an income?

Well, Neither Can the Church

We must pay our coal bill.

We must pay for gas and electricity.

We must pay our Parish Visitor, Organist and Sexton.

We must pay for repairs.

We must pay for Bibles, Prayer Books, Hymnals and Choir Music, Stationery, Postage, Wine, Communion Wafers, Insurance, Furniture, etc.

We Must Have Funds to Pay Our Bills

YOU need them for your private and household expenses.

WE need them for our Church and Parish expenses.

You get YOURS in a WEEKLY PAY ENVELOPE.

We OUGHT to get OURS in a WEEKLY PAY ENVELOPE, too—called the

CHURCH ENVELOPE

If YOUR pay envelope stops you are out.

If the CHURCH pay envelope stops we are supposed to go ahead anyhow.

If you did a week's work and you did not get your pay envelope, would you be indignant?

If the Church serves the Parish every day all year and does not get its pay envelope, ought we be "mad at you?" How does the Church serve us? Well, she christens our children, teaches them how to live, prepares them for Confirmation, provides moral and spiritual training for them, visits the sick, ministers to the poor, providing food, clothing, fuel, shelter, medicine, doctors, baby clinics, mother's training, summer schools, vacation trips, camps, recreation all year round, provides a place for basketball, entertainments, dances, suppers and a thousand other important things. The Church marries our children, buries our dead, comforts our bereaved, advises our youth and is always on the alert to increase our happiness and well-being. MANY TIMES YOUR RECTOR HAS BEEN CALLED LATE AT NIGHT TO MINISTER TO THE DYING. Where the Doctor stops he begins.

Do You Criticize the Church?

Do you say the church only half does its job?

Do you expect it to do a good job if YOU cheat?

Do you expect it to put over a perfect program when you hold back the pay envelope?

You criticise the Church for not being on the job?

We criticise you for not paying for the job.

Let's Get Together

You pay your weekly church envelope.

We improve our service with the increased income.

How About It?

Here is a list of those who have defaulted in their church finances.

Are YOU on the list?

If you are, AND YOU ARE WORKING, pay your honest church debts AT ONCE and get in good standing.

If you have no package of Church Envelopes and you can afford to contribute to the support of the church, GET A PACKAGE AT ONCE.

FIND YOUR NUMBER

Parishioners Holding Packages of Envelopes Numbered in This List

Have Contributed Nothing

To the CURRENT EXPENSES of the Church This Year According to the Parish Records.

7	62	119	177	221	263
9	68	130	178	226	274
14	69	136	180	232	276
19	71	137	186	233	277
20	75	144	196	237	278
23	76	145	199	238	279
25	79	147	210	240	306
30	82	148	211	245	313
42	84	149	213	248	314
43	103	158	217	252	319
47	104	162	219	254	323
56	105	172	220	255

Those Contributing 25c and Less

13	146	200	246	275	307
18	150	201	247	282	308
28	175	202	250	287	309
31	179	216	264	288	310
78	184	218	269	303	315
85	198	224	270	304	317
122

Those Contributing 50c and Less

17	88	128	169	206	289
38	110	155	173	284	300
46	113	168	174

Those Contributing $1.00 and Less

10	97	189	268	294	318
16	98	190	285	295	320
22	106	191	290	296	322
41	142	192	291	299	325
87	143	261	293	312	326
91	187	262

Those Contributing $2.00 and Less

8	92	112	165	228	260
24	94	118	167	229	283
44	99	131	181	234	286
57	100	135	185	249	311
59	107	139	193	251	324
66	109	157	212	259	327
67

Those Contributing $3.00 and Less

11	70	127	183	209	266
22	95	138	194	214	280
27	108	152	195	223	281
39	111	153	197	242	292
40	114	154	207	253	305
45	125	182	208

Those Contributing $4.00 and Less

6	86	101	133	188	265
48	90	102	163	215	297
61	93	129	164	244	316
74

Those Contributing $5.00 and Less

12	52	80	126	225	256
26	53	81	141	227	267
32	54	96	170	235	271
33	55	116	171	239	272
35	64	117	204	241	273
37	65	120	205	243	298
51	73	121

Those Contributing Over $5.00

1	34	72	132	161	236
2	36	83	134	166	257
3	49	89	140	203	258
4	50	115	156	222	302
5	58	123	159	230	321
29	63	124	160	231

Please locate your envelope number and see how many envelopes you need to bring to Church in order to square your account,—THEN BRING THEM!

A LETTER FROM DR. WILLIAM H. JEFFERYS

Superintendent of the Protestant Episcopal City Mission

We are specially grateful to Dr. William H. Jefferys for the following letter. He himself is a writer and author of ability, and praise from such an high source is of real value. We have tried to put out a Parish Periodical of worth. It is evident from the warm tone of this letter that we are succeeding in our effort.

We thank Dr. Jefferys for the letter and hope we will continue to deserve the good opinion of him and others.

November 18, 1932.

My dear Colleague:

The very fact that you lay "The Broadcaster" on my desk every month gives me a constant feeling of contact with your Parish, and emphasizes the natural interest and sympathy I have in anything worth while in which you are interested.

"The Broadcaster" is, perhaps, the most ambitious Parish paper of my acquaintance and your own editorial work is the best thing in it. It seems perfectly impossible to make the average parishioner realize the tremendous benefit to his family of subscribing to a really worth-while religious journal and, for most families, your "Broadcaster" is the solution of the problem and the next best thing to the actuality.

I once visited a family where the question of a Bible quotation came up and I said, "Just give me a Bible and we can settle it right away." To the great embarrassment of the family they could not produce a Bible in the House. It was not an irreligious family; but its children lost hold on religion and its grandchildren, unless something happens, will be utterly indifferent.

The very fact that a religious journal lies around the house leads inevitably to the different members of the family picking it up, having a look at it, and getting interested in something in it, even if it is only a joke, or a picture, or a bit of news, or an argument; and, for many, that is the beginning of an intelligent knowledge and interest in the Parish, the Church and the its great Mission.

I congratulate you and wish you and the Parish and "The Broadcaster" all success and many happy returns of the New Year.

Fraternally yours,

WM. H. JEFFERYS, M. D.

Don't Forget to Laugh

The late Chauncey Depew always took a great delight in telling the following story on himself, and it is a funny story:

Mark Twain and Mr. Depew once went abroad on the same ship. When the boat was a few days out they were both invited to a dinner, and when speech-making time came Mark Twain was the first on the program. He spoke twenty minutes and made a great hit. Then Mr. Depew was announced. He stood up and said:

"Mr. Toastmaster and ladies and gentlemen: Before this dinner Mr. Clemens and I made an agreement to exchange speeches. He has just delivered my speech, and I thank you for the pleasant manner in which you received it. I regret to say, with apologies to Mr. Clemens, that I have lost the notes on his speech and cannot remember anything he was to say." Then he sat down amid great laughter.

The next day an Englishman, who had been one of the party at the dinner, approached Mark Twain in the smoking room and said, "Mr. Clemens, I consider you were much imposed upon last night. I have always heard that Mr. Depew was a clever man, but really that speech of his you gave last night struck me as being the most infernal rot."

FRIENDS OF MINE

I love the shaggy-headed peaks where mountains touch the sky,
The mutter as the thunder speaks, the clouds that tumble by.
I love the mystic kiss of rain, the beaded drops of dew
That sparkle from the tips of grain and gaily beckon you.

I love the laughter of a stream exultant for the sea;
While magic music makes me dream, adventures come to me.
I love the sight of leaping trout that break a mirrored lake;
I love to ramble all about, and wayside journeys take.

I love the blushing sunset's glow; the night, the light, the dawn;
I love the sight of mother doe with spotted baby fawn.
I love the pillared lanes of pine, the carpet at their feet;
I love to call them friends of mine, and make them my retreat.

An Englishman and an American were arguing about queer dialects.

"Why," said the former, "you use the queerest expression I ever heard. The other afternoon I accosted a Negro and asked him if he thought it would rain, and do you know what he said? He said: 'Little dogs it will and little dogs it won't.'"

The American was puzzled and the next afternoon met the Negro with whom the Englishman had conversed. The Negro scratched his woolly head and said:

"That ain't what Ah said. Ah just tol' the man that p'ups it would rain and p'ups it wouldn't."—The Kablegram.

The Standing Army

CONTRIBUTORS TO THE COAL FUND

Adgate, Mrs. James
Adgate, James
Anonymous
Amerman, Jr., Mrs. Frank
Ashman, Helen
Ashman, Mrs. Margaret

Barnes, Jr., William
Barnes, Edward
Barnes, Sr., William
Barnes, Sr., Mrs. William
Beisser, Mrs. Charles
Beisser, Charles
Benson, Mrs. Madeline
Blech, Mrs. Jennie
Blech, Charles
Bricker, Mrs. Jennie
Brown, William
Busch, Mrs. Susan
Busch, John
Busch, Mrs. Lillian
Busch, Sr., Frederick

Capie, Joseph & family
Carbarnes, Henry
Carbarnes, Meta
Carbarnes, Anna
Carbarnes, Meta
Carbarnes, Harry
Celestino, John
Clestino, Rose Marie
Chestnut, Jr., Robert
Chestnut, Reba
Chestnut, Miss Jennie
Clark, Mrs. Kathleen
Clark, Harry
Coarse, Mrs. Jane
Connelly, Mrs. C.
Corson, Mary
Coyle, Mr. John
Cressee, Sr., George
Cressee, Jr., George
Cressee, Sr., Mrs. George
Cressee, Raymond
Crystal, Joseph
Crystal, Harry H.

W. W. D.
Dart, Edward J.
Daughters of the King
Davis, Mrs. Margaret
Dean, Mrs. Mary
Deitrich, Miss Marie A.
Dingler, Mrs. Annie
Dolhnzyk, Michael M.
Downes, Jr., George
Drumm, Benjamin F.
Dunbar, Elizabeth
Dunbar, Irma L.

Edgers, Mrs. Amanda
Emberschied, Mrs. Annie
Evans, Mr. Thomas

Ferrell, Florence J.
Fisher, Miss M. Beatrice
Friend, W. Grant
Friend, Mrs. Mary
Fowler, Marie

Gallagher, Hannah
Gallagher, John
Greenfield, Mrs. Lydia
Greenfield, Robert
Gregory, Mrs. George
Gregory, George
Griggs, Elizabeth

Harris, Marie
Hartman, Sr., William Earl
Hartman, Jr., William Earl
Hasson, Mrs. William
Hasson, William
Heisler, Miss Frances M.
Hogg, Margaret L.
Holton, Alice
Holton, Margaret
Holton, Joseph
Holton, Edna
Holton, Mrs. Margaret
Holton, Elizabeth
Hudak, Mrs. Andrew

Jackson, Miss Elsie
Jaeschke, Mrs. Herman
Jaeschke, Herman
Jaeschke, Gus
Jaeschke, Mrs. Ethel
Jensen, Mrs. Carl E.
Jensen, Carl E.
Jones, Sr., George C.
Jones, Mrs. Fannie F.

Kaiser, Emma M.
Karstein, Elizabeth
Karstein, Lillian
Kelly, Raymond
Kensil, William
Kensil, Mr. John
Kensil, Miss Margaret
Konowal, Michael
Konowal, Joseph
Konowal, Louis
Konowal, Peter
Konowal, Barbara
Kraft, Edward
Kraft, Mrs. Ornet

Lafferty, Mrs. Martha
Later, Sr., Albert A.
Later, Jr., Albert A.
Lawrence, James
Leach, Miss May
Leach, Joseph
Leach, S. Bowman
Leach, Miss Ella
Little, Charles
Lord, Rebecca
Lumbeck, Mrs. Jennie
Lumbeck, Lillie

McCall, Miss Elmina
McCall, Harry H.
McDowell, Mrs. Mary
McDowell, Samuel
McHenry, John Edward
MacVaugh, William
MacVaugh, Miss Sylvania
MacVaugh, Mrs. Anna
Magee, Miss Lucy I.
Maguire, Eliza
Maguire, Lydia
Major, William
Matthews, Vernon
Matthews, Mrs. Vernon
Meneely, Lillian
Meyers, Charles
Meyers, Mrs. Mary
Morse, Julia J.
Mount, Anna M.
Munion, Winthrop
Munion, Harry I.
Murphy, Mrs. Margaret

Nelson, Jr., John J.
Nelson, Jr., Mrs. John J.
Nugent, Eleanor M.
Nugent, Jr., William
Nuttall, Miss Hannah H.

O'Donnell, Mrs. Katharine
Olsen, John
Olsen, Mrs. Genevive
Olsen, Mrs. Anna
Olsen, Blanche
Outen, Jr., Charles
Outen, Elizabeth J.
Outen, Dr. and Mrs. Charles

Patterson, Mrs. Anna
Patterson, Jr., John C.
Patterson, Jr., Mrs. John C.
Preole, John C.
Preole, John F.
Preole, James

Quaile, Dorothy

Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew
Read, Mr. and Mrs. Frank
Reynolds, Miss Jennie
Richards, Viola May
Robins, Mabel
Robins, Joseph
Robins, Mrs. Anna
Robins, Anna
Robinson, Mrs. Annie
Roddy, Mrs. Dora
Rodebaugh, Samuel
Rodebaugh, Howard
Rodebaugh, Dorothy
Ross, Catherine Patricia
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Robert
Rutter, Jennie
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Edward
Rutter, Mrs. Elizabeth
Rutter, Catherine
Rutter, Mr. and Mrs. J. K., Jr.

THE STANDING ARMY, Continued

Rutter, Ruth
Schabacker, Miss Anna
Schmidt, Frank G.
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank G.
Seher, Miss Catharine
Shields, Mrs. Bella
Silbert, Mrs. Ella
Silbert, Ella
Silbert, George
Silbert, Philip
Snell, Sr., Mr. Samuel
Snell, Sr., Mrs. Samuel
Snell, Jr., Samuel
Snell, Jr., Mrs. Samuel
Snell, Richard
Snell, Mrs. Richard
Snell, Richard
Snell, Mrs. Richard
Spratt, James
Spratt, Thomas
Spratt, Jr., John
Spratt, Margaret
Spratt, Jr., John
Spratt, Finley
Spratt, John
Spratt, Catharine
Staines, Ethel
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, William
Stenger, Mrs. William
Stenger, Mrs. Laura
Stenger, Dorothy
Stone, William
Stone, William
Sutterlin, Ethel
Suterlin, Thelma
Taylor, Mrs. Sarah
Taylor, Ethel E.
Taylor, Benjamin Franklin
Vongalast, Miss Jeanette
Ward, Mrs. Carrie
Ward, Sr., Abraham
Ward, Jr., Abraham
Ward, Carrie
Ward, William H.
Watts,, Miss Sarah
Weber, Mrs. John
Weber, John
Weist, Charles W.
Welsh, Peter
Welsh, Albert
Wilhelm, Miss Catharine
Wilson, Mrs. Elizabeth
Woerner, Beatrice
Woerner, Mrs. Hannah
Woerner, Sr., Rudolph
Woerner, Eleanor
Woessner, Miss Clara
Woessner, Charles
Woessner, Mrs. Clara
Woods, Mrs. Margaret
Young, Mrs. Laura
Young, Viola
Young Peoples Fellowship
Ziegler, Mrs. Martha

STATIC IN THE AIR

The foreman reported that the jury was unable to agree upon a verdict. The judge reproved them, saying that the case was a clear one, and remanded them to the jury room for further deliberation. "And if you don't reach an agreement before evening," the judge added, "I will have twelve suppers sent in to you."

"May it please your honor," spoke up the foreman, "you had better make it eleven suppers and one bundle of hay."

Congratulations to the Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew. Their District Team work brought out a great number of communicants on the first Sunday of the month.

A pretty good firm is Watch & Waite.
And another is Attit, Early & Layte.
And still another is Doo & Dairet.
But the best is probably Grinn & Barret.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONTINUES TO GROW.

She stood, hanging onto a strap in a crowded street car. A man rose and offered her his seat. She fainted. When she came to she thanked him. He fainted.

Each package of church envelopes costs the church 15 cents. Please do not waste them. Use one every Sunday, and remember that you are not putting your money in the envelope; you are putting God's money in it.

Professor: I would like a preparation of phenyliocyanate.

Drug Clerk: Do you mean mustard oil?

Professor: Yes, I can never think of that name.

IF YOU ARE STINGY TO GOD, WHY SHOULD YOU EXPECT GOD TO BE GENEROUS TO YOU?

Green: The number of unemployed in this country is now 11,500,001.

Black: Why the "1" at the end of the number?

Green: Oh, that's the "forgotten man."

THE GREATEST CHRISTMAS PRESENT YOU CAN POSSIBLY MAKE IS TO GIVE YOURSELF TO GOD AND HIS SERVICE.

Mistress: Nora, this pie is absolutely burnt. Did you make it according to the instructions in the cook book?

Nora: No, mum—it's my own cremation.

If you are working and earning a living and you are not helping to support the church you are cheating God.

"Can you tell me the name of the dean of this school?"

"Naw, I'm just a football player here."

DON'T FORGET YOUR CHRISTMAS ENVELOPE

LIVING CONDITIONS IN THE PARISH

What a Parish-Wide Survey Revealed

What are the living conditions in St. John's Parish? So many distressing cases of physical suffering due to unemployment have been reported to us that we determined to make a survey of the entire situation and learn first-hand whether or not conditions are as desperate as reported. Accordingly, during the week of November 6th to 13th, we undertook the task of visiting every church family in the Parish and learn from them just what are the true conditions under which our people are living. We appointed eighteen committees of two members each and assigned a district to each team for visiting. The following is a list of the districts and teams. In the first column is the number of the team, the second is the number of the block south assigned to the teams. The third are the names of those serving on the team.

Team 1— 300-1000—Joseph Leach, Philip Meckling.
Team 2—1100-1200—May Hopkins, Frances Amerman.
Team 3—1300 —Jerry, Elizabeth and Robert Rutter.
Team 4—1400 —Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jaeschke.
Team 5—1500 —Mrs. Laura Young and Mrs. Bella Shields.
Team 6—1600 —Miss Margaret Kensil.
Team 7—1700 —Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson, Jr.
Team 8—1800 —Mr. B. Frank Drumm.
Team 9—1800 —Mrs. Ethel Sutterlin, Mrs. Annie Fayer.
Team 10—1800 —Miss Anna Schabacker, Mrs. Annie Dingler.
Team 11—1900 —John and Fred Busch.
Team 12—1900-2000—Samuel Rodebaugh, Mary Haury.
Team 13—2000 —Mrs. Annie Beisser, Mrs. S. Cunningham.
Team 14—2100 —Helen Ashman, Adelia Pearo.
Team 15—2200 —Martha Lafferty, Viola Young.
Team 16—2300 —Thelma Sutterlin, Ethel Stenger.
Team 17—2400-2500—Dorothy Stenger, May Leach.
Team 18—2600-2800—Samuel McDowell, Heber Rutter.

Each District extended from the river to Sixth street and beyond.

In the majority of the cases the names for the survey were chosen from those who have been previously trained in family visiting work and know how to approach a family group for information. We were very fortunate in our appointments, for every team did its work most thoroughly and satisfactorily. Even torrential rains could not dampen their ardor. During the terrific downpour of rain nearly every day of the week our teams canvassed their districts heroically. Sunday evening, November 13, all the teams met for a light supper at the church. After supper we called for the reports of the committees. Never before in the history of our active ministry among poor and suffering humanity did we listen to such stories of patient suffering and stoic endurance that were told that night. It was a night of tears and laughter and solid thinking.

It is peculiar how comedy and tragedy go hand in hand. The amazing thing about these hundreds of families visited we found only one family who tried to hide the fact that they were getting aid from other sources. Many families frankly stated that they were getting food orders at irregular intervals from a welfare organization. But as food seemed to be the only thing the organization could give, the families are in real distress for clothing, fuel and rent. The great demand from all districts was for jobs.

Many families we found too ashamed to reveal their need until closely pressed for information; and even then they did not ask for bread—they asked for work.

We made an analysis of the reports later in the week. The facts we learned are as follows:

Number of families visited	450
Individuals involved	1140
Adults involved	850
Youth and children	290
In need of clothing and shoes	226
In need of Jobs	149
In need of fuel	41
In need of rent	85
In need of everything	60
Working from one to three days per week	384

Average wage, including all families working full and part time, $10.50 per week.

These figures are not exact; because such a survey is bound to be approximate in most every item. However, they are so nearly correct that one is able to get a pretty accurate picture of conditions in St. John's Parish. Also these are only figures. Behind those figures are stories of suffering, starvation, disease and death that cannot be told. Many a life has been lost because of privation. Many a boy and girl will feel all their lives the terrible experience through which they have passed. Many a generation shall pass before the results of this depression has been eradicated.

Naturally the finances of the church have crashed to the ground. We want to help our suffering brothers in Christ. We are helping them to the best of our ability, but oh pitifully inadequate is the aid we give!

OLIVER H. BAIR CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
1820 CHESTNUT STREET
NO CHARGE FOR USE OF FUNERAL PARLORS
RIT. 1581 H. A. BAIR President RACE 1110

Bell, Jackson 2881 Keystone, Main 3118
We Telegraph Flowers
FRANK C. QUINN
Florist
Member F. T. D.
2008 South Third Street
Wedding Bouquets, Cut Flowers, Palms, Funeral Designs

BUY
A Square Yard of PAINTING
and so HELP the Unemployed
of St. John's Parish
at the same time
Beautify St. John's Church

Sylvester S. Garrett
Headquarters for
PAPER and CORDAGE
For Every Purpose
259 South Third Street

Christmas Mixtures and Chocolates
Hard and Filled Candy
1-, 2- and 5-lb. Boxes
Large Variety of Fancy Packages, Also Candy Canes
Geilfus' Candy Store, 1444 S. 2d St.
Elizabeth Jaiser Cor. Dickinson St.

THOMAS MAGEE
PRINTER STATIONER ENGRAVER
A Stock of Well-Selected
CHRISTMAS CARDS
44 South Second Street

Beautiful Gifts for All the Family
STORE ORDERS ACCEPTED
S. GROSS
1614 South Second Street

They are not so dumb in Hollywood as the country jays think. For instance, a certain motion picture star one day began to lend money to a goodly number of his friends. Everybody began to think the man had gone crazy. To be sure, the amounts were small, but the fact that he lent any at all was cause for consternation among the people who knew him well.

"Don't you worry," grinned the star, when it was pointedly suggested that he needed a vacation and mental relaxation. "I haven't loaned a dollar more than I'm willing to pay to feel certain that I'll be left strictly alone. No one comes near you when they owe you money."—L. A. Times.

There is an old fable about a dog that boasted of his ability as a runner. One day he gave chase to a rabbit and failed to catch it. The other dogs made all manner of fun over him. He retorted: "Remember, the rabbit was running for his life and I was only running for my dinner."

Success in life depends upon the motive. If you are in the race merely for your meal ticket, you will not put the same energy into your running as you will if your ambition is deeper and more serious. Get the right motive and your chances for success will be much greater.—Adapted from "Nash Journal."

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 7, No. 1 PHILADELPHIA, JANUARY, 1933 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
Samuel Snell, Sr.
B. Frank Drumm.
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Director

Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss May Leach

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Harry McCall
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell
Mr. Robert Rutter

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Vernon Matthews, Director.
Carl Jensen Vice-Director.
Frank Drumm, Secretary.
Philip Meckling Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Michael Guilford, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Rudolph Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Brabazon, Mary Helena
Church, Thomas
Kelly, Donald Robert
Seas, Leonard
Seas, Henry

MARRIAGES

Emil Zosmonski and Catharine Shaeraluk
Joseph A. Dougherty and Jennie Clendenning

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.45
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.30
Evening Service and Address		8.00
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
2nd and 4th Thursdays
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew		7.30
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

BELIEVERS

There is no unbelief:
Whoever plants a seed beneath the sod,
And waits to see it push away the clod,
He trusts in God.

Whoever says, when clouds are in the sky,
Be patient, heart, light breaketh by and by,
Trusts the Most High.

Whoever sees 'neath winter's field of snow,
The silent harvest of the future grow,
God's power must know.

The heart that looks on when the eyelids close,
And dares to live his life in spite of woes,
God's Comfort knows.

There is no unbelief:
And day by day, and night, unconsciously,
The heart lives by the faith the lips deny;
God knoweth why.

—Tyndall.

The Daily Dozen For Toleration

Dr. William H. Jefferys

EXERCISE I

There has been no year in the world's history when men needed more to practise toleration than the year 1933. It is approximately two thousand years since the year of Christ's ministry wherein He summed up the whole of His feeling with regard to man's duty in two commandments and said that while the first was the most important it could not be attained without the second. "You must love your God, but you cannot do that until you can love your neighbor."

We are going to propose, for the next six issues of "The Broadcaster," one short exercise in Christian toleration; because, just as charity must begin at home in one's own heart, so must bearing with each other. It is not so much our business to make the world right, as to make our attitude to the world right. God will do the rest.

Persecution, inquisition, including what we call "Prohibition" are the result of trying to make the other fellow different according to our plans, and in the process some of us have lost our souls in hell.

Each month we shall propose one exercise and suggest that we keep going over that exercise in our minds through the month. Exercise is always an effort. There is no use of proposing exercise to a clam. Exercise is for real people who mean to accomplish something and train for it. Here is our first:

Make a written list of twelve Christian bodies, including Roman Catholics, Friends, Unitarians, Christian Scientists, and others. Then, taking each one separately and positively—not negatively—write down opposite to that name whatever you can find that it has contributed to the wealth of the Christian life and practise. Do not add any qualifying phrases, and do not put down anything negative. When you have completed your list, compare it with your own previous thoughts of these twelve Christian Churches, and ask yourself: "Are these people entitled to be called Christians?"

According to one of the three greatest of our American Episcopal Bishops, a "Christian is one who aims to follow Jesus." Example: We are Episcopalians. Write down the word Methodist and then, in brackets (Wesleyan). Don't even think anything negative—that the Methodists are not and do not do this, that, and the other thing. No doubt we all have our faults and make our mistakes, but this is an exercise in toleration.

The Methodists appeared at a time when the Roman and Anglican Catholic Churches were utterly cold and formal, when they were sold out to political power and merely represented conventional religious formalities, chiefly for the upper classes. Methodism simplified, consecrated, and democratized Christianity. It reinstated Christianity as meant for everybody. The chapel service was not recognized as sufficiently conventional and the Methodists were finally driven out of the Church merely by lack of recognition. They are cordial, broadminded, sweet and simple, emotionally expressive. There is no highbrowism. They do emphasize the importance of living morally, and therefore sincerely, their Christian Faith. They are the largest Christian body of Protestants in the world today and, along certain lines, the most tolerant. I spent four months in Missouri years ago; there was no Episcopal Church and the Methodist Church was the only denominational Church that gave me a welcome and allowed me to worship with them.

THE PRICE OF LUXURY

November 19, 1932.

My Dear Friend:

The Field Department, thinking these figures taken from "The American Consumer's Market", will encourage the clergy, has asked me to send them to you. The figures for 1932 are not yet available, but are probably quite similar.

They show that in a year of extreme depression the American people had a few dollars that were not used on the necessities of life.

Millions Spent for Luxuries in 1931

We paid for tobacco	$1,651,000,000
We paid for entertainment and amusement	1,526,209,000
We paid for soft drinks	766,500,000
We paid for candy	520,088,000
We paid for private sports	483,837,000
We paid for furs	351,880,000
We paid for ice cream	338,742,000
We paid for radios	309,270,000
We paid for jewelry	255,315,000
We paid for chewing gum	71,625,000
TOTAL	$6,274,466,000

Compared to these, the money needed for the Church's Missionary Programme, $3,700,000, seems exceedingly small.

Sincerely yours,
A. R. VAN METER,
Executive Secretary.

NOTE BY EDITOR: May we ask the reader if he contributes to any or many of these enormous incomes by purchasing the things mentioned? If so, how much a year? Do you give a like amount towards the support of the Church and her Mission?

WHY NOT?

Co-operation in Church Work

The duty of co-operation in church work is a matter which is plain to every intelligent church member. Paul speaks of this co-operation in church work in his letter to the congregation at Ephesus. (Ephesians 4, 16—read it.) He uses the idea of the growth of the human body to illustrate the growth of the church. He says that the church increases only as each part works effectively.

Each part of the body must do its share. In the body there are nerves, bones, blood-vessels, etc., and each of these has a special work to perform. So God has given to every member of His Church some work to do. Each member must do his part. No member can do the work of another.

Not only that. As in the body all parts must work together, so in the church each member, as a part of the church, must work together with others. The church succeeds only as its members succeed. The church grows only as its members grow.

To succeed and grow the church must work, and that means that every member without exception must do his part of the work. It is foolish to expect the church to grow if the members are working against each other, or allowing a limited few to do the work of all.

You cannot be saved by the faith of another. Just so your duty cannot be fulfilled by the work of another. By your negligence and lack of interest you will undoubtedly force others to bear a double burden, and with some doing "double duty" the work of the church will be done, but you will be held accountable by God for all your neglects.

If you have been negligent in the past your conscience will tell you. You may clear that conscience by earnestly resolving to do your part of the work, no matter what its nature might be, in the coming year.

Selected

RAPS

A kind of boy I do not like
When playing ball you often strike,
Who always takes his turn at bat
And then runs home right after that,
And doesn't stay till "Chick" and "Bee"
Have had their raps the same as he.

You see, in playing work-up, you
First field, then catch, then pitch a few,
Until the boy at bat flies out,
And then it's your turn—turn about.
They all should stay, the other chaps,
Till all the rest have had their raps.

My dad, he says that you can tell
The way he plays—tell pretty well
The kind of man a boy will be—
The way he plays at work-up, see?
Dad says, if boys are fair in play,
They likely will grow up that way.

And I intend that, while I learn,
To see that others have their turn;
And I intend, when I'm a man,
To do the very best I can,
That when there's dirty play, perhaps,
To see that others get their raps.

—Adapted from Douglas Malloch in "Inland Tips."

OUR ANNUAL BAZAAR

The Usual Good Times Were Enjoyed By All

"TO BE OR NOT TO BE"

December first, second and third marked the dates on which we held our Annual Bazaar. For many months we were teetering backward and forward as to whether we would have one this year. Our hesitation was due to GENERAL DEPRES-

SION, who has taken command of everything in the whole world these last few years. G. D. seems to have an antipathy for good times and enjoyment. Most of us have been afraid to go counter to him and have remained in a state of penurious inactivity (big words) and saved our pennies to buy the necessities (how I hate that word) of life.

For this reason we were almost inclined, for economy's sake, to pass up the Bazaar. But the more we thought of it the less we thought of it. Why should we let GENERAL DEPRESSION take command of our innocent pastimes? We concluded we would snap our fingers under his stern and ugly nose and defy him to his teeth. So we went ahead and had our Bazaar.

THE REWARD OF COURAGE

Well, did we get a surprise! Thursday night, December first, was our opening night. And did we have a crowd! I'LL SAY WE DID!! And that's not meant for slang either. The first night crowd was a C-R-O-W-D. This in itself was smashing a precedent. Generally, the first night is not much more than a gesture—few folks come out and less money appears in the offing. The next night was about what we usually get in the way of a crowd. Little money was in circulation, however. The last night, as usual, was the best of all. The crowd was big, the excitement was high, more money circulated and sales were brisk.

However, when the gong struck 11.30 P. M., Saturday night, and the Bazaar of 1932 had become an item in the Book of History, we found we were long on good times and a little short on receipts. Nevertheless, we were glad we had snapped our fingers under old G. D.'s proboscis. They were three big nights of fun.

CHANGES IN STAFF PERSONNEL

The personnel of our Staff was somewhat altered from last year. For instance, Mike Guilford, assisted by Mrs. Ida Hagan and Mrs. Eva Branton, took over Mrs. Pine's job as Chef in the kitchen. More of him and his soda biscuits later. Then our dear and only Mrs. Springer was absent from the Household Goods Table; but, fortunately for us, we had the most efficient Mrs. Frederick Busch to fill the gap.

WE MISSED MRS. WOODRUFF

The one missed most of all was Mrs. Mary Woodruff at the Children's Table. Of course, Peggy Kensil and Lydia Maguire were splendid substitutes; but even they missed our child loving Mrs. Woodruff. How glad all of us would have been had she been able to come to the Bazaar, even just to visit. This is the first time for nearly twenty years that Mrs. Woodruff has been absent. As a matter of fact she was never absent before. What a record!

Joseph Leach and his gang of howlers had charge of the Radio. Aunt Annie nursed the dollies as usual. Miss Nuttall was the costermonger. John McHenry sold coffin nails and cabbages. Mrs. Young sold drinks, soft, hard and medium. The Y. P. F. retailed sweeties, etc.

The Yiddish counter of collar buttons, socks and suspenders was presided over by the biggest Hebrew salesman in the Parish. A man of no conscience and a monumental nerve; who would sell a pair of number twelve socks to an infant in arms and a pair of mitts to an armless cripple, in his reprehensible pursuit after the elusive dollar. As usual, Mrs. Frank Schmidt ruled serenely over the Fancy Goods and, in that quiet way of her's, she made every available dollar come hither. She earned almost as much this year as she did last year. Mrs. MacVaugh, of the sweet-smelling Larkin's Table, came through surprisingly well this year.

A COMPARISON WITH LAST YEAR

We thought it would be interesting to our readers if we were to show a comparison of receipts for 1931 and 1932 to see how close we came to reaching last year's figure in spite of the fact that old G. D., like a roaring lion, is going up and down the earth scaring the wits out of those who are foolish enough to listen to his bluff. Here is the comparison:

	1931	1932
Fancy Goods Booth	84.92	78.48
Candy and Soft Drinks	23.80	24.66
Doll Table	221.43	202.72
Radio Booth	120.45	76.65
Grocery Booth	29.50	39.01
Bagatelle Table	20.77	20.55
Kitchen	52.25	50.01
Men's Furnishings Booth	195.25	133.85
Larkins Booth	27.76	22.23
Household Goods Table	18.57	16.45
Cigars and Cigarettes		14.95
Baskets	.39.00
TOTAL	$833.70	$680.01

In other words our accounts, thus far, show we are about $175.44 short of last year's receipts. This deficit will be almost, if not completely, wiped out when all the tickets and goods to be paid for are settled up.

As ever, the Doll Table carries away the banner for receipts. The Men's Furnishings Table comes second and the Fancy Goods, third.

The big surprise of the Bazaar was in the way the kitchen held its own under new management. Last year the Rector invited as his guests for supper the members of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Church Choir and the Fellowship. Also, the group of women of St. Martha's House ate supper one night. This year the Rector very negligently forgot to invite the hard working members of these parish organizations and the group of women from St. Martha's did not pay their annual visit and yet there is a falling off of only $2.24 in the kitchen receipts.

Mike Guilford hit the bull's eye with his soda biscuits. Instead of serving rolls, he baked and served hot biscuits with his suppers. And how those biscuits were appreciated! After the regular supper the kitchen was besieged by a clamoring mob demanding biscuits by the dozen to be taken home. Folks waited for the biscuits to be baked and carried them away while they were too hot to handle.

We congratulate Herman Jaeschke, Vernon Matthews and the whole crowd of howlers for their successful and profitable noise. The leather lunged chorus were superb every night. They were never so good. MORE POWER TO THEM.

THE BAZAAR HELPS THE POOR

Thursday evening Mike came to us and said that there was some food left over at the close of the Bazaar and he would like to cook it up and give it to the poor. Of course, we liked the idea. He jumped back into the kitchen and in a minute pots and pans began to rattle while he cooked up all the fish cakes, oysters and clam chowder we hadn't sold. It was a sight to see the ecstatic expression on the faces of those who got the good hot eats. Every night of the Bazaar we contributed food to the hungry.

Also, Miss Nuttall contributed to the happiness of 37 poor families of the parish, filling as many big hand bags full of groceries, vegetables and fruit and giving them away. Over two hundred and twenty-five person were fed by this means.

Yes, the Bazaar was a big success, in every way. We will have another next year, the year after and every other year in spite of old General Depression.

Broadcasting From Station STJC

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL

"So you have married, eh? Got a girl like your mother, I suppose?"

"No, my wife is of the old-fashioned type."

Last Sunday a little girl came to me and said: "Please, will you give me a piece of paper?"

I replied: "Why do you want a piece of paper?"

Lifting up her foot she pointed to a big hole in the toe of her shoe and said—"I want it to keep the snow off my toes."

This incident occurred in the Sunday School room of a Christian church in Philadelphia, Sunday evening, December 11th, 1932.

HOW CAN SUCH THINGS BE?

"Oh well," soliloquized the shipwrecked traveler, "I have a raft of friends."

If you really want to have a Happy New Year for yourself make it a Happy New Year for others.

Brown: Do many bill collectors come to your door?

Blue: Yeah, more than I care to admit.

Everybody had a most enjoyable time at the Bazaar. It was a regular Parish Reunion.

WANTED—Young men for the Choir. Only those who are willing to come to Friday evening choir practice as well as to Sunday services need apply.

A Negro minister of the old-fashioned type once described a well-known but close-fisted brother as being "as stingy as Caesar." When asked why he thought Caesar was stingy, the minister replied: "Well, you see, when the Pharisees gave our Lord a penny, He asked them, 'Whose subscription is this?' and they answered, 'Caesar's.' "—From the Reformed Church Messenger.

Our Sunday School is bigger than it has been for fifteen years. We got a pretty late start on account of the Infantile Paralysis Epidemic, but we certainly made up for lost time when we did start.

Bobby and Sally were half way to school when the bell rang.

"O Bobby," said Sally, "we're going to be late. Let's stop and pray."

"Oh no," said her brother. "Come on! Let's run and pray!"—Submitted by Mrs. C. J. Black, Grove City, Pennsylvania.

It has been a hard year, but one lesson most of us learned as we came blundering through. It was—we are indeed our brother's keeper and sustainer.

Little three-year-old Bobby was attending a Sunday School entertainment, and when others applauded, thoroughly enjoyed clapping his hands. At the close of the program the minister offered a prayer. When he had finished, Bobby, noticing that there was no applause, piped out shrilly, "He didn't do so very well, did he, Mamma?"—Submitted by the Rev. Frank L. Orchard, Amherst, Nova Scotia.

All play and no work makes Jack a cake eater.

What Big People Think of the Sunday School

Opinion of Mrs. Edwin F. Miller, President, Indiana Federation of Women's Clubs:

"The Indiana Federation of Clubs favors the work of Sunday Schools in that they promote the finest kind of Character Education."

Opinion of Gerald P. Bye, U. S. Senator from North Dakota:

"The Sunday School is a very essential part of every social community and in spite of what some people call an apparent lack of efficiency in its conduct, the Sunday School has played a very large part in the building of men and women who can go into the world with a belief and confidence that enables them to contribute to the world's good. Not too much encouragement can be given to the building of the Sunday School and to its maintenance. It is playing a part that is very important to the future of mankind and of our country. The effect of moral and religious training cannot be discounted nor can there be any discounting of the need for greater moral and religious training."

Opinion of David Lloyd George, Formerly Premier of England, London, S.W.1, England:

"All that I am and whatever I have accomplished, I owe to the Sunday School."

Opinion of Wilhelmina Harper, Consulting Children's Librarian, Palo Alto, California:

"We can never do without the Sunday School. It is perhaps the most potent influence in the child's life. Since early impressions leave lifelong influences, our young people would not go far wrong if their attendance at Sunday School were regular from early school years. If we teach our boys and girls consideration, kindness and sympathy for their fellow men and fellow creatures, would not this be one of the most direct means toward the aim of 'peace on earth and good will toward men?' "

HOW THE POOR HELP THE POOR

Many a Noble and Self-Sacrificing Deed Is Done By the Poor Man for His Next Door Neighbor Without Any Thought of Reward

Many of the finest acts of disinterested charity are done by the man who "lives next door." He knows the woes of poverty by contact with it. He knows what it means to be out of a job and see his children hungry and see the landlord scowl. He himself may be in great need, but he is always ready to share his little with the more needy. The welfare of the poor next door neighbor is a source of great worry to him. There is no fuel to warm the family. The grocer, down at the corner, cannot afford to extend their credit. The milkman has become a stranger. The butcher would like to give them more time to pay the bill, but he, too, is reaching the financial limit in his business. He is already carrying too much credit on his books. The agent wants to extend the rent, which is several months overdue, but the owner is getting restive and is demanding settlement. The children's clothing are in tatters. The District Doctor is beginning to call at intervals. Then, one day the undertaker comes and takes away one of the family who died from exposure or starvation. The man next door sees and knows. There is nothing for him to do but to divide his little with his neighbor and he does it trusting in God that he will provide somehow.

Our parishioners have responded most nobly to the cry for help from next door.

TEN PER CENT GIFTS

Early in the year each employed parishioner of St. John's contributed ten per cent. of his or her week's wages to relieve the poor of the parish. All through the year the Rector received gifts of money, from ten cents to a dollar, from parishioners who wanted to help their neighbor next door.

THE HARVEST HOME FESTIVAL

In the fall of the year the parishioners gave a Harvest Home Festival. The price of admission was a package of groceries, vegetables, canned goods, fruit or clothing. A few dollars were also contributed. One old gentleman, crippled and supporting a wife on less than $10.00 per week, gave three dollars towards the Festival Fund because he could not be present. One Hundred and Fifty families, including scores of little children, were provided with big carryall bags full of food taken in at the door and half tons of coal were delivered to a few of the most needy families.

THE THANKSGIVING PARTY

Assisted by the INDEPENDENCE SQUARE LIONS CLUB our big hearted "next door neighbor" distributed twenty-six baskets of food to as many families, comprising 171 individuals. It was a freezing cold night, but the Parish House was warm as cotton. We had folk songs, games, singing (not roaring) by the Lions, piano selections and a general good time. Were the twenty-six families happy? You should have been there to see for yourself?

HOW THE BAZAAR HELPED THE POOR

Every night of the Bazaar the Parish remembered the poor. Before closing for the night the Chef would cook up all the food he had left over in the kitchen and give it steaming hot to those who needed it most. Oysters, cod fish cakes, clam chowder, hot dogs, sauer kraut, hamburgers, vegetables, biscuits, etc., etc., were given away.

Also, the things left over on the Grocery Table were piled into carryall bags and given away to 37 families of unemployed, comprising 228 individuals. In these bags were potatoes, cabbages, oranges, apples, coffee, tea, salt, sugar, canned goods, soap, preserves, corn starch and a dozen other items to gladden the hearts of the needy—there were even cans of condensed milk.

Thus do the Poor Parishioners of St. John's

Church help their own poor, so far as they are able, seemingly unconscious of the big thing they are doing and every deed is begun and completed with a matter-of-factness which in itself is a silent but eloquent tribute to the sense of duty that urges the POOR TO HELP THE POOR in his distress.

Are you willing to stoop down and consider the needs and the desires of little children to remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old; to stop asking how much your friends love you, but rather to ask yourself whether you love them enough; to bear in mind the things that other people have to bear on their hearts; to trim your lamp so that it will give more light and less smoke, and to carry it in front so that your shadow will fall behind you; to make a grave for your ugly thoughts, and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate wide open—these even for a day? Then you are worthy of a place in this world.—Selections by Henry van Dyke.

On a busy street corner in Berkeley, Calif., one day stood Mrs. Margaret Wilson, the comptometer operator, waiting for someone to help her across the intersection. A man stepped up and asked, "May I go across with you?"

"I'd be very glad if you would," replied Mrs. Wilson.

Safely across the street the man thanked her, but Mrs. Wilson wanted to thank the man. "You know," the man continued, "when one has been blind as many years as I have it's a mighty big favor to have someone help him across the street."—Kessinger's Mid-West Review."

Sylvester S. Garrett
Headquarters for
PAPER and CORDAGE
For Every Purpose
259 South Third Street

SHIPLEY'S For Coughs and Colds
If You Cannot Get It at Your Druggist's, Call—
Howard 9667—Telephone Charge Will Be Refunded
GILES' DRUG STORE
Second and Federal Streets

The Merchants whose advertisements are found here are leaders in their line of business. They want your trade and solicit your patronage through your own paper. Patronize them, they are worthy of your co-operation.

DID YOU?

Did you give him a lift? He's a brother of man, and bearing about all the burden he can.

Did you give him a smile? He was downcast and blue, and the smile would have helped him to battle it through.

Did you give him a hand? He was slipping downhill, and the world, so I fancied, was using him ill.

Did you give him a word? Did you show him the road? Or did you just let him go on with his load?

Did you help him along? He is human, like you. But the grasp of your hand would have carried him through.

Did you bid him good cheer? Just a word and a smile were what he most needed that last weary mile.

Did you know what he bore in that burden of cares that is every man's load, and that sympathy shares?

Did you try to find out what he needed from you, or did you just leave him to battle it through?

Do you know what it means to be losing the fight when a lift just in time might set everything right?

Do you know what it means—just the clasp of a hand—when a man's borne all that a man ought to stand?

—Southern Churchman.

BIBLE HELPS IN TIMES OF DIFFICULTY

If you are depressed, read the Twenty-seventh Psalm.

If your pocketbook is empty, read the Thirty-seventh Psalm.

If you are losing confidence in people, read the Thirteenth Chapter of First Corinthians.

If people seem unkind, read the Fifteenth Chapter of S. John.

If you are discouraged about your work, read the Hundred and Twenty-sixth Psalm.

If you find the world growing small, and yourself great, read the Nineteenth Psalm.

If you cannot have your own way in everything, keep silent, and read the Third Chapter of S. James.

If you are at all out of sorts, read the Twelfth Chapter of the Epistle to the Hebrews.

—S. George in the East Parish Magazine.

The Parish Broadcaster

VOL. 7, No. 2 PHILADELPHIA, FEBRUARY, 1933 By Mail $1.00 Yearly

The Parish Broadcaster

Published in the interests of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, N. W. Corner Third and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. H. CRESSON McHENRY, Editor.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00.

Subscriptions mailed to any address.

PARISH DIRECTORY

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Missionary.
Mr. Vernon Matthews, Layreader.
Miss Hannah H. Nuttall, Parish Visitor.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

PARISH COMMITTEE

John Weber
Vernon Matthews
William MacVaugh
Rudolph Woener, Sr.
George Cressee, Jr.
Samuel Snell, Sr.
B. Frank Drumm.
John Nelson, Jr.
William Little, Secretary
Joseph Leach
John Spratt
John E. McHenry

CHANCEL GUILD

Mrs. Vernon Matthews
Mrs. James Adgate.
Mrs. F. Ammerman, Jr.
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Lydia Maguire
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Mr. George Cressee, Jr., Superintendent.
Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Secretary.
Mr. John Nelson, Jr., Treasurer.

THE CHOIR

Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Director

Mrs. Vernon Matthews, Organist and Choirleader

Sopranos

Miss Helen Ashman
Mrs. Harry Hopkins
Mrs. Herman Jaeschke
Miss Margaret Kensil
Miss Martha Lafferty
Miss Lydia Maguire
Miss Adelia Pearo
Miss Ethel Stenger
Miss Thelma Sutterlin
Miss Viola Young

Altos

Mrs. James Adgate
Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mrs. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.
Miss Dorothy Stenger
Miss May Leach

Tenors

Mr. James Adgate
Mr. Harry McCall
Mr. Heber Rutter
Mr. Jeremiah K. Rutter, Jr.

Basses

Mr. Herman Jaeschke
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. John J. Nelson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel McDowell
Mr. Robert Rutter

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

Woman's Auxiliary

Mrs. John J. Nelson, Jr., Secretary.
Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Treasurer.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Vernon Matthews, Director.
Carl Jensen Vice-Director.
Frank Drumm, Secretary.
Philip Meckling Treasurer.

Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Michael Guilford, Councillor.
Joseph Leach, Director.

Daughters of the King

Miss M. B. Fisher, Directress.
Mrs. Rudolph Woerner, Secretary.
Mrs. Laura Young, Treasurer.

Girl Scout Troop, No. 50

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Captain.

Young Women's Christian League

Mrs. Annie Beisser, President.

St. John's Fellowship

H. Cresson McHenry, Chaplain

HOLY COMMUNION EVERY FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10:45 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Gallagher, John Pershing
Leavey, Ida May

BURIALS

Fink, Robert
French, John B.
Simkins, Josephine

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday	A. M.	P. M.
Morning Prayer and Sermon	10.45
Sunday School		2.30
St. John's Fellowship		7.30
Evening Service and Address		8.00
Monday
Young Women's Christian League		8.00
Tuesday
Girl Scout Troop		8.00
Wednesday
Child Clinic		1.30
Daughters of the King		8.00
2nd and 4th Thursdays
Brotherhood of St. Andrew		8.00
Friday
Choir Rehearsal		8.00
Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew		7.30
Announced
Woman's Auxiliary

THE KINGDOM OF MAN

What of the outer drear,
As long as there's inner light;
As long as the sun of cheer
Shines ardently bright?

As long as the soul's a-wing,
As long as the heart is true,
What power hath trouble to bring
A sorrow to you?

No bar can encage the soul,
Nor capture the spirit free,
As long as old earth shall roll,
Or hours shall be.

Our world is the world within,
Our life is the thought we take,
And never an outer sin
Can mar it or break.

Brood not on the rich man's land,
Sigh not for miser's gold,
Holding in reach of your hand
The treasure untold.

That lies in the Mines of Heart,
That rests in the soul alone—
Bid worry and care depart,
Come into your own!

The Daily Dozen for Toleration

Wm. H. Jefferys, M. D.

EXERCISE 2.

When you read Exercise 1 last month, how did you react to it? Did you get mad and throw it in the scrap-basket; or start in to argue why the Episcopal Church was better than all the rest put together? Or were you just uninterested? Do you care to have the fellowship of other Christian bodies? For my own part, I do not think that Christianity will survive unless the Christian bodies so-called can get together in fellowship and work. I do not mean that they all have to worship the same way, or think just alike. That would be ridiculous. But I would like to see a time come when every Christian body could recognize the good points of every other one; and when it would not consider it a departure from the Faith for a person of artistic temperament, who finds himself born a Methodist, to change to a Catholic Communion; or for a Quaker, who is born a Catholic, to leave that Communion and join the company of his fellow "inner lighters."

As for Missions, Christian Missions will slowly die of inward rot unless we can show those among whom we are doing mission work that Christianity is able to draw us to each other, instead of dividing us into innumerable more or less hostile camps.

Let us try a similar experiment this month, changing our attempt at fellowship from the group of Christian bodies so-called, to the group of world religions. I went to China as a Missionary with the feeling that my job was to root out the false (?) religions of China (there are four of them) and plant Christianity in their place. I came away from China, owing to bad health, but having learned that Mohammedanism is the result of an attempt to force Old Testament Christianity on the world by military power; that Confucianism is a tremendous force for holding a nation together; that Tauism is the result of the profound thinking of a very great philosopher on the problems of life and immortality; and that Buddhism is the following of a life which is the nearest life to that of Jesus, that I have ever known, that did not come into a living knowledge of Jesus. I always keep an image of Buddha in my home in a prominent place in my study, and include him among my own personal most revered saints; and I have said of him, in writing, that if Buddha should hear Jesus speaking anywhere in the universe he would recognize Him as his Master.

All the religions of the world are steps on the Way, attempts—feeble sometimes, but sincere—to find God. It so happens that in Christianity we have as our light the Life of One Who travelled the whole road from the birth of the flesh to perfect spiritual communion with the Eternal Spirit. Others have travelled part of the Way. That is the only difference between Christianity and other religions. Jesus says: "Follow Me, and I will show you how to find the Father."

Take any one of the great religions—Buddhism particularly, because the other Hindu religions are much more difficult for most of us to get at; pick out in Buddhism the essentials: the life of Buddha, the master; his high fortune as a Prince of Northern India; who left his kingdom to find the secret of helping the helpless; who gathered around him a band of disciples; who taught them everything as far as he was able to find the way, himself. He found a great deal of light on the way; he learned thoroughly the lesson of the love of his fellow-men and of the gracious simplicity of poverty; but never arrived at the consciousness of the super-personality of the Eternal Spirit Millions of men have followed Buddha, to their souls' everlasting benefit.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew Supper

Good Speaks Good Sings Good Eats

THE SCENERY

It was a cold, raw night outside, but it was warm as toast within. Scattered around the big Sunday School room were numerous small tables spread with bright-colored tablecloths of every shade of the rainbow. They were beautifully decorated and full of all sorts of tempting things. While waiting for our special speaker the members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew sat around and hungrily eyed the toothsome things and wondered how long their patience would hold out.

THE SUPPER

In the kitchen, ready to serve, waited that most efficient kitchen cabinet, Mrs. Charles Hagen, Mrs. John Branton, Miss Peggy Kensil and Miss Lydia Maguire. They served a most appetizing and filling menu. It was:

Chicken Croquet

Cold Boiled Ham

Saratoga Potatoes Green Peas

Bread and Butter

American Cheese Ice Cream

Coffee

The portions were not only generous, but everybody got seconds, whether he wanted them or not. Our kitchen cabinet knew what was good for us and practically said: "You eat or mamma pank!" So we "eat."

THE SPEAKERS

After we could hold no more, the Master of Ceremonies and Director of the Brotherhood, Mr. Vernon Matthews, staggered to his feet and with a few well-chosen words, most of which we are sure he found in the Dictionary, introduced Mr. W. B. Coleman, popularly known in some quarters as "Bill." Brother Coleman brought a heart and head packed full of helpful thoughts. The beauty of the speech was the way he clothed it in simple one-syllable words which we all understood. It was one of the finest spiritual talks we have heard for many a day. There was no affectation or cant about it. It was a straight-from-the-shoulder practical talk on Christian living. Such a talk that every man appreciates and knows he needs.

He was followed by Mr. William Rutherford, who though taken unawares gave us a creditable little talk about the promise of the New Year. Bill, the second, is sure full of optimism and we are hoping what he prognosticated (whew!!) will come true. We are all set for good times and happy days.

THE MUSIC

Interspersed throughout the program was folk-singing, some secular, some sacred, and all sung with a hearty good-will, even if it did lack harmony, time, rhythm, tone, color, etc., etc. We who sang liked it, others shouldn't have listened.

BUTTONS

Several of the men present were installed just the Sunday evening before. At that time we did not have enough Brotherhood Buttons. On the night of the Brotherhood supper the Rector presented these new members with their buttons.

THE YEAR'S WORK

Incidentally, we wish to say that the past year has been the most active year of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. We now have a membership of forty-five strong. But it is not the size of the membership that counts so much as does the wonderful program of work they have put across. The Harvest Home Festival was the result of their suggestion. The increase in men and boys at all church services was due to their activity. The enormous increase of men and boys receiving the sacraments was a part of their efforts. The hospital and institutional visitation of sick men and boys was added to their list of activities. The time each unemployed man gave to the church was purely voluntary, but immensely helpful. The way our members seek out new members and candidates for confirmation is inspiring.

They have done a year's work of which the Rector is proud and takes pleasure in expressing his pride.

A WISE MAN

A wise man will make haste to forgive, because he knows the true value of time, and will not suffer it to pass away in unnecessary pain. He that willingly suffers the corrosions of inveterate hatred, and gives up his days and nights to the gloom of malice and perturbations of stratagem, cannot surely be said to consult his ease. Resentment is a union of sorrow with malignity, a combination of a passion which all endeavor to avoid, with a passion which all concur to detest. The man who retires to meditate mischief and to exasperate his own rage, whose thoughts are employed only on means of distress and contrivances of ruin, whose mind never pauses from the remembrance of his own sufferings, but to indulge some hope of enjoying the calamities of another, may justly be numbered among the most miserable of human beings, among those who are guilty without reward, who have neither the gladness of prosperity nor the calm of innocence.

The Standing Army

List of Christmas Donors

Adams, Mrs. Helen
Adgate, James
Adgate, Mrs. James
Anonymous
Anonymous
Armstrong, Miss Florence
Ashmen, Wesley B.
Ashmen, Helen
Ashmen, Dorothy
Ashmen, Mrs. Wesley

Barnes, Sr., William
Barnes, E.
Barnes, Mrs. William
Barnes, Jr., William
Barnes, Mrs. Cecelia
Barnes, Edward
Barnes, Joseph
Bauer, Miss Catherine
Beisser, Charles
Beisser, Mrs. Charles
Beisser, Miss Mamie
Benson, Mrs. Madeline
Blech, Charles
Blech, Mrs. Charles
Boehner, William
Boehner, Mrs. William
Bradley, Sara
Branton, Mr. & Mrs. John
Bricker, Mrs. Jennie
Brown, William
Brown, Edward S.
Bunting, Walter
Bunting, Mrs. Walter
Busch, John
Busch, Mrs. Frederick
Busch, Frederick
Busch, Harry
Busch, Mrs. John

Capie, Mrs. Jennie
Capie, Richard
Capie, Joseph and Family
Carbarnes, Anna
Carbarnes, Mrs. Harry
Carbarnes, Harry
Carney, Marie
Carr, Mrs. Elizabeth
Celestino, John
Celestino, Rose
Chamberlain, Mrs. James, Jr.
Chestnut, Jennie
Chestnut, Robert
Chestnut, Reba
Clark, Kathleen
Clark, Harry
Clendenning, William
Clendenning, Charles
Clerico, Ferdy
Clerico, Mrs. Ferdy
Connelly, Marie
Connelly, Mrs. C.
Corson, Mrs. Mary
Coyle, John
Cressee, George, Sr.
Cressee, George, Jr.
Cressee, Raymond
Cressee, Mrs. George, Sr.
Cunningham, Walter, Jr.

Darr, Walter
Daughters of the King
Davis, Mrs. Amelia
Davis, Mrs. Margaret
Davis, Naomi
Dean, Mrs. Mary
Dean, Ruth
DeYoung, Mrs. Irene
Dick, Joseph
Dickhart, Mr. William
Dietrich, Marie
Dingler, Mrs. Annie
Dolhnzyk, Michael
Dougherty, Mrs. Frances
Dougherty, Mrs. Jennie
Dougherty, William
Dougherty, Joseph
Doyle, Francis
Drumm, Robert
Drumm, Benjamin F.
Dunbar, Elizabeth
Dunbar, Irma

Edgers, Mrs. Amanda
Embershied, Mrs. Annie
Endicott, Harry
Evans, Thomas

Falck, Edward
Fanger, Mrs. Harry
Feinauer, Mrs. Amy
Felder, Heywood
Ferrell, Florence
Fisher, Miss M. Beatrice
Fitzpatrick, Edward
Fitzpatrick, Mrs. C.
Fowler, Dolly
Fowler, Mrs. Marie
Friend, Florence

Gallagher, Mrs. Kate
Gallagher, Robert
Garson, Walter
Garson, Mrs. John
Garson, Robert
Garson, John
Gibson, Mrs. Laura
Green, William
Greenfield, Mrs. Lydia
Greenfield, Robert
Gregory, Mrs. George
Gregory, George
Gregory, George
Gresh, Mrs. Margaret
Griggs, Mrs. Elizabeth
Griggs, Anna

Hagan, Charles, Jr.
Hagan, Michael
Hagan, Mrs. Charles, Sr.
Hagan, Charles, Sr.
Hall, Mrs. Anna
Hamilton, Mrs. Florence
Harris, Marie
Hartman, John
Hartman, William E., Sr.
Hartman, William E., Jr.
Hasson, William
Hasson, Mrs. William
Haury, Mary
Henckle, Mrs. Rebecca
Heinemann, Raymond
Heinemann, Jr., Harry
Heinemann, Edna
Heinemann, Sherman
Heinemann, Anna Jane
Heinemann, Charles
Heinemann, Harry
Heinemann, Mrs. Harry
Henderson, William
Henderson, Irvin
Henderson, James
Henderson, Mrs. Laura
Henderson, Catherine
Henderson, Theresa
Henderson, Laura
Hill, Florence
Hogg, Margaret
Holton, Joseph
Holton, Elizabeth
Holton, Margaret
Holton, Edna
Holton, Alice
Holton, Mrs. Margaret

Jacobus, Mrs. Edward
Jackson, Elsie
Jaeschke, Gus
Jaeschke, Mrs. Gus
Jaeschke, Herman
Jaeschke, Mrs. Herman
Jensen, Mrs. Carl
Jensen, Carl E.

Kaiser, Emma
Kaiser, Mrs. Emma
Karstein, Lillian
Karstein, Elizabeth
Kelly, Anna
Kelly, Frank
Kelly, Mrs. Mary
Kelly, Raymond
Kensil, John
Kensil, Margaret
Kensil, William
King, William
King, Anna M.
King, Anne J.
Knowlton, Frank, Jr.
Knowlton, Mrs. Anna
Knowlton, Frank
Konowal, Joseph
Konowal, Peter
Konowal, Michael
Konowal, Mrs. Michael
Konowal, Louis
Korbal, Mrs. Frances
Kraft, Ornet
Kraft, Edward
Krause, Mrs. Sarah

Lafferty, Martha
Later, Albert A.
Later, Albert
Later, Mrs. Margaret
Lawrence, James
Lawrence, George
Lawrence, Catharine
Lawrence, George, Jr.
Lawrence, Mrs. Mary
Leach, Ella
Leach, Joseph
Leach, May
Leach, S. Bowman

THE STANDING ARMY - - Continued

Lenhardt, David
Lenhardt, Margaret
Lenhardt, Eleanor
Lenhardt, David
Lenhardt, Mrs. Margaret
Little, Joseph
Little, Mrs. Mary

McAvoy, Mrs. Lillian
McCall, Elmina
McCall, Harry
McDowell, Mrs. Mary
McDowell, Samuel
McHenry, John E.
McKane, Beatrice

MacVaugh, William
MacVaugh, Mrs. Anna
MacVaugh, Sylvania

Maguire, Lydia
Maguire, Mrs. Eliza
Maguire, George
Major, William
Marnie, Thomas
Matthews, Mrs. Vernon
Matthews, Vernon
Meckling, Philip
Mehring, Mrs. Anna
Meneely, Mrs. Lillian
Meyers, Charles
Meyers, Mrs. Charles
Miller, Eleanor
Miller, Mrs. Dorothy
Miller, Warren
Miller, Anna
Miller, Dorothy
Miller, Walter
Miller, Robert
Morse, Mrs. Julia
Mount, Anna
Munion, Winthrop
Munion, Mrs. Benjamin
Munion, Eleanor
Munion, Benjamin
Munion, Mary
Munion, Harry
Murphy, Mrs. Margaret

Nelson, Mrs. John
Nelson, John
Newman, Mrs. Lena
Nilsson, Anna
Nilsson, Mrs. Anna
Nugent, William
Nugent, Eleanor
Nugent, William, Jr.
Nuttall, Hannah

O'Donnell, Mrs. Katharine
Oliver, Mrs.
Olsen, Mrs. Anna
Olsen, Blanche
Olsen, John
Orr, Richard
Orr, Mrs. Mary
Outen, Charles
Outen, Elizabeth
Outen, Dr. & Mrs. Charles

Patterson, Mrs. John C., Jr.
Patterson, John C., Jr.
Patterson, Mrs. Anna
Pearo, Adelia
Pierce, Evelyn St. Clair
Pierce, Mrs. Eva
Preole, James
Preole, John C.
Preole, Ruth
Preole, John F.

Quaile, Mrs. Clara
Quaile, Dorothy

Rand, Mr. & Mrs. Andrew
Raymond, George J.
Raymond, Emma
Redding, Louisa
Redding, Frances
Redding, Dorothy
Reynolds, Jennie
Righter, Bertha
Robins, Mabel
Robins, Mrs. Anna
Robins, Miss Anna
Robins, Joseph
Roddy, Dora
Rodebaugh, Ellwood
Rodebaugh, Samuel
Rodebaugh, Dorothy
Rodebaugh, Susan
Rodebaugh, Howard
Rogers, Norman
Rogers, Raymond
Ross, Catharine
Rudderow, Mrs. Bertha
Rutter, James
Rutter, Catharine
Rutter, Michael
Rutter, Edward
Rutter, Rose
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Heber
Rutter, Charles
Rutter, Elizabeth
Rutter, Jennie
Rutter, Mrs. Jeremiah J.
Rutter, Jeremiah K.
Rutter, Robert
Rutter, Ruth

Sayers, Elmer
Sayers, Eugene
Schaab, Frederick H.
Schabacker, Miss Anna
Schlembac, Catharine
Schlembac, Joseph
Schlembac, Julius
Schmidt, Frank G.
Schmidt, Mrs. Frank G.
Schweppenheiser, Charles
Schweppenheiser, Mrs. Mabel C.
Seher, Mary
Seher, Miss Catharine
Seher, Margaret
Seher, Thomas
Shields, Bella
Shields, Electa
Shoch, Mrs. Minnie
Silbert, Mrs. Ella
Silbert, Ella
Silbert, George
Silbert, Philip
Simpson, Emma
Skelly, William
Snell, Samuel, Sr.
Snell, Mrs. Samuel, Sr.
Snell, Samuel, Jr.
Snell, Mrs. Samuel, Jr.
Snell, Richard
Snell, Mrs. Richard
Snell, Richard
Snell, Mrs. Richard
Snell, Richard
Spratt, Catherine
Spratt, James
Spratt, Margaret
Spratt, John, Jr.
Spratt, John, Jr.
Spratt, John
Spratt, Finley
Spratt, Thomas
Springer, Mrs. Annie
Stenger, Ethel
Stenger, Laura
Stenger, Dorothy
Stockman, Harry
Stockman, Elizabeth C.
Stockman, Samuel
Stockman, Florence
Stockman, James
Stockman, Elizabeth
Stockman, Robert
Stone, David S.
Stone, William
Strang, Carrie
Stryker, Harry
Substale, Florence
Sutterlin, Thelma
Sutterlin, Mrs. Ethel
Sweeney, James
Sweeney, Mrs. James

Taylor, Ethel E.
Taylor, Benjamin Franklin
Taylor, Sarah
Tittermary, Edward
Tittermary, Harry, Jr.
Tittermary, Harry, Sr.
Tittermary, Johanna
Tomlin, Evelyn
Tomlin, Joseph

Volpe, Peter
Vongalast, Mrs. Jeanette

Walto, Miss Bertha
Ward, Miss Mildred
Ward, Abraham, Sr.
Watts, Miss Sarah
Weber, Mrs. John
Weber, John
Welsh, Albert
Welsh, William P.
Wilson, Mr. & Mrs. Richard
Winters, William
Woerner, Rudolph, Sr.
Woerner, Eleanor
Woerner, Mrs. Rudolph, Sr.
Woerner, Beatrice
Woodworth, Mrs. Minerva

Young, Mrs. Laura
Young, William
Young, Viola
Young Peoples Fellowship
Young Women's Christian League
Ziegler, Mr. & Mrs. John

The Daughters of the King

How They Did a Big Job and Got Big Results

As is his annual custom, the Rector audited the accounts of the Parish prior to sending out the Church Envelopes on the first Sunday in Advent. He compared the names on the Warden's book with the Parish Card Index and discovered that there were hundreds of our communicants who did not have Church Envelopes at all. He made a complete list of their names and addresses. Then he called upon Miss Fisher, who is the Directress of the Daughters of the King, and told her of the results and how he thought a survey of the Parish ought to be made for the specific purpose of learning whether these hundreds of non-supporting Parishioners were too poor or just not inclined to bear a share of our financial burden; or whether we were overlooking certain communicants who would help if they were asked. He made it plain that he would like the Daughters of the King to make a thorough survey of the Parish and let him have the results at their earliest convenience. The Rector knew it was a big job and would take the concentrated effort of just such an organization to do the job. Just a few weeks before Christmas he met the Daughters of the King in conference in one of their regular meetings. He was delighted with the results of their endeavors and received some unexpected sidelights on his Parish. Each Daughter of the King had been most faithful and had visited every person assigned to her, with the exception of a few who lived either in South Jersey or West Philadelphia. Their reports were most satisfactory. After they were all in the survey revealed that there were certain headings under which each family could be written. Such as:

1. Those who would share the burden if given envelopes.
2. Those too poor to give.
3. Unemployed, consequently unable to pledge now.
4. Working part time and have not enough to support the family.
5. Moved, address unknown.
6. Nobody home, necessary to make second visit.
7. Have joined some other communion.
8. Too far to visit.

Each visitor reported that where they went they were treated most cordially. Folk seemed glad to learn that they were important enough for the church to follow up.

A few asked whether it would be O. K. to give a cent a day in their envelopes until they were able to give more. Indeed, such gifts to the Parish would be most acceptable, and would be received in the spirit in which they were given. Do not be ashamed of the size of your gift if you are giving all you can afford. Be ashamed and repentant if you are giving nothing if you are able to give.

The Daughters of the King are asked by the Rector to follow up their original survey to see that definite results come from their efforts.

One of the results of the survey was the issuing of about thirty-five more packages of Church Envelopes to new contributors. That in itself justified the work of the Daughters of the King. But the other points mentioned were also important to learn, especially about those who have moved and their present address is unknown. We give a list of these names so far as we have them at present. If any parishioner can give us the present address of any of these missing persons and will take the trouble to do so we will be grateful. The names are:

Mrs. Mary C. Moran
Mrs. Mary J. Neher
Raymond and Mary Reisner
Charlotte Sink
Raymond and Norman Rodgers
Mrs. Theodoria Renke
John, Francis and William Rhodes

STATIC ON THE AIR

Now that the holidays are over let's all get set for Easter.

Truck-drivers like their profession because they run into so many interesting people.

Ash Wednesday is March 1st.

Easter Day is April 16th.

Asked the meaning of the word "budget," one pupil answered seriously, "It's a family quarrel."

The members of St. John's Church aided over one thousand poor persons by giving them food, clothing, coal, rent and jobs during 1932.

Pretty good record for one of the poorest parishes of the Diocese.

There is no such thing as idle gossip. Gossip is always most industrious.

The Christmas Communion was the largest in the history of the Parish.

An Appalachian guide, discussing his wife, remarked: She has a very even temper—she is always mad.

Christmas at the Mission of the Transfiguration was a busy day. Though the weather was rainy and uncomfortable a large congregation of worshipers was present.

The modern home is one in which a switch regulates everything but the children.

The Independence Square Lions Club helped the Parish to give Christmas baskets and chickens to nearly 400 poor. We are sure they must have enjoyed their Christmas.

Happiness is a perfume you cannot pour on others without getting a few drops on yourself.—EMERSON.

The worst bankrupt in the world is the man who has lost his enthusiasm. Let him lose everything else but enthusiasm and he will come through again to success.
—H. W. ARNOLD.

How are your New Year's Resolutions holding up?

Some months ago Gene Tunney refereed a charity wrestling match between two husky heavyweights. After the bout, Gene noticed that one of the big fellows wore the button of a veterans' organization.

"Ever overseas?" asked Tunney.

"Sure," the wrestler replied. "Wasn't I gassed over there? And don't I get $100 a month permanent disability?"—American Magazine.

We congratulate Margaret Nelson for the way the Christmas play was presented.

"Mother, did you ever hear a rabbit bark?"

"Rabbits don't bark, dear."

"That's funny. My storybook says the rabbits eat cabbage and bark."

Just look at that list of Christmas contributors! Count the names! Over 400! Longest list we ever published! They gave from a nickel to twenty-five dollars! Christmas offering almost as large as last year! That's what co-operation does! Hurrah for the nickels and dimes!!!

The Lions and the Christmas Baskets

How 380 Persons Were Made Merry on Christmas Day

One would expect to read a fairy story on glancing at the headline of this article. But although it tells of all sorts of happy situations made possible by a number of benevolent and friendly Lions it is a true story in every particular.

On Thursday, December 22d, fifty-five families, ranging from twelve to four in each family, and totaling three hundred and eighty persons, were the guests of the Independence Square Lions Club at St. John's Parish House, Third and Reed Streets. The members of the club co-operated with the Parish and entertained the guests with music and singing. Mrs. John Nelson, Jr., happened to be training girls for the Sunday School Christmas festival on the same night. At the request of the Rector she generously added to the program by getting the girls to sing some selections from their play for the benefit of the Lions' guests. At the end of the program the guests were made the happy recipients of big baskets of groceries and chickens enough to satisfy the biggest appetite of any big family.

The names of the guest families were selected from a special list of desperately poor folk the Rector keeps. It was a task to choose the most needy and the most deserving. However, we tried hard to be impartial in our judgment and in our choice. We were fully aware that there were families who could have made very good use of a Christmas basket whom we did not add to our list. Their names would have appeared if our funds had been larger. We were in the unfortunate position of choosing a few from many. We did the best we could, conscious there were others just as worthy as those we chose, who were neglected.

Maybe some day we will have sufficient funds to help all our poor parishioners.

In the meantime we thank the Lions for co-operating as generously as they did.

CHRISTMAS AT ST. JOHN'S

A Day of Wonderful Experiences

Yes, the day was dark and dreary. It rained and rained and rained. Then it rained again. The day was uncomfortably warm and dampness seemed to ooze through everything. Emphatically speaking, it was not Christmas weather.

Storm Could Not Dampen the Christmas Ardour

And yet, what a wonderful Christmastide we had! First of all we had the pleasure of the presence of the Rev. Dallas M. Buzby, who is always most welcome to our communicants. Mr. Buzby assisted the Rector at both services, which meant so much to the Rector.

THE CONGREGATIONS

The 6.30 o'clock service was well attended, as usual. But the 11.00 o'clock service was the surprise of the day. Generally, when so many communicants come to the early celebration, there is a smaller congregation at the late celebration. This year the reverse was the order of the day. Although the early celebration was largely attended the later celebration was attended by a congregation almost twice as large. And, what is more to the point, more communicants received their Christmas communion than in any previous year. The Rector was most fortunate in having Mr. Buzby to assist him; for he could never have officiated alone at two such services. The congregations were larger than one priest could manage.

THE CHANCEL

The chancel was beautiful! On all three sides was a solid drapery of laurel. On the wall behind the altar there were hundreds of little golden electric bulbs woven in and out of the laurel. The effect was like an exquisite old tapestry of green and gold of indeterminate design.

On the altar were white carnations in great profusion. The background of green and the white flowers and linen on the dark walnut altar made a perfect picture.

Along the iron fretwork of the choir, around the organ, the pulpit and the font were hung large Christmas wreaths. On the north and south walls of the church, between the windows, were hung wreaths also.

THE MUSIC

While the choir sang "God in Man Made Manifest," by Stuts, Dr. Buzby remarked upon the beautiful and polished manner the choir was rendering the service. One of the most impressive parts of the musical program was where the choir and congregation, kneeling, sang for the Communion Hymn "Silent Night, Holy Night." It was then one felt all the wonder and inspiration of Christmastide.

Yes, it was stormy without; but sweetly beautiful within.

The Christmas Offering

As we expected, our Christmas offering was one hundred dollars less than last Christmas. Yet, our offering is well worth mentioning. Because, even if we were so much behind last year in actual dollars and cents, the number of contributors this Christmas far outnumbered any previous Christmas. This is most significant. It means that many more communicants are learning that offerings are a part of their worship. And even though they can give but little, they give it gladly.

When the whole congregation, the employed and the unemployed, the old and the young, finally reach that point in their religious and spiritual experience give God praise through offerings the Church will have no further need for artificial means of raising funds to support God's work.

Our Sunday School Christmas Festival

The Possibilities It Suggested

Every rector and superintendent of Sunday School observe the wonderful growth in attendance at Sunday School sessions just before Christmas with their tongue in their cheek. They know the whyness thereof. Our experience this Christmas was just the same as usual in this respect, only more so. Scholars we had not seen for years honored us with their presence. Some of them were embarrassed, however, when they returned to Sunday School only to find they had been absent so long that their old class had been merged with some other class and that their former teacher had got married, or died, or moved from this vicinity and no longer taught. Under such trying circumstances they adapted themselves to their environments, so to speak, and registered in whatever class was suggested.

Wednesday, December 28, we had our Sunday School Christmas festival. The Parish house was jammed from door to stage. Folk were standing six deep in the back part of the room. The aisles, contrary to law, were blocked with children and adults. There were about six hundred people meant to accommodate four hundred and fifty. Eighty-five per cent. were boys and girls, young men and young women of Sunday School age. About fifty per cent. were actually members of St. John's S. S. and attended its sessions with reasonable regularity. The others were Merry Christmas scholars.

And that is what impressed us with certain possibilities. Why was fifty per cent. of that big crowd of youth just temporary members? Was it because they were altogether selfish and sought to sneak-thief their way to a box of candy, an orange and a toy? Maybe so. But why!!!

Perhaps our Sunday School is to blame. Perhaps the Rector is not measuring up to the opportunity. Perhaps the sessions are too dry and uninteresting. Perhaps there are a score of other reasons why this great mass of floating youth has not been anchored to our school. We cannot help but see that every boy and girl, young man and young woman, is a possibility. But we do not see how these interesting possibilities can be converted into reliabilities. We want suggestions how to capture the interest and regularity of this crowd of young folk.

Have You Any Suggestion to Offer?

Dewey 7113 Repairing

HOWARD F. FRICK
Jeweler
1727 South Second Street

Sylvester S. Garrett
Headquarters for
PAPER and CORDAGE
For Every Purpose
259 South Third Street

SHIPLEY'S For Coughs and Colds
If You Cannot Get It at Your Druggist's, Call—
Howard 9667—Telephone Charge Will Be Refunded
GILES' DRUG STORE
Second and Federal Streets

